

Medical Genius's Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 83

After they entered Mr. Jones's house, James and Helen were once again stunned.

The interior design of the house could only be described as luxurious and they couldn't stop staring in awe.

James couldn't help but gasp and say, "Mr. Jones, you truly are a successful businessman. The interior design and style is extraordinary!"

With a smile, Mr. Jones replied, "It's just a place to stay so I only decorated it simply."

Hearing this, Liam immediately said, "Mr. Jones has a dozen houses like this in Eastcliff so he doesn't have time to pay attention to the decorations!"

James and Helen were dumbfounded. A few dozen villas? That would cost a few billion! This guy is a boss!

"Well then, let's get to business!" Mr. Jones smiled and said, "Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham, are you sure you want to invest in my real estate project?"

"Of course!" James hurriedly answered. "Mr. Jones, you have great foresight and being able to do business with you is an honor!"

"Since you've already made the decision, let's get straight to it." Mr. Jones chuckled. "Here, I've already prepared the contract. After you sign the contract and transfer the money to the account, our project can start!"

Hearing this, James hurriedly took the contract and read through it carefully.

After he made sure that there weren't any problems with the contract, he forged Sasha's signature and stamped Cunningham Pharmaceuticals' official seal onto the document.

"Great!" Mr. Jones laughed happily. "President Cunningham, now that we've signed the contract, when will I receive the money?"

"I've already arranged for it to be transferred today!" James instantly replied. "The finance department is working on it and you'll be able to receive it soon!"

James then went out to make a call and not long after, Mr. Jones received 300 million in his account! After all, James had long prepared to invest in this project, and he had even changed the company financial manager to Demi. That way, it would be easier to transfer funds and there was no need to notify Sasha.

All he had to do was forge Sasha's signature and notify Demi.

When Mr. Jones saw the money in his account, he nodded satisfyingly and said, "Great! President Cunningham, it'll be a pleasure working with you!"

James and Helen were both overjoyed. With a return rate of more than ten times, we will become famous once the project succeeds!

After chatting for a while, James and Helen left.

As soon as they arrived at the company entrance, they saw Matthew waiting anxiously at the doorway.

James instantly yelled angrily, “It’s that b*stard again! Why won’t he leave us alone?!”

Helen said, “Liam, ignore and drive past him. Once our project succeeds, we’ll have nothing to do with him!”

Liam sneered as he drove past Matthew and went straight into the underground parking lot.

Matthew hurriedly rushed over but he was too late.

James, Helen and Liam went upstairs happily. When they arrived at the office, they saw Sasha sitting there, waiting for them.

“You’re finally back!” Sasha anxiously greeted them and asked, “Where have you been? Why didn’t you answer my calls?”

Helen immediately scolded angrily, “Sasha, watch your tone when you speak to your father! Where did we go? Where else could we go? We went out to find business for the company and for the benefit of our family! But look at the way you’re treating us! We’ve ran around the whole day and you don’t even seem to care. Instead, you rushed over and interrogated us!”

Sasha felt helpless. “I’m not interrogating you. I just wanted to tell you that Mr. Jones is a con man!”

“Enough!” James banged his fist on the table and yelled, “If you speak ill of Mr. Jones again, I’ll cut ties with you!”

Sasha was so shocked, she stuttered, “Dad, y-you...”

However, Helen interrupted her and said, “It was Matthew who told you, wasn’t it? That b*stard just can’t bear to see us have a good life!

All he does is bad mouth people behind their backs! Who does he think he is? How dare he call Mr. Jones a con man? What qualifications does he have to say that? Does he have any proof? If he has even a little evidence that Mr. Jones is a con man, I’ll believe him.”

Sasha was so angry that her face was flushing red, but there was nothing she could do.

Just then, Matthew entered the office and he was holding a file in his hand. He looked extremely anxious as he asked, “James and Helen, you didn’t invest any money in Mr. Jones’s projects, did you? I just found out that Mr. Jones is really a con man!”

Hearing this, everyone in the room was shocked and James and Helen instantly turned to look at Liam.

Liam was infuriated and he angrily yelled, “Matthew, what do you mean? Why do you say that my friend lied to us? What makes you qualified to call him a con man? Do you have evidence or witnesses? How dare you accuse him without any proof?”

Matthew glared at Liam and threw the file he was holding onto the table while saying coldly, “You want proof? Here, take a good look at it!”

Liam was stunned. “What is that?”

“This is Mr. Jones’s file that is registered at the police station. There is solid evidence that he is a con man and the police are ready to capture him!”

“What?” James and Helen’s expressions immediately changed.

“That’s impossible!” Liam hurriedly yelled. “Where did the file come from?”

Matthew replied, “My friend compiled it for me!”

Liam instantly sneered and asked, “Your friend? Which friend? What does he do? Are you sure that we can believe in the file he gave you? It’s impossible that Mr. Jones is a con man! James and Helen, you’ve seen the money in Mr. Jones’s account and his house with your own eyes. Which con man would have all that?”

James and Helen nodded. “Liam is right. Mr. Jones can’t fake his money and real estate!”

