

Chapter 190

Jason Smith could see Hudson Han's boastful attitude.

Hudson felt at ease when he saw the envy in Cindy Jiang and Amanda Yang's eyes.

Well. If a man excelled in certain areas, it would mean that he could get better girls.

As for this, as long as he put in a little effort, wouldn't it be easy for him to get Cindy?

Hahaha!

Hudson had a proud look on his face at the thought of having sex with a woman as sexy as Cindy. This would embarrass that loser, Jason.

Jason could clearly see Hudson's intentions. This guy was a pain in the neck.

"Hudson, if you get in touch with Master Smith, you must tell me. I want to treat him a meal, and to get to know him as well."

Amanda looked at Hudson in expectation.

"Auntie, don't worry. It's not a big deal. After all, Master Smith and I are quite good friends."

Hudson told her the lie shamelessly. As he spoke, he looked at his watch and said to Cindy, "Cindy, it's perfect timing. You should come to the dinner party tonight. It's for Young Master Smith. He was invited by several directors from our pharmaceutical company."

Hearing this, Cindy turned and looked at Jason. When she saw no objection from Jason, she agreed, "Okay, then I'll need your help to introduce him to me."

Cindy did not want to accept the invitation at first. After all, it was at night and since she was pregnant, she would usually always pass on social activities.

However, it was a dinner with the Smith Group's young master and several pharmaceutical directors that had recently arrived in Shang Jiang City, so she would feel bad if she rejected it.

Therefore, she asked for Jason's opinion.

Everyone saw this.

Amanda was unhappy because she felt that Cindy did not need to ask permission from that loser.

17:49

Cecelia Zhou sneered and thought, "Cindy is really funny. Why is she asking for Jason's opinion on such a trivial matter?"

"Hehe, Amanda, so, is Jason the head of your family?"

Josephine was very unfriendly. She sneered and rolled her eyes with a look of disdain written on her face.

How could a b*itch like Cindy be controlled by such a loser?

Amanda could not stand hearing this.

This was what she hated the most.

A loser like Jason making a decision for her family?

Go to hell!

"Jason, go and pour us some tea!"

Amanda pointed at Jason angrily as she shouted.

Josephine's family sat there and looked at him with disdain.

Could Amanda just order Jason around and scold him?

Cindy's expression changed slightly but she did not say a word. She knew all her mother wanted to do was just show her status.

Jason understood the situation. He did not want to have a conflict with Amanda, so he obediently poured tea and handed it out to everyone.

The main reason was that he did not want Cindy to feel bad in front of Josephine's family.

He could bear it for the sake of his wife.

Amanda was very happy when she saw Jason being so obedient.

At first, she was worried that Jason would not listen to her. If that was the case, she would really have embarrassed herself.

"Go and mop around the house. Look at this dirty floor."

Amanda began to be insatiable, shouting and ordering Jason to work.

After hearing Amanda's orders, Jason rushed to pick up the mop. He mopped the floor until it was squeaky clean.

However, Josephine deliberately knocked over her water and threw seed shells on the floor. She sneered, "Jason, I'm sorry. I just dirtied where you just mopped. Why don't you mop it again?"

17:49

Disgusting!

Jason had an angry look on his face. After all, Amanda was his mother-in-law, so it was okay for him to do some chores for her.

Who the hell was her, Josephine?

Just as Jason was about to get angry, Cindy stood up. She pulled him over and whispered, "Don't be angry. Be patient. She is my aunt."

Humph!

Jason snorted and continued to mop the floor.

Amanda who was standing aside, broke out in a cold sweat. She breathed a sigh of relief.

She was nervous and wondered if Jason would again show his rebelliousness and beat Josephine?

She took a deep breath and wondered why hadn't Jason got angry and beaten up Josephine?

Amanda even began to nag Cindy when she saw her calming Jason down, hinting, "Why are you calming him down?"

After Jason had finished cleaning up, Josephine said arrogantly, "Amanda, you've taught your son-in-law well. He is really obedient."

Amanda smiled happily, "Can't you see who is in charge of this family?"

Hudson suddenly suggested, "How about this, let's go out and have lunch together."

No one had any objections. Amanda was happy to eat out. After all, she felt sick when she ate the food cooked by that loser.

Then, everyone got up to get ready.

However, Amanda turned to Jason, "Don't come with us. Angela is still in the hospital. You go and visit her."

So, he was not welcome to come along?

Jason was a little confused. He did not understand Amanda's intentions.

However, Josephine understood that Amanda did not want Jason to be involved in the following discussion.

If they could get Hudson to cooperate with Bi

Kang, then the one billion investment money would be theirs. They did not need Jason, an outsider to tell them what to do, or even to get a share of it.

Therefore, Josephine immediately echoed, "Yes. Yes. You'd better not come."

Jason felt helpless. He instantly understood when he saw the two sisters glancing at each other.

He did not want to get involved in their discussion. They must have set their minds on the one-billion-dollar investment.

It did not matter anymore.

He did not really want to have dinner with these money hungry relatives.

"Okay, then I won't come."

Jason turned around and said to Cindy, "Don't drink. It's not good for the baby."

Hudson and Cecelia heard it clearly and asked in surprise, "Cindy, are you pregnant again?"

Cindy nodded with a smile.

Hudson showed his displeasure. She was pregnant again.

Jason this loser had made this perfect woman pregnant again.

However, Hudson's smirk deepened after he realized that having sex with a pregnant woman would be a different kind of nice experience.

Seeing that no one wanted to take Jason with them, Cindy said, "Then I'm not coming either. Jason and I will go to the hospital to visit Angela."

Hudson was anxious and hurriedly said, "Hey. Everyone can come. It's just a meal. I can afford it."

With this, no longer did anyone object.

Soon, they were in Hudson's car and arrived to a newly opened seafood restaurant.

As soon as he entered through the door, Hudson showed his generous manner, "The Dragon King's private room."

The waiter led Hudson in with a big smile on his face. Amanda walked behind Hudson and the others. She was constantly looking around in awe.

After entering the private room, she sat down. She kept showing her interest, "Josephine, isn't it expensive to eat here?"

17:49

Josephine proudly touched her permed hair, "It's not that expensive. It only cost two thousand dollars to book this room."

Wasn't that expensive?

Amanda sat upright in fear at that moment. The fee for the room alone was two thousand dollars!

Her second Sister's family was really rich!

"Oh, isn't it all Hudson's money? Our Hudson is rich." Josephine grinned proudly.

Hudson was flattered by this praise. He smiled at the waiter, "Let's order the restaurant's Dragon King banquet."

"Yes, sir."

The waiter said this politely and left.

Hearing that it was not a cheap meal, Amanda asked in a low voice, "Hudson, how expensive is the Dragon King banquet?"

Cecelia took out a cosmetic box and touched up her makeup. She said indifferently, "It's only ten thousand dollars per pax. It's not that expensive."

17:49

Amanda immediately turned livid and sighed. She turned her head and glared at Jason who was playing with his mobile phone. She cursed him in her mind.

This loser was indeed a piece of sh*t!

"Amanda, just enjoy your meal. Don't worry about money. As long as Hudson is around, I won't let you spend money."

Josephine looked lovingly at her son-in-law, Hudson.

Amanda became even more upset when she heard this.

Why was such a good son-in-law with someone else?

Then she looked at her son-in-law, that loser, Jason sitting there like a dead log.

If Jason worked harder, she would not have to live such a hard life.

"Jason, what are you doing? You only know to play with your mobile phone all day long. How can you ever afford a place like Dragon Palace when you're on your phone all day?"

17:49

Amanda glared at Jason and said this discontentedly.

Jason chuckled.

He asked Joe Qiao on the phone, "Joe, is the Dragon King's Palace seafood restaurant owned by my family?"

Joe quickly replied, "Young master, no. But please wait for a moment."

Jason did not care, he put down his mobile phone. After a while, he received a text message, "Young master, I've bought the Dragon King Palace for you and now it's your property. What else can I do for you?"

Jason was speechless. This Joe was really so reliable.

Chapter 191

Jason Smith replied, "It's okay."

On the other hand, Joe Qiao replied, "Young master, are you in the Dragon Palace? Mr. Qian, the head of Smith Group from the capital city, happens to be with me. He wants to meet you and talk about Bi Kang's investment with you. Should I ask him to wait for you in the Dragon Palace?"

The head of Smith Group from the capital city?

Jason looked suspicious and a playful smile appeared on his face. He looked at Hudson Han who was still bragging away and replied, "Okay, invite him to come over."

After finishing, Jason put down his mobile phone.

The Smith Group was big. The branch in the capital city was just a small section of the company.

Amanda Yang was really disappointed. After muttering for a while, she smiled apologetically and said to Hudson and her second sister, "How could I let you spend so much? Why don't I pay for today's meal?"

She obliged to treat this people..

This made a deep hole in Amanda's pocket.

But there was no other way. She had to make a good impression.

How could a loser like Jason ever help her to gain respect?

That would never work.

"Oh, Aunt Amanda, it's a just meal. Why are you being so polite? Besides, Hudson's annual salary is more than four hundred thousand dollars. This isn't so expensive. But can Jason afford to pay the room fee? Can he afford to pay for the Dragon King's banquet?"

Cecelia Zhou put away her cosmetic box at this time. She sneered and mocked him mercilessly.

This was amazing. She had not been able to show off in front of Cindy Jiang for a long time.

If Cindy had not had found such a loser for a husband, Cecelia really would not be able to show off in front of a perfect woman like her.

"That's right, Aunt Amanda. You just enjoy the meal. This is just a small amount of money. It's nothing to me."

At this moment, Hudson was full of energy that he could show off his wealth.

His main reason for feeling happy was that he could do this in front of Cindy.

Thanks to that loser Jason, Hudson could look powerful and respected.

Amanda had almost buried her head at the bottom of the table. It was so embarrassing. She was really jealous of her second sister, Josephine Yang and also felt hate for Jason.

She looked at him.

Jason was still sitting next to Cindy with a silly smile and did not know what to say.

"Laughing?! What are you laughing at? Look at Hudson and then at yourself! If you were half as capable as him, I, Amanda, would give you respect!"

Amanda was so angry that she got a headache. She stared at Jason and complained.

Cindy wanted to defend Jason when she heard this, but Jason held her hand under the table.

"It's okay." Jason whispered in Cindy's ear.

On the other hand, Josephine and Cecelia who were sitting opposite to him gave a mocking laugh.

The feeling of being high above the masses and looking down on a loser was really satisfying.

Then Jason calmly said to Amanda, "Mom, in fact I'm quite rich as well. If you don't believe me, I will pay for today's meal."

"What?"

Amanda was so angry that she was about to explode when she heard this!

What did he mean by 'pay for the meal'?

Could he afford it?

The Dragon King's banquet cost ten thousand dollars per pax!

There were six people present which meant it would cost sixty thousand!

Was it possible that he just wanted his mother in law to pay in the end?

Therefore, Amanda immediately blamed Jason, "You are getting more and more shameless! Do you think you have money just because you say so? Whose money is it? It's Cindy's! How much money can you make in a year with your poor salary?"

"Mom, I'm really rich. I have..."

"What's you have? Shut up!" The more Amanda talked, the angrier she became. She immediately interrupted Jason.

Jason had nothing to say. He would definitely not be able to argue with Amanda, so he could only give up.

"Aunt Amanda, don't quarrel with Jason. I don't think it's easy for him. How about this? I can arrange a job for him where he will be able to earn more than ten thousand dollars."

Hudson said this in a generous manner.

Amanda nodded vigorously, "Then I'll leave it to you."

Hudson's vanity was greatly satisfied. He got up and walked over to Jason's side. He patted

Jason's shoulder and said with a smile, "Jason, as a grown man, you shouldn't rely on Cindy all the time. If you want to work and make money, you can come to me at any time. I can arrange it for you. What do you think?"

Jason raised his eyebrows and looked calm. Looking at the smug and arrogant Hudson, he thought, "Isn't this guy just using this opportunity to come to me and show off in front of Cindy?"

Could he make the arrangements for him?

He, Jason made arrangements for his CEO. And Hudson was going to make arrangements for him?

Did he really think he's useless?

"You don't have to do that, Hudson. I like depending on my wife to support me. She likes it too."

Jason was shameless. He pulled Cindy and said this with a smile.

"Okay, I'll support you." Cindy cooperated and smiled with shimmering light in her eyes.

Hudson was furious when he saw this. He sneered and sat back down without saying a word.

Cecelia finally understood. At this moment, she kicked Hudson hard under the table and muttered, "What do you mean? Don't tell me you've fallen in love with my cousin!"

Her eyes were full of murderous intent.

Hudson smiled and took Cecelia's little hand to explain, "What are you talking about? You're the only one in my heart."

Afterward, people felt awkward at this meal. Josephine's family always looked for opportunities to condemn Jason. However, Jason did not care. He just ate his food. He could not let these silly words spoil his mood during the meal.

Cindy was very worried and kicked his foot. She asked in a low voice, "Are you okay? If you're uncomfortable, I'll leave with you."

Jason smiled, "It's okay. I'm used to it."

Hudson was even angrier when he saw Jason and Cindy whispering. He had to make a fool out of Jason in public!

17:48

"Manager Sun, what's going on? Didn't I mentioned that I've booked the Dragon King's private room?"

At this time, a very uncomfortable middle-aged man's voice came from the door.

"I'm really sorry. Mr. Wang, it's my mistake. How about I change it to the Crown Prince's Manor for you?"

"Change it? What's the point of changing it now? I want this room! Do you know who Chairman Qian wants to treat today? Tell the people inside to vacant the room and I'll pay for it."

"Well... Mr. Wang, to tell you the truth, the person inside the room is Health Care Pharmaceutical's General Manager. I really can't afford to offend him."

Hudson was the Health Care Pharmaceutical's General Manager that Manager Sun mentioned. After all, it was listed and was one of the top five hundred companies. As a restaurant manager, he could not afford to offend him.

Hudson became angry the moment he heard the manager's argument from the outside. He stood up and shouted at the manager, "Who is outside the door? Don't you know we are eating? Manager Sun, send him out quickly!"

His shout made Josephine and other people in the private room feel that their status was heightened. They unconsciously puffed out their chests!

"I am Monte Wang."

As soon as he finished speaking, a man who was in his thirties and wearing glasses entered. He looked like a nice guy. He said politely, "Everyone, I'm very sorry. Can you change to another room? I've booked this room. You don't have to worry about the bill. I'll cover it. What do you think?"

"No! Why do you want us to change? What about the fee? Do you think you're better than us?"

"That's right. Who are you? What right do you have to tell us what to do?"

"Hudson isn't short of money, he doesn't need to change the room!"

Josephine and Amanda were the fiercest of them. They did not take Monte seriously at all.

Hudson panicked slightly at first when he heard Monte's name. It sounded familiar. However, his mother-in-law and his wife Cecelia spoke for him. He had to look tough, "Mr. Wang, we've only eaten half of the food. It's unreasonable for you to make us leave, isn't it?"

"Mr. Hudson? I'm really sorry. I hope you can do me this favor." Monte put his palms together as he said this.

"I'm sorry, I can't! It's okay if you want this private room. Let's talk about it after we've finished eating."

Hudson was stern. After all, he was in front of his mother-in-law and wife, not to mention Cindy and Jason were still here. He could not embarrass himself!

"That's right. Come back after we've finished eating. Hurry up and get out of here!"

Josephine began to swear again and said to Amanda, "Amanda, let's eat. Don't bother about him. Our Hudson knows the restaurant's boss. Who is Monte? I've never heard of him."

"Monte, what's the matter? Why haven't you changed the room? Master Smith will come later."

A voice came from outside, then an old white-haired man entered.

"Chairman Qian, you've come just in time. They don't want to change. Health Care Pharmaceutical's General Manager is treating his guests to dinner. He asked us to come back after they've finished eating."

Monte glanced coldly at Hudson as he said this.

"Chair... Chairman Qian?!"

Hudson's face turned pale with fear. He stood up in a flurry and panic.

"Hudson? Is this your private room?"

Hayes Qian had a vague memory of Hudson. He had met Hudson when he had last gone to Health Care Pharmaceutical.

"Chair...Chairman Qian, I, I didn't know that it was you who wanted this private room. This, this..."

Hudson's voice trailed off and he broke out in a cold sweat. This was the CEO of Smith Group from the Capital City!

The last time he met with Prosperity Pharmaceutical's director, he was fortunate enough to have met Hayes briefly.

17:48

It could be said that he was the spokesperson of Master Smith from the capital city!

"Well, I've invited a distinguished guest to dinner later. Would you please let me know when you give this room to us? What do you think?"

Hayes said this with a dignified look.

"No problem, no problem, Chairman Qian, please."

Hudson hurriedly nodded in agreement and then he winked at his mother-in-law, Cecelia, and the others. This showed that they had to change the room quickly.

Everyone became angry but dared not say anything when they saw Hudson's behavior. They swallowed their anger and walked out of the room.

Josephine even muttered something angrily in a low voice.

However, all of a sudden!

"Chairman Qian, why don't you wait until we've finished eating before we change rooms?"

Meanwhile, Jason, who was still sitting in his seat and eating, said calmly.

Chapter 192

"Jason, what are you doing?"

Hudson Han shouted angrily. It was not even the time for this loser to speak! If Jason Smith offended Hayes Qian, he would regret it.

"Do you know who he is? This is Mr. Hayes from the capital city branch of Smith Group ! You're too presumptuous. Apologize to Mr. Hayes immediately!"

Hudson felt anxious. how could Jason dare to say this?

This was the director from the Smith Group's capital city branch!

He handled the company's matters. That was a company that worth billions!

This truly showed Director Qian's power and networking ability!

"Are you crazy, Jason?!"

Josephine Yang exclaimed. She was almost scared out of her wits when she heard what her son-in-laws said!

17:48

Jason was too bold. Chairman Hayes was actually the CEO of Smith Group's capital city branch. What right did he have to poke his nose into other's business?

What a fool!

If they offended Director Hayes, everyone in this place would be in big trouble!

Therefore, Josephine and Cecelia Zhou's eyes were burning with anger at that moment. They stared at Jason who was still eating his dishes. They wanted to throw him out of the window so he could not annoy them anymore.

Amanda Yang was so scared that she did not dare to speak. Such a powerful figure was actually just standing in front of her!

Smith Group's capital city's CEO?

Wasn't that Young Master Smith's company?

Oh my God, was Master Smith in this restaurant as well? That was great.

Cindy Jiang's heart trembled when she heard

17:48

Hudson told her who he was. She immediately tugged on Jason's arm and urged him not to talk nonsense.

This was the rich man who had invested her company, so she could not afford to offend him.

If this rich man withdrew the investment because of Jason's nonsense, it would not be end well.

On the other hand, Hayes happened to hear this voice and frowned. When he was about to rebuke, he saw Jason leisurely eating vegetables behind the crowd. His eyes widened in shock.

Wasn't this the young master?

He was here!

Hayes' smile immediately changed to respectful and polite one. Just as he was about to run over to flatter him, he was halted by Jason's words.

"Chairman Hayes, I didn't expect to meet you here. Let's talk after we've finished eating. Anyway, you aren't in a hurry, are you?"

Jason said this calmly, but at the same time Hayes was stopped in his tracks by just one look.

Hayes who had been a part of the Smith family for so many years naturally learned the gestures. He immediately understood what young master meant. Young master wanted to keep a low profile. That was good.

He immediately smiled and bent over to Jason, "Yes. Yes. Yes. No hurry. I didn't expect Mr. Smith to be here, so I won't bother you. It's okay to go to the Prince's Pavilion. I apologize to everyone. Please continue eating and I'll change the room."

The people in the room were stunned and all stared at each other. They had no idea what had just happened.

Did Jason really just make Hayes exchange rooms with them by a few words?

This was unbelievable!

That was the CEO of Smith Group's capital city branch!

He was an experienced CEO who was in charge of a company that was worth hundreds of billions dollars!

What had happened to Jason? Was he still the loser they were used to?

Did he know Hayes?

Amanda and her second sister, Josephine were very suspicious. They looked over at Jason the loser, again and again.

Who was this guy actually?

After Hayes had left, the people in the room all looked at Jason with different expressions. They could not wait to find out.

Hudson turned around and looked at Jason who was still sitting there. He was full of doubt. Hayes had changed his mind because of what Jason had said.

And Hayes was from the capital city branch of Smith Group! That was so surprising!

It was the country's top company and wealthy family!

Anyone who dared to refuse them would be digging their own grave!

"Haha, Jason, I didn't expect that you'd know Director Hayes. Why didn't you tell me earlier?"

Hudson smiled. However envy and suspicion were hidden behind his smile.

Jason smiled faintly. He looked around at all the guests' eyes. They were eager to suck up to him, even though they were feeling suspicious.

He said, "Well, I admit that I know Director Hayes, but it's not as well as you think. I just met him when I was at home and doing business with my father. Director Hayes was not Smith Group's CEO back then. I didn't expect that he would be like this after so many years."

Jason said with a sad tone.

Hudson frowned. Although he was not very willing to believe it, it seemed to be quite credible.

Otherwise, how could Jason, a loser know someone like Hayes?

Josephine took a breath and said with a smile, "Haha, I thought that Jason was someone special. It turns out that they knew each other in the past. Director Hayes is really polite and just didn't want to quarrel with us. In my opinion, we should have given the room to him just now. So that we'll made a good impression on master Smith ."

As soon as she said this, Cecelia echoed, "Yes, mom, I think so too. But wasn't this Jason trying to show off? Well, now Mr. Hayes is gone."

Amanda was angry when she heard this.

Anyway, it was Jason's fault.

It was Jason's fault that he knew Hayes and it was also his fault that they did not leave the private room.

All in all, it was because he was a loser. So everything was his fault.

"Jason, when you encounter such a thing in the future, you should tell us. Don't just talk nonsense."

Amanda said discontentedly.

However, she had already set her mind on it.

What was Jason's family business in the past?

How could he know Director Hayes? It must be quite extraordinary.

Could it be that his family had gone bankrupt?

It was possible!

On the other hand, Cindy who thought totally different from others, scorchingly looked at Jason.

Had her husband been hiding something from her?

Since Jason had told her that his family owned a restaurant, Jason seemed to have changed a lot.

Today, what happened just now was another example.

