

Chapter 182

And these forces were enough to destroy the economy of any city.

Even the eight families in the capital city would collapse immediately under this kind of power!

Meanwhile, Juliette Yun who was at the Royal Villa received the news.

"Madam, the young master has called upon all the strength of our family in Shang Jiang City," the sexy and tall female assistant said respectfully.

At that moment, Juliette was getting out of the bathtub which was filled with rose petals. Her body was glowing and looked extremely hot. She put on her bathrobe and frowned. She asked, 'Why?'

'It's said that young master has lost something.'

The female assistant replied. She narrowed her eyes and did not dare to look straight at Juliette.

Madam's body was not something that a servant like her should see.

'What was it?'

Juliette asked with interest as she walked to the drinks rack and poured a glass of whiskey. She then crossed her arms over her chest.

"It's the thing that first madam left for young master." The female assistant replied.

Juliette's expression changed slightly and a faint sneer appeared at the corner of her mouth. She took a sip of whiskey, then raised her eyebrows and asked, "Have they found it?"

The female assistant shook her head.

Meanwhile, in the Sheng Ding Group's board office, Jason Smith stood coldly by the window overlooking the night view of the city.

Joe Qiao rushed in from the outside, leaning on his crutch, "Young master, They've found it!"

It had been found.

Jason breathed a sigh of relief, but his anger had not subsided yet.

"Where is the person responsible?" Jason turned around and his eyes full of anger.

Joe's heart trembled when he saw Jason like this.

After hesitating for a while, "Young master, I'm afraid it's not easy to deal with this matter."

Jason raised his eyebrows and sneered, "Is there anything I can't handle?"

Joe was also very nervous. He replied slowly, "Young master, it was your mother-in-law, Amanda, who took your mother's possession."

Bang!

Amanda Yang?!

When Jason heard this name, he was lost for words. How could it have been her?

However, Jason's was full of anger after a while!

Even Amanda could not touch the jade bracelet!

This mean mother-in-law was not worthy to touch it!

That was an insult to his mother!

Joe asked nervously when he looked at Jason's cold face, "Young master, how are you going to deal with this matter? Are you going to reveal your identity?"

Jason shook his head and said coldly, "No, I'll handle it myself."

After that, he rushed out of the board of directors' office. Then he got into his car and went straight to the Jiang family's old mansion.

He had been called a loser and looked down upon in Jiang's family for three years. He had always endured it.

However, Jason could not control his anger after he found out the bracelet had been taken by Amanda.

This rude and unreasonable mother-in-law always challenged his bottom line.

Putting her own life on the line.

"Alright, I'll show her what I'm capable of today and then maybe she'll behave herself for a while."

When he arrived at Jiang family's old house, Jason did not even bother to knock on the door. He kicked the door open.

Meanwhile, Amanda and a charming man were studying the jade bracelet on the table in the house.

"How much?"

Amanda was full of joy and tension. Charles Jiang had said that the bracelet was worth a lot of money so she wanted to sell it.

This man was a young boss who had been brought over by Amanda from a jade shop on the highstreet. He kept looking at the bracelet, his eyes flashed with surprise and excitement.

The best!

The top glass jade bracelet!

This thing turned out to be the bracelet that had shocked the whole country more than a decade ago!

This bracelet was supposed to be in a pair. One had already been auctioned but another had been hidden.

How could this kind of top-grade glass jade bracelet appear here?

The young boss was puzzled but he immediately thought of something. He nodded and shook his head, "Madam, this is a good thing but it's not worth that much money. It's a fake. Well, I'll pay one hundred thousands dollars. I'll take it."

The young boss knew very well that if this bracelet was sold on the market, it would be sold for at least one hundred million dollars!

"What? Just one hundred thousand?!"

Amanda heard the price and grabbed the bracelet back immediately. She shook her head desperately, "No, no. My husband said it's worth at least hundred thousands dollars. You're trying to cheat me!"

The young boss explained when he heard this, "Madam, I came all the way here. I wouldn't lie to you. This thing is a replica and it's really worth only one hundred thousand dollars. If you don't believe me, you can ask someone else. If anyone offers more than me, I, Tommy, pay them double the money!"

With this, Tommy Mao got up and was ready to leave.

He was the expert in this business. In a word, it was impossible for anyone to bid higher than him.

Therefore, he definitely could make money without suffering losses for his business.

Amanda was a little anxious when he saw the man getting ready to leave. She quickly pulled him, "Higher please, one hundred thousand dollars is too little."

A triumphant sneer appeared on the corner of Tommy's mouth. He sat down again, took the bracelet and looked at it a little more. He said, "Madam, I think you're also an honest person. I'll pay you one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. If you agree, I'll go back and get the money for you."

Amanda instinctively wanted to refuse when she heard fifty thousand more. However, when she thought that this thing was worth not that much, she hesitated.

Tommy was not in a hurry. He leisurely took a few sips of tea.

"How about it, madam? This is your only chance." Tommy tempted her.

Amanda gritted her teeth and said cruelly, "Okay, one hundred and fifty thousand!"

Tommy was so happy that he had got the glass type jade bracelet for just one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. He was going to become rich!

Suddenly!

Bang!

The door of the house was violently kicked open and both of them in the room were dumbfounded and nervous.

Amanda took the bracelet back from Tommy's hand for fear that it was a robber!

She was furious when she saw the person clearly. She pointed at Jason who had walked in with a cold face. She shouted, "D*mn you! Who asked you to kick the door?! What are you doing here? Didn't I say that I don't allow you to come into my house? Get out of here!"

This Jason's temper was getting so bad that he now actually dared to kick the door.

He was going to die!

Tommy was also shocked. After seeing the man clearly, he muttered a few words, "Madam, who is this? Do you want me kick him out for you?"

Amanda said fiercely, "He is my son-in-law, a loser. Don't worry about him."

Tommy suddenly felt enlightened. He showed a hint of mockery at the corner of his mouth, 'Oh he's just a loser. I wondered who this was.'

After that, the two of them got up and were about to leave.

However, Jason was furious and blocked the door. His eyes were red and his pupils were full of anger. He stared at the jade bracelet on Amanda's wrist and said in a low voice, "Take it off!"

There was unstoppable anger in his eyes. He was like a furious beast.

Amanda was scared by Jason's voice at that time. It was stern, just like the roar of a beast.

"You're dead! What thing? I don't know. Get out of here!"

Amanda knew what Jason was talking about as soon as she heard it. However, she immediately put her hand behind her back and pushed Jason with the other. She scolded, "Get out of here! Don't disturb my business dealing."

