

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 3698

As he said, Olivia sneered and said: "In that case, we can still severely condemn Aman Ramovic and force him to pay another pension, otherwise we will expose the news that he has abused the royal princess. Everyone! I think you have to give another 500 million euros by then? After all, it is not easy for the royal family to raise Helena. It is reasonable for me to ask him for 500 million euros in compensation!"

Richard looked at his daughter, gave a thumbs up, and praised: "Olivia, you really are a talented man! When you inherit the rule, the royal family will surely usher in a spurt of development!"

Olivia nodded and said coldly: "The news of my marriage with William is being paid attention to throughout Europe. Many other European royal families, nobles, and rich people will come to our wedding. Originally, I didn't intend to invite it. Aman Ramovich, the upstart Russian who can't get up to the table, but since Helena is here, then I might as well invite him over, and when the wedding is over, let him take Helena away!"

Richard laughed and said: "Aman Ramovich likes to attend the gatherings of European aristocrats the most. Call him now and he will fly over from St. Petersburg tonight!"

Olivia nodded and said with a sneer: "I'll call him in a while."

After that, Olivia said again: "By the way, Dad, I don't think there is any need to let the old lady continue to linger after I get married. When that time comes, I will notify the doctor and quietly pull out all the tubes."

The speed of the Concorde airliner is faster than the rotation of the earth.

When Charlie and Helena boarded the plane in Eastcliff, their eyes were already at night, but after a four-hour flight, when they arrived in Osu, the capital of Northern Europe, it was just dusk in Northern Europe.

After the plane landed at the end of the runway, it was immediately led all the way to the hangar at the far end of the airport by the ground guided vehicle.

While the plane was still taxiing, Helena heard Olivia's voice message for herself.

Although Olivia didn't finish her words, Helena still heard the strong anger and threat in her words.

She looked at Charlie nervously, and said: "MR. Wade, Olivia should be very angry now. I guess she will strictly control me the moment I get off the plane..."

Charlie smiled and said: "She will probably take you to the palace under house arrest. I may be treated the same way."

Helena hurriedly asked: "What should I do?"

"It doesn't matter." Charlie said lightly: "Since we have come all the way, it is natural to ask the guests as they please. This is due etiquette. We will talk about everything when we get to the palace."

Seeing Charlie on her chest, Helena immediately breathed a sigh of relief, and then asked him: "MR. Wade, how can I introduce you to Helena?"

Charlie smiled and said: "You just said that I am Jon Wade's younger brother, because Jon Wade has not yet married you. According to our China's rules, it is not convenient for Jon Wade to directly participate in this kind of wedding ceremony. Arrange for me to be escorted all the way."

"Okay." Helena nodded slightly, and then asked: "Does your name need to be avoided?"

Charlie shook his head and smiled casually: "No, it's the first time in my life to come to Northern Europe, so naturally I have to come here with integrity!"
