

Chapter 717

“No, I don’t.”

Yvonne spoke coldly without any hesitation.

‘Wow!’

The entire Full Energy Room was in complete silence with everyone looking at Yvonne.

‘Did she just say no? She did not want to be his mistress? She rejected His Majesty?’

In the New World, the Emperor was supreme and no one would ever reject the Emperor!

The Emperor’s face immediately changed at that moment. How embarrassing it was when Yvonne rejected him in front of the ministers.

The atmosphere at the Full Energy Hall turned heavy and all the ministers dared not even take a deep breath.

The Emperor finally laughed and said, “Fine, I won’t beg for it since you are unwilling. Come, lock her up!”

His heart was burning as he spoke. He was indeed furious.

No one had ever rejected him ever since he assumed the crown. The New World Emperor had thought it through. He would lock up Yvonne for now and would later go to her at night. He wanted her no matter how stubborn she was.

The New World Emperor was the leader of the whole New World and there was no woman he could not get.

At that moment, two New World soldiers arrived and dragged Yvonne away from the Full Energy Hall.

The Cult Mistress's heart sunk upon seeing Yvonne being sent away.

At that time, the New World Emperor's eyes turned to look at Monica and smiled. That woman was beautiful but pregnant. It would be inappropriate for the Emperor to take a pregnant woman as his mistress.

“Lord Kenny.”

The New World Emperor slowly spoke at that moment.

A man in ministry attire among the ministers stood forward and politely replied, “Yes, Your Majesty.”

Lord Kenny was the Empress's brother and well-respected in the New World.

The New World Emperor looked at Lord Kenny and smiled. "I shall give this beauty to you."

Lord Kenny was so happy as he quickly kneeled on the ground. "Thank you, Your Majesty."

All men loved beautiful women and so did Lord Kenny. He could not stop looking at Monica.

The New World Emperor saw that Lord Kenny was interested in that woman, hence he did a favor and awarded the Cult Mistress to Lord Kenny.

Lord Kenny was so excited as he did not mind the fact that Monica was pregnant.

"Go, go, bring your beautiful lady home." The New World Emperor waved his hands and smiled.

"Thank you, Your Majesty." Lord Kenny nodded happily before carrying Monica on his shoulder and left the Full Energy Hall to return to his residence.

"Let me go!" Monica blushed. In her whole life, she had only been intimate with one man and that was Darryl. She felt so embarrassed being carried by a stranger on his shoulder. However, her heart was racing as she was completely tied up with no way for her to struggle.

The New World Emperor smiled upon seeing Lord Kenny leaving.

Ever since he took over the crown, all the ministers had been loyal to him thanks to his great observation skills. Lord Kenny would truly be grateful upon being awarded a beautiful lady and would be even more loyal to him.

Just at that moment, a little eunuch came running and kneeled in front of the Emperor.

The little eunuch wiped his sweat and said, “Your Majesty, the representative of the South Cloud World is here and wanted to meet.”

‘What?’

‘South Cloud World?’

Florian was stunned.

‘It was said there were only two parts of the world—the New World and their World Universe.’

‘Why was there a South Cloud World?’

Florian’s mind was spinning and he could not gather his thoughts.

On the other hand.

At the Elysium Gate’s Main Altar in the World Universe.

Darryl opened his eyes and gradually stood up in his room.

For the past two days, he spent two full days cultivating his internal energy back to his peak and had fully healed the wounds of his body.

Earlier at the Wishing Star Tower battle, Darryl had completely used his energy to the very last drop.

“Sect Master.”

“Brother Darryl, your internal energy has recovered.”

At that moment, Zephyr and the few others surrounding him were excited.

Although Zephyr was sentenced to twenty cane strokes, he was still loyal towards Darryl. He stepped forward and said, “Brother Darryl, we’ve found out that Florian has taken your wives and surrendered to the New World. They are currently in the New World.”

Sigh!

Darryl was stunned and his heart was instantly pained.

Chapter 718

Darryl always knew Florian was a womanizer since young and had seen him fooling around in the Darby family.

Darryl was crazily worried the moment he recalled about the Cult Mistress's and Yvonne's abduction. He waved his hands to Zephyr and the rest. "Please leave me alone, I want some peace."