Tommy also laughed and was about to go out.

However.

Bang!

Jason kicked Tommy in the abdomen and threw him back into the house. Tommy fell heavily on the ground and was not able to get up.

Amanda was so scared when she saw this scene.

She shouted and hurried to pull the man up. "Hey, Boss Mao. Are you okay?"

"Jason, what are you doing? Are you crazy? You've been making trouble for me all day long!"

Amanda turned her head and glared at Jason fiercely. She got up, rushed over angrily and was about to slap him.

Pat!

However, Jason slapped her first!

He slapped Amanda very hard on her old face!

"Oh my god, someone hit me! My son-in-law hit me! Someone come and help me, please!"

Amanda was being slapped and fell to the ground. She covered her face with her hands, with blood coming from the corners of her mouth. She screamed like a banshee.

Then, she stared at Jason fiercely and swore, "Jason, you are crazy. You must be crazy! I'm your mother-in-law. How dare you hit me! I must tell Cindy about what you've done to me! I'll let both of you divorce! I also want to expose you online and call the police to arrest you!"

After that, Amanda took out her mobile phone and called Cindy. She patted her thigh and cried, "Cindy, come back quickly. I'm going to be beaten death by Jason!"

Cindy was working overtime in the company. Now that she received a call from Amanda, her head was in a mess.

Something had happened again.

"Okay, okay. I'll come back right now."

Cindy felt very helpless. She picked up her coat and hurried back to the old house.

On the other hand, Jason looked indifferent. He stared at Amanda, who was sitting on the ground crying and said coldly, "I'll say it again. Take it off!"

He walked step by step towards Amanda with a chilling aura coming from his body.

The anger in his eyes burnt even stronger than the flames in a furnace.

Amanda was very scared now. She just liked to bully honest men. She did not expect that Jason, who was usually such a loser, would be so different. How dare he beat her like this!

Too arrogant!

He was simply out of order!

If she did not punish him today, how could she call herself his mother-in-law in the future? How could she control a loser like Jason?

In a fit of anger, Amanda took off the bracelet from her wrist and was about to smash it on the wall. She scolded, "Take it off? Do you want this? I'll smash it and then neither of us can have it!"

Chapter 183

Amanda Yang had gone crazy!

Now she was full of anger!

She was extremely angry!

Jason Smith such a good-for-nothing. How dared he beat her? If she did not teach him a lesson, nobody would respect her in the future.

After she had finished shouting, Amanda raised her hand and was about to smash the bracelet against the wall!

Suddenly!

An angry roar that was like a flame erupting filled the entire living room!

"How dare you! You're asking for trouble!!!"

Jason's eyes were scarlet and his fists suddenly clenched. The corner of his eyes were filled with anger and blue veins appeared on his neck and forehead!

"Ah!"

Amanda was shocked. She was so frightened that she was almost scared out of her wits.

This was because Jason had already approached her before she realized what happened. His eyes were full of anger. He stared at her as if he was staring at a dead person!

Crack!

Jason raised his big hand, grabbed Amanda's neck tightly and lifted her up!

"Amanda! I've tolerated you for three years. Recently, you've crossed the line again and again. You're just looking for trouble!"

Jason was so angry and his words were relentless.

The cold aura exuded from him could freeze the surroundings for miles around.

Amanda kicked her legs wildly and kept hitting Jason's arm with her hands. She rolled her eyes and whimpered. She begged for mercy, "Let...let go, I...I'm almost out of breath..."

"I'm scared!"

She was scared from the bottom of her heart!

Amanda could feel the clutch of death at this moment.

Jason just glared at her and shouted angrily, "Hand over the bracelet!"

Amanda was afraid like a coward now. She immediately took off the bracelet from her wrist and handed it to Jason. She begged for mercy, "Here... Here you are. Let go of me. I'm going to die."

Jason took the bracelet indifferently and then loosened his grip. Amanda fell to the ground like a dead dog, coughing and gasping.

Her eyes were trembling. She had really felt the threat of death from this good-for-nothing son-in-law just now.

It was so horrible!

Was this the loser Jason who she had been scolding for the past three years?

After taking a deep breath, Amanda felt both afraid and angry!

How could she have embarrassed herself in front of this loser? If this news got spread out, wouldn't everyone laugh at her?

How could she be entitled again in the future?

The more she thought about it, the angrier she became!

Amanda got up from the ground. After Jason looked at the bracelet and calmed down, she slapped him on the face and pointed at his nose. "Jason, this slap is for you! I'm your mother-in-law, how dare you hit me? When Cindy comes home later, I'll let her divorce you! I'll drive you out of the Jiang family! I'll call the police and have you arrested, loser!"

She had to make Cindy and Jason break up.

He was too insane!

This guy was getting more and more rampant now. He had already dared to domine on me. In the future, could he become even worse?

Jason stood there, holding the bracelet in his hand and stared at Amanda with dark eyes.

She was indeed a vicious woman who was not afraid of death.

She still did not realize her mistake.

Bang!

One punch!

Jason made a move immediately. This punch contained all his anger, he slammed it on Amanda's face.

"Ah, oh!"

Amanda fell to the ground on her back and her nose was bleeding. She covered her face, curled up in front of the sofa and kept crying for help.

"Blood, I'm bleeding. Help! he's trying to kill me!"

However, Jason stood silently in front of Amanda and looked at her crying on the ground. He said in a cold voice, "I'll give you a piece of advice. Although I'm just a loser in your eyes, I have limited patience. If you ever challenge my bottom line again, I won't mind killing you!"

Killing her?

Amanda was so scared that she trembled on the spot. She could see that Jason really seemed to be capable of doing it.

Why was this guy being so fierce?

How dared he say he would kill her ?

"You... Get out! There will never be a son-in-law like you in the Jiang family!"

Amanda was frightened. She covered her nose and pointed at the door.

She was extremely afraid. She was afraid that Jason would do something more serious if he had really lost his mind.

Meanwhile, Cindy appeared at the door.

She was shocked, especially when she saw the situation in the house. She rushed to help Amanda and asked in surprise, "Mom, what's wrong? I'll take you to the hospital."

Amanda was relieved when she saw that Cindy had come home. She immediately shouted, "Go to the hospital? Just let me die in this house. Do you know who beat me up? Jason beat me!"

Cindy turned her head when she heard this. She looked at Jason angrily and was puzzled. She asked, "Jason, what are you doing? She's my mother!"

Jason knew that things would be like this. The matter could never be solved whenever Amanda was there.

He said coldly, "It's true that she's your mother, but you should ask her what she had done."

