

Chapter 1389

The three were trapped in the large net; they were packed like sardines. Darryl could smell the pleasant scent on Celine's body now and then.

"My beautiful Celine!"

As he sighed discreetly, Darryl turned to Celine and said, "This net must have been made from some special materials, so you can't cut it open forcibly with your internal energy! Even if you are a powerful Heaven Ascension level cultivator, you wouldn't be able to tear it apart. Why don't you release my acupoints and let me have a go at it?"

Darryl wanted to burn the net with his White Lotus Cold Flame, which could burn anything easily.

"How do you know that I can't do it?" Celine responded plainly and continued to use her internal energy to break the net, but it did not work.

"Look, I told you so!"

"Don't speak; let me think of a way."

"You're really stubborn." A sigh was heard.

Pitter-patter...

The two were still quarreling when they heard footsteps from the depths of the woods. The sound was quite light; they were obviously not ordinary people.

Darryl turned around quickly to take a look.

F*ck...

'Who are these people?'

Four men and four women approached them quickly; they looked like they were around 30 years old. The four men looked rather handsome, and the four women were also quite good-looking. Of course, they were not as beautiful as Celine and Queenie.

Their dressing sense was rather weird. The men had long hair; some of them wore suits, and some wore robes. The women wore very sexy clothing; they portrayed an eccentric appearance. However, none of those was important. One should only note that those people were all Martial Emperors.

Darryl was dubious of their identity. 'Where did these powerful people in such weird clothing come from?'

When the eight men and women arrived, they laughed in excitement when they saw the three trapped in the large net.

The next second, a long-haired man stepped out of the group with a smile and said, "I told you that we could catch someone with this method."

As he spoke, the long-haired man looked at Celine and Queenie and exclaimed: "Oh, look! Two beautiful women!"

Gulp!

The other three men turned their gazes on Celine and Queenie, and they gulped in surprise.

"Are you the Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes?"

Celine kept a straight face when she sensed the gazes from those men.

She had traveled to all nine continents. Even though she rarely got involved in the cultivators' worldly affairs, she had heard a lot about strange people in the world.

The Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes were one of the most unusual organizations. As their name suggested, the group comprises four men and four women—four dragons and four phoenixes.

The organization was very mysterious; no one knew their exact location. People only knew them from their extreme power and weird dressing sense. The four men were Eldest Dragon, Second Dragon, Third Dragon, and Fourth Dragon, while the women were Eldest Phoenix, Second Phoenix, and so on. Not only did they have a weird dressing sense, they never followed any rules either. They were unruly and wayward.

Celine had never seen them, but she had heard of them. She recognized them the moment she laid her eyes on them.

F*ck!

The Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes?

Darryl wanted to laugh when he heard the name!

'Is that a nickname? What an ugly nickname!'

Chapter 1390

"Oh!" Eldest Dragon was stoked that someone had recognized them. He looked at Celine with a smile. "Hey, Beautiful! We must have been destined to meet! You knew about us—the Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes!"

Second Dragon, Third Dragon and Fourth Dragon also joined in the fit of laughter.

"Yes!"

"What a blessing that we get to meet with such a beautiful woman..."

The four people spoke frivolously as their eyes inexorably explored the curves on Celine's body.

Celine was not angry; she replied coldly, "We have no enmity with you. Let us down quickly!"

"Hey, Beautiful!"

Eldest Dragon looked at Celine with a smile as a playful look spread across his face. "We are fated to meet, so how could I let you go so easily? Why don't you three join us? We can call ourselves The Five Dragons and Six Phoenixes?"

F*ck!

'They're pretty easy, no? Why would they invite us to join them when we just met?'

Darryl was perplexed, but he also thought those Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes were quite interesting.

"Sorry, I'm not interested in joining you," Celine responded faintly as she immediately summoned her internal energy again to break through the net.

Eldest Dragon chuckled at the sight. "Hey, Beautiful! I advise you to give up. This net is made of dark gold and millennium ice silk. No matter how strong you are, you won't be able to break it."

Celine sighed lightly, but she said nothing. She raised her smooth jade-like hand, and a ball of green light lit up in her palm. Then, a simple and tasteful lyre appeared in front of her.

Celine was known as the Music Sage, and the lyre was her personal weapon—the Heaven Feather Lyre!

F*ck!

It was a purple-category weapon...

Darryl was shocked as he felt the surge of energy in the Heaven Feather Lyre.

The weapons were divided into seven categories—red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo and purple. Weapons in the red category were the weakest, while those in the purple category were extremely rare.

Even though Celine's lyre was a purple-category weapon, it had so much spiritual power that Darryl knew it was comparable to a Grand Weapon!

Hmm?

The Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes were also taken aback. They were even more surprised when they felt Celine's strength!

"She's already at the Heaven Ascension level?"

"Is she that strong?"

The Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes were extremely shocked and excited. They had made a treasure chest and used it to fool people, but they had not expected that they could trap a powerful Heaven Ascension cultivator. At the same time, she was a peerless beauty, too. What a surprise!

Celine ignored their gazes; her expression was indifferent. Soon, her ten fingers moved gently on the Heaven Feather Lyre.

Hum!

A clear and beautiful melody echoed as the atmosphere within a kilometer of the vicinity distorted.

"Egyptian Pentatonic Scale." Then, a cold voice came from Celine's red lips.