"Yes."

The four siblings answered before leaving the room with Daryl alone left in the room.

He sat in front of the table while thinking about Yvonne and the Cult Mistress. He had no other choices but to personally head into the New World.

Knock! Knock!

At that moment, there was a knock on the door.

Darryl went and quickly opened the door thinking it was Zephyr and the others. However, he was stunned after opening the door.

There was a beautiful fairy-like figure standing at the door who was wearing a light pink long dress.

It was Fuyao Palace's Little Fairy.

“Little Wife, why are you looking for me here?”

Darryl was stunned. He finally gathered his thoughts before smiling and joked, “What happened? Did you miss me after just two days?”

Darryl was puzzled as he said so. Fuyao Palace had left after the New World Army retreated from the Wishing Star Tower.

Why had Little Fairy returned?

Irene’s face blushed upon hearing Darryl’s words before glaring at Darryl and said, “Darryl, can you be serious?”

Darryl would tease her each time they met.

Darryl smiled. “Sure, I’ll stop. Why are you here looking for your husband?”

“You!” Little Fairy was angry but continued, “I’m here to give you something.”

As she spoke, she took out two scriptures and handed them over.

‘What?’

‘Two volumes of the Supreme Mystery Scriptures?’

Darryl was stunned to see what was in Irene’s hands. He then sighed.

The two volumes of Supreme Mystery Scriptures with one having a blue cover and the other was an indigo.

Darryl knew both the volumes were genuine with just a glance. There was no way to imitate the volume's ancient look as each volume was an ancient book.

As Darryl was still in shock, Little Fairy softly said, “These two scriptures have always been kept at Fuyao Palace's library and we're unsure how long they have been there. I had discussed with my sisters and we felt both of them would be useful to you hence I was asked to send these over.”

The Seven Fairies had heard of the Supreme Mystery Scriptures' Legend.

As they had stayed in the Fuyao Palace all the time, they had not spent much time in the society and did not want to be involved in any of the society's affairs.

The Supreme Mystery Scriptures was just another normal scripture to them.

After the Wishing Star Tower battle, the Seven Fairies had a good impression of Darryl. They felt he was a generous man and it was the World Universe's blessing to have someone like Darryl.

As such, the Seven Fairies had decided to give the scriptures to Darryl after some discussions.

Darryl was so excited as he took over the scriptures before smiling at Irene. "It's really for me?"

Sh*t!

He had not expected Fuyao Palace to have two volumes of the Supreme Mystery Scriptures.

He also had not expected that they would give the scriptures to him.

That was really a surprise!

Irene seriously looked at Darryl and said, "Don't be so happy yet, we have some conditions. First, you are not to simply enter the Fuyao Palace in the future and second is not to call us your wives!" ①

The seven sisters were Palace Masters of Fuyao Palace. They were seven pure fairies and their reputation would be at stake if he kept calling them his wives.

Haha...

Such conditions!

Darryl nodded and smiled. "Fine, Little Wifey. Oh no, it should be Little Fairy."

He went on and smiled as he explained, "Sorry, it's my bad. I've gotten used to it and am unable to instantly correct it.”

“You!”

Irene’s face blushed and stomped her feet. “This is the last time, I hope you keep your promise. Goodbye.”

After she spoke, Little Fairy turned and left.

At that moment, Darryl tightly held the scriptures while looking at Little Fairy leaving before smiling. “Little Fairy, take care.”

Sigh.

Irene did not say anything else and quickly left. Although he did not call her ‘wife’, his tone was still insincere when calling her ‘Little Fairy’.

Chapter 719

Darryl kept the two scriptures and got changed after Little Fairy left. He needed to make a trip to Donghai City.

Jackson was devastated earlier when Rebecca's body was discovered at the Wishing Star Tower. He mentioned that he would bury his wife after three days.

With the misunderstanding being resolved, Darryl as his brother had to be there.

After that, he needed to head over to the World Universe and rescue both Yvonne and Monica.

Darryl had thought about it. He could not just head over the New World on his own. He would bring along Dax and Chester as he felt safer if his two brothers went with him.

