

The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 1151 - 1160

The beautiful doctor just did not want to get down from his back as she finally got the chance of intimate contact.

Naturally, Alex could feel the existence of that great figure on the back of him. He could only use his super strong willpower to suppress that thought in his mind.

He said, “Be good and wait for me here. You have the jade pendant for self-protection. You won’t feel any pain even if you fall on your ass.”

“I can come down if you want me to, but you have to kiss me first”

“Um...?”

Alex turned his head in astonishment as he had said those words about their relationship earlier for nothing. “Aren’t you afraid that I’ll abandon my wife and children just like your father?”

“What am I supposed to be afraid of when I’m just a mistress at best?”

“ ... ”

“Are you going to kiss me or not?”

“Doctor Coney, I’m starting to suspect that you’re an imposter. I’ve known you for a year, you weren’t like this before.”

“That’s your fault too. Starting from the moment that you’ve seen my true colours for the first time when you came into my office without knocking the door, you’ve become my prey.”

After those words, Alex kissed her aggressively on the lips for three minutes till she was almost out of breath.

In front of the former site of Ganoderma in the mountain valley, boxes after boxes were removed from the inside. There were several trolleys outside the entrance. The boxes were carefully sent toward the outside after they were moved onto the trolleys.

“Hancock, is this the last batch for today?”

“Yes!”

“Then let’s follow the ship out to Morro to have some fun. Damn, I haven’t had a woman for half a month, my heart is itching! I feel dull staying in this depth of mountains and forests.”

“Aren’t there a few women in this valley?”

“You call those women? Even the sow are cleaner than them. I get sick whenever I smell that stench. I still don’t want to get any sickness.”

“That’s true. The women here are rotting away.”

The two men pushed the trolley out of the valley. Then, they made a turn and were about to head into a narrow road. As a result, they ran into a young man.

He was Alex Rockefeller.

“You two there, what do you have on this trolley?” Alex asked straightforwardly.

“Huh?”

The two men, Hancock and Wilbur, were instantly stunned when they saw a young man appearing out of nowhere whom they did not recognize at all. They glared at him.

“Where did you come from?”

Alex replied, “I came from outside.”

Hancock’s eyes suddenly flashed. “What are you doing here?”

“Looking for Ganoderma! You still haven’t told me about it. What is in this box? Why are you here?”

Alex reached out his arm and patted on one of the boxes.

Hancock and Wilbur glanced at each other.

In the next moment, they both took out a dagger from their waist right away. Hancock charged forward first and drew the dagger toward Alex’s neck, slashing it down.

It was fierce and vicious.

This man drew out a knife and tried to kill a person even before any conflict occurred.

If an ordinary tourist were to come here by accident, he would probably be dead without anyone knowing. In the end, he would only end up as a missing case. There would never be a time for the truth to be revealed. When the dagger was still ten centimeters away from Alex's neck, he reached out his hand and pinched the blade of the dagger.

"Ah?!" Hancock was stunned.

His ferocious, blood-red eyes that were filled with killing intent before suddenly turned into a shocking expression. No matter how hard he tried, the dagger could not advance by an inch.

Meanwhile, Alex exerted force on his fingers.

Crack!

The dagger broke off from its root of the handle.

Hancock pinched the hilt of the dagger in his hand while the blade of the dagger completely fell into Alex's hand. His expression changed abruptly as he knew something was not right.

This person that could break the dagger with his bare hand. He was definitely not an ordinary man.

Chapter 1152

'Retreat!'

Unfortunately, how could Alex let them escape by any chance?

"Isn't it fair if you intend to kill and others kill you?"

The blade changed its direction, and half of the dagger was stabbed into the middle of his brows in an instant.

When Wilbur saw Hancock next to him was killed instantaneously, he was so frightened that his hands and legs turned cold. He hurriedly threw away his dagger and turned around to run off. However, Alex grabbed him in the mid-air, bringing his entire body back and pinning him down on top of the box of the trolley.

“Why are you running away? You haven’t answered my question.”

“Ah- B-big Bro, please don’t kill me. I’m... I’m just a worker here.” He was going to pee himself out of fear.

“What kind of work are you doing inside the wilderness of thickly forested mountains?”

Alex slapped open one of the boxes with his palm. Many tiny bottles fell out of it. The bottles were very tiny, they were similar to the bottles of antibiotics for injections. Dark green solution was filled inside them.

When Alex saw such things, he was slightly shocked but he had already guessed them in his mind.