In ancient times, the melody was divided into five pentatonic scales—Major, Egyptian, Blues Minor, Blues Major, and Minor. The one that Celine displayed with her Heaven Feather Lyre was called the music scales with five notes.

The Egyptian Pentatonic Scale was the first level of exercise, which could awaken heaven and earth's spiritual energy; it had an amazing power!

Chuck! Chuck! Chuck!

Heaven and earth's spiritual energy formed a series of sharp blades; those translucent wind blades were created with one's internal energy.

Clang! Clang! Clang!

Then, thousands of sharp blades rained like arrows as they pierced the net, one after another. The extremely tough net suddenly bore traces of marks.

Even though the net did not tear, it was enough to stun the Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes!

'How could the sound of a chord be so powerful!'

'This woman is terrifying!'

F*ck!

Darryl was also extremely shocked.

The Heaven Ascension level, indeed! The sound of her lyre was too powerful!

Queenie laughed as she clapped her hands and spoke very excitedly, "Master is too amazing!"

Queenie looked at Eldest Dragons and the rest with a smug look. "See, this is my master's strength. No matter how tough your net is, it can't beat my master's music scales with five notes. I'd advise you to run quickly. Well, when my master comes out of this net, you won't have another chance to escape."

Huh!

The Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes stared at the lyre in Celine's hands indignantly.

Then, Eldest Dragon reacted and shouted, "F*ck, we can't let her continue playing the lyre!"

The beautiful woman was too terrifying! If she were to break free from their net, then the Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes might disappear from the cultivation world.

Eldest Dragon took immediate action; he jumped and leapt forward.

When he got in front of the net, he made a lightning shot to seal Celine's acupoints.

Boom!

Chapter 1391

However, Celine was prepared. She raised her smooth jade-like hand and pushed Eldest Dragon back with her palm.

Bang!

Suddenly, Celine's body stiffened; she could not move. Second Dragon exclaimed happily from behind. "Hey, Beautiful! You didn't expect that, right? He was only distracting you."

Not bad!

There was a tacit understanding between the Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes. Eldest Dragon made a frontal attack and attracted Celine's attention, while Second Dragon took the opportunity to attack her from behind.

Ugh!

Celine sighed softly. Even though she was fearless in the face of danger, she was also helpless. The Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes were too cunning.

That was it!

Darryl complained discreetly. He was worried about their fate after they had fallen into the hands of the four pairs of strange men and women.

"You—"

Queenie stomped her feet angrily. "You can't defeat my master in a fight, so you sneaked an attack on her. That's despicable."

Eldest Dragon was not angry with the insult; he looked at Queenie with a smile. "Well, there can never be too many deceptions in a war. Your master is powerful, but we managed to subdue her in the end, right?"

Queenie snorted softly and ignored him.

Second Dragons and Third Dragons lowered the net. The moment they were on the ground, Second Dragon sealed Queenie's acupoint.

"What?!"

Next, when Second Dragon was about to act on Darryl, he was surprised to find that Darryl's internal energy had been sealed. "This kid's internal energy has been sealed?"

Huh!

Eldest Dragon, Third Dragon and Fourth Dragon closed in around them.

Eldest Dragon looked at Darryl. "Hey, how are you related to these two beautiful women?"

His internal energy was sealed; it was apparent that he was the women's prisoner.

"Err..." Darryl scratched his head. "My name is Darryl, her name is Queenie, and I am her brother-in-law. The woman next to her is Celine."

Eldest Phoenix looked at Darryl with a smile. She walked toward Darryl as she swayed her hips and teased him. "Your name sounds so good, Darryl. You are pretty handsome. Are you interested in having fun with me?"

Uh...

Darryl was stunned.

He had seen many women, but none was as open-minded as Eldest Phoenix. That was the first time they had met; they had yet to make acquaintance. The first question she asked was if he was interested in a relationship? That was too wild.

What happened next made Darryl's jaw drop.

Eldest Dragon walked toward them with a smile; he grabbed Eldest Phoenix's waist and said, "My dear, who is more handsome? Darryl or me?"

Second Dragon laughed. As soon as Eldest Dragon asked that, Second Dragon went to them and hugged Eldest Phoenix's waist, as well. He smiled and said, "Eldest Phoenix, I think Darryl is not as handsome as me."

Eldest Phoenix smiled faintly at both Eldest Dragon and Second Dragon's intimate actions. She did not show the slightest resistance or dissatisfaction; it was as if she was accustomed to it.

F*ck!

Darryl's mind went blank; he was baffled.

'Whose wife is Eldest Phoenix? Why are both Eldest Dragon and Second Dragon hugging her waist?'

F*ck! The relationship between the Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes was too messy.

"Oh, right." Second Dragon looked at Darryl and asked curiously, "Darryl, why did your sister-in-law seal your internal energy?"

Eldest Dragon, Eldest Phoenix and the rest of the group turned to look at Darryl; they were very curious.

"Well..." Darryl scratched his head and smiled bitterly. "My little sister, Queenie, sealed my internal energy because I had a problem with her sister, and we are no longer together. She caught me because I had an affair with another woman."

'Oh, I see!'

The Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes nodded.

Then, Eldest Dragon touched the tip of his nose and said to Queenie, "Sister, It's wrong of you to capture your brother-in-law just because he had an affair with another woman. The love between men and women is natural. Look at us — eight of us have had intimate relationships."

