

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 3700

But Olivia always thought that Helena didn't know it. Seeing that she didn't bring her entourage back this time, and the entourage did not report any changes to herself in advance, she realized that Helena might have discovered the truth of the two. identity.

Helena pretended to be silly at this time, and said casually: "I left them in China, and let them and the Wade Family planner prepare the engagement banquet and wedding details."

Helena's words, outsiders sound okay, but Olivia knows very well that Helena is absolutely nonsense!

If this is what she said, then her two subordinates will definitely report the situation to herself as soon as possible.

But now that I have not received any news, it proves that these two people must have been controlled by Helena.

But what made Olivia depressed was that she saw Helena talking in front of her, but she was completely unable to attack.

I could only hold back the anger, and followed her words and said, "It turned out to be like this... Oh sister, I didn't expect that our two sisters will get married soon. Time flies really fast."

Helena nodded, and sighed with a smile likewise: "Yes, it seems that we were riding a horse on the grass of the palace together yesterday, and we are going to be married in a blink of an eye."

Olivia snorted, looked at Charlie next to her, frowning and asked: "By the way, this one next to you doesn't seem to be your fiancé, Mr. jone wade, right?"

Helena hurriedly introduced: "Oh, yes, I almost forgot to introduce you. This is jon wade's cousin, Charlie! jon has had a lot of things recently and can't go away, so he will accompany me back this time."

Olivia didn't know much about the structure of the Wade Family. Hearing that Charlie was Jon's cousin, she instinctively thought that it might also be the son of someone else in the Wade Family, and didn't take it to heart.

William on the side didn't think much.

Because it was the American Rothschild core family that fought Bruce in the China Market.

Moreover, it was the Rothschild family that won in the end, so he, the son of the third-tier family in Europe, didn't know the grievances that year, or the specific situation of the Wade Family.

Olivia made up his mind to sell Helena to the Russian oligarch Aman Ramovic.

Therefore, she didn't plan to have anything to do with the Wade Family in the future, so naturally she didn't have a good face towards Charlie.

She looked at Charlie and said with a sarcasm: "Mr. Wade, I heard that your Wade Family was just killed by Wanlongdian? I also heard that Wanlongdian, besides snatching your grave, also asked The family gave up half of its assets? Then the loss of your Wade Family should be great this time, right?"

William on the side saw that Olivia was a little bit against Charlie, and he deliberately raised his eyebrows and said, "Olivia, why do you talk about other people's pain as soon as you meet, the Wade Family's loss this time is so great, it's embarrassing and losing money. Mr. Wade must be very painful."

Charlie smiled and said casually: "I'm not at all painful. There is an old saying in China that the dead camel is bigger than a horse. Even if the Wade Family loses half of its assets, there will be more than one trillion yuan. For the vast majority of trash families in Europe, they are still a lot stronger."

When William heard the sarcasm in Charlie's words, he immediately asked angrily: "The surname is Wade! Who do you say is the rubbish family?"

Charlie smiled arrogantly and coldly: "In my eyes, all of your European families whose assets are not as good as my Wade Family's, one counts as one, it's all rubbish!"