Was it really that simple?

"What's wrong, Cindy? What's on your mind?"

Jason turned around and saw Cindy staring at him. His heart skipped a beat.

Had his identity been exposed?

Cindy smiled and said with her eyebrows raised, "It's all right. I'm just thinking about what kind of person my husband is, it seems a little mysterious."

What the f*ck!

No way, could she have guessed it?

Jason was a little flustered. He hurriedly poured a glass of wine to calm himself down, and then said, "You think too much. I'm just an ordinary person, your husband, and Angela's father."

Cindy nodded and said nothing more.

When dinner was almost over, Jason told Cindy that he wanted to go to the bathroom. He went downstairs and came to the Prince Pavilion.

Hayes had sent him a text message just now and was waiting for him in the room.

"Young master."

Hayes brought several people to greet Jason at the door respectfully with a very respectful attitude.

Jason waved his hand and motioned them to go inside to talk.

After sitting down, Jason looked around for a while and saw a middle-aged man sitting at the head of the table. He had a strong jaw and a thick pair of eyebrows. He did not look angry but he was stern.

"By the way, let me introduce him to you, young master. This is Director Dong who's responsible for sourcing and investment."

Hayes introduced this person with a smile and then whispered to Jason, "Young master, the high-level officials in Shang Jiang City want me to contact you in order to talk about their investments. Director Dong is their representative this time around."

Director Dong reached out his hand and shook hands with Jason. He said with a reddened face, "Master Smith, I've heard a lot about you. You're a good disciple from a powerful family. You're very talented."

After a brief introduction, Jason had some dishes again with several senior executives in Shang Jiang City and learned a lot about the current development situation of Shang Jiang City.

"Master Smith, to tell you the truth, we want to talk about the investment with you. Can you transfer some money to us for further developments?" Director Dong asked like a cunning old fox.

"How much do you want?" Jason asked with a smile.

Director Dong knew that it was possible, said while rubbing his hands, "Ten billion dollars. The main purpose is to build..."

"Well, you can negotiate with Director Hayes for specific details. It's just ten billion dollars. Let's try."

Jason said blandly.

Director Dong's heart skipped a beat when he heard that.

Ten billion dollars. How could they negotiate as easily as this?

Master Smith was really so rich!

Was ten billion dollars like nothing?

Director Dong had inquired about young master Smith, Charles Jiang's useless son-in-law before he came here.

Charles and Director Dong were companions when they were young. However, Charles' career was not smooth and he left early, but the latter had continued to get promotions.

Unexpectedly, Charles' son-in-law was the famous Smith Group's young master from the capital city!

Now, everyone in Shang Jiang City flocked to get to know Master Smith but they were rejected.

Even some of the businessmen and high-level representatives from other cities rushed to Shang Jiang City one after another. They were looking for opportunities to cooperate with Master Smith.

Before Jason left, he told Director Dong, "I hope Director Dong can take care of my wife's company if something happens to it.

Director Dong hurriedly agreed and did not dare to refuse.

After coming out of the room, Jason went back to Jiang family's old mansion with Cindy.

Then Cindy got ready to go back to the company. Jason accompanied her there. On the way, Cindy mentioned about the night's meal with Hudson.

"Jason, I'm going to have dinner with Hudson tonight. I want to meet the Smith Group's Master Smith. Do you want to come with me?"

Cindy asked. She was looking forward to it. Who was the Smith Group's young master?

As she thought about it, she glanced at Jason next to her. "Is it him?"

However, it did not take long for Cindy to dismiss this ridiculous idea.

It couldn't be him.

Jason shook his head hurriedly, "I don't want to go. You are about to talk about business."

17:48

Cindy nodded and said nothing more. She got out of the car.

Just as Jason was about to ask the driver to turn around and go to the hospital, he received a phone call from Joe Qiao.

"Young master, there is a meal this evening. Several board members of family's pharmaceutical industry have specially prepared a banquet for you. Many local pharmaceutical bosses want to meet you," Joe said respectfully.

Jason was stunned for a moment. What f*cking dinner?!

He thought that it was Hudson who was deliberately setting him up, and he was going to find Bruce Scott to teach Hudson a lesson this evening.

Should he go or not?

He had just told Cindy that he did not want to go. Wouldn't his identity be exposed if he went there?

"Ok, I will get there!" Jason thought for a moment and replied.

17:48

Whatever, just go. Just hoped that they would not be too surprised when the time came.

Chapter 193

At about six o'clock in the evening, Jason Smith received a phone call from Joe Qiao while he was accompanying Angela in the hospital.

"Young master, there's a banquet for you at Empire Restaurant tonight. Don't forget it. Do you need me to pick you up?"

"No, I can get there by myself." Jason replied.

He really had to attend the banquet.

He was looking forward to meeting all of these people.

How would Cindy Jiang react when she realised who he was?

And Hudson Han? Would he be so scared that he pee his pants on the spot?

"Hey, Gerry, let's go to the mall and buy some clothes later. Join me for dinner tonight."

Jason called Gerry Liu, "By the way, drive your car and pick me up."

Jason only occasionally made some phone calls with Gerry since the incident.

Gerry was busy recently. It was really not easy to manage a company.

Gerry only partially knew of Jason's identity, which was already beyond an ordinary person's imagination.

He would bring Gerry with him tonight to introduce him to some resources and contacts.

That's what a best friend could do for him.

"Okay," Gerry replied.

After hanging up, Jason received an invitation card which had been sent by Joe right after he walked out of the hospital. But unfortunately, he ran into Cecelia Zhou who was just about to get into a car by the entrance. And this car was obviously the Lincoln that Hudson had bought for her. It cost more than one million dollars.

Of course, Cecelia saw Jason as well. The two of them looked at each other but did not say hello.

Her eyes were full of contempt.

Hudson felt like showing off. He rolled down the window and said with a faint smile, "Hey, aren't you Jason? Where are you going? Do you want me to fetch you?'

17:48

"It's okay." Jason said.

Hudson did not intend on pick him up either. He was just teasing Jason.

"Haha, loser, do you really think I'd give you a ride? Why don't you look at yourself in the mirror?"

Hudson muttered to himself. His voice was that not loud, but everyone heard him.

He pretended to be a proper gentleman in front of Cindy. However, he showed his true colors in front of Jason.

"Hudson, are you all right? Why are you talking with that loser? Let's go." Cecelia sat in the passenger seat as she said coldly.

She felt very uncomfortable. She came to the hospital for a check- up to see if she was pregnant.

Cindy already had two babies. Why couldn't she conceive?

Could it be that she had always aborted her babies before, so now it was hard for her to conceive?

Jason smiled coldly after he saw the car driving away. He really did not know what expression Hudson would have on his face at the banquet tonight.

When they arrived at their destination, Gerry parked the one-million-dollar Mercedes he had just bought by the roadside. He waved to Jason with a smile on his face, "Jason, over here."

When Jason got in the car, he saw that there was a woman in there too. She looked so beautiful, well-shaped, polite, and sweet.

"Hello, Brother Smith. I'm Gerry's girlfriend. My name is Belle."

Jason looked suspiciously at Gerry who was sitting in the driver's seat. He smiled, "Alright, have you forgotten about everything?"

Gerry grinned and turned back to say, "I've forgotten all about it, it was just a life lesson. Belle is from my hometown. Now she is working as a secretary in my company. We're ready to get married at the end of the year."

Jason was even more surprised. He smiled,

"Congratulations. I'll be sure to attend your wedding."

There was saying that the best way to cure a man's broken heart was to find another girl and marry her.

After that, the three of them headed straight to Wanda.

The purpose of Jason going out was to buy clothes. He spent whatever he wanted. He asked Belle to make decisions for them, and they just bought whatever she recommended.

Jason tried on a suit in front of the fitting mirror. Belle stroked her chin and shook her head. Then Belle also shook her head after Jason tried on the British style...

He tried a dozen suits one after another but none of them suited him.

In the end, he bought the most fitted, comfortable and elegant casual clothes from Brioni.

Jason could not believe it when he looked at himself in the mirror. Was that him?

He was so damn handsome!

Sure enough, men have to take care of their appearances too.

After three years of being cooped up, he had almost forgotten how handsome he was back then.

Then, they went to the Cartier store to buy a watch.

"Just this." Jason pointed at the diamond-studded watch on the counter.

One hundred and sixty eight thousand dollars!

He swiped his card and left with a stride!

A row of female waitresses bent down at the door and shouted respectfully, "You're welcome here anytime."

Rich people could always make others bow to them.

Everything was ready. There were two rows of salesgirls carrying things behind the three of them. They walked out of Wanda proudly!

This scene caused quite a stir at Wanda's entrance.

What a nouveau riche he was!

17:47

This cost him five hundred thousand dollars in total!

Three of them had changed into their expensive clothes!

"Let's go to the Empire Restaurant."

As soon as they got in the car, Jason shouted in excitement.

Jason did not know how his old acquaintances would react to his outfit when he appeared at the important gathering.

"I, Jason, am going to the Empire Restaurant's banquet!" he secretly shouted in his mind.

The Empire Restaurant was located in the downtown area. It was a very luxurious five-star hotel in Shang Jiang City!

It was an ancient building!

The venue was magnificent and imposing with a total of seven floors!

The banquet must be very grand to hold the dinner here.

There were extremely strict security measures inside and out of the Empire Restaurant at that moment. After all, the guests present today were all big shots and entrepreneurs from the capital city. They were well-known businessmen from all walks of life in Shang Jiang City. Hence, they could not afford to be careless.

There were a lot of reporters, who were ready to capture the story, gathered at the entrance.

Jason parked the car in the nearby parking lot and walked over.

As soon as he arrived at the door, he was attracted by this magnificent classical building design.

"Let's go. Let's walk inside." Jason said.

Just when he was about to take out the invitation card to hand it to the security guard, an Audi drove over quickly. A young couple got out of the car.

"What the f*ck, Jason? Why are you here?"

The one who walked over first was Hudson. He took off his sunglasses and squinted at Jason and the other two people. "Yo ho, this outfit is not bad. It's Brioni and it must be worth around ten thousand dollars. You hired it, right? How much per day? Didn't you say you wouldn't come? Why are you here?"

Gerry was very angry. He clenched his fists in anger as he said this, "It's none of your business! Who the f*ck are you?"

He was very unhappy with Hudson's attitude towards Jason.

"Haha, these two people. The clothes they're wearing look like they were taken from a garbage pile."

Cecelia, the little bitch was wearing a lemonade color coat and a white light-doom color skirt. She had bare legs and tender skin. With her hands crossed on her chest. The contemptuous expression on her face was very obvious.

"Hey, what are you talking about? Don't you know how to behave yourself?"

Belle could not stand it any longer and immediately pointed at Cecelia and retorted.

But Cecelia was not an easy-going woman. With a sniff, she pointed at Belle and asked Jason, "Hey, is this your sugar mommy? I don't think she looks good. She looks like a yellow croaker."

F*ck!

Belle was so angry that she rolled up her sleeves and scolded, "How can you talk like this? Who's sugar mommy? I'm Gerry's girlfriend! Do you wish for a slap?"

How could Gerry's girlfriend be this hot tempered?

Jason was stunned by what he saw.

This girl looked as innocent a virgin but was as violent as a woman!

"What? Do you want to hit me? Come on, I'm not afraid of you! Ugly woman!"

Cecelia put up her chest and walked forward, looking as if she was not afraid of death.

"I think you three are b*tches that sleep in the same bed. Shameless!"

Cecelia turned her face and cursed them again.

"I dare you to say it again!" Belle was angry.

Jason quickly pulled the furious Belle back. He shook his head, "Forget it. Don't argue with her. Let's go in."

Belle cursed a little more, then turned around and followed Jason and Gerry in.

17:47

Hudson sneered, "Jason, don't tell me you're going in?"

"Yes, what's the problem?" Jason naturally turned around and shrugged.

"Hahahaha..."

With a burst of laughter, Hudson laughed and patted Jason on the shoulder, saying, "Jason, do you know what this place is? Do you know what's going on tonight?"

"The Empire Restaurant, don't you know how to read?"

Huh?

Hudson was stunned, but his words were stuck in his throat and he looked confused. He said, "Yes, this is the Empire Restaurant, but not just anyone can enter. Moreover, tonight's banquet is being held for the big bosses and businessmen from the capital city. Also for entrepreneurs from Shang Jiang City. What is a loser doing here? If you don't trust your wife Cindy, you can wait at the door. I can kindly get three chairs for you."

17:47

Hudson's meaning was very obvious. Jason could not get in and he could only wait at the door.

"Is that so?"

Jason deliberately asked in confusion. He frowned slightly. He was thinking whether to ask Hayes Qian to come to the entrance with some people to welcome him.

Chapter 194

Hudson Han found it funny when he saw Jason like this. He continued, "Jason, Jason, I have to admit that sometimes you are really stupid. This place has been booked by Director Hayes from the Smith Group today. Didn't you read the notice by the door? Not just anyone can enter. Only people with status in Shang Jiang City, such as those who own a company, those with tens of millions in assets, or someone who works in the government can enter. Do you think you can go in? Let me tell you, you'd better call Cindy and ask her if she can get you in."

"Haha, Hudson, why are you talking about this with him? He's just a poor man who hasn't seen much of the world. He's here to wait for Cindy."

Cecelia Zhou mocked him.

Jason Smith frowned slightly.

However, he was like a fool in Hudson's eyes.

He patted Jason's shoulder and fixed his suit tie for him, "Guard the door properly. What a good man! His wife is drinking with guests inside while he waits outside. It's really hard, but this job is suitable for a loser like you."

"Let's go, Cecilia. Let's go in and let them stay here."

Hudson took out the invitation card from his pocket and deliberately shook it in front of Jason. He then handed it to the security guard.

He passed through the entrance with ease.

Cecelia turned back and glared at Jason before opening the door.

"Jason, why don't you take out your invitation card? Look at his silly and arrogant look, I really want to punch him in the head!"

Gerry Liu said angrily.

Belle Zhao was angry as well. She did not know how a powerful person such as Jason could tolerate Hudson.

Gerry had told her Jason's identity. He was really awesome!

The Smith Group in the capital city belonged to his family!

That meant the distinguished guest who had been invited tonight was Jason.

Jason did not say anything. He took out his invitation card and handed it to the security guard. The security guard let him in respectfully.

It was not until then that Jason and the other two stepped into Empire Restaurant.

In fact, he could have made a phone call to make the rest of the people wait outside the door, but that would be too flamboyant. He just dismissed the thought.

They were not in a hurry to enter the venue and they took the opportunity to stroll around.

Meanwhile, a lot of local entrepreneurs and celebrities had already arrived at the venue.

They were clinking glasses and engaging in conversation.

"Have you heard it? The top distinguished guest that's been invited tonight is Master Smith from the Smith Group in the capital city!"

"I know. Master Smith was the one who recently invested one billion dollars in Bi Kang Pharmacy!"

"D*mn it! One billion dollars! It's so generous. Did you find out where this Master Smith is?"

Everyone looked shocked.

Those present were not ordinary people. They were all famous entrepreneurs and businessmen. Some of them were from the government and some of them were celebrities. When they heard the news about the one billion dollars investment, they were all shocked.

This was a big deal!

"I only know that his surname is Smith, so I call him Master Smith."

The crowd had different opinions. They spread all kinds of different rumours about Master Smith.

"Do you think that Master Smith will come here today?"

Someone asked as they kept looking at the people walking around and those sitting next to him.

"He will definitely come. Tonight's banquet is being held specially for him. Otherwise, do you think we would be able to see Master Smith? In my opinion, maybe Master Smith is already here.

We should be careful when we talk. After all, he is a rich man. If we offend him by accident, we will be finished." Someone whispered.

Later, the news was spread. There were people constantly looking for anyone with surname 'Smith' in the crowd. They would immediately go over and flatter him if their surname was Smith.

However, they were disappointed to because they were unable to look for him.

There was a group of people sitting on a sofa and whispering in the corner.

"Adam, your father is very powerful. I see that your father's name is in the main seat over there." Fiona complimented him.

Jason would have never have thought that Adam and Fiona would also come.

The gathering was full of successful people.

Adam smiled and looked at the seat of honor, "It's just so-so. They arranged it for my father. In fact, it doesn't matter. It's just a seat."

Haha, he just deliberately pretended to be humble. But no one said anything.

17:47

"By the way, do you know Master Smith? What does he look like? Is he a young or old guy?"

Fiona suddenly became interested.

Adam shook his head, "I don't know. I've asked my father, but he hasn't seen him. He just mentioned that Master Smith will come over tonight."

"Really? That's great. I must get to know this Master Smith."

Fiona had love in her eyes. She deliberately pulled down her collar, revealing her big bossom.

"Fiona, aren't you worried that he is an old man?"

Joanne who was beside Fiona joked at this time.

"I'm also willing to do it even if he's an old man. He is a big shot with one billion dollars. Why does it matter if he's an old man? As long as he takes a fancy to me, I will just imagine that I'm making love with a ghost."

Fiona put on makeup and asked, "Joanne, do you think I look beautiful?"

Joanne nodded. After complimenting Fiona, she took out a cosmetic box and began to touch up her makeup.

Adam saw this and shook his head helplessly.

These two women really were gold-diggers.

Fortunately, he had already made an arrangement with both of them. He was preparing to have a threesome with them later that day.

"Aren't you worried Jason is Master Smith? His surname is also Smith."

Adam suddenly joked with a smile, mainly because he thought of Jason, the loser.

Fiona was stunned and scolded, "Him? He's just a fool, I won't sleep with him. If he is Master Smith, I, Fiona will run around Shang Jiang City naked."

Adam secretly gave Fiona a thumbs-up. This girl was daring.

Meanwhile, Jason and the other two happened to appear in the doorway of the banquet hall.

"What the f*ck! How did they get in?"

When Fiona was about to go to the toilet, she saw that the three of them kept looking around. Her face suddenly darkened.

How did Jason and Gerry get in?

Who was the girl beside them? She was quite beautiful and looked very rich.

Not only did Fiona have doubts, Adam was confused as well.

Speak of the devil, he was really here.

Jason and the other two had really came.

Fiona immediately twisted her plump and straight hips and crossed her arms around her chest. She walked over proudly and arrogantly.

"Hey, Jason, who let you in? Do you know where you are? You two cowards dared to come in? Now hurry up and get out! If you are discovered, you will be in trouble."

Fiona looked them up and down, pointing in anger.

She knew Gerry because they had all went to the same university.

Belle was already angry and now this woman was suddenly accusing Jason. She immediately reached out and rebuked, "Hey, why are you being so aggressive? We can go wherever we like. Is it any of your business?"

"That's right. Fiona, don't look down on us. It's as if you're the only one who can come in."

Gerry glanced at her as he said this.

"F*ck, Gerry, what's wrong with you? Get out of my way!"

Fiona scolded him and was about to scratch him.

Jason's face darkened and he stopped her. He glared at her and said in a deep voice, "Fiona, we didn't do anything to you, did we? Do you have to be so aggressive? Besides, what does it have to do with you whether we come in?"

Fiona was stunned and all the colour left her face immediately.

She was scared by Jason's glare.

Suddenly, Fiona felt ashamed and angry. She almost poked Jason's nose with her finger as she shouted, brandishing her sharp teeth, "Jason, it's more than enough if I say you are a fool. Who don't you open your eyes to see who you really are? Tonight, we are going to hold a banquet for Master Smith from Smith Group in the capital city. How can a country bumpkin like you come here?"

"Why can't I be here? Are there any rules mentioning that certain people can't be here."

Jason said coldly. He was furious and could not stand Fiona's supercilious attitude.

"Not anyone can come in."

Then, Adam came over with his hands in his trouser pockets. He walked fast, and his mouth held an evil smile.

"Jason, if you want to look around, you can go out and turn right."

Adam, with a domineering manner, pointed to the ground, "But the banquet tonight is being held for the Smith Group's Master Smith who is from Shang Jiang City. If you haven't noticed, those who have come here are all prominent figures in Shang Jiang City. How can you, Jason, a loser son-in-law, be here?"

He looked down on him openly.

"Adam, is this banquet very special? Do you really want to suck up to the Smith Group's young master? What if I say, I am the Young Master Smith that you are looking forward to meet?"

Jason said calmly, with a hint of confidence on his face.

Chapter 195

"Look, you're still bragging!"

Fiona was full of disdain. "You are so f*cking shameless. You poor man, do you think you can look down on today's banquet?"

"What's so great about it? The banquet was prepared for Jason." Gerry Liu glanced at him and muttered.

His voice was very low but Adam Zhao and others heard it.

Haha.

Laughter burst out.

Adam gave Gerry and Jason a thumbs-up, "You are still good at showing off. I, Adam, admire you. You only have a few small shares but you're always starting to be arrogant. Jason, so great of you. How many assets do you have? A few million?"

"Gerry, you're so funny. Was this prepared for Jason? Didn't you see who the people are here today? Do you really think that you can pretend to be Master Smith just because of your surname?"

Fiona hated poor people like Gerry and Jason very much. "Do you know how much Master Smith has invested? It'll scare you to death if I tell you!"

"Oh? How much?"

Jason had a faint smile.

"One billion! One billion! Did you know that?"

Fiona gave Jason a contemptuous look. "Do you have one billion?"

"Maybe," Jason said with a faint smile.

"Haha, I can't stand this. How does someone like you even exist? You're so shameless."

Fiona was gobsmacked. She covered her ears and scolded, "If you, Jason, can get one billion... No, if you have one million I will kneel down to call you daddy and sleep with you every night."

Jason shook his head, "Even if I had one billion, I won't sleep with you. However, you can call me daddy."

"What the f*ck!"

How dare this loser look down on her!

Fiona was furious. Just when she was about to reply, Jason and the other two turned around and got ready to leave.

This time around, Fiona was very angry. She twisted her hips and chased after him. She grabbed Jason's arm and shouted, "Do you think you can leave that easily? How did a loser like you get in? You must have sneaked in!"

"Hey, Fiona. You're annoying. It's none of your business how I got in."

Jason was also annoyed. Why was this girl so annoying? He did not intend to argue with her but she still wanted to come over.

Adam came over. Joanne even grabbed Fiona and whispered a few words, "Fiona, don't cause trouble. Many people are watching. Maybe they really were allowed to enter."

