Levi Garrison: The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 1196

"Darling!!!"

Zoey wailed from the bottom of her soul.

Forlevia began crying out loud as well.

"Wahhhh….."

Emma could not handle it and passed out immediately.

Azure Dragon, Kirin and the rest also lost their minds.

"Boss!!!"

Levi's subordinates all roared maniacally.

They began using various ways to wake Levi up, but to no avail. The cruel reality hit them.

There was simply no breath left in Levi…

This was a fact that nobody was willing to accept…

It looked like Levi was dead.

The Calvary Regiment was not calm.

The Specter Army lost their composure.

The Ruby, Emerald, Sapphire, and Topaz Armies could no longer hold themselves together.

Levi had presented himself in front of the Garrison family this day to identify himself. Who would have thought that someone who lorded over Oakland City would come to such an ending?

Not only was he defeated, but he was also dead...

This was something his family was unable to accept no matter what...

Even Asura felt a little curious...

He had noticed that something was off earlier, but he could not point his finger at it.

He did not think too much about it.

The man had always felt that he was stronger than Levi.

Now that he was so seriously injured, it would not be abnormal for Levi to be dead.

"No! Boss, you definitely cannot die!!!"

"I will get Fredrick and the rest to come back immediately!"

Behaving like he had gone mad, White Tiger scrambled to get up.

"Azure Dragon, White Tiger, Specter Army, Dragon Warriors, Cavalry Regiment, Ruby, Emerald, Sapphire, and Topaz Armies – prepare to receive your command!"

"As the God of War, I command you! From now onwards, leave here with me without dissent! Military action will be taken against those who violate my orders!"

Winsor suddenly gave his command.

Based on his cruel and heartless character, he would not care about Levi's life nor death.

In his eyes, Levi was merely a loser.

Losers did not deserve to live!

There was only one chance!

To him, there was no such thing as a revival!

Therefore, when he saw that Azure Dragon and the rest still wanted to struggle, he immediately gave the command.

However, Levi's guards all ignored him.

"I'll say it once again! As God of War, I command you to leave with me immediately! You will suffer terrible consequences should I be angered!"

Asura roared furiously.

"Who is afraid of you? Come on, I'll fight you!"

White Tiger could not hold back anymore and roared while he charged towards Asura.

"Seeking death, aren't you? White Tiger, you are violating rank protocol here!"

Zar, Bolgun, and Talon were all glaring ferociously at White Tiger.

"Winsor Campbell, I am not afraid of you!"

White Tiger's eyes were filled with intention to fight.

Snap! Snap! Snap!

The Cavalry Regiment, Specter Army and the rest were all staring at Asura in a uniformed manner.

"Are you all not defying the commands of the God of War?"

Asura laughed.

This sparked off a tensed atmosphere immediately.

At this very moment, Azure Dragon, who had been laying down next to Levi, suddenly stood up and roared, "We shall obey! He is the new God of War, and we should obey his commands!"

Azure Dragon's words carried a lot of weight among the group, so the moment he spoke, everyone immediately stopped.

"I refuse!"

White Tiger remained stubborn.

Azure Dragon then murmured in his ears.

His face immediately changed.

Then, he looked down and nodded. "I, White Tiger, am willing to obey the commands. Everyone, listen to Azure Dragon and leave together with the new God of War!"

Even though everyone was extremely unwilling to do so, they still obeyed the commands.

Winsor could not be bothered with that and merely laughed. "Alright, come with me!"

He brought everyone away immediately.

Levi was left there, barely breathing.

Zoey was crying so hard she almost fainted.

Levi Garrison: The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 1197

Dale and Edwin tested for Levi's breathing, and the former had to tell Zoey the truth that she was forced to accept…

"Child, he is no longer here!"

Bang!

That moment, Zoey felt like her head was about to explode.

She could not find it within herself to accept it!

Right before this, Levi had given her the perfect explanation.

He had let her know that her man lorded over the entire world.

The next moment, something like this happened.

"Hahahaa…."

The Garrisons were overjoyed.

Olivia laughed out loud, "Retribution, this is retribution!"

"Emma, my son is dead, and your son can forget about living too!"

