

Chapter 803

Chuck stayed with Quinn for the whole day.

The next day, he left and went to look for Zelda. He did not do anything with Zelda, but only chatted with her all night!

On the third day...

Chuck told Betty that he was ready to go.

Nancy called Chuck to report on the progress, but he told her to report to Yolanda directly.

With Yolanda and Nancy's ability, he was sure that they would give him a surprise when he returns!

When he returns with his enhanced skills, he would not have too many concerns about building his own business empire.

However, Betty said that she was occupied at that moment. She sent an address to Chuck and asked him to wait for her there.

Chuck certainly had no problem with that.

He was not a child.

He could even go by himself!

After he packed his belongings, Chuck went to the address that Betty had sent to him. It was at the border of the country.

He needed to fly to the destination. After he got off the plane, he took a look around.

There were some foreigners around, but Chuck was not there to have fun. He hailed a cab and checked in to a nearby hotel. He had to wait for Betty!

Chuck left his luggage in the hotel room and went out to look for a restaurant. When he wandered around, he suddenly noticed a crowd.

Originally, Chuck did not want to walk over. However, when he saw that someone was lying on the ground, Chuck knew that something had happened.

When he looked closer, he saw that an old man was lying on the ground. He fell and his head was bleeding. He could not get up.

A lot of people watched him, but no one dared to help him.

Since Chuck had nothing else to do, he squeezed his way in. He had a compassionate heart towards elders! Everyone would eventually grow old one day.

"Excuse me, please get out of the way. Let me take him to the hospital."

Chuck carried the old man and pushed his way out of the crowd.

The onlookers were shocked and shook their heads.

"Sigh, young people these days are really bold."

"That's right. What if he gets into trouble? This young man has a kind heart, but he may get himself in trouble!"

Everyone could see that the old man was unconscious. What if he died on the way to the hospital? Then, wouldn't he be associated with his death?

They shook their heads and sighed!

Chuck saw that no cab was willing to stop for them, so he wondered if he could carry the old man to the hospital himself.

Chuck's physique was good. But that old man could not withstand the jolt from Chuck's running, would he?

Chuck saw a BMW car pass by, therefore he ran toward the car with the old man in his arms. He thought they might be willing to help him. If they were willing, he could give them a reward.

"Hello, this old man just fell down. Please send us to the hospital. I'll give..."

"Idiot, get out of my way!"

The owner of the BMW car shouted, "If you want to die, don't drag me along! What if this old man dies in my car? Get away from me!"

"Please give us a ride. I'll pay you!" Chuck was speechless.

"Pay me? Is the money inside the black bag in your hand?" The owner of the BMW car said with a smile.

When Chuck was eating just now, he could not finish his food therefore he packed it.

"I..."

"Solve your own problems and don't drag us along. If you don't have the ability, then don't be nosy!" The owner of the BMW car said in mockery.

He saw the incident earlier, but he did not dare to help.

Chuck looked at the old man in his arms, whose face was full of pain. He could not afford to waste any more time. He took out 10,000 dollars in cash and waved the cash by roadside. Finally, a cab stopped.

Chuck got into the cab with the old man and ordered the driver, "Go to the nearest hospital immediately!"

The driver took a look at Chuck and the old man who was unconscious, and asked doubtfully, "Young man, what happened?"

After all, they did not look alike!

"I helped him just now as he fell down and hit his head!" Chuck said.

The driver was shocked. He gave Chuck a thumbs-up, but at the same time, he showed sympathy. He sighed and said, "Young man, be careful. You might get in trouble for what you've done!"

Fortunately, the driver immediately took Chuck and the old man to the nearest hospital.

When they arrived at the hospital, Chuck shouted, "Get the most expensive ward and ask the best doctor for emergency treatment." A nurse pushed a wheelchair over. Chuck paid around 70,000 dollars. It was not much to him if at least the old man could survive.

He had done a good deed.

