

CHAPTER 81-90

"Ding-dong!"

The elevator opened and Finn walked out with big steps.

Just now, Finn also wanted to take action to teach Zhang Zimo a lesson, but he didn't want to dirty the suit, so now Finn was still in a suit with a big back hair, but he had the appearance of a successful person.

"Sir, the invitation."

Without progressing, a reception lady in a cheongsam politely extended her hand to intercept it.

Worthy of being a professional reception lady, the etiquette was straightforwardly pulled full, this slight reach didn't make Finn feel the slightest bit offended, and also expressed the meaning, the strength was moderate.

Finn nodded slightly, revealing a smile, "You wait a moment, my friend will be out soon."

Just now on the elevator, Finn had sent a WeChat to Zhou Leya, and the other party responded that they would come to greet him right away.

No, as soon as Finn finished speaking, Zhou Leya stepped on the lotus steps and slowly came, just like a princess in a painting, noble. The contrast between the cheongsam reception lady and Zhou Leya was like a pearl contrasting the white moon, completely disproportionate.

Although he had already seen it several times, but Finn still couldn't help but feel his heart surging, his little heart pounding wildly. Remember the website . . . net

"Fortunately, the auction hasn't started yet, if it's any later, we won't be able to make it in time." Zhou Leya slightly wrinkled chided, right after that she naturally took Finn 's arm and said to the reception lady, "This gentleman and I are here, can we go in?"

"No problem, Miss Zhou." Miss Reception naturally knew Zhou Leya and took a half step back to give way very sensibly.

With a faint smile, Finn stepped into the auction venue, but felt several cold gazes in an instant. Without much thought, Finn knew that it was because of Zhou Leya, who was holding his arm, that caused this scene.

Not to be outdone, Finn nodded at each of these gazes, and then came out, "What are you looking at, I've never seen a handsome man before, I'm not interested in men."

As soon as this was said, Finn felt these gazes fade away, but then came slightly angry gazes, and even more one person stalked over and snorted, "Who are you, how come you've never seen one before."

Finn looked up, this man was over one meter tall, wearing a fine suit, but he was a standard high rich handsome man.

"I'm Finn, as for you never seeing me, that's because you've never seen me." Finn's tone was not good, he was not really to blame.

First, that Finn wanted to give these people a hard time and tell them that he wasn't easy to bully. Second, that these first gazes that were cast over were young men, clearly recessive rivals, how could Finn have a good face.

"No quality." The man disdainfully looked at Finn, turned his head to Zhou Leya with a spring-like smile: "Leya, how do you bring this kind of man to enter, how humiliating, aren't you afraid that Uncle Zhou will blame you."

"Wu Yilong, please call me by my full name, I don't remember being so familiar with you that I can call you by your name." Zhou Leya, however, did not reply to Wu Yilong's words, but instead looked indifferent.

Just like an iceberg queen, it instead caused Finn to be a little startled.

Didn't think there was such a side to Zhou Leya?

Finn muttered in his heart, instead he became more interested in Zhou Leya.

"Let's go, why bother with him, bad luck." Without even looking at Wu Yilong, Finn walked towards the venue with Zhou Leya.

"Hmph, relying on a woman's little white face." Wu Yilong, however, snorted coldly.

Upon hearing that, Finn couldn't take it anymore and turned his head to angrily scold, "Are you blind? Where do you get the idea that I'm a little white boy?"

"You can't even get in without an invitation, not by fetishia? Don't be funny!" Wu Yilong sneered.

"Wu Yilong are you deaf, I told you not to call me Love Ya, can't you understand?" Zhou Leya frowned.

What she hated the most was this kind of man who was close to her.

Finn nodded his head in deep agreement: "Blind and deaf, with a bad brain, it's really a pity about this good skin."

Wu Yilong became furious and said, "Little white face, try cursing one more time!"

"Nowadays there are still those looking for scolding, I've never heard such an unreasonable demand, but this young man has the air, so I'll reward you again, stinking idiot!" Finn sneered.

"The auction will be held in three minutes, so please take your seats in an orderly manner and keep the venue quiet."

The radio voice came at the right time, Wu Yilong opened his mouth, but he didn't curse out a word.

"Kid, don't leave if you have the guts, the auction is over, let's see if I get you or not!" Wu Yilong left angrily with a cold snort.

"Ye Shao, don't look at Wu Yilong's appearance, but he is the only son of Wu's Building Materials Company, the next heir, and he is also a first-cl A young master in Jinsha." Zhou Leya reminded.

Finn disdainfully said, "Who cares what grand young master he is, he's not even a fart in front of me, let him derp first, when it's over it's fine if he doesn't find trouble with me, if he really dares to find trouble with me, I won't show mercy."

Anyway, being Zhou Leya's pursuer, Finn didn't have the slightest fear of Wu Yilong, and if he had the chance, even more so, he wanted to pinch Wu Yilong early.

"Alright....By the way, where's Zhang Zimo?Haven't seen him, did something just happen downstairs?"Zhou Leya was confused.

According to Zhang Zimo's personality, it was impossible to see Finn come to the auction and not show up, unless he didn't come up at all.

Finn smiled, "That silly kid was looking for someone to beat me up, but unfortunately the group of people he was looking for was the group of non-mainstream thugs he met at noon hotpot, so without waiting for me to do anything, these thugs directly beat up Zhang Zimo."

"Huh?"

Zhou Leya was startled at the news, she also thought that Finn would find someone to teach Zhang Zimo a lesson, but she never imagined that Zhang Zimo would bring the thugs that Finn had recovered before, this was really dramatic.

"Don't just stand there, the auction is about to start, let's go, where shall we sit?" Finn used his hand to shake in front of Zhou Leya's eyes.

Zhou Leya came back to God, then took Finn 's arm: "go, let's go to the box, our Zhou family has an exclusive box, do not have to sit in the hall, in the box there is a TV direct transmission screen, it is also convenient for gossip, to protect personal privacy."

Zhou Leya's tone had a bit of smugness, to which, Finn also dawned.No wonder Wu Yilong had just argued with him and no one had come out to stop him, so the big brothers were all in the box.

The one who was in the hall, that is, one who was in the same level as Wu Yilong, or even inferior to Wu Yilong, naturally wouldn't come out to stop him.

After thinking about it, Finn had been brought in front of a box by Zhou Leya, and the door number was written 666, so it looked extraordinary.

After Zhou Leya pushed open the door, Finn saw two reception ladies standing on either side of a sofa on which sat a middle-aged man full of superiority!

"Sit."

The middle-aged man was wearing a tang suit, and without even lifting his eyes, Finn felt a great deal of pressure.

Was this the might of a big brother?

Finn whispered in his heart, although his instincts were a little daunted, but reason told Finn there was no need to be afraid, his family's power was definitely much bigger than this.

But Finn also thus found out the reason why Charles had exposed him to first-cl A circles, not only because of socializing and insight, but also to cultivate magnanimity.

If he was often with these big men, Finn reckoned that he could invariably cultivate the imposing presence of a top-ranking person.

Thinking that he would be like the big brother in front of him in the future, Finn 's heart was a little tingly, thinking that he had made a very correct choice this time out.

"Dad, let me introduce you, this is Finn ."Zhou Leya loosened her hold on Finn 's arm and leaned in front of Zhou Fu, taking Zhou Fu's arm in a very natural way.

In fact, no need for Zhou Leya to say more, Finn also knew that the one in front of him was Zhou Leya's father, after all, being so young, it was never possible for him to be Zhou Leya's grandfather.

Zhou Fu only slightly raised his eyes at the news, and after seeing Finn , he didn't have much to say, but said lightly, "Sit down."

Not even a question?

Finn was a little surprised by Zhou Fu's actions, but not angry.

After all, if it were him, if his daughter showed up with a man, he would definitely ask more questions or drive him out, but like Zhou Fu, who didn't have the slightest indication, it was baffling to him.

However, Finn was in no hurry to ask questions, so he sat down on the sofa with a big grin and waited for the auction to start.

As soon as Finn sat down, his butt wasn't even warm, a beautiful woman in a white cheongsam appeared on the TV, holding a microphone, "Hello everyone, I'm the host of this auction, Shasha, welcome to the Kaiyuan Auction, I'm sure you all can't wait, I won't say any more nonsense, please bring out the first auction item right away."