Darryl gave Dax a call with that thought in mind and arranged for Dax and Chester to meet him at the Darby residence.

At the Darby residence.

The warm sun was a prelude to good weather, but the Darby family had a heavy atmosphere.

The Darby family's reputation was tarnished with news of the bastard Florian's behavior having spread all over Donghai City. ①

It was the day for Rebecca's burial as many families in Donghai City attended the funeral. Emei Sect was there too since Abbess Mother Serendipity who had a good relationship with the Darby family have been living at the Darby Residences for a rather long time.

The funeral ceremony started when Darryl arrived.

Every Darby family member would greet him looking ashamed as all of them knew they had misunderstood Darryl, especially Jackson who immediately kneeled and cried badly the moment he saw Darryl.

Darryl was initially upset as Jackson had a close relationship with him, but when Florian framed him, Jackson decided to trust Florian instead.

Darryl had always kept that at heart.

Once the truth was out, Jackson knew he was in the wrong and begging for forgiveness while crying. Darryl had no choice but to forgive him upon seeing how devastated Jackson was.

After the funeral, Dax and his wife Nancy along with Chester arrived.

Darryl brought them to the hall front as they closely sat together.

Nancy served tea to them.

However, Darryl was not in the mood for tea as he felt terrible.

“Darryl, why are you so worried?” Chester took a sip of the tea and asked, “Is it because of your abducted wives?”

“Yes.” Darryl nodded.

Bang!

Dax suddenly slammed on the table and shouted, “Sh*t, your brother Florian is a bastard. Don’t worry Darryl. When are you heading to the New World? I’ll accompany you. Not only must we rescue your wives, but also chop that bastard Florian into pieces.”

“Me too!” Chester resolutely said.

“Great!”

Darryl felt warmth in his heart when he heard them and nodded.

A man walked hastily over toward them right at that moment.

The white-haired old man with a rather strong body was the Golden Lion, Zion Featherstone.

“Sect Master, look at this!”

Zion was so excited as he handed over a manual to Chester.

On the manual's cover were the words 'Supreme Mystery Scripture'.

Chester was so surprised to see the scripture as he took it over and asked, “Golden Lion, where did you get this scripture?”

He flipped the pages as he spoke.

Zion smiled and said, “The scripture was found by our Eternal Life Sect disciples while they were cleaning up the Wishing Star Tower battlefield.”

Chapter 720

At that moment, Darryl looked at the scripture and gently said, “I know. The scripture must’ve belonged to the Hexad School Principal, Graham Potter.”

Darryl sighed as he spoke. Graham had died in the Wishing Star Tower battle.

Chester added, “Sigh, Principal Graham was truly a hero. His sacrifice at the battle was such a waste.”

Chester touched his body and took out another scripture as he spoke, “Darryl, I’ve another one too. It was found at Leroy’s secret vault when we destroyed the Kunlun Sect.”

‘What?’

‘Chester had another volume?’

Darryl was stunned by the excitement.

“Haha, I have a surprise too.”

It took a second for Darryl to gather his thoughts before he started laughing. He also took out a few scriptures from his body and Chester was stunned as he counted those scriptures. Darryl had five volumes with him?

That was right, Darryl had five volumes!

The first volume was a gift from Zion when he placed first place at the Lion Slaughter Conference. The scripture was then stolen by Megan, but he retrieved it at Sara's birthday.

The second and third volumes were brought by the Cult Mistress when she left Elysian Island. Monica had handed him both scriptures after she woke up from her injuries in the hospital.

The last two volumes had just been given by Fuyao Palace's Little Fairy.

There were already five volumes in Darryl's hands.

Adding the one belonging to Graham and the other one from Leroy...

Dax and Chester looked at each other at that moment and were stunned.

Nancy who was beside them felt her knees weakened as she softly said, "There are seven volumes with that, and hence the scripture is now complete?"

Chester could not wait and hurriedly said, "Let's hurry up and see what's the secret within these seven volumes."

Once he spoke, the three brothers fully focused on the seven scriptures as they kept flipping through the pages.

After half an hour, the three brothers were in shock as there was nothing special at all in the seven scriptures.

