

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 3704

The reason is that this thing is too rare.

A total of 20 or so aircraft were built back then, and now there are only single digits left, which are truly out-of-print private jets.

Moreover, it is also the only private jet that can fly at supersonic speeds.

Who can own such a private jet, the face of flying out, is much more magnificent than the A380 of the Saudi royal family!

Olivia and William are both extremely vanity-loving people. There are countless luxury goods on weekdays, but none of them dare to expect that they can own a Concorde.

Therefore, when William was asked to propose this idea, Olivia immediately became very excited.

So she immediately asked: "My dear, what can you do?"

William sneered: "After the banquet tonight, I made a card game and played cards with some guests from afar. By the way, I would earn some pocket money. Then I will make a game and invite Charlie to come and play two. As long as he is willing to play, I am sure to let him fall in step by step."

Olivia asked suspiciously: "Are you really sure?"

William confidently said: "Don't worry, among the guests here this time, there is a person I have arranged in advance. This person has been a croupier in Las Vegas for many years. As long as he is asked to deal, No matter what project you play, Charlie can lose everything!"

Olivia asked inexplicably: "Why did you even plant an old man in the palace?"

William shrugged his shoulders and said lightly: "Don't you know the hobbies of these rich men? What they like is nothing more than beauty and gambling. They come to the palace for weddings, and it's definitely impossible to bring women around in the palace. An impromptu gambling game will surely interest them very much!"

As he said, William continued with some excitement: "But on such occasions, as long as someone sets the game, every man loves to play with two hands and lose tens of millions of euros, which is nothing to them. One person can be tens of millions, and ten people can be tens of millions or even hundreds of millions, so as long as the operation is done properly, it is easy to earn tens of millions of euros."

Olivia touched her chin and said with a smile: "I didn't expect you to be quite bad! Even the money of these relatives and friends is calculated!"

William said embarrassingly: "If there is a chance to make some pocket money, it is not a big loss for them, why not do it? You say yes?"

Olivia snorted and said, "You have a share! I want half of the proceeds from the gambling game!"

William was taken aback for a moment, and then said with a smile: "Haha, Olivia, I have a hunch that the married life of the two of us will be very, very harmonious!"

Olivia raised her eyebrows and said, "If Charlie can really lose that Concorde to you, this plane will be half mine!"

"Of course!" William reached out and squeezed Olivia's chin and kissed her lips firmly. After a while, he raised his head and said softly: "Your Majesty Olivia, my Everything belongs to you!"

Olivia nodded with satisfaction and smiled: "It seems that you have begun to adapt to the role of 'Prince William' in advance."

William smiled and said, "Of course! I wish I would be your husband tomorrow and the prince of Northern Europe the day after tomorrow!"

As he said, William said again: "My father has promised me. After you inherited Datong and canonized me as the prince, you will give us the Italian luxury yacht parked in Copenhagen, and a set in Beverly, Los Angeles. The villa of the mountain villa!"

Half an hour later, the convoy drove into the Nordic Palace.

The Nordic royal family has three palaces in the Nordic state, and the suburb of the capital is the largest of the three, and it is also the most luxurious.

The entire palace is actually more like a combination of a large castle and manor.

The whole area reaches hundreds of hectares, and the area is so large that there is also a golf course and an equestrian field inside.

It is said that the building and land value of this palace alone is more than 3 billion euros.

However, because this thing is the ancestral property of the royal family and a symbol of the royal family, the laws of the country prohibit the royal family from selling.

If you can't sell it, it means that the royal family only has the right to use it.