Finn nodded his head in satisfaction, a simple opening speech like this was good, if he said a lot of things, it would instead make him lose patience.

And back in the daytime, Finn knew at the car dealership that the auction wasn't formal, so he also looked forward to the auction items even more.

Two black-clothed men with masks pushed a cart onto the stage, and on top of the cart were items wrapped in black cloth, which couldn't be seen and immediately grabbed Finn's interest.

"According to the usual rules, the first auction item is a secret auction with a starting price of ten thousand, and it will be shown to everyone after the bidding." Sasha smiled faintly, explaining the item in front of her.

"A secret auction?" Finn was slightly startled, he had never heard of an auction of things with a secret auction, it was not worthy of being irregular, it really didn't follow the pattern.

Zhou Leya explained at the side, "Ye Shao, this secret auction has produced millions of items in previous years, as well as ordinary items worth just over 10,000 yuan, so there is a large element of luck in it, I suggest not to auction."

With Zhou Leya's brief understanding of Finn, she knew that Finn was someone with an adventurous spirit and was even more generous with his hand, she was afraid that if she didn't remind Finn, he might not auction this item.

But Zhou Lelian Ya's reminder didn't work, only to see Finn turn his head and ask the reception lady, "That, what do we call shooting the item?"

"If the gentleman wants to bid just quote me the price and I'll take care of calling the auction for you." The reception lady said with a professional smile.

Finn nodded and said with satisfaction, "That's quite convenient, you can call the bid for me for one hundred thousand."

"One hundred thousand? Ye Shao, the general public won't steal it, in fact, the starting price of ten thousand you called is enough." Zhou Leya was somewhat speechless.

Finn waved his hand and said, "How troublesome it would be if there were people bidding with me."

The reception lady instead did not open her mouth, but directly operated.

Immediately the Sasha on the TV received the news through the intercom headset and revealed a surprised expression, "The guest in room 666 is asking for 100,000 yuan, is there still a bid increase? $100,000 once, $100,000 twice, $100,000 three times, deal! Congratulations to the guest in room 666, I will now unveil the item and it will be delivered to room 666 later."

It was as Zhou Leya said, there was no one bidding at all, but the unveiling of the item's original appearance still made many people interested, including Finn .

Although 100,000 was not much, but Finn was also somewhat looking forward to it, in case he gambled on a treasure that would be a profit.

However, to Finn 's disappointment, after Sasha uncovered the black cloth, there was only an ice bucket on the cart, and on the ice bucket was a bottle of red wine inserted.

"The first bid is a bottle of '82 Lafite, congratulations to the guest in room 666." Sasha said with a smile, and then the two masked black-clad men from earlier pushed the cart off the stage, followed by two new masked black-clad men pushing it onto a new cart.

The items on this cart, however, were not covered, but directly displayed.

"I told you, it doesn't need 100,000 at all, this bottle of 82 Lafite is 80,000 at most, you're losing out." Zhou Leya shook her head and said helplessly.

Finn, however, smiled: "It's fine, just thirsty. And 82 Lafite inventory is not much to get a bottle, in fact, counting its own commemorative value, but also far more than 100,000, no loss no loss."

"Knock knock!"

The door buckled, and the next thing you know, the two men in black who had just been on TV appeared, and in addition to the cart, there was a POS machine, apparently to pay on the spot.

Finn didn't get any ink, so he took out his gold card and swiped it, followed by saying to the reception lady, "Find three glasses and pour wine."

The point that Finn was most satisfied with was still this ice bucket, looking at the amount of melting in it, he knew that the bottle of red wine had already sobered up, and it had an excellent taste at this time.

To Finn's surprise, Zhou Fu didn't even have the courtesy to take a sip of it, showing a look of approval.

"Young man, not bad."

Zhou Fu took a deep look at Finn's golden card and stopped talking.

Finn also had a mind of his own, he purposely pulled out his card instead of scanning the code, in order to use the golden card to attract Zhou Fu's attention, after all, this golden card was a SIP card of ICBC, which needed to be credited with at least 100 million at a time, which indirectly revealed Finn's identity and wealth.

One hundred thousand yuan, not only to buy a bottle of wine, but also a good start with Zhou Fu, Finn felt very earned.

The entrance of the awakened Lafite is not so strong, but a mellow aroma, after one bite down, lips and teeth, let Finn can't help but reveal the color of praise, this bottle of wine awakening is just right, obviously the auction has been prepared before the start of the auction, the time is also carefully calculated out. Especially when Finn just asked the reception lady to take out a cup, the reception lady didn't panic, almost as soon as she finished speaking, the cup appeared.

Especially this kind of drinking red wine cups also need to be slightly cold, certainly not only this room prepared, but other rooms are also prepared, after all, do not know who will shoot.

All of this highlighted the uniqueness of the auction, the preparation was very thorough.

Finn was becoming more and more interested in the auction, and when he put down his wine glass, he watched as Sasha was introducing the second bid on the TV.

83

"The second item to be bid on must be familiar to you, it is the purpose of many people coming over on this trip. It's a Song dynasty built calendars, confirmed by experts, it has been determined that it is indeed a Southern Song dynasty imperial built calendars, the starting bid is 100,000, now, the bidding begins!"

Finn does not know how to build a marigold, from the outside, it's just a bowl, so he couldn't help but ask, "Is this a tea bowl?"

"Really let you blindfolded right, is the tea bowl, but but also different, this is the essence of the ancient craftsmen, and the royal family supplies, extraordinary value. Haven't you heard the saying, if a tea drinker doesn't have a piece of Jianzhu then he doesn't know tea." Zhou Leya explained.

Finn was slightly startled, never thought that Zhou Leya knew so much.

But to Finn's surprise, Zhou Fu actually spoke up as well, "Eight hundred thousand."

The words fell, and the reception lady called for the auction synchronously, while Sasha also revealed her surprise: "Room 666 again, called for the auction 800,000, is there a higher price?"

"A million!"

Sasha looked startled and suddenly spoke out of turn, but quickly regained her natural voice, "Sorry, a little out of order, room 888 is asking a million dollars, is there a higher price?"

"Two million! the asking price for room 666 is two million, is there any higher? Two million dollars once, two million dollars twice, two million dollars three times, Sold! Congratulations to the guest in room 666, the bid was successful again, and the Jianzhan will be delivered to room 666 later." Sasha hammered away.

On the contrary, the atmosphere in room 666 was once silent. The first website m.

Still Zhou Leya broke the silence: "Ye Shao, what are you doing, my father bidding, why are you also following the robbery, don't you know how to build a marigold?"

Although Zhou Fu did not say anything, his eyebrows were still slightly furrowed.

Didn't wait for Finn to explain, the man in black with a mask will build the marigold sent over, Finn swiped the card before saying: "I'm not looking at uncle like it, 888 number of people so insensitive to raise the price, I'll just double, save uncle bother to speak."

Saying that, Finn will build calendars and appraisal certificate handed to the front of Zhou Fu said: "Uncle Zhou, the boy does not know what to build calendars, but if you like to say so, do not bother you shoot, I'll come into. It would have been a little embarrass Aing to come to see you empty-handed, this Jianzhan just as a meeting gift."

Finn said casually, but his attitude was sincere, making Zhou Fu slightly startled.

Zhou Leya also recoiled and said: "Ye Shao, so you bought it to give it to my father ah, I was wrong to blame you."

Finn waved his hand: "It doesn't matter, it's good that Uncle Zhou likes it."

"Finn isn't it, young man is very good. Aiya, you can correspond more with Little Fan in the future." Zhou Fu nodded slightly, took out a pair of gloves from his bosom, obviously prepared beforehand, and carefully admired the Jianzhan.

Although Finn knew that Zhou Fu was a big shot, but the expression on Zhou Fu's face as he looked at Jianzhan was like looking at a lover, not just infatuation, but also the heat that was reflected from the heart to the eyes.

Finn knew that his two million wasn't a loss in exchange for Zhou Fu's approval.

If two million to buy a car for Zhou Fu, Zhou Fu may not even look at, but this Jianzhan is firmly grasped Zhou Fu's heart, the auction, the more Finn feel worthy.

Zhou Fu didn't take a look at any of the items that came up for auction afterwards, and apparently wasn't interested.