“The venom that belongs to Giovanni Winn of Golden Tower?”

“Are they not?”

Wilbur was dumbfounded.

At first, he wanted to make up a lie to deceive him. To his surprise, Alex could tell the contents at a glance, so he immediately said, “Big Bro, I’m just someone working under him and I only earn two hundred dollars a day. I beg you, please let me go!”

Alex’s expression turned cold. “I’m asking you, are they not?”

Wilbur nodded his head hurriedly. “Yes, yes, they are venom.”

“Where are you moving them to? Hurry up and tell me, or else you won’t have the chance to say it.”

“Yes, yes, yes. I’ll say. These are going to be transported to the riverside behind the mountain. There are two ships there, one going to Myanmar and the other one going to Morro.”

“Lead the way to the riverside!”

“Yes, Big Bro!”

Alex instantly picked up the trolley and threw it into the grass beside him. Hancock’s corpse was kicked far away by him too.

Soon, the two of them reached the riverside. As expected, he saw two luxurious speed boats docked on the shore.

After seeing Wilbur and Alex, a bearded man who was smoking by the shore yelled, “Wilbur, what the hell are you doing? Where’s the other trolley of goods? I’m rushing to send out the goods. I still have women waiting for me for dinner tonight!”

Crack!

As soon as his voice fell, the bearded man saw Alex suddenly throw a hand at Wilbur, causing his neck to turn a 720 degree in a split second. The scene looked very weird and horrifying. Wilbur stopped breathing on the spot.

Alex killed these people without any psychological burden.

Yesterday night, Anna told him that the venom was extremely harmful and it was more potent than ordinary poisons. Hence, as long as someone was caught trafficking them, he would not be tolerated and death penalty shall befall upon him.

And, the amount of people delivering these shipments was shocking.

“Damn it! Who... Who are you?”

The bearded man was shocked. He dropped the cigarette in his mouth and it burned his chin.

Alex said calmly, “Alex Rockefeller from the South California Division of Divine Constabulary!”

The bearded man immediately reached toward the back of his waist and grabbed a gun out of it. However, before he could fire it, a strange force was suddenly applied on the gun. The gun was not under his control and flew right into Alex’s hand.

In the next second, Alex used the gun as a hidden weapon and smashed it over.

Slam!

The bearded man’s head was smashed open forcefully. The people on the speed boats finally noticed the anomaly on the shore. However, how could they have the ability to fight the elder of Divine Constabulary who seemed like the Grim Reaper?

In less than a minute, everyone was settled.

This place was located in the depth of mountains and forests, so cell phones had no signal at all. However, Alex found a satellite phone on the speedboat.

He used the phone to make a call to Anna right away. "I've found the venom factory. Bring someone with you over here!"

"Huh? You found it so fast? How did you find it, Master?"

"They came up to me."

Alex returned to the valley once again after the call had ended. He went back to the former site of Ganoderma.

After thinking about it, he kicked open the door.

Chapter 1153

The door was not shut properly at all.

After the two doors closed on the left and right were kicked open, they directly flew into Ganoderma and knocked over seven or eight workers working inside. Suddenly, the people tumbled and wailed non-stop. After that, Alex stepped into the entrance. When he saw the scene inside, he frowned.

What a messy garbage dump!

There was no effective force protection inside. Seeing Alex hit the door, two low-ranked martial artists who usually maintained the public order symbolically came out. Alex took them out easily with two slaps.

After that, everything else was safe and secured.

These workers were no different from the people working in an ordinary workshop, they were all real workers.

Alex randomly pulled a woman and asked her. He found out that she was a villager in a small town in Morro. It was because the wage here was not little with a total of two hundred dollars a day, including food and shelter even though it was far away from their home. Yet, for these village women with little ability, having a monthly salary of six thousand dollars was considered very good. Most of the workers had similar circumstances as her.

“Then, do you know what you are producing here?” Alex asked again.

“I... I know. This is an ingredient for cosmetics.” When the woman spoke, her eyeballs rolled.

Slap!

Alex gave her a slap on the face directly. “You’re lying!”

The woman’s expression had betrayed her true nature. In fact, all of the workers here knew that they were producing venom. It was something that was even more harmful than other controlled poisons nowadays. This was because a few women who were snatched from the outside were trapped inside this Ganoderma.

Many people present had seen the reaction of those women after being force-fed with the venom.