Both the Garrisons and the Garcias were cheering.

Earlier, Levi had even punished them into kneeling for three days and nights. Who would have thought that he would cease to exist the very next moment?

"There is retribution and the heaven is watching!"

Kenny laughed out loud.

Zed too, sneered, "Levi, your end awfully, didn't you? After you lost, not only did you lose your position as the God of War, but all of your henchmen also left and you even died! Hahaha…"

Pondering, everyone lost in thought. Indeed, Levi ended tragically.

Now, even the smaller families were bullying him.

More frighteningly, Winsor had sent Azure Dragon and the rest to the borders to defend the nation. They were not allowed to return to Erudia within the next ten years.

This was how Winsor cut off their ties with Levi.

However, this was an order and everyone had to accept it.

On top of that, Winsor had also instructed that Fredrick was not allowed to attend to Levi's injuries.

The military doctor was stuck as well.

This was how Winsor denied Levi any chance of survival.

His motto was that losers had to die.

To Zoey and the few of them, it had been an emotional roller coaster of a day.

If not for the Lehman family protecting her, she would have to suffer as well.

"Is Levi really dead?"

Someone asked.

"It's not possible for him to be alive! There is not enough time to save him right now!"

However, Zoey refused to believe it and still insisted on sending Levi to the hospital.

In the meantime, nobody noticed several people slipping away quietly.

They did not attract anyone's attention with their existence nor departures.

It was as if they were specters…

Clearly, they were the ones lying in ambush!

They waited long enough to confirm Levi's death.

The news that Winsor was now the God of War flew through Erudia and swiftly spread across the entire world.

It was as if the world had experienced a huge explosion.

What happened to the God of War?

He actually lost?

That's the one and only God of War!

However, this just showed that Winsor was stronger!

Only the most invincible one was worthy of this title.

After Zoey sent Levi to the hospital, Benny immediately made his way there to treat him upon receiving the news.

Outside the emergency room.

Zoey and the rest were waiting anxiously.

"Zoey, Levi had no more breath left in him. It is impossible for him to still be alive!"

"Even if Benny Quinton himself comes to heal him, there is no way he could live!"

Dale said cruelly.

After all, both Levi and Winsor were no ordinary men. Their battle was beyond anyone's wildest imagination.

Levi was practically dead earlier.

There was no way that he could still be alive!

"No, as long as there is hope, I will continue to wait!"

Zoey looked determined.

Time passed and soon, it had been over a dozen of hours.

The red light outside the emergency room was still on.

Desperation filled Zoey.

"No, no, no…"

She kept muttering.

Slam!

The door to the emergency room suddenly swung open.

Levi Garrison: The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 1198

Benny walked out with exhaustion written all over his face.

Zoey and Emma, who had just woken up, rushed to him instantly.

"Mr. Quinton, how is he?"

The two of them asked hurriedly.

Benny tugged at his mask and gave them a deep bow. "I am sorry, I tried my best. He still did not wake up."

Bang!

This piece of news was completely distressing to Zoey and Emma.

Both of them fell to the ground immediately.

"However, he is not dead!"

Benny's words made everyone regain hope.

"What? Not dead? That means there is still hope for him to wake up?"

Zoey wiped her tears away and rays of light shone from her eyes.

"Yes, he is not dead! I have never seen such will and determination in a person! That's how he is staying alive!"

Benny recalled, "I remember him telling me that as an Erudian warrior, he needs to keep fighting till the very end. He is probably surviving with this iron-strong will of his!"

"When will he be able to wake up?"

Zoey was very worried.

"There is no certainty! Based on the statistics, there is a ninety-nine percent chance that he will not wake up, with only one percent chance that he will! We don't know when that will happen. It could be a few years, or it could be decades…"

Benny told them the cruel truth.

"What???"

Zoey did not expect the situation to be so serious, and for hope to be so elusive!

"Don't you have any other way, Mr. Quinton?"

Emma cried.

"No. Right now, it's all up to his good luck…"

Benny seemed like he did not want to see this happening as well.

Zoey was very determined. "No, it's alright as long as there is still hope! I believe that Levi will not just abandon us like this. He will definitely wake up!"

