The Pinnacle of Life – Chapter 1161 - 1170

After assessing the situation inside Ganoderma, Zachary Xavier went to check the riverside. Then, he came back and said to Alex with a smile, “Alex, you did a great job this time. You’ve given a great boost to California’s Divine Constabulary this time!”

“Did this case cause a great sensation?” Alex asked.

“It’s a shocking case. Not only within America, but innumerable crimes have been committed in entire Southeast Asia. It has already affected our America’s reputation.”

Anna chimed in. “Because of our strict local security and strong crackdown on crimes, the frequency and scope of criminal activities are quite limited. But, in small countries in Southeast Asia, it’s an entirely different story. The harm of the venom in those countries is ten times greater than in America, or even worse.”

Alex nodded.

Following that, a few people came to ask about the condition of the black and white haired man. Alex only explained to them briefly. He didn’t need to worry about what came after.

However, at this moment, a helicopter came nearer from a distance. It was a rare sight in the depth of Puerto Rico Rainforest.

Sky raised his head and squinted, before saying, “Uncle Xavier, an old friend is here!”

Zachary also naturally saw it. He smiled gently and said, “It looks like Shaun is here! I knew that the guy’s nose is better than a dog. The moment our plane arrived, he’d definitely be able to sniff it out and find this place.”

This was obviously sarcasm. In actuality, Shaun had eyes and ears everywhere.

The helicopter hovered above everyone. When it was at a height of about thirty meters from the ground, a figure jumped out directly from it.

It was one of the Four Great Guardians of the Divine Constabulary, Shaun Baker, followed by Soraya Melvis.

With Soraya’s capabilities, even if she didn’t die, her skin would be peeled off from jumping down at a height of thirty meters. However, she had a rope tied around her body and used it to fall down. Although her speed was considered fast, she had an elegant posture.

However, she actually saw Alex and Cheryl among the people gathered there. She was instantly stunned. 'Why are these two people here?'

She really couldn't figure it out.

At this time, Zachary smiled and said, "So, it's you, Shaun. What has brought you here today?"

To his surprise, Shaun had a hostile expression on his face as he said in a harsh tone, "Guardian Xavier, isn't it inappropriate for your people to do this? The mission about the venom was assigned to Soraya first, and her team had put a lot of blood and hard work into it. She even lost five team members. Now, your people have taken the credit. You're clearly just bullying the weak by doing this."

When he said this, Zachary naturally got unhappy.

Sky opened his mouth to say, "Guardian Baker, what you've said is wrong. It doesn't mean that others can't do the mission from Divine Constabulary once one has accepted it."

"Hmph!" Shaun snorted coldly, and the coercion of a Grandmaster suddenly surrounded Sky.

Sky trembled from the sudden feeling, with cold sweat breaking out profusely. His legs were about to give away, and he felt that he would kneel down at any time. After using great perseverance to resist the pressure, only then did he not kneel to the ground.

“I’m talking to your boss, when did it become your turn to interrupt us? Knee! down and repent!”

Shaun’s aura rose higher once again.

Zachary was furious this time.

He quickly put his hand on Sky’s back and continuously injected inner force into Sky’s body to help him resist Shaun’s coercion. He shouted, “Shaun, stop this right now! You’re the one who’s bullying the weak now for using this method on Sky! Are you trying to destroy his cultivation?!”

Not only did Shaun not stop, but he even continued to increase the coercion that he was puffing on Sky.

He coldly said, “I’m just punishing him for a little mistake so that he won’t make a bigger mistake next time. Soraya is the granddaughter of the constabulary’s president. Whoever bullies her is also my enemy.”

“Ugh..?”

Sky was practically being attacked by two masters from both sides. His body had become a battlefield. How could he endure this?

All the organs inside his body seemed to have been shifted around. At this moment, he opened his mouth to spat out a stream of blood.

Alex’s brows jumped wildly as he watched the scene in front of him.

Zachary had indeed told him to endure silently because if he was exposed now, he was worried that he would be unanimously targeted by the other three Guardians.

However, seeing the overbearing Shaun who acted completely without the style and moral that a Guardian of Divine Constabulary should have, he instantly couldn’t hold it in anymore.

Chapter 1162

Alex also snorted, pressing an incomparably powerful mental power towards Shaun Baker.

At first, Shaun intended to make Zachary Xavier kneel on his knees using mental coercion, just so he could display his abilities. Therefore, he was completely focused on targeting only Zachary and Sky Melvis.

Never did he expect that a real expert would be right beside them.

When Alex's mental power came down on him, he felt like he had been plunged into the abyss of hell, and an immense pain was felt in his ocean of consciousness.

Thud! Thud! Thud!

Shaun took three consecutive steps back. Naturally, the mental coercion exuded from him could not be maintained.