Rumor had it that a university female student from a metropolis who once came to the Southwestern Province for a trip had a chaste temperament and would rather die than yield. However, after drinking the venom, her entire person had changed... Now, she was the dirtiest and smelliest sow in Ganoderma.

Anyone could have sexual intercourse with her by feeding her just a bit of venom.

The woman who got slapped fell to the ground.

At this moment, an unkempt woman with a dark face walked out and instantly said, "I know the situation here. The things produced here are not cosmetics at all, but a kind of very harmful venom that could cause addiction. Moreover, it could cause extremely strong hallucinations. This place is a drug den! These people are all the accomplices! Inside of this Ganoderma, there are even three rooms that trap the women who had been kidnapped from the outside. They are specially provided for the men in here to vent their carnal desires! All of these people here deserve to die!"

Alex stared at this woman and realized that her facial appearance was very remarkable. The darkness on her face seemed very abnormal. It was not like she was born with it.

It seemed more like it was painted or dyed on her later.

When the woman said this, the other woman who had been knocked over by Alex yelled, "Big Black Chick, what the hell are you talking about? You're the one who deserves to die! How could this place produce venom whatsoever? These are raw materials for cosmetics, okay? This brother over here, you can ask around outside. There's a cosmeceutical brand called Regen and these are the raw materials for Regen Cosmeceuticals. If I've said any lie, I'll get struck by lightning!"

Alex calmly replied, “Indeed, I do know about Regen Cosmeceuticals.”

Upon uttering such a statement, the dark-faced woman had a horrified and anxious expression, as if she was afraid that Alex would be convinced.

However, Alex continued, “I also know that the venom is added as another ingredient inside the products of Regen Cosmeceuticals. So, you are actually trying to cover it up for your boss, right? You know that the venom is very harmful, but you want to make money while ignoring your conscience. You really should get struck by lightning. Now you get what you wish for!”

Alex raised his arm as he said.

Boom!

A loud explosion sounded. An explicable lightning appeared above the woman’s head, striking directly on her head.

She was struck to death on the spot.

“Ah!”

“This is the manifestation of the God of Lightning! The deity has come descended to Earth!”

“The deity has come to condemn sins! The deity has come to condemn sins!”

Chapter 1154

“I’ve told you already, we’ll be going to hell for doing such things. This time, it’s over. It’s truly over now!”

Many of the people present were villagers from the ditches of poor villages. They had lost their human nature because the intimidation and temptations had smoked their hearts in the depth of mountains and forests. Now that Alex had struck the woman to death using the almighty lightning, these people finally felt the fear and kneeled down one after another.

Even the dark-faced woman was taken aback, but her eyes gleamed as if she had seen the light.

She started crying.

“Who are you?” Alex asked her.

The woman replied, "I'm Yasmyn Mack, I came to look for my sister. My sister is now trapped here, she looks inhumane and ghastly..."

"Take me to her."

The woman hurriedly nodded her head.

At this moment, Alex saw a few people were trying to escape from the entrance.

He let out a cold snort as he casually swept his hand. Those people got dragged back by a weird force that appeared in the air, falling to the ground heavily.

"Can we even leave?"

"All of you, kneel down on the spot and confess your sins!"

An extremely strong mental power radiated out of Alex like a sea wave. Except for the dark-faced woman, Yasmyn Mack, the others fell on their knees with loud thuds like marionettes.

Yasmyn was dumbfounded after looking at them. She really thought that she saw a deity descending to Earth.

“Lead the way!”

“Oh, right!”

While walking, Alex only realized that Yasmyn was a cripple as she walked with a limp. As if she could feel Alex’s gaze, the woman bleakly said, “I wasn’t a cripple originally. They broke my leg after I arrived here!”

Soon, they reached in front of a room. The door was locked but there was an opening on the door. They could see the scene inside.

Alex looked through it. All of a sudden, a burst of anger welled up in his heart.

The room was very dim and only had an electric lamp with very low wattage. There were no windows inside as well. It was dark, it was truly complete darkness inside. What triggered Alex’s anger the most was that there were a few large metal cages in the room, with naked women trapped inside them.

“God damn it!”

“Where’s the boss of this place?”

Yasmyn replied, “He went out early in the morning and hasn’t returned yet.”

Alex kicked open the room’s door.

Yasmyn charged toward in front of a cage. “Sis, Sis, wake up. It’s me, Yasmyn. I’m here to rescue you, we’re free to go now... Sis? Sis, what happened to you? Sob, sob... Big, Big Bro, can you please help me?”