"You, you bullsh*tter! What did I do? Isn't it just a broken bracelet? Why did you hit me like this? I'm your mother-in-law. Karma is going to bite you back! I don't care. Both of you must divorced today! If you don't divorce, I'll smash my head against the wall!"

Amanda lost her temper and began to pester them.

She definitely would not let Jason leave unless she could vent her anger.

Cindy could not figure out what was going on. She helped Amanda to stop her nosebleed. However, she refused, "Don't touch me. Let's go and show our neighbors. Let's show them how great our Jiang family's son-in-law is. He even beat his mother-in-law. I don't think he will dare to go out in the future."

Cindy knew her mother's temper well. She got up, pulled Jason aside and asked with a cold face, "Jason, what's going on? Did you beat my mother like this?"

Jason took out the bracelet in his hand and said coldly, "Your mother stole this from us and she wanted to sell it."

Cindy looked down at the thing in Jason's hand. She knew it. It was Jason's most precious belonging and he said that it had belonged his mother.

However, it was a bit of an overreaction to beat someone just because of a bracelet.

Jason saw the confusion on Cindy's face. After a long silence, he said, " From my mother's will."

Thud!

Cindy's heart trembled. Jason's mother's will meant that her mother-in-law had passed away...

All of a sudden, Cindy understood why Jason was so angry.

Her mother had really done something stupid this time.

This time, she would stand by her husband's side without any hesitation!

Cindy turned around and looked coldly at Amanda on the ground. She said unhappily, "Mom, you've gone too far. Do you know what meaning this bracelet has to Jason?"

Amanda did not care and said angrily, "What is it? Is it a treasure? Even if it's a treasure, he can't hit me."

Cindy knew Amanda's attitude. She really did not understand how her mother could lecture people with this kind of attitude.

"Mom, that was Jason's mother's possession. It's my mother-in-law's belongings. How dare you steal and sell it? You've gone too far!"

Cindy said coldly. For the first time, she felt helpless and disappointed in her mother.

Amanda was shocked when she heard this. Was it Jason's mother's old possession?

His mother was dead?

What the f*ck!

"What? A dead people's possession? Such bad luck! I'll burn incense and pray to Buddha tomorrow to get rid of the bad luck!"

Amanda jumped up at once, as if she had sat in thorns.

Jason's calm mood suddenly became angry again when he heard this!

"Say it again!"

Jason became angry again. How could Amanda say such stupid words!

Amanda was shocked by Jason's imposing manner. She was afraid of another punch from him and she muttered a few words.

On the other hand, Cindy was feeling stress in between. She pulled Jason and wanted to leave. She turned back and glared at Amanda, "Mom, don't do this again in the future. I really feel ashamed of you."

Ashamed?

Amanda also became angry. She pointed at Cindy, "Well, well, well, now you're grown up, you don't side with your mother anymore? You can run away with this loser, I don't have a disrespectful daughter like you!"

Cindy stopped and looked at Jason who was beside her. After a moment of silence, she said, "Alright, I won't come back anymore!"

The mother and daughter's relationship was cut off with just this one sentence.

Cindy made a decision that Jason was all she needed. The incident that had happened today was all her mother's fault.

Just cut it off!

Amanda was so angry that she smashed the things around her. She pointed at Jason, "And you, loser, don't come here again in the future. You're not my son-in-law. Get out of here, all of you!"

She was so mad!

Her daughter had completely betrayed her!

Just for this useless stinky man!

Jason turned around and looked coldly at the furious Amanda. He said, "To tell you the truth, I don't care whether I'm your son-in-law or not. The property ownership certificate that you got from our house, I'll give it as a gift for you. I don't want that house anymore. Cindy and I will move to a new house in a few days. I hope you won't ask to live with us!"

After that, Amanda sneered, "Can a loser like you really afford to buy a house? Sleep on the street!"

Jason shook his head and his eyes turned cold.

He said, "Amanda, I'll give you a piece of advice. If you dare to bully Angela again in the future, don't blame me for being rude to you!"

After that, Jason and Cindy left the Jiang family's old mansion.

Amanda was the only one left in the room. She was so angry that her stomach hurt and she smashed everything around her.

The owner of the jade shop had already ran away.

"Alright... all just being ungrateful!"

Amanda was so angry that her hair was in a mess. She rushed into the kitchen. Her heart was full of viciousness when she looked at the Chinese medicine that she had brewed.

It was probably for the baby's sake that Cindy stood by Jason.

She had to make Cindy drink the medicine tomorrow.

If Cindy refused to drink it, she would pour it down her throat!

"My daughter can't be with that loser!" she thought.

She must married into a wealthy family!

The next day, Amanda called Cindy and asked her to come home, telling Cindy that she had something to discuss with her.

Cindy was still angry with her mother because of what had happened the night before. However her mother made all kinds of excuses on the phone, saying that she was looking for an opportunity to apologize to Jason.

Cindy who was kind- hearted believed it. She returned to the Jiang family's old mansion at noon.

"Mom, why are you looking for me?" Cindy entered the room without taking off her shoes.

Amanda just took out the Chinese medicine from the kitchen and said with a smile, "Cindy, this is the medicine I brewed for you. You didn't drink it last time. Today, you have to drink it no matter what. Don't waste my painstaking efforts."

Chapter 184

Jason Smith had suddenly received a phone call from Joe Qiao half an hour earlier. It was something urgent.

After leaving the hospital, he saw Joe standing in front of the Rolls-Royce while holding a crutch.

Joe was dressed in a suit and a hat. He looked very proper.

But when Jason walked closer, he saw that Joe looked extremely nervous. He was sweating profusely.

Something had happened!

He had to tell young master all about it as soon as he could.

"What's the matter, Joe? Why were you looking for me?" Jason walked out the hospital entrance.

"Young master, I've made a terrible mistake."

Joe bent down and lowered his head. He looked very respectful and was obviously blaming himself for what had happened.

Jason narrowed his eyes. It was the first time that he had seen Joe acted this way. He smiled and asked, "What's going on?"

Joe was afraid to hide anything from Jason, so he replied, "Young master, young madam and her baby may be in danger."

All of a sudden!

Jason looked concerned and did not understand what Joe meant by this. He asked nervously, "What do you mean?"

Joe wiped the sweat from his forehead, "Young master, when we were looking for the bracelet yesterday, our subordinates found that your mother-in-law, Amanda have been to a Chinese health store and had bought some medicine."

As Joe spoke, he looked at Jason's face. He seemed very calm.

"Go on." Jason said with anticipation. He had already sensed a crisis.

