“He’s here.” Ye Shan narrowed his eyes as he sensed someone coming from afar.

The expression on his face had never been this solemn before.

“We’ll go!” The wolves didn’t rest since they returned to Donghai, and they were exuding a terrifying and murderous aura now.

All of you stay here,” said Tan Xing. “Protecting Yuzhen is the most important thing, don’t move too far away from her.”

He knew that the only person worth attacking in Donghai was Lin Yuzhen.

“Got it!” Brother Gou knew he wasn’t good at using his brains, so he was going to listen to Tan Xing’s arrangements and just do his best to protect Lin Yuzhen.

Outside the main gate.

The rain continued to fall heavily.

A figure was walking towards the house slowly.

He was walking in the rain, but he wasn’t getting wet by the rain at all.

It was as if he had a layer around him that repelled any raindrops that came close to him.

His shoes were completely dry, and there wasn’t even a single drop on his hair.

NH

“Get him!” commanded Huang Yuming. The wall of humans dashed towards that figure in the rain exactly the way they had practiced.

BAM!

Before they could get near, that figure thrust his palm out violently and seemed to hit many raindrops at once. The rain droplets shot out as quickly as bullets and hit the men right in front.

“AHH!”

Screams and howls instantly resounded and blood flew everywhere, quickly staining the ground.

But nobody retreated and even more people came from behind instead. They surged forward like a tidal wave as they made their way towards that figure.

But the screaming became even more intense.

It sent chills down everyone’s bones.

The rain flew in the air and caused blood to spurt in all directions.

There were also men flying in all directions and crashing heavily onto the ground, where they howled miserably...

This three layer human wall was soon broken, and even though so many people had come at the intruder, they didn’t even get a chance to come close to him.

NH

This was the first time something like this was happening in Donghai!

Huang Yuming began to pale because he had never seen someone this powerful before. Even though he had been through much in life, that eerie looking mask still made him shudder all over.

Anyone who saw those eyes beneath that mask would feel like one was falling into a deep abyss!

BAM!

BAM!

BAM!

The number of people flying out increased and the entire ground was covered in blood now.

“Get him!” Huang Yuming was shaking even more violently as he watched all his brothers rush forward only to collapse tragically. His eyes were all red now. “Get him! Get him!!”

BAM!

There was a loud sound as someone collapsed at Huang Yuming’s feet. He was only able to look apologetically one last time at Huang Yuming before breathing his last.

Huang Yuming’s heart trembled as he fell to his knees with a thud. His entire body was shaking but he couldn’t get a single word out.

NH

SWOOSH!

SWOOSH!

SWOOSH!

The best fighters of the academy all moved out to surround and kill that intruder.

Even Ye Shan and Tan Xing felt their bodies heat up as they prepared themselves for a fight to the very end.

This was a formidable opponent!

This was definitely the most formidable opponent they had met so far.

They knew that there was always someone stronger and more powerful out there, but they didn't expect someone like that to appear so quickly and head straight for the Lin house and Lin Yuzhen!

It seemed like the one thing that worried Jiang Ning the most was really going to happen.

All the frightening characters that had been hiding in the darkness all this while would finally find it difficult to sit still once all nine pages of the Extreme Fist Technique Manual had surfaced.

"It looks like I'm going to die here today." Tan Xing raised his white eyebrows and there was no fear on his face at all. "I'm going to see if this formidable opponent is invincible or just difficult!"

NH

SWOOSH!

Tan Xing flew out as quickly as lightning.

He moved so much faster than he normally did.

Ye Shan didn't say anything and just flew out with the tap of his foot. They headed straight for the intruder on his left and right!

Even though so many people were surrounding him, Mr Hei's gaze didn't change at all, just like the mask on his face that couldn't change expression.

He stood there and spread his arms out slightly. He looked like he was challenging Ye Shan and the rest to attack him together!

BAM!

A battle immediately ensued!

It reached its peak almost instantly.

Nobody dared to hold back or save any moves. This Mr Hei was way too powerful!

He was so powerful that they felt that he had come from a different world altogether.

Even Ye Shan and Tan Xing felt this way.

The sort of aura and presence that seemed to ride over their heads completely was totally foreign to them.

"Who on earth are you?!" bellowed Ye Shan fiercely as he swung a punch.

Mr Hei didn't respond and just slowly lifted his fist to collide with Ye Shan's.

There was a loud blast as Ye Shan ended up staggering five steps back while Mr Hei remained standing where he was.

NH

“Extreme Fist Technique!” muttered Ye Shan in a low voice. “You know the Extreme Fist Technique too?”

This punch alone told Ye Shan that this intruder’s level of boxing was no less than his, and was probably a lot better too.

Those who could comprehend the Extreme Fist Technique were no ordinary men, like Jiang Ning and Fang Yin.

Ordinary folk who could understand even a little bit were considered amazing already.

But this man...

SWOOSH!

Tan Xing didn’t care about all this for now. He swung his legs across and put in his best efforts to attack with everything he had.

Tan Xing and Ye Shan attacked Mr Hei from both sides at the same time, but they weren’t gaining the upper hand at all.

The fight continued to get more and more intense.

Not too far away.

A figure flashed past under the torrential rain and disappeared soon after. Nobody had noticed him at all.

Inside the Lin family bungalow.

NH

The door was shut fast and even the windows were locked.

It was pouring heavily outside, and even Lin Yuzhen felt rather stuffy inside the house.

“Why did it suddenly rain so heavily?” She frowned. “It’s been such a long time since we’ve had such a frightening storm.”

She wanted to open the window to let some air in, but Brother Gou called her back just as she reached the window.

“The wind outside is really strong, so you might fall sick.”

Lin Yuzhen had no choice but to just let it be.

“The storm will be over soon,” said Brother Gou.

Just after he finished saying this, his expression suddenly changed as he ran over to Lin Yuzhen. “Hold your breath! Number Five, open the window!”

There was a faint smell in the air. It was weak, but Brother Gou detected it.

He quickly covered his own nose and got Lin Yuzhen to do the same as they headed upstairs.

“Fang Yin!” roared Brother Gou angrily. “How dare you!”

Someone had released poison into the air!

NH

“Do you still have explosives on yourselves now?”

Fang Yin’s voice came from the second floor!

Nobody knew when he appeared upstairs. All their men were focused on protecting the house on the outside, and none of them would have expected Fang Yin to infiltrate the bungalow itself during this time.

Lin Yuzhen looked up but Fang Yin was a stranger to her and she didn’t know who he was.

“Protect Boss Yuzhen!” shouted Brother Gou as his face began to pale. He couldn’t hold his breath for too long and he had to chase Fang Yin out as soon as possible!

SWOOSH!

SWOOSH!

SWOOSH!

All the wolves split into two teams. One was going to deal with Fang Yin while the other team was going to help Lin Yuzhen out of the house.

If they continued to stay here, they were doomed if they got poisoned!

Fang Yin laughed loudly and didn’t seem bothered about anybody coming towards him.

He waved his palm and a huge amount of powder was instantly released into the air. The powder quickly dispersed into the air and it was almost impossible to avoid it.

“Hurry!”

Brother Gou got someone to open the window so that the wind would come in and he helped Lin Yuzhen to stand facing the wind. He was already feeling weak and it took a lot of willpower to just remain standing.

“If you dare to hurt Boss Yuzhen, Big Boss will definitely kill you!” roared Brother Gou angrily.
