

As the second Young Master of the Dokko family, Jonas had always been arrogant and a bully in Mid Sky City. He was fearless, whereas his cousin sister, Tanya, was not.

Tanya nodded her head slowly but still ordered, “Don’t bully the people here!”

Tanya was kind-hearted. It was a big contrast when compared to Jonas’s arrogance.

At that moment, Jonas glared at Darryl and said coldly, “Young man, as my cousin requested, I won’t give you any trouble. Bow to me to apologize and we’ll be even.”

When he said that, Jonas was so arrogant. In his heart, he felt that apologizing with a bow was the greatest forgiveness.

When he heard that, Darryl laughed lightly and said calmly, “You were driving the horse carriage recklessly, and ignored the safety of the pedestrians. You should be the one apologizing to the pedestrians here. You’re turning things the other way round now, and asking me to bow to apologize to you. What a joke!”

Jonas was furious at that instant. He looked at Darryl and shouted, “You’re asking for death!”

Just at that moment, a dozen of the servants from the Dokko family arrived when they heard about the incident.

Jonas did not hesitate to point at Darryl as he shouted, “Tie up this clueless guy!”

Once he spoke, the servants went over quickly and surrounded Darryl.

Darryl was not worried at all when he saw them surround him. While the servants were cultivators, Darryl could feel they were only at Martial Marquis level and were no threat to him at all.

Gonggong, who was beside Darryl, was also incredibly calm. There were only a few people from the Dokko family, and they were trying to attack Darryl? They have overestimated themselves.

“Everyone, stop!” Tanya trembled as she could not help but stop them.

The next second, Tanya looked closely at Darryl. She was surprised and delighted, “Darren? Why are you here?”

Tanya did not notice it was Darryl earlier and had thought he was only a pedestrian. When she saw he dared to argue with Jonas in front of so many people, she could not help but look at him closer. She then recognized him immediately. Darren was the person that helped her at the Green Dragon City Gate previously.

Tanya was not only kind, but she would also never forget to repay other people’s kindness to her. When she saw Darryl suddenly, she was surprised and delighted.

At that time, she still did not know that Darren was indeed Darryl, a famous person across the nine continents.

When he saw Tanya recognize him, Darryl smiled and greeted, “Miss Tanya Synder! How are you?”

Tanya smiled lightly and was about to speak, but she was interrupted by Jonas.

Jonas was dragging his voice as he checked Darryl out. “I see...So, this is the guy we bumped into at the Green Dragon City Gate. What happened?”

You can't stay on at Westrington, so you're seeking refuge in Middle Terra?"

Jonas had always thought Darryl was a refugee. When he and his cousin had escaped Green Dragon City Gate, he thought it was because of the kindness of the minister at Green Dragon City Gate. It had nothing to do with Darryl.

When he recognized Darryl, Jonas thought that he was seeking refuge again. However, Darryl was not bothered by Jonas's sarcasm.

"Jonas, can you stop talking?" Tanya scolded with her brows furrowed as she could not stand it anymore.

Jonas shrugged as if he was not bothered, but he continued to stare at Darryl with contempt.

Tanya looked at Darryl and asked with concern, "Darren, why did you come to Middle Terra suddenly? Are you in some trouble? Tell me; maybe I can help you."

Sigh!

Darryl took a deep breath when he saw Tanya's concern and felt warm in his heart.

'Not only is Tanya not arrogant, but she is also helpful. I'm so proud to have a friend like her,' he thought.

Darryl smiled and replied, "I'm here this time to visit the Dokko family."

'What?' Tanya, Jonas, and the others were stunned when they heard that.

The next second, Jonas thought he heard the greatest joke in the world. He could not help but laugh at Darryl. “Visiting the Dokko family? Excuse me, we, the Dokko family, do not have the habit of receiving refugees. Ha-ha!”

His words ridiculed Darryl.

‘The supreme Dokko family, the most influential family in Middle Terra, are not people someone like him can just visit when he wishes,’ Jonas thought.

Darryl furrowed his brows discreetly as his anger boiled in his heart.

Jonas was just too wild. Although the Dokka family were famous in Middle Terra, they were unknown across the nine continents. However, Jonas was still behaving so arrogantly.

Tanya was upset too. ‘My cousin is so rude. Darren helped me at the Green Dragon City Gate. How could Jonas keep teasing him? Although he might be a commoner, what he did at the Green Dragon City Gate was brave and manly.’

Tanya locked her brows. “Jonas, don’t follow me if you’re going to continue to behave like that.”

“Fine, fine! I’ll be quiet. I was just kidding, cousin. Please, don’t be angry.” Jonas shut his mouth.

Though he said that, he still looked at Darryl with eyes filled with contempt.

Darryl did not speak and just smiled coldly.

At that moment, Tanya’s face was filled with curiosity.

“Darren, why are you visiting the Dokko family?” she asked.

Although Darryl was really powerful, he was just an ordinary person. He would not be in any way related to a powerful family like the Dokko family.

Sigh!

Darryl took a deep breath as he looked around and replied seriously, “I shall just tell the truth. Master Rama requested me to ask the Dokko family to send some of their people to stand guard at the Chaotic Mountain Range. There is an emergency there and we cannot afford any delays. Also, my real name is not Darren. My real identity is Darryl Darby, Sect Master of Elysium Gate from World Universe.”

