

Chapter 1053

There, Suzi didn't wait for Kraig to say anything, and then continued: "Mr. Jun, I'm sober now. Don't worry, I will definitely not be overthrown by the Lin and Shu family."

Kraig said perfunctorily: "I am happy for you."

"I will go to work as usual and send the only one to kindergarten as usual. Even if there are a hundred reporters at the gate of my community, I am not afraid. I am not afraid of shadows! My kidney is in charge!"

Kraig: "..."

At that end, Suzi was still saying: "Sister Shan taking care of me these past two days is not tired, you let her sleep well and don't call her. By the way, Mr. Jun, you want a baby."

Suzi thought that yesterday, when facing reporters, the six-year-old Lilly's brave appearance made Suzi sad and heartwarming at the same time.

Suzi knew that Dalia actually wanted a child.

Kraig said nothing.

Elma behind him already had poisonous light in his eyes!

"Mr. Jun, I'm going to send the only one to kindergarten and work, so I won't talk more with you."

Suzi had such a big deal on his own.

Again, he didn't know much about Kraig's temperament.

So until he hung up the phone, Suzi didn't realize that something was wrong with Kraig.

After closing the line, when Suzi handed the phone to Arron, she also said to Arron: "Sister Shan rarely sleeps in. She is the kind of gentle woman who manages the house. There is a possibility that she may be pregnant. "

Seeing his wife so optimistic, Arron also sighed: "It's this time, do you still care about others?"

Suzi shrugged indifferently: "I almost died of anger two days ago, but what about the facts? I'm sick, have a high fever, and become unconscious. Wouldn't this make the Lin family and the surname more successful?"

After a pause, she sighed: "For myself, for the sake of being unique, I must also be strong and optimistic. It's no big deal! What's up to me? Someone wants my kidneys, it's the same as killing me. They don't think they are morally corrupt. What am I afraid of?"

Arron was very pleased to see his wife so optimistic.

In the past two days, he and Kraig have worked together in the company. He plans to abandon the promise and do it together with Mr. Shu!

Kraig disagreed, and Kraig persuaded him: "Don't you want your Fu Group anymore? You don't want everything in Nancheng? Do you plan to take Suzian away after you abolish Father Shu? Suzi With the only one who has been wandering for six years, how long do you want them to wander?"

Thinking of this, Arron hesitated.

But he couldn't see Suzi being tortured.

At this time, seeing Suzi like this, Arron was in a much better mood.

"Arron, let's send the only one to kindergarten." Suzi looked at Arron firmly.

"Good!" Arron said.

A family of three went downstairs frankly.

When we got downstairs, there were a few owners in the community who pointed behind them.

"It's her, it's her, who was blocked at home by reporters yesterday."

"I think she is right. If someone wants your kidney in your relationship, you will give it?"

"Nonsense! Of course not! Whoever wants to give his own organs to others will make himself very weak, okay!"

"That is to say! What did they do wrong!"

"Eh, poor..."

Hearing such a discussion behind him, Suzi smiled in his heart. There are still many people in the world who are sensible.

Thinking about it this way, she was even more unafraid to face those reporters.

Originally thought that the doorway would be packed with reporters like yesterday, but Suzi did not expect that there would be no reporters at the door.

The car drove out slowly, and Suzi breathed a sigh of relief.

When the car was about to turn onto the main road, it was blocked in front.

Who is it again?

Suzi's heart shook, and she asked her husband, "Who is stopping in front?"

Chapter 1054

Neither Arron nor Christopher knew the person in front.

It was a woman about fifty years old, dressed very plainly, and looked like a woman who lived in the countryside all year round.

"Auntie, is there anything wrong with you?" Even though Christopher had doubts in his heart in this troubled autumn, he could only ask kindly.

Master and his wife have had a lot of things these days, and Christopher doesn't want to cause trouble at this time.

The aunt who was rotten in the front did not answer Christopher's question. She cowered and touched the car, from the front door to the back door.

Seeing her shivering appearance, Suzi couldn't help thinking of his mother.

Suzi immediately opened the car door: "Auntie, you...what do you want?"

"They... They said, is it you?" The aunt's muddy eyes glanced at Suzi, then just took a look, said this, then turned and left.

Suzi: "..."

Inexplicable.

She definitely didn't know this great god.

Never seen before.

Seeing Auntie walk away, Suzi and Christopher felt incredible.

Still sternly persuade Suzi: "Forget it, madam, don't worry about it, let's send the only one to kindergarten."

Suzi nodded.

Sitting in the car again, Suzi saw Arron frowning.

"What's wrong, Arron?" Suzi asked.

Arron shook his head lightly: "It's okay."

Then, he raised his arm around Lilly: "First send our little princess to kindergarten!"

Seeing Mom and Dad sitting on his left and right again, Lilly was happy with something.

"Mom and dad, will no one want mom's kidney in the future?" Shen Weixing asked.

Suzi said to the only one: "Of course!"

"Then I can rest assured," said the little bun in the same tone as an adult.

The only child with a strong self-healing ability, her heart is very strong, like things like yesterday, although she was very scared at the time, but afterwards, she no longer cared about it.

Just like today, she can still go to kindergarten alive and well.

This is where Suzi's daughter is most assured.

Sending the only one to the kindergarten, Suzi went to work.

I didn't come to work for two days. When I arrived at the company, my colleagues were very concerned about her.

"Suzi, I heard that you have a fever. You have always been in good health. Why do you suddenly have such a severe fever? You have to pay attention. You can't work so hard in the future."

"Suzi, you have a fever for two days, and everyone has lost a lot of weight. Don't do anything today, just direct us."

Suzi smiled: "It's okay, I'm fine."

Seeing the company's colleagues talking and laughing to her, no one mentioned yesterday's events to her. Suzi knew that Arron did a lot of work on the interception of the video source. Arron didn't sleep all night. It is intercepting these things.

She just sat in the office and was about to start working.

Song Zhuoer, the youngest handsome boy in the office, the runner came in.

"Tell you a great news!" Song Zhuoer was extremely excited.

All the colleagues looked at the handsome boy: "What's the matter?"

"There is a cultural and entertainment company in Nancheng, which specializes in reporting to the rich and celebrity gossip company. This company has developed quite a bit in Nancheng. Many celebrities and celebrities have suffered from them. Many people complain about this cultural and entertainment company. Guess what. ?"
