

Chapter 100

Felicity sighed. Gossip followed anyone who was popular.

She knew her participation at the event must have caused a lot of unnecessary criticism.

But she didn't expect that there was no sincere friendship left between her classmates. They were only jealously comparing each other.

Seeing William holding Felicity's hand, everyone was stunned.

"Is this Felicity's husband? The most useless son-in-law in Qena City?" someone from the crowd exclaimed.

"It seems so. Don't you see Felicity's bitter face? Oh dear, it's like beauty and the beast!"

"Nathan is much better than this useless man! Perhaps Felicity has other thoughts! Else, she wouldn't have come in another man's car with her husband around! This useless man is really a coward. He even followed her into Nathan's car. If I were her husband, I would rather die than to be shamed like this."

Nathan was over the moon when he heard that.

That was exactly what he wanted to hear.

He quickly said in a loud voice, "Stop talking nonsense. Felicity's car broke down, that's why we came together. Let's all go in now."

However, the explanation only made everyone mistake the situation further.

A man in a suit stood at the entrance of the resort.

Nathan hurriedly went up to him and said, "Uncle, thank you for welcoming us here in person."

Nathan then introduced his uncle to the group, "This is my uncle. He is the Assistant General Manager here. Uncle, I'm so sorry to bother you and thank you for the arrangement today."

Director Zhao immediately smiled and responded politely, "It's my honour to meet Nathan's friends and be at your service. Please enjoy yourself."

Everyone quickly waved their hands and looked at Nathan with envy.

"Nathan seems to be doing quite well. Looks like he would be showing off his capabilities today!"

"The most exciting part is yet to come! He is signing a contract with the Genuine Care Medical Center tomorrow, and it is going to take place here!"

"Shh, don't mention Genuine Care Medical Center! You're hitting the nail on Felicity's head! Her family business is going to be ruined soon. It's such a pity that a beauty like her needs to go through all this!"

Nathan walked toward the lobby amongst everyone's compliments.

Director Zhao had obviously made the necessary arrangements. He was already holding a big stack of room cards in his hands.

He said with a smile, "Everyone, please take a good rest tonight. The alumni meeting won't start until tomorrow. Before I distribute the room cards, there's something I need you to be aware of. Our Boss Li has specifically instructed that the Cavesky Villa in the east is booked. Please avoid going there at all costs, else I wouldn't be able to save you from the consequences."

Everyone was stunned, "Could that be Flavia Li?" they wondered.

"It must be her. Who else would be qualified to live in the Cavesky Villa? It's the most luxurious villa of all. Ordinary people won't even have the right to get near it."

Director Zhao then handed the room card to Nathan and left to attend to his work.

Nathan looked at the crowd and walked to Felicity in front of everyone.

Felicity's heart skipped a beat.

Nathan pushed William away and said affectionately, "Felicity, you are so pretty and elegant. It's a pity for you to live in a normal room. This is the second best villa in the resort. You can rest there tonight."

Felicity's expression froze.

She could feel that everyone else was emanating with jealousy and hatred.

"Wow, hasn't Nathan given up on pursuing Felicity after all these years?"

"He seems so determined on Felicity. Alas! How could he show his affection for Felicity in front of her husband? He is ruthless!"

"Ruthless? I don't think so. Look at her husband. He is so obsequious and doesn't even dare to say a word. Felicity doesn't deserve him."

"True, only Nathan is worthy of Felicity! Both of them are from pharmaceutical industry families and make a good match. I agree with their relationship!"

Felicity heard those whispers. Looking at Nathan, who pretended to be affectionate in front of her, she couldn't help but frown.

Next, Nathan told William, "Hey, this is your card. Your room is on the far west. If you can't find it, you can ask the waiter."

There was a burst of laughter.

At first, Felicity wanted to hold back her anger, but Nathan's attitude towards William completely irritated her.

She suddenly said aloud, "Nathan, would you please respect my husband? Since everyone is here, I will announce to you that I, Felicity Bai, am married. I love my husband and please do not seek anything else from me!"

The atmosphere suddenly turned awkward.

Felicity had just rudely refused this rich young man in front of everyone.

Nathan's face instantly changed!

Among the crowd, he was like a prince charming!

But now, he was humiliated by Felicity!

The way he looked at Felicity instantly changed!

"Fk!

"You b*tch!"

"Stop acting cool in front of me!"

"If it weren't for your beautiful appearance, I wouldn't have cared for you!"

"You're just a nobody!"

"Soon, the Bai family will collapse, I was thinking of saving you."

"But now that you're ungrateful, don't blame me for being ruthless!" Nathan said angrily.

As the atmosphere was still awkward, Rachel walked out in anger. "Felicity! How could you talk to Nathan like that? He was being nice to you, but in return, you treated him so rudely! Who do you think you are? It's all thanks to Nathan that we could stay in the Peaplum Resort tonight. It's okay that you don't appreciate his kindness, but how could you humiliate him in public? You need to apologize right now!"

Everyone present agreed in unison, "Yes, apologize to Nathan now! You're only a pretty face! Men don't just look at appearances. Shame on you to pay back kindness with such rudeness!"

Under their criticism, Felicity's face suddenly flushed.

"I will leave the party! I'll go back! Are you all happy now?" Felicity said in rage.

Suddenly, she was held back by William.

William's face darkened but still advised her kindly, "Don't be impulsive."

Felicity was stunned.

Nathan on the other hand started to flash a broad smile.

Nathan thought this useless man was interesting.

He wondered how William would persuade his wife to stay.

Perhaps, it was the resort... William had never experienced such treatment and couldn't bear to leave.

Nathan felt that William was so pathetic, allowing his wife to be aggrieved in this way.

Nathan had a thought about the good-for-nothing William.

Perhaps he needed some tips from William to get to Felicity.

Thinking of it, Nathan quickly distributed the room cards before the atmosphere grew tense.

When it was finally William's and Felicity's turn, the only room left was a small villa in the most remote western part of the resort.

When Nathan handed William the room card, he smiled evily and his face showed hints of impatience.

William casually accepted the card. However, people despised him for this.

"He is such a coward! How could he accept the card selfishly and not save Felicity?" a jealous man asked.

Amidst the laughter of the crowd, Felicity's face flushed even more.

Once everyone went to their rooms, Felicity stared at William and asked, "Why?"

Although she did not feel like staying in the villa, she still had enough faith in William.

William smiled and responded, "Don't we have to sign the contract tomorrow? It's more important to take care of the overall situation. Let's stay here for one more night."

As he was talking, William walked to the front desk with Felicity and told the receptionist, "Please, can I have the room key for the Cavesky Villa?"