Honestly, Darryl did not wish to expose his identity in the middle of the street. However, the matter at the Chaotic Mountain Range could not be delayed any further. The Snyder and Dokko family had great relationships for generations. Tanya is the eldest Junior Miss of the Snyder family, and she would definitely be able to meet Sir Dokko. As for a douchebag like Jonas, he was really hopeless.

After he spoke, the street was in complete silence. Everyone looked at Darryl and was not able to speak.

‘This...This guy is Darryl? The famous man across the nine continents?’

‘Is this for real?’

Tanya stared blankly at Darryl, stunned.

‘He’s Darryl? No wonder he’s so powerful, and there was a special aura releasing from his body,’ Tanya thought.

Jonas was also stunned and could not regain his thoughts.

Finally, after one minute, Jonas regained his thoughts and laughed at Darryl while pointing at him. “What did you just say? You’re Darryl, the Elysium Gate Sect Master, and Westrington’s Emperor? Young man, stop bluffing. A person like you can only qualify to be a disciple of the Elysium Gate. If you really are Darryl, then I’m North Moana’s Emperor, Yang Jian. Ha-ha!”

After he spoke, the rest of the people regained their thoughts and started laughing with him.

‘That’s right. This young man dressed so poorly. How could he be Darryl, the infamous Elysium Gate Sect Master?’

‘Besides, Darryl has just finished battling with the North Moana Continent. He must still be busy in the World Universe, settling the situation after the battle. How could he have come to Middle Terra on his own?’

Darryl laughed but did not speak when he saw they did not believe him.

As for Gonggong, she was furious. She glared at Jonas. “You...”

Finally, Tanya gathered her thoughts and looked at Darryl while still in shock. “You really are the Elysium Gate Sect Master, Darryl?”

Although everyone was doubting Darryl, Tanya believed him. ‘My friend would not lie to me.’

However, Tanya still found it unbelievable. No matter what, Darryl was too famous across the nine continents. She had always seen him as a hero and her idol. In her imagination, as Darryl was the Westrington Emperor and Elysium Gate Sect Master, he must be surrounded by people everywhere he went. He was just like a celebrity.

At that moment, Darryl was dressed so casually, and he only brought a woman with him. This was completely different from what Tanya had imagined.

Darryl smiled and nodded when he faced Tanya's questions. "Of course I'm Darryl. I'm telling the truth. Why? Is someone pretending to be me?"

Jonas could not help but laugh coldly. "Young man, stop pretending. Let me tell you, there are countless people pretending to be Darryl."

He stared fiercely at Darryl. "For the past few years, there have been countless people claiming to be Darryl and trying to take advantage of my family. Do you know how they all ended up?"

Jonas was right. For over ten years, many cultivators impersonated Darryl and tried to cheat the Dokko family as Darryl became more famous. Once their real identities were revealed, their fates ended terribly.

This was not only happening in Middle Terra but in the other continents too. However, Darryl knew very little about it.

When he heard that, Darryl could not cry or laugh. He wished to take out the golden mask to prove his identity, but after giving it further thought, he decided not to.

'Jonas is confident that I'm a fake. Even if I take out the golden mask that represents the identity of the Elysium Gate Sect Master, it won't be useful.'

Jonas thought that Darryl was worried and when he saw Darryl was not responding, he laughed. "You're scared now, aren't you? Got nothing else to say?"

Then, Jonas looked towards Gonggong. "You, beautiful lady. If he's Darryl, then who are you? Darryl's wife?"

Gonggong was really attractive and arrogant but elegant. She was completely qualified to be Darryl's woman.

Jonas had a plan. If she was really Darryl's woman and could prove Darryl's identity, then the most he would need to do was apologize. If she could not prove Darryl's identity, then it means he was lying.

At that moment, everyone's gaze landed on Gonggong.

When she saw everyone was looking at her, Gonggong started to blush. She then bit her lips and said coldly, "It's true; He's Darryl, but I am not his wife."

Gonggong was really arrogant, and she had a vendetta against Darryl. She was only with Darryl because of Yang Jian's plans, and her goal was to kill him. Why would she say she was Darryl's wife?

When he heard that, Jonas could not help but laugh. "Since you're not his wife, how can you prove that he is Darryl?"

"I..." Gonggong blushed, and she could not respond.

Everyone shook their heads discreetly when they saw that. They all looked at Darryl with contempt.

'Even the woman beside him is not able to prove his identity. This guy must be lying.'

At that moment, Jonas looked coldly at Darryl. "Alright, enough of this! You, stop pretending. Even if you were sent by Rama, the Dokko family will not see you. The monk that claimed he was Rama came to our family two days ago. He was spouting all sorts of nonsense about how the Raksasa Tribe, which had been exiled thousands of years ago, were on the other side of the Chaotic Mountain Range. And something about some Emperor. He had no proof of any of it. He was completely a cheat just trying to bluff his way."

He ordered a servant near him, “Prepare a new carriage immediately. Also, if this guy visits, chase him away immediately!”

Darryl did not know how to react, but at the same time, he was burning with rage. ‘Jonas is really too wild and arrogant. He is so certain that I’m lying and it will be difficult for me to meet the Dokko family. What shall I do?’

