

CHAPTER 131-150

"Way, what's the best way?"

Fish Water was a little surprised, this method of catching a mole had always been a problem for many companies.

Finn snapped his fingers, followed by a middle-aged man walking in.

"Who is this?" Fish Bai looked at the suit-wearing Sven middle-aged man in front of him and was somewhat puzzled, but the deep eyes of the middle-aged man were deeply attracted to Fish Bai.

Finn explained, "This is Wang Musheng, an expert in micro-expressions, I hired him at an hourly rate of 100,000."

Finn originally planned to ask Charles to help, but thinking that the family wouldn't provide help, Finn had no choice but to hire him himself.

"Micro-expression expert? Is it reliable?" There was a bit of distrust in Fish White's eyes.

But Wang Musheng was not angry in the slightest and only spoke lightly, "You're wearing white lace panties today."

"What?" Fishwhite was suddenly surprised.

"f*ck, was it really said?" First web site

Finn was also surprised as Fish Bai didn't retort at the first opportunity.

Knowing that it was no longer possible to conceal it, Fishbaek nodded his head, followed by inquiring, "Mr. Wang, you can even tell this, this is not a micro-expression, this is a perspective ah!"

Wang Musheng smiled faintly, but didn't answer the reason why, just said to Finn, "Ye Shao, I've caught the mole."

"Ah?" Finn 's surprise didn't stop.

Wang Musheng nodded his head and said, "Miss Chu Chiao Chiao, the front desk on the first floor, is the mole, and according to my observation, she has no accomplices and has been working as a mole for less than two months."

At this statement, Fishbaek was surprised, "Chu Chiao Chiao has indeed just come to the company for less than two months."

"Who is Chu Chiao-chiao?" Finn was a bit confused, not knowing who the two were talking about.

Fish Bai explained, "It's the one you just praised at the front desk, Ye Shao."

"So it's her." It suddenly dawned on Finn , before he had slipped money to Chu Chiao-chiao in order to ask Han Dong'er's news, Chu Chiao-chiao answered everything truthfully, to say that being a mole was also well documented.

"Awesome awesome!" Finn couldn't help but applaud for Wang Musheng, and right after that, he took out his phone and directly transferred WeChat to Wang Musheng.

Receiving the money, Wang Musheng's face still didn't fluctuate at all, only smiling faintly, "Ye Shao, since the transaction is complete, looking forward to the next cooperation, I'll leave first."

"Go slowly." Finn waved his hand, originally he wanted to retain Wang Musheng for a meal or something.

But on second thought, he was worried that if Wang Musheng saw something in his heart again, he would have more to lose than to gain, so he simply didn't stay.

"What a divine man, no wonder he dares to ask for a hundred thousand an hour." Watching Wang Musheng leave, Fishbaek was somewhat amazed, even though his thoughts hadn't returned.

Finn spared a glance at Fish Bai and played with his eyes, "Chief Fish, I didn't expect you to still have this elegance, white lace, tsk tsk..."

"Ye Shao, don't make fun of me." Fish Bai covered his old face, if there was a crack in the ground, he would have already drilled into it.

"Then if there's nothing else I'll leave first." Finn got up and left, now he hadn't eaten yet, it was already afternoon and he was already hungry.

As for the matter of Chu Chiao, but Finn was too lazy to deal with it, anyway, he caught someone, let Fish Bai handle it on his own, after all, after all these years of General Manager, the way to deal with it was definitely more proper than him.

The next few days, Finn just and Li Qiuyu eat and drink, everywhere to have fun, time p
A**es a few days, Wu Qiushui side no movement, Finn is not anxious, if Wu Qiushui encountered things, will certainly find him to discuss.

As for the Van Pin Entertainment side, Finn thought about it left and right, let Han Dong'er follow him back to Kaiyuan, and before leaving, Finn also took the general staff of Van Pin Entertainment with him.

Finn has no experience as an entertainment company, and now he has ready-made employees, so naturally it's perfect.

The company has a lot of people who are looking for a way to get the best out of the company, and it's a good idea for them to get the best out of the company.

Just like this, Finn returned to Kaiyuan with two big beauties, Li Qiuyu and Han Dong'er.

Knowing that Finn came back, Zhou Leya rushed to the Presidential Suite of Prosperity at the first time.

But just entered the door, Zhou Lelian Ya saw Han Dong'er.

Finn secretly bad, just about to explain Han Dong'er's history, he saw Zhou Leya walked to Han Dong'er's body, a hug Han Dong'er Road: "Dong'er sister, already heard Qiu Yu sister about you, now look, is really a big beauty it."

"Sister Love Ya is only beautiful." Han Dong'er lowered her head and blushed.

Seeing that the two of them got along well, Finn knew that it was Li Qiuyu who had secretly contacted the two of them before, and not surprisingly, Finn gave Li Qiuyu a thumbs up.

There were no dogged scenes like the palace drama, Finn was still very pleased.

And after Han Dong'er said so, Finn then carefully look at Zhou Leya, indeed better than the previous two days, not only the face of the baby fat disappeared, the body is also more smooth with curves, temperament are improved a lot.

This is only five days time, if you hone two months, will definitely be a step up.

Thinking of this, Finn slapped his thigh and said, "I've decided, Winter, you'll also join the training with Renya."

"Good!" Han Dong'er didn't refute, she knew that Finn was doing it for her own good and had no reason to refuse.

After thinking about it, Finn said again, "Qiu Yu, this side of the Jin Yuan Building will soon come to the fish and water, so you can go and be a boss."

"Me? A boss? I can't." Li Qiuyu was flattered and waved her hand repeatedly to refuse.

Finn lightly smiled: "I say line is line, the fish and water side must have sent management talents, since you don't want to debut, you just follow and learn, and slowly you will also be trained out. Also, the company needs funds to run, and I don't feel comfortable letting someone else manage it, so you'll be in charge of the money, just keep a clear record of every account."

"Then.... Okay." After Li Qiu Yu hesitated again and again, she had to agree.

Finn was just impulsive, so he explained all the responsibilities, and was happy to have nothing to worry about.

After another three days p A**ed, Finn found it very boring.

At the moment, Li Qiuyu was busy getting the company's accounts, it was the early stage, although Li Qiuyu was not the main force, but also busy. And Han Dong'er and Zhou Leya were both in closed training, it was really quite difficult to see one another. For the time being, the three girls didn't need his attention.

Originally, with the three girls around, Finn always felt like there was something to do, but now there was nothing to do, but instead it was very boring.

"Why don't we go back to the Golden Sands and take a look." Finn 's thoughts changed and he said to do it.

It had been almost a month since he left the Golden Sands, but Finn missed Xiao Coco and Wang Kexin a little.

Driving the Porsche, Finn just rushed straight back to the Golden Sands with nothing to fear.

132

Finn went back on Monday morning, and called Xiao Coco when he arrived at Jinsha, but he learned that Xiao Coco was still sleeping.

After all, it was Xiao Coco who did the anchor work, all live at night and catching up on sleep in the morning, so Finn couldn't bear to disturb Xiao Coco, so he decided to go to Wang Kexin first.

"Kexin should still be in cl A** right now, why don't you go to school?"

Finn muttered in his heart, Monday is a cl A**, although Finn is temporarily suspended, but there is still a schedule.

Wang Kexin, for the sake of the family, came all the way to give Finn as a fiancée, but Finn went to the field to do family mission, it is a great loss to her. Especially because Finn in Kaiyuan and wind, a total of three beauties, is guilty, want to make up for Wang Kexin.

Without much thought, Finn was ready to go directly to the school and give Wang Kexin a surprise.

" Finn ?"

As soon as he arrived at the school, Finn was stopped and turned his head to see that it was his cl A**mate, Wang Zhan.

He only knows that Wang Zhan is a coward and is bullied by Li Meng.

With a glance up and down at Wang Zhan, Finn was impressed. Remember the website .

"It's fellow student Wang Zhan, what, didn't you go to class?" Finn greeted Wang Zhan with a smile and didn't bully Wang Zhan just because he was cowardly.

Wang Zhan picked up the plastic bag in his hand and said, "Li Meng said he didn't eat breakfast, so he let me go buy it."

"Li Meng is still such a jerk, but he can really eat and bought it for two." When Finn glanced at the plastic bag, he saw that it was two burgers and twice the milk tea.

"This..." Wang Zhan was hesitant, but still said, "Finn, I still need to tell you about this. Our classmates, we all know that you and Wang Kexin are the only pair, but after you've been gone for so long, Li Meng has been looking for Wang Kexin every day, and you see, this breakfast is the one with Wang Kexin's share."

"What! And that kid had the nerve to do it to my woman!" Finn was furious, never would he have thought that Li Meng was so ignorant of the sky that he put his hand on his head.

"Give me the thing!" Finn said, and snatched the plastic bag from Wang Zhan's hand and ran straight to the class.

Inside the class, all the students were chatting in a chaotic manner, but they all consciously avoided Li Meng.

Now that all the class thorns had left the school for various reasons, Li Meng was considered the leader of the class.

At the moment Li Meng as usual, will Wang Kexin front table classmate dragged aside, the student stared at Li Meng, but dare not say.

"What are you looking at, so many times still don't learn a lesson, in the future this seat is mine, quickly get out!" Li Meng grew five and three thick, and his eyes were even more like lanterns, after glaring at the former, the former was angry and packed up his things and moved to another position.

"Just a bitch, say it a few times and don't even know how to obey." Li Meng cursed again before turning his head towards Wang Kexin and smiling, "Kexin, you haven't eaten breakfast yet, after all, today's class is at eight in the morning. But don't worry, I've already asked Wang Zhan to buy it, so you'll be able to eat it after waiting a little longer."

"I don't need it." Wang Kexin faintly spoke, but she didn't lift her eyes once, just looked at the textbook.

Li Meng's eyebrows twitched inadvertently, nicely hiding the anger under his eyes, laughing again: "Kexin don't be angry ah, it's all because Wang Zhan that brat bought it too slowly, so you can't wait. Don't worry, I'll definitely teach that brat a lesson when he comes back later!"

Wang Kexin saw that Li Meng was going to bully Wang Zhan again and was about to open his mouth.

But before her mouth opened, she heard a seemingly sarcastic voice: "Breakfast is bought for you, are you trying to teach me a lesson?"

This familiar voice made Wang Kexin look up directly at the door, and there was her heartfelt fiancé, Finn !

"You kid.... Finn ?" Li Meng was about to curse angrily, but when he turned his head and saw that it was Finn , he was also startled and swallowed back the curse words.

Finn smilingly walked forward, threw the plastic bag directly on the table, and said indifferently: "Li Meng, I heard that you want to teach me a lesson?"

"No, I'm talking about Wang Zhan." Li Meng waved his hand repeatedly, angry to compensate, which still has the previous dominance.

Finn sneered: "Wang Zhan came back late, that's why he met me at the school gate, I'm also to blame, Wang Zhan and I are considered accomplices, come, let me see how you teach someone a lesson."

"I don't dare, I don't dare." Li Meng shook his head repeatedly and retreated backwards, his chair flipped over and he fell to the ground in shock.

"Rubbish, you still want to touch my girlfriend with that bear look." Finn spat disdainfully, not even thinking of taking care of Li Meng.

Originally, Finn thought that Li Meng could have some backbone to practice against him, but now that he looked at it, he was a wimp, only bullying the weak and being obsequious when he met a powerful one.

"Get lost if you don't have the guts, don't let this young man see you in the future, or you'll suffer the consequences." Finn said coldly.

I saw Li Meng clench his fists tightly as he climbed up from the ground, but only for an instant, and then he left without saying a word. This scene was just like the classmates that Li Meng had bullied just now, daring to be angry.

After glancing at the defeated Li Meng, Finn pulled up a chair from the ground and sat down, frowning, "You didn't know to tell me if you were being harassed."

Upon hearing that, Wang Kexin only came back to her senses, her eyes actually filled with tears, "You still know to come back, I thought you didn't want me."

Seeing this, Finn didn't dare to talk blindly anymore, so he had to get up and come to Wang Kexin's side, hugging Wang Kexin: "Be good, don't cry, I'm back, aren't I."

Finn gently comforted Wang Kexin, but his heart was stirring up shock waves.

If it wasn't for the unexpected return this time, then Wang Kexin might not have really been bullied by Li Meng.

However, Wang Kexin was fine, just in school, no matter how strong a student was, he wouldn't be strong enough to get on top of Wang Kexin. Finn was most worried about Xiao Ke, after all, Xiao Ke was in the company, the workplace is not so easy to talk to, there are more bad guys.

Especially since Xiao Coco was still a little famous, if she was chased to Sands by some local heroes, there was no telling what would happen.

The more Finn thought about it, the more frightened he became.

But it was imperative to coax the Wang Kexin in front of him.

Wang Kexin was lying in Finn's arms, not caring that it was in a classmate's arms, and her years of ladylike qualities were nowhere to be seen in front of Finn, and she directly wailed without caring about her image.

"That classmate Wang, why don't you guys go out for a walk? We have an exam coming up."

All the students didn't dare to interrupt Wang Kexin's crying, after all, it was the first time everyone saw Wang Kexin crying, especially since Finn was still here, these people didn't dare even more.

The one who dared to speak and interrupt was the professional teacher who had come to class.

133

It was now December, close to the holidays, and they all needed final assessments, otherwise, this teacher wouldn't have interrupted on this occasion.

Finn glared at the teacher, but didn't say anything, so he took Wang Kexin out.

After all, it was the final exam, Finn can't hold up other innocent students because of his own personal matters, even if he had a good relationship with the principal, one thing is another.

When he left the class, Finn noticed that Wang Kexin wasn't even crying anymore.

"What? It's okay?" Finn teased.

The atmosphere was so heavy now, not Finn's favorite, so he thought to change a lighter tone.

Wang Kexin lowered her head and said, "Alright."

She actually didn't want to cry after crying for a while, but the first time she did something like this in public, she was still very shy, so she didn't dare to raise her head.

Thanks to the professional teacher, she escaped from the embarrassing situation.

Finn rubbed Wang Kexin's hair: "I know I was wrong, I shouldn't have left you alone for so long, and now that Charles isn't here, you're a little girl in a strange city, you won't be able to adapt, right? So I've decided to let Charles take you back to your family." A second to remember to read the book at

This was Finn 's temporary thought, Finn originally wanted to take Wang Kexin to Kaiyuan, but there were already three girls in Kaiyuan, it would be really too chaotic to let Wang Kexin go again.

And there is also a Xiao Coco, who has no one to rely on is what Finn cares about the most now, and Finn thinks that Xiao Coco's skills can also become a big star.

So he thought he would bring Xiao Coco back to Kaiyuan and train with Zhou Leya and Han Dong'er.

The four girls playing mahjong together were enough, Wang Kexin instead was a bit redundant.

But it's not that Finn doesn't care about Wang Kexin, but Wang Kexin's family wants to be a big family, it's good to be carefree at home, at least don't have to suffer from a student's anger in this small place.

But when Wang Kexin heard Finn 's words, her face directly sank: "Ye Shao, is it that I have done something wrong, don't abandon me ah."

Finn knew that Wang Kexin was wrong and hurriedly explained, "No, I'm not abandoning you. It's that I've been working on a family mission recently, and I need to cultivate a few stars to help me, but I know your family definitely won't allow it, and I don't feel comfortable with you staying in Jinsha, so just go back first, and after a few months, I'll finish the mission and come to your family to pick you up."

Finn 's explanation made Wang Kexin feel better, but his face was still not good: "Then why did you bring other women if you didn't bring me?"

"Other women? You mean Coco Xiao? She has no one to rely on but me, so I had to take her and nurture her." Finn continued to explain.

But Wang Kexin snorted, "Of course I'm not talking about sister Coco when she's so bitter. I'm talking about other women, you have a woman's perfume on your body, or several kinds of it!"

"Huh?" Finn was silly, he actually couldn't smell anything complicated, but Wang Kexin was actually able to accurately analyze more than one kind, women were really scary creatures, and he was blinded by Finn 's question at once.

"What, can't explain it?" Wang Kexin said in aggravation, "You agreed with me before that I could not mind you having other women, but you have to tell me, but you never told me, and you haven't even talked to me on the phone a few times in the past month, woohoo."

Finn was at a loss for words, Wang Kexin was a good girl and was so generous that he didn't even care that he had other women. He, on the other hand, hadn't even talked on the phone a few times, and he felt that he had gone too far.

