

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 3873

Charlie got the business card and glanced at it casually, and found that there was only one name and a string of numbers on the business card.

The name is Zhan , and the telephone number is a domestic telephone number starting with 159.

Moreover, this business card also exudes a faint smell of ink, which seems to have just been printed.

Charlie didn't think too much, took out his phone and took a picture of the business card, and then returned it to Jacob.

He intends to contact this Zhan tomorrow to show her Feng Shui so as to deal with this matter.

The next day, Charlie had breakfast, Jacob reminded Charlie: "Charlie, don't forget to call Miss Zhan."

Charlie nodded and said, "I will send Claire to the company later, and I will contact that Miss Zhan."

Jacob hurriedly said: "Don't send Claire. I'll drive Claire to the company soon. I just want to go to the association soon and let Claire leave the car to you. If Miss Zhan is in a hurry, you can drive directly past."

Claire also nodded and said, "Husband, this Miss Zhan invested so much money in Dad's Calligraphy and Painting Association, and she can be regarded as a noble person in the Calligraphy and Painting Association. I would trouble you to be more concerned about this matter."

After that, she said again: "You see, if this matter is not a lot of work, then don't charge people."

As soon as Elaine heard this, he blurted out: "Claire, what are you talking about, brothers have to settle accounts, let alone this stranger?"

After finishing speaking, he hurriedly said to Charlie: "Good son-in-law, don't listen to Claire, the money that should be collected must be collected, let's not do that stupid thing that doesn't even need money for the sake of face!"

Charlie looked at Claire and said with a smile: "My wife, don't worry about it, I know it in my heart."

Elaine hurriedly said: "Good son-in-law, you can't be stupid! Whom we can't live with, nor can we live with money! And it's not a small sum, it can easily amount to millions!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Okay mom, I know, don't worry."

With that, Charlie quietly gave Claire a relieved look.

But it was only one or two million, Charlie really didn't care about it, and it didn't hurt to send his love along the way.

After eating, Claire planned to leave in Jacob's car. Charlie remembered the amulet he had made before, so he took out two amulets and handed them to the father and daughter, and said, "Dad, Claire, this is a safe way to get in and out. Take your amulet with you one by one."

Jacob asked curiously: "The amulet? Where did it come from? How come I look like it is made of shells?"

Charlie smiled and said, "It's made of shellfish, and it doesn't really have any effect. It's just for auspiciousness."

Claire took this small and exquisite amulet, and said in amazement: "This gloss is so beautiful! I'm afraid ordinary shells don't have such a good texture!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Who knows, it may be some kind of unusual shell."