

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 3674

Seeing him change the subject, Stefanie Sun did not continue to be aggressive, so she followed his words and said: "Starting from the beginning of next month, I will go to Canada first. Vancouver, Montreal, Toronto and Ottawa will each have one, and then go south from Canada to the United States. One stop is New York, and then from the east coast to the west, Chicago, Houston, and then to Los Angeles and San Francisco on the west coast. It may take a month or so to tour North America, and then go to Europe after the end."

After speaking, Stefanie Sun looked at Charlie with a grieved expression: "Charlie, once I start an overseas tour, I may not see you for two or three months..."

Charlie comforted: "Isn't it important for you to work? Besides, it's another farewell concert. After you finish this concert tour, you will be able to stay steadfast in Eastcliff."

Stefanie Sun nodded and said, "After I officially leave the entertainment circle, I have to go to the sun Group to take over."

After that, she looked at Charlie and said with a grin: "Charlie, I have already thought about it. After I take over, I will invest in a few projects in Aurous Hill first, and then run to Aurous Hill in two or three days. Will you welcome me?"

Charlie smiled and said: "Okay, as long as you are willing, I am definitely welcome!"

Stefanie Sun hurriedly said: "Then let's just say that. When that happens, you should not despise me just because I am old, let alone avoid seeing me."

"Okay..." Charlie had to agree.

Satisfied, Stefanie Sun drove the car all the way to the airport hangar. The private plane that Orrin Sun gave to Charlie stopped here, and the Concorde airliner next door had taken off again for Northern Europe.

This time back to Aurous Hill, in addition to Deana going back with Charlie's plane, Don Albert and Isaac Cameron also ran over to take the plane back.

When Charlie arrived at the airport, they had already arrived for a long time. Deana stood beside the boarding car with a small suitcase, while Don Albert and Isaac Cameron stood at the door of the hangar and smoked quietly.

A staff member kindly reminded: "Two, fireworks are strictly prohibited in the hangar..."

Don Albert waved his hand disdainfully: "Aren't those two big engines on the plane just rely on ignition? It's all right, what can be the problem with our two broken cigarette butts?"

The staff member said embarrassingly: "Sir, this is not a nature..."

Don Albert smacked his lips and said, "Tsk...I said, why do you have a tendon? Just turn your face and treat it as if you haven't seen it?"

Isaac Cameron stuffed the cigarette butt into the mineral water bottle that he had half-drunked, patted Don Albert on the shoulder, and said: "Okay, don't make things difficult for others, pinch the cigarette."

Although Don Albert was a little unhappy, he didn't say anything, and threw the cigarette butt in.

At this time, Charlie drove to the door of the hangar. When they saw Charlie coming, they hurriedly stood up straight and waited respectfully.

As soon as the car listened steadily, Don Albert hurriedly stepped forward, opened the door of the co-pilot, and respectfully said to Charlie: "Master, you are here!"

Charlie frowned and said, "Don Albert, didn't you call me Master Wade? How did you change the name?"

Don Albert said hurriedly: "Master, you are now the Patriarch of the Wade Family, or the new owner of the Wanlong Palace. Looking at the world, who can compete with you? With your present noble status, how can I call you again? Where's Master Wade..."

Charlie waved his hand: "Don't, you should call me Master Wade. I still prefer this name to "Patriarch of the Wade Family" and "Young Master Wade"."

Don Albert was still a little bit embarrassed. He always felt that Charlie was neglected, but Isaac Cameron was much smarter than Don Albert. He respectfully said: "Master Wade, the plane is ready and ready to take off at any time, and Ms. deana is here too. I just asked She got on the plane and rested. She didn't want to say anything. She insisted on waiting for you to get on the plane."

Charlie nodded, pointed at Isaac Cameron and said to Don Albert: "Did you see, isaac has been on the road more than you."

Don Albert smiled awkwardly: "Master Wade is right. How can I be a big boss than Mr. isaac? Mr. isaac's brain spins faster than an airplane engine!"