At that moment, Tanya furrowed her brows as she looked at Darryl, feeling mixed emotions.

‘Is Darren really lying?’ she wondered.

Just as Tanya was deep in thought, Jonas walked over and tried to impress her. “Cousin Sister! The new carriage is ready. Let’s get going to settle our matters immediately. Just ignore this guy.”

Jonas was driving the horse carriage in a hurry because Tanya had a serious family business matter to attend to.

Sigh!

However, Tanya did not get in the carriage immediately. She sighed lightly and walked in front of Darryl, asking him seriously, “You’re really Darryl? You’re not lying to me?”

Although Darryl could not produce any evidence in Tanya’s heart, she still felt that that friend of hers would never lie to her.

Darryl nodded his head seriously.

“Alright!” Tanya had a thought and said softly, “I have an urgent matter to attend to now, we shall chat in detail when I return. Where will you be staying?”

At that moment, Tanya wanted to help Darryl very much, but she could not afford to delay her family business.

Darryl scratched his head and felt a little awkward. He had just arrived at Mid Sky City, so he still did not have a place to live.

The next second, Darryl looked around and saw there was an inn across the street. “I’m staying at that inn. You can come look for me after you’re done with your business.”

When he said that, Darryl felt frustrated.

Jonas had ordered the Dokko family to be aware of him. It would be really difficult for him to meet Sir Dokko. Under such circumstances, his only choice was to get Tanya’s help.

When he saw both of them had left, Darryl turned his head and looked at Gonggong as he smiled bitterly, “Let’s go. We can rest at the inn.”

After he spoke, he walked towards the inn. Gonggong did not reply, but she did not object.

She followed behind slowly and as they were about to arrive at the inn, she asked, "Darryl, you're the Elysium Gate Sect Master and the Emperor of Westrington. Why didn't you just kill that Jonas guy for humiliating and teasing you? You're here to invite the Dokko family to go to the Chaotic Mountain Range, so, why don't you just show your real power and break into the Dokko family? Why go through such trouble?"

When she said that, Gonggong looked like she was in disbelief. She felt that given Darryl's incredible power, he didn't need to be so kind to such a small family.

Darryl smiled and shook his head as he said, "To guard the Chaotic Mountain Range requires all the powers of the nine continents to be united and work together. If I were to break into the Dokko family home and force them into an agreement because of my power, they would want revenge against me. How would we then be able to work together to fight against the Raksasa Tribe?"

Darryl took a deep breath and continued to speak, "I will need to show my sincerity and at the same time make the Dokko family understand that the situation at the Chaotic Mountain Range is not fake. So, I cannot act recklessly."

When she heard that, Gonggong nodded silently. She appeared calm, but she felt incredibly touched in her heart. She did not expect Darryl, who was always cheeky, would be so diligent and thorough in serious matters and had such deep consideration.

Even though he received a lot of help from people at crucial moments, it seemed like him becoming the Westrington Emperor, and the Elysium Gate Sect Master was not from pure luck.

As she thought, Gonggong looked at Darryl with her gaze filled with exceptional colors. At that moment, her impression of Darryl started to change slightly.

When they arrived at the main lobby of the inn, the inn owner greeted them gently, “Dear Sirs, are you staying here? How many rooms do you need?”

Darryl laughed and said, “How many rooms do you think we need?”

He looked at Gonggong cheekily, his eyes shining with evil.

That was right; Darryl was teasing Gonggong intentionally.

The inn owner had been in business for a long time, so he understood what Darryl meant immediately. He smiled and said, “Sure, sure. Both of you are so beautiful, and look like a couple made from heaven. Naturally, you would only need one room.”

As he spoke, the inn owner was about to leave to prepare the room.

At that moment, Gonggong’s face blushed as she stomped her feet in anger. “Who is a couple from heaven with him. Two rooms please!”

When she said that, she glared at Darryl fiercely.

‘Darryl is so cheeky. He intentionally asked the owner to prepare only one room. I am a goddess; how can I sleep in the same room as him!’
Feeling Gonggong’s anger, Darryl was not worried at all.

‘Who would disrespect the Water Goddess, Gonggong? I tricked her but she can’t get mad. This is just so much fun!’

Tanya and Jonas sat in the horse carriage and soon arrived at a brand-new building.

The building was located in the busiest business district in Mid Sky City. It was eight stories tall, and its exterior was fully decorated with large glass pieces, making it look more modern than the red-brick buildings around it.

A huge sign was hung at the entrance to the main hall, which read, 'Dragon Tech.'

This was Paul James's Dragon Tech from World Universe.

After so many years, the nine continents united. With the World Universe on the edge of incredible technological development, many enterprises extended their business to other continents; Dragon Tech did the same.

The building in front of them was the headquarters of Dragon Tech in Middle Terra.

When they entered the main hall, Tanya smiled and said to the people at the front desk, "Excuse me, I'm Tanya Synder from the Synder family. I'm here to meet with your President, Paul James, to discuss a business collaboration."

Dragon Tech came to Middle Terra less than a year ago. With its advanced technology, it became the largest tech company in all of Middle Terra. It was really influential. Under such circumstances, even local entrepreneurs like the Synder family would have to collaborate with them voluntarily.

