Chapter 324 "Three Hundred Million Dollars Means A Lot Of Money"

"Adults who frighten children will go to hell after they die." Joey replied with a fake smile. "....." Carson asked, "Where did you hear these things?" Although Joey was young, he was smarter than an adult. Joey glanced at Carson indifferently and didn't answer his question. But he knew that since Carson had asked this question, it meant that he had been suspicious of the matter that Gatlin modified the program But Joey was a little surprised. He had thought that if he mentioned Dhruv, everyone's doubts would be dispelled But obviously, Carson didn't do as follow Joey's plan. "I really don't know how to program, but I've seen others programing." Joey knew that if he didn't say anything today, Carson wouldn't let him go. "Watch others programing? Who?" Carson raised his eyebrows and asked. "How do you know he was programing?" Facing Carson's question, Joey was very calm and said disapprovingly, "The man is my mommy's friend. How do I know that? Of course he told me." Carson frowned and his eyes darkened, and looked at Joey's expression with inquiring eyes. From Joey's young face, Carson could figure out whether he was lying or not. Joey's mother? The college student who worked part-time in a bar? A woman who was so poor that she had to work part-time to earn tuition just had a friend who could program? "The second question." After regaining his composure, Carson asked, "Did you tell Gatlin the basic codes of the program that he modified?" Joey's big and bright eyes blinked, and he didn't answer in a hurry. Carson waited for a while, but Joey didn't say anything. He couldn't help asking, "Besides, if I'm not wrong, Dhruv doesn't know Gatlin, does he? Dhruv didn't call Gatlin, but you, right? Do you know Dhruv?" "....." Joey still kept silent. When Carson asked the first question, Joey had been wondering what Carson had suspected. Now he was somewhat surprised to hear that. "Little guy .." "Dhruv? What are you talking about? Mr. Newbie, you asked me so many questions, but I don't know which one I should answer. " Joey asked deliberately with an innocent look. Then he sighed, "Forget it. I'd better not go to Moon-like Ancient Road. Mr. Newbie, please send me back." At the thought of the codes he saw on the computer in the lab, Carson found that the programming style of the man who modified the codes in the lab was so similar to that of another man. He finally got a clue and didn't want to give up, and Joey in front of him obviously knew it. The hacker who stole three hundred million dollars from the account of Victor must have something to do with Joey.

"Little guy, you don't want to go to Moon-like Ancient Road, then do you want to go to the hospital?" Joey's ears moved. Just when Carson thought Joey wanted to agree, Joey yawned and said softly, "No. There are so many people in the hospital. It's too messy. I'd better go back to Sue Garden." 1 "Aren't you worried about Victor? He got hurt to protect you. Don't you want to see him?" Carson tried to persuade Joey. "Is he dead?" Joey suddenly asked. Was he dead? Carson was in a daze for a moment, then he came to his senses and said, "Of course not. How could it be possible?" "That's good." Joey pretended that he didn't care about it at all. "As long as Mr. Sullivan is alive, he will be discharged from the hospital sooner or later. When he comes back from the hospital, I can see him. Besides, he is in hospital for recuperation. I have to be taken care of by others since I am a child, I can't help him but only make troubles if I go there." Joey had a clear mind, and Carson couldn't find a reason to refute him. Carson remembered that he had fought with the hacker for several times and suffered losses. He was about to find the clue about the hacker, but Joey was smart and unwilling to tell him, which made him From the corner of his eye, Joey observed Carson. When he noticed the look on Carson's face, he felt strange. am. The hacker attacked the codes of the lab didn't have much to do with Carson, but it seemed that Carson really wanted to know who modified the codes of the program. Suddenly, Joey seemed to think of something. "Mr. Newbie, may I ask you a question?" "What?" "Three hundred million dollars means a lot of money?"