Alex felt sad hearing Yasmyn’s choked sobs.

The woman in the cage was laying on the ground motionlessly.

He could tell that her facial features were beautiful originally. She had a full head of long hair and her skin was also very fair. But now, she was covered in bruises and wounds. Her body and hair were filthy and stank a lot.

Most importantly, she had no breathing now!

Alex patted on Yasmyn's shoulder. "She's gone! Restrain your grief and accept fate!"

Yasmyn was stunned for a moment. She immediately covered her mouth and fell to the ground, crying.

At this moment, a voice came from outside. "Why are all of you kneeling down here? Who did this? Where's Hancock? Come the hell out!"

Chapter 1155

Nobody answered.

All the people kneeling on the ground were completely like deaf people without ears. They ignored the man and kneeled there motionlessly.

They were repenting.

“What is going on?”

“Get up! Who made you all kneel down? Are you all kneeling to your mothers?”

Just when the voice turned impatient and the person started kicking the kneeling people, Alex walked out slowly from the inside. He saw three people come in.

The person who was kicking other people looked like a very old man. However, this person looked rather peculiar. His hair was half-white and half-black, he looked like a intersex person.

The other two people were younger.

At a glance, Alex could tell that these two were martial artists, but they were not that great. One of them was at Intermediate-Mystic rank and the other one was at Advanced-Royal rank whom he could easily take them out with one hand.

“You’re the boss here?” Alex stood behind the group of people as he said calmly.

“Mm?”

The few people raised their head and looked toward Alex.

“You’re the one who came to my place to look for trouble? Who are you?” The black and white haired old man asked with a stern voice.

Alex replied, “I’m from Divine Constabulary in South California.”

The two younger men were the old man’s bodyguards on the left and right. As soon as they heard Alex announced his identity, they immediately moved their body and lunged towards Alex.

This was because in their eyes, Alex’s cultivation was not high, or even non-existing. For such people, if one came, they would kill one and they would kill two if a pair came.

Boom!

Boom!

In the room, two thunderclaps suddenly sounded.

Two lightning bolts that were as thick as an arm suddenly appeared in the old room of Ganoderma and struck right above the heads of the two men.

In an instant, they became two burnt corpses, still twitching on the ground.

The black and white haired old man was shocked to the core. He had never heard of such a trick. If it were to be struck above his own head, he would end up in an outcome worse than the two bodyguards!

At this moment, he nearly peed his pants out of fear.

However, Alex spoke up this time, “Don’t you worry, I won’t kill you now. Killing people like you will just dirty my hands. Wait for the people from Divine Constabulary to come here, they’ll naturally deal with you.”

When the old man heard him, he turned around and tried to run away but Alex broke his legs right away and threw him in a corner. After that, a gloomy wind blew.

Maiko Chiba appeared in front of the entrance and acted as the presence that monitored everyone at the scene. She was allowed to kill whoever tried to run away on the spot!

Clank! Clank! Clank!

At this moment, the sound of gold and iron clashing came from the room inside. Alex walked over to take a look. It was from Yasmyn, who had found an iron rod and was desperately smashing the huge lock hanging on the iron cage.

However, she was just a weak woman. She could not open it up at all.

“Let me do it!”

Alex walked over and held the lock in his hand. With a gentle twist, the lock was forcibly ripped off by him. Yasmyn immediately got into the cage and reached out her arm to her sister’s nostril to check her breathing. In the next moment, she let out a cry of anguish and pain.

She cried with tears and blood while holding her sister’s body.

Alex sighed softly. He wanted to let the women in other cages out at first but he remembered that Cheryl was still waiting on top of a certain tree in the valley. She must be worried about him anxiously. Hence, he left the former site of Ganoderma first.

Soon, he returned to the tree.

As expected, Cheryl was very worried. After seeing him returned intact, she let out a long breath of relief and said, “What took you so long? I thought something happened to you and I got so worried. Who are those people that I saw just now?”

Chapter 1156

Alex said, “You can’t even imagine it! In the valley, there indeed is the former site of Ganoderma. But, it has been occupied by others, turning it into a drug den...”

He briefly recounted the matter.

Cheryl’s eyes widened as she listened. Her face was full of horror.

“So, you just spent twenty minutes wiping out the entire nest of the drug den?”

“Did you expect me to keep it until New Year? Let’s go and take a look. There are a few women inside, and they look quite pitiful!” Alex said, “Also, I didn’t find the plaque of Ganoderma even after searching around for it.”