"I was wrong, I confess." It was also the first time that Finn had encountered this situation, so he had no choice but to confess all of it, making the process with Zhou Leya, Li Qiuyu, and Han Dong'er all clear, and the number of times he kissed them all word for word.

"Is that all?" Wang Kexin inquired after hearing this.

Finn was surprised, "These are already quite a few, do you want to have more? I can confess it all."

"That's more like it." Wang Kexin nodded, then directly raised her foot and stepped on Finn's foot, and it was three times.

"One woman at a time, who told you not to tell me, huh?" Wang Kexin pouted, but didn't say anything more to complain.

Finn was startled, but he wasn't angry. He was the one who had done something wrong to Wang Kexin, and Wang Kexin who had simply stepped on three feet was simply the lightest punishment for him, and he felt more and more that Wang Kexin was really too good.

"Kexin you're so good!" Finn was moved and was about to hug Wang Kexin.

Just at this moment, a dissonance was heard.

"Cl A**mate Wang, what a coincidence, I ran into you here, I was hoping to find you. Are you free later? I'd like to invite you to lunch."

When Finn heard it was a man's voice, he couldn't help but look up and see a big, sunny boy in casual clothes walking over from the stairway.

In the meantime, Finn hated boys like this very much. He went around hitting on little girls just because he had good looks, but he was just a scum. Although Finn didn't know this person, he instinctively felt that this was a scam. Even if he wasn't, Finn hated it. Since Wang Kexin was his fiancée, wouldn't other people moon Wang Kexin in front of him be cuckolding him? How could he put up with it!

Once he hugged Wang Kexin tightly in his arms, Finn snorted, "Go away from where you came from, don't disturb me and Kexin."

"Kexin? Who allowed you to scream so intimately, and hands, let go or don't blame me for being rude to you!" The sunshine boy snorted coldly and was about to charge up.

Finn didn't wimp out at all and glared at the other, "I won't let go, I'll see how rude you are!"

"Kid, did you make Wang's cl A**mate cry? You made me do this!" Sunshine Boy came up with a glare.

"Wu Zihao, you stop right there!" Wang Kexin gave a low drink and stopped the sunshine boy for a moment.

Wu Zihao frowned, "Cl A**mate Wang, he's bullying you, don't be afraid to talk to me, I'll help you."

"I don't need your help, you should leave." Wang Kexin said and hugged Finn back, "Stay away from me from now on, we're not possible, this is what I told you, my fiancé Finn."

"Fiancé? Yeh Fan? Are you Evan?" After Wu Zihao looked Finn up and down, he snorted, "Before I heard you say how Finn is, I originally thought that Finn was a perfect and impeccable person. But with this fishing wire look of his, how can he match up to fellow student Wang?"

"sh*t, you're looking for death!"

It's intolerable, how can Finn endure such an insult, he rushed straight up and punched out at Wu Zihao!

134

Wu Zihao had never expected that Finn would dare to take direct action.

After all, this was inside the school, if he did it, punishment would definitely be inevitable.

But he had underestimated Finn , if it wasn't for coming back to find Wang Kexin, Finn probably wouldn't have been able to set foot in this school anymore.

But Finn still underestimated Wu Zihao's skills, Finn only hit the first blow, then the returning Wu Zihao pulled away and put up a fight, with Finn 's eyes couldn't even see the slightest flaw.

The remaining light sweeps, Finn saw Li Meng, who packed up his bag and came out of the cl A**room with a grim face.

Finn suddenly shouted in a low voice, "Li Meng, stop!"

"Ye Shao, I'll be leaving soon, please don't trouble me."Li Meng thought that Finn would still be looking for trouble, his face declined, and inside he extremely regretted that he had provoked Wang Kexin before.

Finn coldly snorted, "I said, don't let me see you again, or you'll have good consequences.But since you're the first time, I'll give you a chance to make it up to me."

"Anything Ye Shao has commanded, I can do it will definitely be obliged!"When Li Meng heard that there was a chance, he couldn't help but brighten up and secretly said there was a play.

Finn pointed at Wu Zihao and said, "You beat him up and beat him to death, I'll take care of anything that happens.But if you haven't beaten him, then don't blame me for being rude to you." First URL m.

"Ye don't worry, I'll make sure he beats the sh*t out of him!"Where did Li Meng dare to refuse, thinking of Finn 's methods, Li Meng became even more full of fighting spirit, as if he had seen his father's enemy, he directly rushed to Wu Zihao's body and smashed down with one punch.

Don't look at Wu Zihao had some skills, but it wasn't unreasonable to kill the master with random punches.

Li Meng relied on his five big and three thick stature, without any defense, just punched after punched out, hitting where it counts, can not hear a bit.

It only took two minutes, and Wu Zihao was completely powerless to fight.

The first time I saw it, I thought it was the first time I'd ever seen it. One minute Wu Zihao was still using his hands to parry, the next minute he was completely dodging with his steps, but Rao couldn't withstand the number of times Li Meng hit him.

A rough calculation by Finn, in two minutes, Li Meng swung more than fifty punches, it was like a storm, not only the number of punches, but also the painful ones.

Seeing this, Finn couldn't help but smile at the corner of his mouth, Li Meng and Wu Zihao were both Wang Kexin's suitors, watching the two of them dog bite dog, Finn was even more pleased.

"Li Meng, I'll spare you this time, don't get caught by me again in the future." Finn said, and in return, he received Li Meng's grateful thanks, but Finn hugged Wang Kexin's shoulders and strode away after he finished speaking.

After chatting with Wang Kexin for a while, it was finally time for the separation scene.

"Then I really have to go, you have to remember to miss me oh, remember to call me if anything happens."

Wang Kexin was in love.

Finn nodded and lightly smiled, "Don't worry, don't worry, it won't be long before I pick you up."

When Wang Kexin heard that, the worry on her face was still somewhat reduced, and she followed Charles and left.

This time Charles came over was Finn's arrangement, in fact, without Charles, Wang Kexin could also go back to the family. But in order to avoid the people of the family thought that Finn withdrew from the marriage to be dissatisfied with Wang Kexin, and said Wang Kexin gossip. That's why Finn asked Charles to send Wang Kexin back personally, to prove that Finn really cares about Wang Kexin.

Just like this, after Charles instructed Finn to complete the task properly, he left with Wang Kexin.

When he looked at the time, it was only three in the afternoon.

Finn drove the Porsche and rushed to Ye's Live.

This company was still the same as before, only it had returned the name, and after Finn had taken the place before, he had never come back.

Before calling, Finn knew that Xiao Coco was live at night for a few hours in order to save money, and then slept until noon in the early morning and then came to the company in the afternoon.

As Xiao Coco's boss plus boyfriend, Finn came over this time just to see Xiao Coco, and by the way, give Xiao Coco a surprise.

After entering the company, security guards and receptionists familiar with Finn greeted him, and Finn nodded one by one in response.

In order to achieve the best effect of the live broadcast, Xiao Coco's room is made of soundproof material. Outside the room, Finn couldn't hear any noise and the door was closed, so he couldn't see inside.

Taking out his phone and opening the live streaming app, Finn found that Xiao Coco did not open the live streaming, so he knew that Xiao Coco should be staying in the room. Thinking that he wouldn't disturb Xiao Coco's live broadcast, Finn opened the door and entered.

"Ah!"

When the door was opened without permission, Finn heard Xiao Coco's scream, "Didn't I tell you not to come in without my consent?"

When Finn raised his eyes, he saw that Xiao Coco was hurriedly taking clothes to block her beautiful body, and it dawned on Finn that Xiao Coco was however changing her clothes.

Finn knew very well that in order to achieve good results in the live broadcast, the anchorwoman put a lot of effort into dressing up every day.

But Finn didn't expect it to be such a coincidence that he would happen to see such a fragrant scene, fortunately, before Zhou Leya and others always appeared in his bed, his immune system was much better, so he didn't directly spray nose blood.

"Nice body yo." Finn playfully smiled.

Hearing the familiar voice, Xiao Coco's body could not help but shake, turning her head to see Finn, her eyes filled with tears, "Finn, you big bad guy, you still know how to come back!"

Seeing this, Finn stepped forward and gently hugged Xiao Coco, patting Xiao Coco's back comfortingly, "It's my bad, I'm coming back to pick you up, aren't I."

"Pick me up?" Xiao Coco's delicate body shook.

Finn nodded and explained, "Yes, I originally thought that going for a month would be enough, but I'm coming back to pick you up now that my mission has changed and it's not that simple."

"Did you encounter any difficulties?" Xiao Coco was a little worried.

"It's fine."

Seeing Xiao Coco's worried expression, Finn's heart could not help but set off waves, Xiao Coco's face belonged to the type of a small family, and with a sad face it was even more endearing.

Adding to the fact that he hadn't seen it for so long, Finn couldn't help but lower his head and kiss Xiao Coco's lips.

"Knock knock!"

Just at this moment, the door was knocking.

Finn was fortunate that he didn't follow Xiao Coco's example of not locking the door so heartily, but came in and casually locked it, or else a person would come in and see the two of them in this scene wouldn't be a big loss.

Finn hid Xiao Coco behind the curtains to make sure she wouldn't be seen, Finn opened the door and directly flashed out, closing the door with a face of patience, "What is it?"

The fat man accosted and said, "Mr. Ye, didn't I hear that you were back, and as soon as I guessed that you would come to Xiao Coco's place first, I came to find you."

The fat man was none other than the boss, Xiao Qiang.

Finn had only seen photos, never seen a real person, this was Charles who was specifically looking for someone to manage this company in order to not leak out his A**ets.

Xiao Qiang real person is also a lot fatter than the photo, it seems that this month, life within this company is good, after all, it is a live industry, there are ladies around, even if you do not do it, every day full of eyes, is also good.

Eat and drink enough to see a beautiful woman, it's strange not to get fat.

"Knowing that I'm at Xiao Coco's place, you still come to disturb, I won't let you off lightly if you don't tell me a good reason." Finn was almost going to go further with Xiao Coco just now, so he was disturbed and was in a bad mood.

Xiao Qiang's eyes turned, so he smiled: "Isn't it the end of the year, the company is going to hold the annual meeting, the evening is the annual meeting, there will be all the ladies of our company to attend, which one of them is satisfied with Ye and I can help you get it, you see this compensates you, okay?"

"Well, well sh*t, get out of here!" Finn was helpless, if there was no Xiao Coco, that would be good. But Xiao Coco is here and has to go see other young ladies, isn't that adding fuel to the fire.

Xiao Qiang was just looking for a reason, but now that he could take the opportunity to slip away, of course he had to seize the opportunity, and then he laughed, "I'm rolling away, I'm rolling away."

After saying that, Xiao Qiang ran away in a flash. Remember the URL .

Finn shook his head helplessly and re-entered the room, locking the door again.

Xiao Coco was already dressed, looking up and down, and Finn frowned slightly because what Xiao Coco was wearing wasn't any brand goods.

Before Finn specifically explained that all the salary for Xiao Coco's live broadcast was given to Xiao Coco, and the company did not carry out pumping, so it was reasonable that Xiao Coco should have a lot of money, so why was she still wearing ordinary clothes.

And as far as the eye can see, the evening dress on Xiao Coco's body is still a little ill-fitting, a look is bought online.

"Coco, did the company deduct you again, why are you dressed like this." Finn couldn't help but spit out.

Fortunately, Xiao Coco had a good face and a good figure, otherwise it would look even more incongruous.

"Doesn't it look good?"

Being told this, Xiao Coco was also a little lost, after all, this was the first time Finn had expressed his displeasure with her clothes.

"I'm going to ask Xiao Qiang." Finn said and was about to go out.

However, he was pulled by Xiao Coco: "Ye Shao, not to blame Xiao Qiang's, money I did not earn less, this month I have saved a hundred thousand, the past gifts were extracted by the platform half, by the company and then take half, to hand on more than twenty thousand points. But Xiao Qiang but all to me, even the platform extraction, also helped me to fill, good for me."

"Then why are you still..." Halfway through Finn's words, he knew why this was so.

Xiao Coco had said before that she wanted to save money to pay him back, so it seemed that Xiao Coco was still keeping this matter in her heart to save money so much, right?

If it were any other girl, even if she was saving money, she wouldn't treat herself badly, so Rao would be considered a good girl. But Xiao Coco had saved almost all of it, which made Finn even more touched, a girl like Xiao Coco was really rare to find in a hundred years.

"I heard that there is still an annual meeting at night, are you planning to wear this to it? Let's go, I'll take you to buy some nice clothes."

Finn pulled Xiao Coco's small hand without saying a word and went straight out.

Once she got into the car, Xiao Coco turned her head to Finn and said, "Ye Shao, don't bother, I think this is pretty good too."

"Good what good." After Finn helplessly looked at Xiao Coco, he grabbed Xiao Coco's small hand and said, "You have to remember, you are my Finn's woman, you are representing me outside, you are dressed like this, isn't that hitting my face, listen to me on this matter. I've said I don't have to pay me back, even if you insist on paying me back, you are not allowed to treat yourself badly, understand?"

"I know." When she was grabbed by Finn's hand, Xiao Coco lowered her head with a flushed face, her small heart pounding from the excitement of Finn's manly scent.

In a short while, the Porsche stopped at the entrance of the Hualong Mall.

Right after that, Finn pulled Xiao Coco, who wanted to see the floor goods, and went straight to the top floor to buy luxury goods.

In the past, Finn had no money, he could only choose stalls, but now that he had money, he naturally wanted to improve his quality of life.

Before, Finn had made trouble in Hualong for buying mobile phones and clothes, but this time when he came to the top floor, apart from the new staff, all the old staff knew Finn.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at a Chanel store, and the woman in the store will welcome you with a smile: "Ye Shao, take your girlfriend to buy clothes, what do you want to buy? I can recommend it for you."

Seeing this good attitude of the staff, Finn nodded his head in satisfaction, and the thought that he had planned to help Xiao Coco choose personally disappeared.

Originally, Finn didn't know anything about women's clothing, limiting it to tasting good and bad looking, to say matching, these female staff were still good at it.

Why should it be these?

Finn knew that luxury shops like Chanel didn't have many employees, after all, in Golden Sands, there weren't many people who could afford to buy luxury goods, and even fewer who could all show up to buy things at the same time. For example, this shop in front of him has only three female staff.

Now that the three female employees were all flattering to help Xiao Coco pick out clothes, Finn was also happy to be free.

Xiao Coco where received such treatment, by the three female staff almost blinded, had to try on one after another.

Finn cheerfully watched everything, but did not say much, just sat on the side of the sofa, waiting to see how Xiao Coco tried on the clothes, and then give a good or bad evaluation.

The female staff all had good taste, and in a moment's time, they had picked out five nice outfits and seven pairs of high heels.

"All good, wrap it all up." Finn said with a smile.

"All of them?" Xiao Coco was a little surprised, she had planned to buy one set and that would be enough, so much all wrapped up, she didn't know how much it would cost, she took out her phone and looked, the balance was only 180,000, she didn't know how much would be left after spending it all.

"Ye Shao, the total is 500,000, your membership card is 350,000 after the discount, may I ask if it's a credit card or cash?"

"Three hundred and fifty thousand?" Xiao Coco was shocked that it was so expensive. I was expecting to have money left over, but her 180,000 was not enough.

Without waiting for her to take the money, Finn handed out the gold card and said, "Swipe it."

Turning his head, Finn didn't have a good look at Xiao Coco, "What, can I still let you spend money? You're at least a little-known anchor, and you're earning a million a year, isn't it normal to buy a few luxuries, look away."

"Well, the debt has increased again." Xiao Coco didn't say much, but she also included this money in the money she owed to Finn .

Finn shook his head and didn't say anything, anyway, he didn't need Xiao Coco to pay back the money, Xiao Coco had the heart to do so, so let's take it as Xiao Coco's personal pleasure.

Chapter 136

"And a luxury store, you can't even see a selling figure, and this is the service attitude?"

Everything was going smoothly when a sarcastic taunt interrupted the harmony in the shop.

Finn had driven in the morning and experienced the campus incident, and was now trying to squint for a while while the female staff went through the formalities, and the discord made him not only look up, but his eyes showed impatience.

Only a woman with heavy makeup was holding the arm of a balding middle-aged man, the woman's expression all but showing her displeasure with the store.

"Excuse me, ma'am, may I help you?" The female clerk smiled a professional fake smile, despite her impatience.

"That's more like it." The woman nodded her head in satisfaction, her vanity greatly satisfied.