However, Finn did not let go of a single item, and each item was entered at double the bidding price of the others.

Anyway, if it wasn't too bad, he didn't care, and it would be even more interesting to buy it back and make some discoveries.

Unknowingly, the auction had already passed one and a half hours, there were only twenty items in the auction, and the bidding was completed in two hours, averaging about six minutes for one item. And bidding up to now, Finn had already auctioned fifteen items.

But apart from bidding and enjoying the pleasure of crushing others with money, Finn cared most about Wu Yilong who was sitting in the hall.

It had been an hour and a half, and Wu Yilong hadn't made a single move, and Finn had planned to crush Wu Yilong financially, but he was too late to find the opportunity.

But just when he was about to give up, the sixteenth lot was introduced on the stage, and Sasha said, "The sixteenth lot is called Deep Ocean Love, and it is exquisitely crafted by Italian master Pozzi, who was a top gemstone designer in the eighteenth century and his works have won many awards. The bidding has reached the sky-high price of five million, this Deep Sea Love is a derivative of Master Porky's creation of Ocean Love, the bidding starts at one million, the bidding begins!"

"A million and one!" Wu Yilong directly raised his hand.

The corners of Finn's mouth rose slightly, Wu Yilong had finally made his move, but it was clear that he wouldn't let Wu Yilong have his way.

Not only because he wanted to crush Wu Yilong, but more importantly, this Deep Sea Love was not just a gemstone, but also made into a series of necklaces, seeing the heat in Zhou

Leya's eyes and the empty space on her swan neck, Finn knew that this Deep Sea Love, he was bound to take it!

"Two million!" Finn smiled faintly and started bidding.

Wu Yilong's look was clearly startled, but when he saw room 666, he couldn't help but gnash his teeth, he naturally knew that room 666 was the Zhou Fu family, but he also knew very well that Finn was in there.

Without thinking too much, Wu Yilong guessed that it was Finn who had made the move, and with his heart in his mouth, Wu Yilong raised the number plate again and said, "2.1 million!"

"Three million!" Seeing Wu Yilong's twisted expression, Finn couldn't help but steal joy in his heart, Wu Yilong's look right now was like he was stuffed and eating sh*t.

"Mr. 22, do you still want to raise the price?" Sasha asked at the right time.

Wu Yilong wanted to hold up the sign, but then backed down when he saw the price of three million. After all, even if this was good, it was only a derivative, not a true Ocean Love, and the price topped out at two million, three million was just too much.

"Forget it, don't." Wu Yilong angrily put down the sign.

"Three million once, three million twice, three million three times, congratulations to room 666 for bidding successfully again." Sasha's tone became sweeter and sweeter.

It wasn't that she was deliberately sweet, but it was really not sweet enough. Every bid Sasha had a commission, the more bids she called for, the more her commission would be. And not only did Finn take sixteen items, but each item was taken beyond expectation, and Sasha's heart was naturally incomparably more beautiful.

Very quickly, the Deep Sea Love was delivered to room 666.

No need for Finn to speak, the man in black consciously picked up the gold card on the table and swiped it, after all, it's already the sixteenth time, long ago, which is better.

And Finn is also too much trouble, did not withdraw the gold card at all, just put it on the table.

Getting the Deep Sea Love, before Finn carefully scrutinized it, he felt a burning gaze!

"Don't look, I'll take a look first, I bought it for you anyway, I'll give it to you later." Finn was somewhat speechless as Zhou Leya's gaze was too hot, like a big bad wolf who saw a lamb.

As expected, no matter what kind of woman, there was no resistance to jewelry.

Carefully scrutinizing a few eyes, Finn could not help but nod his head in satisfaction, although three million was expensive, it really wasn't a loss. This gem is ingenious, there are many complex lines inside, but it is all natural, more importantly, these seemingly angular lines are the inner light, but the appearance of the gem is very rounded, no angles at all, just on the hand to touch, Finn felt very comfortable, and also the gem also came from a burst of coolness, it seems to have refreshing effect.

Worthy of being called Deep Sea Love, it did indeed match the name!

"Alright, I'm done watching, turn around and lift up your hair, I'll bring it on for you." Evan got up and came to Zhou Leya's body.

"Mmhmm." Zhou Leya happily turned around and lifted up her hair, revealing a snow-white swan neck.

Seeing such tender and smooth skin, Finn almost drooled, if it wasn't for the fact that there was still Zhou Fu around, Finn would have been beastly – in a frenzy.

Swallowed his saliva and held back his inner desire – desire, Finn pretended to casually help Zhou Leya put on the Deep Sea Love.

"Wow, thank you, Ye Shao, it's really beautiful." As soon as Deep Sea Love was put on Zhou Leya's neck, Zhou Leya let out a little girl-like excited squeal, then turned on her toes and pecked at Finn's face like a dragonfly.

"This..." Remember the URL .

Finn was stunned in place and couldn't be bothered to recall, so he even looked at Zhou Fu.

Zhou Fu, however, didn't have much change in his expression, just said lightly, "Little Fan, be nice to Lilia in the future, or I won't spare you lightly!"

"Huh?"

Finn was directly confused, why did he give it for free?

Although Zhou Fu's words were simple, they were a hammer blow.

And Finn clearly saw a hint of resentment in Zhou Fu's eyes, as expected, daughters are all daddy's lovers from his last life.

He's stealing Zhou Fu's lover now, this is killing him.

"Dad!" Zhou Leya's little face was also slightly red, and she looked at Zhou Fu, then at Finn, and finally ran out of the room shyly.

The two reception ladies also left the room in a sensible manner.

Zhou Fu sighed, "Stinker, sit down."

"I'd better stand." How could Finn be so scared that he dared to sit down, he was just befriending the big brother, but now it suddenly became meeting his father-in-law, how could Finn stand it.

"I told you to sit down, sit down, if you don't listen to me now, you won't be rebelling against the sky later!" Zhou Fu's tone was unquestionable, and there was a hint of grumbling.

Finn helplessly had to sit down, saying: "Zhou uncle, you see this trouble, I give love ya choose dress today, but forgot the necklace, this does not happen to auction it, hehe, hehe."

Finn laughed dryly a few times, seeing that Zhou Fu did not speak, even more embarrassed.

Zhou Fu a moment, before sighing: "female big to stay, I can see that Lilia likes you. In the past, other boys also bought things for Lilia, but Lilia looked down on them all, and even put them in the warehouse and never took them out."

Finn did not speak, waiting for Zhou Fu to continue.

Zhou Fu continued: "Liao Liao Ya lost her mother when she was a child, I did not look again over the years, just in case Liao Liao Ya is sad, I am dedicated to work, I want to give the best to Liao Liao Ya, but there is one thing I can not give Liao Liao Ya, that is, a complete family. So, brat, Lilia will be cheap for you, you must promise me one thing, that is, you must give Lilia a complete and warm family in the future, can you promise me!"

"Can, can, can!" Finn's heart was scared, in fact, he didn't even know how he felt about Zhou Leya right now, suddenly being arranged so that Finn had no way to adapt.

Moreover, in addition to Zhou Leya, outside he had Wang Kexin, Xiao Coco....

But these, Finn could not say anything.

Zhou Fu nodded his head in satisfaction, his words changed, and he suddenly laughed: "All these years for the sake of Love Ya I didn't even remarry, and I didn't even dare to go out to look for a woman, just in case Love Ya knew it was sad. Now it's good, I'm finally free, I can find as many as I want, hahaha!"

"Uh..."

Zhou Fu's words made Finn not know how to take it, so the big brother also had such a scene ah, it really made him quite speechless.

But Finn also admired Zhou Fu, giving up his own happiness just for his daughter, it was really great.

Although the other words Zhou Fu did not say much, but Finn knows that if you are sorry Zhou Leya, then the end will not be too good ah.

After they finished chatting, Finn didn't know how to open his mouth, so he thought of changing the subject by looking at the TV, at this moment, the auction had reached its end and started the last item to be auctioned.

Seeing the bidding item Finn suddenly came to be interested, this time really interested.

Because it was an item that Finn could understand, only a black token was placed on the stage, it was an ancient object at first glance, just like the general's order on the TV. But to

Finn 's surprise, what was written on the token was not a general or a marshal, but a 'dragon', and on the back of the token was a dragon totem drawn, but both the totem and the words were a bit blurry.