“Sh*t! The rumors about ‘one who gathered all seven scriptures and understood the secret within could control the world’ are just a hoax!” Dax impatiently said as he stood up with furrowed brows.

Nancy smiled and held Dax’s hand. “Dear, why are you so impatient? Look at the patience of brother Chester and Darryl. You need to research carefully and perhaps then you can figure it out...”

“Alright.” Dax waved his hands. Although Dax had a bad temper, he would always listen to his wife as he loved Nancy very much.

Dax had always been rough and careless. He wanted to sit and read the scripture but ended up knocking a glass of tea.

Splash!

The tea splashed on the scripture and caused it to be wet.

“Dear.” Nancy softly pinched him. “Look at what you’ve done...”

Nancy paused as she spoke.

At that moment, Nancy emotionally shouted, “
Look, the scripture is changing!”

A picture appeared on the scripture’s damped cover.
It was initially rather blurry but gradually became clearer.

Chapter 721

The three brothers immediately focused on the wet Supreme Mystery Scripture.

An incomplete map was seen on the scripture cover.

There were mountains and rivers...

Apart from that, there was some ancient writing that appeared on the map.

Darryl was so excited when he saw that and quickly drenched the remaining six volumes with the tea beside him.

As expected, a map would appear on the cover of the scripture once the scripture was drenched.

All three brothers immediately put the books together and soon a complete ancient map could be seen in front of their eyes.

Wow!

At that moment, the three brothers took a deep breath!

There were a few rows of ancient writing on the map and Darryl started reading those words. “The world was split into nine mainlands—New World,

World Universe, South Cloud World...”

All three brothers looked at each other in shock when they heard that!

There were nine mainlands in the world?

It should have just been the World Universe and the New World.

Darryl’s heart was unsettled at that time. Holding on to his curiosity, he continued reading, “Located in the red-marked area on the nine mainlands map is a special treasure.”

The three brothers then surrounded the map. There was indeed a red circle on the map.

“Special treasure?” Dax was excited. “We shall bring the map and look for the treasure!”

Darryl nodded. He took out his cellphone from his pocket and snapped a photo of the map before speaking to Nancy, “Sister, please take the scriptures and dry them before properly keeping them.”

Ladies would always be more diligent in taking care of things, hence Darryl felt it was safer for Nancy to keep the seven scriptures.

“Good.”

Nancy nodded and walked into the garden. She arranged for the scriptures to be placed under the sun and dried them.

Two women appeared suddenly from not far away.

One of them was wearing an elegant-looking long dress. It was Abbess Mother Serendipity.

The other was wearing sexy black tight jeans which showed her perfect body. It was none other than Yumi!

Darryl lost his smile once he saw both of them and felt annoyed.

Darryl never had a good impression of Abbess Mother Serendipity.

Although Yumi was her sister-in-law, Darryl was so annoyed each time he saw her. He used 8,000,000 bucks to invest in a petroleum company three years ago and it was Yumi who caused him to be removed from the family.

Yumi and Abbess Mother Serendipity had entered the main hall.

As they went closer, Yumi smilingly said to Darryl, “Brother, I’m not here for any other reason but to apologize to you. I’ve misunderstood you for raping Rebecca earlier on and I’m sorry.”

Yumi then showed an angry face. “Your brother is a monster. How could he have done such evil acts? I must be blind to marry such a monster.”

Darryl squeezed his brows and coldly said, “Fine, but I don’t want to speak with you.”

Darryl never had a good impression of this sister-in-law of his and did not wish to speak to her at all! Although she was beautiful, she was just too cruel.

“Darryl, your sister-in-law is here to apologize. What kind of attitude is this?” Abbess Mother Serendipity suddenly said.

Abbess Mother Serendipity was there to attend Rebecca’s funeral and wanted to meet Darryl after the funeral to apologize as she had misunderstood him for so long.

She could not stop criticizing him when she saw Darryl refusing to accept Yumi’s apology.

“She’s your sister-in-law. Don’t you think it’s too much for you not to accept her apology?” Abbess Mother Serendipity coldly said.

Sh*t! Darryl was furious when he heard what she just said.

He did not give her any face and said, “Abbess Mother Serendipity, do tell me where in the world does its rule say I must accept their apologies when someone apologizes to me?”