Half a month ago, Tanya went to Westrington to look for business collaborations but failed. She then returned to Middle Terra, and for the past two days, she came to know that her family intended to collaborate with Dragon Tech. In order to prove her ability, Tanya went to the Dragon Tech headquarters on her own.

The front desk assistant smiled and looked apologetically at Tanya, "I'm sorry, our President has already reviewed the collaboration proposal from the Synder family and he does not intend to collaborate for the time being. So, you may leave."

When she heard that, Tanya lifted her brows and felt awkward. 'Rejected just like that?'

Jonas was frustrated as he shouted at the front desk assistant, "What did you say? He's just a foreign company owner, and he's so arrogant? Do you know who she is? She is the eldest Young Miss of the Synder family. It is your president's honor for her to come visit you in person and to present the collaboration proposal!"

Jonas had always been arrogant; he was instantly furious when he saw his beloved cousin was being rejected.

At that moment, Tanya looked disappointed as she said to Jonas, "Never mind. Let's go; I'll figure something else out."

When she said that, Tanya looked calm, but she was really worried in her heart. Dragon Tech had many advanced technology products from the World Universe. It would be a great loss to the Synder family if they did not collaborate.

When he walked outside, he saw Tanya was upset. "Cousin Sister, what about this, let me help you make an appointment with their president using my identity as the Dokko family's second Young Master."

Jonas looked confident as he said that.

He felt that Dragon Tech refused to collaborate with the Synder family because the Synder family's reputation was small. Dokko family would be different as they were famous in Middle Terra, and he was the Dokko family's second young master, so Dragon Tech would definitely want to meet him.

"Alright!" Tanya replied with not much emotion.

Honestly, Tanya did not want to get Jonas's help, but she had no choice. The Dragon Tech president just did not want to meet her. She could only try with Jonas's help.

Meanwhile, Darryl was looking out of the window in the inn after resting while meditating.

'Why isn't Tanya looking for me yet? I can't afford to wait to meet with Sir Dokko,' Knock. Knock.

Just at that moment, there was a gentle knock on the door. The knock was very soft, and it was obvious the person knocking from outside was being exceptionally careful.

'Finally, Young Miss Sydner is here!' Darryl thought as a smile appeared on his face.

He ran quickly to open the door but was stunned the moment he opened it.

It was not Tanya.

He saw the inn owner was standing outside, looking awkward and troubled.

Behind him were a man and a lady. The man was in his thirties with a well-built figure. It was obvious he trained regularly, and he looked proud and arrogant.

It was Winston Long, the head of security at Dragon Tech.

The lady was Shanice Clenton, the 25-year-old president of a telecommunication company in Mid Sky City. At that moment, Shanice was in a black cheongsam which showed off her exquisite figure, making her look incredibly sexy.

Darryl could not help but take a few more glances at Shanice as his mind was a little numb.

‘What is going on? Why is the inn owner here with a man and a lady in the middle of the night?’ he wondered.

At that moment, the inn owner walked closer to Darryl and said awkwardly, “Mister, the two guests behind me needed a deluxe room for their business meetings. Do you mind leaving this room and I’ll arrange another room for you? What do you think?”

The inn owner’s face looked apologetic as he spoke.

Honestly, the inn owner did not wish to bother Darryl, but with Shanice and Winston beside him, he did not want to find trouble with them.

When he heard that, Darryl furrowed his brow but smiled immediately as he said to the inn owner, “I’m fine staying in this room, and I don’t plan to change; I’m sorry.”

He sounded peaceful, but his tone was firm.

The inn only had two deluxe rooms, which Darryl and Gonggong occupied. The truth was, Darryl did not have any specific requirements for his accommodation, and he would have agreed under normal circumstances. However, that trip to Mid Sky City was important for visiting the Dokko family to discuss the Chaotic Mountain Range. He could not afford any delays.

Most importantly, Darryl was urgently waiting for Tanya to find him, and he did not have the mind to entertain such a petty matter of room changing.

The inn owner smiled bitterly when he saw Darryl had rejected him.

At that moment, Shanice walked forward and checked Darryl out.

“Hey! By the looks of you, you probably spent your fortune to stay a night at such a deluxe room. What about this, I’ll pay you double the room price if you move out of this deluxe room now,” she said arrogantly.

In her eyes, Darryl, who was dressed so poorly, must just be a poor villager.

Shanice’s telecommunication company had just started. In order to speed up its development, she wanted to collaborate with Dragon Tech for a while now. However, she had been rejected multiple times. Shanice found Winston through some connections.

Winston was the head of security at Dragon Tech. Shanice firmly believed that with Winston’s help, she would be able to be connected with Dragon Tech. However, due to such assistance involving work ethics, she did not want to let too many people know about it. As such, Shanice and Winston had agreed to meet at that inn at night to discuss it in detail.

In the end, they came to realize both the deluxe rooms had already been booked.

Shanice and Winston chose that inn for their discussion because it was located the furthest away from Dragon Tech, so they would not be easily seen together. As the head of security, Winston was discussing office matters with outsiders, and that was against the company's regulation. He would be fired if he was discovered.

Shanice was arrogant and did not want an ordinary room for their discussion. As such, after she spoke to the inn owner, she decided to ask Darryl to give up the room.

Since Gonggong occupied the other deluxe room and was resting, Shanice did not want to interrupt her as Gonggong was a woman, which would be inconvenient. That is why she went to look for Darryl.