In that instant, Zachary and Sky felt their bodies lightened. However, the extreme contrast made Sky's injuries worse, causing him to cough up a mouthful of blood once again.

Shaun stood still as he raised his head and stared at Alex.

“Who are you?” He was extremely arrogant and conceited.

Such a young Grandmaster was extremely rare in the entire America.

When he looked at Alex, who seemed to have no inner energy in his body at all and looked no different than an ordinary person, he absolutely didn't believe that Alex was a martial expert who had surpassed him at this age. Rather, he felt that this guy was probably a psychic user. In terms of mental power, he had abilities different from the ordinary people.

In addition, he only suffered a big loss because he was defenseless against Alex previously.

Alex didn't have the slightest hint of favorable impression towards Shaun, so he coldly said, “I'm Alex Rockefeller, the elder of Divine Constabulary in South California!”

“Elder?” Shaun laughed loudly. “How could I not know that there's an extra elder in South California's Divine Constabulary? Wait, Alex Rockefeller? You're that Alex Rockefeller who completed the Golden Tower's mission.”

Zachary tried desperately to signal Alex with his eyes. However, Alex did not seem to see them at all.

He was completely in a clear mind. He was just a Grandmaster, what was there to be afraid of? Even if all three great Grandmasters from Divine Constabulary really joined forces, so what? There was still Aunt Rockefeller behind him!

“That’s right, it was me!” Alex nodded, then swept a glance at Soraya.

“What is the reason for you to criticize us so aggressively today, Guardian Baker? Are you trying to stand up for this woman? Then, you should be thanking me. If I hadn’t rescued her yesterday night, she would have already been forced to sleep with Giovanni Winn from the Golden Tower. And you? You’d be growing mushrooms from your head from all the waiting!”

Soraya was surprised. ‘It was him?!’

‘He was the one killed Giovanni Winn yesterday? And Giovanni Winn’s subordinates? It was no wonder that Hubert Gordan was the one who came to untie me.’

Soraya looked at Alex while still feeling grateful in her heart. However, she didn’t like the sounds of the last part of those words.

Shaun was especially furious when he heard those words. “How presumptuous! How could you say words like that? How dare you disrespect your superiors? Knee! down!”

Alex roared with laughter. “Guardian Baker, you haven’t become the constabulary’s president, yet you throw your display of power around like that! People who don’t know you would think that you’re king of this place!”

Shaun’s eyes were cold, but he turned towards Zachary suddenly. “Zachary Xavier, what have you been teaching your subordinates? Forget about how your martial arts have been ruined, even your person is useless. Does your subordinate want to rebel? If you don’t want to teach him a lesson, then I will.”

As he said that, he immediately made a move toward Alex. He stomped his foot fiercely, flying toward Alex like a ghost to attack him.

But at this moment, Alex suddenly shouted, “Kneel down!”

The mysterious bead in his upper energy core also jumped fiercely at this moment, causing a force of powerful mental coercion to engulf Shaun.

“Ahhhhh!!”

Shaun tried his best to resist, roaring loudly. However, in the end, he still couldn’t withstand it and fell to his knees with a thud.

Everyone was stunned in that instant, especially Soraya. She looked at Alex as if she was looking at a deity.

Chapter 1163

“H-He knelt down?!”

At this moment, not only was Soraya Melvis shocked, but even Zachary Xavier had his eyes popped out of his head.

Shaun Baker was the strongest Grandmaster among the Four Great Guardians now, so he dared to compete for the position of constabulary’s president. As far as he knew, Shaun once had a chance encounter and had inherited the legacy of the great Divine Sword Grandmaster from a hundred years ago. Since then, he became a master in swordsmanship and a Grandmaster in one fell swoop, reaching the top and surpassing all the other Guardians later.

However, such a strong man actually knelt down at the roar of Alex’s words.

How strong in the world was Alex?

However, Shaun only knelt down for three seconds. Then, he let out a burst of loud roar.

The full inner force of a Grandmaster exploded inside his body, especially on his head. There was a visible strong howling wind and steaming white air around him. To everyone's surprise, he forcefully broke free of Alex's mental powers.

However, there was also a repercussion.

After forcefully resisting the mental powers, Shaun's spirit was greatly impacted, resulting in two lines of blood flowing down from his nose.

At this moment, the murderous intent on Shaun's body soared. His clothes moved by itself even though there was no wind around. His cold, hard gaze bored into Alex as he gritted his teeth and said, "Alex Rockefeller, right? A psychic user? How dare you disrespect your superior, and conspire to go against a Guardian? Now, let's see what else you have up your sleeves! Die!"

He thought that he had completely broken free of Alex's mental powers, so he did not have to be afraid anymore.

In an instant, Zachary stepped in front of Alex. “Shaun Baker, enough. Alex is an elder of Divine Constabulary, he didn’t have any intent to conspire against you. You’re just talking nonsense.”