"This token is pretty cool." Finn praised.

The item was then about to be auctioned off, but the starting price of the item was even more surprising to Finn , it started at five million.

Sasha explained, "This token has no documentary records, but the substance on it has been tested by experts, it has existed for more than two thousand years, it's an object from the Qin dynasty, and has good collection value."

"Qin Dynasty object, I'm sure Charles will like it." Finn thought, and gave Charles a call.

Not only because Charles might like it, the point was that he had spent all the remaining tens of millions on the sixteen items he had just bid for, and only two million was in his account, which was not enough to bid for this token.

"Young Master, is there a problem?" Charles picked up the phone, the first sentence wasn't a greeting, instead it was because Finn was in trouble, which made Finn speechless.

Finn nuzzled his mouth and said, "It's also considered trouble, I've spent all my money, can you give me some more money."

"Spent it all? That fast? Good sign." Charles chuckled, "Young Master you finally got the hang of it and know how to do things with money, I thought you'd still be so frugal, buying millions of broken cars and houses and such."

"....."

Finn was speechless for a while, it turned out that a million luxury cars and a million houses were broken cars in Charles' heart ah.

"I did buy a million broken car, I didn't spend my money on myself, I was attending an underground auction and bought some things that I'm spending it on now. But the last auction item was a token, I looked very interested and wanted it."

Finn explained.

Charles, however, was suddenly silent, and Finn thought that Charles was unwilling, and became a little anxious, "What's wrong?No?"

"Young Master, can you describe what the token looks like?" Charles's voice was suddenly a bit quick, and even Finn felt that Charles was a bit nervous.

It was the first time that Finn saw Charles lose his temper, and suddenly felt bad, could it be that there was still some mystery in this token?

"This token is a bit marvelous to say the least, it looks like an ancient general's order, but it's not a general's order, it has a dragon written on the front and a dragon totem painted on the back, the host just said that it was unearthed during the Qin Dynasty, I thought you would like this kind of ancient object and wanted to buy it back for you." Finn explained.

"Dragon....Dragon sign!" Charles spoke straight into a stutter this time, breathing extremely fast.

"Charles, are you okay, do you want to go to the hospital?" Finn didn't hear Charles' words clearly, and thought that Charles was having a heart attack, after all, Charles was also old, and it was easy to have physical problems when excited.

Charles coughed a bit, took a few deep breaths, before stabilizing his mind: "young master, now is not the right time to say too much, I do not know if my phone is being monitored, anyway, is to make sure to take this item, the items you describe and the family has been looking for many years is very similar, rather shot wrong, can not let go, I will give you a billion, must be shot, not enough to give you again!Fight, young master cheer up!"

"What?A billion?I..." Before Evan could finish, Charles hung up the phone, apparently going to go call him money.

"What the hell is this?" Finn 's mentality couldn't be tensed, but it was surprising to have Charles lose his temper to such an extent, and the exit was one billion.Even a billion might not be enough?

Finn 's brain was confused for a moment.

Zhou Fu saw and heard only a few words from Finn , and frowned, "What's wrong?"

"It's fine, my housekeeper is from England, and has always yearned for our country's culture, so he likes to collect ancient objects, and as soon as I said the token just now, he fell in love with it, so it seems that I'm bound to get it." Finn didn't exactly tell the truth, after all, he had heard something related to the family.

So it was very likely that it was something big, not telling Zhou Fu was not intentionally hiding it, but he was worried about Zhou Fu getting involved in the incident.

Although he hadn't entered the family, but Finn knew from touching Wang Kexin that the family's methods weren't simple, and there was no telling how Zhou Fu might be silenced just by knowing some information.

Don't be afraid of the ten thousand, just in case.

As expected, Zhou Fu was also convinced of Finn's words, after all, they were all the sons-in-law he had identified, so there was naturally no reason not to believe in Finn.

"If it's inevitable, I suggest just using five million to make a move." Zhou Fu pondered for a moment and said.

Finn, however, was somewhat puzzled, "Why? I've gotten it at double the price before, just five million, will it work?"

"This item doesn't look special, saying five million is just because of its age, but if you bid ten million, you'll definitely be assumed to know what other secrets are in it, and it will naturally be competed for by someone who is interested. So five million, a guaranteed auction price, or come more reasonable. Especially since you've shot every item before, and people have no doubts about you."

Zhou Fu said a big push in one breath, and Finn also gradually double-eyed, indeed, what Zhou Fu said was reasonable.

Whirling around, Finn called the reception lady in, so he called for five million, and sure enough, no one continued to call for the starting price, so Finn got the item.

"Still, Uncle Zhou is powerful and came up with such a brilliant plan." Finn couldn't help but give a thumbs up to Zhou Fu.

Just like what Zhou Fu had said, if you kept bidding high and there was competition, it might not have cost more. Money was one aspect, but more importantly, after getting the item, it would also be missed, and Finn was still rather annoyed at this potential threat.

Being praised by Finn, Zhou Fu couldn't help but reveal a cheerful laugh, getting up and patting Finn's shoulder, "Stinker, you still have a lot to learn, I'm going to meet some of my old friends later, if you don't mind, you'll come along?"

Chow Fu's old friend, isn't that a big shot?

Finn whispered in his heart, nodding his head and agreeing, "Go go go, of course I'll go."

He came here just to get in touch with the big brother, now there's a chance why not go.

"Lian Ya sent me a message saying she's going back first, little girls are just thin-skinned, after that you take her out for a good walk." After a glance at the phone, Zhou Fu got up and prepared to leave the room.

"Sure sure sure." Finn accosted and after paying to get the token, he followed Zhou Fu and walked out.

As for the other auction items, Finn directly called Chen Xiang to come upstairs to pick them up and send them to him to the presidential suite, anyway, they were all unimportant, and Finn bought them just to demonstrate his financial strength to get closer to Zhou Fu.

Now have become a son-in-law, do not need these things.

As for the token, but Finn did not have any bag, but directly in the inner chest pocket of the suit.

Although it is better to put it in the box, but Finn is also afraid of people who have a mind to miss, in the bosom or more solid heart.

"Yo, isn't this Wu Yilong." When he left the room, Finn saw Wu Yilong.

Wu Yilong was about to break into a curse, but after seeing Zhou Fu, he suddenly put back the swear words that came to his mouth and said with a sour smile, "Meet Uncle Zhou, how is Uncle Zhou doing?"

"Well, it's not bad." Zhou Fu nodded, so he bypassed Wu Yilong, as if he had thought of something, Zhou Fu stopped and turned his head, "By the way, Wu Jia boy, stay away from Lilia in the future, she's already with Xiaofan. Don't blame me if I find out that you're doing something behind my back!"

"I...Got it." Wu Yilong opened his mouth and finally gave in.

Finn, on the other hand, made a ghost face, which made Wu Yilong's veins pop out in anger.

Finn was right in Zhou Fu's dead corner, so Zhou Fu didn't see Finn's expression, but when he saw Wu Yilong's expression, Zhou Fu suddenly snorted, "What, you're still not satisfied?"

"No no no, Uncle Zhou is wrong, I will stay away from Miss Zhou in the future, and I won't...Nor will I find trouble with Finn." Wu Yilong said this with seemingly all his strength.

He was already ready to take care of Finn, but now like this, he didn't dare to do it at all. It was like struggling to save up for a punch for a long time, but not allowing it to go out, almost suffocating him with internal injuries.

Only after walking for a while did Zhou Fu turn around and knock Finn's head, saying, "Don't make small moves, do you really think I can't see it. Don't look at Wu Yilong who seems to be obedient to me, but don't provoke him, his father is a building materials tycoon in Kaiyuan, his power doesn't have to be much smaller than mine, try not to provoke him in the future."

"District Kaiyuan's building materials tycoon, can he be worth more, one billion, or two billion?" Finn felt somewhat indifferent and took out his phone, saying, "Uncle Zhou, look, my family just gave me some pocket money."

"You're still young, don't be so crazy, a little pocket money from your family is nothing, you have to rely on yourself in the future." Zhou Fu glared at Finn with some hatred, but he still glanced at Finn's receipt text message and suddenly stared at him, "So much!"

Chapter 86

Zhou Fu was completely shocked by Finn 's cell phone text message, and upon closer inspection, it was one billion.