'Double the price of the room?' Darry thought, stunned.

He smiled and looked at Shanice. "Miss, I'm sorry, but I'm not short of money, and I will not move out of this room. If you really need a room, you can go to another inn!"

'I am the Westrington Emperor, and Elysium Gate Sect Master; would I be short of money?' he thought.

"You!" Shanice bit her lips and was not happy.

'I offered him double the room price yet this poor guy rejected it?' she thought.

The next second, Shanice looked Darryl up and down and recalled something. "I remember now, you were the one arguing with the second Young Master of the Dokko family earlier on the streets in the evening, right? You claim to be the Elysium Gate Sect Master, Darryl? You didn't run away after causing trouble with the Dokko family, and you dare to remain at Mid Sky City?”

Click the link and Join this Telegram channel for daily updates - THE ULTIMATE HUSBAND

As she spoke, Shanice's words were filled with contempt. She continued to say, "Three times! Is that fine now? Let me tell you, I've seen many poor people like you. You pretended to be Darryl during the day to get money, right? You refused to shift to another room because you wanted more money. So I am giving you three times the room price; take it and get lost!"

Earlier in the evening, Darryl had an argument with Jonas on the street. That incident spread all over Mid Sky City, and Shanice witnessed it when she was passing the street. As such, she could recognize Darryl at that moment.

Darryl could not help but laugh, "Ha-ha! You're right, I don't just want money. I just don't want to shift to another room. Don't mention three times the price; even if you give me ten times or a hundred times the room price, I still won't shift."

When he said that, Darryl's eyes were filled with ridicule.

'Oh no, why do I always have to meet so many self-absorbed and arrogant people?' he thought.

Winston, who was on the side, could not stand it anymore as he stared at Darryl and said, "You have no manners! Young man, we're showing you respect but you don't appreciate it!"

He walked beside Shanice and tried to impress her. "Miss Long, you don't have to waste time with a person like him. Shall I teach him a lesson?"

As he spoke, Watson stared closely at Shanice's body, his eyes almost straight.

Shanice was a famous beautiful lady in Mid Sky City, and Watson had been eyeing her for a long time. Unfortunately, he just never had the opportunity, so when Shanice went to look for him to ask about her plan to collaborate with Dragon Tech, Watson was incredibly excited.

It was actually Watson's idea to have their discussion at the inn. He was planning to take advantage of Shanice when they were discussing their business.

He became furious when he saw Darryl was messing up his plans by refusing to give up the room.

'Right!' Shanice nodded when she saw Watson was speaking.

The next second, Shanice laughed coldly at Darryl and said, "Do you know who the person beside me is? He is the head of security at Dragon Tech. You'll be in big trouble if you upset him!"

At that point in time, Shanice looked really arrogant.

Dragon Tech was a large tech company from World Universe. Its policy was highly secured, and even their security officers were selected diligently. Shanice believed that with just a few words from Watson, Darryl would be thrown onto the streets.

'Dragon Tech?' Darryl thought, stunned. Then a big smile appeared on his face. 'This is really unexpected. Paul's Dragon Tech has expanded to Middle Terra; that's great!'

Crack.

When Gonggong, who was in the next room, heard the commotion outside, she opened a small gap in the door. She was stunned when she saw what was happening.

‘What is going on?’ she wondered.

Gonggong was a very observant person, and she immediately understood what was happening. She smiled as she observed them quietly.

‘Darryl is always cheeky; let’s see how he’ll settle these two locals that are giving him trouble.’

When they checked into the inn, Darryl teased Gonggong, and she was still burning with anger. She was glad when she saw he was being forced to give up his room.

Seeing Darryl smiling but not speaking, Watson stepped forward and said, “Bastard! Did you hear her? Leave immediately if you are smart!”

‘He’s such a cheapskate and he’s staying in a deluxe room! How dare he be so rude with my goddess!’ Watson thought.

The inn owner could not help but pull Darryl aside and said softly, “Mister, you don’t want to upset these people. You better change your room immediately.”

At that time, the inn owner was really worried. ‘What is wrong with this guy? He isn’t worried about getting into trouble, but I still want to do my business!’

“It’s fine!” Darryl smiled and consoled the inn owner. He then turned around and entered his room. He sat on the chair, looking all relaxed.

Darryl was not bothered by Shanice and Watson at all. At that moment, he was only thinking about when Tanya would arrive. No matter what, meeting Sir Dokko of the Dokko family distraught and convincing them to send someone to Chaotic Mountain Range as early as possible was of the utmost importance.

Watson saw Darryl returning to the room and completely ignoring him. He felt humiliated at that instant and roared angrily, "You are asking for death!"

He was the head of security and was considered a famous person. Darryl completely ignored him; if others found out, his reputation would be in shambles.

Darryl pretended that he did not hear Watson's angry roar. He sat in the room and lifted his teacup, ready to take a sip of tea.

Shanice bit her lips, and her body was trembling with anger when she saw that.

'This poor guy is ignoring me. How ridiculous!'

Finally, Watson could not help but roared loudly when he saw Shanice was furious.

He walked over and pointed at Darryl. "Are you deaf? Did you not hear what I said?"