That was the most important thing. Then, the two immediately went to Ganoderma. When they entered the entrance, they could hear Yasmyn's heart shattering cries.

Cheryl was a doctor with benevolence, so she immediately rushed forward. When she saw the scene inside, she was instantly startled. She hurriedly turned around and covered Alex's eyes. "Don't look!"

Alex was a little speechless. "I've been inside before this already."

Very quickly, Alex released all the women from the cages in the three dark rooms. However, he soon found that it was a wrong decision! Those women had long been corroded by the venom. They seemed to have become beasts the moment they were released, leaving only basic instinct inside them. They kept shouting "Give me the Fairy Medicine. Give me the Fairy medicine!" and then wrapped their arms around whoever they saw.

Well, the women were wearing nothing. They were smelly, dirty and sick too.

What should they do if they got infected by them?

Cheryl was so frightened that she hurriedly hid behind Alex.

Leaving with no choice, Alex could only shove them back into the cages.

Yasmyn had carried her younger sister in her arms, coming out of the cage at this time. She also had a lame leg, so it was very difficult for her to walk. She fell to the ground as soon as she stepped out of the iron cage.

Cheryl quickly stepped forward to help her.

Alex asked, "Miss Mack, where are you and your sister from?"

Yasmyn replied somewhat sadly, "Our hometown is Michigan."

After speaking, she suddenly knelt down in front of Alex. "Bro, can you please do me a favor? I really don't have the ability to take my sister out of the rainforest. Can you help me contact the police? There's no signal here, and I don't have a handphone."

"Get up first."

"Bro, please, promise me! I know that you all are good people. I won't get up if you don't agree to it!"

Cheryl's compassionate heart was moved by the display, so she helped Yasmyn off the ground and said, "Don't worry! Forget about contacting the police, we'll definitely bring you sisters back to Michigan. We're from California, and it's not that far from Michigan."

Alex instead said, "People from Divine Constabulary will come later! There are also two speedboats on the river below, so you can completely rest assured!"

"How did you both come here?" Cheryl asked.

Yasmyn looked even more depressed at the question.

"My sister just graduated from university in July this year. She came with a few classmates to Southwestern Province for a trip to celebrate their graduation. I didn't expect her to disappear on the second night. We tried everything we could but we couldn't find her."

"Later, I came to Morro to search for her whereabouts. Finally, I found my sister's whereabouts under the guidance of a kindhearted local."

"But, when I first arrived here, I was found by their people and even detained here to work for them. I saw with my own eyes how those monsters tortured my sister, but I had no choice but to bear with it and wait for an opportunity. But..."

She was just a weak woman. Her leg had been broken as well. How many chances could she get?

Bam!

Alex kicked the black and white haired man in the chest.

“A person like you simply deserves a thousand deaths for your sins! I'm asking you now, where's Ganoderma's plaque?”

The black and white haired man was stunned. “Why are you looking for Ganoderma's plaque?”

Chapter 1157

“Uh...”

Yasmyn and the black and-white haired old widened their eyes with a dumbfounded look on their face.

It was because Alex seemed to be talking to the thin air. It couldn’t be that there was something wrong with his head, right?

However, in the next second, the surrounding temperature instantly dropped several degrees as a gush of cold air suddenly rose, sending chills down their spine. The black and white haired man screamed in horror after a short while.

“Ahhhh!”

“Ghost, there’s a ghost! There’s a ghost..!”

There was an ugly expression on his face as his entire body trembled. However, since his legs had been broken by Alex, he couldn’t run even if he wanted to. Furthermore, the broken bones rubbed together when he moved, causing a heart piercing sharp pain.

Cheryl knew about this.

When they were in the Golden Tower the night before, Alex had told her that this was a soul that he had conquered. Alex had even helped her to temporarily open her spiritual eye and let her see Maiko’s true appearance, so she did not feel terrified at all.

However, Yasmyn was different.

After shuddering all over her body, she subconsciously grabbed onto Cheryl’s clothes and asked in a timid voice, “Is... Is there really such a thing?”

“Don’t be afraid, she won’t harm you.”

When Cheryl said that, the expression on Yasmyn’s face became even more horrified.

It didn't take long before the old man couldn't endure it anymore and screamed, "Stop, stop. I'll talk, I'll talk! The plaque has been smashed. It was smashed by me. I threw it in the backyard."