He sat outside the emergency room and waited. Fortunately, he managed to send the old man to the hospital in time. The old man was out of the emergency room safely.

However, he was still in a coma and the hospital had already contacted the old man's family. Chuck waited for them to arrive first before he went back to the hotel to rest.

After a while, a woman in her early thirties ran to Chuck in a hurry in her high heels. She looked at Chuck and said, "Sir, thank you for sending my father to the hospital! As a token of our gratitude, please accept this!"

As she spoke, she took out an envelope from her handbag and handed it to Chuck respectfully.

Chuck shook his head and said, "No, it's not necessary. It's just a small matter!"

Chuck felt compassionate towards the old man and did not do it for the money. Besides, Chuck didn't care about the money at all.

Chuck still had to wait for Betty to arrive!

The woman frowned. If Chuck did not want money, what did he want?

"Wait, you can't leave!" A man walked over and said coldly.

"This person does not have an ordinary aura and he looks like a battle expert," Chuck thought to himself. His mother had been here before, and she said that the place was full of experts.

"Why?" Chuck asked.

"My grandfather is not awake yet and the matter has not been clarified yet, therefore you can't leave!" There was no hesitation in the man's voice, as if he was giving orders to Chuck.

Chuck frowned. "What do you mean?"

"Nothing. When my grandfather wakes up, everything will be clarified! I will thank you for your help, but I will also hold you accountable if you are responsible for this incident!" The man said.

The woman looked at Chuck a few times but did not say much. She went to the ward and left the matter to the men.

The man stared at Chuck, as if he was afraid that Chuck would run away.

Chuck was in a bad mood. He had done a good deed, but he received such a treatment. Chuck regretted his kind actions.

He could have ignored the old man and just enjoyed his time alone.

"What's your name?" The man asked coldly.

Chuck shrugged and said, "It's none of your business. Get out of my way!"

"You want to leave before we figure out what actually happened?" The man sneered while his eyes were cold.

"So what if I want to leave?" Chuck's eyes turned cold. It was the first time he had done such a kind deed, and he regretted it.

"It's not up to you!" The man walked closer to Chuck. "You can only leave when I say so!"

Chuck shrugged but his expression did not change. "You want to fight?"

"No, you are not qualified to fight with me! Don't force me to fight!" The man said dismissively. Judging from Chuck's behavior, he looked like a college student. He could defeat him in an instant. He could even fight against a hundred of him alone.

"Don't make me fight you!" Chuck was furious.

Chapter 805

Chuck had always been a man who would not attack others unless he was being attacked!

He had saved a man out of compassion, but he did not expect to receive that kind of treatment!

Chuck was furious!

"Hey, you'd better be smart about this! If you want to fight with me, be prepared to die any minute!" The man said with a smile.

The man had a strong aura, he must be a combat expert!

He thought that the person in front of him really did not have the qualification to fight with him!

Chuck's eyes turned cold!

Both of them looked like they were prepared for a war!

They were really about to fight!

"That's enough, Gaige! Grandpa is awake!" The woman who just went into the ward walked out later.

"Did he hit Grandpa?" Gaige asked in a foul mood.

"No, Grandpa said that he fell down himself." The woman shook her head and looked at Chuck again.

She was a little surprised that Chuck had saved her grandfather but did not expect anything in return. A man like him was hard to come by nowadays, was it not?

Gaige snorted. "Just give him some money and send him away."

After that, he went into the ward and did not bother to clarify further the misunderstanding.

In his opinion, Chuck did not deserve any explanation from him.

"My brother has misunderstood what happened just now. I'm sorry, my name is Liliana Lowe. Please accept this money!" Liliana took out an envelope.

"You're sorry? I saved your grandfather, but I'm being blamed and almost beaten up instead?" Chuck said coldly.

He was so angry that day. He regretted meddling in other people's business!

"Then, what do you want?" Liliana frowned and her tone became slightly cold.

"What do you mean by what do I want? I saved your grandfather and this is your attitude?"

