

Chapter 824

The New World's Royal City had been busy and merry because the nine sects from all nine mainlands had headed there.

Each sect from the nine mainlands had a unique background, and those that gathered at the Royal City were from different cultures. It had formed quite a remarkable scene.

Hundreds of miles away from the Royal City, dozens of people walked on the main road. All of them looked dusty and exhausted.

Chester and Dax were the ones who led them.

The Flower Mountain Sect and the Eternal Life Palace Sect's disciples trailed behind those two brothers. The Four Guardian Kings of the Eternal Life Palace Sect, Circe, Evelyn and others were there too.

Like the other sects who were at the Royal City for the Grand Weapon, Chester and Dax had decided to go there for the same reason as well. Most importantly, they wanted to look for Darryl, who had gone missing.

Apart from the Flower Mountain Sect and the Eternal Life Palace Sect, many other sects from the World Universe were headed there as well—Shaolin, Wudang, Emei, TianShan, Wanderers, Island of Peach Blossom, Beggars Sect—almost all the sects were there.

However, Chester and Dax did not like the others, so they did not travel with them.

Dax was on a huge horse; he wiped the sweat on his forehead and said, "Do you think we'll find Darryl? Also, what is with that Grand Weapon?"

Chester had no answer for him; he smiled bitterly and said, "I am not interested in the Grand Weapon. I just want to find Darry. He is still missing, and I have no idea what he has been doing."

Both of them sighed.

They had walked for a long time before they finally arrived at the New World's Royal City. There was a small restaurant at the entrance, and it was crowded with guests from different mainlands.

"Look, there is a restaurant in front," Dax shouted excitedly. It had been a tiring and thirsty long journey.

"Brothers, let's go get a drink," Chester said as he turned toward the disciples behind him.

His disciples cheered when they heard that.

Once they entered the restaurant, Dax and Chester found a seat beside the window.

After they ordered some drinks from the waiter, Chester looked around. All the guests were dressed in their unique way. Some were in suits, and some were in traditional long robes, some were in traditional attire—it was a mix of traditional and modern clothing.

A few people sat not nearby. Their leader was a lady in deep blue jeans, and she looked attractive. She was Ophelia Lane, the Chairlady of the Jiangnan Elixir Association. The few people beside her were her disciples.

Ophelia saw Chester and the others too, but she did not acknowledge them as they did not know each other.

"Chester, look! Who is that?" Dax shouted.

Chester looked toward where Dax had pointed. He saw two people seated at the table by the door; it was Justin and Matteo.

Justin had gone for some practice in the woods that day and killed some animals. He was tired and thirsty; he was there for some drinks.

"Justin?"

Dax was surprised and happy to see him. He went toward him immediately and asked, "Justin, where is Lily?"

The news about Lily had regained her memory had spread across Donghai City.

Some people said Justin had boarded a boat with Lily to the New World. He did not expect to see Justin there!

"You—" Justin panicked. "What Lily?"

He was afraid of Dax. Well, everyone in Donghai City was afraid of Dax. They knew that he was part of the dark society and had a wild personality.

"I am asking you; where is Lily?" Dax said impatiently, "Stop pretending that you do not know what I'm talking about!"

Chapter 825

Matteo furrowed his brows as he had heard that Dax was not a friendly person. He looked at Justin and asked, "Do you know this person?"

Justin immediately replied, "Master, this is Dax, the Flower Mountain Sect's Sect Master. And the man beside him is Chester, the Eternal Life Palace's Sect Master. Their sects are powerful in the World Universe."

Strong?

Matteo smiled as he looked at Dax and Chester.

They were only martial saints, and they were considered as powerful?

Dax was impatient, so he kicked Justin. "Hey, do you think you've grown powerful after leaving Donghai City? Did you hear what I said? Are you deaf? I am asking you where Lily is?"

Dax was furious. Justin had to bow when he spoke to Dax, and it looked like he had grown arrogant and even pretended to be deaf.

Justin tried to avoid Dax's eyes as he mumbled, "How would I know where she is?"