"What?" Cheryl jumped up. "What's wrong with you? Why did you smash the plaque? Was it in your way?"

However, the old man just said, "Naturally, there's a reason why I smashed the plaque. I... I'm the eldest disciple of Ganoderma. I should have been the one to inherit Ganoderma, but that old fart passed Ganoderma to my junior brother. How could he do that? James Coney is just a lowly person who used flattery to get what he wanted. What right did he have to get the inheritance?!"

Alex and Cheryl were both taken aback when they heard that.

Never did they expect that this person was the eldest disciple of Ganoderma, and was James's senior brother.

"You're talking nonsense! My grandpa isn't someone who gets what he wants by flattery. But, you actually produced something harmful like the venom. People like you're scums of the society, the cancer of mankind. Of course, your master wouldn't pass Ganoderma's inheritance to an inhumane person and immoral beast like you!"

The old man's eyes widened as he looked at Cheryl. "James Coney is your grandfather?"

"You..."

Slap!

Alex immediately delivered a slap right to his face, slapping out several of his teeth. As for Yasmyn, because of her sister's death, she placed the entire blame on this old man. She rushed up to punch and kick him too.

Alex and Cheryl didn't make any move to stop her either.

After setting up Maiko to watch over the place, he pulled Cheryl into the backyard. Sure enough, he found the plaque of Ganoderma in a corner. At this moment, it had been smashed into several pieces and thrown there like a pile of rubbish.

Cheryl rubbed her temples. “It’s in pieces, there should be no inheritance inside it, right? What a wasted trip!”

Alex walked over and turned a few pieces over. At this moment, he felt a vague burst of fluctuation of the essence. He searched carefully, it came from one of the fragments.

There was still half of the broken word “node” written on this broken piece, and that faintly discernible fluctuation of the essence exuded from the middle point. the words.

“What are you looking at?” Cheryl asked. She saw something was wrong with Alex’s expression, but it was just a broken piece of wood. What was there to look at?

Alex smiled and said, “It turns out that the secret is hidden here.”

“Huh? What secret?”

The material of the plaque itself was quite peculiar. It was made of a kind of dark wood with faint aroma that wouldn't rot for thousands of years. This piece of wood alone was worth a lot of money, and was a thousand times more expensive than the most expensive fragrant rosewood in the market right now.

However, the real secret was hidden beyond that point. Alex reached out his finger and directly dug into that point.

Finally, he dug out an emerald green bead.

“This... This is...”

Cheryl looked at the bead in shock.

Alex felt the fluctuation of the essence on the head for a bit and said, “This should be the Bead of Origin from the Immortal Doctor's Legacy. But, there's just too little essence inside it. This bead is from the remote past, I'm afraid it doesn't have any Legacy's energy anymore.”

Cheryl had a blank look about this matter.

Although she had heard of the legacy, it was just a bead. How would it pass on the legacy?

At this time, Alex slowly inserted a little of his own spiritual power into the bead, and a magical scene unfolded. As a green light flashed on the bead, a shadow floated out from it, forming a human shaped figure in the end.

The figure had white hair, white beard and a hair bun while wearing a long, ancient white robe. He had the demeanor of a transcendent being, as if he were an old sage dressed in white robe at a sacred mountain from the ancient times.

He also looked inexplicably familiar.

Then, Alex suddenly recalled that at the Triangle River Delta Medical Exchange, Levi Bayer had used a mountain spirit to take the appearance of the Immortal Doctor, Doctor Guilherme Extraordinaire, which looked similar to the man he was looking at right now.

“The Immortal Doctor, Guilherme Extraordinaire?”

The old man’s phantom suddenly turned towards Alex and knelt down in the next instant.

He said, “I, Guilherme Extraordinaire, hereby greet you, Young Master!”

Of course, he was just a soul at this moment. Moreover, he was still in a state of soul remnant, and it was impossible for him to speak. So, he used the way souls communicated, and directly conveyed the content of his words to Alex.

That was telepathic communication.

Now that Alex possessed spiritual consciousness, he could also do it without speaking.

“Young Master? Why do you call me Young Master? Are you really the previous generation’s Immortal Doctor, Guilherme Extraordinaire?”

“If no other person has inherited the Origin of the Immortal Doctor’s Legacy, then I should be the previous generation’s Immortal Doctor! Young Master, I can feel your spiritual powers. It’s the unique method of gathering spiritual power from the Ultimate Book of Medicine. Only those with authentic Rockefeller bloodline legacy can do it! So, you must be the Young Master that I have been waiting for for many years!”