But when she looked at the clothes and saw Xiao Coco, she was surprised, "Coco, why are you here?"

When Xiao Coco saw the woman, her eyes were also filled with incredulity, and her small mouth opened slightly, "Li Tong?"

Looking at each other, the two girls just looked at each other without speaking.

"Tong Tong, your friend?" When the bald man saw Xiao Coco's divine face, his eyes showed some greed. One Second Remember to Read the Book

Li Tong sensed the bald man's lustful heart, the smile on his face disappeared as much as possible, revealing a sneer: "It's not my friend, it's just a high school classmate, but don't look at her innocent-looking, it's a Bi Chi, there was no shortage of gossip in high school, and now I guess they all have a lot of STDs in them."

"f*ck, so scary." The balding man was shocked and hurriedly pulled away, afraid of contracting a disease.

"Whoever you say has the disease, whoever you say made the scandal, aren't those all you!" Xiao Coco retorted, her face flushed red with anger.

The balding man looked at Li Tong with some suspicion.

Li Tong grabbed the bald man's arm and said petulantly, "Brother Wang, don't listen to her nonsense, how is my body you are not clear yet, I was still a virgin when I was with you."

A change of subject, Li Tong is again: "Brother Wang, do you know why Xiao Coco is playing around so much. It is because she is poor ah, you can look up, she is a fatherless orphan, only a grandmother to pull, the family can not uncover the pot, will look around for men, in order to earn some money it. I told you before about the fatherless and motherless, do you still remember, talking about Xiao Coco it."

"I remember, I can't imagine that's the case, then let's go, it's not good to be infected with a disease." The bald man looked at Xiao Coco with a slight dislike and hugged Li Tong as he prepared to leave.

"That's why you want to leave? Did I let you go?"

Just at this moment, Finn's voice suddenly came to mind, and a superior authority instantly intimidated the audience, and Li Tong also trembled and fixed in place.

But right after that, Li Tong sneered, "Just now, I saw you and Xiao Coco together, I guessed who you are. I didn't expect that Xiao Coco would even let go of a hangman like you for money now, it's really pathetic."

After sizing up and down Finn, Li Tong spoke again, "Look at you, tired to look like this, did you go to sell your kidneys for money before bringing Xiao Coco to this kind of place to spend, I'm telling you, Xiao Coco is a Bi Chi, you're not worth it. No, a Bi Chi with a licking dog is still just right, hahaha!"

"Don't you dare talk about Evan like that!" Xiao Coco was so angry that she was about to charge up.

It was the first time that Finn saw Xiao Coco so angry and for him, and he was touched, but he still held Xiao Coco back the first time.

It would be bad if she let Xiao Coco go up and get her face scratched by Li Tong.

But Finn didn't intend to let Li Tong go, he raised his hand and smacked Li Tong's face with a slap, and suddenly Li Tong screamed and fell to the ground with five red marks appearing on his face.

"You, how dare you hit me!" Li Tong could not have imagined that Finn dared to take direct action with a disagreement, followed by grabbing the thigh of the bald man, grieving and saying: "Honey, he this hangman beat me, you have to take revenge for me ah."

The bald man nodded his head, but did not move. Because he was too fat, it was hard to walk, and if he did it he really might not be able to beat Finn, but he had other ways.

Only the bald man grunted, " Finn is it, hurry up and kneel in front of my Tong Tong and apologize to Tong Tong."

"And Xiao Coco, don't let her go either!" Li Tong added.

The bald man took one look at the packed Chanel and sneered, " Finn, you've sold your kidneys to kneel and lick Xiao Coco, so you've probably already gone to bed. Now you also know that Xiao Coco has a venereal disease, I am a generous person, to help you pay for the Chanel, you take the money from the sale of the kidney to treat the disease. But well, I also have a condition, it's simple, you slap Xiao Coco ten times with the same intensity you just did, and then slap yourself ten more!"

Paying me to slap myself in the face?

Finn laughed at the news, he had used this practice on others before, and the only prerequisite for this practice was that Finn was poor, but unfortunately, Finn was rich, and very rich!

Just at this moment, the female clerk came back with a gold card to pay the bill and smiled, "Ye Shao, a total of 350,000 consumption, all swiped."

"What? Three hundred and fifty thousand? And a credit card?" The balding man was suddenly alarmed, in the Golden Sands, there are a few million is a landowner, and his worth is only three million, or counting real estate car, in addition to real estate, he has only 400,000 cash, unexpectedly Finn actually shot so generous.

If it were usual, Finn would have taken the initiative to admit it and pretend to be generous, but in order to help Xiao Coco get back her face, Finn took the golden card and just handed it to Xiao Coco: "Thank you wife for the clothes you bought for me, let's give the card back to you."

Fortunately, Chanel's packaging was good, and outsiders couldn't see what was inside.

Xiao Coco knew what Finn meant, bit her lips and took the card, smiling, "Xiao Fan you like what you can say to me, only 300,000, are you helping me save money?"

"What? Three hundred thousand is still not enough?" The balding man was shocked and lowered his head to question Li Tong at his feet, "What's going on? I thought you said she was poor, and sick, did you lie to me about it all?"

"I..." Li Tong also panicked, busy explaining: "I'm just hearsay, but back then it's possible that the poor guy didn't make any big money after he was on the list, so maybe he just made money."

"Pah!"

The balding man slapped Li Tong's face with a slap, furious: "You damn well take a look, the gold card in her hands but the ICBC VIP card, at least to have hundreds of millions of deposits, you tell me the list of big money? There are only a handful of them in the entire Sands that have a billion dollar worth!"

"What?" The words were like bombshells, causing Li Tong's shocked face to not even feel pain.

137

"A hundred million? Are you underestimating my wife, but there are 800 million in this card."

Finn lightly added a sentence, but even more so, the balding man cold sweat dripped, his legs went soft and he kneeled in front of Xiao Coco.

He is only not worth a million, encounter worth hundreds of millions of dollars, that is the younger brother in the younger brother, before also dare to speak out to insult, think of the consequences, the bald man was scared to slap himself.

"I was wrong, I was wrong, how could such an excellent woman as Miss Xiao Coco be the kind of person Li Tong said, I think Li Tong is the one who is Bi Chi, all sick." The bald man fanned his mouth as he pleaded bitterly.

"That's right, I am sick, you have been with me for so long, now you should be sick too, hahaha!" Li Tong was like losing her mind: "Wang Jianren, I've wanted to leave for a long time, you're already worthless!"

Saying that, Li Tong was about to leave.

But it was held by the bald man by his hair: "What did you say? What's wrong with you? Are you really sick?"

He felt abnormal recently and thought it was a small cold, but unexpectedly it was a sickness, and he was furiously beating Li Tong: "You damn well tell me what kind of sickness it is, you bitch!"

"Wang Jianren, you still dare to hit me, you're not even a match for me with your wasted body!" Li Tong got up is a slap, directly knocked over Wang Jianren, and said again: "You do not want to find a good girl, I had surgery to repair the body complete, in order to cheat you out of money, how about, now know regret it, let you hit me, you dead fat!"

"You're paralyzed, so it was all a lie!" First web site

Wang Jianren was not willing to backstab Li Tong, so they wrestled.

"Let's go!"

Finn saw Wang Jianren and Li Tong dog bite dog, the corner of his mouth could not help but reveal a smile, and was about to pull up Xiao Coco to leave.

Xiao Coco, however, avoided Finn's hand and lightly said, "You just now this hand but fanned Li Tong, probably also covered in germs, quickly go wash your hands."

"Right right right." Finn was shocked and quickly went to the washroom to wash his hands, rubbing them several times before stopping.

It was only after walking out of the Hualong Mall that Xiao Coco handed the gold card to Finn and whispered, "Thank you."

"Thank you for what, aren't you my girlfriend, my money is your money, and you didn't say anything wrong just now." Finn casually skipped over the topic, otherwise Xiao Coco's heart would definitely increase the burden.

"Crack!"

Xiao Coco kissed directly on Finn's face and ran away shyly.

Finn was stunned as he touched his cheek, because Xiao Coco whispered in his ear after kissing him just now, "I can't pay back the money, this bite will be a compensation."

After a long time, when Finn came back to his senses, he drove to catch up with Xiao Coco and said, "Get in the car."

"Good." Xiao Coco knew it was far to go back, so she had to get in the car.

When he got into the car, Finn pounced on Xiao Coco and played with the taste: "Just one bite as compensation, then a few more kisses, am I going to be broke?"

"No talking to you." With a shy face, Xiao Coco don't squeak, her face red and ears red.

The next day, Finn drove away from Golden Sands with Xiao Coco.

Last night's annual meeting Finn didn't attend because they were all from the company, they all knew Finn, and there was nothing to see.

Especially Xiao Qiang promised to have a good-looking lady also introduced to him, but now there is Xiao Coco around, how can Finn have the leisure to see others. It's good not to go, out of sight, out of mind, or if you see a good-looking one, it would be bad if you can't control it.

Finn drove the car, whistling, about two hours, Finn finally returned to Kaiyuan.

Like the previous days, no one was there even at the Presidential Suite of Prosperity.

"Where are the sisters?" Xiao Coco inquired out.

"They should be busy, Li Qiuyu for the company's finances, while Zhou Leya and Han Dong'er are off training." Finn responded naturally, he had already confessed to Xiao Coco last night and told all the women who were sturdy in Kaiyuan and Fengdu.

What Finn didn't expect was that Xiao Coco didn't even refute anything and accepted it naturally.

And Xiao Coco was a little older than Li Qiuyu, so Xiao Coco was the older sister.

"Boom!Boom!"

Right at this moment, two cannons went off, followed by a sky of golden crushed flowers.

Finn was shocked, and the next thing he saw was Han Dong'er and Zhou Leya walking out with a hand-held salute.

Zhou Lian Ya smiled hip-hop, "Surprised or not, surprise or not!"

"It almost scared me to death!"Evan patted his chest and didn't slow down for a long while.

"Aren't I giving my sister a surprise."Zhou Leya walked forward and hugged Xiao Coco's arm, like a very familiar sister who had known each other for a long time.

In fact, compared to Xiao Coco, Zhou Leya and Han Dong'er were already aware of Xiao Coco's existence, knowing that Finn brought Xiao Coco back, Zhou Leya and Han Dong'er made this surprise planning, wanting to give Xiao Coco a surprise.

Xiao Coco thought that Zhou Lannia is difficult to contact, after all, Zhou Lannia is the real Miss Fortune, but the first impression made Xiao Coco feel that Zhou Lannia is very good to get along with, Han Dong'er is not good at talking, more shy.

Very quickly, the three girls hit it off, but Finn became a lonely man and could only watch the show from the side.

"Bell bell bell!"

Zhou Leya's phone, however, did not ring at the right time, and after answering the phone, she said with a regretful face, "Sister Coco, Winter and I are going to rehearse, I was thinking of accompanying you for a while longer, hey."

"It's fine, you guys go to work on your business first." Xiao Coco, however, didn't matter, the day would come anyway.

Finn's eyes turned and suggested, "Coco, you're fine in Kaiyuan anyway, why don't you follow along and train, even if you're not a star, doing a live broadcast is more talent ah."

"Fine." Xiao Ke Ke didn't refuse, so she left with Zhou Leya and Han Dong'er.

Another few days passed before Finn felt dull, originally returned to the Golden Sands to find Xiao Coco, just to have someone by his side to accompany him, but now the four girls were each going about their business, instead, Finn became a lonely man, a day of idleness and idleness.

In the past, when he had no money, he used to work part-time to earn money, but now that he has money and no worries, he feels a bit bored.

Finn didn't dare to go too far away, because to complete the family mission, Finn was also worried that something would happen to the company, so he had to stay in Kaiyuan, at most, he could walk in the wind.

Hmm?

Thinking of Fengdu, Finn couldn't help but think of Wu Qiushui. Remembering that Zhang Bao of the Zhang family had said that he wanted to join hands with Wu Qiushui, he didn't know how far he had implemented it now.

After all, if Wu Qiushui and Zhang Bao defeated Wang Yuntian and made the Wu family back into a first-class family, they could actually take the opportunity to complete the task of mixing into the big brother circle.

Thinking about it, Finn made a phone call to Wu Qiushui.

138

"Hello Ye Shao."

Wu Qiushui answered the phone at the speed of light, making Finn all a bit surprised.

Finn was startled for a moment before saying, "Could it be that you kid is specifically waiting for a call every day? Picked up so quickly."

"And no, I was just about to call you, but I didn't expect you to call." Wu Qiushui explained.

Finn couldn't help but ask, "Calling me, is something wrong?"

"Is it convenient for you now, Ye? Let's meet and talk if it's convenient." Wu Qiushui purposely said in a low voice.

Finn could clearly sense that Wu Qiushui was a bit nervous, as if something big was happening, so he responded, "Okay, then I'll arrive in two hours, so find a place to wait for me, I just happen to have not eaten either, so let's talk while we eat."

"Okay." Wu Qiushui responded and hung up the phone.

Two hours later, Finn arrived at a restaurant in Fengdu called the Ultimate Underwater Salvage.

"Let's chat while we eat." Wu Qiushui said and snapped his fingers. Remember the URL .

A dish of seafood was served right afterwards, and it looked like it should have been arranged by Wu Qiushui long ago.

Finn nodded in satisfaction and ate a few bites before asking, "What happened again, can't even talk about it on the phone?"

"It's like this, Zhang Bao spoke to their family and decided to join forces with our Wu family to bring down the Wang family together." Wu Qiushui whispered.

"Isn't that a good thing? Why are you looking so sad."

Finn saw Wu Qiushui's sad face and was somewhat puzzled.

Wu Qiushui sighed, "Hey, actually, after my understanding, Zhang Bao and his family are sincerely cooperating with us, rather than being perfunctory and trying to mess with us on purpose. But our Wu family has experienced what happened before, and the people who hold real power in the family now belong to the conservative faction and are not in favor of this joint effort."

"So that's how it is." Finn nodded his head and ate another prawn before saying slowly, "Isn't it a simple matter, you coming to the top to hold the real power of the Wu family."

"If only it was as simple as you make it sound, don't look at the scenery outside, I don't have any status at home, it's impossible for me to rise up." Wu Qiushui sighed again.

Finn glanced at Wu Qiushui and raised his eyebrows, "I remember that you are the grandson of the old Wu family patriarch, and your father is the patriarch, if your parents hadn't died tragically because of the previous family decline, you would be the patriarch now, where would it be your uncle and uncle's turn. So, you are justified in name, but you just don't have the strength, if you had the strength, it would still be easy to take the position of the Wu Clan Head."

Wu Qiushui nodded and didn't argue, just sighed, "I know that too, but don't I just don't have the strength right now."

"Eat first, I'll go with you after dinner." After taking out his phone and sending a WeChat, Finn got bored and ate.

It had to be said that the submarine saloon of this place was really good. Not only did it sell well, it also tasted very fresh, but Finn didn't drink beer, firstly because there would be business later, and secondly because beer and seafood, Finn was afraid that he would ventilate.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the newest products that you can find in the marketplace.

Finn is very happy to eat, Wu Qiushui is a heavy heart a little can not eat.

Two hours later, Finn is finally full, seafood this thing looks big volume, but the meat is very little, and freshly cooked only fragrant, most of the time, Finn is waiting to eat.

Just finished eating, Finn's phone rang, looked at the phone, Finn looked up and said, "Let's go, look at you, you're a no-good look, such a small thing to worry about you can't eat, wimp."

Saying that, Finn shook his head, and walked out of the box.

Wu Qiushui didn't say anything and followed closely behind Finn , just after he left the hotel, he was shocked by the scene in front of him.

He saw a group of brawny men in suits with sunglasses, as well as a group of thugs with colorful hair dyed, standing right in front of the hotel chatting away, and looking like they were enjoying themselves.

Wu Qiushui arrived in front of Finn with a flash and said worriedly, "Ye Shao, it might be the Wang family, you go first, I'll break the back!"

Finn was slightly startled, never thought that at such a time, Wu Qiushui would still be able to sacrifice himself, not have very touched. Hastily explaining, "It's fine fine, one of our own."

"Your own people?" Wu Qiushui's eyebrows raised and hesitated.

Then he heard these people bow and say in unison, "Greetings, Ye Shao!"

"Fine, fine, let's get in the car and talk." Finn waved his hand, the group of people in front of him were the bodyguards he hired in Kaiyuan as well as the gangster squad.