Liliana's beautiful face turned cold. "That's why I asked you, what do you want? Isn't that enough?"

"You'd better keep the so-called reward to yourself. I don't need it!" Chuck left. If he stayed there any longer, he would have slapped her!

Liliana's face looked terrible. In that place, no man dared to talk to her like that. If he didn't want it, then forget about it. He was such an ignorant man!

She went into the ward when her grandfather had fallen asleep again.

"Where's that kid just now? How much did you give him?" Gaige asked.

"He didn't want money."

"What a silly man!" Gaige laughed disdainfully, "Forget it, there's no need to take heed of such a person. How many people who have enrolled for our Wolfen Sect are recommended?"

"None!" Liliana was worried.

"Didn't Master ask us to recruit a few potential talents?" Gaige was speechless. "Well, youngsters these days are really silly and not reliable like the young man just now. It's really difficult to find a few disciples, isn't it?"

"We just have to try our best," Liliana said helplessly. What else could she do?

The physical quality of the young people was poor. They were weak and had no physical strength. How could they find a strong fighter among them? It was impossible!

"By the way, the recruitment fair is tomorrow, isn't it? Let's see how many people will turn up. If there really is none, we will just find a few useless men from the fair." Gaige was speechless!

What kind of useless physical fitness did young people have these days?

Liliana agreed, as that was the only way.

Chuck ate in a fast-food restaurant and later spent the night at the hotel. In the middle of the night, he received a call from Betty.

"You will go to the Noir House tomorrow night. There will be a recruitment fair to enroll into the Wolfen Sect. We will discuss more in detail after you have entered into the Wolfen Sect. President Lee wanted me to convey the message that there are many combat masters in the Wolfen Sect. You should keep a low profile there. She will discuss more in detail with you after you have been enrolled!"

"I understand, Betty." Chuck was feeling sleepy.

In places where there were many experts, a person had to keep a low profile. It was because of a very simple logic. What was the reason he enrolled into the Wolfen Sect?

It was for the sake of learning many combat techniques!

It was to have more opportunities to put his combat skills into practice, not to show off his existing strength. A real master would not care about showing off his strength at all.

"There are a few powerful teachers in the Wolfen Sect. They are all traditional combat teachers, and with their skills, they're capable of killing their opponents! President Lee suggested having Miss Scarlett as your teacher. President Lee said that Miss Scarlett is extremely talented in combat! She specializes in this area, therefore it will be best to learn from her for a few days! However, let's talk more after you have enrolled into the Wolfen Sect tomorrow."

Betty told him more information in detail.

Chuck took her advice. He would enroll himself into the Wolfen Sect and look for Miss Scarlett as his teacher.

"Okay, I understand."

"That's good. Rest well and goodnight."

"Okay, goodnight!" Chuck shrugged and went to sleep after he hung up.

Betty muttered to herself on the other side of the call, "Goodnight..."

The next morning, Chuck took a cab and headed to the Noir House as mentioned by Betty.

When he arrived, there were many luxurious cars. It was obvious that many rich people wanted to learn how to fight as part of self defense, to ensure their own safety.

This could actually be considered as recruitment of new students. However, a person needed to pass the assessment. No one knew what the assessment process would be like.

Chuck shrugged and went straight in.

There were a lot of men and women in the fair. Actually, women who were good at fighting had great body figures, just like the ones in the fair.

When Chuck was waiting at the fair, a lot of people were bragging about how good they were. Chuck sneered in his heart. He had to follow his mother's advice on keeping a low profile. Only then could he learn more things.

"Hush, that beauty over there has a great figure."

"Of course. A combat fighter must train a lot. How could they have a bad figure?"

"Hey, I saw someone poor come here in a cab. He doesn't even have a car, and yet he dares to show up here..."

A lot of people were talking about it. Chuck was speechless. He did not expect that he would be their topic of discussion.

"Quiet, quiet!"