Whoosh!

Shaun made his move. With his fingers acting as a sword, a sharp blade aura emanated from his fingertips, forming a blade of light and slashing toward Zachary.

Zachary was no longer the Grandmaster that he used to be a long time ago.

How was it possible for him to block this attack?

In that instant, he was slashed by Shaun and sent flying through the air.

If it weren’t for him to still have the strength of a half-stepped Grandmaster, this one blow would have killed him without leaving a trace behind.

Barf!

Zachary spat out a mouthful of blood.

Sky's eyes were red with anger as he roared, "Shaun Baker, what the hell are you doing?! Could it be that you are really trying to start a rebellion? Lashing out with such a heavy hand towards Uncle Xavier, who's also a fellow Guardian, what right do you have to be a Guardian of Divine Constabulary?! Not to mention that you're still delusional about the position of the president, you're simply a lunatic talking about dreams."

"Impudent!" Shaun was seething with rage.

He looked at Sky with eyes as cold as a venomous snake. He actually wanted to ignore Alex and turned to kill Sky instead.

The thought was already cemented in his heart that all the people here were rubbish. What was their use if they refused to listen to his orders? It would simply be better to just kill them all. Death ended all troubles, anyway! If it was done in the barren mountain and wild forest of the Puerto Rico Rainforest, who would know? As for Soraya, he was well aware of the lady's thoughts. As long as he seduced her a little, he would be able to completely have her under his thumb, becoming his own woman.

However, he was still mindful of the prestige and authority of the constabulary's president at the moment, so he hadn't really made his move yet.

“Kill!”

Alex roared again at this moment, “Knee! down!”

Buzz!

In an instant, Shaun felt a dull and severe pain in his mind, as though someone had hammered his head. His ocean of consciousness felt like it had been blasted by a hammer.

His body refused to listen to him and fell heavily to the ground. His killing blow toward Sky was naturally halted in that instant.

‘How is this possible?!’

‘How could it turn out this way?’

‘How strong is this brat’s mental power? Haven’t I already broken the mental coercion just now?!’

Shaun simply could not believe what he had gone through.

He roared frantically, trying to once again break Alex's mental coercion. However, he found that this time was more difficult than before, as though thousands of mountains were pressed on top of his head, making him almost to be out of breath.

"Brat! I will definitely kill you, I will definitely kill you! Break it already!" Shaun bellowed.

Splat! Splat! Splat!

Blood gushed out of his nostrils and both ears at this moment. He had reached his limit.

Chapter 1164

At this moment, Sky's eyes were as sharp as knives as he continued to huff. A shimmering dagger with a cold glint appeared in his hand. He was hesitating over whether to kill Shaun or not.

Shaun's eyes widened. Both eyes were full of red bloodshots and even the blood inside his eyes was about to spill out. His eyes were fixed on Sky as he firmly shouted, "I am a Guardian of Divine Constabulary, how dare you harbour the intention to kill me?"

Soraya suddenly made a horizontal step at this moment, standing in front of Shaun and screamed, “Murdering a Guardian is a great crime, you should think it through! When my grandfather looks into this, your entire family line will be guilty by association!”

At the same time, Shaun suddenly roared, “Break it for me!”

At this moment, the aura around him soared once again as he broke free of Alex’s mental shackles forcefully. Not only that, his spiritual powers continued to skyrocket.

A few seconds later, his entire body seemed to have become an unsheathed sword, with a sky high murderous intent and menace.

“Hahaha! Hahaha!” Shaun looked up towards the sky and laughed loudly. His voice echoed across the valley like rolling thunders.

He looked at Alex, his voice suddenly calm as he said, “Brat, thank you! My Firmament Ice Blade Aura has been stuck in a bottleneck for the past three years, and it was difficult to move an inch. I didn’t expect that your mental coreion has managed to forcefully help me to achieve a breakthrough today! Now, I am one step closer to surpassing Grandmaster, into the realm of Innate Martial Honor!”

As Shaun said this, he flipped his hands, pulling out a long, black sword.

Alex's eyes flashed. 'A spiritual tool?'

Never did he expect that Shaun would also have a spiritual tool hidden in his mind palace.

It looked like this person wasn't a pure martial artist, but had also touched the threshold of being a cultivator. He had entered the path of a cultivator through his martial arts and had cultivated essence in his body. Otherwise, he wouldn't have been able to store a spiritual tool in his mind palace!

Shaun looked at the black sword in his hands, his eyes looked like a man looking at a stunning beauty.

"Firmament Ice Blade!"

"Today, we finally met!"

"Brat, in order to thank you, I will use my Firmament Ice Blade to cut down your head, and offer your blood as sacrifice to my blade!" Shaun sneered.

Then, he made a grab in the mid-air, grabbing Soraya away who was standing in front of him. Immediately afterwards, he slashed at Alex with his sword.

