

Chapter 1321

The dance leader immediately snapped, "Gloria Shaw! Stop it, you can't beat her! She'll die!"

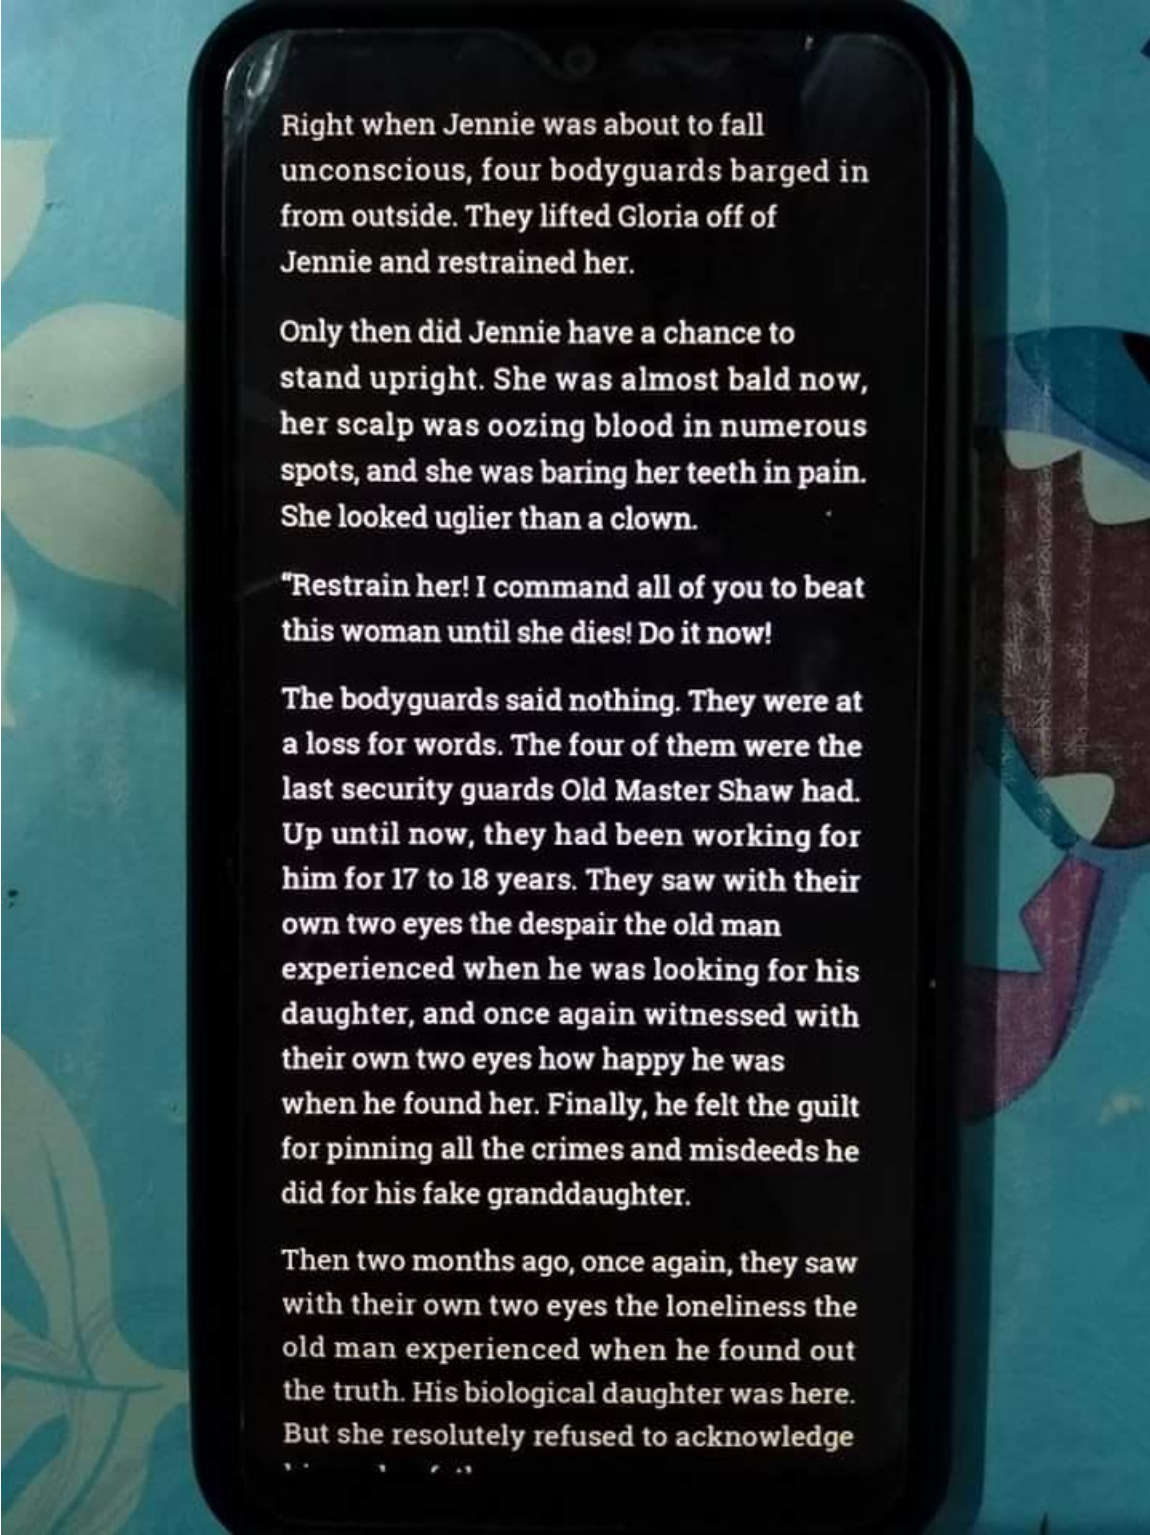

Gloria ignored her. Her fists continued raining down on Jennie as she screamed angrily, "Jennie Gibson, you listen to me! Whoever you want to acknowledge as your father, it's your business; you're also free to become the Shaw family's daughter! But don't you dare try to ruin my daughter's happy family! I'll beat you until you die today, and once you're dead, I'll see how you and your daughter can continue causing trouble!"

Punch! Punch!

Under Gloria's rain of punches, Jennie's face now swelled up like a puffer fish. Her glamorous and wealthy look was now completely gone.

Gloria had gone berserk. She had suppressed these emotions for decades. Since she was a young girl, all of the fatherly love that was meant for her had been dominated by this woman. But even till now, this woman was still trying to flaunt her power and dominance?

Right when Jennie was about to fall

Right when Jennie was about to fall unconscious, four bodyguards barged in from outside. They lifted Gloria off of Jennie and restrained her.

Only then did Jennie have a chance to stand upright. She was almost bald now, her scalp was oozing blood in numerous spots, and she was baring her teeth in pain. She looked uglier than a clown.

"Restrain her! I command all of you to beat this woman until she dies! Do it now!"

The bodyguards said nothing. They were at a loss for words. The four of them were the last security guards Old Master Shaw had. Up until now, they had been working for him for 17 to 18 years. They saw with their own two eyes the despair the old man experienced when he was looking for his daughter, and once again witnessed with their own two eyes how happy he was when he found her. Finally, he felt the guilt for pinning all the crimes and misdeeds he did for his fake granddaughter.