There were people who showed up. It was Liliana and her elder brother, Gaige, whom he saw the previous day.

The two of them were not satisfied with the participants who were at the fair. They looked weak and unreliable, like a bunch of trash.

"Sigh, I can only choose a few better ones from this pile of garbage." Gaige was helpless. "Everyone, stand still please. Let's start with the Wolfen Sect assessment!"

Chuck frowned. It was them!

The enemies whom he could not get along with!

Chapter 806

"What will you be assessed on? First, physical strength! Second, endurance. And third, reaction!"

Gaige's voice was loud and clear!

He was indeed a combat expert. When he spoke, the participants were so shocked that not a single sound could be heard.

"He has such a loud voice! So full of energy!"

"He really lives up to his reputation as the Wolfen Sect's master!"

Everyone in the fair was amazed!

A person's aura was extremely important. Not everyone possessed the power to make people fall into complete silence with just a few words.

There were many rich young men at the fair, and they were all quiet.

They were there to improve themselves. They wanted to learn combat skills, therefore they definitely would not offend the expert!

Chuck shrugged.

Physical strength!

Endurance!

Reaction!

Those were definitely the most basic standard requirements needed to learn combat. Chuck knew them very well!

He trained himself and ran for three hours every day. He even wore a special metal ring that weighed twenty kilograms!

In other words, Chuck had been in constant training all the time. He did not remove the ring even in his sleep!

Chuck's endurance, and physical strength was admirable!

He was already used to carrying an extra 20 kilograms with him every day!

And he even wanted to add another 20 kilograms to carry around!

Reaction!

It was the basic quality of a human. Chuck was highly gifted in combat skills, and his reactivity was even more impressive.

However, his mother told him to keep a low profile, and Chuck would keep that in mind!

As long as he could enroll into the Wolfen Sect, it was enough. Therefore, Chuck intended to suppress his strength!

"Let's start our assessment immediately. I'm lazy to test each of you three times repeatedly, therefore once is enough. Whoever can withstand my student's punches for one minute will be enrolled into the Wolfen Sect! Wade, you're up!" When Gaige spoke, a bulky man appeared!

His face was ferocious!

All participants looked at each other in dismay.

Gaige and Liliana did not show much interest and sat down in the corner while talking to each other. Did they discuss how many people would be qualified from this assessment?

Gaige estimated about five people at most!

It was bad!

"Alas! The physical fitness of young people nowadays is very poor. Why aren't they like us when we were younger?" Liliana was speechless. She was also a combat expert.

She looked at the participants. No one was worthy of her attention. She could only settle for second best.

It could not be helped.

"What are you all looking at? Fight!" Gaige was furious.

"What? One minute? You're underestimating us. I'll go first!" A red-haired young man shrugged and went onto the stage with disdain!

However, before he could say further, Wade looked at him indifferently and threw a punch!

Bam!

The red-haired man screamed, fell five meters away, and fainted on the ground.

At that moment, everyone's face turned pale with fright!

A person was knocked out and flew into the air with just one punch!

"You pile of garbage, how dare you come here? What a waste of my time. Next!" Wade crossed his arms on his chest.

No one dared to fight anymore.

They had learned some combat skills, but they were not as good as Wade!

The man could not even take one punch. One could only imagine how powerful the punch was!

Chuck was deep in thoughts.

From his point of view, the Wolfen Sect's attack was a little different from his mother's.

It seemed that his mother had recommended a good place for him to learn new skills!

Chuck was determined to enroll into the Wolfen Sect!

"Are you all useless garbage? No one dares to come up here?" Wade said ferociously.

Chuck looked around him. When he wanted to go on stage, he saw someone go up first. It was a young and muscular man.

"Let me try!" The young man took the lead in attacking.

Wade said coldly, "Garbage!"

Bam!

The young man was unable to withstand Wade's heavy punch and was sent flying off the stage! Like the red-haired young man, he fell to the ground, vomited blood and fainted.