"According to my subordinates, there's one of this in the medicine..."

Joe was sweating. He did not dare to say anything more.

The truth would cause a life to be taken!

"Say it!"

Jason's facial expression changed. His tone suddenly became sharp. He was like a bomb that was about to explode!

"It was abortion medicine!"

Joe lowered his head even more after he saying this. He apologized, "Young master, it's all down to my negligence."

However, Jason did not say a word. His eyes suddenly darkened and anger consumed him. He clenched his fists and shouted with his deep voice, "I'm going to kill her!"

Then, Jason quickly took out his mobile phone and called Cindy.

But she did not answer!

This really made him so anxious!

Jason seemed a little overwhelmed. He instead called Mandy, "Where is Cindy?"

"She's home. I saw her answer a phone call. It was from your mother-in-law," Mandy replied.

Pat!

After Jason hung up the phone, he quickly got in the car. He told Joe to drive to the Jiang family's old mansion.

He could not let anything happen to her!

This damned Amanda. He had gave her a chance last night but now she was still making trouble!

This was the last straw!

She had to hold responsible for harming Cindy!

Meanwhile, in the Jiang family's old mansion, Amanda was pulling Cindy's arm to sit down, "Cindy, I was wrong. Tomorrow, I'll apologise to Jason. Is that okay? Please drink this medicine. It's good for you and the baby. This is what I have been brewing all morning."

Cindy sat on the sofa. She looked at her mother's attentive look and felt helpless.

However, the bowl of Chinese medicine on the tea table smelled horrible.

"Mom, can I not drink it? It smells terrible," Cindy said with her lips pursed in disgust.

She had hated taking medicine ever since she was a child, especially hated this kind of Chinese medicine.

Amanda was unwilling to give up. She pretended that her feelings were hurt and looked as if she wanted to cry. She said, "Cindy, are you still angry with me? Then I might as well kill myself. I put lot of effort to brew you this bowl of pregnancy medicine. You still don't want to have it. What's the point of me being here?"

Cindy felt uncomfortable and helpless when she saw Amanda acting like this.

She could only give in.

"Okay. Okay. I'll drink it, okay?"

Cindy was like an obedient little girl. She glanced at Amanda with a smile on her face.

"Mom really cares about me," she thought.

Amanda smiled. She picked up the bowl and handed it to Cindy, saying, "Good girl, you're my perfect daughter. I'm your mother, I'll always take care of you."

Cindy picked up the bowl and took a sip without hesitation.

However, as soon as she took a sip, she had a reaction. Then, she rushed to the bathroom covering her mouth and began to vomit.

Amanda looked at the bowl of Chinese medicine that Cindy had just taken a sip from. She was worried.

However, she still followed her to the bathroom. She patted Cindy's back and said with concern, "Do you always vomit like this? This child tortures you a lot. It's obvious that he's going to be very naughty."

Cindy felt uncomfortable. She could not relax because of the smell coming from the Chinese medicine.

She vomited for a while more before returning to the living room.

Amanda could not wait to pick up the bowl again, "Drink it. Did you see how terrible you vomited just now? The Chinese medicine doctor told me that if you always vomit, this will help."

"Really?" Cindy hesitated and took the bowl.

Amanda nodded, "Why would I lie to you? Drink it."

Cindy picked up the bowl and was about to drink. However, she stopped and said with a smile, "Mom, it's cold."

Amanda was a little anxious when she heard this. She touched the bowl and said, "It's not that cold, but okay, I'll heat it up for you."

She rushed to the kitchen in a hurry. After Amanda had heated up the medicine, she served it to Cindy again.

This time around she had to make Cindy swallow all of it, no matter what!

Without any hesitation, Cindy took it and was about to drink.

Suddenly!

Bang!

The door of the house was violently kicked open from outside.

Cindy turned around and looked at the door. She could only see a tall figure standing in the doorway. Then the figure rushed in, grabbed the bowl from her hand and smashed it heavily on the floor!

Crash!

The bowl smashed into pieces!

Amanda suddenly burst into anger when she saw that the bowl being broken. She stood up, pointed at Jason and scolded, "Jason, what are you doing?! Do you still have respect for your mother-in-law?!"

Pat!

However, Jason responded to Amanda with a slap given in anger!

His slap made Amanda fall to the ground until she was not able to get up for a long time.

"Jason! What are you doing?"

Cindy was scared. She did not expect that Jason would suddenly rush in, smash the bowl, and hit Amanda right in front of her.

Jason was so angry. He turned around and stared fiercely at Amanda who was still on the ground. He pointed at the broken bowl of Chinese medicine on the ground. Then he roared, "Amanda! You have crossed the line! If anything happens to Cindy and the baby in her belly, I will never forgive you!"

After Jason done shouting, he turned around and hugged Cindy who had no idea what was going. He then ran out of the Jiang family's old mansion in a hurry and went to the Rolls- Royce that had been waiting outside the door.

When Cindy saw the Rolls- Royce, she was stunned.

When she saw Joe sitting in the driver's seat, her shock was magnified ten fold.

Joe, the richest man in Shang Jiang City, was sitting in the driver's seat. He had left the back seat empty for Jason and her.

What.. What was going on?

Cindy was being tightly held in Jason's arms on the way to the car. She did not dare to move or say a word.

When they arrived at the hospital, they saw that the entrance was full of doctors. Some of them were old and obviously experienced. Even the director was waiting respectfully at the door.

This scene attracted attention of countless people!

Which big shot was going to see these doctors? There were so many experienced doctors. Even the director was waiting at the entrance in person. Looking around, they were all dressed in typical white doctor's uniforms.

Cindy only realized what was happening when she had been put on the bed. She was surrounded by a group of people. She was even being pushed into the special care consulting room.

"Jason!"

Cindy held Jason's hand tightly and tears fell from the corners of her eyes. She only muttered, "She's my mother."

Jason watched Cindy being pushed into the consulting room. He looked worried and was unable to say a word.

Half an hour later, the director came out with seven or eight experienced doctors. He stood respectfully in front of Jason, "Young master, young madam is fine for the time being. She has had her stomach pumped and scans show that the fetus is alive and well. She needs to be observed in the hospital for a few days."

Jason nodded and then pushed open the door to the ward and walked in.

Cindy looked a little uncomfortable on the bed. Her lips were pale and her eyes were red. Obviously, she had been crying.

She was anxious to sit up when she saw Jason came in. However he pressed her back down.

"Jason, I'm sorry. I'm sorry. After all, she's my mother. Please, don't do anything to her. The child and I are fine."

Cindy held Jason tightly. The tears in the corner of her eyes were falling like drops of rain.

