

Chapter 859

Hearing Willa's words, Yvette asked, "Auntie Logan, what do you mean?"

"Be careful! You have to be careful!" Willa had decided that she was going to leave.

Adriana would never let her off the hook.

Karen had already been assassinated. Willa knew her own strength, and it was impossible for her to resist.

"Auntie Logan, do you know something? Who is it that assassinated Karen? Is it the Yeager family from the hidden families?" Yvette tugged on Willa, refusing to release her.

Judging from Willa's expression, Yvette felt that that would be their last meeting.

The first person she suspected was Sabina.

Because at that critical moment, the person with the most obvious motive to kill Karen was Sabina.

Sabina wanted to take revenge on Chuck. Therefore, perhaps one of the steps in her revenge plan was to get someone to assassinate Karen?

"I can't say it now. Be careful!" Willa shook her head. 2

If she said it, Chuck would be in great danger.

At the moment, Chuck still didn't have the strength to fight against Adriana.

"Is it not the Yeager family? The Cannon family, then? Or is it Adriana?" Yvette continued questioning.

"Be careful, I'm leaving," Willa struggled to break free.

Yvette did not let go, "Auntie Logan, don't go. If Chuck finds out, he'll be sad!"

With how attached Chuck was to Willa, Yvette felt that there was something going on.

Could it be possible that Chuck had feelings for Willa as well?

"At this point, I have to leave for Chucky's sake!" Willa decided resolutely.

Karen was suddenly assassinated, which disrupted all of her plans.

Every single one of them.

She had still been thinking about when she would get a chance to tell Chuck her true feelings.

She had even been honest to Chuck. Truthfully, that night at Patricia's house, he had not been dreaming after getting drunk.

They had slept together.

Willa's memory of that night was still fresh.

However, Chuck still thought it was a dream.

Willa sometimes felt sad.

Nevertheless, she could not reveal it.

If she did, how would Chuck react?

Willa did not know what to do.

After experiencing shock, Chuck would probably hate her.

After all, Chuck had never harboured any feelings towards her.

Under such circumstances, Chuck would probably fall apart if he knew that had happened.

"Auntie Logan, you have to make it clear!"

"Auntie Karen has passed away now. Do you want someone to assassinate Chuck too?" Willa's beautiful eyes glistened with tears.

Her words stupefied Yvette.

And, at that moment, Willa left.

She wanted to go to a place without anyone else.

However, she still wanted to see Chuck one last time.

It was the first time she had harboured feelings towards a man.

Therefore, she headed to a certain place, where she waited and waited...

A car came from afar.

It was Chuck's car.

Willa was relieved that Adriana had not taken action on Chuck yet.

However, it was on the condition that Chuck did not know that Adriana was the one who planned Karen's death.

"Chucky, I'm leaving. You have to take good care of yourself. Staying alive is the most important thing... When you have your mother's strength, then you can consider dealing with Adriana," Willa muttered to herself.

Chuck's car whizzed past.

How could he have noticed a pair of beautiful eyes staring at him?

Chuck had driven away long ago, but Willa was still watching.

She had no other way.

She was not willing to part with him, because it was her last time seeing him.

Finally, she left. She walked and walked, until she arrived at the place where Karen was assassinated. Then, tears trickled down her face.

She couldn't help but cry.

The river below was terrifyingly turbulent.

Karen had died inside, and her body had not yet been found.

Willa felt sorry for Karen.

Since Karen had ended up in a river like that, she would never see the light of day again.

She took a deep breath. Waiting for death was not her favourite pastime.

She wanted to fight for her life.

She also wanted to see if she could kill the person who assassinated Karen.

However, Willa did not realize that someone else had appeared behind her at some point...

Chuck drove home.

Since there were no major issues with Adriana, did that mean it was Sabina?

Yet, he could not go and see Sabina like how he had done with Adriana.

Because the two of them had a falling out.

