With a cold expression, Matthew raised his legs and kicked one of the security guards while punching with both hands. In just a few seconds, the group of security guards fell to the ground.

Rory was dumbfounded. They always relied on being a large group when they bullied others and had never lost before.

However, they just lost an eight-to-one fight. How is this possible?

“How dare you beat people up here...” Rory’s voice was trembling as he spoke. “Do you know that you’re at Wayne Group...”

Matthew couldn’t be bothered about him and directly pulled out his phone to dial Timothy’s number. However, nobody answered the phone.

Matthew thought that it was strange. He had made a few calls on the way to Wayne Group and nobody answered. Why is Timothy not answering my calls?

Just then, Mrs. Wayne walked over with a group of people.

With a grim expression, she asked, “Mr. Larson, what are you doing here? How dare you come to my office to make a nuisance? Do you really think that we are easy targets?”

“I have important business to discuss with Timothy. Tell him to come and see me now!”

Mrs. Wayne was irritated. “Do you think that my husband is your subordinate that you can just order around? Nobody in Eastcliff dares to talk to my husband like that! Who do you think you are? Is he supposed to come down just because you said so?”

With a frown, Matthew coldly asked, “Mrs. Wayne, are you burning bridges now that your son is no longer in danger?”

Mrs. Wayne immediately rebuked him. “Burning bridges? Mr. Larson, how can you say that? You saved my son so we gave you a VIP card that is worth over a million. However, it seems like you are unsatisfied and came here again to ask for something else in return. Even beggars are not as greedy and shameless as you!”

Feeling extremely furious, Mrs. Wayne waved her hand and ordered, “You are not qualified to stand in front of me. Guards, get him out of my sight!”

Several study men instantly surrounded Matthew. It was obvious that these men were skilled fighters and even their temples were bulging. The man leading the group sneered, “Leave on your own or we’ll throw you out of the building!”

Matthew coldly muttered, “Mrs. Wayne, I’m here to help you. Are you sure you want to do this?”

“She asked you to leave! Who allowed you to speak?!” The leader was infuriated and he suddenly punched Matthew in his chest.

However, Matthew casually grabbed his wrist and twisted it hard. With a loud crack, the man's arm was dislocated. The other men were all shocked and they quickly surrounded and attacked Matthew at the same time. These men were stronger but they were still no match for Matthew. Soon, they all fell to the ground, thereafter Mrs. Wayne's eyes widened in fear. These are all my personal bodyguards and they usually don't have any problems fighting large groups, but now they are all defeated by Matthew. What kind of monster is he?

"You! How dare you fight in my company?" Mrs. Wayne was furious. "Hurry up and call the police!"

Matthew frowned in frustration. Too tired to waste time, he coldly said, "Mrs. Wayne, let me be honest. Your son is not fully recovered yet. In less than 24 hours, something bad will happen to your son. When that happens, if you want to ask for my help, it won't be easy!"

With that, Matthew turned and left.

Mrs. Wayne froze momentarily before she yelled angrily, "Mr. Larson, how dare you curse my son?! My son is in the hospital right now and is under tight supervision. It's impossible that anything bad could happen to him!"

Medical Genius's Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 91

James, Helen, Liam, and Demi had all returned home. Only Sasha wasn't there because she was busy dealing with company affairs.

Helen's eyes were swollen and red from all the crying. "How is it possible that Mr. Jones is a con man? 300 million disappeared just like that! Why didn't you do a proper background investigation?"

James's face darkened. "Liam, it was you who introduced him to us. Tell me, how are you planning to solve this?"

Feeling embarrassed, Liam replied, "James, I was just thinking about benefiting the family. I didn't know that he was a con man either!"

Helen furiously yelled, "Since you don't know about his background, why did you introduce him to us?"

"Mom, don't be mad at him. He didn't want this to happen either!" Demi jumped to his defense. "In my opinion, it's Matthew's fault that this happened!"

Surprised, Helen asked, "What does this have to do with Matthew?"

"Of course it does!" Demi said angrily. "From the beginning, he has been saying that Mr. Jones is a con man. This means that he had known about Mr. Jones's identity long ago. However, he didn't tell us about Mr. Jones's identity and mocked us instead."

Helen immediately frowned and said, “Demi, how could you say that? Who said that Matthew didn’t try to tell us Mr. Jones’s identity? He even showed us the evidence. It was Liam who insisted that Mr. Jones was not a con man!”

All of a sudden, Demi didn’t know what to say. After a while, she gritted her teeth and muttered, “Mom, think about how he spoke to us. He was not trying to persuade us, but deliberately provoke us! You and Dad have always been careful when making decisions, but why were you in such a hurry to invest this time? It was because you were provoked by Matthew! If it weren’t for Matthew who kept saying that Mr. Jones was a con man, would we have transferred 300 million out of anger?”