The swing of the blade seemed otherworldly as light burst forth from the blade, like millions of stars pouring out in torrents.

A myriad of blade aura condensed into a single point. The dazzling light from the blade made people unable to open their eyes.

Alex stood there without moving a single inch, as though he had been frightened out of his mind.

Anna and Cheryl shouted at the same time, "Watch out!"

However, they could only see Alex's back, and not his eyes.

At this moment, the look in his eyes was calm, like that of an old monk who had entered extreme concentration. It wasn't until the blade's light had reached the front of him that he suddenly raised his hand and made a flick. Everyone heard a crisp sound of the sword. Immediately afterwards, a broken sword was plunged deep into the ground.

As for the Firmament Ice Blade in Shaun's hand, only half of it was left. The Firmament Ice Blade had been forcibly broken by Alex's Sword of the Universe.

However, because of Alex's extremely fast speed and the Dragon Bone Sword was translucent, everyone else wouldn't see clearly what had happened at all.

"It... It's broken?!"

Shaun was utterly dumbfounded and unable to accept what had happened.

Moreover, a burst of crippling pain shot through all the organs in his body, and he felt like throwing up all of a sudden.

In the next instant, he grabbed Soraya and retreated in a frantic state. He had been beaten to the point he was afraid.

To his surprise, the first time he used the Firmament Ice Blade, it wasn't even able to complete its quest before it died, and was broken in half immediately. The important point here was that till now he wasn't able to figure out how the sword had been broken. However, he may die if he were to stay there, so he had to run away quickly!

Alex stood still, motionless. He didn't give a chase either.

It wasn't until Shaun was far away that his body suddenly trembled, with a line of blood flowing down from the corner of his mouth!

Chapter 1165

"Huh?"

"Alex, what's wrong?!"

"Master, don't scare me!"

Cheryl, Anna, Zachary and everyone else rushed to support Alex. They began to bombard him anxiously with concerned questions.

Alex waved his hand. Then, he took out a few pills from his pouch and swallowed them in one gulp.

Previously, he had used the Sword of the Universe from the Dragon’s Bane of Thirty-Six to forcibly cut Shaun’s Firmament Ice Blade into half. He had somewhat underestimated the blade’s power. It was a complete spiritual tool, after all. And, his cultivation was now in the stage of Divine Transcendence, it was still far from being a true master. After breaking the Firmament Ice Blade, he had received the blade’s final counterattack before it died off.

If it hadn’t been for something suddenly trembling and helped Alex to block it off at the time, he would probably have suffered even more severe injuries. When he thought of this, he couldn’t help but turn on his internal vision to look into his own mind palace.

There was a gray bead in there.

It was the Chaos Bead that was pulled out from Ganoderma’s plaque and given to Alex by Guilherme. At that time, Alex tried to place it inside his mind palace. In the end, he had managed to place it inside it without any incident.

It showed that the Chaos Bead was indeed not an ordinary item. Since it could be integrated into his spiritual powers and placed inside his mind palace, it should at least be a piece of spiritual tool! However, he had to wait for the later time to prove if it was an innate spiritual treasure as Guilherme had said.

On the other hand, he could still feel that the Chaos Bead and the bead stored in his upper energy core seemed to have some kind of strange connection!

Unfortunately, he still could not see it for the time being because the mysterious bead was damaged badly. He got his breathing under control for the moment. Alex's injuries had recovered for most part, so he opened his eyes and stood up.

"I'm fine now, don't worry!" Alex said with a smile when he saw Cheryl's concerned gaze.

On the contrary, Zachary and Sky were on the ground in a sorry state, their injuries were no less serious than Alex's.

"Master, Captain Melvis spat blood again just now! That b*stard Shaun Baker, he was just too much! He really had the intention to ruin Captain Melvis!" Anna said angrily. "Captain Melvis was already injured before this. With the addition of these injuries, I'm afraid that it will be more difficult for him to improve his cultivation level in the future."

Alex was startled for a moment. "Captain Melvis was injured previously?"

He hadn't really noticed it before.

Zachary replied, "Sky once had his energy core ruined and all the efforts of his martial arts were in vain. Even his foundation had been injured. Otherwise, with his original talents in martial arts, he definitely wouldn't lose to even Tristan Coleman from the Coleman family of Missouri. But, because of the injuries that one time, I'm afraid it's practically impossible for him to reach the pinnacle once again."

Alex slightly frowned.

He observed Sky with his Third Eye, then felt his pulse. Suddenly, he frowned deeper.

"Cheryl, come and take a look at his situation!" Alex said to Cheryl.

Anna whispered, "Master, you're the Immortal Doctor! If you can't even see accurately what's wrong with him, how could she?"

Alex shook his head. "I'm not the Immortal Doctor, she's the future Immortal Doctor."