If he went to see her, the possibility of him coming back was too low, because there was a ninety percent chance that the person who could assassinate Karen was by Sabina's side.

Chuck was self-aware. With his current abilities, he had improved immensely even when he was in the Wolfen Sect.

However, there was still a big gap between him and Karen.

He could not afford not to avenge Karen.

He had to keep himself alive.

That was why he had to be incredibly careful when it came to questioning Sabina.

"Hubby, have you seen Auntie Logan?" Yvette rushed out.

Yvette finally snapped out of her daze.

When she came to her senses, she realized that Willa was long gone.

Yvette had already searched many places.

However, Willa's phone was also turned off. It was clear. Willa wanted to die alone.

"No. Isn't Auntie Logan at home?" Chuck was stunned.

What was the meaning of this?

Why did Yvette look so anxious?

"She was here earlier, but now she's gone. I think she just said her last words to me just now. I'm afraid that she's being spied on, and someone wants her to die," Yvette's heart was filled with remorse.

She had not stopped Willa.

"What? Auntie Logan is going to die?" The light in Chuck's eyes turned dull...

Chapter 860

How could that be possible?

Why did Willa want to leave? Who wanted to kill her?

"Yvette, what on earth is going on?" Chuck was truly anxious.

There had been too many things to deal with as of late. The last time Willa had returned to the country, he hadn't had a good talk with her. At present, an assassination had been plotted against Karen and Willa rushed back.

However, Chuck had to look for Adriana in a hurry and take over everything for Karen at the same time.

That was why they had only met briefly without any chance to exchange words.

However, was the reason why the gentle Willa left because she knew she was going to die?

Chuck couldn't accept it.

He absolutely couldn't accept it.

He still had a lot left to say to Willa. It was so much that three days and three nights were not enough for him.

"Auntie Logan suddenly told me that she was going to leave, and she wanted me to be..." Yvette cut herself off.

At such a critical moment, she could not tell Chuck that!

"She wanted you to be what?"

"Nothing. I feel like something's going to happen to Auntie Logan. I've already searched everywhere, but I can't find her."

Yvette was also very anxious.

She blamed herself.

Why had she still let Willa leave under such circumstances?

"I know what to do!" Chuck called Willa.

Unfortunately, her phone had already been turned off.

Chuck has a bad premonition. Who wanted to kill Willa?

Was it the person who gave the order to assassinate Karen?

Chuck immediately called Betty. "Betty, Auntie Logan is missing. I want you to send someone to look for her right now!"

"One moment, Young Master!" Betty immediately went to deal with it.

She could hear how anxious Chuck was.

Chuck went out to look for Willa. He could not let anything happen to her.

Yvette followed him silently.

"Alexandrina, help me find someone!" Chuck was too worried about Willa and called Alexandrina to inform her about the situation.

There were too many assassins in the killer organization.

Not just in the United States, but all around the world too. With so many eyes, it was more likely that they could find Willa!

"Alright, tell me who it is!"

"Willa!"

"Okay, I'll send someone to help you look for her! ...Chuck, I'm sorry for your loss!" Alexandrina had been constantly thinking of visiting him.

From the moment Chuck returned to the United States, she had wanted to go over too.

However, she was worried she would bother Chuck.

"Thank you!" replied Chuck after a brief moment of silence.

"Come and look for me if you have time. I... miss you."

"Okay."

After hanging up the phone, Chuck began to search for her based on his gut feeling.

Based on Willa's personality, where would she go?

Chuck remembered how stunningly beautiful Willa had been the first time he had seen her in Central City.

The two of them had gone through too much in the past year.

They had a lot of memories together.

Willa had already died once. Therefore, Chuck did not want her to die a second time.

"Willa, Auntie Logan, where are you?" thought Chuck.

It was as if Chuck's heart had been torn apart.

Karen had already been assassinated. If Willa died somewhere too, Chuck would fall apart.