Finn didn't go to drive his own Porsche, but directly got on the bus. These people had come together, so Finn suggested that these people just hire a bus to go anywhere more conveniently.

"Ye Shao, what's the situation?" When she got into the car, Wu Qiushui was blinded, because she had no idea what the significance of Finn 's search for so many people was.

Finn didn't explain, just smiled mysteriously and said, "Secret, you'll know when it's used, anyway, it's best if you can't use it. Qiushui, you tell the driver where your Wu family is, and we'll set off directly to the Wu family."

"Ah?"

Wu Qiushui was stunned, then exclaimed in shock, "Ye Shao, you wouldn't bring people to fight directly on the Wu family. What era is it now, there are still groups of people fighting?"

Wu Qiushui guessed that Finn definitely wanted to use hard, but let's not say that since there were fewer fights, the Wu family really didn't have any fighters except for a few janitors. If they used hard ones, they might actually be able to win with a surprise move.

"What fights, these are just helpers, don't talk nonsense, still don't want the Wu family's right to speak, if you want, then hurry up and say the address, I ate too much and took a long ride to vomit easily." Finn was a little impatient.

Wu Qiushui didn't dare to ask any more questions, and directly told the driver the address, and then sat honestly in the first row, responsible for helping the driver to point out the shortcut, which only he locals would know.

Not long after, the car gradually drove away from the downtown and arrived at the outskirts.

Finn was somewhat curious: "What's going on? Is the Wu family so poor now that they can't even afford to live in the city? At any rate, it's a second rate."

"You'll know when you get there." Like Finn, Wu Qiushui also smiled mysteriously and didn't say directly.

But Finn didn't care, he would be able to see it soon anyway.

The vehicle got farther and farther away, and actually drove out of the suburbs to the foot of a mountain.

To Finn's surprise, the foot of the mountain was actually very well green and close to the highway, the route Finn had taken to come to Fengdu was here.

"You wouldn't say that the Wu family is here, would you?" Finn was surprised.

But Wu Qiushui nodded, authenticating this fact.

139

"f*ck, it's really here!" Finn was shocked, anyone would have thought that a second-rate family would be in a place close to the highway.

But soon Finn knew it wasn't here.

Because the car hadn't stopped yet, but drove along the green road all the way in, and only stopped after four kilometers.

The next thing Finn saw was two big willow trees, two stone lions standing next to the trees, looking powerful and domineering, and this is the gate of the Wu family.

This is the gate of the Wu family. The two words "Wu family" are written on the plaque.

Finn nodded approvingly, this place looked very good, because although the Wu family had fallen, the family's place remained the same, and it still had the majestic atmosphere that only a first-cl A** family had.

"What people?"

By the main gate, under each tree, there is a man in a warm suit who sees the bus coming and asks for the exit.

Because there were many who had never been to Fengdu before, it was extremely easy to get off the highway and follow the path to get here.

Wu Qiushui opened the window of the bus and came out, "It's me, open the door and let go."

"It's Eldest Young Master." Seeing Wu Qiushui, the big man nodded with a smile, but then his face paled, "Eldest Young Master, don't you know the family rules? Outsiders are not allowed to bring anyone in without the Master's permission, not even you!"

"Qiushui, are you so disgraced in the Wu family that you can't even bring someone with you?" Finn was a little surprised.

Some of the rules were for the servants, but Wu Qiushui was the eldest young master, but not even.

Wu Qiushui clenched his fist and helplessly put it down again: "Before, not to mention bringing people, even causing them all to be free, but now it's different from before, since my parents are gone, these people don't even care about me anymore!"

"So that's how it is." Finn thought it was the Iron Order, so looking at it, wasn't it just watching Wu Qiushui tiger down that he was bullied.

"Green Hair, Purple Hair, you guys go see if we can enter this door or not." Finn faintly spoke.

Green Hair and Purple Hair had been following Finn 's side for days and days, so they naturally knew what Finn meant, and one of them grabbed a baseball bat and got out of the car.

"What do you guys want, I can warn you, this is the Wu family, not a place for you punks to indulge!"The janitor snapped harshly.

"I was going to ask, but it seems there's no point in asking, purple hair."Green Hair chuckled.

But Violet Hair didn't make a sound, and the response to Green Hair was a baseball bat from Violet Hair that knocked a janitor right out of the sky.

"Green Hair, if you're stunned again, I'll take it all, and I'll take the prize money."Said Purple Hair, and ran to the other big man, striking again.

Green Hair suddenly understood why Purple Hair was so high and cold, it was all about the prize money.

The rule that Finn had set for them before was that whoever did the most work would get the most money.Thinking of this, where did Green Hair dare to wait, looking a little distance from the janitor, while Purple Hair had already run out.

As soon as his eyes turned, Green Hair swung his arm round and threw his baseball bat straight out, knocking down the last janitor with a single "pop".

"Purple Hair, you're still young, if it were me I wouldn't even bullsh*t with you, finish the fight.Let's make you pretend to be a pussy, you'll make half the money less, haha!"Green Hair smiled smugly.

"Cut!"Purple Hair laughed disdainfully, then took the initiative to push the door, opening it before saying, "Ye Shao, the door is open, please come in."

"Well, Zi Mao did a good job." Finn nodded his head in approval.

Only then did Green Hair smacked his head, thinking of the focus of the mission that had just come down to open the door.

"....."But next to Finn , Wu Qiushui was a little speechless, Finn looks like a young master, how every day and gangsters mix together, look at Purple Hair and Green Hair, hip-hopping over people, no mercy at all, seems to always do these things.

Purple hair and green hair on the car, Finn issued two red envelopes.

It seems that Finn didn't let the thugs do this kind of thing. Thinking like this, Wu Qiushui became more and more unable to see through Finn and felt that Finn was terrifying.

The bus drove into the Wu family just like this.

Unlike the majestic atmosphere outside, the inside of the Wu house was somewhat quaint and elegant looking, and there were a few aunts playing mahjong in the chess room, the reason why Finn could see it was that the chess room was a large floor-to-ceiling window with a clear view of what was going on inside. And the chess room was close to the gate of the Wu family, so only then could it be noticed first.

And the aunts also noticed the buses, the ones that used to go in and out of Wu's house were all luxury cars, but never a bus.

"Hey, hey, who's on the bus, who let you in, drive out!" An older woman in a purple fur coat walked out of the chess room.

Just now she was just watching the fun, and she didn't play mahjong.

Wu Qiushui opened the window again and said, "Aunt Bai Ping, it's me."

"So it's Young Master Qiushui, what, now you don't care about the house rules and bring a bunch of fox and dog friends home to fool around?" Bai Ping sneered, "Look at what kind of friends you're looking for, dyeing your hair colorful dirty tricks, hurry up and drive the car out, let the old man know, won't pick your skin!"

"I..." Wu Qiushui was just about to speak, when he was pressed by Finn .

Wu Qiushui turned her head to look at Finn with some dissatisfaction, I wonder what kind of drug was in Finn 's gourd, he was scolded and still didn't look for Bai Ping theory?

But soon, Wu Qiushui understood.

I saw the thugs directly rushed off the car, green hair took the brunt of the attack, a slap slapped down Bai Ping, cursing: "You fcking only the dirty tramp, you paralyzed to see who grandfather is, Kaiyuan you green hair brother, but also fcking shout that I am dirty tramp, you look for death."

Green Hair was about to kick again, but was pulled aside by Purple Hair, and before Green Hair could react, Purple Hair was a kick out, kicking out at Bai Ping's stomach.

"The wife of this kind of mansion, spoiled, can't bear so many times, one kick per person is a bit reluctant." Zi Mao took the initiative to step back after the kick, giving way to the people behind him.

The thugs lined up to kick in an orderly fashion, and just as Purple Hair had predicted, Bai Ping fainted after only receiving her sixth kick, foaming at the mouth.

"Will it be too much?" Seeing the thugs beating people up like this, Wu Qiushui not only locked his eyebrows tightly.

Of course, it wasn't that he was distressed about Bai Ping, but he was worried that this kind of violence to violence wasn't a good solution.

Finn shook his head with a smile and patted Wu Qiushui's shoulder, "Don't worry, you are the young master and future patriarch of the Wu family. You're just bringing a friend home, but you're being told what to do by some aunts, so giving a proper lesson is also a way to demonstrate your mighty and domineering power."

Finn's explanation like this made Wu Qiushui somewhat dumbfounded, indeed, Wu Qiushui was all about to become the clan head, wasn't it normal to teach a lesson to those who were disobedient.

140

Seeing Bai Ping being beaten up, the other noble wives were so frightened that they quickly locked the door of the chess room to prevent Finn and the others from rushing in.

But these people were thinking too much, if these people didn't take the initiative to cause trouble, how could Finn make a move.

Because the noble wives didn't come out, the situation was instantly at a standstill. Wu Qiushui couldn't help but ask out, "Ye Shao, what are we going to do now?"

"Where's the old man's room, I'll go see." Finn spoke faintly.

Wu Qiushui's face turned pale and waved his hand in succession, "Ye Shao, I can't promise you this."

"What, do you think I would do it to an old man?" Finn frowned, and there was some dissatisfaction in his eyes.

Wu Qiushui shuddered slightly and waved her hand in succession, "No, no, but, what do I want you to see my grandfather for? What my grandfather hates most is seeing outsiders."

Finn glanced at Wu Qiushui and said, "If I'm not going to see them, do I want you to see them? If you had the guts to do it, would you still be making trouble to this point, in fact, the reason why your grandfather still has you in the position of the eldest young master is to give you the opportunity, what a silly boy."

Finn had already seen that, if he were Wu Qiushui's grandfather, for such a useless grandson like Wu Qiushui, he would have already removed the position of the eldest young master.

Wu Qiushui brightened in front of his eyes and had a feeling of clarity and surprise, "So that's how it is, then don't bother Ye Shao, I'll go find the old master myself." The first website m.

"En, then go quickly and return, don't be a wimp, just do it and it's over." Finn encouragedly patted Wu Qiushui's shoulder.

Wu Qiushui nodded heavily and walked into a relatively remote room.

Finn was a little surprised that the patriarch of the Wu family would choose a house with poor lighting and a bad location. Finn initially thought that this kind of remote house was occupied by the servants. Finn couldn't help but look up to the Wu family head. Details determine success or failure, and to be able to lower oneself so low, it must be different.

Not long after, Wu Qiushui ran out of the room, somewhat panicked and almost bumped into Finn .

Finn couldn't help but frown, "What's going on, fidgeting, at least he's a young master, what's wrong with this appearance."

Wu Qiushui scratched his head and said, "I directly told my grandfather that I wanted to be the clan leader, and then he threw a teacup and smashed it out for me."

"Er..." Finn was somewhat speechless, "Can't you be more tactful?What's the difference between outright saying yes and robbing?You're looking at me."

Anyway, now that Finn knew the location of the room, after speaking to Wu Qiushui, he walked right up to the Wu family head's room and tapped on the door, "Hello, Master Wu, I'm Wu Qiushui's friend, my name is Finn ."

" Finn ?You say your name is Evan?"Master Wu's voice came out of the door, with a few points of surprise and a few points of surprise and a few points of impatience.

But Finn was a bit confused: "Yes, I am called Finn , what's wrong?Does Master Wu know me?"

"Are you from Kaiju?"

"Do you know Mr. Charles?"

"Are you the dragon head of the kaiju?"

Old Master Wu asked three questions directly with a face, making Finn even more shocked.

Originally thought that Master Wu was either high cold or fiery, but now this way of asking questions, how like a chatterbox.

But in order to help Wu Qiushui, Finn answered each of them, "I'm from Kaiyuan, Charles is my butler, and I'm the Dragon Head of Kaiyuan."

"Stomp!"

As soon as Finn finished answering the question, he heard a thumping sound coming from the door of the room.

Finn suddenly thought of Wu Qiushui being beaten just now and couldn't help but flash back, but the one who opened the door was an old man in a tang suit, looking refined and easy-going, even a bit fairy-like, which was the opposite of the sound rush.

On closer inspection, Finn could still see that Wu Qiushui had fifty percent of the old man's appearance.

"Despicable Wu Zhengfeng, there is a mistake in welcoming you from afar, please forgive me, Young Master Ye, please go inside." Wu Zhengfeng bowed slightly and made a gesture of invitation, and Finn was blinded on the spot.

What the hell was this situation?

Finn muttered in his heart, but his feet were not slowed down in any way, and he hurriedly entered the room.

At this moment, Wu Qiushui was already looking stupid, although he didn't hear what Finn and Wu Zhengfeng said, but Wu Zhengfeng made a posture of invitation, he still saw it, was this really his grandfather?

Wu Qiushui wasn't clear, and naturally, Finn couldn't be even clearer.

After following Wu Zhengfeng into the room, Finn found out more and more that Wu Zhengfeng was not as fiery as Wu Qiushui described, but rather gentle and elegant, even extraordinarily humble.

Finn was sitting on the futon, enjoying the tea that Wu Zhengfeng had made.

"How is it, is it good?" Seeing that Finn finished drinking the cup of tea, Wu Zhengfeng asked with a smile.

Finn didn't feel any odor, only fragrance and sweetness, and nodded his head in approval, "Not bad, the lips and teeth are still fragrant, Old Man Wu is so skilled."

"Don't call me Old Master Wu, you can call me Old Man Wu or Zhengfeng." Wu Zhengfeng chuckled.

Ah?

When Finn heard this request, he suddenly thought of Bai Qin.

Because Bai Qin had said the same thing before, Finn couldn't help but ask, "But you know Bai Qin?"

"Naturally, I recognize it, but Brother Bai has been hanging around better than me, he's made a name for himself in Kaiyuan, but he's a hundred times better than the old man." Wu Zhengfeng sighed slightly.

As the conversation changed, Wu Zhengfeng was again carrying a cup of freshly steeped tea and handed it to Finn, saying, "But now that Young Master Ye is here, everything has changed, and I'm going to start changing my luck."

Finn drank the tea without speaking, but was pondering, and only after a long time did he ask the question in his heart, "Master Wu, is it true that Charles also helped Charles in the early years of the Wu family's fortune?"

"That's natural, without Mr. Charles, how could I be able to have such a huge family." Wu Zhengfeng's eyes were filled with admiration and gratitude as he mentioned Charles.

It was only then that it dawned on Finn that, just as he had expected, the reason why Wu Qiushui knew about Kaiyuan was perhaps not because the family was clear about it, otherwise, Zhang Bao should have known his identity long before.

That's why Finn had always suspected that it was because Wu Zhengfeng and Wu Qiushui had mentioned this matter, and Wu Qiushui had paid attention to it, and even believed it without reservation after meeting Finn.

"This is a routine ah, from the beginning you let Wu Qiushui consciously touch me?" Finn didn't like this feeling of being counted.

Wu Zhengfeng waved his hand repeatedly, "It's not like that, I just casually mentioned about you becoming the Dragon Head when I held the family meeting, and I didn't mention Mr. Charles, Wu Qiushui was able to get along so well with you, it's all because of that kid's luck."

Chapter 141

"Let's pretend that's what happened."

Finn thought about it, and it really seemed like that was the case.

In the beginning, Wu Qiushui was the one who teased Han Dong'er, and Finn was only sturdy when he stepped in to save Han Dong'er. Also, Finn didn't know Han Dong'er at that time, so Finn wouldn't have helped if it wasn't for Li Qiuyu's request, so it was really a coincidence to count.

Wu Zhengfeng was again: "Just now Qiushui came in and said that he wanted to be the clan leader, it should be your intention. You should have shown up and told me ah, I would have definitely agreed, not to mention making Qiushui the clan head, even if I were to give the family to you directly, I wouldn't frown a bit."

It was really the same as Bai Qin's statement ah.

Finn muttered in his heart, a little sweaty.

Finn was now admiring Charles more and more, how much did he help to make these big clans so deadly to him?

But Finn couldn't just ask for the Wu family, because then he would be identified by Charles as having the family's help, after all, it was Charles' connections that allowed him to harvest these things for nothing.

But if you don't do that, Finn also has a way to do it, with a turn of his eyes, Finn smiled, "Master Wu, at least the Wu family has been run by you for so many years, how about this, you let Wu Qiushui be the family head, after all, he is your own grandson, and we have a good relationship, I quite appreciate Qiushui."

"Qiushui that brat can be appreciated by you, that's really that brat's honor, okay, I'll p A** the order to make Qiushui the clan head." Wu Zhengfeng smiled, he was actually a bit reluctant to let him take out his family, but it was fine to give it to his own grandson. Remember the website .