Then two months ago, once again, they saw with their own two eyes the loneliness the old man experienced when he found out the truth. His biological daughter was here. But she resolutely refused to acknowledge him as her father.

But the bodyguards all expected this. Anyone else would do the same as her! Imagine the pain and suffering she went through! Anyone with a little pride and respect for themselves would not acknowledge the old man for the rest of their life.

That was why, with the old man's lonely desolate heart, the way his health deteriorated day by day... The bodyguards watched it all, but although their hearts ached for him, they had nothing to say.

Yesterday, when the Shaw family relatives, Jennie Gibson, and her daughter and granddaughter moved into the Shaw family residence, the old man was in good spirits; that was why, even more so, the bodyguards had no right to comment.

But at this moment, they watched as Jennie came to insult her, but was unexpectedly humiliated by Gloria instead. To put it bluntly, all of Jennie's power and influence came from Old Master Shaw.

Sigh! The Shaw family! Their relatives were always the cause of their doom.

"Beat this damn woman to the death!"
Jennie screamed at the four bodyguards

always the cause of their doom.

"Beat this damn woman to the death!"
Jennie screamed at the four bodyguards
like a crazed woman.

The leader of the bodyguards immediately replied, "You... This is the dance studio, I don't think it's appropriate."

Besides, they were just in charge of escorting her to the dance studio, not to beat up someone. And a woman at that. Not only that, Old Master Shaw's daughter. Of course not.

"Just follow my orders! If she dies, I'll take full responsibility!" Jennie ordered.

The bodyguards were speechless.

"Jennie Gibson, are you tired of living?" A cold voice sounded from behind her.