"Them? Joanne, stop dreaming. He's just a loser and a good for nothing! Last time, I heard that he was being supported by a woman! I think it must be the same this time around!"

Fiona said discontentedly and her eyes fell on

Belle Zhao.

It must be the case. This Belle looked very rich, fair and beautiful.

Although Jason was a loser, he lived a good life by being supported by women one after another.

Would Cindy Jiang faint if she knew about this?

Adam did not pay any attention at first. However when he heard Fiona say this, his face flickered with a cold smile.

It turned out that Jason was like dog. He was really a loser.

"Jason, how did you get in? Tonight is a banquet for famous people. You can't have got in without an invitation!"

Fiona said angrily, "Tell me, did you slip in secretly? How dare you! Didn't you look around at this place? All the people who came here today are well-known businessmen and leaders in Shang Jiang City. You sneaked in like this and if something goes wrong, will you be able to handle the consequences?"

In just a few words, Fiona had already pushed Jason and others to the point of heinousness.

How could this be? Jason actually had an invitation card?!

Fiona did not believe it. She stretched out her hand and was about to grab it. But Gerry was quick-witted and immediately pulled it away. He said proudly, "I told you, don't look down on us. What's wrong? Do you want to hit me in the face? Are you stunned?"

"Bullshit! Do you think you can get an invitation card?"

Fiona was making a lot of noise. She asked for Adam's sake, "Oh, I know. Well, Jason, this little woman beside you must be very rich and powerful. It's because of her that you're here."

Fiona's eyes fell on Belle. This woman had a good figure. She had a curvy body. Her legs were wrapped in black lace socks which looked very attractive. She was a complete vixen in Fiona's eyes.

Haha!

"What do you mean?" Jason frowned as he asked.

Belle's face turned pale.

17:47

"What does that mean? You came in by relying on your rich woman."

Fiona huffed and raised her eyebrows. "How shameless you are to make a fool of yourself."

"What did you say? Say it again!"

Belle really could not stand it. For the first time, she became very angry. "I don't have any kind of relationship with Jason. You are so shameless. Who are you trying to seduce by dressing like this? Oh, I know. All the people who've come here today are rich. Do you want to hook a rich man? I really feel ashamed for your parents. They gave birth to such a person like you. Your intentions are so dirty."

"Who do you think you're talking to? Say it again. Believe it or not, I'll tear you into pieces!" Fiona said.

Adam and Jason separated the women just as they were about to fight with each other.

"Jason, okay, you have guts. Since you came in, it must be down to your luck. But I warn you, this is not a place for a trash like you. I advise you to leave quickly."

Adam leaned over to Jason with hate in his eyes. He patted Jason's shoulder hard to demonstrate his strength.

A subtle tension was flowing between the both of them.

Jason raised his head and a cold smile flashed across his face. "What if I don't leave?"

The atmosphere suddenly became even more tense. The temperature of the room seemed to drop by several degrees.

Jason and Adam looked at each other with fire in their eyes.

Fiona sneered disdainfully, "Adam, that's enough. Don't talk nonsense with this fool. Let's go!"

After all, Fiona knew that it was not a good idea to make trouble here. If they were spotted then they would all be in trouble.

The two of them were pulled back. Adam finally warned in a low voice, "Jason, I will let you go today. Just wait and see!"

"You're welcome any time."

Jason smiled faintly.

"Jason, look at Adam's arrogance. I really want to beat him!"

Gerry said discontentedly, "When will the banquet begin? I really want to see you go to the stage and slap him in public! What is that guy showing off about? Isn't it because his father has some money and he knows a few people? He owns a company and earns a little bit of money. Could he possibly have as much money as our Master Smith?"

Belle frowned slightly, but did not say a word. She just looked at Jason. What was he thinking?

She did not understand but she knew she would have a sleepless night tonight.

Those who had looked down on Jason would look up at him soon enough.

He was destined to become the brightest star in the venue tonight.

On the other hand, the pharmaceutical's CEO from the capital city, Smith Group's CEO and a few others, under the guidance of special personnel, passed through the lobby and came into the banquet hall.

As soon as they appeared in the hall, they attracted everyone's attention. All the guests held their glasses to congratulate and toast to them, or to suck up to them.

These people were big shots from the capital city. They all belonged to the Smith Group.

Moreover, Hayes Qian was the Smith Group's CEO! He had hundreds of billions in his bank account!

"Director Hayes, you look really handsome today. I heard that Master Smith will come later. Can you tell us what Master Smith looks like?"

"That's right, Chairman Hayes. We can't wait any longer. He's such a rich man who invested one billion dollars in one go!"

Hayes, who was surrounded by people, greeted them one by one.

"Stop trying to guess. Master Smith is a low-key person and doesn't want to be disturbed. However, he will definitely come here tonight." Hayes said.

On the other hand, Cindy Jiang was wearing a long black dress, revealing her fair and smooth back. Her hair was coiled high and her figure looked extremely slender. She looked like an angel who had fallen down to earth.

She was dressed very elegantly. Under the spotlight, she was holding a goblet. Under Hudson's lead, she had a noble smile on her face and had already walked to Hayes and the others.

"Chairman Hayes, I'm Cindy Jiang, Bi Kang Pharmacy's CEO. I've heard a lot about you."

After all, Cindy had been working there for three years. She knew how to socialise and she spoke in a soft voice, which was very pleasant to hear.

"Hello, Chairman Jiang." Hayes was smiling and clinked glasses with her.

Hayes did not dare to be arrogant. She was the young madam but she did not know it.

"Young master, you're really torturing me by doing this." Hayes thought.

Even he had to hide the secret from young madam.

"Mayor, thank you for helping me last time. Randy has already told me. If it weren't for your company's help, Bi Kang would not have been able to solve the dilemma of the breach of contract. I would not have got the investment from the Smith Group."

Cindy looked at Yanko Xu and bowed slightly to him. She took a sip of wine and expressed her gratitude.

The last time when Bi Kang had been boycotted by the pharmaceutical company, there were no orders. It was thanks to Randy He's help that Healer Pharmaceutical had got the first order of pharmacy medicine.

Uh?

Yanko was confused and slightly stunned. Randy had indeed told him about the incident back then. He had even used the He Group as a guarantee.

However, the reason why he had helped Bi Kang Pharmacy was not because of Randy, but because of Cindy's husband, Jason!

He was the real big shot!

Randy?

He did not have the power and connections to solve Bi Kang's contract dilemma!

It was impossible for the He Group to pay so much money!

Chairman Jiang, you may have misunderstood. After all, it's not me who helped you calm the storm. It's not something that Randy can solve."

Yanko did not dare to take the credit from Jason. Now he was very sure that Jason was the young master of the Smith Group from the capital city!

This was said by Director Hayes himself.

Cindy was stunned and said with a suspicious look, "If it was neither Director Yanko or Randy? Who could it be?"

How could it possible that it was not Randy!

Had he lied to me?

Director Jiang, don't make fun of me."

Yanko smiled slightly and was ready to say it out loud. He said, "Don't you know that the breach of Bi Kang contract was actually..."

Chapter 196

"In fact, it's Master Smith from the Smith Group," Yanko Xu said with a smile.

Cindy Jiang was shocked and tensed up. It was Master Smith again.

Who on earth was this Master Smith? Why does he help her again and again?

Then, a group of people came in at the entrance of the hall. It was very grand. The one leading them was a middle-aged man with a beer belly. He greeted all the entrepreneurs from Shang Jiang City.

It was Kingsley He from the He Group!

He was the top real estate tycoon in this city!

As soon as he appeared, the spotlight at this dinner fell on him. Many people walked over and greeted him.

At this moment, Hayes Qian saw Kingsley walking in and his face became gloomy. He said to his assistant, "Go and call Kingsley over."

17:46

He was very angry. Kingsley and his son dared to take credit for what the young master had done. This almost made the young madam misunderstand the situation.

While Kingsley was greeting the crowd, a man in a suit ran over, "Director He, Director Hayes has invited you to come over."

"Director Hayes?"

Kingsley was stunned for a moment and he no longer cared about greeting the crowd. He hurried over.

"Oh, Director Hayes, I've heard a lot about you."

Kingsley had been struggling in the real estate industry for so many years, so he naturally had become good at socializing.

This was Smith Group's CEO from the capital city. He was Master Smith's spokesperson.

He had been working with the Smith family for many years. He was of high status and had many connections.

If Kingsley could get Director Hayes's approval, then his company's development would be limitless!

In fact, it would even be possible for him to surpass Wanda!

"Humph!"

Hayes did not give him a good look and asked coldly, "Chairman He, I have something to ask you."

"Director Hayes, please go ahead."

Kingsley was a little suspicious. What was going on? Why did he get the feeling that Director Hayes was a little dissatisfied with him?

"Do you know this person?"

Hayes was pointing at Cindy in front of him as he asked.

Cindy politely nodded and said hello to Kingsley.

Kingsley glanced at Cindy and immediately said with a smile, "Cindy, you're here too? That's great. Randy will be here soon."

Cindy turned her head and looked at Kingsley who greeted her. She smiled and asked, "Uncle Randy, I have something to ask you. Was it you and Randy who helped my company to solve the contract

"Wait, Bi Kang Pharmacy?"

Kingsley immediately thought of the thing that his son asked him to help a few days ago, which seemed to be called Bi Kang Pharmacy. "Cindy, you must be joking. I had asked someone to inquire about your company's matter but my ability is limited, so I didn't help you. You won't be angry with me, right?"

Really not!

Randy lied to her!

Why?

At this moment, Cindy breathed a sigh of relief.

Because if it was really Randy who had helped her, she would owe him a favor. How could she ever repay him?

She did not want to have any kind of relationship with Randy, or Jason would be angry.

Randy was dressed in a fitted suit and looked glowing in the banquet hall.

When his eyes swept through the crowd, he saw Cindy chatting and laughing with his father.

She was so beautiful, noble and elegant!

She was just like the dazzling pearl in the crowd.

Randy straightened up his suit and walked to her confidently. He smiled gently, "Cindy, you're here too."

"Who is this?"

Hayes frowned slightly as he asked.

"Chairman Hayes, this is my son, Randy." Kingsley's face was a little flushed and he felt that something was out of place.

"Dad, Director Xu, Director Hayes."

Randy immediately nodded and said hello to several CEOs.

Some people nodded slightly as well but the atmosphere was very awkward.

However, Randy only had Cindy on his mind, so he did not notice the subtle change of the atmosphere.

Cindy was in a bad mood now. She looked at Randy with a cold face, "Randy, I have something to ask you."

"Cindy, what's the matter?"

17:46

Randy smiled as he said this. He was not blind. He could tell that Cindy was unhappy.

What was going on? Why did all these people look so unhappy?

"Did you ask your father to help to solve the problem in my company?" Cindy asked kindly.

Randy was stunned. Why was Cindy asking such a question all of a sudden?

He looked at his father's constant winks, then looked at Cindy. He said with a smile, "Yes, Cindy, I did ask my father to find someone to help with your company's problem. But don't worry, it's just a small matter. Don't worry too much. It's all thanks to Chairman Xu's blessing. Otherwise, I really would have no way to deal with it."

"Really?"

Anger rose within Cindy and she asked again.

"Really. Cindy, what's wrong with you? My dad is here. You can ask him."

Randy looked at his father and said this with a smile.

"What a nonsense!"

An angry roar rang out!

Kingsley's imposing manner was like a volcanic eruption!

He pointed at Randy's nose with his eyes wide open and scolded, "You treacherous boy! How dare you call me your dad? When did I ever help Cindy?"

Randy was stunned and looked at his father in confusion.

What was wrong with him? Why was he embarrassing his own son?

Cindy felt very disappointed. Randy who used to be she could trust had completely changed!

He had become hypocritical!

"Dad, what are you talking about? Don't tell me that you didn't help Cindy? I called you that day and you said that you would arrange someone to help me. You told me that the matter could be solved."

Randy frowned and braced himself to tell. He had a bad feeling about it.

"Bullsh*t! When did I say that?"

Kingsley was so angry, "I only said that I'd send someone to check out the situation. When did you say that the matter could be solved?"

The atmosphere was awkward.

"What the hell is talking about? Randy, please tell me honestly if you helped us with our company's business?"

Cindy's looked anxious. Her face was serious, as was her tone.

"Cindy, don't be angry. Maybe my dad has made a mistake or his subordinates didn't inform him." Randy understood but he still wanted to continue to explain.

Slap!

A big firm slapped on his face!

Kingsley was so angry that his whole body was trembling and his face was red. He slapped Randy on the face and said angrily, "How dare you quibble! B*stard, how could you so daring to admit to such a thing?!"

17:46

He had arranged people to check out the situation but his people heard that the matter concerned Bi Kang Pharmacy had been solved by someone else.

The six hundred million dollars penalty fee had been paid by someone!

This was such a big deal!

After his investigation, Kingsley knew that the person who had helped Bi Kang Pharmacy was a man surnamed Smith.

What kind of person was this man?

Kingsley had been hanging around Shang Jiang City for so many years. With a little inquiry, he learned that this man surnamed Smith was the protagonist of today's banquet. The Smith Group's Master Smith from the capital city!

That was Master Smith!

Even if Kingsley had the guts, he would not dare to admit what Master Smith had done.

However, his unfilial son dared to take credit for the deed!

If Master Smith knew this, would Kingsley still be allowed to stay in Shang Jiang City?

"Dad! Why you hit me?"

Randy was stunned. He covered half of his face with his hands and looked at his father in disbelief.

"Do you think I wouldn't dare to hit you? Why don't you explain it to Cindy?"

Kingsley really hated that he had given birth to such a stupid son. What a lecher!

He knew that his son was very obsessed with Cindy, However, concerning this matter, it was an insurmountable minefield!

That was Master Smith. Master Smith could make the He Group go bankrupt with just one word!

Now that Chairman Hayes was here as well, would Randy still had the nerve to argue with him and claim the credit?

Wasn't he looking for trouble?

"Cindy, listen to my explanation."

Randy turned his head to look at Cindy, who was looking impatient waiting for his explanation.

"Enough!"

17:46

Cindy said angrily and clenched her fists tightly. Then she glared at him, "Randy, do you think it's fun to lie to me?"

"No, Cindy. I can explain this... to you." Randy was anxious.

"Well, I don't want to hear it anymore. I don't want to see you. Don't contact me again. I don't want my husband to misunderstand anything."

Cindy said coldly, then turned around and held up her long dress ready to leave.

On the other hand, Randy still wanted to explain but Kingsley glared at him and scolded, "Useless!"

After they left, Kingsley looked at his son and said angrily, "Stand still! I'll ask you again, why do you want to claim to have helped that company? Do you know who helped Cindy?"

Randy felt bad because he had been beaten by his father in front of so many people. He had embarrassed himself and annoyed Cindy as well.

"It was Master Smith! Tonight's distinguished guest, the Smith Group's young master!"

Kingsley continued before he could reply, "Be quiet. If you make trouble for me, I'll send you out of the country again!"

17:46

"Got it, dad." Randy said with his head lowered.

"Get lost!"

When Randy parted from his father, he could not wait to find Cindy.

However he was also very unhappy. It turned out that Master Smith was the one who had helped Cindy.

When did Cindy get to know Master Smith?

Could it really be Jason...

Chapter 197

Impossible!

He was a total loser!

Randy He shook his head at the thought of this unrealistic idea.

Then he chased after Cindy Jiang and tried to explain to her.

Jason Smith who was standing by the door saw Randy running over in a hurry. He could not help but wonder why.

Randy was stunned too when he saw Jason's appearance. Randy was so angry at the moment. If Jason were not Cindy's husband, he and Cindy would be together sweet and happy.

He rushed forward angrily, grabbed Jason by the collar and shouted, "Jason, how could a loser like you be here?"

Why?

How could a loser like him be at the Empire Restaurant?

17:46

Tonight's banquet was prepared for the Smith Group's Master Smith. He was here too...

Impossible!

Jason pulled Randy's arm away and patted his collar. He smiled coldly, "You'll know why I'm here soon enough. I hope you're not going to leave."

"Idiot! F*ck!"

Randy stared at him. He did not want to talk to him, so he walked away.

"I'm going to the toilet."

As he said this Jason looked at the direction in which Randy disappeared. He actually wanted to look for Cindy because he had only seen a glimpse of her.

His wife looked a little unhappy.

The banquet was about to begin in the Empire Restaurant!

Many famous entrepreneurs in Shang Jiang City came one after another. It was a blast.

The group of entrepreneurs took their seats one by one. Many of them had no seats so they could only stand aside.

The people who were there that day were all prominent figures in Shang Jiang City. Then the ones who were able to sit down were the leaders of many entrepreneurs from the city.

However, this group of high-ranking and noble people were looking forward to seeing the guest of honour.

The legendary Master Smith.

"Hey! The banquet is about to begin. Have you seen Master Smith?"

"No, he said he would come, but we haven't seen sight of him yet."

"He's really mysterious. We've made such a big effort just for Master Smith."

Many people began to whisper and they looked around. They were hoping to find the legendary Master Smith.

Master Smith's name was soon spread among all the entrepreneurs and celebrities.

Many officers and noble guests were looking forward to meet Master Smith. Then some of their young rich daughters were looking forward to see their prince charming, Master Smith.

This was the day they had been waiting for.

He was the rich man who had invested one billion dollars in one go!

Just as everyone was looking forward to meet Master Smith, Hayes Qian, the person running this banquet came in from the side hall. He was being followed by a group of chairmen. Each of them was one of the top five hundred pharmaceutical company bosses in the world. They were also under the control of the Smith Group.

All the entrepreneurs in the hall stood up and greeted him.

"Director Hayes."

"Hello, everyone please sit down."

Hayes really lived up to his reputation as a member of Smith Group. He was elegant, gentle and approachable.

Then, Jason just came in from the outside, with his head down and his face slightly pale. He could not find Cindy.

Unfortunately, Hudson Han also came in from the door and the two of them bumped into each other.

"Get out of my way!"

Hudson was in a bad mood now. He looked at Jason in front of him as he said this in disgust.

Cindy had just left in anger and he had chased after her. After he sent Randy away, he returned to the hall.

Unexpectedly, in addition to Jason the loser, suddenly Randy also appeared.

He was the He Group's son. Hudson knew that he could not deal with him.

"Where is Cindy?"

Jason asked with an unkind look.

"Hey! D*mn you Jason. Are you blind? How do I know where your wife is? You can't find her yourself?"

Hudson said angrily, "Why don't you f*cking look after your own things? Get out of my way!"

Meanwhile Cecelia Zhou came over, "Hudson, the banquet is about to begin. Why are you still here?"

"This idiot has come in." Hudson rebuked with a disdainful look on his face.

"Jason? Sh*t, you really got in."

Cecelia glanced at him with disdain in her eyes.

"Well, you do have some skills. Don't tell me that you've come in to pick up rubbish and clean up the place. Then your fancy clothes are all for nothing."

"It's none of your business," Jason said coldly.

"F*ck! I'm just talking to you nicely. What's with your f*cking attitude? Stupid!" Cecelia cursed him.

What was he pretending to be?

"Did he think I was willing to talk to him, loser!"

"Forget it, Cecelia. Don't talk to such a good-for-nothing like him. Let's go in first," Hudson said.

"That's right. Even the air stinks when I talk to a loser like him." Cecelia raised her hand to her nose as she said this with a frown.

"Cecelia, you're here too. What a coincidence."

Then, several boys and girls ran over. They were Cecelia and Hudson's friends. They were attending the dinner party with their parents.

"Is he your friend as well?" One of the girls asked in confusion.

"Haha. No, he is Jason Smith."

Cecelia pointed at him with venom in her words.

"What the f*ck, is he Jason Smith? The one who relies on a woman?" Someone exclaimed.

Cecelia proudly raised her chin, "That's right. He is a loser. He hasn't been to such a banquet in his whole life. I don't know how he got in. I really want to ask the security guards to throw them out. It's disgusting."

Jason's face suddenly turned cold. What did Cecelia mean? Did he offend her?

Did she really think that he was a push-over? Was he easily bullied?

Belle Zhao was also angry. Today, she had witnessed how all these women around Jason behaved.

They were all looking down on everyone!

All the men and women looked at Jason with disdain.

"Have you seen enough? Go and find your seats."

Gerry Liu stood up and waved impatiently.

"Haha! What's wrong? Are you embarrassed? Since you're afraid of making a fool out of yourself, why don't you hurry out?"

17:45

Cecelia crossed her arms around her chest as if she was their superior.

"Shut up! Cecelia. You're really annoying. I want to stay. Do you have a problem with it?"

Jason replied. He was obviously angry.

"Humph! Idiot!"

Cecelia snorted, "You know nothing of the world. It's good you're willing to stay here so you can understand the gap between you and these people."

"Let's go!"

Cecelia turned around, twisting her hips as she did so.

This scene had just been witnessed by Fiona, Adam Zhao and others.

"Haha! Brother Adam, Jason is really a coward. He did not even fight back after being scolded like that." Fiona sneered.

Adam shook his head helplessly and sneered. He was very disappointed with Jason.

While they were quarreling, Shang Jiang City's entrepreneurs greeted Hayes and his guests. Then they sat down one after another.

Suddenly!

Hayes saw a group of people gathering around the door. He immediately saw his young master, Jason, among them!

It was the young master!

Young master was here!

He did not care about his rudeness. He smiled excitedly to the people sitting next to him, "Everyone, Master Smith has arrived."

"Where?" Everyone exclaimed.

Hayes' eyes were full of stars. He was very excited. He hurriedly got up and led the others to the door.

Shang Jiang City's group of entrepreneurs noticed Hayes who had just taken his seat were waiting for the big shots to stand up again. They knew that something had happened when Hayes hurried toward the door with a group of directors.

"It must be Master Smith!"

"Come on, follow me. This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity!"

All the entrepreneurs were very smart. They understood that the distinguished guest who could make Hayes get up and welcome him must be extraordinary!

It must be Master Smith!

Kingsley was not an ordinary person as well. The moment Hayes got up, he followed closely behind.

The group of people followed Hayes and walked towards the door.

However, there was no sign of Master Smith, except for a few young men who were gathered around the door.

"Hasn't he arrived yet?"

"Hey! You guys make way quickly. Master Smith is here."

Someone shouted and pointed at Hudson, Jason, and the others.