F*ck! Darryl's head buzzed. The Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes were quite liberal in their thoughts.

Darryl smiled and nodded. "You are really open-minded. Thank you for your understanding. Seriously, I admire you so much. If you don't mind it, why don't we be friends?"

Darryl had processed the idea in his mind.

He did not mean to be friends with them; it was merely a temporary solution. The Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes were extremely powerful people. With Darryl's internal strength sealed, he knew he was not their match if he chose to fight with them. Hence, he had to pick his strategy to control the situation; only then could he rescue Celine and Queenie.

"Brother-in-law, you —"

Queenie was very anxious. "How can you make friends with them?"

'The Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes are not good people. What's wrong with him? How could he be friends with them so brazenly?'

Queenie wanted to say more, but Celine stopped her.

"Queenie, don't worry!" Celine said in a low voice while she continued to keep her straight face. "Your brother-in-law did that for a reason."

Celine glanced at Darryl knowingly.

Celine was an intelligent woman; she realized why Darryl did that. She knew that Darryl did not want to befriend the Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes — it was only a diversion.

Celine had looked at Darryl with a favorable impression. It looked like the man could adapt to any situation very well.

Chapter 1392

Eldest Dragon laughed and nodded because he felt that Darryl was sincere when he said that. "Brother Darryl is so straightforward and easy-going! It looks like we've hit it off right away! We are willing to be brothers with you!"

"Yes, that's right. We're all brothers..."

"We will be friends from now on..." Laughter ensued.

The Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes were unruly. They were happy to see that Darryl was genuine when he said that he wanted to befriend them.

Especially Eldest Phoenix; she was enamored with Darryl's good looks and also his free spirit.

Then, Eldest Phoenix walked toward Darryl, took his arm and smiled seductively. "Come with us, now that we are friends. Don't worry; I'll watch over you in the future."

Eldest Phoenix's soft and delicate body rubbed sensually against Darryl as she spoke; she looked extremely sultry.

Eldest Dragon, who was just next to them, was not jealous at all. He watched them with a smile.

Gulp!

Darryl gulped discreetly when he sensed Eldest Phoenix's romantic feelings.

'F*ck, these people are so open-minded, especially Eldest Phoenix and her sultriness. Which ordinary men could withstand her gesture?'

Darryl forced a smile as he muttered under his breath. "Thank you, Sister."

Second Dragon approached him with a laugh and a smile; he said to Darryl, "Brother, you are now blessed with Eldest Phoenix's favor." The way he said it made people wonder about the meaning behind his words.

Darryl smiled politely, but he said nothing. His gaze drifted to Celine and Queenie discreetly.

Darryl noticed the four men's eyes on Celine and Queenie all the time. It was apparent that they would take action that night.

There was no way he could let that happen!

He had to find a way to release Celine and Queenie and not let those four bastards sully them.

Along the journey, the Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes frolicked and had a good time. Darryl pretended to be their friend and stayed close to them.

During that time, Darryl looked for opportunities to release Celine and Queenie stealthily.

However, Darryl felt dejected because Eldest Phoenix stuck by his side all the time; he had no chance to continue with his plan.

Before he knew it, night had fallen.

"Hey, guys!"

Darryl spotted a small town in front of him, so he suggested with a smile. "Let's take a rest in that small town tonight!"

He thought he would have a chance if the Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes were separated in different rooms.

However...

Eldest Dragon shook his head; he looked seemingly uninterested. "It's so boring to spend the night in an inn! I think there's a ruined temple just after that town. Let's light a bonfire and have some drinks while we chat. That's the way to have fun!"

Second Dragon seconded the suggestion with a grin. "Yes, the sky will be our blanket, and the floor will be our bed. Life is interesting when there are beautiful women around us."

F*ck!

'You guys are quite good at this.'

Darryl was speechless; he did not know what to do.

Second Dragon bought some wine and snacks in the tavern when they were in the small town. Then, all of them carried on with their journey through the town.

After they walked for a few miles, they arrived at an abandoned small temple on a beautiful hillside. The small temple had a few rooms; they cleaned them up so that they could spend the night there.

As soon as they entered the small temple, the Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes started to serve the delicious wine and snacks and set up a bonfire nearby.

"Come on, Brother!"

Eldest Dragon beckoned at Darryl as he said with a smile, "Good wine and beautiful women; happy life is nothing more than these things. Let's get drunk tonight!"

As he said that, Eldest Dragon stretched out his hand to hold Eldest Phoenix in his embrace.

Eldest Phoenix turned away and sat beside Darryl with a smile. "I want to accompany him tonight. You can go with Second Sister, Third Sister and Fourth Sister."

The Eldest Dragon chuckled. "Okay, okay."

Then, Eldest Dragon pulled Second Phoenix into his left arm and Fourth Phoenix with his right hand. Second Phoenix and Fourth Phoenix giggled and flirted with Eldest Dragon. Apparently, they were used to it.

Whoa!

Celine and Queenie blushed.

Celine and Queenie learned about the promiscuous relationship between the Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes during the day. As the night fell, they got even more salacious, which angered Celine and Queenie.

At the same time, Second Dragon, Third Dragon, and Forth Dragon frolicked with Third Phoenix. They cheered and sipped wine while they chatted. Of course, they talked about smutty jokes.

Darryl also had wine and joked around with them. He had no choice but to blend in with them so that they would let their guards down.

After some fine wine and food...