Chuck drove a car around searching for her like crazy.

"Hubby, Auntie Logan will be fine!" Yvette comforted him.

"Yes." Chuck wildly hit the gas.

He hoped that he could see Willa within the next second.

However, no matter how many seconds passed, Willa did not appear.

Chuck's heart was extremely tense.

He was afraid that when he found Willa, she would already be a frozen corpse.

"Please do not let that happen!" Chuck pleaded internally.

"Hubby, did Auntie Logan tell you anything?" Yvette suddenly recalled a memory. When she went to look for them after Chuck had been rescued by Willa in the Amazon, she saw Willa kissing Chuck.

Did Chuck not know about that until now?

"No. I regret not having talked to her after returning to the United States this time!" Chuck lamented remorsefully.

He had not even known when Karen was assassinated.

Chuck had not said much during his last call with his mother.

Everything had seemed so normal, but Karen was assassinated out of the blue!

Yvette wanted to speak her mind because Willa was determined to die this time.

However, if Willa had not said it herself, then how could Yvette?

"Honey, what do you want to say?" Chuck questioned.

"Nothing."

Screech!

Chuck immediately slammed on the brakes.

He felt that something was off.

"Hubby, what's wrong with you?" asked Yvette.

"I suspect that Auntie Logan has been targeted. Considering that person could even assassinate Karen, Auntie Logan definitely wouldn't be able to survive. I think Auntie Logan is going to die, she's going to... no, I absolutely can't let something like this happen!"

Chuck grabbed his cell phone to make a call.

That was right!

Sabina!

"Sabina, it's me you want to confront. Why the need to kill my mother, and take action on Willa too?" thought Chuck.

Was she planning to kill off everyone around him one by one?

Chuck suspected that that was Sabina's intention.

He made the call.

After more than ten seconds, the call connected.

"Sabina Yeager!" Chuck roared in rage.

"It was you who sent someone to assassinate my mother. I will find you! But right now, you need to let Willa go. She hasn't done anything. She's innocent! Let her go! I'm begging you, this is just between you and me, don't involve the innocent! Say something, Sabina!"

Chuck roared into the phone.

"What do you want me to say?" replied Sabina's icy voice.

"Let Willa go, I'll go and see you!"

"I won't. You say she's innocent? I don't think so. I want her dead!" Sabina refused stonily.

Chapter 861

Meanwhile, in the Yeager family.

Sabina's voice suddenly turned frosty.

The members of the Yeager Family exchanged glances of dismay.

They were in the process of reporting the Yeager family's situation to Sabina.

However, Sabina's cellphone suddenly rang.

Initially, Sabina hadn't planned on picking up.

However, the phone kept ringing. As soon as Sabina took a look, her beautiful eyes immediately took on an icy gaze.

In the end, she answered the call.

"Why is Miss Yeager angry? Who is the one calling?"

"I don't know. It's rare to see Miss Yeager like this! Something big must have happened."

"No way. With the Yeager family's current situation, everything is going great!"

The members of the Yeager family didn't understand the meaning of Sabina's sudden anger.

Nevertheless, they remained quiet as they didn't dare to interrupt her at that moment.

"Sabina, are you admitting that you hired someone to assassinate my mother?"

In the blink of an eye, Chuck's rage had reached its boiling point.

"Yes, I was the one who sent someone to kill her! Isn't that what you want to think?" Sabina retorted in a chilling voice.

"Don't lie to me. You are not who you used to be!"

Chuck knew that Sabina had not taken action on him while he was in the country. On the other hand, in the United States, she had led the Yeager family to suppress the majority of Karen's business in all aspects!

That was the start of her confrontation towards him.

She had changed.

No matter how she explained, it would be useless.

"It's you who changed first. From the moment you shot me, it's you who changed, forcing me to change too!" Sabina spat coldly.