She did not know why but she could sense that Jason was very angry. This anger was the anger that Amanda should never have awoken.

Cindy was scared.

"Cindy, don't you hate your mother for doing this?" Jason asked.

Cindy bit her lips. She did not expect that her mother would do such a thing.

This was Jason and their baby.

Why would she do this?

"Have a good rest. I'll be back soon." Jason said as he got up.

She covered her face with her hands and cried. At this moment, she was being torn in two.

What Amanda had done had exceeded the limits that Cindy was willing to tolerate.

"Mom, you're so cruel! I'm your daughter!" Cindy burst into tears in the ward.

Jason walked out of the hospital and lit a cigarette.

Bruce Scott and Paul Reed had waited by the door.

"Mr. Smith, everything is ready." Bruce said respectfully as he bent over.

"Let's go."

Jason put out the cigarette butt casually. He got into the black Maybach 62S with a cold and murderous look on his face.

Chapter 185

A Maybach 62S stopped in front of the Jiang family's old mansion.

There were five black Mercedes-Benz behind it!

It was a fleet!

As soon as these cars appeared, the attention was drawn of all the passers-by and residents of the neighbourhood.

"Wow! Look at all these luxury cars. I wonder who it could be?"

"D*mn it! Maybach 62S, it's Bruce Scott! Why has he here?"

When everyone watching heard that it was Bruce's car, they became scared and took a step back.

He was gang leader of Shang Jiang City.

Just the mention of his name would cause nightmares for the citizens.

Who would dare to offend him?

Why would such a power figure come here?

"Hey, hey, hey, they're getting out of the cars. Who is it? That young man looks so familiar."

"Look! That's Bruce. Next to him is his right hand man, Brother Paul!"

"Who is that other guy? I can't believe Bruce is being so respectful to him."

The group of people discussed about the scene as they watched from afar.

It was impossible not to pay attention to such a scene.

"He's going to visit the Jiang family!"

As a member of the crowd shouted this, their gaze become fixed on him. They saw the young man leading his men into the Jiang family's old mansion.

Bruce waved his hand and seven or eight of his followers rushed into Jiang family's old mansion. They lined up and stood in the living room.

Amanda Yang and Charles Jiang were dragged out of the bedroom.

Both of them were wearing pajamas during their afternoon nap. At this moment, they were thrown to the ground.

"Who are you? How did you get in? I'm calling the police!"

Amanda stood up angrily and shouted all while pointing at the thugs in black suits .

Was she not afraid?

She was afraid!

It was no use showing fear, she had to pretend to be fierce.

"Sh*t! Do you think you're a gangster just because you're wearing a black suit? I'll call the police and have you all arrested!"

Amanda was terrified that she had done something wrong. She ran over to pick up the phone from the coffee table. She was desperate to make a call.

However...

Paul Reed walked in and slapped Amanda to the ground. He grabbed the phone from her hand and smashed it into pieces!

Amanda was brought back down to Earth with this slap. She fell to the ground and huddled up to Charles. Blood was flowing down from the corner of her mouth.

This slap knocked out a few of her teeth.

"You... You... Who the hell are you? This is trespassing. It's against the law. If you don't leave now, I'll call the police!"

Amanda was really scared. There were eight people standing in the room. The strong man who was leading them stared with a fierce look.

Did he want to eat her?

Charles was being very timid. He hid behind Amanda and muttered, "Have you caused trouble again? Why are these people here? Is it something to do with the person that hit you last time?"

As soon as he mentioned this, Amanda felt sick to her stomach. She shook her head desperately and faltered, "I...I don't know. I haven't been out for two days and I haven't offended anyone."

"You haven't offended anyone?"

At this moment, Bruce walked into the room. He stode over with an air of confidence.

"Brother Bruce!"

As soon as Bruce entered, all the men in the room shouted respectfully in unison.

Hearing the man shouting "Brother Bruce" made Amanda choke.

This was exactly like a scene from a Hong Kong movie. It was so scary. These are gangsters.

Who on Earth did she provoke?

"Are you Bruce Scott?"

Charles and Amanda both recognized him immediately. Wasn't he the one at the Old Master's birthday party?

Why would he come to her house?

They definitely did not provoke him.

Bruce walked in. He looked at Amanda and Charles with a stern expression, "Don't you know what you've done? Don't you know who you've offended?"

Amanda retraced events in her mind. "I really didn't offend anyone."

Did offending Jason Smith count?

Of course not!

He was just a loser!

How could he possibly get so many people to teach her a lesson?

Amanda took her afternoon nap in peace because she knew Jason would not make trouble.

Of course, she did not tell Charles that Jason had been beaten her. After all, she would be in trouble if anyone found out about what she had done with the medicine.

"Brother Bruce, I... I don't know. For the sake of my age, can you let us go? How much money do you want? I'll give it to you."

Amanda was extremely scared. Rumor had it that Bruce would kill people without batting an eyelid.

Therefore, she immediately rushed into the bedroom, took her bank card and deposit book. She put them on the tea table with trepidation, "Here, there are two million dollars. Brother Bruce, please accept it. Let us go."

Amanda was so afraid that she wanted to bribe Bruce with money.

However, Bruce just smiled without even glanced at the bank card and deposit book. He said, "Sorry, you offended someone you shouldn't have. I'm here to teach you a lesson that you won't forget."

Bruce waved his hand.

Eight of his men rushed over. Two of them held Charles down, while the remaining six took turn beating Amanda

Pat! Pat! Pat!

The sound of the beating could be heard throughout the house.

Amanda's face was slapped until it was swollen. Her face was black and blue and her mouth was bleeding.

Charles was watching from the side. He desperately cried for help and begged for mercy, but it did not help.

Bruce snapped his fingers. Paul held a bag of medicine, sneered and walked over to the almost unconscious Amanda.

Amanda was scared when she saw the medicine in his hand. She shook her head desperately and cried, "I was wrong. Brother Bruce, please spare my life. Don't poison me, don't..."

However, it did not work.

Paul pinched Amanda's neck. The others pinched Amanda's lips and poured the medicine down her throat!

In the end, karma would find its way!

Amanda raised her head and was forced to swallow the medicine. She kept wrenching but swallowed more than half of it.

Then, Paul loosened his hand and Amanda collapsed to the ground like a dead dog.

"Let this be a warning! Be careful in the future. I advise you to be kind from now on!"

Bruce said this sternly and then left with his men.

Amanda was scared out of her wits. She ran to the bathroom and tried to throw up.

However, she could not get anything out.

