

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 3690

Orrin Sun said seriously: "It doesn't matter if there is a gap, but you must fight steadily and step by step."

With that, Orrin Sun instructed Charlie: "Charlie, Rothschild family is too strong. At this time, I really don't recommend that you contact them too early!"

Charlie nodded and smiled: "Uncle , don't worry. I will go to Northern Europe this time. I will not go head-to-head with them. The main thing is to help Helena regain the throne first and get in touch with the Rothschild family by the way. Then I will hide myself. Identity, you can rest assured."

Seeing Charlie's decision to leave, Orrin Sun exhorted: "Rothschild is commonly known as Old Money in Europe and America. It is not like Bill Gates, a new generation of rich man. On the surface, it is more like a huge iceberg, what we can see now is just the tip of the iceberg!"

"And what's really powerful about it is its pervasive penetration in the entire Western society over the past few hundred years!"

"On the surface, they seem to have ten companies, but in fact, there may be as many as thousands of companies actually controlled by them through various means. This power is quite terrifying, even if your grandpa's family is already Ranked among the three largest families in the world, but the combined assets of your grandfather and the royal family in the Middle East may not be able to rival Rothschild!"

Speaking of this, Orrin Sun warned: "Charlie, at any time, when facing the Rothschild family, you must be absolutely careful!"

Charlie nodded solemnly and said, "Uncle , don't worry, I know it!"

At this time, Stefanie Sun on the side looked at Charlie with excitement, and said excitedly: "Charlie! With your strength, I believe that even the Rothschild family will be trampled under your feet!"

Stefanie Sun was originally Charlie's little fan girl, but now she looks like an avid fan.

Charlie nodded lightly and said with a smile: "Don't worry, this day will come!"

After that, Charlie poured another glass of wine, and said: "Uncle , Aunt , I toast you a glass, thank you again for your love for me!"

The Sun family filled three glasses with three sips and drank them together with Charlie.

Charlie saw the Moore Family and the Ito family sitting on the same table not far away, and said to the Sun family three: "There are some other friends over there, I'll go and say hello first."

"Go!" Orrin Sun said with a smile, "I'll remember to come back and have a drink with my uncle later!"

"good!"

Charlie bid farewell to the Sun family and took the wine glass to the table where the Moore Family and Ito family were.

At this time, Ito Nanako, watching Charlie approach closer and closer, although her face was still gentle as water, the loving eyes could no longer conceal it.

She originally loved Charlie extremely deeply. Today, when she saw Charlie use her own power to make the entire Wanlong Temple kneel in front of him and kowtow for mercy, she only felt that if she could not marry Charlie in this life, or If he can't be his woman, then he can only be alone in his life.

Because she knew that there would be no more man who could completely conquer herself in consciousness like Charlie.

As for the dignified and beautiful Jasmine, she has always demanded herself with the demeanor of everybody, but she has already fallen deep in her heart like a little woman.

As soon as Charlie arrived, the Moore Family and Ito family all stood up.

Yuhiko Ito and Hiroshi Tanaka couldn't stand because they lost their legs, but they immediately raised their wine glasses and looked at Charlie with respect.

And the nearly two hundred people brought by the two families all stood up all at once!

Among them, more than a hundred top ninjas who are usually regarded as masters of national treasures in Japan, while standing upright, their hands are humbled on their sides, and their necks and heads are also respectfully lowered forty-five degrees. The face is respectful.

This is their instinctive reaction and courtesy when facing a strong person who makes them respect and fear.

Orrin Sun saw this scene in his eyes, and couldn't help sighing to his wife and daughter: "These Japanese ninjas seem to have been completely overwhelmed by Charlie's strength. In front of him, they dare not even lift their heads!"

Stefanie Sun said seriously: "That is! Charlie's strength is stronger than them, I don't know how much, they must be respectful!"

Angie murmured softly at this time: "I am always the girl from the Ito family and the girl from the Moore Family. It seems that Charlie's eyes are not right..."

After speaking, she glanced at another table not far away. Sisters Zara banks and Xion who were sitting, exclaimed: "And the sisters of the Banks Family...look at Charlie's eyes, too. There are some problems..."