This group of young people had no common sense. If they blocked Master Smith's way, their entire families would suffer.

The young men turned their heads. They were all stunned!

All the entrepreneurs in the hall rushed toward them. Of course, they saw their parents in the crowd as well.

"Kai, get out of the way. Master Smith will arrive soon. Don't block the way."

Some women dressed in expensive clothes shouted at their children from a distance.

Hudson turned around and he was shocked to. It was Master Smith who was coming!

He turned back and glared at Jason, warning him, "I'll deal with you later!"

Jason sneered faintly.

Hudson smiled when he saw that Jason did not want to make way, "Jason, what are you doing here? Can't you see that all these important entrepreneurs are ready to greet Master Smith?"

"I know."

Jason said flatly.

"Haha! If you know what's going on, then you'd better get out of here as soon as possible. Don't block the way like a dog" Hudson said with a sneer.

Cecelia had been standing by the side for a while. Then, she told her sisters, "Did you see that? He is such a loser. He has no fear. He's even stood at the door and blocked the way like a fool. I'm looking forward to see him get kicked out!"

"Sister Cecilia, I can't believe that he's your cousin-in-law!"

"That's right. He's just standing there like a fool."

"That's right. How could such a disgusting idiot sneak in?" Cecelia swore, belittling Jason.

"Hey! Jason, are you still not going to move? Don't block Master Smith's way. I want to see how heroic Master Smith is."

Fiona shouted at Jason in the crowd. Her tone was full of sarcasm.

She really wanted to join in when she saw everyone mocking Jason,

Hudson smiled as well. "Jason, get out of the way. It's your honor to see Master Smith."

"Hey! Who is that man? Don't block the way. Get out of the way."

"Get out of the way, Master Smith is coming."

Someone in the crowd said discontentedly.

Because Jason was blocking the door.

Jason did not speak. He just looked at Hudson calmly and listened to the people's sarcasm towards him.

Meanwhile, Cindy who was in the lounge had received the waiter's notice that Master Smith had arrived!

She touched up her make up and sent a text message to Jason, "Honey, come and pick me up soon. I'm almost done here. I'll meet Master Smith soon."

After Cindy sent her text message, she got up and walked slowly to the hall in her black evening gown.

When she arrived, Cindy saw Director Hayes and a group of people rushing towards the door.

Young master Smith was already here.

Cindy took a deep breathe and pouted. She patted her chest, clenched her fists, and gave herself a pep talk. "Come on, Cindy, you can do it!"

17:45

She must have all her thanks to Master Smith!

He had helped her twice.

Cindy was really curious. Did she already know this Master Smith?

Otherwise, why would he help her?

Then, Cindy straightened her long dress. She took a few elegant steps, caught up with the crowd and walked toward the door.

Hayes and the others had already arrived in front of Jason and greeted him respectfully,

"Young master."

Chapter 198

Hayes Qian stretched out his hand enthusiastically and shook hands with Jason Smith.

Everyone was shocked!

Everyone of them was dumbfounded and their hearts were beating hard!

Hudson Han, Cecelia Zhou and the others were even more shocked. Cecelia, in particular was so shocked that her jaw dropped!

Did anyone know what was going on?

Adam Zhao and Fiona were also stunned and speechless. They stared at Jason who was smiling and looked calm.

"No, it's impossible!"

"It must be the wrong person!"

Not only did Adam think this, but Cecelia and her friends thought so too!

"Chairman Hayes, have you mistaken him for someone? How could he be Master Smith? He is my aunt's son in law. He is a loser who just delivers takeout."

Hudson said in a questioning tone. He interrupted Hayes who was about to shake Jason's hands.

"That's right. It's impossible for him to be Master Smith. He's just a loser. How could he be Master Smith?"

Cecelia shook her head from side to side.

This must be someone playing a prank on them!

If Jason was Master Smith, Cecelia would probably pass out on the spot.

"I can prove that he is not Master Smith. He is just a loser. Last time I saw him flirting with a woman. The reason why he can come in is because of the little rich woman beside him. He is a gigolo!"

Fiona was in the crowd. She was so angry and confused. She was screaming at that moment.

How could this be?

How could Jason be the Master Smith that she had been dreaming of all day?

This was not what she had pictured Master Smith looking like!

17:45

Jason did not speak. He looked at Hudson, Cecelia and others calmly.

Jason's calmness made them feel a little suspicious. How could this guy be so calm?

"Jason, hurry up and get out of the way! Do you really think that you can pretend to be Master Smith just because of your surname? You don't even know any of these people. Do you think you can just pretend to be Master Smith?"

Hudson stepped forward and he was about to push Jason away, but he was stopped by Gerry Liu.

"Stop pushing! Open your eyes wide. This Jason is Master Smith."

Gerry said sharply.

"Haha! What a joke!"

Hudson sneered and said aggressively, "If he is Master Smith, then I'm the richest man in the world!"

"Are you kidding me?"

Jason was such a loser. How could he be the same Master Smith who had invested one billion dollars at one time?

He was a loser!

What's more, he was a good- for- nothing who needed to borrow money to get treatment for his daughter!

How could such a poor idiot have one billion dollars?

"Gerry, you're such a bragger. If Jason is Master Smith, I will walk around naked. Do you think won't?"

Fiona said sarcastically.

Hahaha!

There was a burst of laughter.

The people around began to ridicule unscrupulously because Jason was so young. In addition, Hudson, Cecelia, Fiona and others told them everything about who he was. Could such a person be Master Smith?

How could Hayes have mistaken him?

17:45

He stood up, pointed at Fiona and others and shouted again, "Who are you? How dare you be so disrespectful to the young master! Who let you in? Where is the security? Throw them out!"

He was scolding them furiously!

Everyone held their collective breath and stared in shock at Mr. Song.

Hudson's face became flushed. "What does Director Hayes mean?"

Could it be...

Impossible!

Just as everyone became stunned and were unable to figure out what was going on, Hayes bent down at a ninety degree angle and stood respectfully in front of Jason. He was like a small child who had done something wrong. "Young master, I'm sorry. I made a mistake in the arrangements. I'll get someone to throw these guys out right now."

After that, he shouted at the security guards at the door, "What are you waiting for? Hurry up and throw these people out!"

17:45

This was the young master!

If he did not treat the young master right, his position as the Smith Group's CEO in the capital city would be lost.

Those security guards understood the order and ran over in a panic.

Now, even a fool would see that the so called 'loser' was in fact the legendary Young Master Smith!

Hudson was so shocked that he forgot his own name. He stuttered, "Are... Are you really Master Smith?"

Jason smiled very calmly, "I'm indeed Master Smith."

"Ah!"

On the other hand, Cecelia screamed in horror. She covered her mouth with her hands and her beautiful eyes widened. "How could it be? How could it be possible? You are clearly a loser. How could you be Master Smith?"

Jason was Master Smith.

Then why would he be willing to stay with the 17:45

Jiang family for the past three years and be labeled as a loser son-in-law?

Meanwhile, Fiona's eyes widened as well and she began to breath rapidly. She could not accept the fact. She had been looking forward to meet Master Smith for a long time. Even if he was an old man, she was willing to sleep with him.

But how could it be Jason?

He was clearly a loser!

Fiona felt a little dizzy and her she became a little wobbly. She could not stand steadily for a few moment.

"What have I done?"

He was the Smith Group's eldest son from the capital city. He was a top rich second generation worth billions of dollars!

Fiona obviously underestimated Jason's financial resources.

Adam had sneaked into the crowd a while back. Now, he finally knew that he himself was the fool!

He had taunted Jason. The one who had invested millions so easily.

Even if Adam sold all his family's property, it would only be worth one hundred million.

Adam felt too ashamed to stay here when he thought about the day he had sneered at Jason at the reunion gathering. He even offered to arrange a job for Jason.

How many things was this guy hiding?

How could he be so rich!

Jason looked at everyone's dumbfounded faces . He stared at Hudson coldly, "Hudson, you want to have dinner with me?"

OMG!

The humiliation just came back so fast.

It was very embarrassing for Hudson when thought of how he had bragged in the Jiang's mansion that day.

Cecelia's face was red with shame. She did not even dare to lift her head. Her whole body was shaking.

This loser's aura was terrifying!

"No, no... Master Smith, you must be joking. How could I possibly be worther to have dinner with you?"

Hudson lowered his head in respect and bent down in front of Jason.

The sweat on his forehead fell and hit the tip of his shoes.

He did not dare to look up, nor dare to straighten his back.

Jason did not say a word.

Cecelia stood behind Hudson. She was lowered her head and her face was full of panic and horror.

Jason did not look at Hudson and let him suffer a while. Instead, he turned to look at Fiona and sneered, "Fiona, do you remember what you just said?"

"This..."

Fiona lowered her head and avoided eye contact. Her fingers were constantly grasping the hem of her skirt which made her look very uncomfortable.

"I know, this beauty Fiona just now boasted that if Jason were Master Smith, she would call him 'daddy' and walked around Shang Jiang City naked."

17:45

At this moment, Gerry stood up and said this to everyone. He had soaring look in his eyes.

Fiona was now in a dilemma. Her face showed her shame and indignation.

"What should I do?"

"Ja.. Jason... For the sake of our classmates, can you just let it go?"

Fiona used her pity as woman and cried whenever she wanted something. Her big eyes were full of tears which looked very pitiful.

Tears rolled down her cheeks in streams.

However.

Jason said, "You don't have to run naked, but I want to hear you call me 'daddy'."

"You!"

Fiona gritted her teeth as if she was going to bite Jason.

What should she do? What should she do? There were so many people around. Did she really have to call him 'daddy'?

"Hey! Fiona, don't tell me you aren't going to go through with your promise?"

Gerry sneered. This Fiona had always been a low-class sl*t, since university until now.

How dared she humiliates Jason? She was definitely asking for trouble.

Hayes's face was stern. Since the young master had spoken, he had to maintain his reputation.

"Come on! If this woman won't do it then throw her out. Besides that, inform all the companies in the city. Don't ever employ her if she's looking for a job. Whoever dares to employ her will be in trouble with the Smith Group!"

Hayes said coldly and seriously.

This time around Fiona was scared to tears!

This gave her no choice.

Jason frowned slightly. He looked at Hayes and did not stop him.

It was time to show these people what was what.

Fiona was ashamed and angry. However she still called out 'daddy', after being pressured by them.

Then, she pushed through the crowd with her red face and ran out.

17:45

On the other hand, Jason chuckled and shook his head. Then he turned to look at the crowd, "As for my identity, I hope that everyone present will keep it a secret. I don't want my peaceful life to be disturbed."

After that, Jason looked coldly at Hudson, Cecelia, and others. What he meant was obvious. Then, he walked to the seat of honor surrounded by the crowd.

Hudson's face looked sour when he saw Jason surrounded by the group of entrepreneurs.

He still could not believe that this useless guy, Jason, turned out to be the focus of tonight's banquet!

He was actually the Smith Group's young master!

So, how much money did Jason have?

Hudson could not imagine!

Hudson indignantly clenched his fists. He glanced at Jason who was on the stage and turned to leave.

Hudson was destined to be the loser tonight. Cecelia and him ate a little of the banquet and then left.

As for Jason's identity, they did not dare to reveal it because Jason's words were very clear.

Meanwhile, Cindy looked at the man who was surrounded by the crowd from a distance. She could not see clearly because of the light. She roughly saw his figure and saw that he was surrounded by the crowd, He was in the seat of honor.

This was Master Smith. Why did he look a little familiar?

Cindy pouted her lips and practiced her smile. She took a goblet handed over to her by the waiter and walked to the seat of honor...

Chapter 199

Just as Cindy Jiang was about to step forward, her phone rang. Cindy took a look at the caller ID. It was Randy He.

She frowned her beautiful crescent-shaped brow and hung up the phone.

However, she received a text message right after the phone call.

The message was simple. "Cindy, I'll wait for you in the parking lot. I have something to tell you. It's about Jason."

Jason?

Had something happened to him?

Cindy was doubtful. She looked at Master Smith who was surrounded by a large crowd just over there. Anyway, she could see him another time. She was not in a hurry.

Therefore, Cindy turned around and walked towards the parking lot outside the hall.

She was very worried about Jason.

17:45

Meanwhile, Jason was giving speech on the stage and the crowd was cheering.

Fiona returned and stood in the crowd. She still feeling absent-minded while she stared at Jason making a speech on the stage.

He was really Master Smith.

"This loser is actually rich. He's the young master of such a great family and company. Why does he want to pretend to be a poor man?"

Fiona cursed in her mind and wanted to leave.

However, Gerry Liu jumped out and said with a faint smile, "Fiona, I remember someone saying that if Jason is Master Smith, she will run around Shang Jiang City naked."

"You!"

Fiona stomped her feet and her face turned red. She was very embarrassed and annoyed. "It's none of your business!"

After that, she turned her head and stepped on her heels. She twisted her hips and was ready to leave.

However, just as she was about to leave, she looked at Jason who was talking and laughing calmly on the stage. She seemed to have something came up in her mind, then she said to herself, "Jason, I want you!"

Jason looked at his mobile phone after the speech and saw that Cindy had sent him a text message.

She wanted him come to pick her up.

Where was she?

He didn't see Cindy just now. Didn't she say that she was coming to meet him? Where did she go?

Jason got up and looked around for a while. He left after he bid farewell to Hayes Qian and others.

"Jason, you've done so well tonight. You missed Fiona and others' expressions just now. They looked as if they'd seen a ghost. It was so cool!"

Gerry laughed and followed Jason out of the Empire Restaurant.

"Brother Smith, how much money do you have in your family? Is it like one of those novels? Your family has many rules. Then you are not allowed to reveal your identity until a certain age."

17:45

Belle could no longer wait to ask this question as soon as she came out of the building.

Even though she had an idea about Jason's identity in advance, she still felt shocked after experiencing that scene in the restaurant!

"Ah! Belle, you don't know that Jason is a top rich second generation?!" Gerry said with in high intonation.

Suddenly, the three of them saw Fiona standing at the door.

"Fiona, why are you still here?"

Gerry said unhappily. The moment he saw this woman, he became annoyed. She was such a gold digger.

"It's none of your business."

Fiona glanced at Gerry and then looked at Jason. She felt a little guilty and blushed. "Well, Jason, I have something to tell you."

Jason was stunned. He looked at Fiona who seemed shy and wondered what was going on.

Why was she looking for him?

But Gerry sneered, "Oh! What now? Now you want to curry favor with Jason after you found out that he's rich?"

17:45

His words made Fiona's face blush even redder. She glared at Gerry with some shame and annoyance, then said to Jason, "It's about Cindy. To come with me or not, the decision is on you!"

After that, Fiona turned around in a hurry. She walked away while twisting her buttocks.

After thinking for a while, Jason followed her.

"Brother Jason, do you really want to go with her? You know who that little bitch is." Gerry dissuaded him.

"It's okay. You can go back first. I have to wait here for Cindy."

Jason smiled, put his hands in his pockets and walked towards Fiona.

"Tell me, what's wrong with Cindy?"

Jason kept his distance from Fiona as he asked.

"Hey! Brother Jason, why are you standing so far away from me?"

Fiona said sulkily. She twisted her waist and leaned over. Regardless of the situation, she took Jason's arm and acted coyly like a spoiled child.

Uh?

Jason was stunned. He narrowed his eyes and saw her collar which was pulled down extremely low.

Gosh!

After all, Jason was a man. His restless hormones could be easily triggered under the stimulation of alcohol!

"Don't do that. It's not appropriate. Let's get down to business."

Jason quickly pulled his hand away from Fiona's arms and took a deep breath to calm himself.

Fiona glared at him fiercely but her small mouth curved upwards to reveal a sly smile.

Jason was quite pure, so he could not control himself with such a thing.

There was going to be a chance for her!

It seemed that she could take control of him tonight.

17:45

He was a top rich second generation, the Smith Group's Young Master!

If Fiona got the opportunity, she would drive Cindy away to become the new Mrs. Smith. She would never have to worry about anything for the rest of her life.

"Brother Jason, I'm sorry. Everything that happened was my fault. I didn't know you were so rich. Please forgive me. Anyway, we are classmates, right?"

Fiona said like a spoiled child. The more she said, the more the tears welled up in her eyes.

She was trying to create drama.

Jason said immediately, "Stop. I remember very clearly how you humiliated me in the past. Was it because you thought I was poor so you could bully me at will?"

What the f*ck!

This idiot did not even know to take the opportunity!

Fiona panicked. She had used this trick so many times for others, but it was not working with

17:44

Jason.

No way, she had to cry with tears!

When Jason finished speaking, Fiona cried out loud and wiped her tears, "I was wrong. Jason, please forgive me. Boo-hoo..."

What a headache!

Jason did not know what to do with her. He nodded repeatedly, "Okay, okay. Don't cry, okay? Forget about what happened in the past."

Such a happy ending!

Fiona quickly broke into tears and smiled. She went up and hooked Jason's arm. She kissed his reddish cheek and said with a smile, "Really? I knew you're the best!"

Phew!

Jason heaved a big sigh of relief. He felt very helpless.

What was happening?

What if Cindy knew that Fiona had kissed him all of a sudden?

"Didn't you want to tell me something about Cindy?"

17:44

Jason asked immediately. He tried to divert his attention because Fiona's figure was so attractive.

"Oh! Cindy is fine, let's talk about us. Would you mind if you let me be your lover?"

Fiona said as she smiled. She had already forgotten the fact that she had seen Cindy getting into a man's car in the parking lot.

F*ck!

She was a typical sl*t!

"Jason, how much money do you have?"

Fiona said tentatively with her eyes wide open.

Jason knew that this question was coming. He shrugged his shoulders, "Not much."

"Not much?" Fiona asked anxiously.

He was still pretending!

He had invested one billion dollars but he still said that he did not have much money!

If it were not because he was rich, she would not have to downgrade herself to sleep with him.

"I will leave if you don't talk about the Cindy."

Jason was not a fool. He knew that Fiona was up to no good so he did not want to reveal his assets.

"Don't worry. Why are you in such a hurry?"

Fiona was a little angry that Jason did not get her hints. However, judging from Jason's expression, Fiona knew that he did not really care about her. She said, "All right. All right. I'll take you to her."

Well, just brought Jason over there and let him see it with his own eyes. Cindy was actually a slutty woman!

She hooked up with another man while the banquet was going on. Who knew what they were doing in the car.

Was she looking for excitement?

Fiona knew that Cindy certainly did not know Jason's identity.

"Where are we going?"

Jason was dragged by Fiona to the parking lot. The night was dark and the wind was strong. He was becoming a little angry.

If this woman was very horny and forced him, then he would feel sorry for his wife!

17:44

Both of them arrived at the parking lot. Fiona pointed at a car, and from afar Jason saw Cindy and Randy sitting in it!

What made him angrier was that Randy leaned over at this moment, blocking Cindy's figure. Jason did not know what Randy was doing.

What the f*ck!

Fk him!

Jason became furious at once!

He was about to rush up but Fiona dragged him back tightly, "Jason, look, Cindy is actually a bitch! If I did not bump into them today, who would know that she was having an affair behind your back!"

She could see that Jason's face had turned red with anger at that moment.

Jason angrily shook off Fiona's hand and glared at her, shouting, "Get out of my way!"

Then, he walked with heavy steps and a terrible look. He clenched his fist as tight as an iron block and rushed towards the Aston Martin!

Bang!

17:44

The door opened!

Cindy got out the car in a hurry. She glared at Randy who was in the car and said coldly, "Randy, you've gone too far!"

Randy got out of the car and walked a few steps towards her. He took Cindy's hand and wanted to explain, "Cindy, I'm sorry, I'll explain..."

However, there came a punch out of nowhere!

Jason's fist suddenly fell on Randy's face and then a kick to his abdomen!

Jason pressed Randy's head to the hood of the car until it made a dent.

"Randy, you're looking for death!"

Jason roared!

Chapter 200

Randy He's head was pressed down by Jason Smith. He shouted angrily, "Jason, let go of me!"

However, Jason did not let go. Instead, he pushed harder and said with a cold look in her eyes, "Randy, you're looking for death!"

Randy shouted, "Jason, you loser! How dare you try to challenge me? Believe it or not, I'll have you killed!"

It was so embarrassing!

Especially in front of Cindy Jiang, he was being completely suppressed by Jason and he could not move an inch.

Randy felt ashamed, resentful, and helpless at the same time.

"Want to kill me? You?" Jason sneered.

Randy probably did not know what had happened in the banquet hall just now.

How dare he speak so arrogantly!

Cindy who was standing at the side was scared by 17:44

Jason's fierceness at this moment. Although she was very angry with Randy's behavior just now, they were still acquaintances. If they really fought, it would not be good for Jason.

If Jason won the fight, he would go to the police station. If he lost, he would go in the hospital.

Yes, it would have happened this way.

Therefore, Cindy was worried that Jason would do something irrational. She rushed forward to pull Jason back, "Jason, lets go. Don't make trouble."

Jason's eyes turned colder. The anger in his heart did not subsided yet. He released his hand and kicked Randy again. He yelled, "Randy, I warn you, if you ever have a bad thought about my wife again, I'll destroy you in the blink of an eye!"

Randy straightened up and rubbed his belly. He wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth. Then, he looked at Jason coldly and said with a smile, "Jason, you're so funny. How dare a loser like you threaten me? Do you think I don't know what you're doing? Your mother-in-law has told me that it's such a waste for Cindy to marry such a loser like you!"

Randy did not expect that Jason would come here and spoil his plan.

He had almost succeeded just now.

"What did she say?" Jason's face froze and he looked at Randy coldly.

Did Amanda say something bad about him again?

"Hah." Randy sneered, he glanced at Cindy, "Cindy, you don't know that your husband is really shameful. He pretended to be Smith Group's young master and swindle everyone. I saw him did it. Aunt Amanda told me that he's always like this. I really don't know what you see in this man."

Cindy was stunned and turned to look at Jason.

Pretending to be Master Smith?

"What's going on?" Cindy asked suspiciously.

Jason glanced at Randy, then looked at Cindy serious, "Cindy, don't listen to his nonsense. Why would I need to pretend? Because I'm really the young master from Smith Group."

Now that it was done, let just got straight to the point.

Haha!

