

Chapter 1762

Hector was stunned by Hana's slap. Everyone present was also stunned by that action. Only that villager who had followed Tessa all the way here sighed. "Hector, serves you right!"

At that moment, Hana spoke up after she had slapped Hector. Calmness had taken over her sorrow and there was slightly more peace in her gaze. Her daughter was gone. Nothing was more sorrowful than that for Hana, who was a mother.

However, at that moment when she saw Hector, Hana knew that everything happened because of Hector. It was all because of this man! Since her daughter was already gone, then Hana had to settle all scores with this man!

man! Since her daughter was already gone, then Hana had to settle all scores with this man!

Hana suddenly shouted angrily, "Listen to me carefully, Hector Caven!"

Hector shuddered and he did not dare to cry anymore. He just looked at Hana in a daze.

"I will handle my daughter's funeral! I will properly lay her to rest! As for the savings I had saved for my daughter, the money that was saved in both our names, I will take back everything! I will not leave a single penny for you! Because we had never been married, you and I were cohabitating illegally and we had even given birth to a daughter! To be more specific, you had kidnapped me, who was daughter! To be more specific, you had kidnapped me, who was still a minor, back then! Now that my daughter is gone, I have no relations with you at all anymore! It is only natural that I won't give you even a single penny!"

Upon saying that, Hana sighed. "I know you certainly will think that if I don't give you money, then you will not let me have it easy. Without half of the pin from you, I will not be able to withdraw the money! However, don't you forget that I was the one who put every single penny in there every month! I have saved the proof every month!"

Hana smiled with relief. "However, I think even if I don't give you money, your store and the money you have on hand is this is her fate. just could not accept that I had gotten a wrong report, could not accept that I am a healthy person, and even more so could not accept that I have married you. It was as if you had snatched away her happiness from her. Actually, that is not the case, Hana," Zayn persuaded Hana in a soft voice.

Hana fell into Zayn's arms weakly and sobbed. "Zayn...did I do something wrong?"

Zayn wrapped his hand around Hana. "You are not wrong. You did not do anything wrong.

Hana, don't be too sad. We...we have to first let Tessa be laid to rest."

"Mm-hmm." Hana cried so hard that she could not even open her eyes.

daughter's accident while he was also shocked by Hana's behavior of going against him. At that moment, Hector was utterly and incomparably in despair.

"Get lost!" Hana only said two words.

Hector was speechless. Hana did not look at Hector anymore, but she and Zayn looked at each other instead. Zayn then immediately instructed the personnel to start cleaning up the scene.

It was very simple to resolve the case of this accident. Zayn had compensated everyone that was supposed to be compensated. What was left was Tessa's funeral, and it was also arranged by Zayn.

Hector, who was Tessa's biological father, was just like an outsider. He could not intercept the arrangements at all.

However, after everything had been settled, Hana still handed the urn to Hector. Anybody could tell that Tessa was closer to her father, so just let her soul be close to her father. That would save her from losing her way home in heaven.

Hector hugged the urn and returned to his house, but the laughter could no longer be heard there. From then on, Hector would be the only person in that huge house. He was already old. He could no longer have a wife and children in this life anymore. He had been setting Hana up for his whole life, and he had been irresponsibly taking full advantage of Hana, but what was the result that he got in the end? If Hector and his daughter had not planned on how to destroy Hana and how to get more money out of Hana in the past few days, how was it possible for his daughter to go looking for Hana at the hospital?
