

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 3695

Twenty minutes later, the Concorde passenger plane whistled and took off in the night of Eastcliff, heading for Northern Europe at extreme speed.

In front of Charlie and Helena, was an eight thousand kilometers long route.

The ordinary airliner flew in at least nine hours, but the Concorde airliner only needed four hours to reach the northern European capital, Osu.

At the same time, a video quickly became popular on the short video software in Northern Europe.

The woman in the video is Helena Iliad, who is known as the number one beauty in Northern Europe.

Although Helena was deprived of the right to succeed to the throne, she is still the most popular and loved member of the royal family in northern Europe.

So she has more than 8 million fans on short video software.

The Nordic countries only have a population of more than six million, and at least half of them are fans of Helena.

In the past, Helena's short video account often updated some small fragments of daily life. Many people who liked her used these short videos to understand her life status.

However, since it was reported that Helena was going to Huaxia and was preparing to marry the Huaxia family, her short video account stopped updating.

A few days later, she suddenly updated a video. In the video, she was sitting in a car and said excitedly: "Friends! I am super excited now! Because I am about to take a Concorde. , I rushed back to Northern Europe to attend the wedding of my sister Princess Olivia! This time, I will not only attend her wedding, I will also be her bridesmaid, witnessing her stepping into the marriage hall with my own eyes! God, I really I'm so excited! I almost cried when I was so excited several times! Please join me and wish her a happy wedding in advance!"

I heard that Duke Helena returned home, and the Nordic citizens were naturally very happy. They all left a message below her video: "Princess Helena, welcome home!"

In addition, many people wished Olivia a happy wedding in their messages, and the comment area was warm and peaceful.

At this time, the local time in Northern Europe is at noon.

Olivia, who was having lunch with her parents, suddenly received this video of Helena. After watching it, she pushed the plate to the ground in anger and said coldly: "This Helena is really looking for death! I have already told her clearly that she will not be allowed to return to Northern Europe in this life. I didn't expect that she would dare to come back! And she came back with such a big fanfare! She was blatantly provoking me when she posted this video! She thought she was sending this video, I dare not do anything to her? Then she underestimated me, Olivia!"

After that, she immediately picked up the phone and called Helena.

However, the phone reminded Helena that her cell phone had been turned off.

Olivia left a message to her voicemail, and said coldly: "Helena! Who gave you the courage to disobey my orders! If you dare to set foot on the Nordic land, I will kill..."

Before Olivia's words were finished, her father Richard snatched the phone from her and immediately terminated the message, and then blurted out: "Olivia, are you crazy?! If you say in your voicemail If you threaten Helena to kill her mother, once Helena releases the recording, you will be finished!"

Olivia suddenly fell into a cold sweat and asked nervously, "Where did I just say?!"

Richard said with lingering fear: "Fortunately, I reacted quickly! As soon as you finished talking about killing, I stopped the message!"

Olivia let out a sigh of relief, and while stroking her chest, she gritted her teeth and cursed: "Helena, this bitch! My sanity has been ruined by her!"

Richard did not speak, but watched Helena's video with his wife, and then said: "What does Helena want to do when he comes back? Is it to save her mother?"

Olivia's mother Wendy said at this moment: "Helena is not a fool. She must know that with her ability, it is impossible to find her mother's whereabouts. So, in my opinion, she came back this time very much. It may be that I want to show goodwill to us and take the opportunity to ease the relationship."

Olivia said coldly: "I don't care what her purpose is, but she went back to Northern Europe without my permission. This shows that she disobeyed my order!"