17:44

Randy laughed out loud and pointed at Jason. He said sarcastically, "Are you still pretending? If you're Master Smith, why are you here? You should be inside with those CEOs. If you are Master Smith, why are you such a loser? Stop pretending Jason, you're so shameless!"

Cindy looked at Jason with doubt in her eyes after hearing what Randy said.

Should she believe him?

Jason felt helpless. He looked at Fiona beside him, "Fiona, tell them who I am."

Fiona twisted her hips and came over. She hooked Jason's arm in front of Cindy. "Cindy, it doesn't matter who Jason is. I advise you to divorce him. Anyway, you're a b*tch. You got into the car with another man in the middle of the night. I just saw what you did."

What the f*ck!

Fiona was indeed a scheming b*tch. At this time, she still did not want to reveal Jason's identity.

"Nonsense!"

Cindy was angry. What if Jason's imagination ran wild after hearing Fiona's nonsense?

17:44

"I'm talking nonsense? I saw it with my own eyes. Both of you even hugged each other!"

Fiona pouted and looked at Jason in seriousness. She said, "Jason, you have to believe me. I really saw it. Cindy is lying to you. Cindy and the man were hugging each other just now. I really saw it with my own eyes!"

Jason was furious. The anger in his heart was rekindled. He stared at Cindy and asked, "Is what she said true?"

Jason was very upset because of what he had seen just now.

The hatred in his heart burst out immediately when Fiona added more details to it.

Cindy shook her head desperately and said with a pitiful tone, "No, I didn't. She's making it up."

Cindy looked at Randy and said in a hurry, "Randy, explain to Jason that we didn't do anything just now!"

Why would Randy explain? He was very happy to see this situation.

17:44

Randy said with a chuckle, "Jason, I've seen that you're really useless. You can't even take care of your wife! You will be a loser all your life!"

Boom!

After Randy finished speaking.

Jason's kicked out his foot at Randy again!

This time, Randy flew backwards. He crashed into the front windshield of Aston Martin which immediately smashed!

He fell to the ground and wailed in pain.

"Randy, you were asking for it!"

Jason was angry. He shook off Fiona's hand, walked up and grabbed Randy's collar.

Slap! Slap!

After a few slaps, Randy's mouth was full of blood. With a sinister sneer on his face, he scolded, "Trash! Loser!"

"Stop fighting!"

Cindy was anxious and hurriedly stopped them!

However, Jason was angry. With a wave of his hand, Cindy took a few steps back.

17:44

Fiona sneered. She raised her hand and slapped Cindy in the face. She shouted, "B*tch! How could Jason have married a b*tch like you? How could you have an affair behind Jason's back?"

Fiona was very happy now. The more complicated the situation, the better it would be.

"What are you doing?!"

Jason turned his head angrily when he heard the sound and saw Fiona slapped Cindy.

Then, he got up angrily. He slapped Fiona on the face and glared at her!

"Cindy, are you alright?"

Jason was still very concerned about Cindy.

However, Cindy's eyes were full of tears, especially when her eyes fell on the red kiss marks on Jason's cheek. She lost her mind.

"You, you two..."

Cindy turned her head, covered her face with her hands and ran away crying.

At this time, although Fiona covered her face and pretended to be in pain, she sneered in her mind.

17:44

She had done it! She had done it!

It was chance for her to become Jason's wife!

It should be very hard to solve the conflict between Jason and Cindy.

Jason had no time to care about Fiona and Randy. He hurriedly chased after Cindy.

Not long after he went out, Fiona hurriedly pulled Randy up from the ground and asked with concern, "Mr. He, are you all right?"

"Fk!"

Randy stood up from the ground and wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth. He looked at Fiona coldly, "Who do you think you are? Get out of here!"

Fiona was unhappy, but there was still a faint smile on her face. Especially when she saw Randy get up from the Aston Martin, she thought to herself.

Randy was a rich second generation as well.

Cindy ran away crying. About ten minutes later, she calmed down and returned to the banquet hall. She was ready to meet Master Smith.

17:44

She was a woman who could distinguish work from her personal affairs well.

"Director Hayes, where is Master Smith?"

Cindy saw Hayes, but she could not find Master Smith.

"Ah! Chairman Jiang, Master Smith just left. Did you not meet him?"

Hayes said with a smile on his face.

There was no other way, cause if the young master did not allow him to say it, he really did not dare to.

A sense of loss flashed in Cindy's eyes when she heard this. She still had not met Master Smith.

"Oh, then I won't disturb you, Chairman Hayes. I'll go back first."

Cindy smiled slightly, then turned around and left the Empire Restaurant alone.

On the other hand, Jason chased after Cindy. After looking for a long time, he returned to the banquet hall and found Hayes. He asked, "Hayes, have you seen my wife?"

Hayes was stunned. "What's going on?"

17:44

"Young master, young madam just left. Oh! By the way, I didn't tell young madam about your identity," Hayes replied.

Jason's eyes narrowed and he did not have time to explain. He just nodded and ran out of the banquet hall.

However, Fiona blocked Jason's way at the entrance. "Jason, do you still want to chase after Cindy? After she treated you that way, you're still so kind to her?"

Jason turned his head to look at her with his face turned cold. He looked at Fiona coldly and scolded, "Fiona, I know what you are up to, but I warn you not to interfere with our relationship, otherwise don't blame me if I'm rude to you!"

After that, Jason pushed Fiona away and got ready to leave.

When Fiona saw this, she gritted her teeth and made a decision. She fell heavily to the ground with her head was bleeding. She cried, "Ooo, it hurts. It's bleeding..."

Jason looked back and was shocked. He frowned and felt very helpless. He walked over and asked,

17:44

"Are you all right?"

Fiona covered her forehead with her hands. They were covered with blood. Then, she pretended to faint.

What the f*ck!

Jason was dumbfounded. What was all this?!

After thinking for a while, he would just explain it to Cindy when he got home.

He immediately picked Fiona up and asked the waiter to call for a car. After that, he dashed to the hospital.

Unfortunately, this scene was witnessed by Amanda Yang who had just got out from a taxi by the door.

Amanda was so angry!

"This.. This loser.. How dare he go with a woman in his hand..."

Amanda cursed angrily.

This loser Jason, he was really having an affair!

She must tell Cindy about this. She must make them divorce! And she wanted him to leave the house without getting any money.

17:44

"Mom, why are you here?"

Cindy came over. When she saw Amanda, she was hesitant.

Amanda immediately walked over when she saw Cindy. She grabbed her hand and scolded angrily, "Don't worry about how I got here. Cindy, do you know that Jason, that loser, just got in the car with a vixen and left?"

A vixen?

Cindy was stunned and then she turned her head to look in the direction of the street. With a sense of loss in her mind, she said coldly, "Let's go home."

This misunderstanding had really grew bigger.

Amanda scolded all the way back. When they arrived at the Jiang's old mansion, she went straight to Charles to get his help to persuade Cindy, "Cindy, you must listen to your mother this time. You must divorce Jason! How dare that loser have another woman? If I hadn't seen it with my own eyes just now, we would have had no clue at all!"

"I've told you that Jason is not a good guy. Now it's proven."

"Cindy, listen to me. We will go and arrange the divorce with Jason tomorrow. We must let him leave without taking a penny away!"

Cindy was already very disappointed. And now she had been nagged by her parents for such so long. In a fit of anger, she got up, "Okay!"

Chapter 201

Amanda Yang was stunned. She did not expect that her daughter would agree!

She and Charles looking at each other with a surprised look on their face. After a while, Amanda cheered and shouted, "Charles, did you hear that? Cindy agreed to divorce."

Charles felt helpless and disappointed. He got up and walked into the study room alone.

After all, she was his daughter. He felt heartbroken as a father now that his daughter's marriage had failed.

On the other hand, Amanda was sitting happily on the sofa, thinking that Jason would no longer be in this family.

The family would definitely get better!

Since her daughter was so great, she would definitely be able to find a better man!

Randy He was the best candidate at that moment.

"Yes, yes, yes. Should let Randy know about this.

17:44

Tomorrow, he can take the opportunity to take Cindy out for a walk."

Amanda was mumbling and then dialed Randy's number.

"Aunt Amanda, what's the matter? Why have you called me so late."

Randy was drinking and sulking in his own detached villa.

Cindy must be very disappointed with him.

"Randy, I'm going to tell you a good news." Amanda could not help but sound very happy on the phone.

Randy frowned when he heard this and asked with a smile, "Aunt Amanda, there's no good news except for the news of Cindy's divorce."

"Hahaha. Randy, I can't believe you've guessed it."

Amanda smiled and said proudly, "Cindy agreed to divorce Jason. I was the one who persuaded her."

It was obvious that Amanda was seeking credit.

"Really?"

Randy immediately sat up from the sofa with excitement after hearing this.

17:43

"It's true. Would Aunt Amanda to lie to you? How about this, come to my house tomorrow and take Cindy out for a walk. Do you know that I caught Jason with his mistress today."

Amanda was overjoyed. The more she talked, the more excited she became. She said, "By the way, when is the guy you found going to deal with Jason? You must teach Jason a lesson! This Jason dared to find a mistress behind my daughter's back. It would be better if that guy could catch Jason and the mistress in bed. In this way, Cindy will definitely get a divorce!"

"Haha! I've defeated Jason this time." Amanda thought.

The more Amanda thought about it, the happier she became. After hanging up the phone, she could not wait to go to Cindy's bedroom. When she saw Cindy lying sideways on the bed, she immediately woke her up, "Cindy, I have something to discuss with you."

Cindy was crying, secretly thinking about what had happened that night.

17:43

She could not believe that Jason and Fiona would...

However, the fact that it had happened right in front of her. There was a lipstick mark on Jason's face. The color was the same as Fiona's lips!

Women always have good observation skills.

"What's the matter, mom? Can't we talk about it tomorrow? I'm tired." Cindy sat up with her eyes red.

Amanda felt bad when she saw Cindy like this. At the same time, she hated Jason even more.

"Cindy, it's not that I'm cruel. I just want to ask you who is going to raise Angela after you divorce Jason?"

Amanda asked.

Cindy was stunned and said with certainty, "Angela is mine. I'll raise her."

"No way!"

Amanda refused sternly, "Cindy, are you confused? If you divorce and take a child with you, who will you marry in the future? Who will want to marry you? We can't have Angela! Give her to Jason. At most, I will pay some money to give him for child support!"

Amanda was making arrangements on Jason's behalf. First, make Jason leave the house and then give the child to him. At the worst, she could give him some support.

Amanda could afford such a small sum of money.

As long as her daughter could marry into a rich and powerful family in the future, the money she could get would be more than enough for the child support money.

"Mom, what are you thinking? I want Angela. I have the right to decide for myself."

Cindy was having a headache at the moment, so she hurriedly got up and pushed Amanda out.

Amanda stood in the doorway, she patted the door and shouted, "Cindy, it's not up to you to decide on this matter. We definitely don't want Angela!"

Cindy was feeling very annoyed now. She was lying on the bed muffling her head with a pillow.

She did not know what she was going to do.

Divorce?

She did not know what she was going to do.

Divorce?

17:43

She just said it in a fit of anger.

However, she could not take it to heart.

After coming out of the hospital, Fiona clung to Jason and asked him to accompany her.

Jason had no choice but to find a hotel for her to stay.

However, Fiona tried her best to get Jason upstairs.

Jason said, "I'll send you up and then I'll leave."

Fiona quickly blinked her eyes and said pitifully, "Okay, okay."

In fact, she thought that if he went upstairs, she would not do as he wished. She was thinking after they got upstairs and they would go into the suite.

Fiona could not wait to take off her coat and put on a seductive look. She pouted to Jason and crooked her finger, saying, "Jason, I'll go and wash up first. Wait for me."

Jason was stunned. He wanted to leave but on second thought he realized that Fiona was obviously seducing him.

Should he tease her?

17:43

Moreover, Jason could not think of a reason to go back. How could he face Cindy?

He was very upset about what had happened tonight.

Therefore, Jason simply sat on the sofa and thought about things.

"Splash!"

There was a loud splash of water in the bathroom.

About ten minutes later, the bathroom door opened. Fiona's cheeks were pink and she was wearing a white bathrobe. The length of the bathrobe only covered up to her thighs...

Jason sat on the sofa. Even though he was only there to play tricks on Fiona for the night, he could not help but gulp!

"Oh my God!

This is too f*cking tempting!" Jason thought.

Unexpectedly, Fiona, the little bitch had such a good figure!

Be calm!

He had to calm himself!

17:43

But something was growing!

Jason suddenly took a sip of fresh water to suppress the excitement he felt inside.

Fiona saw all of this. Jason was indeed very pure. Didn't Cindy satisfy him at home?

How could he not even take this little bit of temptation?

"Jason, I've showered. Why don't you go shower as well?"

Fiona put on some slippers and suddenly pounced over. She held his neck and her cheeks were red.

Fiona was not worried that she would be exposed at all.

Jason nodded mechanically and took the opportunity to get up, but his palm accidentally touched Fiona and his whole body trembled. Her body was so soft.

"I'll take a shower."

Jason ran into the bathroom as if he was running away from something.

Fiona looked at his back and the corners of her mouth curled up. She sneered, "Stupid, he can't change the fact that he's a loser even if he has money. I really don't know if he is lucky or I have bad luck."

Jason washed his face with cold water in the bathroom and looked at himself in the mirror.

At this moment, he was a little hesitant.

Fiona was just a gold digger. So what if he slept with her for one night?

Anyway, Cindy had disappointed him tonight.

No, no, no!

He just wanted to play tricks and taught her a lesson. He could go beyond that!

Cindy was the only woman he loved!

Fiona, wrapped in a bathrobe, and lay on the bed. She kept making sexy gestures in the room.

Ten minutes later, Jason came out of the bathroom and dried his hair. When he saw Fiona sitting on the sofa, he could not help but look at her a few more times.

Fiona understood men's thoughts, so she deliberately changed her position. The sexy pose made Jason spit out the water he just drank.

17:43

"Oh! Jason, what's wrong with you?"

Fiona trotted over, bent down and pretended to be very concerned.

Jason just glanced at her. Oh my God, what's said in the animals documentary was right. It was the season for animals...again.

"Ah! I'm fine. I just drink too fast, and I'm choking."

Jason explained awkwardly.

Fiona smiled and did not want to give away that she knew what he was thinking. She sat on the sofa with Jason in her arms and asked coyly, "Jason, can I be your lover? Anyway, you saw it tonight. Cindy went to find other man behind your back, didn't she?"

Fiona blinked. She held Jason's neck and pressed her red lips tightly against his face.

Jason still felt a little pain in his heart thinking about what had happened tonight.

"You?"

Jason turned his head. "Be my lover? No. You used to look down on me, didn't you?"

"How could it be? That was in the past. I like you now." Fiona said.

17:43

"You like my identity and money, don't you?"

Jason ruthlessly disclosed.

Fiona was stunned but she did not deny it. She said, "Only when you have money, you can talk about love. Don't worry, I, Fiona, will love you with all my heart."

After that, in order to prove it, she put her arms around his neck and was about to kiss him passionately!

Jason's eyes opened wide. He did not expect this little b*tch, Fiona, to be so dominant.

Was he going to cheat on Cindy?

Meanwhile, several black business cars stopped below at the lobby of the hotel.

"Crack, crack!"

The car doors opened and seven or eight heavies, who were holding weapons, jumped out of the car.

The leader was a brash man, with pox scars all over his body. His right arm had a tattoo of a tiger.

He looked so fierce!

17:43

As soon as they appeared, the guests in the hotel were scared out of their wits.

"Wolf, it's here. We followed and saw that the guy went upstairs with a long-legged and perky assed woman."

A subordinate was talking while secretly staring at the several girls at the front desk.

Wolf looked so mighty and he aggressive said, "Beat that guy up tonight. Later, I'll treat you guys to wine, nice food and some women. You must make Master Randy happy. Do you understand?"

Everyone nodded, "Sure!"

All of these guys were very excited.

They rushed to the elevator and went straight to Jason's room without hesitation,

Chapter 202

Soon, they arrived at the door of the suite.

"Is everything ready?" Wolf turned his head and asked.

A man wearing a hat held his mobile phone tightly in his pocket. He said, "I'm ready. As long as we rush in, we can start the broadcast immediately. We have already contacted all the major platforms and we can do the live broadcast at the same time. This loser will become Shang Jiang City's internet celebrity!"

"Haha! Good, he will be famous on the internet! An famous guy who was caught cheating on a live broadcast!"

Wolf patted his brother on the shoulder and felt very happy. He dialed Randy's number, "Mr. Randy, everything is ready. You can turn on the web and watch the show tonight on all the live broadcast platforms. It's a trend of doing these nowadays. You'll definitely be satisfied. Tonight, this guy will absolutely have his reputation ruined!"

17:43

"Live broadcast? Good! You've done a good job. I really want to see this loser's downfall with my own eyes!"

At this moment, Randy was upstairs in his villa. He could not wait to switch on the network TV and download the live broadcast platform.

These days, he had no appetite to eat because of Jason and Cindy. But now he had finally got his opportunity to ruin Jason for good.

Killed two birds with one stone!

"Jason, oh Jason. It turns out that you really are a loser. You can't even control himself around a woman.

Haha.

Cindy must have been blind to marry you!

Today, I'll make you a sc*mbag in the eyes of all the people of the city!

I want you to die of shame and anger. You will lose your reputation forever!" Randy thought.

Randy could not wait to turn on the live broadcast software. A few minutes later, the live stream appeared.

At the same time, the popularity of the live broadcast room was also rising rapidly.

All he needed to do was just to spend money on promoting the video!

Not to mention, the shaky camera, the standard hotel facilities and a group of men. It really felt genuine.

Just the title was enough to attract a lot of people's attention. "Adultery caught live! The most useless man in Shang Jiang City was having an affair behind his wife's back..."

Meanwhile, Wolf and the others chuckled.

He had been a part of gangland world for many years, so he knew how to please the boss. The better the things were done, the more the boss appreciated him.

This whole hotel was controlled by his people!

Jason could not escape tonight, even if he grew wings. He would go down in history!

He would become a joke all over the country!

They adjusted the angle of the screen and stood at the door of Jason's room. Number 832, while two guys guarded the door.

After waiting for a while, there was no movement coming from the room.

Wolf and the others looked at each other suspiciously and whispered, "Why is nothing happening?"

Several underlings were also very curious and replied, "Have they finished?"

"How could it have been so fast?" Wolf grinned.

As soon as he finished speaking, the three of them kicked on the door together!

Bang!

There came a loud noise!

The door was kicked open and the whole floor shook because of the noise!

The followers brought by Wolf all rushed in and shouted, "Don't move! Don't move! Don't put on your clothes!"

The moment they entered, they used their mobile phones to snap photos. Some of them took out baseball bats. They were all looked fierce!

In the broadcast room, the audience could clearly see that these people even had daggers in their hands. On the screen, they could see that the daggers were shining in the light!

What the f*ck!

These action to catch an affair were really good like catching criminals!

All of a sudden, the broadcast room was full of excitement!

Wolf was particularly excited. He pushed away his followers who were crowded in front of him and looked at the well-dressed Jason who was sitting on the sofa, crossed his legs and tasted some red wine.

At this moment, the woman next to him seemed to be stunned. She was wrapped in a bathrobe and sat on the bed. She did not dare to move.

Wolf only glanced at her, but immediately took a fancy to Fiona. This girl really had a decent figure. She seemed to be frightened by his mighty!

Hahaha!

"Dude, you're done for today!"

Wolf stepped forward while baring his teeth. He looked at Jason who was still sitting there in disdain.

17:43

It was strange.

This dude was sitting there as if nothing had happened. His expression was very calm without even a trace of panic. On the contrary, he grinned at them, "I've been waiting for you for a long time."

This smile was very evil. It showed a sense of chill and seemed to have everything in his control!

Jason's face was calm and he glanced at Fiona.

Sorry.

At the same time, Wolf became stunned. He looked at several of his underlings. He waved his large hand and his face darkened. He shouted, "You're playing tricks on me. Beat him!"

Several gangsters were holding baseball bats in their hands. They shouted and going to hit Jason.

Meanwhile, Randy was watching the live broadcast with a sinister smile on his face. He was very happy and said to himself, "Jason, you're finally finished. I spent so much effort on a loser like."

17:43

Just as Randy was about to leave, something that should not have appeared on the live broadcast happened!

All of a sudden, more than a dozen black figures rushed into the room. It was suddenly full of people who were guarding Jason sitting on the sofa!

All kinds of hustle and bustle rang out at this moment!

"F*ck! How could these people enter? Where did they come from?"

"Oh no, we've fallen into a trap! Retreat now!"

"Fk! You tricked us!"

"Get down! Get down!"

"Put down your weapons! Get down!"

At the same time, dozens of dangerous looking men in black suits rushed out suddenly from every hotel room in the floor. All of them were carrying bats.

The two gangsters guarding the door were defeated!

At the entrance of the hotel's elevator, two ruffians did not understand what was going on. The elevator door behind them opened and four or five men in black suits rushed out. They threw a stick at their heads and they began to bleed!

A few gangsters who stayed in the lobby at bottom of the hotel were talking and laughing about where to go that night. Suddenly, they saw a few black Mercedes-Benz cars parked at the entrance. More than a dozen men in black suits and black tie rushed out from the car. They rushed in very organised and fast!

Bang!

Several hooligans tried to run away but recieved kicks to their backs by a few pairs of leather shoes. Half of them flew out and fell to the ground with their teeth smashed!

These things happened at almost the same moment. In less than 30 seconds, the battle ended!

In the villa, Randy was watching the live broadcast dumbfoundedly. He stood there in a daze and he could not move for a while. Sweat dripped down from his forehead slowly.

17:43

What the f*ck!

What the hell was going on here?

Jason was just a loser. How could he have so many well-trained thugs around him?

Who on earth was he?

A loser? A son-in-law who relies on other people?

It was obvious that Wolf's gangsters could not be compared with these well-trained thugs!

Before Randy could react, he felt something unusual behind him!

A ghost-like figure appeared in his home. There was a bone-piercing chill in his neck!

Randy's forehead was covered with cold sweat. He swallowed hard and narrowed his eyes. Suddenly, he saw a sharp dagger being held towards his neck!

There was a flash of light reflected in it!

A hitman?