“I believe you’re still wearing my Celestial Silkworm Armor? Shall I grab it from you or you want to remove it yourself?” Darryl was furious as he stepped forward and said while looking at Abbess Mother Serendipity.

“You!” Abbess Mother Serendipity blushed. Darryl was too much.

Abbess Mother Serendipity initially wanted to apologize to Darryl, but coldly said after hearing his words, “Your words are insulting and despicable. I’ll send you the armor shortly.”

She then looked at Yumi. “Let’s go, you don’t have to apologize to this type of person.”

Abbess Mother Serendipity pulled Yumi away as she spoke.

Yumi’s eyes landed on Nancy and the seven scriptures that were lying under the sun as they reached the door.

The three brothers Darryl, Dax, and Chester were at the Oriental Pearl Hotel in the evening.

They were the only three at the Oriental Pearl as Wayne had ordered for the Oriental Pearl to be closed to the public.

The three brothers sat at the table while enjoying their drinks. They wanted to get drunk that night before starting their journey to the New World tomorrow.

On the other end, in the Darby Residence's guestroom.

Nancy was sitting on the bed, carefully wrapping the seven scriptures with a piece of cloth.

She did not want to join the three brothers' drinking session, hence she stayed at the Darby Residence to await their return.

All seven scriptures had completely dried by the evening and Nancy carefully kept the books. The scriptures were precious and she needed to take good care of them.

Screech.

Chapter 722

The room door was suddenly opened and a beautiful shadow entered the room.

It was Yumi.

“Sister.”

Nancy was shocked and smiled. Although Nancy did not have a good impression of Yumi, she was still Darryl’s sister-in-law. “Is there anything, Sister?”

“Of course there’s something, otherwise why will I come to your room?” Yumi said coldly. Her attitude was completely different compared to the morning when she looked elegant. The difference was like heaven and earth.

As she spoke, Yumi’s eyes landed on the scriptures in Nancy’s hands.

Yumi walked over with her cold face, stretched out her hands to Nancy, and ordered, “Hand it over!”

Yumi had of course heard about the seven scriptures being something great. If one could gather all seven volumes, he would be able to rule the world! She must get them no matter what!

Nancy was shocked and shook her head before determinately said, "I'll not give them to you!"

Nancy took a few steps backward as she spoke. Her unique face showed some fear and anger.

'How evil was Darryl's sister-in-law.

'Her apology to Darryl was an act!

'How scary and annoying this woman is!' Nancy thought.

"You won't hand it over?"

Yumi walked over quickly and unexpectedly slapped Nancy hard on her face!

Slap!

That slap contained Yumi's entire body strength as Nancy fell a few steps backward before banging against the wall with a bloody red mark on her face.

"You're too much, stop it!"

Nancy held her face as her body shivered from fury.

As Dax's wife, she had also been in society for a long time and met different types of evil people.

However, that was the first time she was slapped by a woman.

Nancy wanted to fight back but she could not.

Yumi was a rather high-leveled cultivator and Nancy would not be her match.

“I’m too much? My husband is supposed to be the Darryl family’s heir, but all of you have forced him to leave me behind here alone and flee Donghai City. Who’s too much now!” Yumi said coldly with her teeth clenched.

Yumi unhappily then added, “Besides, why does Darryl deserve such invaluable seven scriptures treasure?”

Nancy could not stop herself from laughing when she heard that. “Do you mean your husband is innocent? That’s so funny. He raped, murdered his own sister-in-law, and even confessed to it. A person like him deserves to die that even killing him a hundred times aren’t enough.”

Slap!

Yumi slapped her again as she spoke.

“I don’t have time to waste, hand me the scriptures!” Yumi said coldly and started to snatch the scriptures!

“You want the scriptures, dream on!”

Nancy hugged the scripture closed to her chest with her clenched teeth determinately. “I’ll never give them to you even if I die!”

“Fine, fine.”

Yumi was furious as she could not reach for the scriptures. “I’ll see how long you can hold onto them!”

The three brothers including Darryl were having their drinks and discussing matters, hence would not return any time soon.