Chapter 1393

Darryl drank a lot that night. His face was flushed, but he was still sober.

"Brother Darryl." Eldest Phoenix smiled and leaned into him; she whispered in Darryl's ear gently. "It's getting late; let me accompany you to rest."

Eldest Phoenix hooked her hands around Darryl's neck as she spoke; her sultry eyes looked at Darryl.

Her debauchery was beyond one's imagination.

Darryl kept an impassive expression while he muttered in his heart. He waved his hand and said, "Go on and take a rest. I'll sit a little longer!"

Celine and Queenie were still up; they were at the side. How could Darryl possibly retire to bed when he had no idea what would happen to them?

Eldest Phoenix was not angry at all, even though she had hit a snag with him. She gazed at Darryl with a smile. "What's the matter? Am I not pretty? You'll be so happy to be my man that you will laugh out loud in your dreams."

Eldest Phoenix was very confident about her figure and appearance.

She laughed.

'Really?'

Darryl smiled and shook his head. "I'm sorry; I am really not interested in you at all. Let's just be ordinary friends. If I have a woman, she would need to look like her!"

Darryl raised his finger and pointed at Celine, who was nearby.

He did that because he did not want to be entangled with Eldest Phoenix anymore. Then again, he was right; Celine was as beautiful as a goddess. Her charming temperament was simply too irresistible.

Eldest Phoenix blushed; she was speechless as she was embarrassed.

Darryl was right, though. Eldest Phoenix was beautiful but still nowhere comparable to Celine.

"Brother-in-law, you—" Queenie stomped her feet anxiously as Darryl joked with her master. "You are drunk, so stop talking nonsense! Alright?"

Queenie also noticed that Darryl pretended to be friends with the Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes.

However, she could not stand it when Darryl joked about Celine.

After all, Celine was her master.

Darryl smiled slightly as he signalled to her that she did not need to be so flustered.

At the same time, Celine also blushed a little. She stared at Darryl speechlessly. She knew that Darryl did that just to get rid of Eldest Phoenix. Nevertheless, she was virtuous, and she was perturbed to hear Darryl say that about her out loud.

"Ugh!"

Eldest Phoenix reacted and sighed. "Well, I can't force you if you're unwilling." Then, she gave Darryl a disappointed look and sat at the side.

Even though the Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes were promiscuous, they had never forced themselves on their friends.

The rest laughed at the disheartened Eldest Phoenix when they saw what had happened.

"Eldest Phoenix, you had always seen yourself as a charming person; you probably didn't see that coming. It's so funny that you got turned down!"

"Brother Darryl is too suave. His sister-in-law, Queenie, is so charming; no wonder he had no appetite for you."

"Come with me tonight."

Eldest Phoenix did not take their teasing to heart. She held the wine glass gracefully and poured herself some drinks.

Eldest Dragon took out a few dice and threw them into the empty bowl in front of him. He pointed at Second Dragon and the others and then announced excitedly, "Well, my brothers, we had fun drinking. Now, let's get on with the rules. Whoever wins gets to choose from the two beautiful women we managed to catch today!"

When he said that, his gaze was fixed on Celine as a wicked smile appeared on his face.

Wow!

Second Dragon, Third Dragon and Fourth Dragon were all excited. They rubbed their hands impatiently.

"Hurry up."

"I'm just waiting for this moment."

"Tonight, Celine will be mine."

Eldest Phoenix and the other three women sat and watched them happily.

Damn it!

What was going on? Darryl was puzzled.

The Four Dragons were good at that game. They shamelessly used the method to choose the person who would win the right to enjoy Celine and Queenie.

Darryl had no idea that it was not the first time they did that. Every time they met a beautiful woman, the four men would use the same method to draw their rights to enjoy them.

"You—"

Queenie blushed and scolded them. "You shameless scum! I'll kill whoever touches Master or me!"

Chapter 1394

Queenie stomped her feet angrily. The Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes were genuinely disgusting. 'What do they think of my master and me? How could they brazenly shake the dice in front of us?'

Celine was also a little angry, but she did not display her emotion. She searched Darryl's eyes to figure out what was about to happen! 'He had successfully gained the trust of Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes; he would definitely find a way to save Queenie and me, right?'

"Oh, Beautiful!"

Second Dragon looked at Queenie with a lecherous smile. "Don't worry, if I win, I'll choose to spend the night with you."

"You—"

Second Dragon's lecherous gaze made Queenie uncomfortable; her face flushed, and she was so angry that she could not speak.

When he noticed the unfavorable turn of the event, Darryl quickly stood up. "Hey, my brothers, this is not right."

Eldest Dragon and the rest turned to look at Darryl.

Then, Eldest Dragon smiled and said, "What's wrong, Brother? Do you want to join the game? She's your sister-in-law's master!"

"Why not?" Darryl said with a smile. "Celine is only my sister-in-law's master, not my master."

Darryl was brutally cynical when he said that.

The Four Dragons exchanged looks with each other; then they burst into laughter and nodded in agreement.

"I knew that Brother Darryl is genuine and truthful!"

"Well, since you've said so, let's shake the dice together. Whoever wins will get Celine and Queenie!"

Darryl was stoked that they agreed to let him join the game. A confident smile appeared on his face.

He laughed.

'You won't win if you were to play dice with me.'

"Brother-in-law—"

Queenie stomped her feet anxiously. "How can you do this?"

