

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 3696

Having said that, Olivia said again: "Also, I asked her to go to St. Petersburg, Russia yesterday, but instead of listening, she dared to return to Northern Europe. What a courage!!"

"And she actually said in a short video that she would be my bridesmaid! I won't let her be my bridesmaid! My wedding, she will never be allowed to jump out and grab the limelight!"

Richard frowned and said: "I heard that the Ye family has surrendered to the Wanlong Temple, but even though it surrendered, the Ye family should have left half of its assets, which is at least one or two hundred billion euros in assets. This strength should not be underestimated."

"Moreover, Helena's Concorde is also the Wade family's asset. It can be seen that although the Wade family has suffered heavy losses, it has not completely fallen down. To us, she is still very valuable."

Having said that, he advised Olivia: "So, I don't think you should be too angry, but first see what Helena wants to do. If she really wants to repair the relationship with you, at the same time after you get married, if she can leave Northern Europe consciously, let her cooperate with us after returning to attract Wade family funds to Northern Europe. Why should you bother with her?"

Olivia said with a disgusted expression: "Because I don't like to be equal to Helena!"

After all, she continued gritted her teeth: "For so many years, I have been suppressed by her no matter what I do. In terms of inheritance law, she ranks ahead of me! She is also prettier than me in terms of looks! In terms of grades, she has always been better than me. I am excellent! Even the degree of popular love, she is far more than me!"

"Later, I finally got the first heir, but her popular support rate is still the highest!"

Speaking of this, Olivia roared angrily: "The most unbearable thing for me is that after I was canonized as the first in line, there are still nearly a million Nordic nationals who have eaten and have nothing to do. I went to the US White House website to petition, asking the White House to intervene in the Nordic royal family, and let Helena restore the first heir! This incident has been ranked first in the news list in Europe and the United States. For me, it is a shame for a lifetime!! !"

"So, what I want is for her to bow her head to me permanently! Whenever you see me, you have to bow down and call me your Royal Highness Olivia respectfully!"

Her mother Wendy hurriedly said: "Olivia, don't be so angry for now. Helena has already posted a video and publicly announced that she is coming back. In order not to let the public pick her up, we can only temporarily accept her and let her She is attending your wedding."

Wendy said again: "At the same time, you have to let her be your bridesmaid, because only in this way can you ensure that the people will not raise any questions. Once the wedding is over, she will be forced to consciously leave Northern Europe and never let her live. since."

Olivia said with a distorted expression: "She is deliberately using the people to pinch me! Did I just let her come and walk freely?! If she succeeds this time, it won't take long. She will have another next time! If she comes again on the day of my ascension to the throne, what should I do?! It's really unreasonable!"

Wendy said, "Olivia, don't worry about this. This time Helena has already posted a video and got on the plane. We will let her come back for the time being, but after we come back, we must control her and tell her If she dares to return to Northern Europe without permission next time, then we will kill her mother immediately and let her decide for herself!"
