

Kumada felt like his heart was going to shatter.

His eyes widened and his face was filled with disbelief.

“You...you...you are...!”

He felt like his throat was being squeezed and he couldn't get any words out.

SWOOSH!

SWOOSH!

SWOOSH!

Several advanced grandmaster level fighters slowly appeared as if they were projected on a screen.

Before Kumada could stop them, these fighters made their way towards Jiang Ning.

These were the most powerful guards he had by his side, the Shadow Warriors!

“Stop...”

Kumada's throat went dry.

These men moved extremely quickly. They were experts in assassination and were also excellent at hiding themselves. They knew how to manipulate the light so that their tracks were completely covered and they could kill their target without their target realizing anything at all.

These were ninja techniques, but it was all child's play to Jiang Ning.

BAM!

Jiang Ning suddenly moved. It looked like there was nothing in front of him, but he smashed a fist down hard.

There was a loud blast and the floor was soon covered in blood.

PFFT!

The blood spewed out like a fountain and even the wooden flooring splintered.

In the next moment, a figure appeared and stared in horror at Jiang Ning with a mouth full of blood. He couldn't believe it. He had gone close to Jiang Ning so secretly but it was still useless.

Jiang Ning had hit him even more accurately than if he was visible, and smashed his fist right into his chest.

The impact of that punch...

Fresh blood and bits of his internal organs came spewing out from that Warrior's mouth, but Jiang Ning didn't even take a second glance at him.

With the Extreme Fist Technique in hand, he could sense any movement around him even without his sense of sight and hearing. These fellows thought they could hide from him with these low level tactics?

How childish.

"Stop it!" Kumada finally managed to shout these words out.

His breathing was quick and his throat was dry. Shouting this out took all the energy inside of him.

He looked at the advanced grandmaster level fighter that had been killed by just one punch from Jiang Ning and started shouting away frantically, "Stop! Stop it now!"

The rest of the figures appeared and stood in front of him. Their faces were grim and they now looked at Jiang Ning like he was an extremely formidable enemy.

"Move aside!"

Kumada pushed the Warriors in front of him aside because he didn't want them to attack Jiang Ning anymore. If they tried, they'd definitely die!

“You...you are...?” He took a few steps forward and felt both uneasy and nervous. His heart was beating faster than when he lost his virginity. “You are...?”

“Call Grandpa,” said Sugita.

He turned to look at Kumada. “Do you know why the Prince ended up kneeling now?”

Kumada couldn't speak and his fingers were trembling. Of course he knew why now!

Of course he did!

“So is it very difficult for you to kneel now?” asked Sugita again.

THUD!

Kumada didn't dare to hesitate. He faced Jiang Ning and fell to his knees with great respect.

He didn't know that man was here!

If he had known, he wouldn't have dared to be so rude in front of Jiang Ning!

He knew about the chaos that swept through the syndicate back then. If not for the chaos then, he wouldn't have become the Chief either. The elders in his family had reminded him on their deathbed to never offend that man...

“I didn’t know you were here. I deserve to die!” Kumada’s voice was trembling. The Warriors standing behind him had complicated expressions on their faces. They didn’t expect the Chief to suddenly kneel down and become so terrified.

“Now you know,” said Jiang Ning.

He didn’t want to reveal his identity and Kumada hadn’t seen him before. Kumada was not qualified to see him back then.

He didn’t expect Kumada to kneel so quickly with no hesitation.

What an intelligent man.

“I’m not sure why you’re here, but as long as you give the instruction, I will try my best to fulfil anything you want!”

Kumada humbled himself as far as possible.

He didn't have a choice.

The man before him could kill everybody in the courtyard right now.

He could exterminate the syndicate in a few moments.

What would he and the Prince be fighting for then?

Jiang Ning was someone who was untouchable to him.

If there a few people in the world that he must never offend, Jiang Ning was definitely one of them.

If he had to choose which one person in the world he must never offend, then he would definitely choose Jiang Ning!

After Jiang Ning had killed an advanced grandmaster Warrior with one punch, Kumada knew that his elders' advice was wise. They had lost their lives trying to prove this point.

He didn't want to prove this point with his own life.

"I don't think you're the one who calls the shots around here."

Jiang Ning ignored what Kumada said.

Even though he was the Chief, he was just the face of the syndicate. But the one with real power wasn't him.

Even if others didn't know, Jiang Ning did.

Kumada's expression changed slightly as he looked at Jiang Ning and smiled awkwardly. "I don't call the shots, but I will do whatever I can."

"Good. I'm taking Lana Salo with me," said Jiang Ning directly.

The moment he said that, Kumada's expression paled. This was too much to ask of him.

"But sir, this Lana Salo..."

"Hmm?" Jiang Ning scoffed. "Send her to the shrine safely within the next 30 minutes. If I don't see her, I'll come and pick her up myself. Any questions?"

Kumada shuddered all over.

He could hear the threat in these words loud and clear.

If Jiang Ning was coming to pick her up himself, then he wouldn't be so kind as to just break a few limbs and kill a few subordinates.

If he really decided to fight...Kumada felt like he was reliving the images of the past.

“Yes, yes! I can do that for you!”

With that, Jiang Ning didn't say anymore. He pulled Sugita off the floor and left.

Kumada was still kneeling there in a daze until he heard someone call out to him. His face paled when he saw that all the men on the floor were still howling in pain.

“Chief, that woman...you can't release her.”

“If I don't release her, then you'd rather I die?” snapped Kumada angrily.

He never thought that Jiang Ning would appear in Tokyo, and it was actually for the sake of this woman.

He had captured her on the instructions of the priests, so even though he was the Chief, he was just a figurehead and actually, he wasn't that confident of winning the Prince either.

But to go up against Jiang Ning?

He might as well kill himself right now.

“Send her to the shrine! Hurry up!”

Kumada knew that it would be impossible to hide this for long. It was difficult to explain to the priests, but the Prince would definitely oppose this.

But he couldn't care less now. In any case, he was forced to do this.

The Warriors quickly ran towards the Black Jail.

As the most important guard in this place, Nokaze was in a very bad mood.

After receiving the letter that day, he ran home in a hurry to see that his wife's clothes were a little messy and the bed was still warm, so he flew into a terrible rage.

But it all turned out to be a misunderstanding.

"Mr Nokaze, the Chief's guards are here to take Lana Salo away," his subordinates came running in.

Nokaze looked up. "Take Lana Salo away? No!"

"This woman is very important, so nobody is allowed to take her away!"

He didn't care. He wasn't allowing anyone to take her away.

"Nokaze, you've stepped over your boundary. Open the room, we're going to take her away right now," said the guards as they walked in.

“This woman is so important and you’re bringing her away just because you say so? How do I know if you’re just pretending to be here on orders of the Chief or...AHH!”

Before he could finish speaking, one of the guards slapped him across the face.

“Open up!”

Nokaze shuddered and snapped out of his earlier anger.

“Yes, yes!”

He didn’t dare to speak anymore and quickly opened the door for the guards to walk in.