'He's too frivolous! He thinks that Master is the type of girl he likes, and now he even joined the dice game!'

'What's wrong with him? Brother-in-law, have you changed after ten years?'

Celine, on the other hand, remained calm. She had seen and been through a lot in the world of cultivators. She knew that Darryl wanted to play the dice so that he could win and rescue herself and Queenie.

Then again...

A dice game was a game of luck.

'Will he win?'

Darryl ignored Queenie's shouts and looked at the Four Dragons with a smile. "Hey guys, I'm playing this for the first time. Can you let me roll the dice?"

Eldest Dragon handed the dice to Darryl without any hesitation. "Of course!"

They were veterans, for they had played the game for many years. They never thought that Darryl would win.

Darryl took the dice, shook it in the bowl and then slammed it onto the table. He shot a mischievous grin at the Four Dragons and asked, "Big or small?"

"Small!" Eldest Dragon replied in an unwavering tone.

Second Dragon and the rest followed suit and shouted, "Of course, small!"

Darryl smiled slightly and lifted the dice bowl. "Well, I'll take big, then!"

Whoa!

As soon as he lifted the bowl, the dice showed three sixes!

It was big!

"Oh..."

The Four Dragons were dumbfounded. They thought that Darryl was too lucky.

The Four Phoenixes burst out in a fit of laughter. They made jokes at the Four Dragons.

"It seems that these two women will be spending the night with Brother Darryl."

Eldest Dragon looked embarrassed; he said to Darryl, "Brother, I've lost!" Then, he stepped aside, depressingly!

"It's my turn!"

Second Dragon stepped up and continued the dice game with Darryl—and he lost, as well!

Chapter 1395

Then, the game went the same way with Third Dragon and Fourth Dragon...

In less than two minutes, the Four Dragons had lost to Darryl; there was no exception.

The Four Dragons sweated profusely; they were amazed.

'How come he's so lucky?'

'How did he win against all of us?'

That was too bizarre.

The Four Phoenixes also looked admiringly at Darryl; they felt only affection for him.

Darryl was so handsome and had so much good luck. He was too attractive.

The Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes did not know that every time Darryl rolled the dice, he used the Shadow Skill to turn the dice into what he wanted.

He had managed to pull the Shadow Skill secretly.

Under that circumstance, Darryl would never lose.

"Brother-in-law—" Queenie gaped at Darryl incredulously. 'When did he learn to gamble? He's so lucky!'

At the same time, Celine also looked at Darryl. She was shocked. When Darryl performed the Shadow Skill, she was the only one who sniffed out the clue. She noticed that Darryl had used a clever technique stealthily to change the numbers on the dice, and she could do that because of her Heaven Ascension level.

She had not expected that Darryl was so well-learned. He knew about formations and also gambling.

"Guys!"

Darryl stood up and looked at the Four Dragons with a wide grin. He said, "All of you have lost to me. So, these two women are mine?"

"You're so lucky; we admit defeat!" Eldest Dragon smiled bitterly and nodded. The other three also conceded that they had lost the game.

Darryl laughed and walked toward Celine. "Looks like I will be enjoying the company of these women tonight."

Darryl hugged Celine when he approached her.

Celine's face reddened, but she said nothing.

"Brother-in-law, you—"

Queenie was uneasy. "Put my master down. Brother-in-law, don't act so rashly. She is my master—"

Queenie still did not know what had happened; she was worried about what Darryl would do to Celine.

Silly girl! Darryl smiled bitterly in his heart as he blinked at Queenie. He tried to tell her not to be agitated.

After that, Darryl looked at the Four Dragons." Brothers, since these two women are mine, then you guys can't touch my sister-in-law, too!"

The Four Dragons looked at each other and nodded.

"Brother, rest assured that we won't compete with you. We've lost, after all!"

Even though the Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes were unruly, they had principles.

"Great!"

Darryl nodded as he carried Celine into the room at the back.

Darryl took a deep breath after he went into the room and locked the door.

'Oh, f*ck! I've finally deceived those people.'

"Darryl!"

Celine blushed; she bit on her lips softly. "You won't let me down, right?"

She was a virtuous Honorable Pianist; she could not be held like that by a man.

Darryl did not let go. He looked at her with a smile. "Tonight, you're mine. It feels so wonderful to have you in my arms. How can I let you go?" Darryl said that playfully.

Darryl teased Celine on purpose. The two did not have much contact, but Darryl knew that Celine was a very rational woman; he had not wanted to play jokes on her.

Darryl wanted to tease her because she had insisted on taking him to the Heaven Union Sect. He was speechless at her persistence.

Chapter 1396

However, Celine was not angry. She looked at Darryl and said softly, "Okay, stop it and put me down. Queenie is still out there; she's waiting for you to save her."

F*ck...

'So, she knew that I was acting?'

Darryl was stunned; he looked intently at Celine. "Did you know that I was doing it on purpose?"

'This woman is extremely observant. How did she know when I've acted so professionally?'

Celine sighed and said slowly, "Queenie told me that you're a good person. I believed her when she said that you are not a frivolous and promiscuous person."

Celine looked solemn when she said that.

Darryl felt bored when she could see through his act.

He put Celine down as he muttered in his heart. Then, he thought of something; he smiled and said, "However, I wasn't pretending when I said that."

Celine adjusted her clothes and responded instinctively, "When you said what?"