"This is horrible. Why is the assessment of the Wolfen Sect so strict? Who will be able to enroll? We can't even pass!"

"That's right! No one can withstand his punch!"

All the participants panicked and felt helpless. Wade was too strong. No one at the scene could pass the assessment!

"What? Are you all useless garbage? You can't even withstand one punch, let alone one minute! Whoever can withstand a punch from Wade, will be enrolled into the Wolfen Sect!" Gaige was fuming.

He had been in charge of the assessment for so many years, but he had never seen such a group of cowardice young people. Were there any courageous people at all?

Still, no one moved.

Chuck shrugged. He would go up next.

"Let me try!" Chuck strode forward.

"Is this guy not afraid of death? Does he have a death wish?"

"Of course. Look at him! He can't even withstand half a punch, let alone one punch! How ignorant is he! He should just give up! What other choice does he have?"

"It's none of our business if he wants to die. If more people fight Wade, it will consume more of his energy, will it not? When it's time for us to go up, it will be easier for us!"

"That's right! I hope this boy will not let us down!"

They all thought Chuck was a fool.

"It's him?" Liliana was stunned.

The man who had saved Grandpa the previous day also wanted to join the Wolfen Sect?

"That garbage!" Gaige laughed mockingly. Chuck was nothing more than a piece of trash in his eyes. "Wade can defeat him using just 30% of his strength!"

"That's right!" Liliana did not like Chuck either. In fact, she even hated him.

Chuck was so rude to her the previous day. When she offered to pay him, he should have just accepted the money. Why did he have to pretend?

Chuck stepped forward slowly. Wade shook his head indifferently and said, "One punch!"

Bam!

Wade threw a punch!

He threw a punch at Chuck!

"I think... he will fly ten meters away!"

"I don't think so. I think such an ignorant person would be killed with a single punch!"

Everyone was waiting to see how Chuck would be defeated. They all felt that Chuck would not be able to withstand Wade's punch at all.

Chapter 807

No one in the fair was optimistic about Chuck!

Wade was big and sturdy while Chuck looked much weaker than him. With such a huge gap in terms of physique, the result of this punch was already predicted!

Chuck would be sent flying with a single punch, with blood coming out of his mouth!

Facing the imminent punch, Chuck's eyes turned cold. The power of that punch was definitely very strong!

Chuck could not deny it!

On the other hand, with Chuck's current physical fitness, it would not be a problem for him to take the punch.

However, Chuck did not intend to allow Wade to punch him!

Whoosh!

Wade threw a shocking punch at him!

When he was about to hit Chuck, Chuck dodged!

Wade punched the air!

After a few seconds of silence, the audience burst into an uproar!

"He dodged? F*ck, isn't that against the rules?"

"I was wondering why he dared to go up the stage. It turns out that he did not want to fight Wade at all."

"Do you think that he would go head-on against Wade with his weak body?"

Wade squinted his eyes!

Gaige and Liliana were a little stunned.

"This kid? He actually dodged Wade's punch? That's rare," Gaige said.

"That's right. Judging from his speed just now, he seems to have some combat skills. However, it could also be because Wade was caught off guard. Otherwise, he would not have been able to dodge Wade's punch!" Liliana shook her head. She felt that it was not a big deal that Chuck was able to dodge Wade's punch.

"I think so too. His dodging skills was poor and his steps were unorganized, like an untrained person. Judging from his physique, if he was hit by Wade earlier, he would be either dead or injured! This kid is playing some tricks! But then, does this mean he passed?" Gaige asked.

"I guess he did. Enroll him into our Wolfen Sect. I'll teach him personally. Let's see how long he will endure my training!" Liliana's beautiful eyes shone.

She really despised Chuck!

Did he think that he was great just because he had saved her grandfather?

Humph!

"Good! You've passed!" Gaige said coldly.

Chuck walked aside.

Wade hesitated but did not say anything. He stared at Chuck for a moment, and then he became cold again.

