

Chapter 83

"This must be the car that Baxter gave me," William thought.

Steven looked back at Felicity. "Felicity, do you want to go with me? I will pass by your house. The others can take Xena's car."

Felicity blushed and said coldly, "No, thanks. Your car is dirty. I don't dare to sit in it."

Dirty? Everyone around was baffled.

This was a new car.

Steven's face instantly turned livid. "Felicity, I'm kind enough to offer you a ride. It's fine if you don't want it. But your attitude looks just like sour grapes! You'd better explain yourself. I won't let it pass!"

Felicity didn't intend to entertain Steven at all, to begin with. She was in a bad mood this evening.

She couldn't help but tease him, "Where did you get the money to buy a car? You don't need me to tell you the answer! Recently, our three companies have been in jeopardy. The company itself doesn't have much money left, but how dare you embezzle the company's money to buy a car for yourself! It's so obvious. Do you think everyone here is a fool?"

Steven's face instantly turned ashen.

The Bai family, in fact, didn't have much money on hand, and Steven had indeed used the company money.

In normal circumstances, the Bais would not bring it up despite noticing it. But now that Felicity had exposed him, Steven felt extremely humiliated.

"Yo-yo-you!" Steven was so mad that he couldn't utter a word properly.

"Humph, the money you use to purchase this car is 'dirty'. I don't want to be in a car that's bought this way!" Felicity said coldly.

"Enough!" Yasmine suddenly shouted.

She looked at Felicity coldly. "I'm the one who gives permission to him to buy this car. Why? Do you have any problem with my decision?"

Felicity instantly froze.

It was clear that Yasmine was making up excuses for Steven again!

And she did it so obviously!

"Steven is going to handle the Genuine Care Medical Center project soon, which is a very important one. He needs a car that matches his identity. If not, he will be laughed at! You won't understand this! Not every man is like your husband who butters others up to survive. He's poor but he acts so arrogantly in front of us. You love him, right? Felicity, remember, sometimes you can't be so cheap!" Yasmine glared at Felicity.

Felicity's eyes turned moist at once.

Steven was clearly in the wrong. He had stolen the company money. But in the end, it was she who got humiliated!

All of a sudden, Felicity felt a surge of warmth that came from her palm. She looked down and noticed that it was William who was holding her hand.

She wanted to break free from his grasp, but he held on tightly.

The tears in her eyes became even more.

"Let's go! Leave this shameless couple alone!" Seeing a pair of security guards coming towards them, Yasmine got into the car furiously.

Rebecca stared at them and followed Yasmine to get into the car.

The others then hopped onto Xena's car.

Steven raised his eyebrows proudly at Felicity as if to say, "You're not in the position to fight with me!"

He started the car and pushed the accelerator.

Suddenly, Steven lost control of the car, and the car jolted forward.

Shocked, he quickly turned the steering wheel.

A loud 'bang' rang out and echoed in the parking lot.

Steven's car had rammed into the Lamborghini next to him.

Everyone at the scene was dumbfounded.

The security guards nearby immediately rushed over!

Steven and the others got out of the car to inspect the condition of the Lamborghini. There was a huge indentation, and its headlight was cracked.

Steven broke out into a cold sweat right away.

This was a Lamborghini!

This indentation would cost at least ten thousand yuan to repair!

And that headlight...

At the thought of this, Steven's hair stood on its end at once!

He had just bought the BMW, and he was not familiar enough to handle it. He ended up causing this accident while he tried to speed off a while ago.

Steven didn't have much savings. If he were to fork out another 100,000 yuan, it would make a big dent in his wallet.

Oh goodness!

It must be his unluckiest day!

Steven wanted to flee away. The two security guards immediately dashed over and grabbed his clothes. They bellowed fiercely, "You ran into someone else's car. How dare you try to run away?"

All the members of the Bai family immediately became anxious.

Steven was about to weep. "I didn't. I was just trying to check if the car was badly damaged."

"Can't you see it? It's a car worth more than two million yuan, and it's imported. Judging on its condition, it will cost at least 100,000 yuan to fix." The security guard seemed to know a lot about luxury cars.

Steven's face turned pale. "I really didn't mean it."

"I don't care. Let's check if the car owner leaves a phone number." The security guard glanced through the windshield and found no phone number. "You must stay here and wait for the car owner to come over. I will contact the management now to see if they know who this honorable guest is."

One security guard stayed back to watch over them whereas the other sped to the hall.

The Bai family was practically a bundle of nerves at this moment. None of them expected this unwanted accident.

"Who the h*ll is this? Why must he park his car beside me? I'm so pissed off!" Steven cursed.

Felicity glimpsed at him disappointedly. There was no remorse on Steven's face although he did something wrong.

How could he have the audacity to blame others for parking next to him?

She pulled at William and was about to leave.

However, at this moment, Steven looked at them and howled, "What're you guys doing? Are you going to run away?"

"We didn't bump into the car. Why would we stay here?" Felicity said coldly.

"Listen to yourself! Are you a member of the Bai family? We came out for dinner together, and then this happened. All of us are accountable! Are you going to avoid taking responsibility?" Steven bellowed without realizing how ridiculous his words were.

"I don't want to talk to you." Felicity rolled her eyes at him. Steven was merely a madman to her.

"I don't care. If you want to leave, you have to leave 50,000 yuan behind," Steven grabbed Felicity and screeched crazily.

Seeing this, William was laughing at Steven secretly.

The Bai family had become so shameless for such a small amount of money. It was only a few thousand yuan.

They claimed to be a rich, noble, and well-known family.

The only thing they had been talking about was making a glorious comeback.

However, they were obviously a family of clowns - a circus.

They were merely a bunch of contemptible scoundrels!

William held Felicity's hand and walked toward the crooked Lamborghini.

He reached out to check the damage on the car.

However, he was immediately stopped by Steven.

"What do you want to do? Do you want to kick this car a few more times and frame me? Now that you have touched the car, you are also responsible. Don't you forget that there are surveillance cameras here!" Steven's eyes were bloodshot.

Yasmine looked at William and mocked, "If you can't afford to pay it, don't touch it. Do you think you deserve to lay a finger on it?"

William gave them a sneer. He pushed Steven away and took out the car key.

"Click."

The car rang to life.

The door was opened.

"Let's go, Felicity."