Yumi then rushed forward, raised her hands, and started slapping Nancy over and over.

Slap! Slap! Slap!

Every slap was heavy and loud.

Yumi shouted as she slapped Nancy, “Give them to me, b*tch! Why are you holding on to Darryl’s stuff! Are you having an affair with him? Give them to me!”

Nancy clenched her teeth and hugged them tightly at her chest. Her body was shaking when she heard what Yumi said, “No matter what you say, I’ll never give the scriptures to you!”

Both of them were sweating profusely after struggling for a while.

Yumi had lost her patience as her eyes turned evil. “You forced me to do it!” She never expected Nancy to be so strong from her weak appearance. Nancy was still holding the scriptures tight despite having been slapped many times.

As she spoke, she took out a sword and pierced through Nancy's chest.

Fresh blood started flowing.

At that moment, Nancy felt her heart turn cold and her energies drained. She dropped on the floor with the scriptures.

Yumi picked up the scriptures and looked coldly at Nancy. "B*tch, you forced me to kill you."

That was the first time Yumi killed someone, but she did not panic nor regretted it.

All she wanted was to take the scriptures, rush to the New World, and meet Florian.

In the room at that moment.

Nancy felt her body getting colder as she looked towards the door and weakly called out, "D-Dax..."

Chapter 723

Oriental Pearl.

The three brothers including Darryl had enough after a few rounds of drinks.

Especially Chester who was not good at drinking had his face turned completely red and could barely sit still.

“Haha, Brother. You always said you wanted to train your drinking skills. You could barely sit still with just a few bottles.” Dax laughed and looked at Chester.

“Who says I can’t drink? Come!” Chester said as he asked the waiter to bring more alcohol.

Darryl laughed from looking at him, “Dax, enough. Stop arguing with Chester. Your drinking skill isn’t that great either. We’re done for the day. Let’s get some rest.”

“No, I must compete with Chester today.” Dax waved his hands as he spoke.

The three brothers had gathered all seven scriptures in the morning, that was great news worth celebrating.

Ring, ring!

At that moment, Dax's cellphone rang.

"Hey, who is that? I'm still enjoying my drink." Dax mumbled as he took out his cellphone and saw it was Nancy before immediately answering the call, "Dear, what's wrong?"

Before he could finish speaking, he heard Nancy's weak voice coming from the other end of the line. "Dear, I don't think I can make it..."

Dax's body shivered as his brain started spinning.

Darryl and Chester were also worried about his reaction.

"What happened?"

"What's going on Dax?"

Dax gathered his thoughts and said, "My wife is in trouble." He then ran out of the room as he spoke.

Darryl and Chester looked at each other. They suddenly became alert and rushed out following Dax.

In a guest room of Darby Residence.

Bang!

The room door flung open and Dax was stunned as he saw what lies in front of him.

Nancy was covered with blood while leaning against the wall with her eyes shut. There was a deep wound at her chest which seemed to almost pierced through her body.

The room was a mess.

It was obvious Nancy had struggled against someone earlier.

“Dear, dear.”

Dax’s eyes instantly turned red from the devastation. He shouted before rushing over and hugged Nancy tightly while his tears uncontrollably flowed down. He was shattered.

Dax and Nancy had been married for a few years at that point and their relationship had been really great as Dax loved Nancy very much. No one would be able to replace Nancy in his heart!

Dax almost went crazy upon seeing Nancy lying in the pool of blood.

“Dear, please don’t do this to me. Open your eyes, I’m Dax.” Dax was hugging Nancy and begging with his cracked voice. His body was shivering.

Darryl and Chester were sad and furious when they saw that.

Especially Chester who started recalling how his wife had immediately died. The scene in front of him was similar to what happened at Eternal Life Island.

At that moment, the Darby family heard the commotion and rushed over. Everyone was shocked to see what had happened.

Darryl's face was dark as he felt terrible. He stepped over and was surprised when he checked Nancy's breathing. "Dax, stop crying. She is still breathing. Hurry up and send her to the hospital."

As he spoke, Darryl reached out his hand and pressed on Nancy's abdomen to channel his internal energy to her.

Although Nancy's breathing was extremely weak, there was still hope for so long she was still breathing.
