

Chapter 941

"Hahaha, hahaha..." Lilly smiled staggeringly among his parents.

The laughter of the three people awakened Joan in the arm ward.

Joan opened his eyes and saw the snow-white ceiling.

Looking around, it is also white.

Then Joan dropped his eyes again to look at the quilt on the bed, which was still white.

A very bad feeling immediately enveloped Joan's heart. At that moment, Joan felt that she hadn't breathed anymore.

He is not breathing?

He quietly listened to the voice next door.

It was a very clean childish voice.

"Mom and Dad, when are we going home, I...I miss my kindergarten good friends. I haven't gone to kindergarten for three days. Dad." Lilly hid on his mother's lap, head pillow Holding father's belly. Asked very comfortably.

Arron's voice was very gentle: "Well...in fact, this is also the only home. Because you are too grandpa, all your grandma's relatives, including your grandma, are here, so this is also your home."

When hearing these words, Joan felt as if he had fallen into the ice storehouse.

Shen's only grandma, isn't that his little aunt?

My little aunt is dead!

Moreover, the little aunt and the little aunt's natal parents and sisters were buried together.

Is it possible that now, he Joan is already in the tomb?

Also, he was desperately struggling to survive a rescued little dumpling, his cousin, also...

A boundless sadness surged into my heart.

On that end, the conversation continued.

Lilly first sighed like an adult.

Then, as if she had made a major parting-off, she said heavily, "Well then! I don't particularly miss my children anymore. Didn't you tell me Dad? There is no permanent banquet in the world, as long as Being able to be with mom and dad is the only place where I am happy. It doesn't matter if I don't see my little friends for a lifetime. I will see them one day."

Arron smiled at her daughter's slightly sad tone.

Men rarely laugh.

Especially when he came to Gasing Island and failed to find any news about his mother for two consecutive days, he was even more anxious.

But at this moment, seeing his daughter's innocent appearance, Arron still smiled. He said gently: "Mom and dad and you will never be separated."

Suzi also held his only head and said: "We are a family of three and we will never be separated!"

Lilly's loud declaration: "Never separate!"

As soon as the little girl's voice fell, she heard a pig-killing cry from the ward next door: "Oh oh oh... I haven't married a wife yet. Did you die like this?"

Chapter 942

Lilly was taken aback.

Suzi and Arron looked at the next ward at the same time.

The doctor said yesterday afternoon that Joan would wake up this morning.

The two got out of bed immediately, and then took the only one to come to the next ward, and saw Joan lying on the bed alone, crying like a child.

Seeing Suzi, Arron, and Shen alone coming to him, Joan was not surprised.

He still looked at Arron whirling with tears: "Cousin, I...I just hung up like this? I...I'm different from you. I haven't married a wife yet. I still want to How about marrying a loving and righteous wife like Suzi, I...I also each child, your family of three will be together forever, but what about me?"

I can!

Ouuu...I haven't lived enough yet, I don't want to die! "

Arron sneered: "If you miss your sister-in-law again, I will consider sending you to heaven now!"

Joan immediately sat upright: "Cousin, what did you say? You said I wasn't dead?"

As soon as he finished speaking, he immediately felt severe pain from his chest: "Oh...it hurts, it hurts! My wound..."

Hurt?

Will he hurt?

He...

Joan raised his head and looked at Arron and Suzi in surprise: "I...Am I still alive? Here...this is not a tomb, nor is it heaven, here is..."

"Hospital!" Suzi said, squeezing the quilt for Joan for a hundred years: "You have been in a coma from yesterday to now. Of course, there are also medicines. You are now out of danger, and the cut is less than one. The work is in your heart, so you are dead."

Joan: "Really...really Suzi?"

"Call my sister-in-law!"

"Call my sister-in-law!"

"Call my sister-in-law!"

A family of three, even one colleague, scolded Joan.

Joan: "Sister-in-law...sister-in-law."

Suzi smiled peacefully: "Joan, from then on, you really don't owe me anything. You see that you are the only one with a cut. If it's not for you, the only possibility is..."

Yubi, she turned her head and looked at Lilly: "The only one, come over and call Uncle. Uncle is not only an uncle, but also a relative, but also your savior."

Lilly came to Joan and said sweetly: "Uncle, when I go to my grandfather's house in the future, I will bring more lollipops. Tell me you like sweets or strange ones. Taste, or like to eat smelly? What kind of lollipops do you like, I will bring you to eat."

Joan: "Lollipop, also...there is something smelly?"

"Yeah!" Lilly nodded: "It smells stinky, and it tastes delicious when you eat it. Do you want to eat stinky? Okay, I will give you the stinky next time, as if it's in my mother's bag. I left a few stinky lollipops for me, they were very stinky. I will take them out for my uncle now."

Joan: "Don't...you're welcome...I... my uncle is an adult, and my uncle doesn't like eating...that, the only one, you... .. Just keep it for you to eat, uncle..."

"Wow..." A black lollipop that looked like a flying lollipop was so unceremoniously stuffed into Joan's mouth.

Joan's surprised face was sweaty all over his forehead.

He was really afraid of a bad mouth, so stop vomiting it out.

However, after he was surprised, he was full of Lanita.

"Uncle sweet?" Lilly raised his head, smiling like a flower, looking at Joan innocently.

Joan replied sweetly: "Sweet, very sweet."

"In this way, your wound won't hurt." Shen Dui asked again.

"Yeah, I can't feel the pain anymore." Joan replied truthfully.

After he finished speaking, he said angrily: "You little thing, you are not allowed to lie to uncle in the future, but I am your dear uncle!"