Randy knew what was that. He had been living abroad for many years, so he had come into contact with a lot of things like this.

17:43

Only a hitman could enter his home silently and then appear behind him without warning!

What the hell was going on here?

Randy was about to collapse and his legs could not help trembling. "Who did I provoke?" He asked himself.

Jason?

No, it could not be!

How could a loser like him hire hitmen?

A piercing cold voice rang in his ears. Randy could feel the threat of death.

"I didn't expect this to be so easy. I thought it was going to be a powerful person but it turns out it's just an ordinary loser. I don't know what young master was thinking."

The black shadow behind Randy muttered to himself.

"Brother... brother, who sent you here? How much did he pay? I... I'll pay double. Please don't kill me."

Randy was scared out of his wits. The feeling of this d*mn dagger on his neck was really scary!

17:43

It was so horrible!

Hiss!

All of a sudden, he felt a sharp pain!

Randy felt the knife slashed on his neck. Warm liquid began to flow out.

"Brother... brother, brother, please spare my life! I'll give pay you triple! Please don't kill me!"

Plop!

Randy knelt down immediately.

It was so horrible!

The murderous look of the guy behind him was terrifying!

"Triple?"

His voice was as cold as Satan's.

"Yes, yes, yes! Triple!"

Randy was like a man drowning who was clinging to a log to survive.

However, he kept his head down and he did not dare to lift it.

It was said that as soon as they saw the hitman's face, they would be killed.

17:43

"It's a good deal!"

The killer who was dressed all in black sat casually on the sofa. He motioned for Randy to continue watching the television. "Look at the live broadcast."

Randy was stunned for a moment. He slowly raised his head to look at the live broadcast.

He saw that Wolf and others in the suite had been beaten to a pulp and were all being pressed to the ground.

Jason picked up his mobile phone leisurely and grinned at the camera, "Randy, didn't I warn you? Why didn't you listen to me? Do you really think I'm weak?"

"Fk!"

Randy was now very scared but also felt extremely angry!

It was really him!

Where did this loser come from? How could he have so many people to protect him? He even hired a person to kill him!

He could not help muttering to himself, "How could he have the ability?"

"I just wanted Wolf to teach you a lesson but you've found so many people. You even hired a hitman!

I don't want to play anymore!" Randy thought.

Randy was now beyond remorse. However, since things had already happened, he would not be able to defend himself the consequences.

However, he did not believe in heresy. How capable could this loser be?

He was the young master from He Group!

"Jason, even if you have some power being able to gather so many people, would you really dare to kill me?"

"My father is Kingsley He! Shang Jiang City's Kingsley He! My Group's CEO!"

"My second uncle is Landon He! Shang Jiang City's third in charge! Even people like Bruce Scott have to respect us!"

"Do you think I'm afraid of you just because you've made such a big scene today?! Dream on!"

Randy had gone mad. He was completely blinded by anger and hatred!

17:43

He could not believe it. He could not believe that a loser like Jason would dare to kill him!

He must have fooled them by using his name to pretend to be Master Smith!

Jason's expression was serious. He looked at the camera and suddenly grinned, baring his white teeth. He said, "Randy, do you want to know who I am?"

Chapter 203

"Fk! You're scaring me!"

Randy was extremely angry but he just smiled. He looked at Jason Smith with a ferocious expression and roared, "I'm not scared! You are a loser. Aunt Amanda told me personally! Who do you think you are? Do you think you're a gangster because you have just hired a few people? Believe it or not, if you dare to touch me, you will be slaughtered to death as soon as you leave the hotel!"

Where did Jason get the courage to talk to him like this?

His identity?

Who the f*ck did he think he was!

"Oh? Are you saying that you still don't want to admit defeat?"

Jason grinned cruelly.

"Haha, Jason, I admit that I underestimated you. However, there is no one in Shang Jiang City that I wouldn't dare to offend! No one dares to offend my family!"

17:43

Randy sneered coldly. He did not care one bit about the hitman sitting on the sofa.

Would he really dare to kill him?

Then there would be disaster waiting for them!

His whole family would be destroyed!

Of course, Randy's claim of killing Jason was just an exaggeration. It was nothing to worry about.

His second uncle, Landon, was a famous local gangster!

He had an impressive criminal record!

Very cruel!

He had committed a lot of crimes but he still lived a good life. He was still the third boss in Shang Jiang City!

Among the nine bosses, Landon was the most hateful, cruel and bloody!

He once took a fancy of a waitress when he was in a hot pot shop. He could not get her to serve him, so he splashed hot oil in her face and he brought his men to beat the waitress' family!

No one dared to provoke such a vicious person!

Randy was very confident when his second uncle to be his support.

Jason said faintly to the screen, "Nobody dares to touch you? Then I will have to give it a try."

After that, Jason's voice suddenly became extremely cold. He said only one sentence, "Slap his mouth."

As soon as Jason finished speaking, Randy felt that he was about to be targeted by a fierce beast!

He turned his head and saw that the hitman had already stood up from the sofa. The dagger in the hitman's hand was shining in the light.

"What... What do you want to do? Don't come over! Don't listen to him. My second uncle is Landon!"

Randy was so scared. He sat on the ground looking guilty and crawled over to the corner.

However!

Slap! Slap!

After several powerful slaps, Randy could smell blood and his teeth had been knocked out in an instant!

17:43

"Randy, look. I touched you just now. Are you going to punish me?"

Jason smiled coldly.

After dozen more slap, Randy's face became swollen like a pig's head. Blood was flowing out of his mouth. He stuttered, "Jason... You're over... I going to get my second uncle to kill you!"

Later, Randy climbed to the side table, took out his mobile phone and called his second uncle.

Jason did not stop him. Instead, he looked at Bruce Scott who had just walked in from the door and asked, "How's it going?"

Meanwhile, Bruce stood respectfully in front of Jason. He bent down, "Mr. Smith, everything is ready. Just wait for your orders."

Jason nodded with a hint coldness in his eyes.

Jason had already researched Randy's background very thoroughly.

As for Landon, Jason knew his identity as well. He had asked Bruce about it beforehand.

Lando had done all kinds of evil and there was no reason for him to exist anymore.

17:42

Bruce stood in front of Jason and glanced at Wolf and the others in the suite who were all badly beaten. He asked, "Mr. Smith, Chairman Qiao asked if you need help from the family?"

Jason looked at Bruce, "You can't deal with Landon?"

A cold sweat broke out on Bruce's forehead. He lowered his head, "If it's only Landon, I can handle him. However, there's a big family behind Landon. I'm afraid that once we fight, I won't be able to control them."

Jinling's big family?

It seemed that this family was not so simple.

Jason got up and walked to the big French window. Looking at the night time view of the river, he talked after a while, "Get Joe to prepare. There are some fixers in Smith Group. This time, I want the He family to be destroyed! No matter who is behind him, I must show them that I, Jason, am not a weak person!"

As soon as Jason finished speaking, he suddenly asked, "Which family of Jinling?"

17:42

Bruce said, "I'm not sure yet. It's very mysterious. I've never seen them appear in Shang Jiang City. He's always in contact with someone alone."

Jason nodded and did not ask any more questions.

He could force the people behind him to show up.

Jason did not allow any hidden danger around him.

Meanwhile, Randy had already called Landon and cried, "Uncle! Save me! Hurry up and save me!"

At this moment, Landon was having a banquet with his brothers in his place to celebrate his third mistress' baby shower.

His showed his displeasure having suddenly received a phone call from his nephew, He asked, "Randy, what happened? Why are you in such a hurry? Who dared to provoke you?"

"Uncle! Save me! There's a hitman! Someone is going to kill me!"

Randy shouted in a panic and his voice was breaking.

Landon realized the seriousness of the situation.

17:42

He slammed on the table and roared, "Who was it? How dare he bullied my family member? He's looking for trouble!"

After Landon roared, all of Landon's brothers who were sitting in the hall stood up angrily!

It was a big scene!

A lady who was holding a baby beside Landon gave the baby to a maid and went downstairs.

After figuring out the address, Landon hung up the phone. He picked up the wine from the table and drank the whole!

Slam!

He suddenly threw the bottle to the ground. Landon shook off the mink coat from his body revealing his strong figure. It was full of tattoos. One of them was a green dragon!

Landon had been a gangster since he was a child. He had fought and killed. He had seen all kinds of things!

There were lots of wounds on his body. Included two deep scars on his face. They were all permanent scars.

17:42

People called Landon the 'Two Slash Gangster.'

That was because he only needed to cut someone twice to kill them. One was in the heart and the other was in the neck.

"Brother Landon, who bullied Master Randy? Let's kill him!"

"Anyone who offends the family is asking for death!"

"Brother Landon, we'll take all the guys with us if you give the order!"

There were more than a dozen tables in the room. All of them were the unsavory members of gangland. They all had tattoos.

Landon shouted angrily, "D*mn it! Bullying the He's is something that has never happened before! Find that guy for me and tear the hotel down!"

With a roar, the whole room was suddenly filled with the voices of at least a hundred men. They all took out their wrapped up long sabers and steel sticks from the drawers under the tables!

"Kill them!"

The angry roars were so loud that the whole street could hear it.

17:42

All the passersby were fleeing in a hurry at this moment.

Landon led the way. Just as he was about to get up, his cell phone suddenly rang and a video call came through.

He picked it up.

"Who the f*ck are you?"

Landon was in a bad temper. When he saw the picture, he saw that it was a young man who was sitting on the sofa. He looked as though he was only in his twenties.

Who the f*ck was this?

However, the man in the screen spoke immediately.

"Landon, I'm the one you are looking for. Let me introduce myself. I'm Jason Smith. Well, I beat Randy but at least he is safe now."

Landon's face suddenly turned cold. He said angrily, "It's you! Dude, how dare you provoke He's? Today will be the end of your life!"

Jason smiled slightly, "Landon, I'm just giving you a warning. Don't get involved in this mess. Otherwise, I promise today will be your death! It's time for your family to end too!"

17:42

"Are you f*cking trying to scare me?"

Landon was furious, "This is Shang Jiang City and it's my territory! Who do you think you are? Wait for me and I'll bring someone to find you now. I'd like to see if you can f*cking kill me!"

"Really? Let's wait and see."

Jason sneered.

Landon was not a fool. After so many years, he had become a good observer. When he saw that Jason acting so tough, he frowned.

Where did this young man get the courage to talk to him like this?

"Young man, don't you know who I am? I'm Landon He, the third boss of Shang Jiang City! Even Bruce Scott has to show me respect. Are you sure you want to fight with me?"

Jason just smiled faintly and Bruce came out from behind. With a smile on his face, he looked at Landon and said coldly, "Landon, it's been a while. You're still the same."

17:42

Landon was dumbfounded!

How could Bruce be with this young man?

Who was he?

From Bruce's look, it was obvious that he was very respectful to this young man.

Landon was a little flustered, but after all, he had seen a lot over the years. He immediately sneered, "Haha. Bruce, I didn't expect you to become a dog and be respectful to such a loser. I think I should take over your position as Shang Jiang City's gangland emperor."

Bruce looked calm and did not speak. He was waiting for Jason.

"Okay, let's talk about it if you're still around tomorrow."

Jason laughed and hung up the call. His eyes fell on the camera, "Randy, do you want to see how your family is going to be destroyed because of you?"

Now Randy's face was full of blood which showed his angry. He sneered, "You're trying to scare me?!"

17:42

My second uncle will come for you right away!
You're dead Jason! Cindy is mine!"

Jason shook his head. "This Randy really won't give up until he's dead." he thought.

With one look, the hitman in the villa continued to attack Randy!

Ten minutes passed!

The wails lasted for a long time.

On the other hand, after Landon hung up the video,
he fell into a state of rage!

No one had ever dared to speak to him like that!

Not to mention threaten him!

F*ck! F*ck! F*ck!

He was asking for death!

"Brothers! Let's kill that arrogant boy tonight and kill Bruce as well. From now on, Shang Jiang City will belong to me and our Draco gang!"

Landon raised his arm and shouted. Hundreds of brothers behind him all waved theirs daggers, steel pipes and roared violently.

All of them were dispatched!

17:42

On the streets of Shang Jiang City, out of countless large and small nightclubs, alleys, and shops rushed groups of gangsters. They all had weapons in their hands!

Observing from above, it could be seen that the crowds were pouring into the hotel from all directions!

Suddenly, the whole street was full of people!

Landon sat in the car and sent some gangsters. He said in a cold voice, "Go to find Jason immediately and capture his family! I want his family to be destroyed tonight!"

Chapter 204

In less than ten minutes, the street in front of the Century Hotel was full of Landon's people!

Looking around, there were a dense crowd of people!

All of them looked so fierce!

They were holding machetes and steel rods on their hands!

This was Landon's means. He was always the most ruthless person in the whole city!

This was also Landon's means for so many years, always be the first to act.

Such a sight was enough to scare any opponent out of his wits!

"Draco! Kill!"

"Draco! Kill!"

The noise was like muffled thunder roaring through Shang Jiang City's night sky!

At this moment, all the pedestrians on the street retreated one after another. The surrounding stores and shopping malls were all closed!

Thousands of citizens hid in their houses and looked at the shocking scene through the windows.

Even the noisiest children would stopped crying at this moment, and looked through the window watching at the group of hundreds, which were full of murderous intent!

"It's Draco again. They disappeared for so long and now they've come back."

"That's right. The last time was four years ago. At that time, the whole city was full of their people. The streets were covered in blood and chopped of limbs were just lying on the ground. It was terrible."

"I remember that too. Those were the darkest days in Shang Jiang City. I heard that a lot of people were killed and injured. In the end, the imperial guards were sent from the border to suppress them."

The people gathered in the shopping mall and were talking about it with worried faces.

Would that day repeat itself again?

17:42

Landon's black Lincoln Limousine emerged from the crowd. It was very grand and it parked at the entrance of the hotel.

His men were standing around the car with machetes on their hands. They were confronting Bruce Scott's black suited followers at the entrance of the hotel!

There was no doubt that there would be no match for dozen when facing hundreds!

However, Bruce's henchmen were all calm without a visible trace of panic or fear.

They were not afraid even though they saw the car door open. Landon got out of the car, looking very violent.

In the past, they would have called him brother Kenny.

But today he was an enemy!

Landon got out with a cigar in his hand. He just puffed and looked at the dozen guards at the gate. He sneered ruthlessly, "Bruce brought so few people with him? He's so disrespectful to me."

As soon as he finished speaking, dozens of thugs in black suits suddenly rushed out from the different doors of the hotel!

17:42

They all had daggers and other weapons in hand!

Looking at these well-organized and fast-moving hatchet men, Landon sneered again, "Not enough, it's too little! Don't tell me that brother Bruce has so few followers these days."

"Landon, up here!"

Suddenly, there was a sound coming from above!

Landon looked up and saw Bruce and Jason Smith standing there staring coldly at the dense crowd below!

Jason sneered. It was such a big scene!

If he did not get rid of Landon, Landon would definitely not give up.

"Landon, you are just the third boss in Shang Jiang City. I advise you to withdraw your people as soon as possible. Otherwise, don't blame me for what happens to our relationship."

Bruce who was standing next to Jason shouted coldly.

After all, he was Shang Jiang City's underground emperor, so it was expected for him to deal with these things.

Landon looked around and saw countless men in black suits rushing out again from all the streets and alleys. They were wearing uniforms and holding weapons!

They looked as if they were willing to sacrifice themselves!

Murderous intent was emitting from them!

Suddenly the street was completely filled with hundreds of black-suited thugs!

Looking down from above, one would see that Landon and his followers were completely surrounded by all the black suited thugs.

Surrounded!

Suddenly Landon realized that he had fallen into the trap!

So what?

He was Landon and he had experienced lots of these situations before!

"Bruce, do you think that I am scared? I want him to come over and bowdown to me right now!"

17:42

Landon stretched out his hand with cruelty and pointed to Jason who was in front of Bruce.

Jason just stood silently at the window. He looked down at Landon and his hundreds of followers below them. He did not feel scared at all and his eyes were cold and determined.

"Landon, you're finished." Jason grinned coldly and sent a message in Group 9511.

"F*ck you!"

Landon immediately became furious. He waved his big hand and roared, "Slice that guy up! Tear down this hotel for me! Make sure none of Bruce's people leave! After tonight, Draco will be number one in Shang Jiang City!"

"Kill them all!"

A burst of shouting shattered the dark clouds in the sky!

The pale moonlight fell!

Several black dots flew from a distance with a deafening sound like thunder!

Everyone looked up!

More than a dozen black spots quickly approached them in the air!

17:42

"What the fk! What the fk is this?"

"Oh my God! Mom, look! They're planes! Planes!"

Meanwhile, the people who were hiding in the room looked up at the sky through their windows. They saw more than a dozen black spots flying past the pale moon. They were magnified infinitely and flew over the sky of the Century Hotel!

"This, this is... a group of fighter jets!"

"What the f*ck! The one in the middle is an armed helicopter! There were a few armed fighter jets on either side of it!"

"Oh my god, what's happening? Why are these fighter jets here?"

Countless doubts flashed through their minds and they were all trying to understand.

It was so horrible!

It was so shocking!

More than a dozen aircraft, armed helicopters and even fighter jets!

Moreover, they all saw that these fighter jets were all in combat mode. The weapons had been armed!

When the fighter jets got closer, the rumbling sound made people below the Century Hotel unable to stand still!

The huge armed helicopter's rotor was shining with light. It caused a strong blast of air and wave of sound.

"It's so horrible!"

This was such a big scene!

A single fighter jet would not be a big deal but now there were more than a dozen of them!

Even the biggest armed aircraft, the N-225 – was here!

Those in the crowd with internet connections immediately took videos and uploaded them to the Internet. Everyone knew about it.

"Oh my god! This is the N225. There must be at least a hundred armed special security guards inside!"

Hiss!

Then the group of people all gasped with shock!

There were more than a hundred armed special security guards!

17:42

This was like a troop of special imperial guards!

Landon was dumbfounded!

Hundreds of followers behind him were also dumbfounded!

Landon had experienced all kinds of fighting and killing in his life.

But tonight was destined to be the most shocking day for him. He had never seen such a scene before. He had only seen it in movies!

It was so horrible!

He stood under the huge wind and waves, listening to the roaring sound. His clothes were blown blown by it.

"What? What's going on?" Landon was scared and wanted to retreat.

Oh no!

At this moment, when Landon looked up at the young man standing at the window, he saw a trace of coldness and disdain in his eyes.

Yes.

17:42

Disdain!

The eyes of the young man showed he did not care about the hundreds of followers he had brought.

In his eyes, these people were just nonentities!

Why had it turned out this way?

"Retreat! Retreat!"

Landon was a smart person. Immediately he understood and roared!

Soon, hundreds of people were afraid of being bombed.

However, Bruce's followers still surrounded them.

"Get out of my way!"

"Get lost!"

"F*ck! If you don't get out of here, I'll kill you!"

Landon's subordinates had never seen such a scene. These aircrafts hovered above their heads.

They were about to die.

They were scared and felt like trapped beasts!

They were desperate to escape.

A small fight broke out!

17:42

However, it was over in a second!

Countless black figures came out from all the exits of the hotel and onto the streets. They were fully armed!

All of them were well-trained. They were Shang Jiang City's imperial guards!

Everyone of them were killers!

They were wearing bullet-proof vests, black Berets and black combat suits. They had guns and all kinds of red flashing dots!

Boom!

Their steps were neat and uniform!

Three groups of armed imperial guards with riot shields rushed out quickly from the two entrances of the long street and the hotel!

They walked step by step as the soles of their feet made a marching sound. They quickly surrounded Landon's followers!

They were so organised!

They totally formed a human wall!

Even in the hotel's windows had more than a dozen snipers inside!

17:42

The snipers suddenly loaded their guns and stared down the scopes!

Lots of red dots were pointed to Landon's forehead, chest, and other key parts of his body!

"Beep!!!!"

In the flash of an eye, an alarm rang throughout the whole street!

The headlights of more than a dozen armored vehicles turned on. They were like steel beasts, rushing in and out, completely surrounding the area!

There were fully armed imperial security guards equipped with machine guns in every armored vehicle!

Four fully armed and well-trained imperial guards quickly jumped down from the car. Some were standing and some were kneeling. All of them were equipped with guns. They had loaded and were aiming at the fighting crowd!

Moreover, ropes fell rapidly one by one from the armed helicopters in the sky. The ones that came down them were dressed in green combat uniforms with camouflage paint on their faces.

17:42

They flew down from above quickly and landed in the crowd of Landon's followers!

These gangsters had never seen such a scene in their lives. They were all dumbfounded!

The vuvuzela and the broadcast!

"You're surrounded! Drop down your weapons! All of you get down!"

"Put down your weapons! All of you!"

"Anyone who disobeys shall be killed without hesitation!"

Suddenly, all of Landon's followers were so scared that their legs went limp. They all lay on the ground!

Meanwhile, Jason had already appeared at the hotel's entrance with Bruce and others.

As soon as he appeared, the riot shield team automatically made way for him.

Jason took a calm step forward and walked towards Landon. Looking at Landon who was already sweating and trembling, he said with a cold smile, "Landon, as I said, today is the day for your death."

17:42

Landon was scared out of his wits but he suddenly smiled coldly and said in a ferocious way, "I underestimated you. However, if you dare to touch me, your wife and child will die with me!"

All of a sudden, Jason's narrowed his eyes, a cold and murderous rage burst from him!

Chapter 205

It was a bad plan to use Jason Smith's wife and his child to threaten him. This made Jason really want to kill Landon fast.

Landon was overjoyed when he saw Jason's face suddenly changed. He hurried over to show off.

However!

Bang!

Jason put his hands in his pockets. Then he kicked Landon in the chest and abdomen with his shoes!

Landon fell to the ground facing up to the sky!

Before Landon could react, two green-robed camouflage guards were pointing their guns at Landon's head, "Don't move!"

Landon raised his head and sneered. He put his hands up to surrender. "Haha, what do you think? Do you think you can stop me by making such a big scene? Don't forget this is Shang Jiang City, my territory! I advise you to take your followers and leave as soon as possible. Let's forget about today's matter. How about it?"

17:42

Landon was between a rock and a hard place. This was the only thing he could do.

He definitely could not afford to offend Jason. However, he did not want to embarrass himself.

