

Chapter 1367

“That’s why, there’s actually not much difference between my grandmother’s fate and mine. Since there’s no difference, then I have to make sure my daughter’s childhood will be different from mine, the bitterness of having a father, and yet, was never able to enjoy any advantages from having a father.

“Sebastian Ford, since you cannot give your daughter your love, then you have to fulfill the responsibility that you owe her. You’re worth trillions of dollars! Even your daily income is calculated in tens of millions. Therefore, one-tenth of your daily income must be given to Aino. That’s just a part of it. And also, her shares! You have to give her shares to her too!”

After her short speech, Sabrina took a sip of water then looked at him calmly. Her eyes did not hold an ounce of lingering love and attachment for him. It was as if the man sitting in front of her was not the king of South City, the Director of the Ford Group, but a homeless man who picked up trash from the streets that she picked up trash from the streets that she looked down upon. ①

Suddenly, he felt like laughing. In South City, whether it was six years ago or right now, how many women chased after him? Could that number even be counted? How many women hid behind his back and tried their best, sharpening their claws to climb into his bed? They would do anything for him, pay any price.

Just like Lori Gibson. To approach him, she even adopted a girl overseas. While putting on an act as a cold and unapproachable woman, she made a fool of herself in the Ford Group, exposing her natal cleft for the world to see. But still, she was not embarrassed enough; she continued all efforts to reach her world.

However, what about this woman sitting in front of him now?

He was her husband, the only woman legally allowed to stay beside him, sleep with him, live in his house, and even run to his office and pull at another woman's hair while she gave her a good beating. After that, she could even cut his tie in

After that, she could even cut his tie in half!

How could she be so nonchalant toward him? As if he was nothing to her. She did not even look sad! Sebastian was furious!

“What if I don’t want to give Aino to you?” Sebastian said calmly without a hint of emotion on his face.

Sabrina laughed with despair. “Sebastian Ford, to be honest, I never expected a heartless and cold-blooded man like you would give me Aino. I was right, after all. You can be cruelly ruthless when you want to be.”

Her eyebrows raised high up on her forehead. In fact, she was trying her best to stop her tears from flowing out of her eyes.

“Fine, if you don’t want to give her to me, there’s nothing I can do. All I can say is, Aino is unlucky! She will share the same fate as her mother, her grandmother, and her great-grandmother before her. Fine!” Sabrina stood up to leave.

“I said, I won’t let you take Aino away from me." He pulled in his legs. Seated between his legs, Sabrina was constrained and could not move at all.

She gasped. "You..."

He continued, "I'm so dominating. How could I allow my flesh and blood to wander the streets? You said you wanted to kill me, stab me to death?"

He laughed condescendingly. "Where's your knife? Take it out and show me!"

Sabrina's anger burned in her chest. "Sebastian Ford! You rascal!"

He smiled. "Don't forget, I kidnapped you back from Ciarrai County! I was nice to you for a year and now you forget your own status? Whether Aino or you, since I brought the both of you home, how can I let you go again? Woman, you must be dreaming."

Sabrina was speechless.

After a pause, she asked, "What do you plan to do to me?"

He lifted his lips in a sneer. "The

OWN STATUS: WHETHER LIKE OF YOU, SINCE I brought the both of you home, how can I let you go again? Woman, you must be dreaming.”

Sabrina was speechless.

After a pause, she asked, “What do you plan to do to me?”

He lifted his lips in a sneer. “The appropriate nighttime activities, of course.”

With that, he bent down and heaved her into his arms, then headed straight for their shared bedroom.