Chapter 325 I Have A Request That You Take Me To The Hospital

As soon as Carson heard the words 'three hundred million dollars', he was stunned. He looked at Joey and asked, "How do you know that?" "What?" Joey pretended not to understand and looked innocent. . Carson could tell that Joey was pretending. He became serious and asked in a low voice, "Little guy, do you know something?" "Mr. Newbie, your question is a little strange. What do I know? And you haven't answered my question." Squinting his eyes, Carson soon realized that Joey was tantalizing him and threatening him with this "Little guy, how did you know that someone stole three hundred million dollars from the bank account of Victor?" Carson asked. "What? Mr. Sullivan's money has been stolen?" "Joey still looked innocent. "You know the man who stole the three hundred million dollars, don't you? Or does it have anything to do with you?" Seeing that Joey still pretended not to understand, Carson continued to ask. Joey winked his eyes and said, "Mr. Newbie, why do you think it has something to do with me? It has nothing to do with me. I just mention the three hundred million dollars. Do you think I stole Mr. Sullivan's money?" "It has nothing to do with you? Then why did you mention the three hundred million dollars suddenly?" "I just said it casually." Joey was very calm. After a pause, he continued, "But I know one thing. It might have something to do with that." Carson was eager to catch the hacker who stole three hundred million dollars. Seeing that the clues were about to be connected again, he asked anxiously, "What is it?" Joey turned his head to look at Carson. His thin lips moved, but he said nothing. Carson waited for a while, but Joey didn't say anything, so he urged, "Little guy." "I can tell you, but I have a request." said Joey, raising his eyebrows and crossing his arms over his chest. "Take me to the hospital." Under the inpatient department of Flowerence Hospital. The Benz slowly stopped at an open space under the stairs of the building. After a while, the driver got out of the car, walked around the front of the car and opened the door for Joey. After a while, Carson and Joey got off from both sides of the car. They went straight into the building and took the elevator to the floor where VIP wards were. As soon as the elevator door was closed, Carson couldn't help but look down at Joey, then he said, "Little guy, I have done what you asked. Now it's your turn to fulfill your promise." With his hands in his pockets, Joey looked up at Carson and said, "Well, it's no big deal to tell you."

Carson's beautiful eyes lit up with excitement. As the youngest child of the Scott family in Apliaria, Carson was the general manager of Scott Group. But everyone knew that Carson didn't do things in the company and he rarely came to the company. He was a playboy who led a luxurious life. But only a few people knew that although Carson the youngest child of Scott family was not interested in business, he was interested in programming and hacking technology. He had once been invited to join the alliance of the Red Hackers, but he was so arrogant in his youth that he refused the invitation. As a result, he lost the opportunity to compete against King of Hearts. Seven years ago, Carson was frustrated in hacking technology for the first time because of King of Hearts. At that time, he encountered the same case with King of Hearts, but they were enemies. The firewall program he designed was completely destroyed in a second. Carson had always wanted to find King of Hearts, but whereabouts of King of Hearts were so mysterious that Carson had never met him again after being frustrated. And five years ago, King of Hearts completely disappeared from the field of hacking Carson had thought that it would be the only time in his life that he was frustrated in hacking technology. However, half a month ago, an unknown hacker suddenly stole three hundred million dollars from the account of Victor, which made him frustrated again. Therefore, finding this man had more or less become Carson's obsession.

Chapter 326 Does The Person Who Stole Three Hundred Million Dollars Have Anything To Do With Odin

"I just heard it from my mommy's friend. I suddenly thought of it, so I asked you." With his bright eyes, Joey didn't seem to be lying at all. Carson frowned and said, "A friend of your mommy? What did he say?" "He said that he had made a lot of money recently and treated me a big meal." Joey lowered his eyes and took off shreds of paper that had stuck on his coat. He continued to say casually, "I asked him how much money it was. He said he had three hundred million dollars. That's why I asked you the question 'Three hundred million dollars means lot of money?'" The man could program and made a lot of money... Carson grabbed Joey's shoulder and asked, "What's the name of your mommy's friend? Where is he?" Carson was so excited that he couldn't help grabbing Joey's shoulder hard, the pain made Joey's face twisted, then Joey said, "It hurts. Let me go." "Little boy, answer my question. Who is your mommy's friend?" Joey raised his head and looked into the eyes of Carson who was eager to know the answer. He struggled, but failed.