When he said that, Guilherme bowed down again as his face was full of excitement. “What a blessing from Heaven The lineage of the Ultimate Book of Medicine hasn’t died out, and the day I have been waiting for has finally come. From now on, I’ll serve Young Master without leaving your side even for a moment.”

Alex was deeply shocked.

If this old fart really stayed with him every single moment, how would he secretly meet the beautiful women? 'What should I do if I were to have erectile dysfunction from being frightened by you, till I have psychological trauma?'

He didn't want an old man who followed him all the time!

He shook his head. "You need to pass the Immortal Doctor's Legacy to her! Rumor has it that you founded Ganoderma in the past, and she's an heir of Ganoderma. There are no Immortal Doctors in the world currently, and she's a doctor with a benevolent heart. She's more suitable than me to acquire the legacy Because I've already gotten a bloodline legacy."

Only then did Guilherme turn to look at Cheryl. "She... Could she be Young Madam?"

Alex nodded slowly and said, "From now on, you'll concentrate on assisting her, how about it?"

Guilherme thought about it for a while before saying, "I will follow Young Master's orders!"

Then, he turned around and bowed down to Cheryl.

In the next instant, the energy from the emerald green bead continuously transmitted into the center of Cheryl's eyebrows.

Chapter 1159

Three minutes later, the essence on the emerald green bead had almost been exhausted. Its color also turned gray. It no longer had the emerald green color, as though the bead had been damaged.

However, Guilherme said, "Young Master, this bead is called Chaos Bead, in which I obtained it by accident before this. Then, I used this bead to store all of the Immortal Doctor's Legacy from Nonagon Cave of the Witch Doctor Sect! Young Master, if you are the true inheritor of the Ultimate Book of Medicine bloodline and a true cultivator who walks the path of transcendence, then this Chaos Bead will have a great effect on you if you keep it on you."

Alex was slightly startled and said, "What the heck is this Chaos Bead used for?"

Guilherme said, "I've checked through the ancient records before. It's rumored that this bead is an innate spiritual treasure that has existed since the prehistoric period. It is the supreme magical treasure that seems normal yet possesses hidden functions. It contains its own universe inside it that can hold everything. It can also conceal important secrets.”

Alex was dumbfounded. That was just too exaggerated. Then, he asked, “Since you’ve already long gotten this head, have you confirmed all of those rumors yourself?”

“Nope,” Guilherme replied.

Alex was about to throw up blood from his response. He had bragged for a long time but they were just legends. Guilherme said in a slightly embarrassed tone, “Because I have limited cultivation skills, so I couldn’t exploit the magical effects of this bead, but it just happens to correspond to the name ‘Chaos Bead’. Those unmighty people without great opportunity, great wisdom and great merit shall not inherit the bead. If it’s fallen into the hands of Young Master, you might be able to completely utilize it to the fullest!”

Alex rolled his eyes and said, “My current cultivation base may not even be as good as yours before your death.”

Guilherme said, “Young Master, please don’t undervalue yourself. You’re an inheritor of the Ultimate Book of Medicine bloodline, and descendent of the Immortal Doctor’s ancestor. Since you have luck in yourself, your achievements in the future would be boundless. You’ll definitely become a godlike existence.”

Alex was rendered speechless once again.

He discovered that Guilherme was a big fat flatterer, and he didn't need a script to do it. He just needed to open his mouth and the words poured out naturally.

“Then, I will accept those good words of yours. I'll hold onto the bead for now!”

Anyway, Guilherme was in almost the same state as Maiko right now. He could not hold the bead now as well.

At this time, Cheryl had finally completed receiving the legacy.

On the center of her forehead, a strange formation pattern appeared. It looked like some ancient scripture, The formation pattern was the Immortal Doctor's Legacy.

Swoosh!

A green light flashed, and the green patterns in between Cheryl's eyebrows disappeared.

Then, Cheryl opened her eyes. At this moment, she looked like a completely different person. It was because the bead originally contained essence as well. With the acquisition of the legacy, Cheryl also naturally gained the essence within it.

Guilherme bowed and said, “Congratulations, Young Madam, for officially receiving the Immortal Doctor’s Legacy. However, the content in the Immortal Doctor’s Legacy is huge. You still need to meticulously refine yourself in the future. If Young Madam has any questions, please summon me anytime.”

Being called “Young Madam” by Guilherme had made Cheryl to be... secretly happy.