'My goddess Shanice is watching me. This is the perfect opportunity for me to show off to her. I must teach this guy a lesson to show my power. Later when we're together, maybe Shanice will fall for me,' he thought, feeling excited.

He then roared loudly, "Come here!"

Then, 20 huge men rushed over instantly. They were Dragon Tech's security, and Watson was their leader. They followed him that night to keep guard.

Once they entered the room, a few men dressed in black asked, “Brother Son, what shall we do?”

When he heard that, Darryl almost spit his teeth out, he thought it was hilarious.

‘Why did this guy let his people call him Brother Son? Ha-ha-ha!’

“What are you laughing about?” Watson said, furious.

Then, he turned to Shanice and said, “Miss Shanice, what do you want me to do with this guy? Let me release your anger.”

‘This poor guy dared to humiliate me. He wants to die!’

Shanice glanced at Darryl and saw him sitting there drinking his tea, looking all casual. At that instant, Shanice’s body trembled with fury.

In the next second, Shanice stepped on her stilettos. She stomped her feet and said, “Ask him to call me ‘Aunty!’ Then, beat him up and throw him to the streets!”

When he heard that, Watson nodded and looked at Darryl with an evil grin, “Bastard, did you hear that? Call Miss Shanice ‘Aunty’ now. Otherwise...”

As he spoke, a dozen men in black pulled out long sticks. The sticks were not originally from Middle Terra and were brought in by Dragon Tech from World Universe to equip the security officers.

At that moment, Watson looked really arrogant as he stared at Darryl and said coldly, “Bastard, I heard you were looking for trouble with the second Young Master of the Dokko family. He spared you because he’s the second Young Master of the Dokko family. However, things are different when you’re looking for trouble with me. I won’t give you any chances.”

He had a murderous gaze as he added, “Kneel on the ground now and greet Miss Shanice ‘Aunty’ to apologize. Then, you may leave safely. Otherwise, you’re leaving as a cripple.”

Shanice smiled sinisterly as she stared at Darryl arrogantly. “What a poor bastard. You’ll see what’s waiting for you when you don’t respect me!”

Gonggong, who was in the other room, lifted her brows. She looked closely at Darryl and wished to know how he would handle the situation.

All these people were not powerful. If Darryl wanted to, he could hurt them easily. That would be a problem! However, would Darryl be able to stand not doing anything?

In the room, Darryl was sitting down, looking relaxed. He looked Shanice up and down and smiled. “What if I don’t kneel and greet her?”

He turned to Watson and enunciated each word carefully. “You are Watson, right? The stick that Dragon Tech equipped you with, was for you to protect the company’s property, and the company’s employees. Not for you to misuse to cause trouble.”

Watson furrowed his brows, upset.

“Who do you think you are? You think you’re qualified to lecture me?” he chuckled.

When she saw Darryl not willing to surrender, Shanice stomped her feet, “Brother Watson, don’t waste time talking to him! Teach him a lesson!”

When he got the order, Watson waved his hand immediately, and at that moment, his men gathered around and waved the sticks in their hands.

When he saw that, the inn owner that was hiding outside sighed discreetly and shook his head. He could not help but break out in a cold sweat for Darryl.

‘Even if you are not short of money, you have no support. Why would you get in trouble with Shanice and Watson? How unwise,’ he thought.

Darryl smiled when he saw a dozen men swinging their sticks at him, but he did not panic at all.

Watson and the other security officers were not powerful at all. Darryl could easily defeat them with a flick of his finger.

Just when Darryl was about to take action, a loud voice shouted from outside, “Rubbish. Stop immediately!”

Then, three people walked in quickly!

Everyone was stunned when they saw the three of them.

Leading them was a man in a suit, looking really smart. It was the President of Dragon Tech, Paul James.

The two men behind him were also in suits, and both of them were Paul's assistants.

A smile appeared on Darryl's face when he saw Paul.

Earlier, when he heard that Dragon Tech had set up a company at Mid Sky City, Darryl thought of finding an opportunity to catch up with Paul. He did not expect Paul to get the news so fast and that he would come to visit him so soon.

News of a guy pretending to be Darryl and arguing with the second Young Master of the Dokko family had spread across Mid Sky City. When Paul heard about that, he immediately sent someone to investigate the news.

Paul felt like he was indebted to Darryl. Even if this Darryl was real or fake, he had to find out immediately. Paul found out Darryl was staying at the inn and rushed over and saw Watson was about to attack Darryl.

At that instant, Watson and Shanice were stunned.

"President!"

"Mis-Mister James."

The next second, Watson and Shanice regained their thoughts and opened their mouths to speak together, but their voices were trembling badly.

They never expected Paul would suddenly appear.

"Rubbish!" Paul's face looked furious. He was in shock. 'This Watson is really a bastard; how dare he attack Brother Darryl?!'

As he spoke, Paul walked over quickly and slapped Watson's face!

Slap!

Paul used almost his entire might in the slap. Watson held his face as it became swollen.

Watson held his face as he felt afraid and full of doubts. He almost cried. "President! What is the problem, President? I didn't act against the company's policies."

When he said that, Watson dared not look directly into Paul's eyes. He felt guilty because he met with Shanice, which was a breach of his company's rules.

Slap!

After he spoke, Paul slapped him again and roared, "So you can be a bully because you did not act against the company's policies? Did the company hire you to be a bully?"

