

the hospital to visit Uncle Poole's wife and child," Aino replied.

Chapter 1856

The Hospital? That was something Maysun truly did not expect. Also, they are going to see Alex's wife and child? If Lily came with them, then would that not be a huge bargain for Lily? Haha!

"Alright, little child, but you have to show me the way," said Maysun.

"Mm-hmm. I will show you the way, Miss Maysun. Don't worry," said Aino.

When they reached another stoplight, Maysun got excited and was busy texting Lily again.

[Lily, do you know where Aino wanted to go?]

Lily was driving, so she impatiently replied. [I'm almost catching up to you. Don't disturb me again!]

Maysun did not care. She sent another text to Lily.

[I'm telling you that Aino wanted to go to the hospital. The person staying in that hospital is Alex's wife, who is also that woman that you hated to your bones. What's the name again?]

Maysun truly did not know what was the name of Alex's wife. However,

Lily had it etched in her memory.

[You mean, Aino wants to go visit Jane Sheen?]

[Yes, yes, yes! Also, when Aino and I had just walked out of the door, I saw Alex had come to the Ford Residence.]

[Alex is now at the Ford Residence. That means he is not by Jane's side...]

On the other end, Lily, who had stopped her car at the roadside and was focused on texting, had both her hands trembling.

Jane Sheen! It turned out that she was rushing to the hospital that Jane was staying at. Haha! God was truly blessing her! Lily suddenly recalled what Holden had said to her when he was spying at Sabrina and Aino in South City back then. He had said, "It doesn't matter that you can no longer give birth anymore. Jane had just given birth to a child now. You just have t didn't. It seems that her so-called ability to remember the routes was just being able to remember the route to her kindergarten and the route to get back to her house. As for the other routes, she had no clue at all. She is totally relying on me to navigate.]

After a short while, Lily replied. [Don't worry. You can follow me. I know the way!]

During that time when

Holden was spying on Sabrina and Aino with high-powered binoculars, Lily had often gone to look for Holden.

Therefore, not only did she know which hospital it was, but she even knew which ward Jane was in.

Maysun texted. [Alright! I'm wishing you in advance for you to return with plenty of achievements!]

After she sent off the text, Maysun drove off but she