Alex thought of a realistic problem. “Where do you usually stay?”

“I will stay by Young Madam’s side,” Guilherme replied.

“Huh? Then, won’t you be able to see my everyday life, including going to the restroom and bathing?” Cheryl exclaimed.

“Rest assured, Young Madam. Such a thing will definitely not happen. My soul remnant has long integrated with the Immortal Doctor’s Legacy as one. Otherwise, I won’t survive till today. I will usually be in the legacy’s map on the Young Madam’s forehead. But, Young Madam, if you wish to summon me, you need to communicate via the legacy’s map before I can come out from it.”

With such an explanation, only then did Cheryl feel relaxed a little. Otherwise, she would rather not have the Immortal Doctor's Legacy at all.

In the next instant, Guilherme entered the legacy's map and disappeared.

"Congratulations. You've become the inheritor of the Immortal Doctor's Legacy!" Alex said with a smile.

Cheryl looked around nervously. "He's really gone, right? I can't hear nor see him, right?"

Alex laughed and said, "It's real. Don't worry about it!"

Only then did Cheryl pat her towering chest. Then, she touched her face. "It felt really panicky."

If it were anybody else, he would also feel uncomfortable at the thought of an old man's soul living in their forehead for some reason.

Alex comforted her and said, "You'll slowly get used to it."

Cherly said, “Thank you. I could only obtain Guilherme’s acknowledgement so smoothly all because of you. I didn’t expect you to be the young master of the previous Immortal Doctor! It was no wonder that you managed to wake your severely ill mother up in the hospital... Hmph, you even lied to me by saying that you learned it from the internet.”

Chapter 1160

Alex laughed and said, “At that time, I had just activated my bloodline too. Even if I told you about this matter, you wouldn’t believe me too! You’d only believe its existence once you’ve personally experienced it and obtained the legacy.”

“That’s true! Either way, thank you. Tell me, how should I repay you?”

“Hmm...”

“How about I devote my life and body to you?”

“This...”

“Coward!”

Cheryl took the initiative to hug him and offered him a sweet kiss.

After a round of passionate kissing, Cheryl said in a gentle and soft voice, “Alex, you’re the first man I like in my life, and you will also be the last.”

Seeing her uttering such emotional words, Alex felt his heart flutter. He wrapped his arms around her slender waist and whispered, “Thank you for liking me! But, for you to like someone like me, I’m not sure if it’s your fortune or misfortune?”

Cheryl jumped up suddenly, wrapping both her long legs around his waist.

“Of course, it’s definitely a forthe! It’s your fortune, as well as mine! Everyone has a different understanding of fortune. For me, as long as there’s you in my life, it will be my life’s eternal fortune.”

A beautiful woman’s grace was the hardest to accept, that was the current state of Alex’s mind.

“Kiss me!”

Smooch!

The kiss seemed to last forever.

Without knowing how much time had passed, the two were suddenly awakened by a loud yell inside Ganoderma. It was Yasmyn Mack's voice.

The two quickly separated and rushed inside the building.

At a glance, Yasmyn was hitting a middle-aged man desperately with an iron rod in her hand. The middle-aged man was initially kneeling down. At this moment, he had already been beaten up so badly that he looked something inhuman. Even his brain had become mush. Blood splattered all over the place.

As for Yasmyn, she was still hitting him like a lunatic.

“Ahhh!”

Cheryl jumped in shock

“Let her vent, hey!” Alex said.

“Can you heal her leg?” Cheryl asked.

Alex patted her butt and said with a smile, “My future Immortal Doctor wife, you have already received the legacy. You should think about it on your own, and heal her disease with your own capabilities.”

Feeling shy, Cheryl shot a dirty glare at him, but she also felt good about his words.

Then, she searched through the legacy that she just received on ways to cure Yasmyn’s injury on her leg... She quickly found a way to reconnect the limbs properly, but the only cruel part about it was that she needed to first break the misplaced healed bones first to do so.

However, that was also worth it.

One minute later, Yasmyn was tired of beating.

Only then did Alex and Cheryl find out that this middle-aged man was the culprit who had caught her sister and brought her here. He was also the first man who defiled her sister. It was no wonder she had reacted the way she did.

In the following period, Cheryl started to treat her leg injury. Alex just played the supporting role.

Just as the treatment was almost complete, the people from Divine Constabulary arrived as well.

Apart from Anna Coleman, Sky Melvis and Zachary Xavier were also present among the people.