In Zhou Fu's opinion, Wu Yilong's father is indeed worth about 4 billion, but a lot of it is real estate, and the real liquidity is definitely not 1 billion.

But Finn had it, and that one billion was just pocket money ah.

"Is your family giving you all the pocket money in this life?" Zhou Fu was somewhat speechless, spare him this level, he didn't dare to underestimate the one billion.

After thinking about it, Finn shook his head and said, "My pocket money last month was one hundred million, and I just finished spending it just now, so one billion should reasonably be my pocket money for ten months. But this money is for me to buy things, so I guess it's not included in my normal allowance, it's considered extra-ordinary pocket money."

"I..."

Zhou Fu was completely speechless, but right after that was a cheerful laugh, and patted Finn 's shoulder: "I knew I had good eyes, I saw the man who could bring happiness to my daughter at a glance, originally I wanted to invite you for a night out, but now I think it's better for you to treat me, my pocket money isn't even a fraction of yours."

Indeed, even if he was running a five-star hotel, Zhou Fu didn't feel like living in style than Finn .

As for Finn 's identity, Zhou Fu wanted to ask but didn't, because he thought that Finn would naturally say what he wanted to say. A family like Finn 's, to say internationally famous family, Zhou Fu did not believe, so Zhou Fu's mind had already started to calculate which families with Aets over 100 billion and surname Ye.

Finn didn't know what Zhou Fu was thinking, he just accosted and smiled, "Uncle Zhou wants to go play, naturally he wants me to treat him, and this is also the kid's filial respect to Uncle Zhou." The first website m.

If it were anyone else, Finn would not be like this.

But this one in front of him was his father-in-law, he must be able to meet any request, after all, Zhou Fu had handed over his daughter to him.

"In previous years, it was always those old guys who bragged about finding some good son-in-law, this time it's finally my turn, but it's really out of breath." Zhou Fu smiled heedlessly, where there was a hint of a superior person's demeanor, completely an old child.

Only then did Finn understand, no matter what kind of person, as long as they interacted with equals, they would reveal their nature.

All of those pressures were shown to people who were a cl A or even several cl Aes below them.

With a realization in his mind, Finn 's mentality had unconsciously changed.

Finn went downstairs and drove, carrying Zhou Fu, and the two of them came back to Prosperity.

Other people went out to party to find a big hotel, but Zhou's Prosperous Star was already the biggest hotel, and it was five-star, and it was simply hard to find just the right hotel in Kaiyuan.

The prosperous star a total of twenty floors, from the eleventh floor is the accommodation, and the first floor to the tenth floor is the place to eat, Zhou Fu chose the tenth floor of the best view of the imperial box, after all, is to entertain old friends, the scene is still to do some of the card face.

It didn't take long, Zhou Fu's old friends have poured in, not to say the most speechless Finn or the boss of the 4S shop, originally Wang Mou helped Finn about 10 pm.

The company's CEO, Zhang Chang, is an old friend of Zhou Fu's. Finn doesn't have to think much about it, but he knows that Zhang Chang's original plan was to take advantage of the party to chat with Finn .

And when Zhang Chang saw Finn , he also smiled awkwardly and said, "Coming, I didn't expect that you were originally Mr. Zhou's son-in-law, I should have known that there was still an appointment for the evening, we would have met directly in the afternoon, it's really a surprise."

Looking at Zhang Chang touching his big bald head, Finn was both angry and amused.

But now Finn couldn't use Zhang Chang, after all, he had already entered the big brother circle through Zhou Fu.

Without chatting for a few sentences, the crowd settled down, still eating and drinking nonsense, laughing and talking about the wonderful things even more pounding the table, no difference with the thugs outside.

And Zhou Fu also introduced his son-in-law Finn to the crowd, but these people just nodded slightly and said a few words politely.

Finn also knows that these big brothers have their own insistence, that Finn is a junior, in Kaiyuan even more there is no family surnamed Ye, so even more do not care about Finn .

He was also happy to be free. He didn't like to exchange gl Aes with these people anyway, as they were all old guys in their forties and fifties, with whom he already had a generation gap.

But just when everyone was enjoying their drinks, the door was kicked open with a bang.

"What's wrong with you, Zi Mo!" A fat man who was drinking suddenly got up and ran to Zhang Zimo's body, asking with a nervous face.

Finn had a bit of an impression of this middle-aged fat man, the owner of the Imperial Hotel, which was Zhang Zimo's father, Zhang Dao Heng.

Zhang Zimo was covered in bandages and wearing a plaster cast, only his eyes and mouth parts were exposed.

With tears in his eyes, Zhang Zimo said resentfully, "Dad, why are you here, and you're drinking with Finn , do you know that Finn is the one who beat me up with this injury!"

"What, Evan?" Zhang Daoheng's color changed dramatically and turned his head to look at Zhou Fu angrily, "Zhou Fu, this son-in-law of yours is so capable that he dares to beat up my precious son, be sensible and hand this brat over to me to deal with, otherwise don't blame me for turning my face!"

"Are you threatening me?" Zhou Fu frowned, he had wanted to pretend to say a few words about Finn , but now it seemed to be directly dispensed with, Zhang Dao Heng was not giving him face.

"How do you watch the door, you actually let Zhang Zimo bring someone up here with a knife." Finn , on the other hand, called out his cell phone and sent a message to the two groups.

The interrogation bouncers and non-mainstream thugs replied back that they had just seen Zhang Zimo and his group, but they had just arrived at Prosperity and hadn't come in to stop them, and were now heading upstairs and would be there in about a minute.

When he got the reply, Finn 's heart was so sure that he picked up the bottle and just slammed it out, grunting, "Nima, surnamed Zhang, you still dare to call the shots with my father-in-law, if you have the ability to come at me, you're nothing!"

The bottle hit Zhang Daoheng's head squarely and shattered into gl A slag with a bang, while Zhang Daoheng's head also burst out scarlet liquid like a ruptured watermelon.

Zhou Fu looked stunned, but soon also picked up the bottle and said, "Well played, worthy of being my son-in-law. Bringing some people and pretending to be a pusher, really not taking my prosperous star in your eyes?"

Zhou Fu gave the waiter eyes as these people came in, called security, and figured it was almost time, so he wasn't panicking at all.

"Boss Zhou, are you alright?"

"Yeh, are you okay?"

Almost at the same time, Prosperity's security guards and also Finn 's bodyguards arrived in time to see a group of thugs brought by Zhang Zimo, and a big fight broke out, and the scene instantly descended into chaos!

87

Finn 's money for a bodyguard was not spent unjustly, and the security guards of Prosperity Star were also well trained, so it didn't take a minute to beat the group of thugs brought by Zhang Zimo to the ground, and they were all tied up with ropes.

"Zhang Dao Heng, you dead fatty, did you just threaten me?" Zhou Fu snorted coldly and walked in front of Zhang Dao Heng's face and smacked him in the face.

Finn also smacked Zhang Zimo's face with a casual slap.

"Alright, let's stop at the appropriate time."

At this moment, the big man who had just been sitting on the main seat at the wine table and hadn't spoken suddenly spoke up, his voice was not salty but very imposing.

Even Finn couldn't help but stop and turned his head to look at this crane-haired, dry and thin old man.

"Boss Bai!" Zhou Fu stopped his hands and didn't question Boss Bai's words.

Zhang Daoheng, however, said with an angry face, "Boss Bai, you have to decide for me ah, Finn beat my son, and now Zhou Fu is beating me."

Boss Bai snorted coldly, interrupting Zhang Daoheng's words and spoke faintly, "There are rules in the Tao, it's just a fight between juniors, what are you, an old man, interfering, and looking for someone to bring a knife to the door, you broke the rules first, and now that you haven't fought, you're still not convinced?"

"I...." Zhang Dao Heng also choked on Boss Bai's words. Remember the URL . . . net

White boss coldly snorted: "What you, you lost on the admission of fault, self-punishment three cups, this matter over. Otherwise we have to jointly remove you from Kaiyuan it, bad rules also ignorant, I see you these years is making a fool of yourself, forget who you are!"

Upon hearing the words, Zhang Daohang looked shocked, no longer defending himself, directly bowing three times and reciting three cups in a row, "Boss Bai I was wrong, Brother Zhou I was wrong, I am willing to punish myself three cups and laugh off my grudges."