Anan was shocked. "What do you mean?"

"You'll know later," Alex said with a smile.

The Ultimate Book of Medicine handed down by his ancestors was powerful indeed, but it was a huge system. In fact, the most important thing was self-cultivation. The targets of the Ultimate Book of Medicine were mostly aimed at cultivators. However, it was different for the Immortal Doctor's Legacy. Every generation of the Immortal Doctors would integrate their own experience into the legacy. It could be said that for countless years, the Immortal Doctor's Legacy was the crystallized power of countless mighty medical practitioners.

Chapter 1166

Therefore, purely speaking from the path of medicine, the Immortal Doctor's inheritance had more advantages in treating human beings. Of course, Alex had Cheryl intervene in this matter because he wanted to cultivate her.

Very quickly, Cheryl checked Sky's pulse. She frowned for a long time before she finally came up with a feasible treatment plan.

Alex added his opinion from other perspectives.

With the two combined efforts, Sky's injuries could be healed within three days.

Sky's face was pale. He clasped his hands together and said, "Thank you, Brother Alex. Thank you, Miss Cheryl!"

Alex smiled and said, “You were injured this time, more or less, because of me. How about this? Once we go back, I’ll make you a pill that’ll help temper your foundation. It should be able to help you repair it and restore your martial arts, as well as take you further in the future.”

“What pill is that?” Sky was stunned.

“Even if I told you now, I won’t be able to explain it clearly in just a short period!” Alex said. “You’ll know when the refining is successful. But, you have to prepare the materials yourself. I’m very poor, and I can’t afford the materials!”

Sky rolled his eyes discreetly. ‘You are poor? I suppose there isn’t a single rich man in the Divine Constabulary.’

However, he still said excitedly, “Alright, thank you, bro!”

Zachary licked his lips, then walked over to Alex and said in a low voice, “Alex, this pill, can it really restore the cultivation foundation in a person?”

Alex nodded. “That’s right. As long as your foundation is still there and not completely destroyed and the meridians still exist, the pill will be effective. But, the process is not an easy one, and it’s excruciating!”

“Then... Could you see if I can also use it?” Zachary asked.

“Huh? Uncle Xavier, you have a problem with your foundation, too?”

“That’s exactly it! If you have any request at all, Alex, just tell me, and I’ll do everything in my power to fulfill it.”

“Uh, I don’t need anything at the moment. I’ll make a list of the materials I need when the time comes, and you can also take a copy of it.”

The matter was settled like that.

The next step was to deal with the problem of the poison that was produced here in Ganoderma.

However, Zachary tugged at Alex and said, “Alex, a man like Shaun, is an extremely narrow-minded man, and he will come back for revenge! What I meant previously was for you to hide your strength so that you won’t catch his attention! Then, when the year end competition arrives, we’d take him down in one fell swoop so that he wouldn’t be able to make any further waves. But now, I’m worried that he will make trouble for you, which might be detrimental to you.”

“As to him openly attacking you and Sky today, will the president of the Divine Constabulary just leave it alone?” Alex asked.

Zachary sighed. “The president has not shown his face for a long time. It’s rumored that he’s in retreat to break through a new realm. But, there are also rumors that he’s seriously ill and doesn’t have much longer left. That’s the reason why the higher-ups in the Divine Constabulary are so much in chaos right now. Shaun is gathering his cliques within the Divine Constabulary and is hiding the truth from the masses!”

“There’s another thing. Soraya Melvis is the President’s granddaughter,” Sky said. “Soraya listens and obeys Shaun. So, the other two Guardians, as well as the other senior officials in the Divine Constabulary, would always be a little closer to Soraya because of the respect they have toward the President.”

Cheryl disapproved of Soraya and said, “That woman, she doesn’t even know how to be grateful.”

Alex said calmly, “You guys don’t have to worry. If this Shaun dares to come to trouble me, I don’t mind just getting rid of him!”

Zachary looked at Alex, then at the blood on his clothes. Although he didn’t say anything, he was still concerned on the inside. Especially because Shaun had managed to break through again just now.

However, he wasn't aware that Shaun's injuries were much more serious than Alex's.

Alex had been injured because of the spiritual tool's counterattack, and it hadn't been Shaun's true strength. As for Shaun, with his spiritual tool destroyed, the repercussions were much more serious. At this time, he had run less than five kilometers before he fell to the ground, coughing up blood.

Soraya turned pale with fright. "Brother Baker, are you alright?"

"I'm fine, I just need to rest awhile, and it'll be okay," Shaun said.

"I didn't expect that Alex would be so powerful that even you are not a match for him," Soraya said. "Bullsh*t! What's so great about him?" Shaun's eyes were dark. "He's just a psychic, and I had accidentally got caught up in his skills. When I'm sufficiently prepared, I will cut down that sh*tty head of his."

