

Chapter 3524

Just when Joseph didn't know what exactly Charlie meant by these words, Charlie turned his head to look at Luther and spoke, "Mr. He, the younger guy kneeling in front of my parents' grave, you can bring him here."

"Okay, Mr. Wade!" Luther knew that the younger one Charlie was talking about was Walter Chen, who Charlie had brought back from the Middle East.

So, he walked to Charlie's parents' spirit, pulled Walter, who was wearing a black cloth bag on his head, to Charlie's side, and said respectfully, "Mr. Wade, the person is here."

Charlie nodded, looked at Joseph, and asked him with a smile, "Supreme Commander Wan, do you know who this is?"

Joseph looked bewildered.

How would he know who this person with a black hood on his head really was?

He didn't have a translucent eye either.

What's more, Walter's consciousness had long been sealed in it by Charlie, and Joseph couldn't even feel the slightest ability to cultivate.

So, he looked at Charlie and opened his mouth to ask: "Who exactly is this person?"

Charlie sneered: "What? You can't recognize your own right-hand man with his face masked?"

Joseph was even more confused.

Although Charlie had hinted that it was his right-hand man, he could not think of Walter at all.

Because, in the personal perception of all the commanders of the Cataclysmic Front, Walter was bound to be in the Middle East, and could not be in China.

When Charlie saw his face surprised, he sneered and ripped off the black cloth bag on Walter's head.

When Joseph, as well as the other commanders of the Cataclysmic Front, saw Walter's face, everyone's expression immediately became appalled.

No one could believe that Walter, who had been missing for many days, would be in Charlie's hands.

Joseph subconsciously asked, "Walter you how did you get here?!"

Walter at this time expression silent standing in place, like a fool pestle, eyes also in a state of the unfocused zone, as if he did not hear the voice of Joseph.

Joseph did not know what had happened to Walter, but seeing him so dazed, he also realized that things were probably a bit beyond his imagination, so he hurriedly asked again: "Walter! Don't you recognize me?"

Walter still did not give any response.

Charlie smiled faintly at this time: "I forgot to tell you, Walter's consciousness has been sealed inside his body by me, the current him is no longer the one you are familiar with, the current him is just a puppet of mine."

Joseph and the other commanders of the Front were dumbfounded.

Sealing a person's consciousness inside his body, such a thing was unheard of to them!

Joseph also did not believe that Charlie could have such a divine ability, such a tactic was simply unthinkable.

Seeing that they could not understand, Charlie pointed at Harmen who was kneeling on the ground, and said to Walter, "Smoke him for me!"

Without thinking, Walter rushed up, grabbed Harmen's collar, and slapped him several times, causing Harmen to scream in agony.

Charlie nodded in satisfaction and said, "All right, stop."

Only then did Walter stop moving and reentered Charlie's side.

Joseph looked dumbfounded, completely confused as to what method Charlie had used to make Walter become like this now.

Seeing his puzzled face, Charlie gently patted Walter's shoulder and laughed: "Come, for the time being, give you the freedom to speak for a minute, say whatever you want to say out loud!"

Although Walter's consciousness has been blocked, but he can still use all the senses of his body.

Everything that happened around him during this period of time he knew exactly, Joseph to lead the brothers to kill up the Waderest, this thing he also knew very well.

Even just now, he kneeled in front of Charlie's parents' spirit, not being able to see with his own eyes this scene that just happened, but he also guessed what just happened roughly through the sound.

However, his reception of external information is one-way, except for receiving external information from his physical senses, he could not control his body to make any reaction, even just blinking his eyelids.

At the moment when Charlie just tapped his shoulder, his consciousness finally became one with his body again, this long-lost feeling, like a vegetative person who had been sleeping for years, finally woke up, instantly brought him to tears.

Immediately afterward, he looked at Joseph, his emotions instantly collapsed, bawling and begging: "Supreme Commander please find a way to save me, or or kill me immediately..."

"This feeling of consciousness being imprisoned inside the body is even more terrifying and desperate than the eighteen levels of hell!!!"

"It's really terrible! No! As! Death! Ah!!!"