"That only you can be my woman." Darryl looked into Celine's eyes as he said that with a smile.

Of course, that was also a joke. He teased her because she had seen through him right from the beginning when he pretended in front of the Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes. He thought it was boring for her to sniff out his plan.

Celine shook her head when she saw how Darryl had looked at her. "You are not qualified to be my man yet."

'Not qualified?'

Darryl was stunned; he asked her with a smile. "Did you say that I'm not qualified?"

Celine smiled plainly. "My man must be a gentleman—knowledgeable and powerful. Nothing less. So, you're not qualified enough yet."

Darryl took a deep breath. He realized that Celine was an interesting woman.

He smiled and said, "It is easy to be a gentleman. As for power, I am the Elysium Gate's Sect Master. I'm quite powerful but not exceptionally powerful. The world has nine continents. What if I unite three or four of them and be its emperor? Is that considered powerful? Am I qualified enough to be your man then?"

Celine frowned, "What did you say?"

'Did he say that he would unite three or four continents and become its Emperor? How dare he say such things?'

Celine had met people from all walks of life in the world of cultivators. Nevertheless, Darryl was the first man whom she had noticed. How dare a Martial Emperor make such a groundless claim? Celine chuckled and said, "There will always be someone better than us. The World Universe is the weakest among the nine continents. Many powerful people live in seclusion within it. These people don't get involved with worldly affairs, but most of them are at the Heaven Ascension level. How dare you, a mere Martial Emperor, say something like that? You said that you would unite three or four continents and be its Emperor!"

"You don't have to worry about that!" Darryl was very serious. "If I do that, can I be your man then?"

Darryl had only wanted to tease Celine, but he decided to respond to Celine's nonchalant attitude, and he wanted to make it happen. Perhaps, that was the charm of an Honorable Pianist.

"Very well!" Celine was also serious; she nodded at Darryl. "If you can really do that, I will be your woman then."

Even though they had not been in contact with each other, Celine appreciated Darryl's talent.

He knew about formations and was good at gambling. The most important thing was that he could adapt to changes well. However, could he really unite three or four continents and call himself an emperor?

"What did you say, Honorable Pianist Celine?" Darryl asked.

"I have no regrets!"

"Very well, let's wait and see!"

They had agreed on the matter, and then they stopped talking.

The atmosphere became slightly special.

Celine and Darryl did not expect to make such an agreement after they had only known each other for less than a day.

After a few seconds of silence, Darryl scratched his head. "Um... I'll go get the little girl then."

With that, Darryl walked out of the room quickly.

Darryl had always maintained a cynical attitude in front of beautiful women, but he could not do the same in front of Celine.

After all, Celine was an extraordinary woman. She was so wise and rational that one could not find any fault with her at all.

When he got outside, he saw the Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes were still drinking; all of them were in high spirits.

Chapter 1397

Eldest Dragon and Second Dragon kept their promises; they did not act on Queenie.

Phew!

Darryl sighed in relief, discreetly.

"Mmm?"

Eldest Dragon laughed and joked when he saw Darryl came out of the room so quickly. "What's the matter, Brother? Why are you out here? Is that woman too wild for you?"

He asked that with a lecherous expression.

The other three dragons beside them laughed.

"Brother, I have been with countless women; how could I not handle her?"

Darryl walked toward Queenie and smiled. He said, "Sister, I'll bring you to the room to rest!"

Darryl deliberately said that in front of Eldest Dragon and the others.

However, Queenie misunderstood him. Her delicate face flushed with shame. She bit her lips and said nervously, "Brother-in-law, you are drunk! Cut the crap, okay?"

At the same time, the Four Dragons cheered enthusiastically!

"Brother is amazing! Two girls at once!"

"Brother Darryl is the same as us, indeed."

Darryl smiled, but he did not say much. He held Queenie in his arms and went straight into the room.

"Brother-in-law—"

Queenie was embarrassed, but she could not do much because her hands and feet were tied.

After they entered the room, Queenie was shocked to see that Celine sat here quietly. It did not look like someone had forcefully meddled with the clothes on her.

'What's going on?'

'Isn't Brother-in-law drunk, and he wanted to force himself on Master?'

Darryl chuckled at Queenie's bewildered expression. "Hey, do you really think that of me? It's not like I can save you both if I don't do this."

Celine smiled at Queenie. "Queenie, you've misunderstood your brother-in-law! He did this to divert their attention."

'Have I misunderstood him?'

Queenie's delicate face instantly turned red with embarrassment. She bit her lips tightly as she blamed herself for jumping to a conclusion. Her brother-in-law had always been a righteous person; how could he possibly be the same as those b*stards out there?

"Brother-in-law—"

Queenie bit her lips as she approached Darryl. She held one of his arms and swayed it coquettishly.

"I was wrong, Brother-in-law—" Her voice was almost inaudible because she was so ashamed of herself.

Darryl smiled and looked at her. "It's alright; you don't have to blame yourself. Why would I be angry at you? But you must remember not to repeat this in the future."

"Hmm!" Queenie smiled and nodded heavily. She was relieved that Darryl was not mad at her.

Darryl smiled and said nothing. Then, he untied the rope on her body.

"These disgusting Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes, I think they are better off as Four Worms and Four Chickens!" Queenie moved her wrists after she was freed. She said to Celine, "Master, we must not let them off easily."

Queenie cursed disdainfully.

