

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 3660

Although the soldiers of the Wanlong Palace were very afraid of Charlie's strength, at this moment, they couldn't bear to see Abbas looked so miserable and desperate.

After all, almost all of them had been blessed by Abbas, and they couldn't sit back and watch with peace of mind.

What's more, if Charlie keeps not letting go, not only will Abbas be unable to escape, but their subordinates will also find it difficult to survive.

Therefore, they all knelt on the ground one after another, hoping to do more for Abbas and beg Charlie's forgiveness together.

Seeing so many Wanlong Temple masters all knelt on the ground in front of Charlie and kowtowed, Lord Wade's heart was extremely excited.

From this scene, he saw the hope of the Wade Family's rise. Moreover, this rise does not mean that the Wade Family is called the number one in the country, but that it can lead the Wade Family to become the number one in the world.

Opposite him, Lord Banks, standing alone, panicked to the extreme in his heart.

All the people in the Wanlong Temple knelt down, and now, in the camp on this side, he was the only one standing.

He didn't know whether he continued to stand here or knelt down with the people in the Wanlong Temple.

Standing alone is certainly not appropriate.

But let yourself kneel down for Charlie, this... this seems even more inappropriate.

After all, he is the Patriarch of the banks Family. It was already embarrassing to put on the parents of Abbas. Wouldn't it be even more embarrassing to kneel down for Charlie now?

Just when he didn't know what to do, a member of the Ten Thousand Dragon Palace nearby directly dragged him to the ground.

Lord Banks fell down, and just about to get up, he was slapped in the face by the Wanlong Temple soldier, and cursed in a low voice: "You old bastard! We all knelt down to intercede for the Lord, why don't you kneel? Kneel to me quickly!"

After this slap, Lord Banks's face immediately swelled, and the pain was painful.

Although there was 10,000 anger in his heart, he did not dare to express anything.

After all, in this situation, he doesn't have any right to speak at all, and if others smoke him, he can only stick to it.

At this time, all the Ten Thousand Dragons Palace soldiers stared at Charlie with a pair of tearful eyes, and they were all waiting for Charlie's final response.

Charlie looked at the tragic appearance of Abbas, and said calmly: "So many people are begging for you, and you can see that they are all sincerely supporting you, but you brought them to Yeling Mountain to die because of your own selfishness. Don't you feel ashamed of the so-called hall master?"

Abbas choked with pain: "I am ashamed...I am ashamed now, not only to the brothers in Wanlongdian, but also to my parents, but also to you, MR. Wade, and your parents..."

As he said, he looked up at Zayne and Deana, choked up and said: "Uncle banks and Aunt , let you two intercede for me, abbas also feels very ashamed..."

Zayne sighed and said nothing.

At this moment, he didn't know what to say in response to Abbas.

Abbas immediately looked at Charlie again and said seriously: "MR. Wade, if you look down on my Abbas and don't need me, Abbas, to be in front of you, then Abbas can apologize with death. If I die here today, it will satisfy you and calm you down, then I am willing to die immediately, not to live for even a second! And I am willing to smash the corpse in the wilderness after death, let the insects, ants and beasts eat, and only ask you, MR. Wade I can raise my hands high and let my parents go into the soil for peace!"

Charlie frowned, then looked at Lord Elms (Wilfred) and asked, "Mr. elms, did you bring a knife when you went out today?"