In his opinion, regardless of whether Wu Qiushui was a talent or a scrap, as long as he was appreciated by Finn, it was definitely not wrong.

Charles was able to cover the sky with just Finn's housekeeper, and Finn must be an even more powerful existence.

Fortunately he didn't say these thoughts, otherwise Finn would have died laughing. Now Finn was actually nothing, just a rich hanger-on, and Charles couldn't step in to help.

"Qiushui, come in!" Don't look at Wu Zhengfeng, who was refined and easy-going, but the bottom line was full, a low drink was like a fierce tiger roaring.

The next thing I heard was the sound of hurried footsteps outside, and then Wu Qiushui stumbled in, somewhat panicked, "Patriarch, what is it?"

"Young Master Ye appreciates you, so I've decided to pass the position of clan head to you, so don't fail to live up to Young Master Ye's expectations, okay?" Wu Zhengfeng went straight to the point.

Wu Qiushui was stunned in place, he could not have imagined that Finn had said anything to move this stubborn old man, but he still quickly knelt down and kowtowed three times to Wu Zhengfeng, "Thank you old patriarch, I, the new patriarch, will definitely lead the Wu family to a better place."

Right after that, Wu Qiushui was about to kowtow to Finn again.

Finn, however, avoided it and did not receive this great gift, he was not in the habit of accepting kowtows from others.

Wu Zhengfeng nodded and said seriously, "Qiushui, you have to remember that this position was given to you by Young Master Ye, not by me. What you have to do is also not to lead the family towards betterment, but to closely follow Young Master Ye's footsteps, got it?"

"Okay, I know." Wu Qiushui's heart was even more shocked, it was unexpected that Wu Zhengfeng thought so highly of Finn, even disregarding the interests of the family itself.

Finn was also very surprised to think that Wu Zhengfeng had such a high opinion of him, but the surface was expressionless, at least it couldn't show cowardice.

Wu Zhengfeng did not think so, he saw Wu Qiushui's doubts, so he directly explained: "In fact, our Wu family is not from the local city of Fengdu, but from the Golden Sand City, Bai Qin is also from the Golden Sand City, we were following Mr. Charles. Bai Qin didn't want to leave when he arrived in Kaiyuan, so he stayed in Kaiyuan, while I followed Charles to Fengdu and became first-class in Fengdu, and then I didn't want to leave either. Now that I think about it, I regret it, there are several other brothers who also came out with us from Golden Sands City, but they insisted on following Mr. Charles, and now although I have no contact with him, I heard a while ago that a brother has become a first-cl A** family in the first city."

"A first-cl A** family in the first city?"Wu Qiushui was horrified.

Finn was also surprised, because the capital city was the capital city of the country, in all senses of the word it was located at the pinnacle, how awesome it would have to be to become a first cl A** family in the capital city.

But spare a thought, it was only after following Charles that he came out.

Wu Zhengfeng sighed, "So Qiushui you must remember, you must follow up on Young Master Ye's footsteps, our Wu Family will definitely flourish in your hands and you will be able to remain in the history of the Wu Family."

"I remember!"Wu Qiushui nodded, this time it was really clear why Wu Zhengfeng was so knee-deep in licking Finn , because the gain was far more than the payout.

Finn patted Wu Qiushui's shoulder and said, "Then you'll do well with me."

Finn had roughly guessed what Charles was thinking, Charles should have gone through a lot of experience to become the steward of the Ye family, so the path that Finn was walking and doing the tasks now was actually what Charles had gone through.

Although the other places were unknown, at least the first city was a trip to be made.

It seemed like the task that Charles had given to Finn was very difficult, but it was actually very simple.Because the cities arranged by Charles all had Charles' former men, as long as Finn could correctly find Charles' original men, the task of mixing with the big brother circle was really easy.

However, Finn also had some other ideas, that is, Charles must know about the fall of the Wu family, at best, it was Charles additional tasks to help these families.If you think badly, could it be that Charles manipulated the Wu family to deliberately and secretly pull them out of power, and then let Finn lead the fortune?

If you think about it that way, Charles would be really hard-hearted.

Finn didn't dare to think too much about it, anyway, Charles was his butler, and being nice to others was for the sake of being an exercise for him. Since it was an exercise, Finn just needed to complete it properly.

After thinking of this, Finn waved his hand and said, "Let's go, Qiushui, let's start our plan!"

"Yes!"

Wu Qiushui nodded and followed Finn out.

The first step of the plan was to grasp the Wu family's right to speak and then cooperate with the Zhang family. Now that he had mastered the Wu family's right to speak, the next second step was to find Zhang Bao to cooperate with.

But as soon as he left the room, Finn was calmed down by the scene in front of him.

There was only a big fight going on outside, with Finn's bodyguards and thugs fighting, while his opponents were a group of black-clothed men with electric batons.

"What's going on here?" Finn turned his head and asked Wu Qiushui.

Wu Qiushui frowned and explained, "These are our Wu Family's guards, I originally thought there were only three or five of them, but I never thought there would be so many."

At a cursory glance, there were close to thirty people, and they were all well-trained. If it wasn't for the fact that Finn's bodyguards and thugs numbered fifty, he wouldn't have been a match for these men in black.

Wu Qiushui signaled for Finn to take it easy and then shouted at the men in black, "All of you, stop!"

He's the patriarch of the Wu family now, and his word is final!

142

What Wu Qiushui didn't expect was that when he gave the order, not only did these black-clothed men not stop, they fought even more happily.

"Oh, Wu Qiushui, do you really think you're great just because you're a young master, without your parents, you're just an A**." Bai Ping laughed coldly and stood on the outer ring of the fight, her expression filled with pride, where there was still the previous panic.

"Bang!"

The wooden stick struck the ground with a powerful sound, causing everyone to be stunned.

Immediately afterwards, everyone saw Wu Zhengfeng walking out with his crutches, his face gloomy, "Dare to cause trouble in the Wu family, and still don't take my husband seriously!"

"Clan leader!"

The men in black hurriedly put down their electric batons and bowed together. Bai Ping did the same and stood at the side and bowed.

Only Wu Qiushui didn't bow in the entire Wu family, Bai Ping couldn't help but sneer at the sight, "Old Master, look at what Wu Qiushui looks like, no manners, no rules at all, I think it's better to expel him from the family, but it's a disgrace to our Wu family."

"Is that so?"

With a raised eyebrow, Wu Zhengfeng slowly walked to Bai Ping's body and raised his hand to smack Bai Ping's face.

Bai Pington screamed and fell into the snow, but when she got up, she didn't dare to retort, just lowered her head, not even daring to tidy the messy hair floating on her face.

Wu Zhengfeng coldly snorted, "Now Qiushui is already the head of the Wu family, his words are an absolute order in the Wu family, let you stop you still dare to do it, do not want to live?"

Turning his head to look at Bai Ping, he said again, "You still dare to berate the patriarch, are you living too comfortably?"

"How is it possible that he could become the chief of the clan?" Bai Ping looked incredulous, "Clan head, what virtue is he, Wu Qiushui, didn't you say that you would p A** the position of clan head to my husband?"

"Hmm, did I say that?" Wu Zhengfeng coldly snorted, "Now all of you remember, now that Wu Qiushui is the new clan chief, anyone who disagrees can come forward!"

Once this was said, everyone didn't dare to squeak, even those aunts in the chess room got up and bowed to Wu Qiushui, "Meet the new patriarch."

Half an hour later, Finn said goodbye to the Wu family.

Finn was a little worried, "Qiushui, will they listen to you?"

Wu Qiushui nodded, "Don't worry, Ye Shao, they will listen to it. You don't know, my grandfather is a one-handed existence in the family, he says one thing, the others will take care of my grandfather even if they don't take care of me, at least their mouths won't contradict my plan. And if our plan succeeds, they will be truly convinced by then."

"That's right." Finn also rather agreed with Wu Qiushui's statement.

Due to the fierce fight just now, the thugs and bodyguards were all more or less injured, and Finn originally wanted to send these people to the hospital, but Wu Zhengfeng was a hundred percent enthusiastic to leave everyone behind, saying that it was the Wu family's mistake and would definitely treat everyone.

Finn had to agree, so the only ones who went to see Zhang Bao were Finn and Wu Qiushui.

The location of this appointment was not the downtown area, as it was crowded with people, but directly to the Zhang family.

The Zhang family, like the Wu family, was also in the suburbs.

Finn kind of understood why the big families were in the suburbs, because one thing that was very good about the suburbs was that they could build their own mansions after buying the land. Like the Wu family from earlier, and the Zhang family in front of Finn's eyes were both magnificent and grand.

Basically, there wasn't half of a modern atmosphere, it was all ancient and very pleasant.

Zhang Bao stepped out from the gate and arrived in front of Finn with three steps and two steps, smiling hehehe, "The arrival of a distinguished guest, there is a loss of welcome."

"Polite." Finn smiled and said, "We are just two people who came, we won't be blown out again by your family, I can't stand this excitement."

Although I didn't know what Zhang Bao's status was in the family, but Wu Qiushui like this had no status at all in the family, not only being mocked, but also not being allowed in, it was really humiliating.

Wu Qiushui also knew that he was the one who was talking about him, and his face couldn't help but blush a little awkwardly.

But Zhang Bao waved his hand and said, "Don't worry, Ye Shao, you won't be embarrassed."

Saying that, Zhang Bao waved his hand, then the door actually opened automatically, and the Finn in front of him saw that behind the door were two guards who took the initiative to open the door.

Seeing the situation, Finn sort of knew that Zhang Bao was not lying, and really had some words, at least the guards were quite obedient.

Entering the Zhang family mansion, the distribution of buildings with the Wu family was actually similar, and Finn didn't look much.

Zhang Bao was leading the way, along the way, as long as there was someone, whether it was a servant or a master, when they saw Zhang Bao, they all bowed slightly in greeting, Finn could not help but inquire, "Zhang Bao, are you sure that you just have some words? How come it feels like all these people are a bit afraid of you."

Zhang Bao chuckled, "Since we're working together in good faith, I won't hide it, don't look at me as a dude outside, but I'm actually quite decent at home. That's why the old man likes me quite a bit, so he has inwardly decided that I will become the next clan head. This time, as long as our plan succeeds, I will be declared the head of the Zhang Clan."

"Huh?"

Finn was slightly surprised, how could he not expect Zhang Bao's status to be so high, it was simply a world apart from Wu Qiushui.

But if you think about it carefully, it suddenly dawned on Finn , if Zhang Bao is really a heartless dude, how to survive in this kind of family, excellent talents must be quite a lot. The head of the family is also on behalf of the family face, like Zhang Bao this five short stature can become the head of the family, then pay more effort I'm afraid.

Perhaps Zhang Bao has long been accustomed to disguise himself, using his ugly appearance as a shield, but in fact, he is extremely sophisticated.

I'm afraid that if it wasn't for this cooperation between the two families, no one would have known Zhang Bao's true strength before he became the clan leader.

But Finn didn't care in the slightest and patted Zhang Bao's shoulder, laughing, "I couldn't tell that you're quite powerful, but it's good, so that our plans are better implemented, we didn't get into trouble in the Wu family just now, it was hard to make Wu Qiushui become the head of the Wu family."

"Wu Qiushui has become the head of the Wu Family?" Zhang Bao was a little surprised, and even looked highly at Finn , but didn't ask much.

This scene made Finn even more sure that Zhang Bao was very cautious and didn't ask a single question that he shouldn't, such a person could achieve great things.

Next, the three of them sat together and began to study the plan, and since there were no family issues, Wu and Zhang quickly established a strategic partnership.

Finn had no doubts about Zhang Bao, who had already sacrificed a lot since he was able to completely expose his identity, and they were now also gr A**hoppers in the same boat, so if Zhang Bao turned against him, Finn wasn't worried. The worst thing to do was to ask for Charles' help, even if they couldn't complete the mission perfectly, they could still make Zhang Bao pay a painful price.

So Finn didn't have the slightest concern, then he would just trust Zhang Bao, in case Zhang Bao truly cooperated and the plan succeeded, wouldn't that be beautiful!

143

Drinking tea and talking about plans, Finn felt that life was full.

Zhang Bao pondered for a moment and said, "Our plan is to get the Wang family, but where do we start, what ideas do you guys have, you can talk about it and we can communicate."

"Ideas? No idea, I only came to Fengdu temporarily, how do I know anything about the Wang family, from what you're saying, you do have an idea, so tell me, Qiushui and I'll help you add to it." Finn said with a big grin.

Upon hearing this, Zhang Bao couldn't help but rub his forehead, regretting working with Finn somewhat.

Finn was just saying a goal, but not even a specific plan. Fortunately, Zhang Bao had a plan himself, or else he would really be in an awkward situation.

Zhang Bao took out two documents and distributed them to Finn and Wu Qiushui, explaining, "This Wang's restaurant, which belongs to the Wang family, I've been there a few times, and the taste is good, but other patrons said it's very unhygienic, and there's even hair in the soup."

"You mean, they know you go, they specially prepare the food and make it unhygienic in normal times, and want to ruin the reputation of the Wang family from the restaurant?" Wu Qiushui was worthy of being a disciple of a big family and reacted instantly.

Finn also brightened up and said, "This is a good move, not only can it damage a hotel, it can also smash the reputation of the Wang family, not bad."

Finn looked at the information, after the Wang family started out, their main business was the hotel industry. In Fengdu, there were twelve chain stores, at least all of them reached the three-star level, and could be said to have monopolized most of the hotel industry in Fengdu.

If one of them collapses, the reputation becomes worse, other Wang's hotels will also have joint responsibility, from the essence of the Wang's industry through, this is a good way to kill more than one. First URL

But on second thought, Finn spoke out his doubts, "But how is this going to be implemented, if we go, then we will definitely be recognized, and there will be no way to prepare it, and even if it's really bad, even if it's photo forensics, there's no way for others not to believe it ah."

Zhang Bao nodded and said, "It's a problem, but I've already thought about it, we can find a netizen to do a live broadcast to try out the food from Wang's restaurant, and then the live broadcast will make the picture, even if the Wang family clarifies it then, it's useless."

"Live broadcast? Not bad, it's a good idea, and as long as you find a private room, it's all more or less the same, you won't be seen, and when the tasting is done, and then you go out of the restaurant to pop the name of the restaurant, you'll be able to break the reputation in one hit." Wu Qiushui was thoughtful and thought that this plan was really feasible.

Zhang Bao continued, "You guys flip the information to the third page, there are several anchors that I have picked out, all of them are little known in our neighborhood, the influence is not to say that it affects the whole country, at least it is quite useful on our side."

"It's enough to have an influence on this side." Finn smiled, after all, Wang's Hotel is in Fengdu, as long as Fengdu doesn't buy it, the Wang family will fall down sooner or later.

Saying that, Finn flipped to the third page, just a glance at it, Finn was stunned and exclaimed, "Cocoa?"

"Oh? The first thing you need to do is to look at the live feed, which is the most recent fire, and it's sweet and has a lot of fans. But Ye Shao don't bother, I've heard that she never meets fans offline, I'm looking for her to cooperate this time is also in the live platform to send her a private message, but haven't gotten a reply, mostly unreliable. She was originally my first choice, unfortunately." Zhang Bao shook his head, trying to get Finn to give up on Xiao Coco.

Finn laughed at once and said, "Does it seem like Coco is not bad, and doesn't meet fans offline, worthy of being my woman."

"Your woman?" Zhang Bao was a little surprised.

Finn nodded and said, "Yes, my woman. And the live-streaming company she's in is also mine, Ye's live-streaming."

"Ye's live streaming? Yeah, I said how come it's called Ye's Live, so it's Ye Shao's property, Ye Shao is amazing, and he's still making a name for himself in entertainment, look at the information, several of the netizens in it are actually picked from your company. It would have been difficult to contact the boss, but I can't believe it's you, that's much simpler." Zhang Bao couldn't help but take a high look at Finn, he didn't know Finn's identity and thought that Finn was just following Wu Qiushui, but he couldn't imagine that he was really somewhat capable himself.

Finn smiled and said, "Okay, then leave the matter of finding the anchor to me, at least it's good to be able to help out a bit."

Zhang Bao nodded his head and continued, "Okay, let's continue on then. The first step is to broadcast the bad reputation of the Wang family, and if the plan is successful there will definitely be a chain reaction, Wang's also has a listed company, if the reputation is affected, the stock will definitely fall, and then we can take advantage of the opportunity to start, collect a large amount of stock, and without any surprises, we will be able to take possession of this company. This listed company is the foundation of the Wang family, as long as we get this listed company, the Wang family will basically declare that it's finished, and then we will distribute the funds of the Wang family according to our work, what do you guys think?"