If he apologized, then Draco would lose respect in Shang Jiang City.

However, he did not know how to.

Stomp!

Jason came over and stepped on Landon's chest with his big feet. He knocked his hands on Landon's knees and sneered, "Landon, do you really think I can't do anything to you? I can't stop a local ganglord? Haha, what if I tell you that I am the most powerful gangster in the world?"

Back with the Jiang family. Ten minutes ago, a group of punks with daggers were sneaking around the outside of the house.

They hid in the bushes and observed the surrounding. The leader said with a smile, "Let's do it!"

17:42

Suddenly, more than a dozen people rushed out!

However...

A few figures slowly walked out of the darkness from the corner of Jiang family's old house.

A sturdy figure also slowly emerged. His cruel face was revealed under the street lamp.

Paul Reed looked coldly at the gangsters with daggers in their hands, "Mr. Smith knew you would come. I've been waiting for half an hour."

"Keep your friends close, but keep your enemies closer."

When Jason decided to attack the He family, he had already made a comprehensive plan.

When the ruffians saw Paul, they were all shocked!

Bruce Scott's most powerful subordinate!

"Run!"

The few people turned their heads and were about to run away.

However, a team of guards in black combat uniforms and berets immediately rushed out from the bushes. They were armed with guns and shouted in low voices, "Put down your weapons! Kneel down! All squat down!"

17:41

All of Landon's followers were wiped out with just this one encounter.

Paul looked at Jiang family's old house and muttered, "Sister Cindy is so lucky to have a husband like Mr. Smith."

They left without looking back. Only a few people stayed to guard the house.

On the other hand, Jason looked at Landon very calmly. Landon felt uncomfortable when Jason stared at him like this.

He felt pressured!

He had only felt this kind of pressure from one other person.

His own backer that supported him!

Even Landon felt that even the backer was not as aggressive as Jason!

He was powerful!

Jason looked like an ordinary young man but now he was like an emperor.

17:41

Just a look from Jason could make Landon's soul tremble!

"It's so horrible!"

"Who the hell are you?"

He could not help but ask.

At that moment, his legs began to shake.

"Who am I?"

Jason smiled, "I'm someone you couldn't afford to mess with in your whole life!"

Landon frowned and felt like he was going to vomit blood!

He looked around and saw that his followers were all being pressed to the ground!

There were lots of aircraft hovering in the sky. Besides that, there were many armored vehicles behind him, as well as hundreds of imperial security guards!

Landon knew that he had been defeated!

Convincingly!

How could a nobody have such a powerful background?

17:41

The person who could hire fighter jets and special royal security guards was definitely not an ordinary person!

"Who on earth did my stupid nephew provoke? The He's are asking for trouble provoking an important person like this!" Landon thought.

"Mr... Mr. Smith, let's talk. I think we can sit down and discuss this."

Landon had almost given up resistance. He put on a flattering smile.

Jason glanced at him indifferently. At the same time, Paul walked out of from the crowd behind him and said respectfully, "Mr. Smith, it's settled. Cindy is safe and sound."

Jason breathed a sigh of relief when he heard this and felt secured. He grabbed the gun from the guard's hand and put his finger on the trigger. He aimed the black muzzle at Landon's head!

The atmosphere suddenly became tense!

When Landon heard what Paul said, he knew that his arrangement was going to fail.

When Landon saw Jason pulling the safety lock, his face turned red. He shouted nervously, "Mr. Smith! Mr. Smith, please spare my life! We can talk!"

17:41

Bang!

Landon was completely scared out of his wits. He opened his eyes wide and shook his legs. He pissed himself!

He was completely stunned at that moment!

It was the first time that he had come so close to death!

It took him a while to realized that he was not dead!

There was a bullet hole next to his head!

He felt piercing pain in his ears!

The bullet passed through one of Landon's ears. It had been completely destroyed. Half of his head was covered in blood!

Landon could feel that has right ear was completely deaf. He could not hear a thing!

Meanwhile, the crowd on the street burst into a roar of discussion!

17:41

They did not see the shooting but they did see all of Draco's members being escorted to the armored vehicles one after another!

"Wow! This is so great to see"

"Yes! The Draco gang is no more."

"Oh my God! This is crazy. What did I just see? Is this an FBI arrest?"

Lots of discussion broke out among the crowd.

This was such a shocking night.

Draco Group had survived in Shang Jiang City for more than ten years. Now they had collapsed all of a sudden. All the members had been captured!

Even Draco's boss, Landon had been captured!

"Did you see what happened? It's that guy. Who is he? How can he be so powerful?"

There were people watching from a distance in the crowd. When they saw Jason's figure, they became extremely curious.

"I can't see him. I don't know him. He must be an upper class big shot. I've never seen anything like!"

17:41

Meanwhile, a few people pressed Landon down and got ready to leave.

Landon had accepted his fate. However, he suddenly stared at Jason fiercely and shouted, "You can't stop me! I have a powerful backer! I have Jinling's support! Our group will never be destroyed!"

"Wait." Jason said.

Landon was escorted back over again. Jason sneered with a ferocious look on his face, "Haha, are you afraid now? Let me tell you, you can't provoke our group in Jinling, it's my backer! You can't imagine! Although, I don't know who you are and why you have such power. You are just a nonentity in the eyes of Jinling!"

Nonentity?

Very good!

Jason had not been this excited for a long time!

Jason had almost forgotten that he was once seen as the 'playful' young master Smith for several years!

"Well, I'll show these people what I can do today!"

17:41

Jason thought.

"Jinling is your backer? Tell me, who is he? I'd like to see if I can challenge him!" Jason's eyes were cold.

Meanwhile, Kingsley He, who was at He Group, had headache after coming back from the dinner party.

His son had dared to claim Master Smith's credit.

Moreover, he was very sure that his son's crush's husband, that loser Jason, was actually Master Smith!

Oh God!

How could such a person be willing to be appear like a loser?

"Director... Director He! Something's wrong! Something's wrong!"

Suddenly, the office's door was knocked open by a tall and sexy secretary. She ran in and gasped for air. Her chest kept moving rose and fell.

"Didn't I tell you not to disturb me?"

Kingsley was very annoyed. He glared at her, "What happened?"

17:41

"Director He, your house has been surrounded. Your son has been targeted by a hitman." The female secretary said in a hurry.

"What? A hitman!" Kingsley was shocked!

But that was not all.

"And... And..." The female secretary gulped.

"What else!"

"Master Landon has been caught as well. He's in the Century Hotel now. All of his followers were also caught! The guy called a special imperial guard and said that he will destroy Master Landon and the family tonight!" The female secretary finally finished speaking and took a deep breath.

"Clang!"

Kingsley was so scared that he sat up from his office chair. He clenched his fists and his face turned red!

D*mn it!

Who was it?

How dare he offend the He's family!

"Who is he?" Kingsley asked with angry on his face.

He was definitely not an ordinary person if he had caused a big scene!

Who had Randy offended this time? It was enough for him to have offended Master Smith. How could Randy offend a person that was able to call the imperial guards?

Kingsley was furious now!

Ring ring!

His ringtone sounded immediately. Kingsley looked at his cell phone and he was shocked. A cold sweat broke out on his forehead. It was a stranger's number!

"Hello, who is this?"

Kingsley thought for a while before answering the phone.

"It's me, Jason Smith."

On the other end of the phone, there was an extremely stern voice.

Kingsley immediately understood and opened his eyes wide. He begged for mercy, "Master Smith, I'm sorry. My son and my brother offended you.

17:41

I'm begging Master Smith for mercy!"

"It's too late. I'm only calling to inform you that there are five minutes left until your family is destroyed!"

Jason looked at the time and said lightly, "You can go to the bottom floor of your company."

Kingsley responded. He stood at the window and saw some businessmen, finance and tax officers.

"Chairman, something's wrong. They're here to check the accounts and the tax..."

Kingsley was scared and sat down on his office chair. Despair flashed in his eyes.

"Thump! Thump! Thump!"

Kingsley heard some footsteps and saw a few suited men and women. At a glance, he knew they were from the government. They just broke through the door.

Swish!

The leader with the red star attached to his chest threw down a search warrant, "Kingsley He, you are under arrest for the suspected transportation of interest, tax evasion and illegal obtaining of business secrets. Come with us."

Kingsley panicked. He hurriedly took out his mobile phone and dialed a number. "Madam, save me!"

Chapter 206

The several government officers looked at Kingsley He indifferently. They were not in a hurry to arrest him.

"Madam, please save me! Something has happened!"

Kingsley said anxiously.

Meanwhile, a white Bentley was rushing to the Century Hotel down the main street of Shang Jiang City.

A woman could be vaguely seen sitting in the car. She was on the phone and her face looked unhappy. She said, "I know. Why did your idiot son provoke him?!"

All were questions and scolding!

Kingsley did not dare to reply for a while. In his eyes, this lady was a very well-versed figure.

However, Kingsley would clearly see that this madam did not want to be Master Smith's enemy.

Terrifying!

17:41

Scary!

What on earth was the background of this young master Smith? Even madam was afraid of him.

"Madam, I... I didn't teach my son well. Please save my family and Randy for the sake of my wife."

Kingsley knelt in his CEO office with his sobbing.

The woman inside the car did not speak for a while. She sighed, "If it weren't for my silly sister who broke her engagement and married to you, I really wouldn't claim you as a relative!"

Kingsley trembled all over when he heard this!

It turned out that for so many years madam had only taken care of the He's for the sake of her sister.

In her eyes, the He's was nothing?

However, Kingsley had no complaints.

Kingsley had made himself one of the top entrepreneurs in Shang Jiang City because of his relationship with the madam!

Randy's mother passed away very early. However, because of this relationship Kingsley had been living a good life for so many years.

The Yun's in Jinling.

An extraordinary existence where normal citizen could not reach.

"Madam, I know I was wrong. Please save Randy and my family!"

Kingsley held the phone and knelt on the ground. He kept kowtowing. Through the phone, Juliette could hear a banging sound.

After a few moments of silence, Juliette, who was in the car, asked, "How much sincerity can you show to save the He family?"

Her words were so cold that it Kingsley felt a chill down his back.

How much sincerity did he have...

These meaning was obvious.

"I'm willing to give up all my assets!" Kingsley suddenly kowtowed.

His son was everything in his eyes.

Randy had been spoiled and pampered for so many years because Kingsley wanted to make up for his mother's death.

17:41

A pitiful father.

"I'll try my best."

Juliette replied indifferently. Just as she was about to hang up the phone, Kingsley asked with great courage, "Madam, may I ask who young master Smith is? Is he..."

Kingsley had realized a few possibilities.

Juliette looked at the night sky outside the window and said coldly, "Sacred Island, Smith Family"

Snap!

The phone was hung up!

At that moment, Kingsley's whole body felt half paralyzed. He sat on the ground feebly and his eyes were empty.

The Smiths from the Sacred Island!

It turned out that he was young master from the Smith Family.

The Smith Group in the capital city was also owned by Sacred Island's Smith Family.

Kingsley suddenly realized what was going on.

17:41

From the beginning, he thought that the Smith Group in the capital city was just a big family with the surname Smith. However, he did not dare to think about the Smith family from the Sacred Island.

Because such a rich family had countless wealth!

It was said that just a word from the Sacred Island could make a small country disappear from the map!

Kingsley felt completely desperate.

The Jiang's loser son-in-law had become the young master from Smith Group's of the capital city. And he was even actually from the Sacred Island's Smith Family!

Terrifying!

It was so horrible!

Meanwhile, Randy He who was in the He's detached villa witnessed everything with his own eyes!

At that moment, he became dumbfounded!

Jason actually had such means. Was he actually human?

17:41

Even his second uncle, Landon had been defeated the first time they met!

Very convincingly!

It was only at this moment that Randy realized what he had done!

Jason's identity was definitely not that of a loser!

"D*mn Amanda Yang!"

"F*ck you!"

Randy was furious. He had been tricked by Amanda, that d*mned Amanda!

He was going to die!

"Ja... Jason, Brother Smith, I was wrong. Please don't beat me. Don't kill me. Please forgive me. I was really wrong!"

At this moment, Randy gave up all his dignity.

Cindy Jiang?

No. No. No!

That was Jason's wife, she was Brother Smith's!

His life was very important right now.

Randy showed the utmost respect. He knelt on the ground and kept kowtowing to the camera to beg for mercy!

Jason was standing at the hotel's entrance. He smiled coldly when he watched Randy on the screen, "You can't fool me more than three times. You have challenged my patience many times and you even cast your eyes on Cindy. Sorry, you and the He's have to say goodbye to the world today."

"Brother Smith, I was wrong. I was really wrong. I deserve to die. I shouldn't have laid my eyes on Cindy. Please forgive me this time. I'll leave Shang Jiang City and I'll never come back."

Randy felt extreme panic. His eyes were wide open and he was covered in blood as he kowtowed to the camera for mercy.

He did not look great like this at all.

Jason smiled coldly and ignored Randy. Instead, he looked at Landon, "Kingsley should have found your so-called backer. I'll wait for him to come over now. I'd like to see if your so-called backer is worth me striking again."

17:41

forgiveness! If you provoke the He's, you'll go to hell!"

As soon as he finished, a white Bentley slowly parted through from the crowd.

A royal security guard went up to stop the car. However, all of them showed respect when they saw the person who was sat in it. Especially when they saw the name on the license plate. They stood up straight and saluted!

Jason frowned. When he saw the woman getting out of the car, his eyes narrowed and the corners of his mouth slightly tilted.

It turned out that this person was the backer of the He's.

Not too bad.

Juliette Yun was wearing a small white suit with a black lace shirt and a pair of white wide-legged pants. She was wearing a large noble lady's hat and light pink leather gloves on her hands.

As soon as she appeared, a certain vibe was given out by her immediately!

All of Jason's royal security guards automatically made way for her.

Juliette took elegant and noble steps slowly towards Jason, followed closely by her personal female assistant.

She did not even look at Landon who was kneeling on the ground. She stared at Jason coldly, "Let him go."

When Landon saw her, he laughed wildly. Then he broke free from the shackles of the imperial guards. He sneered and stood up. "Haha! Jason, as I said, you absolutely dare not provoke the backer of the He family..."

He had not finished speaking yet, when...

Bang!

Jason kicked Landon until he fell several meters away!

Landon fell to the ground and felt pain in his abdomen!

He was dumbfounded!

How dared Jason still make a move?

D*mn it!

"Madam, you must kill him! This b*stard caught my followers and hurt your nephew! You must uphold justice for our family."

17:41

Landon covered his chest with his hands, and the two royal security guards behind once again took control of him!

Randy saw Juliette's appearance through the video chat and exclaimed, "Aunt Juliette! Aunt Juliette, save me! I don't want to die!"

Juliette was undoubtedly Randy's life-saviour now.

She was also the savior for the He's.

"Slap him!"

Juliette said coldly without looking at Landon who was behind her.

"Haha! Jason, you're finished!"

Landon laughed!

He suddenly felt a sudden relieve. Jason was going to slapped in the mouth!

Madame Yun was so overbearing!

However, Landon suddenly realized that something was wrong.

Juliette's personal assistant went straight to him and then waved her hand!

Slap!

Slap!

The crisp sound of the slap, like one on a pig, echoed throughout the entire street!

The several slaps made all the onlookers gasp!

It sounded so painful!

Just two slaps and several teeth in Landon's mouth flew out of his mouth!

His whole face was twisted!

"You...you've hit the wrong person! You should hit him!"

Landon shouted but the assistant's slaps did not stop.

Jason looked at Juliette and asked faintly, "Is Randy your nephew?"

Juliette did not deny it, "Randy has admitted that he was wrong. You have messed up the He's. You don't have to kill them all. After all, Randy has half of my Yun's bloodline. For the sake of the Yun's, let the He's go."

17:41

Jason smiled coldly, "Oh, are you begging me or threatening me?"

Juliette frowned and looked at Jason with burning eyes. Suddenly, she smiled with charm and a cold expression. "You can either think that I'm begging you or you can think that I'm threatening you."

Jason nodded and then suddenly asked, "Juliette, I want to ask you. Do you belong to the Yun's or Smith's?"

Chapter 207

His sentence made Juliette Yun speechless.

Her face became slightly red and there was a cold light glinting in her eyes.

"Let the He's go and they will pay for what they've done."

Juliette took a deep breath. Soon her conscience made her feel guilty.

For the first time, she felt that she had underestimated Jason Smith.

This guy had become unfathomable over the past seven years.

Juliette suddenly felt that all the rumors she had heard about him over the past few years must have been untrue.

"Jason, you are very good at pretending to be someone you're not." Juliette thought.

Jason was silent and his eyes were empty. He took a step forward which forced Juliette to take a few steps back, "What if I tell you that I won't let the He's go?"

Domineering!

At this moment, this word was very suitable to describe Jason!

As he moved, the imperial guards lined up and aimed their guns at Landon and Juliette!

The female assistant beside Juliette immediately stood in front of Juliette and protected her. She shouted softly, "Madam!"

Juliette shook her head and motioned for the female assistant to step aside. She raised her eyebrows and looked at Jason, "Tell me the conditions for releasing the He's."

She did not expect that the incident would turn out this.

If Juliette had not promised her sister to take care of the He's, she would not have to talk Jason like this.

In her eyes, no one was able to negotiate with her!

"Conditions?"

Jason grinned and looked at Landon who had been beaten very badly. He looked at Randy who was still kowtowing and begging for mercy on the video. He said, "I want to bring Cindy and Angela back to the Sacred Island. You must not stop me when the time comes. You must cooperate with me in all aspects! If anyone tries to stop time or protest, you must stand by my side!"

17:40

Juliette's frown deepened when she heard this. She became even more solemn.

She smiled coldly and her temperament changed. She was just like an empress, with a look of extreme arrogance.

Juliette said, "Jason, even if this is your plan, do you think they will agree even if I say I will help?"

"Do you know how many people are eyeing the Smith Family and the Sacred Island?"

"Are you deliberately challenging the authority of these people by bringing someone like Cindy who has no background?"

"Even your father wouldn't dare to do that!"

Juliette said a lot in just one breath. She looked so serious.

She thought Jason was too presumptuous!

17:40

If he brought Cindy and Angela back to the island, it would definitely cause an unwelcome reaction!

Once everything got out of control, there would be nothing that Juliette could do!

However, Jason smiled faintly, "You don't have to worry yourself with my affairs. You only have to take care of yourself. I have to bring Cindy and Angela back to the Sacred Island. No one can stop me! Because she is my wife, and Angela is my daughter. They are members of the Smith family! The Sacred Island belongs to the Smiths now and also in the future! No matter you, Juliette, the Yun's, or those old fools who have the intention to take the Sacred Island away, I don't mind making these people disappear from the world!"

Boom!

As Jason's excited voice fell, there was a sudden roar of thunder and a bolt of lightning broke through the night sky!

The sound was earth-shattering!

Everyone was frightened by the thunder.

At this moment, anger and hatred flowed from Jason's body. He was just like a king descending down to the world and looking down at Juliette from above!

17:40

Juliette suddenly felt as if she was very small!

So this was the confidence and courage from the Smith's?

She really underestimated Jason and let him run wild for seven years. Now, he behaved like a boss!

Juliette was silent for a moment, "Okay, I promise but don't expect me to help you."

Jason suddenly grinned when he heard this. His breathtaking aura disappeared and he reverted to his loser identity.

"Thank you, my dear Aunt Juliette."

After that, Jason turned to look at Landon, "I don't want to see Landon ever again. Do you know what to do?"

Juliette understood. With just a glance, her personal assistant immediately broke all Landon's limbs!

The scene was too horrible to look at!

There were a few screams that sounded like a pig being slaughtered.

17:40

Landon fainted!

As for the He's, Jason did not care because it did not matter anymore.

It had been destroyed.

There would be no more He's in Shang Jiang City.

Finally, Juliette glanced at Jason and silently got in the car before leaving.

Soon, all the people Jason had brought left too!

The special armed imperial guards caught all of Landon's followers.

As for the He's Group, all the bosses were arrested and it closed down.

Kingsley was arrested for the investigation.

"I'll leave the rest to you. Don't let me down."

Jason looked at Bruce Scott who was dumbfounded. Even a person like Bruce could not react to the scene that he had just seen.

He knew that Mr. Smith's background was not that of ordinary people, but he did not expect that it would be so extraordinary!

Even the incident at the pharmaceutical factory was not as shocking as today!

"Yes Mr. Smith." Bruce immediately bowed respectfully.

After that, Jason patted Bruce on the shoulder and left.

Bruce was not bad. He could be trained to be a leader.

"Mr. Smith, take care."

Bruce said.

"Mr. Smith, take care."

Hundreds of men in black suits stood respectfully behind Bruce in a neat row and shouted along.

The scene was very grand.

Fiona was still in the hotel suite since Jason had left. She felt complete panic when she saw the figures leaving downstairs.

Fiona was very confused now.

Just as she was about to kiss Jason, the door was opened and some people in black suits rushed in.

The person taking the lead was Bruce

17:40

Scott, Shang Jiang City's gangland emperor!

She only realised now that this had all been set up by Jason!

He used her to set the trap!

"Was I used him?"

"Jason, you're a loser. I will hate you for the rest of my life!" she secretly scolding in her heart.

Jason hummed a tune as he strolled back to Jiang family's old house.

Several black shadowy figures jumped out by the entrance and greeted respectfully, "Mr. Smith, you're back."

Jason just nodded and glanced at them. They ran away with smiles on their faces.

Jason opened the door and crept into the bedroom.

There was a beautiful woman with a curvy figure laying on the bed. Under the moonlight, she looked like a piece of beautiful jade.

Jason thought for a moment. As soon as he got up and lay down on the bed, Cindy turned around and hugged Jason. She said in a weeping tone,

17:40

"Jason, I'm sorry. It's all my fault. I shouldn't have suspected you tonight. But I'm very annoyed. I care about you very much. I'm afraid that I'll lose you. I'm afraid that Angela will lose her father..."

Jason was speechless and he could feel his heart burning.

It turned out that she was just afraid of losing him.

It turned out that he was so important to her.

Jason lay down and hugged Cindy tightly. He said softly, "Cindy, I'm sorry. In fact, I was wrong."

Smooch!"

Suddenly, a pair of thin cold lips kissed on Jason's mouth!