"Zoey, we would advise you to give up. He is as good as dead!"

Dale advised her.

He really did not wish for his god-daughter to waste so much time on a person in a vegetative state.

"No, my child and I must wait for him to wake up!"

Zoey was very determined.

Soon, the news that Levi had fallen into a vegetative state spread like wildfire.

The former God of War had met with such a tragic ending, and only had one percent chance of waking up…

His position was usurped and his people were transferred away, while he fell into a vegetative state.

It was a shuddering ending…

"Oh, not completely dead? There is still a chance for him to wake up?"

"His will to live is really strong!"

Winsor was very surprised to hear this piece of news.

With that, he snorted. "He is just a loser. What has his life or death got to do with me?"

"Levi still has a chance to wake up? No, he must be completely dead!"

There were voices and murmurs like these in Erudia and the rest of the world.

They had paid a huge price for Levi to end up this way.

And he was actually not completely dead yet?

How could everyone be relaxed about it?

Despite being in a coma state, he was still a potential threat.

They would only feel at ease after they see Levi's corpse.

"Send out my command. Dispatch the elite fighter to check on Levi's condition! No, whether he is alive or dead, kill!!!"

"Winsor won't care about his life. Now that all of Levi's people have been transferred away, we can do whatever we want!"

……

Similar commands came from all over the world.

One by one, elite fighters appeared at Oakland City.

The solitary and helpless Levi was about to face a huge impending danger…

Levi Garrison: The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 1199

Levi topped the international hit list, and the bounty did not change at all.

Even though their target was a man in a vegetative state, the assassins would receive the same amount of bounty reward.

This drove all the assassins and fighters crazy, and they were all determined to kill off Levi.

On the other hand, this also showed how everyone was incredibly fearful of Levi.

Even though he was in a vegetative state, people still offered a large bounty for his life.

After Levi got into trouble, many people continued adding more insult to his injury.

The worst were the Garrisons and the Garcias who resumed their mockery.

Especially Conrad, who swore to take revenge.

However, they were all suppressed by the Lehman family. Otherwise, Levi would be in extreme danger.

The only person who did not change her attitude towards Levi was Tiffany.

Despite her family's disapproval, she went to visit him.

Of course, Abigail appeared as well after she heard the news.

Even Iris came from afar.

They were considered the few who remained by Levi's side after he was down and out.

Troubled, Tiffany said, "I heard that there are people targeting Mr. Garrison! There are many assassins who are on their way, as they are promised a huge bounty as long as they manage to kill him!"

Zoey knew about this and had experienced all of these before.

Her pictures from the last time were what triggered the incident later.

She understood the vicious hatred those overseas enemies harbored for Levi.

However, Levi was on his own solitary self-right now. No, he could not even wake up.

Who could possibly deal with the assassins?

The Lehman family?

Impossible!

The enemies were so much stronger than the Lehman family....

The only person who could solve this problem was Winsor.

However, nobody knew where he was.

She could not think of anyone else now...

Before this, Levi was in his heyday. Who would have thought that this was his ending?

Despair!

Extreme despair!

"I'll think of a way to secure Mr. Garrison's safety!"

Finished speaking, Tiffany left the hospital.

She was their biggest hope now.

At the other side.

The Lopez and Black families who were far away in the South also received the news that Levi had fallen into a vegetative state at Oakland City after being attacked by the 'Garrison clan'.

Even though they heard about this farce at the Garrisons' residence, they didn't know the exact details. It was kept confidential as it involved a battle for the position of the God of War.

Therefore, everyone had access only to all sorts of rumors and gossip.

Only very few of them knew about Levi's previous identity.

What the Lopez and Black families heard was that Levi went to the Garrison family and was attacked, leading to his current vegetative state.

"Explanation? That's an explanation?"

"Was there something wrong with his brain? How dare he challenge the Garrison clan?"

"Hahaha….serves him right now that he is a vegetable!"

The Lopez and Black families insulted him continuously.

When the South Hamptons families heard about it, they were extremely excited.

Finally, they did not need to be suppressed by Levi any longer.

