

Chapter 539

"I see." Suzi said calmly: "Please kill me together."

Arron: "..."

Suzi smiled faintly: "I'm not joking, I'm not angry, I just don't want to experience such ups and downs like a roller coaster, I have thought about everything, depending on my daughter, can you please do me too? Death? No matter what method you use, it doesn't matter how painful or embarrassing it is to die. I just don't want to endure the third time of being besieged."

This scene makes her life worse than death.

She felt that she was like a slave girl in ancient times, standing in the center of the market, being picked by others, and she was the one left behind by others, and no one wanted her, so she could be left without her. Those buyers can scold her and insult her how they want to insult her.

"Suzi! You are not allowed to say that!" Darius screamed behind him.

Lenny also said immediately: "Uncle Fu, Suzi is very good..."

Daniel: "Four Lord Fu, kill me and leave my life as a mentor. There is not a saying in your country that you will be a teacher for a day and be a teacher for life. I ask my mentor to die."

Watching the four men speak for Suzi together.

The blue veins on the top of Arron's head were violently jumping.

He clenched his fists with both hands, and his knuckles creaked.

To be honest, there are too many lives lost in his hands.

He doesn't care if there are four more men, and he no longer knows whether Joan is the son of his little aunt or not. In Arron's eyes, there were only three relatives, the mother, the woman in front of him, and the daughter Lilly.

Others can be ignored.

Since Joan is like this, there is no need to mention the other three men.

Arron will not care about anyone at all.

But this is anyone, not including Suzi.

Arron could see that if he killed any of the four of them, Suzi would probably not agree, don't look at her calm look.

Who knows what this extremely calm and detached little woman can do?

Think for a while, bear it!

Arron can't say coldly again: "Go!"

"What?" Joan didn't understand.

"Four of you, get out now! Don't wait for me to change my mind!" Arron restrained his emotions.

The four left without hesitation.

They all suddenly figured out one thing, as long as the four of them are not here, Arron will never hurt Suzi.

Seeing that four men were released at the same time, the group of ladies behind seemed to see boundless hope.

They seemed to see it, and Arron also looked at people.

For example, these four noble sons, he still gave face.

Especially the two sisters Siu and Jun Liuye.

They are both the Jun family, and based on the relationship between the Jun family and Arron, Arron will definitely let them go.

Siu said in a delicate voice: "Arron..."

The sound is so deep to the bones.

However, Arron didn't even look at Siu, and said faintly: "Christopher, send Miss Jun Er to South Africa too, it's ten times more dirty than Ivy's place."

Siu: "No..."

She knelt down on the ground and hugged Arron's leg: "Four Lord, no... please see it for my dad and cousin's sake, forgive me... go around me. Once?"

Arron still asked in a calm tone: "You mean, I'm afraid of your dad?"

"No...no, my dad is afraid of you." At this moment, Siu thoroughly felt Arron's cruelty.

"Drag it out!" Arron didn't want to spend more time on Siu.

Christopher dragged Siu's life out. Siu refused to leave, so he asked Christopher: "Why, why did Siye forgive even four men in love, but refused to let me go? Why?"

"Why?" Christopher sneered: "Second Jun, you haven't seen it yet, are you afraid of the fourth master?"

Master Fear?

Chapter 540

Siu was stunned for a moment, and then quickly said: "No, no, no, how is this possible, the fourth master is famous in Nancheng and even the whole country, how can he be afraid of him? Suzi is afraid of him, Suzi It's his captive."

Christopher laughed again: "Say you are stupid, you are really stupid. Why didn't the fourth master take the madam back all the way?"

"Because she is a prisoner."

"Humph!" Christopher sneered: "Because he wants the wife's heart, the fourth master is the wife's prisoner, and the wife's prisoner is the fourth master's heart. Do you say that the fourth master is not afraid of the inside?"

Siu: "..."

After a few seconds, Siu was gripped by Christopher by the collar, and begged Christopher bitterly: "Assistant Yan, please help me intercede, help me intercede, okay? How much do you want? Money, Jinshan Yinshan, our monarch can afford it."

Mortgage shook his head: "Miss Jun Er, you asked the wrong person. In this banquet hall, it is the lady who can let people be sincere."

Siu: "Then, then you give me a chance, let me beg Madam?"

"Now you know that Madam is a madam?" Christopher asked.

Siu said softly: "Know... I know."

"Late!"

Siu: "..."

Christopher dragged, and walked out: "Siu, you said that you, the second lady of the Jun family is not appropriate. You just want to go to this muddy water. When you were in Lanita before, the fourth master did not pay attention to it. Let you play with Lanita, that's because the Fourth Master never regarded Lanita as a human being.

But now, you can only think about it, Lanita and Walton, and there is a woman behind him who is backing them with Elder Shu who they can't fight. Can you fight?

You really look too high on yourself, Miss Jun Er.

You think you have a beautiful plan for this matter, and you think you can set the blame on Mr. Shu and Mr. Fu?

Are you treating Fourth Master Fu as a fool? "

Siu: "You really want to send me there?"

Christopher: "Of course!"

Siu: "...No! Dad, Kraig, save me...Save me!"

In fact, her mobile phone hasn't been turned off. She just kept making outgoing calls. For a while, it was Father Shu, and then her father Jun Chengyin. Later, she called her cousin Kraig directly.

Siu knew that only Kraig could speak here in Arron.

Kraig is the one with the highest authority in the entire Kyoto family.

She sent countless WeChat messages to Kraig and made countless calls, but Kraig didn't answer him.

Just as Christopher pushed Siu into the car, a man at the door suddenly shouted, "Yan Zhu, Master wants you to wait."

Christopher immediately stopped pushing Siu into the car.

At the same time, Siu was also directly limp on the ground. At this moment, she started to cry.

She knew that she shouldn't have to die.

However, the feeling of walking through the ghost gate is really sour and refreshing.

Arron!

The man who made her very heartwarming ten years ago, after ten years, she still couldn't beat him by a single bit. Her plan was so complete and she found so many supporters for herself, even the reporters She paved the way, everyone thought that Suzi got it, and her plan was just one step away.

However, these men!