Watson wanted to cry, but he had no tears. He said unwillingly, "President, I did not bully him. This is the guy that—"

Before he could finish speaking, Paul interrupted him!

Paul was furious as he pointed at Darryl and said, "This guy? Do you know who he is? Let me tell you; I would not be who I am if it weren't because of him! He is—"

Cough! Cough!

Paul was about to reveal Darryl's identity, but Darryl immediately coughed a little to interrupt him.

Darryl did not wish to reveal his identity. During the day, Darryl told Tanya his real identity and caused many people to laugh at him. He was tired and did not want to cause more trouble.

When he heard Darryl coughing to remind him, he swallowed his next word, 'Darryl,' before speaking.

The next second, Paul walked in front of Darryl and bowed 90 degrees.

He said respectfully, "Mister, I am really sorry. I did not guard my people properly."

Darryl laughed and indicated that it was fine.

At that moment, the entire place went silent!

Watson was in total shock. As Dragon Tech's head of security, the person he admired and respected the most was President Paul. At such a young age, he expanded Dragon Tech to a giant company covering nine continents. He was amazing. Paul was a remarkable person, and Watson had never seen Paul belittling himself in front of anyone.

He never expected that the President he feared would be so polite to a poor guy.

Shanice was stunned too! She felt her legs turn weak, and she could not help but take a few steps back. She had tried so hard to meet this business giant, but he showed all his respect for Darryl.

'How can this be? He is obviously just a poor guy!' she wondered.

Shanice looked closely at Darryl; her body could not stop trembling as she was still stunned.

'Who is he? Could it be...Is this guy really Darryl, the Elysium Gate Sect Master? Otherwise, why would Paul respect him so much?' she thought.

Shanice felt both her legs turn weak, and she could barely stand properly.

At that moment, Gonggong was stunned too. She regained her thoughts very quickly and looked at Darryl closely, lifting her brows.

'This Darryl has so many connections? This is Middle Terra, and he still has someone here to help him. I thought Darryl would be panicking when he faced such a situation. This is really unexpected,' she thought.

Gonggong realized there was nothing much to see anymore, so she shut the door gradually.

At that moment, Watson finally gathered his thoughts and could not stop bowing and apologizing to Darryl, "Mister, this is entirely my fault. I don't know who I am dealing with. Please be generous and forgive my errors. Please forgive me."

Watson was not dumb. Although he still did not know Darryl's identity, he could guess from how respectful the President was that the person in front of him must be someone important.

Darryl did not respond and continued to sit there, enjoying his tea calmly. He remained silent, and Paul dared not speak either. Darryl stood there staring coldly at Watson.

Watson completely panicked when he saw Paul's angry face as he pointed at Shanice and tried to push the responsibility to her. "President, I did not look for trouble with this man. It was her. She was the one who wanted to chase this man out!"

Shanice's body trembled, and she became extremely worried. She explained immediately, "No...."

At that moment, Shanice was angry and worried. 'This Watson is not a man. How could he push the blame to me at the most critical moment?!

Shanice looked closely at Paul; her heart felt incredibly unsettled and anxious. Her telecommunication company had just begun. If she could collaborate with Dragon Tech, her company would have a bright future.

'Despite all my effort to find the opportunity to meet Paul, I still wasn't able to achieve it. With Paul in front of my eyes now, I can't miss this perfect opportunity,' she thought.

Shanice bit her lips and spoke gently to Paul, "Mister James, I am Shanice from Terra Communications. I wish to—"

Before she could finish speaking, Watson interrupted her!

“You’re still thinking of collaborating?” Watson was furious as he pointed at Shanice. “It was you that insisted on chasing away the President’s guest. Now you’re still thinking of collaborating with Dragon Tech? Dream on!”

Bang!

When she heard that Shanice turned pale, she began to panic. She bit her lips so tight it was about to bleed. It was challenging enough to propose a collaboration with Dragon Tech, but she was afraid she had no chance anymore with her insulting Paul’s friend.

Watson was getting more emotional as he spoke. He was trying his best to push away the blame.

At that moment, Paul stared angrily at Watson and shouted loudly, “Get lost! From now onwards, you’re fired from Dragon Tech. I don’t want to see you anymore. Get lost and get out of my face now!”

‘How dare he challenge Brother Darryl; I will not spare him easily!’ Paul thought.

Watson’s heart trembled, and he almost fell to the floor, paralyzed. His position in the community was all because of Dragon Tech. He would have nothing if he were fired.

Then, he gathered his thoughts, and he was about to beg for forgiveness. However, when he saw Paul’s determination, he lost all hope at that instant. He then led his people and left.

“Mister James...” After Watson left, Shanice came to her senses as she bit her lips and begged Paul, “Mister James, I was wrong. I hope you’ll forgive me. Please give me another chance to do a collaboration with you.”

Sigh!

Paul smiled lightly and looked at Darryl. “He will decide if we shall collaborate!”

Paul was intelligent and immediately passed the authority to Darryl. ‘No matter what, the two of them had been really rude towards Brother Darryl.’

Shanice’s body trembled. She looked at Paul, then at Darryl, completely stunned.

‘Paul let that guy decide on collaboration? It’s obvious, he’s someone important to Paul.’