"Not bad, I think it's pretty good." Finn looked at Zhang Bao approvingly, never thought that Zhang Bao was so reliable and had already made all the plans.

But Wu Qiushui frowned, "It's quite good, but the execution is difficult, first of all, the live broadcast that ring must be successful, if it's not successful, there's no drama behind it. As for the pay-to-play distribution after success, I also feel unreasonable, and no one can say how much effort has been put in. My suggestion is seventy-three open."

"Seventy-three open? What do you mean?" Zhang Bao was a little confused, the three people present, why seventy-three open?

Wu Qiushui faintly spoke, "I don't want all of them, my share to Ye Shao, in fact, I suggest that you give yours as well, the more you put in, the greater the return, of course, you can also not listen to my suggestion."

"What?" Zhang Bao was a bit confused, Wu Qiushui was able to give all the benefits to Finn, which was unreasonable.

But when Zhang Bao thought about it, he found out that there was a hidden secret, Wu Qiushui trusted Finn unconditionally, there must be something special about him. And from just now, Zhang Bao saw that Wu Qiushui was always glancing at Finn with her afterglow, very concerned about Finn's opinion.

"Then how about this, all the proceeds are given to Ye Shao to handle, I only have one request, to ensure that it becomes a first-cl A** family, this is not difficult, right?" Zhang Bao agreed to Wu Qiushui's view without much struggle.

In fact, Zhang Bao's goal was simple, to become a first-rate family. Now that the Zhang family was already at the top of the second-rate, that is, it was just one step short of the threshold, getting 10% of the Wang family's overall revenue would actually make it a first-rate family.

And all that was left was to bet that Finn was really capable.

Although Zhang Bao was strict, he was also a betting dog on key decisions, and he trusted his instincts. This whole journey, if he had been steady, he wouldn't have reached the position of the prospective clan head, it was all spelled out over and over again.

144

Finn was a little surprised, never thought that Zhang Bao dared to play so big.

Wu Qiushui don't want the interest is understandable, after all, Wu Zhengfeng before all open to Wu Qiushui, but Zhang Bao such a practice is completely betting that Finn can become.

This approach is a little too terrifying, in exchange for Finn would not dare to do so.

But Finn knew that Zhang Bao's approach was the most correct, because so far, as long as the people who were good to Finn had earned, Finn would not treat everyone who trusted him badly.

Previously, it was just a small grudge with Zhang Bao, and he took out his anger after the fight at that time, so now, it was easy for Finn to accept Zhang Bao's good intentions.

"Fine, as long as you believe in me, this matter will definitely be done, in the worst case, I'll let the family take action!" Finn 's last reliance was on his family, even if his mission A**essment score was low, Finn would not fail those who treated him well.

Zhang Bao was a bit confused, "What family, aren't you just an unimpressive family?"

Wu Qiushui patted Zhang Bao's shoulder and said helplessly, "I don't know if you're lucky, or a pure gambling dog. Anyway, all you need to know is that Ye Shao's family, with just a small move of a finger, can make the Wind Capital reshuffle."

"This..." Zhang Bao swallowed his saliva and was completely speechless.

Wu Qiushui's expression and actions could completely tell how huge the forces behind Finn were. Remember the URL .

Zhang Bao was originally thinking of being sneaky and clever, but now he had all but put his mind away.

The three of them just chatted and set the plan down completely. And a trace of the three's estrangement was completely erased unknowingly, and a true partnership was reached, or rather, the operation with Finn as the central axis, began!

Finn drove the Porsche back to Kaiyuan to receive Xiao Coco into the Wu house, in fact, by the way Finn also wanted to see if the bums and bodyguards were healed, after staying overnight, the next day, Finn began to implement the plan.

After leaving the Wu family, Finn brought Xiao Coco to the nearest Wang's Hotel, and when he entered the hotel, Finn directly asked for the worst private room.

Broadcasting live in the lobby definitely wouldn't work, it would be discovered, and in a good compartment, no doubt the hotel thought that the noble guest would deliberately prepare it with great care, so under consideration, he counted on the worst trumpet compartment.

"I'm starting the broadcast now?" Xiao Coco inquired and took out her phone.

It was convenient to broadcast live now, having a cell phone would be fine.

But Finn shook his head and said, "There's no hurry, wait for the food to come up first and see the quality, otherwise it would be too much of a blow to the face if there are no problems."

For some reason, Finn always felt a bad premonition when he entered the restaurant.

Until the food was served, and when he saw that the food was fine, Finn knew where the problem was.

Because it was only two minutes from ordering the food to serving it.

In order for this plan to be foolproof, Finn purposely asked Wu Qiushui to investigate which dishes were the most problematic, so he purposely ordered these dishes, but at this speed, it looked like the dishes were prepared in advance.

"It's over, trapped, let's go." Finn's face sank, no wonder he felt bad, just because from the moment he entered the restaurant, the waiter was overly enthusiastic, plus the dishes came up too fast, he didn't have to think much, he knew that Wang's restaurant guessed the plan to make the best of everything.

Without the mood, Finn didn't want to eat anymore, so he took Xiao Coco back to the Wu family.

As soon as he entered the Wu family, Finn called for Wu Qiushui and questioned, "How are you doing things?"

"What's wrong, Yeh?" Wu Qiushui was a little puzzled, not knowing why Finn was so angry.

Finn then told the hotel everything, and only then did Wu Qiushui learn that it was the plan that was leaked. Because it was impossible for the Wang family to be unpredictable, that is, someone had snitched.

Thinking of this, Wu Qiushui quickly shook his head and said, "No, it wasn't me, how could I leak secrets. It has to be that bastard Zhang Bao, he's a yin and yang violator."

Finn waved his hand, "It's not him, I thought it was him at first, but you're in charge of investigating the dishes, it's impossible for me to know which dish to order. And you know what, the speed of serving the food is just two minutes, at a glance, it was prepared in advance, so it's the leak of the dish link that caused it."

"The dishes are responsible?" Wu Qiushui seemed to have thought of something and paled as she said, "I had the maids check it out, so it looks like our Wu family has a mole in the Wang family!"

Wu Qiushui continued, "Don't worry Ye, I'll go call the user to confront him!"

But Finn shook his head, "No need, there can't be one mole, I know an expert, you tell everyone to gather in the hall in half an hour, I'll have the expert appraise it."

"That's fine, just trouble Ye Shao." Wu Qiushui blushed a bit, very embarrassed. Because the first time he was told to do something, he was screwed up. And also knowing that there was a mole in the Wu family, this was something Wu Qiushui couldn't tolerate.

Half an hour later, Finn brought Wang Musheng to the Wu family's council hall.

"Bastard!"

As soon as he entered the hall, Finn heard Wu Zhengfeng's thunderous reprimand and holding a ruler, beating every single person.

Wu Qiushui told Wu Zhengfeng what happened after he finished talking to Finn, because with his qualifications, he couldn't make everyone go home and gather yet, only Wu Zhengfeng was so good at it.

But after letting Wu Zhengfeng know that there was a mole in the family, it turned into what it was now.

Finn could understand, after all the hard work of watching the family grow bigger step by step, but there was a traitor who was always there, no one else would be able to endure it.

Seeing Finn come in, only then did Wu Zhengfeng put away his ruler, and his old face blushed and said, "Young Master Ye, the son and grandson are unfilial, so you can see the effect."

Finn smiled and said, "It's fine."

Then he turned his head to look at Wang Musheng and said, "You may begin."

Wang Musheng nodded, revealed a confident smile, and faintly spoke, "Ye Shao, it's already over."

"So soon?" Finn couldn't help but shout in shock as Wang Musheng only came in and saw that it was a bit too divine.

Wang Musheng chuckled, "Ye Shao, before it was a test, there were too many people before it was slow. There are less than forty people here in total, and having been reprimanded by Master Wu, they are all showing their most instinctive expressions now, so you can tell who it is at a glance."

"Who is it? Mr. Wang go ahead, I'll kill him!" Wu Zhengfeng gritted his teeth.

Finn, however, stopped Wang Musheng who was about to open his mouth and whispered, "Old man, don't worry, wouldn't it be a waste to reveal it now, I still have a plan."

"Oh? What is Young Master Ye's opinion?" Wu Zhengfeng still quite respected Finn's opinion.

Finn explained, "Here's the thing, if we uncover the mole now, we won't get anything. But if we deliberately identify Wu Qiushui as the mole, and then release the news that the plan has changed and we are going to expose other hotels, then the mole will definitely tell the Wang family when he gets the news, and then our original plan will remain unchanged, and we will definitely succeed in one strike!"

The more Wu Zhengfeng heard, the more wonderful he felt, and finally slapped his thigh, "Young Master Ye's good idea, we're just going to use this as a countermeasure."

145

"That's right, that's right." Finn nodded, "And when the time comes that we succeed in our plan, the Wang family will think that it's a traitor plotting a rebellion, so they will take the initiative to punish the traitor and make them suffer for it!"

"Very well! That's a good method, then my husband will act with you in such a scene." Wu Zhengfeng replied in response.

But just in case, Finn said again, "Mr. Wang, can you tell us which one is the mole? You'll then keep an eye out for the mole's micro-expressions, and see if the mole will believe the fake news we tell him. If the mole doesn't believe it, we'll have acted in vain, and we might get it wrong."

Wang Musheng glanced at the crowd, then spoke in a low voice, "The couple in purple fur coats."

"The couple in purple fur coats? It's Wu Hao and Bai Ping, I can't believe it's them. It must be because they didn't p A** on their clan headship before, that's why they turned against their bones, what a pity." Wu Zhengfeng sighed, clearly still more optimistic about Wu Hao before.

Finn, however, came lightly, "That's not the way to say it, if they were the mole before, I didn't come. Then Wu Qiushui can't be the clan head, the clan head is Wu Hao's, and Wu Hao, who has been the Wang family's mole, will definitely sell the family for glory, and then the Wu family will even fall into the abyss. Of course, this is just a guess on my part."

"This..." Hearing Finn's words, Wu Zhengfeng looked startled, although Finn was saying it in a bad way, but there was no chance that it was really possible, if he really wanted what Finn said, the consequences were simply unthinkable.

"Looks like I'm getting old, I can't see people anymore." Wu Zhengfeng sighed, and Finn clearly felt that Wu Zhengfeng was even more bent, as if all of them were shorter, a bit like an old man in his old age.

Finn knew that the occasion spoke too heavy, but could not think of anything good to say, on the eyes of Wang Musheng.

Wang Musheng at least received money, it is not good not to help Finn speak, so he coughed: "Master, you also do not feel sad, you see the boy in a black suit standing above, it is quite good, I can see that he is truly for the family, if the master is sincere, you can establish him as Wu Qiushui's right-hand man, to A**ist Wu Qiushui."

"And people like that?" Wu Zhengfeng came to his senses, but following the look Wang Musheng pointed to, he was stunned and said dumbly, "Qiushui? I can't imagine that he's the most dedicated person for the family, hey, I'm really old, had I known that, I should have cultivated Qiushui in the first place."

Finn was also stunned, obviously not expecting Wang Musheng to be referring to Wu Qiushui.

"I didn't collude with Mr. Wang earlier ah, it seems that Qiushui is really for the family." Finn hurriedly clarified, but he actually knew it in his heart already. Because in the beginning, for the sake of the family, Wu Qiushui had knelt down to Finn, it was still the first time to meet him, not knowing, it was enough to see, Wu Qiushui's heart for the family.

"But it's good, at least it's good to know that the Wu family still has roots." Wu Zhengfeng relieved, "I like to be sentimental when I'm old, I'm making Young Master Ye laugh, I'll sort out my emotions, then we'll start the show!"

"Yes!" Finn nodded and sent a WeChat to Wu Qiushui, asking Wu Qiushui to cooperate with the act, otherwise it would be bad if Wu Qiushui resisted too much.

And so, the next half an hour was a big drama for the Wu family, Wu Zhengfeng really beat Wu Qiushui violently with a ruler for authenticity, and said that Wu Qiushui should be kicked out of the family.

Finn was also angry and said to cancel the cooperation with the Wu family, until Wang Musheng saw Wu Hao and Bai Ping showing a look of certainty and stopped the farce.

The next day, Finn brought Xiao Coco to the Wang's Hotel again, the same one he came to before.

This time, Finn felt a lot more normal, and Finn found that all those beautiful waiters from last time had disappeared, completely replaced by a bunch of crooked people.

It was only then that Finn knew that the Wang family had even started making swaps from the waiters in order to completely plan Finn's plan, and this time, he came to see the original scene of the Wang's Hotel.

But Finn was also fortunate to have a new batch of waiters, otherwise if the ones he had encountered earlier, the plan would definitely be revealed.

After ordering the food, Finn let Xiao Coco start the live broadcast, Finn was sitting across from Xiao Coco, so Finn was not visible in the live broadcast. And this time, just waiting for the food to be served was a full forty minutes before the food came up late.

Xiao Coco was dissatisfied with the viewers in the live broadcast, "This restaurant is really slow to serve food, a persimmon scrambled egg takes forty minutes, I don't know if it is now going to find a chicken to lay eggs."

"Pfft!"

Finn forced to hold back a smile, Xiao Coco live talk is interesting, spit all have stems.

Xiao Coco picked up her chopsticks again, "Next I'll taste it, it would be nice if it tasted delicious, it's not a waste of me waiting for 40 minutes."

Saying that, Xiao Coco pointed her phone camera at the dish and then began to chuck the food.

The sharp-eyed viewers in the live studio saw the black spots inside the dish and sent out a pop-up to warn, "Coco, don't eat it, the dish is noisy, black is paste, it's not healthy to eat."

"I didn't even notice that there's still paste, thanks for the reminder ah, but I'll try the taste for the sake of everyone." Xiao Ke said with a smile, followed by the clip to the black spot, but clip it, and the whole place went silent.

Because the black spot wasn't a paste, but a black hair, thick and long.

"f*ck, that's disgusting!"

"I'm going to puke!"

"You're paralyzed, what a sh*tty hotel, and you have hair!"

The pop-up screen was abusive, making Xiao Coco pop the name of the restaurant.

Xiao Coco teased, "Hair is protein, I think it's a free gift from the shop, but I won't eat it, I'm not a person who likes to eat other people's hair."

The pop-ups all painted a wave of 666, praising Xiao Coco for not even getting angry at such times and being able to joke around.

Finn was watching from the sidelines, and that's how he knew why Xiao Coco had succeeded, not being surprised in every situation, but also improvising and being very funny.

What made Finn happiest was that this time, he really caught the evidence.

Originally, Finn had ordered more than a dozen dishes, just to catch a handle, but he could not imagine that he directly caught the evidence in the first dish, not to mention how happy he was. Before, Finn was afraid of not catching the evidence and thought of coming more often, but Wang's restaurant is still giving power, once and for all!

What followed was very brief, Xiao Coco turned on the live broadcast and walked right out of Wang's Hotel, after quasi-focusing the plaque of Wang's Hotel, she smiled faintly and said, "This taste test is a failure, I don't dare to taste the taste, I'm too fragile, I was defeated by a hair."

The pop-up screen brushed out words of comfort for Xiao Coco, saying that Xiao Coco had done well, and that if it were anyone else, they wouldn't be able to eat food with hair on it.

But the sharp-eyed Finn saw a lot of pop-ups brushing up on having come here to eat, and thinking about how disgusting it was, he didn't want to come back.

Finn opened the word of mouth and saw that the rating of Wang's restaurant started to drop at a visible rate.

Finn knew that the first step of the plan, became a success!

Chapter 146

The next day, the top floor of Wang's Hotel.

"Rubbish, all f*cking rubbish!" Wang Yuntian roared and smashed all the information on the face of the kneeling man and woman in front of him.

The kneeling man and woman were none other than Wu Hao and Bai Ping.

Bai Ping trembled, "Wang Shao, I didn't expect to be shady-handed, it was us who did the unfavorable work, please give us another chance."

"Chance?" Wang Yuntian's eyebrows raised and coldly snorted, "What opportunity was given to you, I've heard that yesterday, the Wu family sent a high-ranking person to catch the mole, in my opinion, it was you who were caught and turned against me, deliberately messing with me. Now you still dare to come here, is it to mock me? Do you really think I'm a soft persimmon that can be squeezed in any way you want? Remember, your Wu family is no longer the fierce dragon that flaunted its might, it's now a dying stinker!"

