

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 3681

Everyone also knew that the Wade Family's ancestor worship ceremony was held only once in twelve years.

As a result, everyone bid farewell to Charlie and Lord Wade, and took the bus arranged by Jasmine Moore and Ito Nanako to leave Yeling Mountain to the Shangri-La Hotel in Eastcliff.

After the number of buses left, apart from the soldiers of the Wanlong Temple who were kneeling on the ground, and the Banks Family and his son, all the rest were the Wade Family and the butler Stephen Thompson.

The Wanlong Palace is headed by Abbas. Nearly a hundred people kneel down in a pyramid shape. These people have their legs close together, their arms bent, and they knocked their foreheads on the ground.

After all, they are all Lianjiazi, so when everyone bows down, they maintain the same angle and posture, and they look neat and uniform.

Moreover, they knelt on the ground one by one, in an extremely religious state.

Especially Abbas, who was kneeling at the front, was full of shame even with the expression hidden in his arms.

And the Banks Family father and son, although they did not dare to neglect, but after all their physical strength could not support them, they couldn't support them after they knelt for a long time, so they could only let their upper bodies lie on the ground.

As a result, the kneeling posture of the two of them is almost the same as that of Song Jiang in the old TV series "Water Margin."

On the Wade Family's side, Corran Wade, Jon Wade and others looked at Charlie anxiously, for fear that he would settle accounts with them at this time.

Charlie watched the bus convoy go down the mountain, slowly turned around, staring at the Wade Family with a torch, and said coldly: "Today, in the presence of the ancestors of the Wade Family, I officially took over the affairs of the Wade Family. The first thing is to supplement the calcium for the sons of the cartilage head Wade Family!"

After hearing Charlie's words, the people with guilty conscience couldn't help but shudder. They saw Charlie's posture, and they knew that he was about to start liquidation.

At this time, the old man Wade, who had just taken the power of the Wade Family by Charlie, said righteously: "Charlie! The current situation of the Wade Family really needs to be rectified! You can do so! Don't be merciful just because you care about family affection!"

Charlie nodded and said coldly: "Of course! Some of the Wade Family's descendants, in order to steal their lives, do not hesitate to leave the dignity and interests of the Wade Family behind, and even give up their ancestral graves and family business, and even prepare in advance. Xiaoyi wants to put on hemp and filial piety to pray for forgiveness for those who are not relatives and filial piety. What is the difference between these people and the traitors who betrayed the enemy and surrendered when the nation was in distress?!"

All the Wade Family members carrying Xiaoyi were so nervous that their legs trembled.

Cynthia Wade, who feared Charlie the most, knelt on the ground with a puff, and choked with tears in his nose: "Charlie...aunt was wrong...aunt I'm sorry to the ancestors of the Wade Family...you are now the head of the Wade Family. No matter how you punish, my aunt will never complain..."

While crying, she took out the filial piety that was hidden in her arms and threw it on the ground. She regretted crying at the beginning: "Charlie, please look at your aunt for the first time she knew the wrong confession. Auntie will never do it again..."

Corran Wade, Myles Wade and others looked silly instantly.

They also wondered how Cynthia Wade, the strongest character, was the first to admit his mistake today, because he wanted to grab a jackpot so that he could get lighter!

Corran Wade's teeth tickled with hatred, and he whispered inwardly: "How did Chang Min's brain grow?! The wall is not as fast as her response!"