He felt guilty, so he did not speak loudly.

Matteo also looked at Justin. "You are an Incandescent Sect's disciple, so you have to be brave to admit what you have done. Why didn't you admit when you have done? What are you afraid of? Tell them the truth, that ugly woman is dead."

Dax was stunned when he heard that. "Who is ugly? Who is dead? Say it clearly."

Matteo laughed loudly. "I'll be honest; I was the one who destroyed Lily's face. She is so ugly; there is no point for her to continue living. I threw her into the ocean."

Then, Matteo took a sip of his wine; his face showed that he did not care.

However, it was the worst news for Dax.

He had killed Lily?

She was Darryl's wife.

He was furious.

Slam!

Dax's eyes were blood-red as he slammed his fist on the table. A huge axe appeared in his hand!

"I will kill you!"

Dax's mind went blank as he swung his axe toward them.

Dax had always had a bad temper; he would not stand idly by when he knew that Darryl's wife was murdered.

Matteo smiled when he looked at Dax's raised axe, and he said casually, "Useless thing! How dare you challenge me?"

He raised his hand gently, and intense energy emerged from Matteo's body.

Bang!

Matteo's palm movement might have looked casual, but it landed precisely on the axe. A loud sound was heard, and Dax could feel intense energy before it pushed him backward. Then he spouted a mouthful of blood.

Dax was a level five Martial Saint, and he was about to be upgraded to a Martial Emperor. However, he could not even defend a single attack from Matteo.

Bang!

Matteo raised his hand again, and a ball of purple and red flame emerged from his palms; it even heated the air around them.

When they felt the heat, everyone in the restaurant evacuated the place.

Matteo looked coldly at Dax. "You want to seek revenge for the ugly one with this little power?"

Matteo raised his hand again and sent the purple flame toward Dax!

At that moment, the purple flame had started to burn in the air around it!

"Dax!"

Chester's face changed when he saw that. He shouted before he waved the fan in his hands in the air to form a protective shield in front of Dax!

Chapter 826

Bang!

The purple flame knocked on the shield as it let out a loud sound. The scary heat started to burn. Before long, the entire restaurant was on fire.

Crack!

The protective shield cracked into pieces; Chester and Dax flew backward about dozens of feet away. They landed heavily on the ground, and spouted fresh blood!

"Sect Master!"

"Palace Master!"

The Flower Mountain and Eternal Life Palace Sect's disciples immediately surrounded them as they drew their blades.

Matteo, however, was not worried at all. He smiled and lifted the pot to pour some wine for himself.

Everyone in the restaurant focused on Matteo. There was complete silence!

Powerful!

He was so powerful!

Ophelia had observed the situation, and she was about to stand up to stop them.

Even though she did now know Dax well, they were from the World Universe. It was not right to see people bully those from the World Universe, and yet she took no action.

However, Ewan White stopped her when she stood up.

Ewan was Ophelia's most outstanding disciple; he would follow her no matter where she went.

Ewan had impersonated the Indomitable Darby at Sara Carter's birthday party to ask for Zoran's permission to marry his daughter. However, he was exposed almost immediately.

Ever since that incident, Zoran had a terrible impression of Ewan. He had mentioned that his elder daughter Rachel would only marry Darryl. She would never get married to Ewan.

That was why Ewan hated Darryl.

Dax and Chester were Darryl's friends; he was happy to see them die there.

"Master, they are Dax and Chester. They don't know what they are doing, so they have asked for trouble. They deserved it; we should not interfere," Ewan said softly so that only Ophelia could hear him.

Bang!

Matteo raised his arms again, and a strong vibration swept outward. The Eternal Life Palace Sect and Flower Mountain's disciples moved backward.

"Rubbish! How dare you seek revenge for that ugly woman?" Matteo said coldly. He took a few silver coins and threw them at the owner, "This is for your compensation."

Then, Matteo rose and was about to leave.

"Argh!" Dax stood up. He lifted his axe and charged at Matteo again.

"You must pay for my sister-in-law's life!" Dax screamed; his eyes were blood-red.