"Well, that's right, drink the wine, remove the people, don't delay our drinking elegance." Boss Bai chuckled.

Finn looked at everything that was happening in front of him, his heart had already stirred up a huge – wave, for no other reason, it was just that Boss Bai was really powerful, like an earth emperor, he could dissolve hatred with a single word, too powerful.

Finn made up his mind that he wanted to become such a powerful person in the future.

Just as he was enjoying his future in his heart, Finn received a call from Charles.

"Young Master, where are you, I'm in your room, why didn't you come back, did something happen?" Charles inquired, sounding a little anxious.

"I'm eating in private room 1 on the tenth floor, so come over." Finn said, and hung up the phone.

Now Finn was no longer surprised by any of Charles' actions, half an hour ago in Golden Sands City, now appearing in Kaiyuan City, two hours away and half an hour to complete, Charles' ability to do things is a masterpiece, Finn was sincerely impressed.

"Bang!"

It didn't take a minute for Charles to break down the door and enter.

In the eyes is a mess, there is a large pile of tied people, there are knives on the ground, Charles frowned and scanned the whole field, after seeing Finn, ran to Finn side: "Young master, are you okay? Is someone looking for you."

Without waiting for Finn to speak, Boss Bai stood up violently and shuddered, "Mr. Charles, how did you come to a small place like Kai Yuan ah, had I known you were coming, I definitely would have greeted you with eight palanquins."

"Little Bai? Why are you here, are you looking for someone to bully my young master." Charles eyebrows were even more locked, as if Boss Bai said one wrong word, Charles was about to violently beat Boss Bai.

Boss Bai waved his hands repeatedly, "Mr. Charles, you really think highly of me, how am I capable of that. You are an existence that I cannot look up to in my eyes, your young master, such an honorable existence, how dare I mess with you."

Boss Bai followed Charles's eyes and saw Finn, his pupils couldn't help but shrink, trembling, "You, are you the young master that Mr. Charles said?"

"Yeah, I am, what are you so polite about, Boss White?" Finn was really confused, but Boss Bai, who Finn admired immensely in front of him, was like a grandson when he saw Charles.

The existence that was pointing out the mountains just now was really the Boss Bai in front of him?

Finn couldn't help but have doubts.

"Don't call me Boss Bai, just call me Little Bai, I can't afford to be called Boss Bai, I still want to live a few more years." Boss Bai almost didn't cry out in a hurry.

"This..." Finn was so stuffed, he didn't even know what to say.

Charles leaned forward slightly and made an inviting gesture: "Young Master, let's go back first, I still have some things to discuss with you."

Since the white boss suddenly turned into a little white, the scene of dozens of people is all silent, do not dare to make a sound, also do not know whether it is shocked, or speechless.

Finn was a bit overwhelmed by the atmosphere in front of him and also wanted to leave as soon as possible, so he nodded and said, "Fine."

After saying that, he walked out of the private room first.

Charles, on the other hand, deliberately lagged a step behind to see Finn out of the private room before slapping Boss Bai's face and grunting, "Fortunately, nothing happened to my young master, otherwise the consequences would never be something you can bear. Hurry up and deal with whoever is bothering my young master, just give you an hour, I want to see the results!"

"Understood, understood!" Boss White nodded his head and waited, which was not the least bit complaining.

"Mr. Charles, you are busy first, surely you will complete the task you explained." Saying that, Boss Bai ran all the way to open the door for Charles and escorted Charles away respectfully.

It wasn't until Charles left that Zhou Fu looked confused and asked, "Boss Bai, what is the status of my son-in-law?"

"Brother Zhou, I'm not at liberty to reveal his identity, you just need to know that you've picked up a treasure, in the future, you'll be able to walk across the Kaiyuan and set the ground to the sky without a bit of trouble."

Boss Bai smiled obsequiously and thought, "I'm getting older, it's time for me to retire, Brother Zhou, this Kaiyuan boss position, I think it's very appropriate for you to be it."

"This...."Zhou Fu didn't answer, but there was already a huge – wave in his heart.

Boss Bai was a mysterious existence in his eyes, having dominated the position of the Kaiyuan Dragon Head for thirty years now, and no matter what was going on in the open or in the dark, if anyone was displeased with Boss Bai, they would be dealt with at the first opportunity.

But the Boss Bai in front of him was even able to give up the position of the dragon head, and Charles had just slapped Boss Bai, who didn't even resist. Suffice it to say, Zhou Fu he had really picked up a treasure this time, and it was still the top prize.

"I'm not convinced! Give it to him on what grounds!" Zhang Dao Heng snorted, "Boss Bai, I think you're also old, you're even worthy of being a boss when you're slapped in public and you're still compensating for it, you're really a disgrace to our Kaiyuan!"

At the words, Boss White sneered, "Mr. Charles slapped me for recognizing me, but if I hadn't been there, would you still be sitting here safely now? Kaiyuan has already started the big shuffle!"

Saying that, he waved his hand and said, "The Zhang family and the Emperor will henceforth be removed from the Kaiyuan, and all Aets will be managed by Brother Zhou. As for Zhang Daohang and Zhang Zimo, throw them into the Golden River and feed them to the fish!"

"Young Master, are you really okay? Should we go get a doctor?"

While Boss Bai was shuffling the cards for Kai Yuan, Charles, who caused the strife, looked at Finn with a worried face.

Finn waved his hand, "I'm really fine, but Charles, tell me the truth, are you really the butler? At any rate, Boss Bai is a big shot sitting in Kaiyuan, so how is he obeying you?"

Evan looked at Charles with a slightly suspicious eye.

The family wouldn't let him ask, so it was always okay to ask Charles about his identity, right?

Charles chanted for a moment and seemed to have made up his mind, "Young Master, first show me the token you're bidding for, if it's really what the family wants, I'll reveal some information to you."

"Really?" Evan was delighted, before whether he was soft or hard, it didn't help in the slightest, but now there were some eyebrows, he even took out the token in his bosom, expecting really what Charles was looking for.

"Like, very like!"

Charles took the token and his hands couldn't stop shaking.

Carefully placing the token on the table, Charles opened the large box on the table.

Evan was sure that he didn't have this box in his room, it should have been brought by Charles himself.

Only to see Charles open the box and first put on a pair of gloves, after which he took out some bottles and jars.

Seeing these containers filled with colorful liquids, Finn wondered, "What are these?"

Charles didn't rush to do anything, and first gave Finn an explanation, "These are some corrosive chemicals, what the family is looking for isn't actually a token, but a jade medallion. It's not convenient to reveal the details, I'll explain to you after the authenticity is verified."

Charles's explanation was hollow, making Finn even more confused.

A jade medallion? What is it?

Finn looked at the encrusted token and suddenly had a flash of wisdom, "Charles, you're saying that this exterior layer isn't what the token originally looked like, and inside is a jade medallion?"

"If it's true, that is." Charles took several deep breaths, making sure his fingers weren't shaking, before picking up a beaker and pouring in different types of liquid, and after stirring it up with a stir stick, he picked up the token with tweezers and prepared to put it in the beaker.

"Wait!"

Evan suddenly stopped and said, "Charles, you said these are corrosive and won't harm the jade medallion inside? Don't ruin it."

Finn was really wanting to know something about the family, and was extraordinarily nervous at the moment.

Charles smiled and shook his head, "Young Master please rest assured, these chemical supplies are professionally debugged and will not affect the jade. I liked to study when I was young, and now I have a doctorate in chemistry, so this kind of simple chemical experiment is still not a problem."

A PhD in Chemistry?

Evan was a bit speechless, he found that the more he came into contact with Charles, the less he could see through him instead. But he was still relieved, Charles was never going to joke about such things.

Holding his breath, Finn watched as Charles dipped the token into the beaker with the tweezers, and suddenly the color of the liquid in the beaker changed, and also produced many small bubbles, while the token was like a cocoon, rapidly melting away, gradually revealing its original appearance.

"Out of the green, out of the green!" Finn didn't know where he learned the words, but anyway, it was very intuitive to see the black shell on the token melting, followed by a touch of green.

And as time passed, the green became more and more green, and after about half an hour, there were no other impurities on the token, it was green all over, and the token had turned into a so-called jade medallion at the moment.