After all, it was hardly comfortable to be constantly suppressed.

Very soon, innumerous elite fighters were lurking around the hospital Levi was in.

He was truly a threat to everyone!

Every single breath he took was a nightmare.

This was something that Winsor did not expect at all.

No matter what, Levi's threat was larger than Winsor's, despite the latter's victory!

Before Zoey and Tiffany could come up with any countermeasures, the overseas elite fighters had already arrived.

Everyone was simply moving too quickly.

Some were not even from overseas. The ones that arrived the soonest were the elite fighters from Erudia itself.

There was someone here who did not want Levi to stay alive.

In the hospital's ICU.

The nurses had just left after completing Levi's intravenous infusion.

Zoey was due to return in five minutes.

At this moment, three figures slipped surreptitiously into the room.

Levi Garrison: The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 1200

They were not in a hurry to take action and were just there to observe Levi.

"I just want to see if Levi has really become a vegetable?"

This was definitely an Erudian who was speaking.

They observed for a full minute before exchanging shocked glances while exclaiming, "It's true!"

"There is no way he can wake up after being poisoned by the Blood King Palace! It doesn't matter anymore whether he's alive or dead!"

One of them said.

"No, don't you remember that we have a mission? Even if he were dead, we'd still have to kill him once again!"

"Yes, our objective is very simple. Since Mr. Finch wants Levi's head, we will cut off his head and hang it at the highest spot we can find, so that the whole world can see that he is dead!"

Swoosh!

With a flip of his wrist, the other person drew out a sharp knife that shone brightly with an icy gleam.

The assassin aimed the sharp knife at Levi's neck. With one slice, his head would definitely be separated from his body.

Even though the blade is pressing against Levi's skin, he was still lying motionlessly.

"Die!"

That man growled.

At that split second…

Clang!

That knife actually landed on a hard object.

Whoosh!

At the very next moment, the three of them saw Levi's eyes flew open.

His glare was razor sharp and icy cold.

It was the ring on his finger that had prevented that knife.

Bang!

Levi suddenly got up. With one shove, the knife turned around to stab the other person instead.

Bang!

He immediately sprang out of bed and slammed the other two persons' heads together violently.

Even till the point of their deaths, the three of them could not understand how Levi had woken up.

Whoosh whoosh whoosh!

At the same time, his window suddenly exploded and his room door was forcibly opened.

Every single one of the assassins and fighters rushed into the room and charged towards Levi.

They were just one step behind these three elite fighters from Erudia.

The next moment, the two opposing parties were locked in battle in that tiny ward.

Bloody arrows were shot across the rooms while continuous howls and growls were heard.

The intensive care unit seemed to be so isolated from the other places in the hospital that nobody knew what was going on despite all the action and noise from the inside.

Nobody knew where Zoey was as well…

On his own, Levi faced and slashed his way through hundreds of assassins.

In the end, all of them were defeated.

Levi squeezed out every ounce of his strength and finally fell down.

This time, he had really used up all his strength.

The man had actually saved up some of his strength during his fight with Winsor.

He could have won that battle.

It was because he wanted to see who from Erudia wanted him dead that he did this.

White Tiger and Azure Dragon left because Levi had secretly given the latter a signal.

Otherwise, based on White Tiger's character, he would have fought with Winsor until the very end.

Therefore, Levi took advantage of his 'death' to deceive everyone, including even Benny.

The doctor really thought that Levi had fallen into a vegetative state, hence he declared so.

Thanked to Benny, Levi used this as a bait to entice his potential killers.

Mr. Finch?

Just now, the three fighters from Erudia had mentioned this name.

Who was he?

Even though Levi was the God of War, he did not know much about the prominent figures in Erudia.

After all, he had been at the borders all this time.

However, it was useless knowledge anyway, as he was about to die.

"Pfft!"

……

Levi could not stop coughing up blood.

He had completely exhausted that very last breath he had been saving up.

After all, he just killed a few hundred elite fighters a moment ago…

He really fought hard until the very last moment.

The man could do no more.

Right now, he could feel life flowing out of him…

He was losing his consciousness, and could even feel his soul leaving his body…