Matthew anxiously shouted, “This file is an internal record from the police station so it can’t be fake!”

Liam scoffed. “Just because you say that it’s from the police station doesn’t mean it really came from the police station. Who knows? You might have just asked someone to help create a fake file!”

James and Helen were also glaring at Matthew with hostility.

However, Sasha stood by Matthew’s side and in a serious tone, she said, “I trust Matthew!”

Liam sneered, “Well, I trust Mr. Jones! James and Helen, you’ve seen how successful Mr. Jones is just now. He solved the problem with the company bank account and is helping us earn a fortune by giving us a chance to enter the real estate industry! Matthew is afraid that Sasha will divorce him after the Cunningham family becomes wealthy so he’s doing everything he can to stop us! He purposely told us lies about Mr. Jones and even humiliated and beat up Mr. Jones in public in order to stop us. This man is despicable and shameless!”

A cold expression appeared on James and Helen’s faces and they looked at Matthew vigilantly.

In a solemn tone, Matthew said, “Liam, watch your mouth! These are real evidence and I can guarantee it with my life!”

Liam immediately rebuked him. “I can also guarantee with my life that Mr. Jones is not a con man!”

Hearing this, Matthew frowned. It seems Liam is determined to go against me today.

Sasha softly said, “Dad, you have to believe in Matthew. He is not the kind of person that would hurt the family’s business. He really is doing the right thing for the family!”

However, James bellowed furiously, “Shut up! I can differentiate a liar and a good person myself. I don’t need you to tell me what to do!”

With that, James left in a huff. With a resentful expression, Helen said, “Sasha, you’re usually really smart but why are you fooled by Matthew? Forget it, I won’t say anything else. Just wait and see. Once our investment starts earning money, you’ll know who is doing the right thing!”

After James and Helen left, Liam glanced at Matthew mockingly and said, “Matthew, you guaranteed that the evidence is real with your life, right? I will remember it clearly and you better not forget about it either!”

After Liam finished speaking, he strode away triumphantly.

Matthew frowned hard. James and Helen are too prejudiced against me. It’s really hard for me to convince them.

Sasha sighed and muttered, “It’s obvious that Mr. Jones is a con man but my parents won’t listen to me. What should we do now?”

Matthew thought about it for a moment. “The most important thing right now is to not let your parents touch the company’s funds. That way, even if they fall into Mr. Jones’s trap, they won’t lose a lot!”

“Okay. I’ll pay extra attention to the company’s bank account later.”

Not long after Sasha left, she ran back into the office and sobbed as she said, “Matthew, something bad happened. The company... 300 million is gone from the company’s bank account!”

Matthew was just about to leave but when he heard this, he jumped in fright.

300 million? That’s not a small amount!

“Where did the money go?” Matthew asked anxiously.

“I don’t know! Demi is the one in charge of the company’s finances. She said that she received my orders to transfer the money to a bank account, but I never ordered any transfers. The company’s official seal is not even with me!”

Matthew's expression turned grim. "I'm sure that it was your parents who ordered the transfer!"

"Why would they need so much money?"

Matthew hurriedly replied, "They must've fallen into Mr. Jones's trap! Let's go and ask them what's going on."

With that, the two of them ran upstairs and rushed into James's office.

"Dad, 300 million was transferred out of the company's bank account. Where did you transfer it to?"

Hearing this, James couldn't help but feel startled. Then, he and Helen exchanged a glance before he said in a serious tone, "So you found out. Well then, I won't hide it from you anymore. I was the one who transferred the money. I'm working with Mr. Jones and we bought a piece of land to turn into real estate..."

"What?!" Sasha yelled in horror. "You transferred the money to Mr. Jones? Dad, that man is a con man!"

"Stop talking!" James pounded the table with his fist angrily. "Let me say this one more time. Mr. Jones is not a con man. In fact, he is a benefactor to our family."

"But he is a con man! How long has it been since you met him and how much do you know about him? How could you transfer 300 million to him? Dad, have you lost your mind?"

Helen flew into a rage immediately. "How dare you speak to your father like that?! Your father is doing all of this for you! Do you know the return rate of this investment? More than ten times! We could earn at least 3 billion after investing 300 million into this project! With that amount of money, the Cunningham family will be able to become one of the wealthiest families in Eastcliff. This is a chance for our family to rise! We only have you and Demi as our children. Everything we are doing is for both of your sakes. How could you disappoint your father?"

Sasha was extremely upset. Her parents always gave the excuse that they were doing it for her own good and never thought about her feelings.

In a serious tone, Matthew said, "James and Helen, I guarantee with my life that Mr. Jones is a con man! Hurry up and give me his address. I'll head over there right now and ask him to return the company's money. Tell me now or it'll be too late!"

This time, it was Helen who slammed her fist on the table. "Shut your mouth! You're not allowed to speak ill of Mr. Jones!"

While the people in the office were arguing, an employee just happened to walk past the doorway. After hearing the commotion inside, there was a gleam in his eyes. Then, he snuck into the washroom, pulled out his phone and sent a text.
