

Chapter 555

The man's kiss became deeper and gentler.

Afterwards, Suzi nestled in Arron's arms, already weak.

But she still asked: "Why, please tell me, why you suddenly turned your face with Siu, and suddenly opened up my relationship with you in front of so many people? Why?"

The man cursed angrily: "Because you are stupid!"

Suzi: "..."

"I don't let you intervene with Siu because Siu is a very paranoid woman with mental problems. I don't want you to contact her, and I don't want to bother you! It's not what you think, I and she are beautiful girls Confidant! You man, if I regard Siu as a confidante, would you still want me!

I'm so stupid, would you still want me! "

Suzi: "...". His mouth pursed involuntarily.

Arron squeezed her nose and said with a nasty annoyance: "As for the disclosure of my marital status with you! Why don't I disclose it! If I don't disclose it, I won't take you to the old house and tell The elders of the Fu family! The old lady of the Fu family won't give you a pair of jade bracelets! Don't you want to disclose the identity of our husband and wife?

Do you want hidden marriage?

What do you want!

Want to have something romantic with those ignorant boys who I let go? "

His questioning is simply a punishment.

Because he was so unreasonable in his mouth, his hands didn't stop when he put the cart before the horse.

Obviously he feels guilty.

Obviously, when he went to Kyoto, he didn't explain the matter of him drinking Siu, which caused her to be attacked by the whole network. But at this moment, not only did he not have the money, but he was also turning a corner. , Put all the faults on her head.

So tough!

The end of being tough is to conquer her body.

It's also to blame Suzi for having tossed for a day today, already tired. People are tired, so are hearts.

Suzi fell asleep shortly after being frightened by his remarks and physical double-strikes.

Moreover, the sleep is very heavy and very sound.

But the man is not half drowsy.

He first called the Planning and Propaganda Department of the Fu Group.

Because of this call from the President of the Fu Group, the planning and publicity department got up to work overtime most of the night. They thought that Siye Fu went to Kyoto for three days on a business trip. He must have brought back new ideas and new development projects, so it was planned in the middle of the night. The propaganda department screamed.

However, when several computer experts in the Propaganda Department received the pictures from Arron, all the experts were stunned.

Arron sent photos of several chapters to his company's planning and publicity department.

One of them is a man from the back, holding in his arms Suzi, who is on fire across the Internet today.

This photo is exactly the same as the first photo of Suzi uploaded on the Internet, the angle, the back view, and the person in his arms are exactly the same.

However, there is a follow-up.

It is also an extension of this photo.

At the beginning of the period, it was a silhouette. After a few photos were sent, it turned from the silhouette to the front.

When the computer masters of the Planning and Propaganda Department of the Fu Group and the staff clicked on the frontal photos, they were even more dumb and speechless with their mouths open.

The original photo of Suzi being hugged by a man without clothes, the man was just a backside.

But now, at this moment, the front of the man was photographed. That person turned out to be Arron, the president of the Fu Group.

The picture is extremely clear.

The woman who was held in Arron's arms was actually asleep. She slept very quietly, nestled in the arms of a man, and looked like she was very pampered by the man's arms.

For a while, all the planning and publicity personnel on the computer side were stunned.

Chapter 556

Manager Su, the top management of the Planning Department, picked up the phone tremblingly and woke Christopher from the phone while he was sleeping.

Christopher, who was half asleep and half awake, heard Manager Su's narration, and suddenly lost his sleep.

"Yan Zhu, what does Fu always mean? He sent us these extremely private photos. Is this for us to plan and publicize? Mr. Fu... I have always heard that Mr. Fu treats enemies and opponents very harshly. Spicy, why is President Fu... so cruel to himself?"

This question made Christopher amused: "Puff...Well, you don't know Mr. Fu, Mr. Fu is not just a fierce character, Mr. Fu is still a love type."

What?

Manager Su heard it right, right?

He digs out his ears vigorously, always feeling as if his ears are blocked. Didn't he hear clearly?

"Well, Fourth Master Fu is a kind of love."

Manager Su: "..."

Not to mention him, there are tens of thousands of people going up and down in the entire Fu group, who doesn't know that Siye Fu is never close to female s3x, Siye Fu is a forbidden bathing system. But Yan Zhu said, Fourth Master Fu is a love type?

"According to Master's intention, use the official blog of the Propaganda Department of the Fu Group to send out the photos of Master and his wife." On this side, Christopher said calmly.

Manager Su stammered: "Strictly help, no... isn't it? The official blog of the Fu Group, which is basically the hands of big incidents, only officially publicizes, such as who is the next heir, such as Another executive from the Fu Group who has an annual salary of more than 100 million yuan, for example..."

"What is more important than Fu Siye, the first in power of the Fu Group, marrying a wife and having a daughter?" Christopher interrupted Manager Su.

Manager Su: "...Fu Siye, are you getting married?"

"Already married! So, tell the world!" Manager Su: "..."

He wiped the sweat from his head, and asked Christopher in a pleasantly surprised and unbelievable tone: "Yanzhu, what kind of words did we use to post this official Weibo? Seriously, or. ..."

"Warm, romantic and sweet!" Christopher said without hesitation.

Manager Su: "Understood!"

This night, taking the initiative is a sleepless night.

In the middle of the night, there were very few propaganda activities, and the official blog of Nancheng's largest group company, Fu Group, had a move.

The things posted on the official blog are not boring propaganda about group companies.

Rather, a picture of a man and a woman.

The first one is the back of a man. The woman with her arms in front is undressed, but she can see her face. In the daytime, people in Nancheng are already familiar with that face. It is Suzi's face.

Immediately afterwards, the second photo had already turned its angle, this time with a man's profile.

That side face can't be described by beauty. Beauty is mostly used to describe women, while men's side faces are angular. The more the arc of the corners, the more the more, the less the less. The edges and corners are very strong and very strong. Personality, short stubble with a mature masculinity, even more so that a man's profile is as perfect as a knife.

Just a minute after the man's profile appeared, even in the middle of the night, the comments under the official blog had already fallen from the sky like a drizzle.

It really occurred to me that there are so many night owls.

[Waiting for love]: Wow, isn't this the photo of Suzi who was scolded for a day during the day? It seems that this man is going to make his identity public and protect his own woman.

[Waiting for Love]: No, this photo was sent out on the official website of the Fu Group. This man is...Oh my God, have I guessed the truth? I dare not say.