"Get lost!" Matteo said coldly as he hit Dax with his palm.

Bang!

The energy from his palm was not weak, and Dax's body flew dozens of feet backward like a loosened kite. He even spouted more blood!

"Argh!" Dax bounced backward even though he had landed on the ground. He charged forward again!

"You don't understand, do you?" Matteo's eyes were cold. He lifted his hands, grabbed a pair of chopsticks and threw them at Dax.

The chopsticks cracked the air along its way as it traveled straight toward the middle of Dax's brows.

If the chopsticks pierced his head, then no one would be able to save him. However, Dax continued to hold onto his axe as if he did not see the chopsticks! Dax knew that if he did not avoid the attack, the axe would land right on Matteo's body.

Even though he might die, at least he could kill Matteo as revenge for Lily! At least, that was what Dax thought!

Chapter 827

"Dax!"

Chester shouted as he charged toward Dax and pushed him to the ground.

Bang! Bang!

Two loud noises were heard. One of the chopsticks pierced through the wall and Dax chopped the other one with his axe.

"Are you crazy, Dax?!" Chester shouted; he sweated profusely.

Dax needed to change his bad temper. He would rather die just to kill Matteo with his axe. That idea was completely wrong!

"He killed Darryl's wife. He killed Lily!" Dax's tears started to flow as he screamed and pointed at Matteo.

Chester was furious too, but he held his anger. The most important thing was to leave the place to gather some help. They could always return for revenge. He tried to console Dax.

"What's wrong with me killing the ugly woman?" Matteo furrowed his brows as he leapt forward to seal Chester and Dax's acupoints.

In the blink of an eye, the rest of the Flower Mountain and Eternal Life Palace Sect disciples' acupoints were sealed too. No one could react as Matteo was too fast for them.

Circe and Evelyn's acupoint were sealed too. Matteo continued to look at their body. Who knew that there were so many beautiful ladies at World Universe, especially Circe who looked like the ice mountain goddess?

"Come here, Justin!" Matteo waved his hands.

Justin ran to his master. He wanted to laugh; his master was so powerful that he felt he could do anything he wanted.

"This fellow always bullies you, right?" Matteo asked as he pointed at Dax.

Justin nodded. Dax did not bully him; everyone in Donghai City respected Dax whenever they saw him, even those from the affluent families.

"Go and slap him twice!" Matteo said calmly.

"What?" Justin's cold sweat started to flow as he took a step back. "Master, I—"

Justin dared not do it. Even though Dax's acupoint was sealed, Justin had always been afraid of the man.

"Go!" Matteo said sternly.

Justin took a deep breath, gathered his courage and ran forward. Then he slapped Dax's face twice!

Slap! Slap!

The sound was crystal clear, and everyone in the restaurant heard it.

Dax was furious, but he could not move a single muscle.

Justin felt as if his anger had been alleviated after more than ten slaps. Then the master and disciple duo left the restaurant proudly.

Meanwhile, not far from the Royal City.

It was late in the evening, and the street was still busy. The place was crowded.

There were many food stalls all along the streets, and the hawkers tried their best to sell their cuisines.

Among the crowd, half of them were people from the Royal City, and the other half were people from all over the world.

Not only that, but the royal army also patrolled the place regularly.

As there were too many people there, the royal army had to increase their enforcement.

There were three figures among the people at the Royal City south gate.

They were Darryl, Debra and Jewel.

Chapter 828

Debra had decided that she would follow Darryl; she was determined about it. Darryl could not reject her, and so he had agreed for her to tag along as well.

There had been no surprises in their journey, and they had arrived at the city smoothly.

Debra wore traditional purple attire; her perfect bodyline and unique features attracted many people's attention once they entered the city gate.

"Wow, how beautiful..."

"Is she a goddess?"

Debra was not comfortable with the compliments, and the side looks.

Even though she was the Artemis Sect's Sect Master, her position was supreme, and she had lived in the main altar for a very long time. She had not stepped foot outside the sect, and she had not been to such a great place.

Jewel, on the other hand, was relaxed.