"If you want to deal with me, just come at me. Why did you hire someone to assassinate my mother? Why?!" Chuck roared like a madman.

Without Karen, he was nothing.

Therefore, at the thought of her death, Chuck was on the verge of collapsing.

"Because I want to! Not only do I want to kill Karen and Willa, I want to kill everyone around you too! Since you said so, then I will start doing it!"

In an instant, Sabina showed her terrifying colours.

"I'll say it again. Let Willa go. If there's anything, just direct it at me!" Chuck bellowed.

"No, I have to kill all of your people, and then I will kill you last! You're forcing me to do this!"

"Let her go, let her..."

"I won't, I won't. Get ready to collect her dead body!"

Bang!

Enraged by Sabina, his phone fell to the ground.

The call ended because of that.

No one in the Yeager family dared to speak. After all, everyone could see that Sabina was in a rage.

Who was the person who had called?

They were just too curious.

How did the caller infuriate Sabina to such an extent?

"Miss Yeager, are you alright?" a member of the Yeager family asked gingerly.

"It's nothing! Starting from now, I need you to search for it!" Sabina fumed.

"Search for what, Miss Yeager?"

They were all confused, unable to understand the meaning behind Sabina's words.

"Someone had framed me! I didn't do anything, but someone had framed me!" Sabina was feeling both shocked and angry at the moment. "Hold on, from today onwards, keep an eye on everything Adriana from the Whitlock family does!"

"Yes!"

"What about the Cannon family, Miss Yeager? They still haven't shown up yet."

"The Cannon family too. I can feel it. The Three Greatest Households are about to turn against each other after being dormant for so long!"

Sabina felt that way.

Since she was not the one who had killed Karen, so who was it?

It was hard to decide anything about the Cannon family.

However, it was very likely that it was Adriana.

It must be Adriana who was stirring things up. Nevertheless, didn't she like Chuck? Why did she have to kill Karen?

Sabina simply couldn't understand.

"Yes! Don't worry, Miss Yeager! We'll take care of it right away!"

Sabina's beautiful eyes gazed ahead in an ice-cold stare.

Adriana, Adriana! muttered Sabina in her head.

Clutching his phone, Chuck decided there was no need to probe any further. After all, Sabina herself had already admitted it.

She was the person who had sent someone to assassinate his mother.

"Hubby," for the first time, Yvette witnessed how terrifying Chuck was.

Chuck had really seemed to be going mad on the call just moments ago.

"The person who killed my mother is Sabina!"

Glaring ahead with his bloodshot eyes, he lamented, "Sabina, my mother is innocent, why didn't you target me instead?"

At that moment, Chuck was filled with guilt.

He was so sorry towards his mother.

"Hubby, it must be her!" spat Yvette in fury as her gaze turned icy.

Sabina had assassinated Karen before Yvette had the chance to fight Karen.

She could not let go of that grudge.

"Yes! It's her!" At present, Chuck only wanted to know Willa's whereabouts.

Willa was innocent too.

"Hubby, your phone is ringing!" Yvette informed.

Chuck quickly answered the call. It was Alexandrina calling.

"Chuck, one of my assassins has found Willa's tracks."

"What? Send it to me right now!"

"Okay!"

As soon as the call ended, a rumbling sound could be heard.

A plane flew over them in the sky.

It was Betty!

Alexandrina had found her, but Betty had also found Willa through her own means.

"Young Master, get on, I've found Willa's tracks," Betty shouted from the plane. 1

Chuck and Yvette got out of the car and climbed up the rope ladder.

"Willa was over there; she appeared there an hour ago!" Betty pointed to the same place Alexandrina had reported to Chuck.

"Hurry up!" Chuck roared.

Betty accelerated the plane.

"Hubby, Auntie Logan will be fine. She'll definitely be fine!" Yvette tried to comfort him.

"Yes, I will not let my Auntie Logan die!" resolved Chuck as his eyes shone with determination. 12