"F*ck! He passed? We don't even have to battle with Wade directly, so long as we can avoid his punch. Let me go next!" A young man stepped forward excitedly!

He moved swiftly as he was a basketball player. His reaction and speed was extremely fast, and he would definitely be able to dodge his punch!

"Come on!" The young man said enthusiastically.

Other people in the fair were also eager to try. They realized that they did not have to fight Wade directly and could just avoid his punches. The level of difficulty had been reduced substantially!

If Chuck could do it earlier, they could do it too!

Wade squinted his eyes and threw a punch!

"I'll dodge! Ah!"

Bam!

Before the young man could dodge, Wade's fist had hit him!

He could not dodge his punch at all!

The fist hit him directly!

He was sent flying while spitting out blood, then fainted when he fell to the ground.

The audience was shocked again!

"Oh my goodness!"

"He couldn't dodge it?"

"How did that kid manage to dodge just now?"

They could not believe it!

If Chuck could do it, why couldn't they?

Chuck's face was expressionless. Did those people think that it was easy for him to dodge it?

It was not easy at all!

The speed of Wade's attack was extremely fast. It was actually even harder for him to dodge his attack than to attack him directly!

Because if he needed to dodge his attack, it meant that he would need to be faster than Wade!

How many people could actually do that?

"Next!" Wade's voice rang loud.

Who would still dare to challenge him?

Finally, after Gaige spoke, some people dared to go up to the stage, but none of them could withstand Wade's punch. Only three of them managed to dodge his punch!

In the end, only five people were able to pass the assessment!

That included Chuck.

"Alright, the rest of you can leave now. Five of you can go back to rest for tonight. We'll meet tomorrow at the Wolfen Sect!" Gaige said coldly.

Chuck shrugged!

Other participants in the fair dispersed in disappointment. Many people were dissatisfied with Chuck as they thought that it was pure luck that he was able to dodge Wade's attack!

By the time they wanted to use the same tactic, Wade was already on his alert. Therefore, they could not get past him easily!

When the other four went back, three of them were injured.

"What's your name?" Liliana walked over to Chuck and asked.

"Chuck Cannon!"

"Let me tell you, you won't always get lucky by playing tricks like that. You dodged badly just now. If it was me, I would be able to defeat you with just one move! Battling requires the basic skills. If you use tricks, you won't be able to last much longer!" Liliana said coldly.

"You are right." Chuck wanted to ignore her.

Since he had become a member of the Wolfen Sect, Chuck did not want to get involved in other matters. Furthermore, he did not want to create any problems.

He planned to stay and learn in the Wolfen Sect for no more than 20 days!

Because Chuck did not have much time.

Chuck just left.

Liliana was angry. She decided that she was going to make things harder for Chuck!

Humph!

The next day, Chuck took a cab to the same place which he had been the previous day along with all his luggage. The other four people had arrived as well.

The four of them did not even take a glance at Chuck. They still thought that Chuck was incompetent and only passed by using tricks the previous day.

They felt that they could have beaten him up easily. Therefore, they just ignored Chuck!

Chuck was not bothered by them either.

"Alright, the five of you, get into the car with us. Remember, after entering the Wolfen Sect, all communication with the outside world must be cut off!" Liliana said coldly.

Chuck was prepared!

Everyone handed in their phones and sat in Liliana's car. They then headed toward the Wolfen Sect.

Similar to what Chuck had imagined, the Wolfen Sect was located deep in the mountains.

It was where the real lessons would begin!

Chuck was extremely excited to improve his skills, but he was concerned with the number of days that he needed to stay there.

"We have arrived. Get off the car!"

Liliana was indifferent. Chuck and the others got off the car and saw that the Wolfen Sect was like an ancient temple. It was an antique building and had obviously been around for many years. Like a hidden family, it had been passed down for many generations!

It was the real birthplace of the combat experts!

The Wolfen Sect!
