

Chapter 1760

Zayn turned around and saw that it was an old man in his sixties, who was speaking.

The old man sighed. "This girl is an evil creature! Her mother had worked so hard for twenty years. Her father was too selfish and he just won't let her and her mother acknowledge each other. With many difficulties, her mother had finally seen her grow up. She clearly knew that her father was wrong, but she still chose to be with her father. She even teamed up with her father to trick her biological mother. They were planning to drain all of her mother's money till there is nothing left!"

Zayn looked at the old man in a daze. "Sir, you are..."

"She came to the village a few days ago and had asked me about the past. I had told her everything clearly. I originally thought that she would reconcile with her mother. However, I never expected that she would be planning with her dad at home on how to set her mother up. I have been following her all the way here. Although I knew what she was going to do, I did not know her mother's contact, so I have been following her these past three days. I had just followed her to the entrance of the hospital and when I was hesitating if I should follow her into the hospital, I saw her hesitating if I should follow her into the hospital, I saw her running out with her face covered in tears.”

Tessa did not watch the cars on the road. She just kept running and wailing. The old man, who had been following her, heard what she was wailing very clearly. She truly was like an insane person and she kept repeating, “Zayn is mine! Zayn originally should be mine.”

What should be or should not be? Therefore, at that moment, that old man truthfully said to Zayn, “She deserved to die. This was the end she deserved.”

Zayn nodded. He instructed the personnel in charge of this case, as well as the family of the victim. “First take her body

There was a pause before he turned around to tell his driver, "Don't let my wife know about this matter. She has just gotten pregnant. I'm afraid this would be a blow to her."

However, just as Zayn said that, a cry came from behind him.

"Tessa! Tessa! My Tessa!" That voice was incomparably miserable.

Zayn turned his head back and saw Hana rushing over and throwing herself at the side of Tessa's body. The two personnel were about to put Tessa into a body bag to carry into the car, but they had to stop then.

“Tessa, my daughter...” Hana hugged Tessa’s head as if she had gone mad.

“Who are you? The mother of asked.

Zayn sneered behind them. “She

The personnel were speechless.
Although they did not know they could not say anything as off by the driver quite a distance away from the hospital. However, she kept feeling anxious, she just felt uneasy. Not long after they had driven off, she said to the driver, "I'm feeling extremely anxious. Take me back to the hospital. I seemed to have left something there."

The driver did not dare to go against the madam, so he followed her orders and drove back to the hospital. When they were at a traffic light before they arrived at the hospital, Hana saw that many people were talking. "Such a terrible car accident. I heard that the woman who had died was very young."

"I heard that she had been acting crazy on the busy road which caused the accident?"

"I heard that she had been acting crazy on the busy road which caused the accident?"

"Hurry up and go have a look!"

Many people were running towards the scene of the car accident. Hana instantly became worried. She said to the driver in a trembling voice, "Quickly! Go to the scene of the car accident!"

The driver did not respond.

"Quickly!"

The driver immediately turned the car around and within a couple of minutes, they arrived at the scene. The closer they got to the scene, the more intense the pounding of Hana's heart. She was supported by the driver as she walked step by step to the