She lay on the ground and burst into tears. "I'm going to die. I'm going to die. This is murder. Charles, take me to the hospital!"

After Bruce and others left the Jiang family's old mansion, they met Jason at the door. They got in the cars one after another.

Paul took out another bag of medicine from his pocket and drank it. He muttered, "Isn't this medicine very delicious? Huh, Mr. Smith is still too softhearted."

Then, the convoy left the Jiang family's old mansion.

Meanwhile, the onlookers suddenly burst into discussion.

"Fk! Isn't that the loser from Jiang family?"

"Gosh, is there something wrong with my eyes? I can't believe he knows someone like Bruce!"

Everyone was dumbfounded.

The Jiang family was on his list.

Ten minutes later, Charles and Amanda rushed out.

Amanda had a scarf wrapped around her head and was wearing sunglasses.

Jason arrived in an alley.

He was in the Chinese herbal shop.

As soon as Jason entered, seven or eight men rushed out behind him and began to smash everything in sight!

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The fat middle- aged owner was anxious and shouted desperately, "Hey! Hey! What are you doing? Who are you? I'm calling the police!"

However, the only reply he got was from Jason's foot!

Jason kicked him to the ground.

The fat middle- aged man knew instantly that these visitors meant business. He lay on the ground and said with fear, "Who...who are you?"

Jason stared at the fat middle- aged man coldly, "Did you sell abortion powder two days ago?"

The fat middle- aged man knew that something must have happened when he heard this!

"No! No! Are you kidding me? My traditional Chinese herbal shop would never sell illegal medicine."

The fat middle- aged man explained it away but he was obviously guilty.

"Mr. Smith, I've found it!"

At this time, Paul came out of from the yard with a large box of medicine in his arms.

Subsequently, a gray-haired old gentleman walked out behind Jason. After examining it, he was very sure. "Young master, these are from the Strychnine tree, Arisaema erubescens and the Aconite Root..."

Now, the fat middle-aged man was speechless.

He immediately knelt on the ground and crawled to Jason's feet, begging for mercy, "Sir, I'm sorry I was wrong. A few days ago a woman who came to me to buy medicine. She did not say what it was for. I don't know that she would give it to your wife. Please give me a second chance!"

He surely knew the identity of the man standing before him.

He had brought so many people to smash his shop. He had even brought a Chinese medicine expert.

He was in trouble!

However, Jason just kicked him away and said to Paul, "Break his legs and throw him out on the street. I don't want to see him working in any pharmacy shops anymore. We will smash every pharmacy that he tries to open."

"Yes, Mr. Smith," Paul replied respectfully.

After that, Jason turned around and left.

At this moment, the fat middle-aged man finally understood what kind of trouble he was in.

Then, Paul walked over to him. After he let out a deafening scream, the fat middle-aged man was thrown out of the door. He lay on the ground, with no one knowing whether he was dead or alive.

After Jason left, someone came out to the alley and called an ambulance.

After returning to the hospital, Jason relaxed and entered the ward.

However, as soon as the door was pushed open, he saw a woman who should not be there.

Juliette Yun!

She was sitting on the edge of the bed at that moment, talking to Cindy Jiang.

The moment Cindy saw Jason, she asked calmly, "Jason, how much longer are you going to hide it from me? Aunt Juliette has already told me."

Chapter 186

The atmosphere was tense in the ward.

Juliette Yun smiled slightly in a pleasant way. However, Jason Smith knew that this smile carried hidden motives.

Her smile held a teasing and threatening intention.

She got up and walked over to Jason whose face darkened. She said softly, "Explain every detail to Cindy. We will meet again soon."

After saying this, Juliette turned to Cindy Jiang and waved, "Cindy, I'm leaving now. Jason has his reasons for keeping this a secret from you. I hope you can forgive him."

Cindy wanted to get up and send her off but Jason pressed her back down.

She could only smile politely, "Aunt Juliette, come over to my house next time. I would love to have you as my guest"

"Really?"

Juliette was obviously surprised when she heard this. She raised her eyebrows and said with a smile, "Okay, I'll come and visit you if I'm free. I hope it wouldn't disturb you too much."

Cindy said a few polite words to Juliette before she left.

Then, only Cindy and Jason were left in the ward.

"Close the door," Cindy said sternly.

Jason replied. He looked just like a guilty child who had done something wrong. He ran over and closed the door.

He was extremely nervous and terrified at the moment.

What had Juliette told Cindy?

His true identity?

Or something else?

"Sit down." Cindy remarked as she folded her arms around her chest.

Jason sat down immediately with a serious look, like an attentive primary school student.

"Well. When did you first start hiding the secret from me?"

Cindy asked in a cold and disapproving tone.

Jason saw the look on Cindy's face. He was quickly slapped on his arm. All he could say was, "Seven... seven years ago."

Thud!

Cindy frowned and looked confused. She continued, "Why did you hide it from me? I'm your wife."

Jason was saddened by this. He took Cindy's hand and said coquettishly, "Cindy, I didn't want to, but it's complicated, I..."

Cindy stretched out her fair and tender arms when she saw Jason's expression. Her slender hands held Jason's face and she smiled helplessly. "Jason, you are my husband. If anything like this happens in the future, please tell me okay? It's okay that Aunt Juliette is your stepmother. Why didn't you tell me?"

Stepmother?

Jason was confused and asked anxiously, "Is that what Juliette said?"

Cindy blinked, "Yes, she told me that she is your father's second wife. She came to Shang Jiang City just to see you. She also asked me to persuade you to come home. Your family needs you and your father wants you to go back. Why don't you make her promise? What happened between you and your dad? Let's set a day to go back."

Jason understood this but he was worried. He asked "Did she tell you about my family's business? Did she tell you who I am?"

What was Juliette trying to do?

"Doesn't your family run a restaurant? Didn't you tell me last time?"

Cindy was suspicious. Was Jason hiding something else from her?

"Yeah. Yeah. My family owns a restaurant."

Jason scratched his head awkwardly. However, he was thinking about Juliette's true intention of doing this.

"D*mn it, I almost gave myself away!" He thought.

"By the way, Jason, Aunt Juliette told me that your dad is sick. Do you really not want to go back and see how he is?" Cindy asked.

Jason held a fruit knife in his hand. He smiled and handed the sliced apple to Cindy, "It's all right. I'll take you and Angela there soon."

Cindy took the apple, "I know you may not see eye to eye with Aunt Juliette, but I think she's really nice. She talked gracefully. You should find an opportunity to sit down and talk things out."