Initially, she had a great approval of Alex in her heart. He had been the one who rescued her from Giovanni Winn, so she had avoided the fate of being violated and persecuted, after all. In addition, she had been influenced by her grandfather since she was a child and had a lot of admiration and acknowledgment toward masters of martial arts. That was the reason why she liked Shaun, the man who acted as her father.

It was because Shaun was domineering, fierce and wild. In her eyes, these traits were what a man should have. As for Alex, who had defeated Shaun, her admiration toward his nature also rose with the situation.

However, if Alex were just a psychic, then her admiration towards him would be greatly reduced. In her mind, only a real martial arts master could be regarded as an expert. A user with a supernatural ability was considered an entirely different species, and their nature was more like a beast.

“That’s right!” Shaun said. “He’s definitely just a psychic with strong mental powers. I didn’t have any defenses in place before this, so I was simply taken advantage of by him. Otherwise, how could I have knelt? This person is sinister and cunning. You have to be careful next time you meet him!”

He said that to blow his own trumpet, too.

If Alex had really taken advantage of the weakness he had back then, he wouldn’t have knelt a second time.

“Brother Baker, then what happened to your sword? I saw it with my own eyes that he broke your sword, the Firmament Ice Brand, with his bare hands.”

Shaun was angry when he talked about this. “It was the first time I was using the Firmament Ice Brand, and I have never touched it before. I didn’t expect it to be so fragile! Also, that Rockefeller definitely also has a spiritual tool of his own. My sword was broken by that.”

“I see!”

Having figured out the important details, she immediately chose Shaun over Alex. After all, Shaun was the man that she had yearned for many years now.

As for Alex, he was just a psychic. So what if he had saved her before? It was just that.

As the granddaughter of the president of the Divine Constabulary, many had rescued her over the years.

At the same moment in the valley of the Puerto Rico Rainforest, Zachary used a satellite phone to make a call.

Soon, ten helicopters arrived. The local authorities had sent many combat units to clean up the aftermath of the poison case.

Alex, Cheryl, and a heavily injured Sky took one of the helicopters to leave the rainforest and return to the town of Morro first. After eating one of Alex's healing pills, Zachary and Anna had more or less recovered and had stayed behind to direct the people to deal with the clean-up and whatever that came after.

As for Alex and the others, they headed back to the inn. Cheryl tossed everything on her body off and her shoes then fell onto the bed.

“Oh, I'm really exhausted from today!”

“It's even more exhausting than the time I was on night shift for three days!”

Alex was between laughter and tears as he watched her, and then he asked, “Do you want to take a shower first? The people from the Divine Constabulary have their own special plane, so once everything is done on that side, we'll go back. You still have enough time to take a shower.”

“Huh? Are we going back today already?”

Cheryl turned around, lounging on the bed sideways like a princess as she said to Alex, a look of reluctance upon her face.

“What? Are you addicted to staying in this place?”

“I haven’t even got a good taste of the culture here in Puerto Rico, and I haven’t looked around either. I haven’t bought any souvenirs for Grandpa and Grandma and my colleagues in the hospital. It’s all too sudden! Also, there’s a lot of things that I’ve bought that haven’t been used either.”

Alex looked at her feigned coquettish anger, as well as the charming look upon Cheryl’s face, and he relented. He said, “Alright then, we’ll stay another day. We won’t leave tonight.”

“That’s great! Let’s go shopping tonight and get some snacks to eat!” Cheryl jumped up. “I’ll go and take a shower now.”

While Cheryl was in the bath, Alex naturally didn’t use his spiritual consciousness to see what she looked like inside the bathroom.

That kind of behavior was as wretched as a landlord who secretly installed cameras in bathrooms and watched their female tenants bathe.

He totally didn't need that.

"Hey, Alex!"

After a while, Cheryl opened the bathroom door and poked her head out. From the door opening, her wet neck could be seen, as well as a fair bit of skin.

"What's up?"

Alex had the urge to run over to her and rub her back. "I forgot to bring in a change of clothes just now, could you help me get it? It's in that red box over there."

"What clothes?"

Alex looked at her blankly for quite a while before he nodded. He walked over to the red box and opened it. The box had been left in the inn previously and had not been taken with them to the rainforest.

“Where is it?”

“Drag it over here. I’ll have a look.”

Alex dragged the box over so that Cheryl could see the box’s contents, but when he turned his head, he was momentarily stunned. He could see quite the scenery from the door’s opening.

That beautiful, snowy white hand seemed to be calling out to him.

“In the zipper bag on the top.” Cheryl stretched out her hand and pointed at it.

Thud!

When Alex pulled open the zipper, a box fell out from it. Alex took a closer look at it, and holy crap, it turned out to be a box of Durex!

“This..?”

“Why do you have something like this?”