And the word 'dragon' on the front and the dragon totem on the back had completely surfaced, it couldn't help but be clearly visible and vivid, Finn even felt that if he wasn't careful, the dragon would easily fly out, the carving was so lifelike, the only flaw was that the dragon totem's eyes were godless.

No!

It's the eye area with nothing in it, a small hole in the skeleton.

"Is this...Is it real?"

Finn didn't have the time to ask why it was so well preserved after such a long period of time, only caring about whether the jade medallion was real or not, because this kind of small hole was completely impossible with ancient techniques, just like laser penetration.

Charles carefully placed the jade medallion on a piece of white cloth before letting out a sigh of relief, followed by his old face turning red and saying excitedly, "Young Master, I've seen the tiger medallion and it looks similar to this one, at least in appearance it should be real, but further confirmation is still needed."

"Still need to confirm?"

Evan was not happy to hear that the appearance was real, but having to confirm it further made Evan's heart mention it again, making him a little nervous.

Charles took an ultraviolet light out of his toolbox, it was almost the same as the one on the money checker, the only difference was that it was bigger.

Charles got up and turned off the lights in the room, picked up the jade medallion, and shone the UV lamp at it, and suddenly, an amazing scene happened.

It was seen that the jade medallion was directly translucent and mapped onto the wall, but there was a section of red lines in the jade medallion, also mapped onto the wall, roughly resembling a dragon totem, but instead of reflecting with the word 'dragon' on the front, it formed a map-like line.

But to say that the thing that surprised Finn the most was the small hole in the jade plate at the location of the dragon's eye, which directly emitted a purple point of light that shone on this section of the map, marking a point of light on the line, like coordinates.

"How about it, is it real?"

Finn felt Charles' rapid breathing and couldn't help but ask.

Charles first carefully placed the jade medallion on the white cloth and turned on the lights in the room, before leaping violently and clenching his fists, "That's right, young master, it's true without error, I'm 100% sure it's true, young master has really done a great job for the family this time!"

"It's good that it's true."

Although Finn was foggy and didn't know what Charles was talking about, he was also very happy to know that it was true, after all, Charles had promised him that he would reveal some secrets about the family.

After a long time of excitement alone, Charles went out to make a phone call and returned only after a long time.

"Young Master, I spoke to Master on the phone, and Master is very satisfied with your performance this time." Saying that, Charles took out an exquisite small box from the toolbox.

After entering the p Aword, the box opened and Charles discreetly placed the jade medallion into the small cipher box.

"My father is satisfied with me, is it possible for me to return to the family?" Finn was somewhat pleased.

Charles shook his head and said, "Young Master, this encounter is very rare, it doesn't count as part of the Aessment, the commendation for your satisfaction is that you can tell some things about the family. In addition, Master considers you to be a person of great luck, Master has been looking for the jade medallion for many years and couldn't find it, but you got it in a small place like Kaiyuan, I must say, it's all luck."

"Can't go back ah." Finn was disappointed, but with a twinkle in his eye, he asked, "Then can you tell me what a jade medallion is?"

Charles hesitated for a moment, "This was originally one of the family's top secrets, but Young Master made a great achievement, so I'll tell you in advance. The jade medallion was made by the First Emperor of Qin, it consists of a total of twelve, each representing the twelve zodiac signs, and it is rumored that if you collect the jade medallion, you will be able to get a map of the real Qin Shihuang Mausoleum, and then you will be able to enter the mausoleum."

"But the twelve zodiac signs only appeared in the Eastern Han Dynasty, and is there any benefit to entering the Yellow Mausoleum?"

Finn was a bit baffled, the family could casually give him hundreds of millions of dollars in pocket money and still be interested in the royal mausoleum?

"Young Master is quite knowledgeable, but the appearance of the Eastern Han Dynasty is a documentary record, why couldn't it have appeared before the documentary record, it was just a matter of concealing it from those who were interested at the time. It was only after the Ye ancestors obtained a tiger medallion that they realized it was made by the Qin Emperor." Charles paused and continued, "Too many inconveniences to say, in short, the reason why the Ye Family rose to power and has been very prosperous until now is because of the tiger medallion."

"What?"

Now Finn was truly shocked, just relying on a jade medallion to rise to power and stand for hundreds of years, that jade medallion really had a lot of hidden secrets.

No wonder the family would make an exception and tell him some information, Charles was so excited.

Just because of this dragon medallion, the family's strength could be doubled!

Evan also knew that it would be impossible to ask any more questions about the family, so he asked the simplest question, "Charles, why would the White Elder Council listen to you?"
First web site

"You said Sebastian, Sebastian was a bottom feeder when he was young, but he was kind-hearted, so I just helped him out randomly." Charles said indifferently.

Finn was suddenly blinded, a casual helping hand and he became a big shot?

And it was when Sebastian was young, so doesn't that mean that Charles was very powerful at a young age.

Charles seemed to see what Finn was thinking, so he took the initiative to say, "Young Master, the reason why the old master is so relieved with me is because our Charles family has been in contact with the Ye family since hundreds of years ago and became the steward of the Ye family. I grew up with the previous lord."

The previous Master? That wouldn't be my grandfather.

Finn struck a nerve, Finn originally thought that Charles was just a mere housekeeper, but it turned out that he was also the son of a big family that had remained for hundreds of years.

"Don't worry young master, I'm just the housekeeper of the Ye family, just tell me what to do. But now I might have to leave first and prepare to return to the family to resume my life, after all, the jade medallion is no small matter, and the young master will have to live alone for the next month." Charles was a little worried.

Finn waved his hand and said, "It's only a month, I'm not a kid anymore, don't worry about me, just feel free to go back and get busy."

"Then I'm leaving first, young master, be safe!" After looking deeply at Finn, Charles turned around and left.

Finn originally wanted to see Charles off, but saw that Charles actually took the elevator directly to the top floor. The next thing he heard was the rumbling of a helicopter, and it dawned on him that Charles was actually taking a private plane back to his family.

After a pause of speechlessness, the planes all flew away, so Finn did not go to send.

"Finally, I've done a big thing for old dad, looks like I'll have to keep an eye out for this kind of token in the future."

Finn returned to his room with a happy mood.

Without waiting for Finn to lie down, he received a call from Zhou Fu, "Uncle Zhou, what's the matter?"

"Nothing much, Xiaofan are you busy right now, if not come down for a meal, it's on the tenth floor in box 9." Zhou Fu was obviously drunk, and his speech was still a bit slurred.

Finn nodded and said, "Okay, I'll be right down."

Hanging up the phone, Finn went downstairs in a flash.

Entering compartment 9, Finn took a quick glance and saw that it was the same group of big shots from earlier, but without Zhang Daohang and Zhang Zimo, and to Finn's surprise, the one sitting on the main seat now was not Boss Bai, but Zhou Fu.

Feeling the scorching eyes cast by the group of big brothers, Finn somewhat unnaturally came to Zhou Fu's side and asked, "What's wrong, Uncle Zhou?"

"Nothing, just happy. You didn't eat well just now when the Zhang family and his sons were causing trouble, come come come come, just eat whatever you want, not enough to order again." Zhou Fu laughed, the redness on his face not diminishing, a mouthful of alcohol.

"Ye Shao, where is Mr. Charles? Why don't you see him?" Boss Bai was sitting on Zhou Fu's side, inquiring with a flattering face.

Seeing a dry and skinny old man flattering himself, Finn couldn't help but shiver, the one in front of him was at least a big brother of Kaiyuan, this was too unforgiving.

"Charles is doing some business, so I'll leave first." Finn responded.

Boss Bai nodded and smiled again, "I'm sorry, Ye Shao, I didn't notice you just now, so please bear with me. Now that I've stepped down, Big Brother Zhou will be the head of Kai Yuan from now on. As for the Zhang family, I've already dealt with it cleanly, are you still satisfied with this arrangement, Ye Shao?"

"Satisfied, satisfied." Finn was surprised, but could accept it.

After all, Charles had explained to him that Boss Bai's journey to the top was supported by Charles. Guessing that in Boss Bai's heart, Charles was heaven, right?

"Come, come, Little Fan, let me introduce you, this fatty is my right-hand man, now taking over all of the Zhang family's business and influence, if anything happens in the future, just look for him directly, it's absolutely easy to use in Kaiyuan."Zhou Fu pulled over Finn and pointed to a tall fat man sitting in the corner.