Although Cindy did not know what kind of misunderstanding there had been between Jason and Juliette. She could tell Jason did not want her to know who Juliette really was because he had kept it a secret.

In truth, she was Jason's stepmother.

"No way, Jason. Did Aunt Juliette beat you when you were a kid? Is that why you hate her?"

All of a sudden, Cindy covered her mouth and her eyes widened. She thought of the stories told about rich and powerful families she had seen in Korean dramas.

Could Jason have had such a miserable childhood?

"No Cindy, don't think so much."

Jason smiled helplessly and stuffed the apple slice into Cindy's mouth, "Let's not talk about Juliette. I know what I have to do. Please tell me whenever she comes to find you in the future, okay?"

Cindy was stunned and nodded in agreement.

Cindy asked after she'd finished eating the apple slice, "Jason, how are you going to deal with my mother?"

Cindy was very worried that Jason would do something irrational in his rage. But after all, she was her mother and his mother-in-law.

Jason looked calm, "Nothing. Don't worry. If she's learned her lesson, she will control herself from now on."

Cindy nodded. Owing to this matter, she knew that her mother had done something wrong, so she would not argue with Jason.

Moreover, Cindy had already made her decision.

After two or three days, Cindy was discharged from the hospital.

As for Amanda Yang, she stayed at home and behaved herself.

She had been so frightened over the past few days that she did not even dare to go out to buy food. She was afraid of being beaten again.

The doors and windows were locked tightly even when she was at home. She was afraid that someone would rush in and beat her up again.

She was so afraid of being beaten that she had trauma.

Charles Jiang was also afraid. Until now his wife had not told him why this had happened to them.

She could not tell him who she had offended.

As for calling the police. Amanda did not dare to do that for the fear that they would take further revenge on her.

Who was the one who beat her?

Bruce Scott, the leader of gangster in Shang Jiang City!

Wasn't she asking for trouble?

"Charles, I suspect that it was Jason who asked someone to beat me. Last time Jason and Bruce were talking and giggling at dad's birthday party."

Amanda sat on the sofa with her swollen face. Her mouth was full of newly planted false teeth, so she could not speak properly.

"No, you keep saying that Jason asked someone to hit you. Why would he want to hit you?"

Charles would not call Jason back for no reason like he had last time.

He had to have a real reason.

Amanda was conflicted. She certainly did not dare to say anything about Cindy's abortion medicine. She just said, "Jason took back the bracelet. He said it was handed down to him by his mother. I just took it and wore it for a few days. Why did he arrange for someone to beat me?"

"Jason mother's heirloom?"

Charles was stunned. He did not expect that Jason's mother had passed away, he could not help but feel sorry for him.

Amanda kicked Charles hard when she saw his expression and scolded, "Hey, what's wrong with you? Why are you sighing? It's just a dead person. Now, it must have been Jason who arranged my beating. I'm going to vent my anger! If you don't help me, get out of here and don't bother sleeping in my bed!"

Knowing Amanda's temper, she had to get revenge if she felt she had been wronged.

She had been beaten up, so she had to get revenge.

It did not matter whether or not it was Jason who had asked someone to beat her.

Charles felt helpless. He sighed, "You don't have any evidence to say that it was Jason arrange someone to beat you. Can you stop being so unreasonable? Sooner or later this family will be destroyed by you. Can't we just live in peace?"

After that, Charles got up, entered the study room and slammed the door.

Amanda was cursing and venting in the living room. She suddenly thought of Randy He and called him.

"Randy. Yes, it's Aunt Amanda. Are you free? Come and meet me."

Amanda flattered him with her sweet tone.

Amanda packed her things after hanging up the phone. She went out wearing a mask and sunglasses.

When Amanda arrived at the restaurant, she greeted a waiter arrogantly at the door, "Mr. Randy's private room."

The female receptionist bent down quickly and respectfully. She showed Amanda to the most luxurious room on the second floor.

"Aunt Amanda." Randy had already arrived. He stood up and smiled politely.

"Oh, my! Randy, why are you so polite? It must be expensive to dine in here, right?"

Amanda sat down, took off her sunglasses and mask. She looked around.

It was a fancy place with sparkling wall. The waiters were also well-mannered.

Randy smiled and said modestly, "Aunt Amanda, it's not a big deal. It's only ten or twenty thousand dollars for us to eat here. It's not that expensive. Money isn't an issue as long as I can treat Aunt Amanda a meal. Have a look, what would you like to eat? The abalone and Panulirus cygnus is specialty dish. Would you like a bottle of Lafite?"

Chapter 187

Amanda Yang looked at the dishes listed on the menu. Only the Shark Fin cost six thousand dollars!

Panulirus cygnus lobster cost two thousand dollars each!

And the Lafite 1982 cost another two thousand dollars !

"These... Randy, isn't this too expensive?" Amanda felt a little nervous.

Randy He smiled, snapped his fingers and said to the waiter, "This is Aunt Amanda, serve all your special dishes to her and also a bottle of Lafite. Besides that, issue her a VIP membership card."

Amanda was overjoyed when she heard this. Randy was so impressive that he made Jason Smith look like even more of a loser.

After a while, the dishes were served. The waiter respectfully took out a new VIP card and handed it over to Randy.

"Aunt Amanda, this is my classmate's restaurant. This membership card is for you to use here. You will get forty percent off everything."

Randy handed the card to Amanda, "Of course, this will all be charged to my account."

Amanda took the VIP card gratefully and could not hide her excitement. "Oh, thank you so much. You're so impressive. If Cindy marries you, she will definitely be the happiest girl in the world."

After Amanda mentioned this, Randy smiled, "Aunt Amanda, can you tell me when is Cindy going to divorce Jason?"

Amanda thought deeply. She knew that Randy liked Cindy. She was determined to have him as her wealthy son-in-law.

"Randy, no worries. I came to see you today to discuss about this matter."

Amanda grinned.

After that, Amanda pointed towards her face.

Randy had already noticed that Amanda had a wound on her face. Had someone beaten her up?

"Aunt Amanda, who did that to your face?" Randy asked.

Amanda was very angry, "Who else could it have been? It was that loser, Jason! He arranged for someone to beat me up!"

"What?"

Randy suddenly became furious. He clenched his fists, "Jason is far too bold. How dare he get someone to beat you up? He doesn't take you seriously. Didn't Cindy say anything?"

Amanda made it seem like it was much worse, "Yes, that loser has been getting more and more absurd recently. He even dared to hit me. Cindy doesn't know. Even if she knew, she would still side with Jason. I don't even feel welcome in my own home. Jason is a cowardly, violent and cunning guy. He doesn't deserve to be my son-in-law. Randy, you have to help me."