"Look at these people! They are saying that you are beautiful." Jewel smiled and held onto Debra's hand as she teased her.

Even though they had not spent much time together, Jewel and Debra became closer throughout their journey.

Debra's beauty and elegance convinced jewel.

Debra, on the other hand, loved Jewel's brightness and cuteness.

Both of them got along very well.

Then, Darryl said, "You are beautiful, too, Jewel. When you grow up, you might be even prettier than Debra. Anyone would be lucky to marry you."

Wow!

Jewel blushed when she heard that. Her cheeks were as red as an apple, and she looked adorable.

Jewel bit her lips and said softly, "I will not marry; I want to serve Mister for my whole life."

Jewel felt shy when she said that, and she dared not look at Darryl.

The three of them chatted and laughed as they walked. Darryl's face seemed relaxed, but he was worried too. He had no news about Yvonne and Monica, and he wondered about them.

The day darkened; it was too dangerous to wander in the palace at night. The place would be heavily guarded. So, it would be best to find a place to spend the night and plan for their next move.

As they walked around the city, they started to look for inns to spend the night. However, most inns were full.

That was not unexpected; so many people from the mainlands were in the city. It was challenging to find a place to spend the night.

Darryl was disappointed; there was not even a single place for them to stay.

"Mister, perhaps we don't sleep tonight? Look, the street is getting busier," she said as she pulled Darryl's arm. Jewel was not tired at all.

She was right; the street got even more crowded.

Then, Darryl saw a group of 30 to 40 people approached from afar. Darryl lifted his head to look at them, and he was stunned.

They were all familiar faces—Master Leonard from the Wudang Sect, Master Reed from the Shaolin Sect, Naomi from the Wanderers Sect, and even Aurora from the Emei Sect.

Darryl was excited because his godfather, Zoran, was there too.

Susan, Rachel, and Sara stood beside him. The three ladies held hands as they walked together.

They strolled the streets casually as they enjoyed the New World palace's uniqueness.

They had not met for a while; Susan was in a long black dress, and she looked lady-like and attractive.

Rachel got prettier too; she wore a yellow suit, and she also looked attractive.

As for Sara, she had become more mature after her 18th birthday. She no longer looked childish but young, lively, and attractive.

Darryl was thrilled to see everyone. He stepped forward to greet everyone.

Chapter 829

"Godfather, Auntie Susan!" Darryl shouted as he walked past the crowd.

Zoran and the others were shocked when they heard his voice. They looked toward where the voice came from and saw Darryl.

"Darryl!" Zoran did not believe it. When he rubbed his eyes and realized that it was really Darryl, he was so happy!

Susan, on the other hand, shivered. She felt complicated when she saw Darryl. Everyone in the world knew about his background—he was Indomitable Darby, the Elysium Gate's Sect Master!

Susan's face was flushed. She had wanted to be Indomitable Darby's student; what a shame!

Master Reed, Master Leonard and the others were in shock too. Everyone looked at Darryl in surprise.

Darryl had been missing from the World Universe, and everyone had discussed it!

Some people said that someone of the New World had captured Darryl.

Some people even said that Darryl had died at sea as he was on his way to the New World to rescue two women.

There had been too many gossips, and none of them had expected to see him there.

"Brother Darryl, you are alive, that is great news!" Sara ran toward him excitedly and hugged Darryl with her might. Even though Darryl was not her biological brother, he was very important to her.

Darryl laughed and hugged her tightly. "Of course, I am still alive; how could I be dead?"

He patted her head and continued to say, "Sara, you are 18 years old now. Why do you still behave like a little child? You hug me every time you see me. People might misunderstand your action."

Darryl was thrilled to see his godfather and his family, especially the lovely. Darryl could not stop but teased her every time they met.

Oh!

Sara blushed when she heard Darryl's words, but she still hugged him tightly. Then she said in a carefree manner, "I am happy to see you, Brother. People can think whatever they want and whatever they wish."

Darryl pinched her nose as he laughed. The little girl was so adorable and attached to him.

