Chapter 1863

The purpose of Lily doing that was to make Jane happy. It was so that Jane would let her go once she felt happy. Who knew that Jane was even more disgusted when she heard Lily was really saying that.

"You're really disgusting! It's so right that Alex didn't choose you!" said Jane as she chased her away.

At the same time, Jane released her hand that was pulling Lily's hand and took the scissors away. Lily immediately collapsed onto the floor. She truly never expected that a woman would actually have such a big difference before and after she had given birth to a child. Before Jane had her child, she was still innocent as a young girl. However, at that moment, Jane was a complete tigerish woman. She was incredibly tough! Even though her life was in a critical condition a week ago, at was in a critical condition a week ago, at that moment, Jane was still a tigerish woman who was very tough and had a strong fighting power. That was something Lily had neglected. She had failed to see how truly powerful a mother who had just given birth to a child could be. 1

Fortunately, Lily was released. She hung her head and her gaze was glinting with a malicious light, but once she raised her head, she still looked at Jane miserably. "Missus Poole, I will leave immediately. I will leave instantly! I'm leaving now!"

After saying that, she fled out of the ward frantically. Both of Jane's hands were also trembling. The pair of scissors fell on herself and it poked her right on her leg. However, there were not any wounds at all on her leg. That was a pair of toy scissors. She was in the maternity ward. There were many mothers who had just given birth staying there. Many of them had just given birth to their second child, so most of their firstborns were children around five years old. Many of those children would be there to accompany their mothers. One of the children often came to Jane's ward to play. That child was an inquisitive child who liked to ask why very much.

"Ma'am, how does such a long umbilical cord of a little baby get cut off?" That child asked Jane.

"Well, it was cut short with a pair of scissors," Jane patiently said.

The child immediately cried in fear. "Ma'am, then...does he feel pain?"

Jane was speechless. She could not answer, and she also did not know the answer. However, she wanted to comfort the little child's soul, so she said, "If it was a pair of toy scissors that doesn't hurt the skin, then it's not painful."

The child then remembered it. Toy

The child then remembered it. Toy scissors.

The following day, that child actually brought a pair of toy scissors that looked like a real one to Jane. "Ma'am, this pair of scissors is for you. When you have your second baby, you will be able to use it. My mum can't use such scissors now because she is giving birth to her second child now." 1

Jane felt touched and she accepted the pair of scissors. She never expected that it would come in handy that day.

Jane held that pair of scissors, smiling. "Dear scissors, you have helped me. Although you are just a pair of toy scissors, you're just as useful as a pair of real scissors when it comes to deterring j*rks! I will have to keep you properly in the future." 1

Just as she said that, she heard a peal of wicked laughter coming from the door. "

Just as she said that, she heard a peal of wicked laughter coming from the door. "Good for you, Jane. You actually tricked me! You didn't expect that I hadn't gone too far away from the ward, right? Now, let's see what you can use to scare me!" said Lily viciously while looking at Jane with an incomparably sinister gaze.

Jane was not shocked at all. "Miss Lily, look who's behind you?"

Lily turned around and she was completely frozen solid.