'The Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes are detestable. If it weren't for Brother-in-law, they would have sullied us tonight!'

Celine could feel Queenie's anger; she smiled faintly and said, "Let your brother-in-law handle this. I believe that he has a perfect solution."

Had that happened in the past, as an Honorable Pianist, Celine would have never let the Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes off as they had captured and almost defiled her.

She knew that Darryl had saved her, so she decided to let him take care of the matter.

Celine believed that he already had a plan.

Chapter 1398

What?

Queenie was stunned when she heard that. She looked quizzically at Celine, and then at Darryl.

'What's going on with Master? She's usually very clear with her love-hate relationship. If someone provoked her, she would make sure that person suffered.'

'Why was she not angry after suffering in the hands of the Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes? She even told Darryl to take action against them. More importantly, she was taking him to the Heaven Union Sect before that, right? How did Darryl earn his trust in just a blink of an eye?'

'Did something happened between Master and Darryl?'

Just as Queenie pondered that, Darryl smiled and nodded. "Okay, then you both should go quickly! I'll deal with the Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes!"

Darryl told Celine, "By the way, forget the grievances between the Heaven Union Sect and me. I won't go to Sect Master Sonya; just tell her never to mess with me again in the future."

He wanted to let bygones be bygones after he reached an agreement with Celine.

After all, Sonya was Celine's friend.

"Very well!"

Celine did not hesitate; she smiled and nodded in agreement.

She was happy to note that Darryl was so open-minded; it was something very rare.

"Oh, right!"

Darryl smiled and said, "My internal strength is still sealed."

Without his internal strength, how could he deal with the Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes later?

Celine smiled apologetically. "I forgot about that."

Celine walked toward him slowly; her smooth jade-like hand tapped on Darryl lightly to unlock his internal energy.

After that, Celine beckoned at Queenie. "Come, let's go."

"Oh!"

Queenie responded and was about to leave from the back door with Celine.

"Ugh!"

Suddenly, Darryl thought of something; he smiled at Celine's back. "Don't forget about our agreement."

Celine smiled, nodded and said, "Don't worry, I won't forget it."

Then, Celine turned and left without another look backward.

'Agreement?'

Queenie was utterly dumbfounded.

'What's the matter with Master? She didn't like him before this, but it seems like she has changed her mind in only one day. What was the agreement between them? They had agreed on something?'

Queenie stared at Darryl before she chased after Celine. She asked curiously, "Master, what is the agreement he mentioned?"

"I'll tell you later; let's leave here first."

"Master, can't you tell me while we walk?"

"..."

As the conversation between the master and apprentice died in the distance, Darryl withdrew his smile. He sat down cross-legged and began to cultivate.

At the same time, Darryl kept an eye on the Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes outside the room.

He knew that they were still drinking and frolicking; it seemed like they were still having fun.

'Go on, drink and have some crazy fun!'

'When you're tired, that's when I take action.'

A smile appeared at the corner of Darryl's lips before he shut his eyes.

Time passed by slowly. Suddenly, Darryl opened his eyes, and a powerful aura burst out of him!

His internal energy had finally recovered.

Celine was not only powerful, but she also had an outstanding technique to seal one's internal energy. Even though she had unsealed Darryl's acupuncture, it took him nearly two hours to restore it to its peak.

The movement outside had quieted down; it seemed like the Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes had gone to rest.

Darryl did not hesitate; he got up and walked out of the room.

Damn it!

When he got outside, Darryl was stunned by the sight in front of him.

The eight of them were drunk, and they laid on top of each other; the Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes were simply too weird.

Darryl approached them slowly.

"Mmm?"

Before he got there, Eldest Dragon sensed something and opened his eyes in a daze.

At the same time, Second Dragon and several of the others also woke up. They looked at Darryl with their sleepy eyes.

The Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes traveled the world frequently, so they were very vigilant.

Oh, f*ck!

Chapter 1399

'They're awake? So soon?'

Darryl felt depressed as he secretly complained under his breath.

"Brother Darryl!"

Eldest Dragon soon sobered. When he saw that it was Darryl, he smiled and said, "A night well spent with beautiful women is invaluable, indeed. Why aren't you in the room to enjoy the ladies?"

"Yeah, it's still dark! Why did you come out so soon?"

Second Dragon, Third Dragon and Fourth Dragon laughed and joked.

Darryl smiled and said, "The room is way too hot, so I'm here to get some air!"

His reply sounded casual, but he felt flustered!

F*ck!

The Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes were extremely powerful, so it would be difficult to win against them in a battle.

Darryl had to think of a way to defeat them one by one!

"Hey, Brother!"

While Darryl pondered that, Eldest Phoenix winked at Darryl. "Did you come out because the beautiful master and apprentice failed to satisfy you? Do you want me to accompany you?"

Second Phoenix, Third Phoenix and Fourth Phoenix laughed.

They had not realized that Darryl had released Celine and her apprentice. They thought that the women were still in the room.

"Sure!"

Darryl's eyes flashed enthusiastically as he smiled at Eldest Phoenix. He said, "Since you're so kind as to offer me, I can't turn you down again."

Darryl pointed at the room. "Sister, let's go in there and have some fun."

"Okay." Eldest Phoenix was delighted that Darryl finally welcomed her. She swayed her hips as she approached Darryl. "There's no use in looking so beautiful but can't satisfy you. I'll treat you well later!"