Alex was stunned.

Cheryl’s face was red, but her eyes glinted with coyness and seductiveness.

It was such an obvious hint. Couldn’t he comprehend it?

Idiot!

Her heart thumped wildly in her chest, and she couldn't cahn it down, but she said, "Girls need to know how to protect themselves. If a certain man can't help himself and am not strong enough to resist, preparing this would be a form of protection. Don't you think so?"

Alex nodded solemnly. "That sounds reasonable."

Then, he shoved the small box back into the bag.

Cheryl was speechless.

'Are you a pig-head?!'

Did he expect her to take it out from the packet and peel it open for him?!

"Alex, I want to ask you a question?"

"Go ahead!"

His hands were still groping around the bag, but he couldn't find anything else. There was nothing in the bag except the box of Durex.

“Are you still a child?”

“Huh?” Alex was stunned, and he looked at Cheryl with wide eyes and jaw slack.

“Do you know how to use the item in the box?”

A sullen look appeared upon Alex's face. “Do you think I'm stupid?”

Cheryl was annoyed and retorted, “Because you are stupid!”

In the next second, she opened the bathroom door wider and bent her legs, her hands coming up to cover her front as she asked, “Do you want me to teach you how to use it?”

Alex's head felt like it was about to explode.

He took out the box and tore open the pack. Just as he pulled one out, his phone rang.

"D*mn it!"

What a timing for a phone call!

"You can take the call first I'll be waiting inside!" Cheryl said.

If Anna and the others had returned, then not picking up this call would be a big problem and would end up an embarrassing situation if they decided to break into the room directly.

Alex hurriedly pulled out his phone.

At first glance, the caller ID showed that it was his mother, Brittany. He still picked it up anyway.

“Hello, Mom?”

Unexpectedly, an extremely silvery voice came from the other end, “Your mother is in my hands. I’ll be waiting for you at Moonlight Lake.”

“What? Who are you?!”

Chapter 1169

Alex’s head was about to explode. His mother had been kidnapped?

Who was it?!

Brittany’s current strength was not weak, and she still had Maya and Holly by her side. How could she have been kidnapped? How strong was her opponent?

Also, what has happened to the other women in the house?

The voice on the other end was calm. “I heard that you’ve gone to Puerto Rico. I’ll give you six hours. If you’re still not here by then, your mother will go to heaven.”

As soon as the other party finished speaking, a ‘click’ was all Alex heard after. It sounded like the phone had been crushed.

“Hello, hello...”

Alex was flustered and exasperated when another call came, and this time from Waltz.

“Hello, Waltz, my mom has been kidnapped. Do you know about it?” Alex immediately picked up the call and said anxiously.

Waltz’s voice came in slow, difficult breaths, “Senior, I... I know. It’s an old man. He’s really powerful. He rushed into the villa, took Mom... I heard him saying.... That he’s from the Witch Doctor Sect.”

Alex frowned. “What’s wrong with you? Are you hurt?”

“I’m fine,” Waltz said. “But, Holly... Her wounds are quite severe...”

Alex's heart beat faster once again, the anxiousness followed by seething rage.

“Waltz, there is a bottle of life-saving pills on my bedside table in my room. The pills are black. Give that to Holly, and you take one, too. I'll be back soon!”

“Senior, you have to be careful. The old man is really powerful!”

The call ended.

Alex lifted his head to see that Cheryl had already gotten out of the bathroom and was in the middle of putting on her clothes. She had obviously heard Alex's conversation and that something big had happened.

“What happened to your mother?” she asked urgently.

“She's been kidnapped by someone from the Witch Doctor Sect. I have to go back immediately!” Alex glanced at her. The desire in his heart was long gone. Only a murderous intent and a hot fury remained.

Cheryl was done putting her clothes on now, and she summoned Guilherme out from the inheritance mark on her forehead.

When the old man appeared, he thought it was because Cheryl was in some medical trouble, but he immediately saw that it wasn't the case.

“Young Master, Young Madam, this is...”

“The Witch Doctor Sect has taken Alex’s mother,” Cheryl said. “Can you do anything about it?”

She was willing to try just about anything in a dire situation like this.

Guilherme was someone from ancient times, and hundreds of years had passed since then. Who knew how many masters the Witch Doctor Sect had had since it was established, and how could he do anything about this?

“What? Young Master’s mother has been kidnapped? And it’s someone from the Witch Doctor Sect?!”

The moment Guilherme heard that, he jumped up violently, his soul body hitting the ceiling, and he shouted furiously, “Is the current master of the Witch Doctor Sect a useless piece of sh*t? The Witch Doctor’s inheritance comes from Young Master’s ancestors. You can even say that you’re the true master of the Witch Doctor Sect, Young Master. Those disciples in their sect should be obeying you instead, and now, they’ve gone and kidnapped your mother. Isn’t that just ridiculous?!”