Liam hurriedly nodded. “Demi is right. Matthew is so despicable that he did all of this on purpose. Furthermore, since he knew Mr. Jones was a con man, why didn’t he stop him? It’s obvious that he knew we were being tricked but he chose to let Mr. Jones run away. He really is sinister. All along, he has been planning for our investment to fail and let our family cause such a disaster. Now, Sasha won’t be able to leave him!”

James and Helen frowned. The two of them weren’t particularly assertive people. After hearing what Demi and Liam said, they started to feel suspicious.

Is it possible that this was all Matthew’s evil plan?

With her voice lowered, Helen said, “Demi, this is just your guess. Matthew couldn’t be so evil, right?”

“It’s hard to say!” Liam spoke in a low voice. “James and Helen, even though Matthew looks honest and faithful, he’s completely different on the inside. Just look at how he fools and controls Sasha. She has always been obedient but how many times has she rebelled against you lately? It’s all because Matthew taught her to do so!”

Hearing this, James and Helen thought about the times where Sasha had talked back to them lately.

In the end, James couldn’t hold back his anger and hit the table with his fist. “This b*stard is disgusting! Unless I die, they must get a divorce!”

Helen nodded in agreement. “You’re right, we must get them divorced. I’ll talk to a lawyer later...”

“Helen!” Liam hurriedly waved his hands and said, “Don’t be in such a hurry. Matthew is still useful to us.”

“How so?” Helen was confused.

“Now that we’ve lost 300 million, if the police continue to investigate, it’s either us or Sasha that gets sent to jail!”

James and Helen instantly felt anxious. They didn’t want to go to jail, but they didn’t want their daughter to go to jail either.

“What should we do?” Helen asked worriedly.

With a faint smile, Liam said, “If we let Matthew take the blame, everything will be fine, isn’t it?”

Medical Genius's Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 92

James and Helen were both dumbfounded. "Matthew?"

Liam nodded and smiled as he said, "Yes. Cunningham Pharmaceuticals pretty much belongs to our family now so the only people who can transfer company funds are members of our family. Which is why the only person who can take responsibility for this disaster is Matthew."

Helen frowned because she could understand what Liam was implying.

"Liam, are you saying that we should put the blame on Matthew and let him bear all the punishment?" Helen asked grimly.

Liam nodded with a grin while Demi burst into laughter. "What a great idea!"

Helen immediately shook her head. "That won't do!"

Hearing this, Demi couldn't help but feel startled. "Why not?"

Helen glared at her and said, "Demi, that is a very wicked thing to do! We've lost 300 million. Do you know how many years he will be sentenced? Matthew didn't do anything. How could we let him take the blame? My conscience won't allow me to do so!"

James slowly nodded too. His conscience was telling him that it wasn't the right thing to do.

A gloomy expression appeared on Liam's face as he had been planning to use the opportunity to send Matthew to jail. That way, he would be able to control the household.

After giving it some thought, Liam lowered his voice and said, "Helen, I understand what you mean but we have no other choice. We've lost 300 million so this matter will definitely be hard to solve. When people start asking questions, who will be the one taking the blame? Either we or Sasha goes to jail. What decision will you make? I don't want to do such a wicked thing either but we really don't have any other choice. Are you two really going to let yourselves or Sasha go to jail?"

James and Helen glanced at each other before James gritted his teeth and said, "Liam, this happened because of you, so shouldn't you be the one bearing the responsibility?"

Liam immediately replied, "James, I would take responsibility if I could but I'm not qualified to do so! I'm different from Matthew. He is a live-in son-in-law and part of the Cunningham family. I only married Demi and I'm not a live-in son-in-law. If I told the world that it was I who secretly transferred the company funds, do you think they would believe me?"

All of a sudden, James and Helen were speechless. As Liam had said, he was different from Matthew and couldn't bear the responsibility.

Looking at their expressions, Liam grabbed the opportunity and hurriedly said, "James and Helen, I know that you two are kind people but we have no other choice. The two of you are of old age. If you go to jail, you won't be able to handle it. I don't think you can watch Demi and Sasha go to jail either. If Matthew doesn't go to jail, who will?"

James and Helen fell into complete silence. After a long while, James muttered, "What... What do you think we should do?"

Liam was overjoyed to hear this and he hurriedly told them his plan.

As soon as Liam walked out of Wayne Group, he was suddenly surrounded by a few cars.

The man leading the group glanced at Matthew and asked, "Are you Matthew? My boss wants to have a chat with you!"

Matthew frowned and asked, "Who's your boss?"

The man sneered, "You'll find out once you get there!"

However, Matthew was unbothered and turned to leave.

The man was instantly furious and he yelled, "Didn't you hear what I said? I asked you to come with me..."

As he spoke, he reached out to grab Matthew's shoulder. However, Matthew grabbed his arm without turning back and simply twisted his hand, dislocating the man's wrist.

The man instantly screamed in pain before he roared, "How dare you f*cking hurt me? Men, beat him to death!"

With that, a group of men aggressively rushed over and surrounded Matthew.