Eldest Phoenix took Darryl's arm and went into the room.

She felt delighted. She did not know that instead of some intimate time with Darryl, she would only see his true nature.

"What?"

Eldest Phoenix was stunned when she saw that there was no one in the room.

Snapped!

Before she could react, Darryl tapped her acupoints and to seal her acupoints. Eldest Phoenix's body shook, but she was immobilized and muted.

"Sorry!"

When he noticed Eldest Phoenix's astonished look, Darryl smiled plainly. "I've let you down!"

Then, Darryl walked out of the room slowly.

"Hey, why are you out here again?"

Eldest Dragon and the others were baffled to see Darryl again.

Eldest Phoenix had gone to be with him; was he not satisfied still? Eldest Phoenix was the most sultry among those four women.

Darryl sighed disappointingly. "It seemed like she drank too much; she fell asleep as soon as she got onto the bed."

Eldest Dragon burst into laughter.

Then, he said to the other phoenixes, "Second Phoenix, Third Phoenix and Fourth Phoenix, let him see your charming selves."

Eldest Dragon saw Darryl as one of his own; he was willing to share his women with him.

"Okay!"

Second Phoenix, Third Phoenix and Fourth Phoenix happily went into the room with Darryl.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Like Eldest Phoenix, as soon as they entered the room, Darryl tapped their acupoints.

The Four Phoenixes were frightened as Darryl tied them up.

'This kid is too cunning...'

Darryl was so happy that he wanted to laugh. He had finally subdued the four women.

He had caught half of the group members; he was not concerned about the other Four Dragons.

Darryl felt excited as he walked out of the room again.

Mmm?

The Four Dragons looked at each other and frowned when they saw Darryl was out of the room again.

'What's going on?'

It seemed like something was wrong.

Chapter 1400

Eldest Dragon was the first to react; he stood up and looked at Darryl. "Brother Darryl, what's the matter? Why are you coming out again when the Four Phoenixes have gone into the room with you?"

Darryl smiled. He garnered his internal energy and dashed toward Eldest Dragon with lightning speed. Then, he immediately raised his hand to seal his acupoints.

"You—"

Darryl's speed was too fast for Eldest Dragon to react; his body froze as he stared indignantly at Darryl.

Wow!

The three other dragons were also shocked and angry; they yelled at Darryl.

"How dare you fool us!"

"What did you do to the Four Phoenixes?"

"There's no need to talk with him; let's get him!"

Second Dragon, Third Dragon and Fourth Dragon discharged their internal energy as they rushed toward Darryl.

The three Martial Emperors' forces were terrifying! However, Darryl was not panicked at all.

"I advise you three to give up and surrender yourselves. You aren't my match, not even when all three of you come at me together," Darryl said as he waved his hand.

Hum!

A gush of powerful internal energy erupted from Darryl, and immediately after that, he quickly summoned the White Lily Cold Flame. It formed a sea of fire in front of him!

Hiss!

The three dragons' expressions changed abruptly when they felt the White Lily Cold Flame's scorching temperature. Even Eldest Dragon, who had been subdued, exclaimed as he sweated profusely.

"This is—"

"The world's top enchanted flame? The White Lily Cold Flame!"

"Quick! Get out of the way..."

Second Dragon and Third Dragon quickly dodged to the side after they yelped; their expressions showed deep fear.

The Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes were very knowledgeable. They knew that once the white flame touched them, they would die. They would not even have bones left of their bodies.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

A smile appeared at the corner of Darryl's lips. He took advantage of the opportunity when they dodged away frantically to rush forward and sealed their acupoints.

F*ck!

Finally, it was done.

Darryl withdrew the White Lily Cold Flame before he turned around and carried the Four Phoenixes from the room, one by one.

The Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes glared indignantly at Darryl; they hurled hostile remarks at him.

"Brat, we treat you so well! Why did you do this to us?"

"Damn it! We even treat you like a brother."

"Brat, mark my words! We will never let you off so easily."

Darryl laughed at their comments. "You did treat me good, but we are very different. The eight of you are too wild with your games, and you don't even hesitate to disobey any of the cultivation world's rules. We really can't be friends."

Darryl no longer wore the lustful and wretched look as he had before that. Instead, he had a righteous expression; it was completely different from how he had looked.

"You—" Eldest Dragon took a deep breath and frowned when he felt Darryl's imposing aura. "Who are you?"

At the same time, the other dragons and phoenixes also stared at Darryl. They realized that they had underestimated Darryl.

"Who I am?"

Darryl showed a slight smile as his gaze swept across the eight of them. Then, he said, "The Elysium Gate's Sect Master, Darryl!"

What?

'The Elysium Gate's Sect Master?'

The Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes stared blankly at Darryl; they were speechless.

Elysium Gate's reputation had risen to a great height in almost all nine continents. Their Sect Master Darryl was well known.

Even though the Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes had never seen Darryl, they had long heard of his name.

The Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes made friends without asking for the other's origin, nor did they carefully check Darryl's identity. They did not even think his name meant anything but a common name. Therefore, they had not expected him to be the famous Elysium Gate Sect Master!

"Okay, don't panic. I won't kill you."

Darryl said plainly as he walked toward them. He took a few pills from his body and stuffed them into their mouths, one by one.

Gulp.

The Four Dragons and Four Phoenixes swallowed the pill before they could react.

"You—"