Saying that, Wang Yuntian waved his hand and four black-clothed men swarmed to the scene, holding ropes and tied the two of them up.

"The Wu Clan is downright playful, and even had an inner demon deliberately send me false news to trap me. Now I'm going to see if anyone will come to the rescue after humiliating your clan's sons and daughters!" Wang Yuntian laughed sardonically.

Immediately afterwards, the people in black began to take turns humiliating Bai Ping, while Wu Hao was in a rage, but there was nothing he could do, even the right to yell out was gagged by a stinky sock.

The humiliation video to Wang Yuntian p A**ed to Wu Qiushui, but Wu Qiushui just happened to go to the bathroom, and Finn in the room just saw the message, so he opened it for a while, savoring a bit and then just deleted the video.

Just as Wu Qiushui came back, he couldn't help but ask, "Ye Shao, what's wrong, who sent the message?" First web site

"It's nothing, it's just that Wu Hao and Bai Ping were fixed by Wang Yuntian, do you think you need to care? This is your Wu family's matter." Finn faintly opened his mouth, it was enough for the matter to be conveyed, the video would not allow the Wu family to see it, after all, it was too humiliating for the Wu family.

Wu Qiushui refused without even thinking, "This kind of guy who eats the inside out, what do you care about them."

Saying that, Wu Qiushui waved his hand and said, "P A** on my order to remove Wu Hao and Bai Ping from the Wu family!"

"Yes!"

The news of removing the name from the family would quickly spread throughout the famous clans of the Wind Capital, because the person removed would go around borrowing money and so on to run away, and eventually the family would have to repay, and the news was to prevent the person removed from damaging the family's interests.

On the other side, Wang Yuntian also received the news that Wu Hao and Bai Ping had been removed from the list, looking at the almost mad Wu Hao and Bai Ping who fell to the ground and rolled his eyes after being insulted, Wang Yuntian couldn't help but snort, "Two losers, no longer have any value, throw them into the river and feed them to the fish."

"Wang Shao, you can't be like this, where are those promises that were agreed upon?" When Bai Ping heard that she was going to be dealt with, she crawled to Wang Yuntian's feet with a strong spirit.

Wang Yuntian kicked Bai Ping over and slightly disliked her, "Success is not enough, being removed from the Wu family you are not even a fart, you big mother, even if you are sent to an entertainment place, no one will want you."

Without waiting for Bai Ping to speak, the men in black dragged Bai Ping and Wu Hao down, and from then on, there was no trace of the two of them in Fengdu.

But there was no impermeable wall in the world, the Wu family still knew what Wang Yuntian had done, but Wu Zhengfeng snorted, "It's true that blood is as thick as water, but the act of betraying the family is better than raising an obedient watchdog, death is death, retribution!"

Yet Finn clearly saw the disappointment in Wu Zhengfeng's eyes, not disappointment in Wu Qiushui's approach, but disappointment in Wu Hao and Bai Ping.

Finn didn't know what to say to comfort Wu Zhengfeng, so he took out the wine he had already prepared and said, "Old man, just look at the bright side, there's no need to be sad for these traitors. I've asked Qiushui to find someone to paint the Wang's Hotel's bad reviews, and with the evidence, it won't take long to completely stink up the Wang's Hotel's reputation. Come, let's drink and celebrate this success!"

"Drink drink drink!" Wu Zhengfeng picked up the wine glass and drank it all.

The plan went smoothly, and Finn had nothing to do and let go of the drink. As it turned out, Finn was drinking off tablets again until the next afternoon, when he was woken up by Wu Qiushui's knock on the door.

Finn shook his cloudy head and said with dissatisfaction, "Come in, I hope there's something big, or else I'll be delayed in sleeping, you know the consequences!"

Wu Qiushui accosted and smiled, hurriedly explained, "Ye Shao, this time is a bit bad, Wang's Hotel has even directly admitted its mistake, and spread the news through the media, and now it has already obtained a lot of forgiveness, after all, there is nothing wrong with knowing that there is nothing good that can be changed, especially to have this kind of big hotel to actively bow and apologize, those civilians are even more proud of themselves, causing the wind rating to pick up. And, there's one more thing."

"What's the other thing?" Finn felt bad when he heard the wind reviews picked up, but there was still something going on, was the plan going to be declared a failure?

Wu Qiushui took out a document and handed it to Finn , saying, "Wang's Restaurant didn't just give a verbal apology, but also promised to replace the head chef and hire a little chef god to strictly control every dish."

"A little chef god?" Finn couldn't help but frown as he opened the file.

Xiao Yunchang, at only thirty years old, had won all kinds of culinary awards, and even had some international fame. Most importantly, Xiao Yunchang had come from Fengdu, so he was made the Little Chef God by the people of Fengdu.

" Finn , look at what to do, to say that the chef's influence on Fengdu, Xiao Yunchang is definitely second to none, originally Wang's restaurant's reputation became better, and this time, hiring Xiao Yunchang heavily is even more likely to hit a new peak." Wu Qiushui said here, hesitated for a moment and then said again, "And the Wang's Hotel and our Wu family have issued a war letter, to have a food competition!"

"What do they have to do with us if they've hired a chef, and why are they competing with us?" Finn was a little puzzled, even if he was deliberately making things difficult, he wouldn't be so irrational.

Wu Qiushui explained, "Actually, our Wu family started out as a hotel as well, and even now several of the Wang's hotels were once our Wu family, and even now, our Wu's hotel is second only to the Wang's hotel."

"So that's how it is." Finn nodded, "Then don't worry, I know you're worried about the competition not being able to compete, I'll go find the chef, you just feel free to find someone to brush off the bad reviews and pull down the reputation of the Wang's Hotel, you can't be led off course by a casual apology from the Wang's Hotel."

This was also Finn 's helplessness, if Wu Qiushui could find a chef, he wouldn't be bothering him to sleep. And brushing off bad reviews is not falsification, it is indeed Wang's restaurant dishes are not clean, Wang's one apology and then looking for media clarification to change the wind direction, this is the real falsification, especially now that Finn is about to bring down Wang's, this opportunity is absolutely not to be missed!

But what gave Finn a headache was where to find the chef?

Should we call Charles?

Evan muttered in his heart, and then he took out his cell phone to call Charles.

"Young Master, did you encounter any difficulties?" Charles faintly opened his mouth.

Finn was speechless, normally speaking shouldn't it be said to be going smoothly, how come a similar mocking words.

Calm down Finn only spoke, "It's like this, I need a chef, I know the family doesn't help, I'll pay for it, just help me with the contact information."

"A chef? That doesn't count as family help, the family was going to provide the young master with a chef to manage your three meals a day, I'll arrange that, and I'll be at Wu's at eight in the evening." Charles directly agreed to Finn's request.

To Finn's surprise, Charles actually knew that Finn was at the Wu house, which was amazing. Finn didn't even notice the presence of spies around him, so I don't know what method Charles had used.

But that wasn't Finn's concern, because Charles would definitely keep an eye on his every move for the mission review.

With the matter settled, Evan rolled over and slept again until 8:30 p.m., only to be awakened by the smell of food.

"Wow, that smells good!" Remember the URL .

Finn walked out of the room in his pajamas and followed the smell and found the kitchen.

Only a middle-aged man of about fifty years old was arranging the plates, and to Finn's surprise, the middle-aged man's hands were like white jade, several times more tender than the hands of a twenty-year-old girl.

Finn knew that it was very difficult to maintain these hands, especially if the chef who was working with the ingredients every day could still maintain them so well.

Without asking, Finn could tell by these jade hands and the scent of the vegetables that this middle-aged man was the chef sent by Charles.

"Pa-pa-pa!"

Finn couldn't help but applaud and praise, "Worthy of being my Ye family's chef, bull!"

The middle-aged man was awakened by this voice, looked up to see that it was Finn, bowed and said, "Meet Young Master, my name is Leng Chunyang, it's Butler Charles who asked me to return to your place, it's really my honor to cook for Young Master Ye."

Finn waved his hand, he even helped Leng Chunyang up, "No need to be polite, treat it as your own home, not so much restraint. I've never seen such cooking skills like yours before, I could smell this enticing aroma from several rooms away, it's only right to call you a culinary god."

Leng Chunyang hurriedly avoided Finn, flattered, "Young Master, someone like me who is covered in fumes is not worthy of your contact."

Finn was slightly startled and waved, "It's fine, don't be so formal."

It really was from a big family, even the chefs were so polite. Finn actually didn't even smell the fumes from Leng Chunyang's body at all, instead it was a faint fragrance.

Looking at things from the details, Finn felt more and more that the Ye family was a worthy big family, and with chefs like that, how good would those family children be.

The more Finn felt that he was too much of a hanger-on, don't look at the money, but not so much with his own cultivation, but this is not a matter of time, so Finn did not want to.

"Young Master, I heard that you drank too much yesterday, specially made a refreshing and invigorating meal, I don't know if it will suit your taste, wait for me in the restaurant for a while, it will be out right away." Leng Chunyang said again.

Finn nodded his head and came to the restaurant.

The Wu family had a tradition that as long as the people at home, they would all eat together when it was time to eat.

But today, when they arrived at the restaurant, there were some exceptions, only Wu Zhengfeng and Wu Qiushui, but the others hadn't seen a single person, only a few maids were standing by the side.

"What's going on here?" Finn directly asked the doubt in his heart.

Wu Qiushui explained, "I can't believe that Ye really invited a master chef, I could smell the aroma from far away, grandpa knew that you invited him, so naturally he knew that the food he cooked wouldn't be shared by many people, so he didn't let anyone else come over."

"So protective of food ah." Finn was somewhat speechless, he didn't expect that this pair of grandparents didn't let anyone else come out to eat for a full meal.

But then again, Finn also had this intention, if a group of people grabbed the food, Finn wouldn't be able to savor Leng Chunyang's cooking.

It didn't take long for Leng Chunyang's dishes to be served up one by one, and what Finn didn't expect was that it was just a simple four dishes and one soup.

Seeing that Finn was stunned, Wu Zhengfeng smiled and said, "Young Master Ye, you are inviting a master without mistake, true masters will choose basic skills in order to show off their culinary skills, for example, this spicy and sour potato shreds, the test is knife skills."

Listening to Wu Zhengfeng's explanation, it dawned on Finn that indeed, some mountain delicacies and sea delicacies might be excellent in the ingredients themselves, and it didn't show the strength of the chef himself, while a hot and sour potato shred would show the knife work.

After picking up several shredded potatoes, Finn found that these shredded potatoes were evenly sized, as if they were cut out by a machine, he couldn't even find the slightest flaw. Put into the mouth, Finn only felt the shredded potatoes in his taste buds dancing, slightly spicy straight to the brain, slightly sour taste is not vinegar taste, but lemon, refreshing the brain at the same time stimulate the appetite, especially the slightly crisp texture, but also let him stop.

A few bites in a row, the plate was empty, as Wu Qiushui and Wu Zhengfeng ate even faster, almost gobbling up the food, not at all because of the reserved to stop.

After a dish went down, Finn has selected the soup, this soup is a bit noisy meaning, just now Finn was awakened by the fragrance is this soup fragrance floating out.

Finn also do not know, according to reason, the smell of far away are heavy taste, but this soup is clear fragrance, not only smells clear fragrance, but also tastes clear fragrance.

What confused Finn the most was that the soup had a pale golden yellow color, it was the appearance of a stock, but Leng Chunyang seemed to have done it on purpose, the soup was only soup, there were no side dishes or main ingredients in it.

Finn couldn't help but ask, "This soup is so fragrant, what exactly is it made of?"

"Back to Young Master, it's a white carrot." Leng Chunyang stood to the side and replied.

Finn was shocked, this soup Finn didn't taste like radish at all, but he knew that Leng Chunyang wouldn't lie to him. Then, to be able to make such a clear and smooth taste, it must be Leng Chunyang's cleverness in seasoning the food. With just one dish and one soup, Finn felt that Leng Chunyang was not only solid in his basic skills, but also in his taste.

It was too late for Finn to ask more questions and think, because Wu Qiushui and Wu Zhengfeng's chopsticks were unheard of, as if they hadn't eaten in three days. Finn also had no choice but to join the fray first and start eating like crazy. In just three minutes, all the dishes were swept away. Even the hot soup was poured into the stomachs of the three of them, with no time for it to get too hot or cool.

Finn was a little forgetful, each flavor was superb, but together they were very harmonious. And so much food in a short period of time, will not feel the intestines Tina I discomfort, these are due to the dish itself soft glutinous cooked.

Much as Finn didn't want to, anyway, Finn knew that competing with Wang's restaurant's culinary skills was a sure thing!

148

Finn stretched his back and said, "Chunyang, you're such a good cook, you should be second to none in the family."

Wu Zhengfeng was shocked, "What? Someone from your family, that that that that..."

Wu Zhengfeng was stuck, because he knew that Charles was only the housekeeper of the Finn family, then Leng Chunyang was the chef of the Finn family, his identity and the strength behind him was at least not too much worse than Charles, he was definitely a big brother figure.

And just now he actually ate the food cooked by the big brother, or had the big brother stand and watch him eat.

Thinking of this, Wu Zhengfeng's cold sweat flowed down, and he quickly got up to give his seat to Leng Chunyang, saying, "Master Leng, please sit down, forgive my poor eyesight."

Leng Chunyang waved his hand, but didn't sit down.

He faintly spoke, "How can I sit in front of the young master, just stand, you can sit yourself."

Wu Zhengfeng also knew that it might be a family rule, so he didn't force it, but he didn't dare to do it further, so he had to follow suit and stand.

When Wu Qiushui saw this, which dared not to get up, he also stood up.

Finn saw that everyone got up, so it was not a matter of sitting by yourself, so he also followed suit and stood up, but his mouth found a reason to say, "I'm full, get up and digest, it's not good to sit all the time. I really didn't think that my parents would be nice to me, but they gave me the best chef, and I don't know what they're going to do, but if I can't eat this wonderful food for a day, I guess I won't be able to sleep."

Leng Chunyang shook his head and opened his mouth, "Young Master, you're lifting me up too much, Master and Lady have exclusive chefs, those are the true masters, it's not an exaggeration to call them chef gods. I'm just a back kitchen handyman, I've only become a master chef in the past two days, but I'm the last one, before that I've been in charge of giving food to the servants of the clan, I'm not worthy of cooking for the children of the clan."

"Huh?" Finn was shocked by Leng Chunyang's explanation, because this was no longer modesty.

Modesty could say that itself was not the first, but not even qualifying to cook for the master was a bit too much, normal modesty didn't have this, meaning that what Leng Chunyang said was true.

Finn couldn't imagine that a master like Leng Chunyang was the chef at the very end of the Ye family.

Wouldn't that mean that Finn had lived half of his life in vain, and the best food in a five-star restaurant wasn't as good as one of the family's last.

Leng Chunyang thought that Finn was angry, so he explained again, "Young Master, don't be angry. Charles steward so arranged, is worried that young master eat the best at once, mouth can not eat other things. Also, those are personal chefs who know a lot of secrets and can't go out of the family, only those like me who have entered the family for a short time and don't know any secrets will be let out freely."

"So that's how it is." Finn nodded, Charles's arrangement was reasonable.

Ye family was such a big family, for fear of having a mole, it must be very harsh to select people, especially those who cooked close to the family, there was a lot of poisoned work, it would be bad if they were released freely to cause trouble.

After thinking about this point, Finn did not dwell on it, so he waved his hand and said, "Alright, Qiushui, now that Chunyang is also here, your side will set up an appointment with the Wang's Hotel, and you will make your own arrangements, this time we must completely smash the face of the Wang's Hotel, so that the reputation of the Wang's Hotel will once again fall into the trough, unable to resurface!"

"Yes! It's sure to be foolproof this time!"

Wu Qiushui clenched his fist, if it wasn't for the fact that he had defended the Wang's Hotel before, there wouldn't have been the current contest.

Moreover, if the Leng Chunyang that Finn had found was so strong, there was no reason to lose.

Seven days passed, and in these seven days Finn tasted Leng Chunyang's Sichuan, Lu, Hunan, and Northeast dishes, and found that Leng Chunyang was almost omnipotent, as if there was nothing that Leng Chunyang wouldn't do, and his self-confidence was bursting at the seams.