The fat man even got up and trotted to Finn with his wine gl A in his hand, saying, "Ye Shao, my name is Zhang Yuan, just call me Xiaoyuan, if you need anything in the future, just call out, on call, I guarantee that I'll go up and down for Ye Shao, I salute you!"

Saying that, Zhang Yuan drank it all in one go.

"Fine fine." Finn took out his phone and opened WeChat, exchanging tweets with Zhang Yuan to facilitate contact.

Next, Zhou Fu was pointing at the others and introducing them one by one for Finn .

Although Finn didn't know these people, but just by listening to the titles, he knew that they were all one of the top big men in Kaiyuan City, but these big men were all like grandsons at the moment and were extremely polite to Finn with low eyebrows.

Just by exchanging tweets with Finn , they excitedly toasted and drank several gl Aes in a row.

As early as an hour ago, but these people were lovingly ignoring Finn , now more than a grandson, one after another obsequiously looking at Finn , how can there be any big brother's temperament.

However, Finn also knew that to have this effect was still attributed to his identity, or Charles's previous appearance, which created all this.

But no matter what, Finn felt these big brother's kneeling and licking, still extremely comfortable inside.

"Xiao Fan ah, when the father-in-law has nothing to give you as a meeting gift, this jade pendant is for you to wear."Zhou Fu thought about it and handed the tiger-shaped jade pendant necklace around his neck to Finn .

Boss Bai was first stunned at the sight, but soon nodded in a dazed manner, "So very good, so very good!"

"What's this?" Finn suddenly felt that something wasn't right, if it was Zhou Fu's jade pendant, why would Boss Bai interrupt to talk.

Without thinking too much, Finn could also guess that the jade pendant was different.

What's more, Finn was extremely sensitive to jade products after the incident with the jade tablet.

Zhou Fu knew that he couldn't hide it, so he accosted me and said, "Xiao Fan ah, actually I also know that I'm not worthy of the position of the Kaiyuan Dragon Head, many of the people present are stronger than me, why should it be given to me, it's all because of you ah!"

"No, it's also luck, since it chose you, it's yours." Finn ton frowned, in his opinion, Zhou Fu was very dignified as a superior, even if he was sitting at the dragon's head, he was still reliable.

But Zhou Fu shook his head and said, "No, it's not me they're serving, it's Boss Bai, and even more so Mr. Charles above Boss Bai, and the source of everything is you ah.If you weren't my son-in-law, how could I have gotten this position.I've already gotten a lot of benefits from the Zhang family sharing it with me, so I've already thought of this leading position, and it has to be you!"

Saying that, Zhou Fu swept the entire arena.

All the big men nodded in recognition and said in unison, "So very good, please ask Ye Shao to promise to become the Dragon Head!" Remember the URL .

"Please ask Ye to promise to become the Dragon Head!"

With a heavy voice, Zhou Fu patted Finn 's shoulder and said, "See, compared to me, they obey you more.Dragon Head is not only suppressing, but also taking Kaiyuan to a better place.Previously, Boss Bai was re-elected because of some of Mr. Charles' connections, and you, naturally, needless to say, everyone is convinced."

Saying that, Zhou Fu put the jade pendant directly on Finn 's neck and waved his hand, "From now on, Finn is the Dragon Head of our Kaiyuan!"

"Congratulations Ye!Congratulate Ye!"

The crowd of big shots present once again drank in unison.

Finn was exuberant, so he didn't refuse. In fact, in his heart, he didn't want to refuse, after all, such a high status, for the previous him, it was something he wouldn't even dream of.

Closer to home, even in the morning Finn was still trying to get into the upper class circle, but now he had become the leader of the big boys, the dragon head of Kaiyuan City!

"I'd like to propose a toast to everyone's recognition!"

Finn lifted his wine glass and drank it down, and the other big shots also got up. Each of the old faces were creased with smiles and cast good-natured glances at Finn.

The banquet only ended at four in the morning after a night of revelry.

Returning to his room Finn slept until two in the afternoon before getting up, thinking back to yesterday's events, Finn could not help but raise the corners of his mouth.

It was as he guessed, as long as he was strong enough and at a higher level than others, then either the bottom or the big brother would kneel and lick him.

Society was such a reality, and Finn enjoyed this reality very much.

Touching the tiger-shaped jade pendant around his neck, Finn's heart was full of energy. Charles just let him stay in Kaiyuan for a month, Finn was still despondent, but now he was very relieved.

After all, he was the biggest and could make things up as he pleased here.

After simply washing up, Finn went out of the presidential suite, along the way, all the waiters seemed to know him and bowed to greet him when they saw him.

Finn didn't have a shelf to respond to each and every one of them, and in his heart, he guessed that it should be Zhou Fu's arrangement.

"Where should we go to play?"

Finn simply ate lunch at the hotel and then started to figure out where to go.

"How about going to find Zhou Leya?"

As soon as Finn came up with the idea, he was called out from behind by a man.

"Ye Shao, is that you?"

Finn turned his head and saw a pretty little girl in a cheongsam standing behind him, his only concern was the hint of sadness between the little girl's brows.

"What's wrong? Autumn Rain?"

Finn did not ask out, the little girl in front of him was considered to be one of the few people he knew in Kaiyuan City, it was the Li Qiuyu who worked in the suit shop earlier and now worked in Prosperity.

Li Qiuyu's eyes flashed with a gleam of light, and she was a little happy: "Ye Shao still remembers me."

But just a little happy, Li Qiuyu looked as if he was in a difficult situation: "Ye Shao, I want to trouble you about something, is it okay?"

"Huh?" Finn was slightly startled.

Li Qiu Yu thought that Finn didn't want to agree, and immediately explained, "Ye Shao, I heard the order from above in the morning, saying that the whole hotel should obey you, I knew that your identity is not ordinary, that's why I came to plead with you, this matter is just a small matter to you, please help me."

"Fine, fine, don't worry, let's talk in my room."

Finn hurried to stabilize Li Qiuyu, afraid that Li Qiuyu would cry out at a bad time.

"To your room?" Li Qiuyu slightly panicked, but seemed to have made up her mind, nodding her head, "Okay."

But Finn didn't think much about it, he had wanted to go out and find something to do after dinner, but now that he actively had something to do, Finn was happy to do so.

In the past, Finn was seldom meddling in idle affairs and could not afford to, but now it was different. Even if an old lady fell on the road, Finn dare to help, whether or not to touch porcelain does not matter, after all, now have the capital.

Taking the elevator, in about two minutes' time, Finn brought Li Qiuyu to his room.

"Alright, go ahead."

Finn walked in front and took off his jacket and threw it on the sofa, so he raised his legs and plopped down on the sofa, but just looking up, Finn was confused.

"Qiu Yu, what are you doing?"

What Finn didn't expect anyhow was that Li Qiuyu was taking off her clothes. It was just Li Qiuyu who was wearing a white cheongsam, if she were to take it off again, then there would only be underwear left ah.

This scene couldn't help but make Finn think of how Zhou Leya undressed when she first came to Prosperity last night.

Is it all the rage now to take off your clothes when you enter a house?

Zhou Rian Ya is trying to tease Finn, so why is Li Qiuyu?

Just when Finn was puzzled, Li Qiuyu was already in tears: "Ye Shao, although I haven't experienced it, but I know more or less, didn't you make me come to the room just to want me. It's just as well, you help me I can't repay, just take the body to repay, don't worry, I'm not just any woman, I'm still uncircumcised."

Saying that, Li Qiuyu had unbuttoned the last button, and with a gentle pull, the white cheongsam would fall to the ground.

Finn's instinct for such an exciting scene was to watch it. Of course, the premise was that Li Qiuyu wasn't looking like she was crying.

Getting up, Finn rushed to Li Qiuyu's face and was about to pull Li Qiuyu's cheongsam.

He had already heard that there was a hidden agenda, so he didn't want to take advantage of the danger and take over Li Qiuyu's body in this way.

However, Finn didn't know anything about cheongsams at all, and only focused on tugging on the waist to prevent the cheongsam from falling off, but because of the special design of this cheongsam, the otherwise well-intentioned tugging pulled the cheongsam completely off of Li Qiuyu's body all of a sudden....