The next second, Shanice regained her thoughts and walked closer to Darryl in her stilettos. She looked calm when she said softly, “Mister, I was wrong earlier. I am sorry....”

Her voice was really soft, and no one would be able to hear her at all.

Although Shanice is the owner of a small company, she has always been arrogant. She would never dream that she needed to apologize to such a poor guy and still need to bow to him!

Sigh!

Darryl sighed in relief, looking calm and peaceful. He smiled and looked at Shanice. “Your attitude seems fine. However, I do recall that earlier you wanted me to call you ‘Aunty,’ am I right?”

“I was wrong; I was really wrong. Mister, please give me another chance.” Shanice’s body was trembling, and she was panicking. She was about to cry.

Bang!

Then, Shanice bit her lips, bent her knees, and kneeled in front of Darryl. At that moment, she put aside all her dignity. She did not want to surrender, but things like dignity and self-pride did not matter when her company’s future was on the line.

“Mister, I am begging you, please forgive me.” Shanice pulled Darryl’s pants and kept on begging for forgiveness. “I know I was terrible earlier. Please give me a chance for my company to collaborate with Dragon Tech. I am begging you....”

“Alright.” Darryl looked calm as he smiled at Shanice. “I can forgive you, but how shall you greet me?”

When he said that, Darryl was checking out Shanice.

It was undeniable that Shanice was incredibly sexy, especially in her black cheongsam. It showed off her perfect figure, and no man would resist her when they saw her. However, such a beautiful woman was so self-absorbed and a bully. Darryl decided to teach her a lesson.

Facing Darryl’s deep gaze, Shanice trembled as she knelt. “I...”

Then, Shanice realized something.

“Sir, I will be your pet dog in the future. You can order me to do any task and I will do it, no questions asked!” she said softly as she bit her lip.

‘Alright!’ Darryl nodded, satisfied.

He turned his head and said to Paul, “Give her a project then!”

“Sure!” Paul replied immediately.

Shanice was overcome with emotion, and she kept thanking Darryl, “Thank you so much. Thank you so very much, Sir.”

Darryl did not want to waste any more time, so he waved his hand and signaled for her to leave.

“Brother Darryl, you came from so far away but I did not welcome you properly. I even let you be bothered by these people. It is all my fault,” Paul said after Shanice left and did a 90 degree bow as he looked ashamed.

Darryl smiled and waved his hand telling him that it was fine.

“Brother Darryl, why did you come to Middle Terra suddenly?” Paul sighed in relief and continued to ask curiously.

Sigh!

Darryl took a deep breath and told him all about the situation at the Chaotic Mountain Range.

When he heard that, Paul was shocked as he stared with his eyes wide open. “I heard about this news a few days ago. Many people were saying that the Wild Deserted Secret Region and Raksasa Tribe were just rumors; a bluff. I did not expect it to be really true.”

As he spoke, Paul looked serious. “Since it is related to the safety of the nine continents, Brother Darryl, please feel free to let me know if you need anything.”

Darryl nodded his head and smiled as he said, “I will look for you if I really need you.”

While they were talking, an assistant that was guarding the door outside walked in.

“President, the second Young Master of the Dokko family has sent someone to our office. They made an appointment to meet with you,” he said to Paul respectfully.

‘Jonas? Why is that douchebag looking for Paul?’ Darryl furrowed his brows discreetly.

At that moment, Darryl still did not know that Jonas wanted to meet Paul because of Tanya.

Paul did not hesitate as he said coldly, “No!”

‘Jonas humiliated Brother Darryl in the street earlier; how could I agree to see him?’ he thought.

Darryl and Paul had not met for a long time. Paul was really emotional as he chatted with Darryl for a long time before he left.

Meanwhile, in a restaurant in Mid Sky City, Jonas was sitting across from Tanya. Both of them were silent as they felt depressed.

‘Sh*t,’ Jonas cursed to himself. He was furious that Paul rejected him.

He used his identity as the second Young Master of the Dokko family to make an appointment, but he was still rejected.

“Cousin Sister, don’t think too much! Tomorrow I’ll go to your house with my father. Then, I’ll let my father use his influence to get an appointment with Paul. I don’t believe Paul will continue to be arrogant!” Jonas consoled Tanya.

Tanya was not happy at all when she heard what Jonas said. She furrowed her brows as she said, “That’s fine; I’ll figure it out myself. No matter what, it’s just a business matter for the Long family.”

She stood up and said softly, “It’s getting late; you should go home now. I’m going home too.”

“Let me send you home,” Jonas said quickly.

Tanya shook her head. “No need!”

Her voice was soft, but firm.

At that time, Tanya’s mind was filled with Darryl. She had agreed to meet him at the inn he was staying at. She could not go against her promise, and she did not want Jonas to follow her.

‘Alright...’ Jonas felt awkward as he looked sadly at Tanya leaving the restaurant.

In the next second, Jonas regained his thoughts and started to follow Tanya.

A few minutes later, he was completely stunned when he saw Tanya walking into an inn. Jonas thought of something and his eyes were shining with anger as he clenched his fists.

Earlier in the evening, the guy, Darryl, said he would be staying at the inn.

'Cousin Sister did not intend to go home; she was here to visit Darren,' he thought.

Jonas was furious when he figured that out. He wanted to follow her in, but he was worried his cousin would be furious, so he had to hold himself back.