The rest of the people walked toward them, and among them was Emei Sect Master's Aurora. She held a sword in her hand as she walked in front of the others. Then she pointed her sword at Darryl's chest, "Where is my sister, Abbess Mother Serendipity?"

Everyone knew that Abbess Mother Serendipity had disappeared with Darryl.

When she saw Darryl, Aurora quickly asked about her sister's whereabouts.

Darryl was upset. Even though Aurora was a beautiful woman, he would always be upset whenever he saw her. Who would interrogate another person when they had just seen them?

"How would I know where Abbess Mother Serendipity is? I am not her husband," Darryl replied coldly without any respect for her.

Darryl was furious when he heard Abbess Mother Serendipity's name. If it were not because of Abbess Mother Serendipity, they would not have activated the Wonder Travel Amulet and then teleported to the Great East?

"Mind your words!" Aurora's eyes were cold; there was tension in the air.

Darryl was not worried; he was about to speak again when an Emei disciple rushed toward them at the same time.

"Sect Master, something is wrong." The disciple sweated profusely as she knelt on the ground. "Sect Master, Sister Jean had an argument with someone at the Incredible Sky Mountain. They are about to fight."

Many of the sects from the nine mainlands had gone to check out the situation at the Incredible Sky Mountain.

The World Universe's Shaolin and Emei Sects had been there during the day. However, they left some of their disciples at the Incredible Sky Mountain to investigate further.

There were so many sects, so an argument was unavoidable.

Aurora furrowed her brows as she glared at Darryl. "I don't have the time to waste with you. Tell me where Abbess Mother Serendipity is the next time we meet. Otherwise, I will never forgive you."

Then, Aurora led the Emei disciples as they rushed toward the Incredible Sky Mountain.

Chapter 830

The atmosphere eased after Aurora left.

Zoran laughed and walked toward Darryl and put his hand on the younger man's shoulders. He was very emotional. "Darryl, where have you been all these while? I have been so worried about you!"

Master Leonard and the others gathered their thoughts before they greeted Darryl with smiles.

"How are you, Sect Master Darby?"

"There have been so many rumors when you went missing. It is great to see that you are fine. Such good luck!"

Darryl's identity had been revealed during the war at the Wishing Star Tower. Everyone in the World Universe knew that he was the Indomitable Darby!

The Elysium Gate had defended Donghai City during the war at the Wishing Star Tower. All the sects respected Darryl.

Darryl smiled as he greeted everyone.

After a few words, Zoran looked at Debra and asked, "Darryl, they are—"

Wow!

Everyone immediately focused on Debra and Jewel.

Debra had unique facial features and perfect bodyline; no one could forget her elegance once they saw her.

Beautiful.

She was magnificent.

Debra smiled at Zoran elegantly and said, "Hello, Godfather, I am Debra Gable."

Debra wanted to get married to Darryl, and so Darryl's godfather would be her godfather too.

Rachel, who stood beside them, sighed.

'This is Debra? Her face is as beautiful as her name, but how cheap can she be? She is not married to Darryl yet, and she is already addressing my father as Godfather. How shameless,' Rachel thought.

After they caught up with each other, Zoran led Darryl back to the inn where they were to stay the night.

A few minutes later, Zoran ordered a table full of dishes to welcome Darryl.

Everyone was so happy at the dining table.

The only person who looked upset was Rachel.

Even though she knew Darryl was the Indomitable Darby, she still did not think highly of him.

Rachel could not accept that her father wanted to marry her to him!

She only wanted to marry Ewan! She was annoyed to see Darryl there!

After three rounds of drinks, Darryl asked, "How is the situation in the New World now? I heard that the Grand Weapon had reappeared, but where is it?"

Zoran laughed and said, "We are too late to the party. A young man had found the Sky Breaking Axe at the Incredible Sky Mountain. The New World Emperor brought more than ten thousand royal armies with him, but they did not manage to get the axe. The man managed to escape. Oh, yes! The young man's name was Donoghue Dixon."

What?

Donoghue?

Darryl shivered. He was stunned and could not gather his thoughts.