Today was the day when Xiao Yunchang and Leng Chunyang would compete with each other.

Finn brought Leng Chunyang to the back kitchen to make preparations, because Leng Chunyang had said that the stock needed to make a famous dish had to be simmered for three days, so Finn had to come to the arena early to get the stock with Leng Chunyang.

But as soon as he arrived at the back kitchen, Finn ran into Wang Yuntian.

When Wang Yuntian saw Finn, he thought of the eight million dollars he had been cheated by Finn, and was even more furious, smiling fiercely at Finn, "I heard that you have prepared some chef on your side, but the name is unknown, in my opinion, you'd better admit defeat early and still finish well, otherwise don't blame us for hitting you in the face in front of the media!"

"If you think you will win, then what else are you competing against, just wait and see." Finn laughed coldly, not receiving any influence from Wang Yuntian at all.

Wang Yuntian was already a good-looking person, and was even more enraged by Finn's words.

Without waiting for him to open his mouth, a suit-wearing man around thirty years old came over and said somewhat impatiently, "Wang Yuntian, I'm still in a hurry to see my teacher, when exactly can the competition start?"

"Brother Yunchang don't be anxious, they've arrived and will be able to start right away." When Wang Yuntian saw Xiao Yunchang, the anger on his face turned into a smile.

But Xiao Yunchang didn't reply to Wang Yuntian's words, but instead rushed to Leng Chunyang's face in three steps.

Finn thought that Xiao Yunchang wanted to come down directly on him and was about to stop him, but he saw Xiao Yunchang kneeled right in front of Leng Chunyang in a straightforward manner and said with tearful excitement, "Master!"

Huh?

Master?

Finn was blinded, he didn't remember having such an apprentice ah. Then if it wasn't him, there would only be Leng Chunyang.

Turning his head to look at Leng Chunyang, Finn 's eyes carried a questioning color.

Leng Chunyang waved his hand in a row and denied, "Young Master, I don't know this person, don't listen to his nonsense."

Xiao Yunchang was flabbergasted, then grabbed Leng Chunyang's trouser leg and just wouldn't let go, "Master, it's me, I'm Yunchang, don't disown me ah, I still have a meeting with you in the morning."

"This and you still say you don't recognize me?What the hell is going on?" Finn couldn't help but frown, he didn't like people lying.

Leng Chunyang shivered in fear, so he knelt in front of Finn and said, "Young Master, I came out of the family this time to help you compete, and before I entered the family, I took in an apprentice, Xiao Yunchang, I thought to have him help me during the competition, but I didn't expect that he would be my competitor ah!"

Only then did it dawn on Finn that indeed he hadn't mentioned to Leng Chunyang who the competitor was before.Leng Chunyang didn't dare to admit it, just because he was afraid of being misunderstood by Finn .

Now that the misunderstanding was resolved, Finn was fine with it, he even helped Leng Chunyang up and said kindly, "You should have said this was your disciple ah, I can't eat you up, I had to be forced to ask questions, really."

Leng Chunyang's old face turned red and said, "Young Master, I only just found out, my disciple is unfilial, and even went against you, I'm really making you laugh, I'll take care of him."

Saying that, Leng Chunyang was about to strike.

Xiao Yunchang, however, hugged Leng Chunyang's thighs at an even faster speed and screamed, "Master, I know I'm wrong, how could I know that your old man is someone invited by the Wu family, if I knew I definitely wouldn't dare to go against you ah."

Turning his head, Xiao Yunchang then grunted at Wang Yuntian, "You kid even wanted to cause our master's relationship to break down, go you paralyzed, I quit, you go find someone else to help with the cooking competition, I want to give my master a hand!"

"Brother Yunchang, that's not what we said." Wang Yuntian was in a great hurry.

For this competition, Wang Yuntian had even spent a lot of money on the media and opened up many channels, just waiting for the victory in the cooking competition to completely suppress the Wu family, thus annexing it. The key to all of this was actually Xiao Yunchang.

Now that Xiao Yunchang was suddenly not participating in the competition, this had a considerable impact on the plan. Not only was it impossible to annex the Wu family, but it was more likely to smack the Wang family in the face and devastate it. Previously, Wang Yuntian had thought of all sorts of reasons, made a lot of preparations, and even bribed some of the referees, just so that Xiao Yunchang could achieve an absolute victory.

But Xiao Yunchang didn't even participate, instead helping the Wu family's chef, or even just playing a hand, and it was clear which one was stronger or weaker.

Although Wang Yuntian also had the opportunity to find a new chef, Xiao Yunchang's influence in the Wind Capital was second to none, and blindly bringing in a chef would never be able to match Xiao Yunchang. Even if he paid off the judge, the judge wouldn't dare to ignore public opinion and secretly manipulate the results of the match without permission. So now Wang Yuntian could only stay and even plead with Xiao Yunchang.

Unfortunately, Xiao Yunchang was determined to go, and only snorted, "Wang Yuntian, do you want me to bully my master and destroy my ancestors? You're nothing!"

Wang Yuntian's face was cold, but when he thought of the consequences of not having Xiao Yunchang, he didn't dare to get angry, but squeezed out a smile, "Brother Yunchang, you misunderstood, I mean I'm willing to invite your master to come to our Wang's Hotel together, at any price."

"Any price?" Xiao Yunchang was slightly shocked, but only for a moment, then he sneered, "Do you still want my master to turn against the water? Trying to persecute my master's reputation?"

Leng Chunyang also snorted, "The District Wang Family is nothing, wanting me to turn against the water, a fool's dream!"

Just as he was about to say something even worse, Finn stopped Leng Chunyang and turned his head to play with Wang Yuntian, "Brother Wang, what price do you want to pay?"
First web site

"Yes, at any price!" Wang Yuntian thought that Finn had fallen for the trap and was delighted.

Finn extended a finger and didn't say anything.

Wang Yuntian just laughed, "Are you asking for one hundred million? I can give."

As long as he could annex the Wu family, a mere 100 million was really nothing. But Finn shook his head, obviously not 100 million.

"You're asking for a billion?" Wang Yuntian's eyebrows furrowed, somewhat dissatisfied, "You really know how to lionize a lion!"

The Wu family is already second-rate and last-rate, and even if it is completely annexed, the proceeds are only about five billion, and also counting the real estate, the liquidity is only a few hundred million, less than a billion.

Moreover, there was no guarantee that through the cooking contest, the Wu family could be completely discredited, how to think of it, Wang Yuntian felt that it was a home-grown business.

However, Finn still shook his head, which made Wang Yuntian shocked and angry.

"Don't go too far with your brat, what exactly do you want!" Wang Yuntian shouted furiously.

Finn smiled, "What I want is simple, just give me your Wang family."

"Bullsh*t!" Wang Yuntian directly refused without even thinking about it, Finn's request was too much, and it could even be said that it was a case of not wanting to trade, but Finn deliberately teasing him.

Finn sighed, "Seriously, if you give me the Wang family, you'll save all the trouble. But don't blame me for being heartless with this attitude."

Wang Yuntian coldly snorted, "You're saying this for real, don't joke!"

Leng Chunyang, who was on the side, sneered, "Young Master's willingness to take in your Wang family is an elevation, and you're still not satisfied."

"What?"

Xiao Yunchang's eyes waited in shock at Leng Chunyang's words, because he knew what position Leng Chunyang was in, he was a mythical existence in the chef world, and he had never heard Leng Chunyang praise anyone so much.

It could even be said that Xiao Yunchang had never heard Leng Chunyang praise anyone at all.

Originally, Xiao Yunchang thought that Leng Chunyang was hired by Finn, and even so, it was very impressive. After all, Leng Chunyang was very difficult to hire, and even it was very difficult for him, his apprentice, to meet Leng Chunyang. Looking at this situation, it seemed that Leng Chunyang had become the chef of Finn's family, so what kind of behemoth was Finn's family that was able to make Leng Chunyang do this for them?

Xiao Yunchang didn't dare to think about going on, he had originally thought of bringing Leng Chunyang with him to turn against the water when he saw Wang Yuntian giving a big price, but now it looked like it was simply impossible.

After realizing everything, Xiao Yunchang turned his head to look at Wang Yuntian and grunted, "Either hand over the Wang family or get out of here, see you on the competition field."

Wang Yuntian couldn't say a word for half a day, and finally left with a cold snort.

The reason was simple, there was no way he would agree to Xiao Yunchang and Finn's demands, staying here was just a matter of self humiliation.

As expected by Finn, Wang Yuntian had indeed postponed the match for two hours. It should have gone to find a new chef within two hours, and there might have been a bribe for the judge.

While waiting, Xiao Yunchang had asked Finn, "Aren't you afraid of Wang Yuntian bribing the referee?"

Hearing that, Finn was also a little worried.

Without waiting for Finn to make a reply, Leng Chunyang snorted, "Do you think I'm a dead man? Even if the other side bribes me, I'm sure I'll win the match, and I don't believe in good or bad judges for real dishes."

"What Master said." Xiao Yunchang nodded his head in succession and agreed, others didn't know Leng Chunyang's temper, but he, as an apprentice, was still clear about it. What Leng Chunyang disdained the most was making falsehoods, and Leng Chunyang's strength didn't worry about others making falsehoods.

Finn didn't mind his own business when he saw the master and disciple like this. Not to mention Leng Chunyang's culinary skills were already outstanding, let's say Xiao Yunchang, was one of the top cooking masters, and he still had the name of Little Chef God in Fengdu, even if the judges made a false claim, they still had to see if the people would agree. Now it could be said that the timing was perfect, Finn had possessed it, what was there to worry about.

And so, two hours later, the competition finally started.

Finn wasn't able to appear in the media due to family reasons, so he was watching this match in the crowd, and the one sitting in the crowd was naturally Wu Qiushui.

"Go Xiao Yunchang!"

"What's the fuel, Xiao Yunchang will definitely win, I don't even know who the other party is!"

"Get the hell out of the Wang's Hotel across the street! Get off!"

The crowd erupted into a mountain shout, directly causing the chef hired by Wang Yuntian to flee in fear.

In other words, the match was over before it even started.

Finn smiled in relief, this ending wasn't what Finn had expected, but it wasn't bad. The other party had run away, and even if Wang Yuntian had bribed the judges, it would be useless.

After all, the entries were only one dish that Leng Chunyang and Xiao Yunchang had completed together.

As Finn stood in the crowd, he could see the row of reporters in front of him, taking pictures of the competition, and even more, still broadcasting it live. So as soon as the judges released the results, the entire crowd who were concerned about this matter applauded, and even more so to the Wang's restaurant had the sound of applause.

After all, Wang's Restaurant was the one who started this competition, and as a result, the people ran away without cooking. In addition, Xiao Yunchang, the little chef god, vigorously promoted Wu's Restaurant, and soon, the reputation of Wu's Restaurant surpassed that of Wang's Restaurant all the way. Another thing was that Wu Qiushui had previously found someone to keep brushing off Wang's Hotel's bad reviews, so in just a month's time, Wang's Hotel's reputation had plummeted so much that it could almost be described as a doorstop.

"Ye Shao, look, the Wang's Hotel can't hold on any longer."

One early morning, when Finn was sleeping, he was awakened by this voice.

Finn opened his eyes and saw Wu Qiushui, who looked excited, and said somewhat impatiently, "Qiushui, what's wrong again, Wang's Hotel can't hold out you've been saying for a month, and you haven't seen him close down."

Wu Qiushui scratched his head awkwardly and smiled, "Ye Shao, you are also thinking of this too simply, at any rate, such a big family is behind it, even if no one visits the hotel, it's no problem to open it for decades."

"Then you still say that you can't hold on, isn't that living quite well." Finn also knows that the Wang family is large, how the Assets are more than ten billion, support hotel operations are not still easy, even Finn guessed that as long as the Wang family to avoid this storm, find time will also return to the public's attention.

As the saying goes, a skinny camel is bigger than a horse, not to mention the fact that the Wang family hasn't suffered any substantial harm yet.

Wu Qiushui explained, "It's not like that, public opinion by word of mouth still plays a role. Didn't I say before that Wang's has a listed company, as Zhang Bao said, the Wang family's foundation is actually not the hotel, it is this listed company, and now after a month of our relentless efforts to brush up the bad reviews, making people panic, and now the stockholders who have Wang's stock in their hands have started to dump their shares, while $5.5 per share has dropped to $1.1, it can be said that Wang's Assets are shrinking rapidly."

Saying that, Wu Qiushui took out his cell phone. Remember the URL . . . net

Finn received the phone and saw the content on it and laughed.

Finn didn't know about stocks, but he knew about the drop, and now Wang's company's stock had dropped. Compared to a month ago, it had even shrunk nearly five times. To say that Wang's, which was originally worth ten billion dollars, was now only two billion.

Finn thought about it and bit his tongue, "Can't wait, it's now, the money on my card, you acquire all the loose shares thrown out outside Wang's!"

Because Wang wants to take possession of the company, there will inevitably be more than fifty percent of the shares, and the remaining less than fifty percent, in fact, is worth less than one billion, Finn is ready to use all the cash to buy it directly and play a big game!

Wu Qiushui was slightly startled, never thought that there was so much cash in Finn's hands, and nodded heavily when he received the gold card, "Ye Shao, I do things, don't worry, this time I will take back all the loose shares."

At this moment, Finn's door opened and a figure walked in, it was none other than Zhang Bao.

Zhang Bao first greeted before saying, "Ye Shao, I have another plan."

"Oh? What else can you do, tell me!" The first time I saw it, I thought it would be a good idea for me to take a look at it," he said.

Zhang Bao chanted and strayed his thoughts before slowly speaking, "Actually, it's like this, earlier it was just a rough plan, I didn't expect the plan to be implemented so smoothly, and now that we've reached the point where we're cleaning up the mess, then my suggestion is that our Wu and Zhang families raise another one billion in cash."

"What do you mean?" Finn was a bit confused, he had just given Wu Qiushui 800 million in cash, why did he need another billion?

"In public companies, the chairman is the one with the most equity, and even if we buy all the loose shares, it's actually no match for the Wang family itself. I got all this money to break it from the inside, and now that the stock market is in such a slump, if I were to buy the people who have shares inside the Wang family at $2 a share, do you think they would sell?" Zhang Bao said with a smile.

Finn suddenly understood Zhang Bao's meaning, the so-called Hu Falling Monkey, many of the Wang family's children who did not know the inside story, thinking that the Wang family was going to fall, would throw out their stocks. Especially if it was twice the price, it was given even sooner.

Thinking of this, Finn couldn't help but give a thumbs up, "Zhang Bao, this is a good plan, since you thought of this, have you already found the manpower?"

After all, acquiring shares in the name of the Wu or Zhang family was very unrealistic, and the Wang family was resistant to resistance and felt it was a conspiracy, so naturally they needed to find an outsider, but it had to be an outsider they absolutely trusted.

Zhang Bao smiled mysteriously, then pointed at Finn .

Finn was stunned, never would he have thought that the candidate Zhang Bao was talking about was himself.

Finn even waved his hand and said, "How can I, I don't understand."

Zhang Bao instructed Finn not to get excited before smiling, "Didn't we agree before, as long as it's the Wang family's A**ets, our Zhang family and Wu family will not want all of them and give them to you. Now is the time to honor the promise, all of it will be handed over to you to handle, and we'll be able to share the dividends then."

Finn was somewhat touched, as it wasn't even harvest time yet, but Zhang Bao had taken the initiative to fund it first, and it was still hundreds of millions of dollars, this practice was undoubtedly an absolute trust in him.

Wu Qiushui also nodded, "I also agree with Zhang Bao, let's say, Zhang Bao and I will each contribute 500 million, this money is enough for you to get more than fifty percent of the shares."

With the matter at hand, Finn didn't know how to refuse, so he nodded and said, "Yes, let's do that."

In fact, even without Wu Qiushui's help, Finn was still rich in this bank manager, after all, he dealt with money every day, and Qian Duo Duo was also proficient in this area.

After the matter was decided, Finn rushed back to the Sands in the night and brought Qian Duo Duo to Fengdu.

Although Finn was a student of finance, there were many things that Finn didn't really understand, and he couldn't even watch Qian Duo operate. But after a few days of watching, Finn got bored, because it was just a repetitive bid to close the shares, so there was no other technical operation.

It took more than half a month, Qian Duo Duo finally spent all the 1.8 billion capital, and the shares bought even as high as 67%, shares have been Finn's absolute advantage.

It was no exaggeration to say that in essence, Finn had already held Wang's listed company!