Amanda's face had both snot and tears streaming down it.

Randy comforted her, "Aunt Amanda, don't worry. Jason, that loser, how dare he do this? I won't let him get away with it."

"Randy, don't you know a lot of gangsters? Can you help me find someone to teach Jason a lesson?"

Amanda stared at Randy with tears in her eyes. She looked very anxious.

If she did not get someone to teach Jason a lesson, she would never forgive herself.

At first, Randy wanted to make her a promise. However, he had second thoughts after he thought of what happened back in Juxian Chamber.

How could Amanda not know that Jason was related to Smith Group in the capital city?

"Aunt Amanda, I'm afraid it's not going to be so easy to deal with this. You don't know what really Jason does, do you?"

Randy said this in embarrassment.

Amanda felt that something was wrong when she heard this. She sneered, "What else does he do, apart from being useless? He's just a deliveryman."

"Is it true that he only delivers food?"

Randy felt suspicious and he told her everything he had seen back in the Juxian Chamber.

Amanda became terrified and her face turned pale. She muttered, "Randy, don't scare me. You mean, Jason is the young master of the Smith Group based in the capital city?"

Randy did not want to believe it either.

"It's impossible. Impossible!"

Amanda immediately shook her head, "You must have seen or heard it wrongly. Jason is a loser and he has been useless all his life. How can he be the Young master of the Smith Group from the capital city?"

Him?

Hilarious.

Absolutely impossible!

He had only been the good-for-nothing son-in-law in Jiang family for the past three years. He had always been obedient and kept himself to himself. He had never shown a sign of being anything other than that.

The only sign was that recently, Jason had become a little ruthless.

But Amanda did not care.

This bastard was probably tired of his ridiculous life and felt like challenging Amanda's authority.

Randy was suspicious after he heard what Amanda said, "Aunt Amanda, is Jason hiding something from you? Think about it more carefully. It's very important. I will know how to deal with him if I know what kind of person he is."

Amanda was lost in thought. After thinking for a while, she said, "Impossible, absolutely impossible! I know what kind of person Jason is. You must have been fooled by that rascal. In my opinion, he must have been impersonating the Smith Group's young master and using it to seem powerful. He has done this kind of shameless thing before."

Randy breathed a sigh of relief when he heard Amanda saying this.

It turned out this way.

D*mned Jason, he really scared him.

At first he really thought that this fool had a secret identity. However, it turned out that he was just pretending to be something he was not.

"Since Aunt Amanda said so, it'll be easy. He's just a loser I'll ask someone to deal with him right away."

Randy sat down calmly. He took out his mobile phone and made a phone call. "Hello, Brother Wolf, where are you? I need your help to teach someone a lesson. You can break his legs if you want to..."

Randy glanced at Amanda when he said this. She did not object to it.

It seemed that Amanda must hate Jason very much.

That was fine. The relationship between Jason and his mother-in-law was so inharmonious. Cindy would have divorce Jason sooner or later.

By then, it would be easy to make Cindy his.

Afterwards, Amanda ate the meal happily as she discussed how she would help Randy to get Cindy.

"Randy, listen to Aunt Amanda. Come to my house tomorrow. I'll ask Cindy to come over. You can take her out for a day. Hopefully feelings will develop between you two. She will soon remember what you two were like in high school.

It can be done if you develop feelings with her slowly."

Amanda said this before leaving.

Randy was so excited. He did not expect that Amanda would help him so much. He really did not know how Jason, the loser, could have beared with such a money hungry mother-in-law for the past three years.

"Okay, Aunt Amanda, I'll book tickets to Maldives. I'll come to your house tomorrow. When the time comes, you have to put in some a good word for me."

Randy smiled and took Amanda back to the Jiang family's old mansion.

Amanda began to make trouble as soon as she arrived home.

She kept calling Cindy, "Cindy, come home now. I have something to ask you."

She was in a good mood now, especially when Randy told her that the Smith Group from the capital city had invested one billion to Cindy's company. She was so excited.

One billion!

If this money had been given to her daughter's company, did that mean she was now worth more than one billion?

And she was part of the rich and powerful family now!

Who was this young master of the Smith Group from the capital city? So rich! Did he have a crush on my daughter?

As Amanda told Charles Jiang about this matter, her hands trembled with excitement. She kept saying, "Charles, do you think the Smith Group's young master has a crush on Cindy? Otherwise, why would he invest in her company for no reason? I heard from Randy that this Smith Group are the richest tycoons in the capital city. Worth hundreds of billions!"

Charles was petting the birds and had no time to talk to Amanda, so he said, "Don't tell me you're targeting the Smith Group's young master now? You'd better calm down. Haven't you been beaten enough?"

Amanda became angry when she heard this,

"What do you know? I'm just finding a good family for my daughter. Who do you think I'm doing this for? For myself? It's for my daughter's future."

Charles just shook his head helplessly and said nothing.

Soon after, Cindy arrived home with Jason.

The main reason Jason accompanied Cindy because he was worried that Amanda would make trouble again.

Amanda suddenly looked a little guilty and scared when she saw Jason. She did not dare to make contact with Jason's eyes and muttered to herself.

Although he could not hear what she was saying, Jason could tell that Amanda was scolding him under her breath.

Jason smiled helplessly and thought, "She seems to be more honest after being beaten up."

"Mom, what's the matter?"

Cindy did not want to stay in the house for too long.

"Cindy, did young master of Smith Group from the capital city invest one billion dollars in your company?"

Amanda took Cindy's hand and asked her this.

"Yeah, how did you know that?" Cindy was very curious.

"Don't worry about it. Do you know young master of the Smith Group?"

The more Amanda said, the more excited she became. She said enviously, "You have nothing to do with young master Smith? Are you hiding something from me? Does he like you? If so, you can invite him to our house to have dinner. Bring him to meet me."

Amanda looked hopeful.

"Mom, what are you talking about? I don't know the young master at all. Don't be so paranoid. It's just business."

Cindy was convinced. How could her mother be more fickle than a young girl?

Jason finally understood. Amanda knew about the Smith Group's investment in the capital city. She wanted to match her daughter with this young master Smith.

How would she react if she knew that this mysterious Master Smith was already standing right in front of her?

"What are you smirking about? Get out of here!"

Amanda suddenly noticed the sneer on Jason's face. She felt uncomfortable and rolled her eyes at him.

Meanwhile Jason also shook his head helplessly. He stood up, "I can tell you who the Smith Group's young master from the capital city is."

He did not need to pretend anymore. He was going to tell them everything!