Cheryl was suddenly speechless when she heard that rant.

“The Witch Doctor Sect was founded by Alex’s ancestors?”

“As the first generation of Immortal Doctors were the young master’s ancestors, the inheritance of the Immortal Doctors have been passed down from the first generation of the Immortal Doctors.”

Realization finally dawned upon Cheryl. Before this, she hadn’t understood how Alex had somehow become Guilherme’s young master. So, this was how.

“Alright, Guilherme, you don’t have to get angry like this. The Witch Doctor Sect has long since been what it used to be.”

Guilherme sighed. “What Young Master said makes sense. The Witch Doctor Sect has long since changed for the worse. Since my time, the master of the sect has always been ambitious. They no longer prioritize their duty of helping those who are dying or healing those who are injured but instead turn to studying and experimenting with strange sorcery. They want to use these extraordinary means to control the entire area, even the whole imperial court, and all the ordinary people!”

“Their hearts have long since been corrupted, and under the influence of the master of the sect, the entire Witch Doctor Sect has been thrown into turmoil. That is what made me determined to take away the Immortal Doctor’s inheritance in the first place because if it fell into their hands, it would be used to cause harm instead.”

“How can they use the Immortal Doctor inheritance to harm people?” Cheryl asked.

“There are many strange, secret arts that were originally created with the intent to save people in the inheritance of the Immortal Doctor,” Guilherme said. “But, if the person using the techniques harbors evil intentions, they could use it to kill people instead!”

“For example, back then, when I was in the Witch Doctor Sect, the then master of the sect was researching how to turn a living person into a zombie. To stop him, I had a major row with him and finally revolted against the Witch Doctor Sect.”

Alex sighed softly. “Guilherme, I’m afraid you’ re going to be disappointed! The Witch Doctor Sect now has living examples of successfully turning living humans into zombies.”

“What?! That old b*stard actually managed to complete his experiment?”

Alex nodded.

As they spoke, he had already packed the things they needed to and then rushed out to look for Sky Melvis. When Sky heard of what was happening, he immediately contacted Zachary.

It so happened that Zachary had already rushed back from the Puerto Rico Rainforest and said, “I will get in touch with the airport immediately and have them prepare the plane! Wait at the entrance of the inn in Morro. We’ll be there in about eight minutes.”

Brittany was tossed into a small boat like garbage.

It was the old man who had kidnapped her, an ancestor of the Witch Doctor Sect, who had tossed her there. Of course, this person wasn't of Alex's ancestry but Levi Bayer's.

The man was about two meters in height with broad shoulders, and he looked tall and strong, and he had a unique temperament.

When he had caught Brittany, she felt like a petite little girl next to him.

"Ancestor, why don't you leave watching this woman to me? I guarantee not to let her escape!"

A woman was standing beside him. It was Carol Rockefeller from the Rockefeller family. She pointed at Brittany and said respectfully, "This woman's son has killed the young master of the Witch Doctor Sect. That is a crime worth a million deaths. I'm going to cut off the hamstrings of both her hands and legs right now. It might at least be some compensation toward the late young master."

Carol held an immense hatred toward Brittany, and she was thinking of all sorts of ways to torture both Brittany and Alex.

Previously, she had been the one to call the Witch Doctor Sect and inform them that Alex had been the one to kill Levi. As a result, the current master of the Witch Doctor Sect, Gunni Bayer, was furious. He only had one son, and this situation had caused him to see his child die before him. How could he not avenge his son? He immediately invited the old ancestor using the inheritance of the Immortal Doctor as bait and had the old man head out to catch Alex alive.

“Hmph!” The old man snorted coldly.

His eyes looked extremely strange, as though they had cataracts. They were gray, and no pupils of the eye could be seen.

His facial features and skin were also extraordinary, and it made the skin of anyone looking at him crawl. It looked like the anatomical model of the human body found in school labs, with the vein lines inside the muscle visible, and it didn't resemble a human's face at all.

“No need!” the old ancestor said in a frosty tone, rejecting Carol's kind intentions to help.

As for Brittany, she leveled a sharp gaze at Carol. It looked like she was looking at a dead person.

Brittany swore in her heart right then that she would kill Carol when she had the chance. She would never forget how Holly had used her own body to take on the old man's punch directly to save her and how the blood had splattered everywhere as far as the eye could see!

Holly was still a child!

Carol met her gaze and glared back at her with equal ferocity. "What are you looking at me for? You should properly enjoy the time you have left. Time is running out for you, after all."

"Back then, Alex's father rescued you from the fire without any regard for his own life," Brittany said. "Unexpectedly, a poisonous snake had been rescued back then. Carol Rockefeller, I won't give you another chance if there's a next time!"

Carol laughed coldly and sneered, "The feeling is mutual, then!"