Happiness came to him all of a sudden!

Two figures were surging under the moonlit night.

The white moonlight fell on Cindy's jade-like skin.

"Wait, did you bring that?"

Suddenly, Cindy pushed away Jason who was lying on top of her. Her face became ruddy and she gasped slightly.

17:40

Jason was stunned and quickly checked the bedside drawer. No!

"What the f*ck!"

"Don't spoil the moment." he thought.

He really could not find anything after looking for a while.

"Well, let's not use one tonight." Jason said with grievance.

Cindy rolled her eyes at him, "No, forget it. Let's just sleep then."

What the f*ck!

Jason could not control himself and was about to explode.

However, Cindy pulled up the thin blanket to cover herself. The exquisite curves of her body were so wonderful even when they were covered with a blanket.

"Dear, dear... just once." Jason pleaded.

Cindy closed her eyes, "No, go to sleep."

Jason helplessly lowered his head and splashed his face with cold water. He lay down beside

17:40

Cindy and slept with her in his arms.

Cindy closed her eyes and smiled happily.

This kind of night was rare for the both of them.

The next day, Amanda Yang got up early. She knocked on Cindy's door and shouted, "Cindy, get up! Don't forget, you are going to divorce that loser, Jason today!"

Divorce?

Jason was shocked. He sat still on the bed and looked at Cindy who was sleeping beside him.

Cindy was embarrassed and blushed. She blinked with her big eyes and said pitifully, "Honey, I told my mum I wanted to divorce you when I was angry. Do you blame me?"

Jason touched his forehead and thought, "Amanda really took your words seriously."

Jason helplessly stroke Cindy's nose "No, I will do whatever you want."

Cindy rolled her eyes at Jason and punched him in the chest, "Don't talk nonsense. I won't divorce you. You are my husband and Angela's father. You can never run away from me! I want to eat you!"

17:40

Urmmm..."

Both of them were making out on the bed and ignoring Amanda who kept knocking on the door.

Amanda's face was gloomy. What was going on in the room?

She became suspicious and was about to put her ear to the door.

Crack!

The door opened.

Amanda almost fell down.

She saw Cindy holding Jason in her arms. She smiled happily, "Mom, I won't divorce Jason."

What the hell?

Won't divorce?!

Amanda was dumbfounded. She immediately stood up straight and hit Jason with her bag. She scolded, "Jason, did you hypnotize my daughter's again? Trash, who let you sleep in my house? Get out of here now!"

Jason's head felt painful after being hit by Amanda's bag. He clenched his fists and was very unhappy.

17:40

Cindy noticed that Jason was angry. She glared at Amanda, "Mom, why are you being so unreasonable? Jason is your son-in-law after all. Why are you asking him to get out?"

Amanda was so angry that she pointed at Jason and continued to scold him. "Why? It's because this is my house, so he has to get out of here!"

She was so mad that her daughter was protecting this loser again.

"Good! If you dare to drive Jason away today, I'll leave too! I won't come back to the house!"

Cindy was so angry that she shouted at Amanda.

"You! You really so pissed me off!"

Amanda was so angry that she trembled all over. She raised her hand and slapped Cindy.

Slap!

The slap made Cindy's eyes turn red. She stomped indignantly, packed up her things, and pulled Jason to leave. "Mom, you made me do this. I won't come home ever again!"

Amanda was so angry that she sat on the ground, patted her thighs, and cried, "Charles, come out and see what she did. The daughter betrayed me and only help the outsider. Well, go, all of you get out! I've sold your house! I'd like to see where you and this loser go to live!"

However, Jason walked out with a cold face. He looked at Amanda who was rolling on the ground, "Amanda, you are really cruel but I want to tell you something. Cindy and I have another house and it's a villa. Do you want to come and have a look?"

Chapter 208

Viewing the villa?

"What nonsense are you talking! A loser like you has money to buy a villa?"

Amanda Yang immediately stood up and pointed at Jason Smith's nose, "Don't talk about a villa. If you can afford more than a hundred-square-meter house, I will bow down and apologize!"

This wastrel was so shameless that he lied without thinking.

"Okay. You better keep your promise."

Jason said calmly.

Amanda snorted, "Cindy, look. Look at Jason. He wants to live a life of honor. Can this loser afford to buy a villa? Does he know how expensive the houses are now in Shang Jiang City? The Split Mountain villa is very expensive. One unit costs fifteen million dollars!"

Cindy felt helpless and started to get a headache. Why did her mother always look down on Jason?

17:40

"Mom, Jason is telling the truth. He's really bought it. The villa that he bought is in Dragon City. I don't have to lie to you."

Cindy said this in disgust with a cold look in her eyes.

Amanda was stunned when she heard this. She immediately sneered and stared at Jason with hatred, "Have you brainwashed my daughter? She has started talking nonsense like you now!"

"Cindy, do you know where Dragon City is? That's the Long Family's property, the Long Group's villa. The cheapest villa costs more than thirty million! The last time I went there with your aunt, we saw Jason delivering food there. This loser lied to us saying that he bought the Dragon City's villa. Then, your aunt and I exposed his lies."

"Well, now he dares to lie to you. Why do you still want to protect him? Get your marriage certificate and follow me to the Civil Affairs Bureau to get divorced."

Amanda refused to give up and was dragging Cindy to go with her.

Divorce. She must divorce!

17:40

She would never live a good life if she stayed with the loser, Jason.

Randy He was better. He was rich and he had a good family background. He treated her well too.

Moreover, Amanda had promised Randy that she would make Cindy and Jason divorce today.

How could she not be worried now?

"Mom, it's your choice whether you believe it or not." Cindy was angry. She stamped her foot and pulled Jason away.

"Okay. Okay. You've bought it right? Well, I won't go anywhere today. I'll call our relatives and view the new villa together."

Amanda suddenly turned her head and stared at Jason with an unkind look, "How about that, Jason?"

Such a loser. Still wanted to pretend? Well, she wanted to show people that he was a liar. She wanted to let Cindy see how unreliable her husband was!

Cindy looked at Jason. Jason smiled, "Okay, inform your relatives. I'll arrange it. I'll send someone to pick you up this afternoon."

Amanda agreed immediately, "Okay, I'll wait here. I'd like to see what kind of villa you can afford."

After that, Amanda turned around and sat on the sofa. She took out her mobile phone and began to call her relatives that still kept in touch with her.

"Hello, Josephine, come to my house quickly. Jason said that he has bought a villa and wants to bring us to have a look."

Amanda's tone was full of sarcasm.

On the other end of the phone, Josephine was wandering down the street. When she heard what her sister said, she knew that it was not something to be missed. She agreed, "Okay, Amanda, I will bring Hudson and Cecelia to your house later."

Josephine hung up the phone happily and began to hatch a plan in her mind.

She knew Amanda's temper very well. Judging from her tone, she knew that Amanda was going to humiliate Jason.

Well, it was better to drive that freeloader out of the Jiang's. Then only the cooperation between

17:40

Hudson and Cindy's company would be completed!

That was a project that worth one billion dollars!

Jason and Cindy glanced at Amanda. They walked out of the Jiang's old mansion feeling helpless.

When Cindy was outside the door, she asked, "Are you really going to bring my mother to the villa?"

Jason nodded and said calmly, "Let's go. It's not a big deal anyway. At least your mother will respect me. I don't want to be always called a loser by your mother."

After thinking about it, Jason decided to reveal some of his wealth and influence.

Otherwise, Amanda would annoy him to death.

Cindy rolled her eyes at him, "Well, you arrange it. I'm heading to the company first."

After that, Cindy hugged and kissed Jason. After that, she reluctantly left on her bicycle.

Looking at the beautiful Cindy as she rode away, Jason thought for a moment and said to himself, "I should buy a car for my wife."

After that, he called Joe Qiao and asked him to get him a car. He would let the car be here later by the afternoon.

Jason went to the hospital to visit Angela.

Angela had recovered quite well. She could already get out of bed and run. In a few days, she could be discharged and could go play around.

Meanwhile, Amanda made a few phone calls to inform all the relatives.

At first, she wanted to inform her family. However, she remembered that the Yang's had gone bankrupt. They still owed so much money, so Amanda gave up on the idea.

Soon, a group of the Jiang's relatives arrived at the entrance of the house.

"What the hell is Amanda doing? She wants us to view the villa that her useless son-in-law bought?"

"That's right. She started calling everyone this morning. Can that Jason really afford to buy a villa?"

"He's just a fool. He's been a loser for the past three years. I don't know what Amanda is thinking."

17:40

Charles's younger sister, Karen Wang talked while gnashing her teeth. Was her sister-in-law insane? Did she believe that b*stard, Jason's words?

And she had invited so many relatives here. What was she doing?

Did she want to embarrass herself?

Karen did not believe that Jason, the useless guy, could afford a villa. She heard that Cindy had become a CEO. Maybe she was the one who bought it. She thought Amanda maybe wanted to impress everyone, so just she said that Jason who was the one that bought it.

However, Karen was not satisfied.

They were all members from the Jiang's. If Charles's direct family member bought a villa, no one would bat an eye.

"Hahaha, Karen. In my opinion, I think it's Amanda who deliberately create a scene. How could that loser buy a villa?"

All these women stood aside with mockery on their faces.

The two families came together. Charles's two younger brothers, Jimmy Jiang and Steven Jiang looked unhappy as well.

Both of them were just ordinary people.

They were very unhappy to know that their elder brother had bought a villa. It was due to their egos.

After their elder brother retired from being a government servant, he did not really help them much. Because of these trivial things, the three families did not get along well with each other.

Ivy Jiang was there as well in an outstanding outfit. She was wearing just a pair of hot pants and a singlet.

Her face was bulging and she seemed very unhappy. She had been asked to come here on such a hot day. She had plans to go shopping and watch movies with her friends.

She did not know how Jason had solved the incident with the sports car last time. Unexpectedly, he had not come to her for an explanation.

Did Jason really have some kind of power?

17:40

After a while, Josephine arrived with Hudson and Cecelia.

As soon as she appeared, the Jiang's relatives all began to suck up to her.

After all, their in-laws from Amanda's family were great.

"Oh! Sister Josephine, you're here too."

A few of them came up and flattered Josephine in any way they could. Josephine was happy because the Jiang's were all these kinds of people.

"Didn't Amanda ask me to view her son-in-law's new villa?"

Josephine was like a proud peacock, holding her head high and looking down her chin at everyone.

"Hey! Jason that loser. How can he compare with your son-in-law, Hudson?"

At this time, Karen came over and said with a smile, "Sister Josephine, when will you ask Hudson to arrange a job for my loser son? It's okay if it's just guarding the door."

"Yes, yes, yes. And my daughter. She graduated a year ago and still hasn't found a job yet. She just parties every day"

"My youngest daughter is about to graduate as well. Can you ask Hudson to make arrangements for us?"

Hudson felt so depressed. Especially when he heard they were going to the Jiang's old mansion to view Jason's villa, he really not willing to attend to it.

Others did not know Jason's identity, but he did.

He felt funny, especially when he heard these people attacking Jason from a distance just now.

These people were just the same as he used to be. Disgusting.

How could he be so disgusting back then?

Hudson did not intend on telling them about Jason's identity. The main reason was that he did not dare to do so. Besides that, he wanted to see the ugly behavior of these people. It would be wonderful to watch their reactions after they learned about Jason's identity.

"Okay, okay. I'll go back to the company and make some arrangements." Hudson agreed with a smile, but there was a trace of coldness in his eyes.

Then, all these people were fawning over him.

Josephine was happy. Her son-in-law had made her feel so proud.

Amanda walked out of the old mansion with Charles and cursed, "If that loser has really bought a villa, I will bow down and apologize to him."

She said this just to Charles because he had been persuading Amanda not to cause such a big scene.

Charles kept asking, "Why do you have to ask so many people to come over?"

Would Jason be the only one who embarrassed himself?"

"Oh! Amanda, you're finally here. What's the matter with your family? Jason bought a villa?"

Karen was the first to walk up and ask with a sarcastic look.

"Yeah, Amanda. Don't try and fool us. We all know how capable Jason is."

Camilla echoed this. Her sardonic expression did not fade.

17:39

Amanda sneered, "The main reason I asked you to come here today was to unite in teaching Jason, the loser, a good lesson. He actually..."

Blablabla... Amanda said a lot, and finally made it clear to everyone.

After looking around at each other, they understood that they were here to humiliate Jason.

How silly this Jason was! How dare he bluff about buying a villa?

As expected, he was really a dumbass.

"Okay, Amanda. We will listen to you."

All of them agreed.

Charles's brothers breathed a sigh of relief as well. It turned out that this was not real.

After waiting for a while, Amanda called Jason and asked in a bossy tone, "Where's the car you arranged? Didn't you say you will pick us up?"

"Mom, please wait. It should arrive soon."

Jason explained. He had already decorated Palace No.1 and had sent vast amounts of money to the servants' group so that they could work faster.

Amanda hung up the phone and folded her arms around her chest. She angrily looked towards the street.

A few luxury cars drove over.

"Hey, Amanda. Are those Mercedes-Benz?" Karen pointed at them and asked.

"How is it possible? Could that trash, Jason have arranged some Mercedes to pick us up?"

Camilla raised her voice in a mocking tone.

They were best of the best Mercedes models!

Amanda did not think so. She waved her hand, "Dream on. It would be surprising enough if he could afford to call a Toyota to fetch us."

However, just as she finished speaking!

Four black Mercedes-Benz S-classes steadily stopped in front of everyone.

These four Mercedes-Benz cars were not ordinary. There was a golden dragon logo on the front of each car!

17:39

This was the symbol of Shang Jiang City!

There was only one family that dared to use it in this way. It was the Shang Jiang Long's!

The door opened. The driver was in a uniform black suit with white gloves and a golden dragon logo embroidered on his chest. He stood respectfully in front of the door and bent down, saying, "Please get in the car."

At this moment, everyone became confused!

All these cars were really here to pick them up...

Chapter 209

Suddenly, everyone was confused now.

Such luxurious Mercedes-Benz cars came to pick them up. Had Jason Smith really bought a villa?

"F*ck! This... This is car from the Long's! It had the golden dragon logo on it!"

Among the relatives, it was Jimmy Jiang's oldest son Lex Jiang who clamored.

Although his family was not wealthy, Lex was well dressed in all branded stuff and had the latest iPhone.

He knew these cars. They had Shang Jiang Long's special golden dragon logo!

No other family would dare to use this logo in the entirety of Shang Jiang City!

Moreover, when he last went to the bar, he had seen a car with a gold dragon logo on it. It was really the Long's young master's car.

Lex was very excited, but also felt suspicious when he saw Long's car here.

17:39

How could Long's car stop at the front door of Uncle Charles's house? Moreover, the cars were here to pick them up.

"What? The Long's car? From the Long's Group?"

Karen Wang and Camilla Sun, two middle-aged women, were stunned as well. Their eyes were open wide and they did not dare to get in the car.

How could poor people like them sit in the Long's car?

Ivy Jiang was shocked too. She blinked her big eyes in shock and looked at the scene suspiciously.

Everyone was confused and cast their eyes toward Amanda Yang.

"Amanda, what's going on?"

Karen Wang pulled Amanda's arm as she asked in a low voice.

Did Jason arrange these cars to take us to view the villa?

He was so awesome!

The Long's was a family with colossal power!

17:39

Amanda frowned as well. She did not expect that Jason could really get these decent cars.

Were these from the Long's?

"These... Are you sure they're from the Long's?"

Amanda asked suspiciously and felt a little awkward.

"Yes. They must be!"

Lex was so excited that he inspected the Mercedes-Benz for a few seconds before saying this. Then, he took out his mobile phone, showed a peace sign pose, and took pictures with the car.

"I'll post this on my social media. I'm sure that I'll be the envy of all my friends because these are the Long's cars!"

For a moment, everyone looked at each other and did not know what to say.

Josephine Yang was so angry. How could she not know the Long's cars? She was lucky enough to sit in one of them back then. That was it.

What did Jason mean?

How could this loser arranged the Long's cars to pick them up?

17:39

Amanda frowned as well. She did not expect that Jason could really get these decent cars.

Were these from the Long's?

"These... Are you sure they're from the Long's?"

Amanda asked suspiciously and felt a little awkward.

"Yes. They must be!"

Lex was so excited that he inspected the Mercedes-Benz for a few seconds before saying this. Then, he took out his mobile phone, showed a peace sign pose, and took pictures with the car.

"I'll post this on my social media. I'm sure that I'll be the envy of all my friends because these are the Long's cars!"

For a moment, everyone looked at each other and did not know what to say.

Josephine Yang was so angry. How could she not know the Long's cars? She was lucky enough to sit in one of them back then. That was it.

What did Jason mean?

How could this loser arranged the Long's cars to pick them up?

17:39

Did that loser really buy the Dragon City's villa?

"Amanda, is it true that Jason bought a villa? Was it really at Dragon City? I've heard that only those who bought a villa in Dragon City can have this kind of treatment."

Karen Wang's eyes were full of envy and jealousy.

What did Amanda mean?

What she said totally differ with the real situation?

Hadn't Amanda mentioned that Jason could not afford to buy the villa? Hadn't she called them all here to ridicule Jason?

Now, this situation...

All their faces became very gloomy when they heard this.

What on earth did Amanda want?

Amanda thought for a moment, she glanced at Charles who looked very confused as well. Then she said with a smile, "It's impossible. Maybe Jason knew that you all were coming, so he deliberately booked the Long's cars. He must have spent a lot of money. He just did not want to embarrass himself. Let's go and have a look. By then, you have to help me. You must completely humiliate him and ask Cindy to divorce him!"

17:39

Everyone breathed a sigh of relief when they heard this. Since Amanda was so sure that Jason could not afford to buy a villa, then he must not be able to.

After this, everyone was even more disdainful of Jason.

How much had he spent to get the Long's to send cars in order to cover his lies?

Wasn't he a loser? Where did he get the money?

"Hey, don't you know that Cindy has become the CEO? Didn't they say that the Smith Group's young master from the capital city made an investment in her company a while ago? In my opinion, Jason must have taken the money and pretended to be rich."

Josephine was very unhappy as she said this with a sarcastic look on her face.

Hudson Han and Cecelia Zhou felt anxious. They kept winking at Josephine.

In the past, they certainly would not have believed it either.

However, they knew that Jason really could afford it after last night's incident.

Not to mention the Long's, it was estimated that no one in the whole Shang Jiang City was richer than Jason.

But they did not dare to say it. So they could only watch on.

Hudson shook his head helplessly. He was hoping that this group of people would not be scared by Jason's true identity.

"Right, right. I think so. Amanda, you must take good care of your Cindy. I think Jason must have ulterior motives. Maybe he will use this money. When he runs away, your family will be in trouble."

"That's right. Such a loser like him has made such a big scene for no reason. He's just trying to confuse us!"

Amanda's face darkened when she heard this. She was dissatisfied.

She could not let that loser, Jason take the one billion dollar investment!

17:39

That investment belonged to Cindy's company. Cindy's money was Amanda's money!

"I know. That loser better not even think of taking a penny from my family!"

Amanda gritted her teeth and said this with hatred.

Everyone got into the cars nervously.

They wanted to see what Jason was up to.

"Hey! Do you think it's true that we're going to the Dragon City? I've heard that the villas in Dragon City are as luxurious as palaces!"

Several women sat together in the car and talked non-stop.

Karen was the kind of woman who liked to gossip. She kept trying to brainwash Amanda, "Amanda, I think your Jason doesn't talk much about daily life with Cindy. You must keep an eye on your Cindy and don't let her be cheated by that idiot."

"Yes, sister-in-law, you have to be careful. I just read some news yesterday saying that there was a man who lied to the woman's family and took all the property. Then he had a mistress on the outside who gave birth to his child. I think Jason may do this."

Camilla echoed with a look of gossip and mockery on her face.

Amanda felt headache. She felt very uncomfortable sitting in the luxurious car. It was as if there were thorns all over her body.

After thinking for a while, she called Cindy and reprimanded her, "Cindy, are you in charge of your family's expenses or it's Jason?"

Cindy was just leaving the company, and she just received a phone call from Jason a minute ago telling her that she could go to the villa.

"Mom, why are you suddenly asking about this?"

Cindy could not figure it out.

"Tell me, who is the head of the household?"
Amanda was angry but she held it back.

"Of course it's me. Jason gave me his salary slip and he gave me a card as well. The card had..."

As Cindy said this, she suddenly realized that she did not know how much money there was in the card. The last time she tried to check the balance she was distracted by Fiona.

She should find some time to check it out.

Amanda breathed a sigh of relief when she heard this and said unhappily, "Cindy, I have to tell you that you can't allow a man to be in charge of the family's property and power. You must do it yourself! A man will find mistresses when they have money! Besides that, don't listen to Jason about your company's investment matters. Do you understand?"

Amanda said a lot before hanging up the phone.

"What did Cindy say?" Karen came over and asked.

"Cindy is in charge of everything." Amanda smiled.

"That's good, but you can't let your guard down. Jason is a shifty-looking man. He's not a good person."

Karen cursed as she held back her anger.

As they were discussing whether Jason had really bought the villa, the car had driven toward Dragon City!

This was the only road leading to Dragon City.

17:39

"Look. Look, there're Dragon City's villas. They are so luxurious!"

Suddenly, Camilla exclaimed. Her eyes were full of envy and excitement.

Josephine asked the driver, "Hello, sir, have you brought us to the wrong place? Why have you taken us to Dragon City?"

"Hello lady, our destination is Dragon City." The driver replied.

All the people in the car were stunned.

They were really going to Dragon City.

Did Jason really buy a villa in Dragon City?

Everyone looked at each other with doubt and confusion in their eyes.

The four Mercedes-Benz cars stopped at the entrance of Dragon City's. The relatives got out and were shocked by the luxurious atmosphere of the villas.

They were all excited and flustered.

Dragon City!

The most luxurious villa area in Shang Jiang City.

17:39

It was also a well-known area with many rich people living here!

The starting price for the cheapest villa was thirty million!

Not in their wildest dreams could they imagine standing on this piece of land.

"Amanda, did Jason really buy the villa here?"

Karen and others got out of the car and came to the entrance. They did not dare to walk around for fear of making mistakes and offending the Long's family.