He opened his mouth and bit Carson on the arm. "Ouch!" Carson was in pain and withdrew his hand. "Bah-" Joey snorted and wiped his mouth with the back of his hand. Joey bit Carson ferociously. Carson rolled up his sleeve and saw the bite mark on his wrist. If it weren't for the cloth, Joey would have bitten through Carson's skin, causing bleeding. "Little guy, you..." "Ding!" They arrived. Glancing at the bite mark on Carson's wrist, Joey snorted, "You deserve it." then he nimbly went around Carson and walked out of the elevator. Carson also knew that he was too anxious just now, so he didn't really get angry with Joey. He pulled down his sleeve, turned around and followed Joey out. "Little guy, you haven't answered the question I asked you just now." When they were about to reach the door of the ward, Carson grabbed the collar of Joey and said with his eyebrows raising slightly, "Do you want to break your promise?" "No, I won't." Joey curled his lips, pulled back his collar. Then he said, "I just can't answer your questions." "What do you mean?" "I don't know his name, and I haven't seen him since that time." Joey tidied up his coat and said seriously, "I really didn't know who he was. I only knew that my mommy said he was here to protect us." Never seen him again? To protect them? Was that man really sent by Odin to protect Joey and his mother? If that was the case, then the three hundred million dollars... Thing was done by Odin? When did Odin know such a powerful hacker?

All of a sudden, Carson thought of what he had been thinking about just now. He looked at Joey, trying to find something from his face. However, he couldn't see anything from Joey's face, Joey looked so childish and innocent. "Mr. Newbie, can I go in now?" Seeing that Carson was lost in thought, Joey asked with a sly glint in his eyes. "..... Yes." Carson replied with a slight frown. In the past few years, Odin had been under the control of him and Victor. If the hacker really worked for Odin, then it meant that Odin was not as simple as they thought. But soon on second thought, Carson said in his heart, 'Now that Odin has died, is it necessary to investigate that?' Joey didn't know what was on Carson's mind. The reason why he made three the hundred million dollars have something to do with Odin was that Odin had died, so Carson couldn't find any evidence from Odin. He had to dispel the doubts of Carson who had a sharp mind! When Joey pushed the door open, before he could see clearly the man who was lying on the bed, the man inside said coldly, "Get out!"

Chapter 327 Does It Hurt "Well, Joey, it seems that the person you want to see doesn't welcome you." Carson who was lost in thought just now put on a wry smile and leaned against the door, then he said that sarcastically. Taking a glance at Carson who was saying sarcastically, Joey walked inside. When Victor raised his eyes, he saw the two coming in from the door. When his eyes fell on Joey, the coldness in his eyes obviously disappeared. He asked in a low and hoarse voice, "Why are you here?" Standing by the bed, Joey looked at Victor and didn't say anything Victor had an operation in this morning. He had just woken up, and his face was still sickly yellow.

The loose hospital gown with blue and white stripes made him look very weak. In the past, Victor was high-spirited and vigorous, but he was very weak. Noticing the dry pieces of skin on Victor's lips, Joey turned around and walked to the water dispenser. Seeing that Joey didn't say anything, Victor looked at Carson coldly. Although he didn't say anything, it is obvious that he was questioning Carson. Noticing Victor's gaze, Carson hastily spread his hands, showing that it was none of his business. "It's not my fault. If I don't bring him here, he would probably find a way to come here by himself." In fact, Carson was right. When they were in the western restaurant, he felt that Joey was strange, and what happened in the lab of the Salazar Group kept appearing in his mind, so he just went to the bathroom to wait for Joey. If he didn't do that, he would probably be looking for Joey everywhere at this time! "Drink some water." Joey took a glass of warm water, walked back to the bed and handed it to Victor. Victor was stunned.

Seeing that Victor didn't take it, Joey frowned and asked, "Aren't you thirsty?" "Little guy, he's not thirsty. I'm thirsty. Hand it for me." Carson smiled and reached for the water from Joey. However, before his fingertips could touch the cup, Victor took the water. And Victor seemed to be a little anxious, so the water splashed out of the cup and fell upon Carson's cuff. Joey looked at his hand and curled his lips, then he said, "If you are thirsty, go to get some water for yourself." "....." Carson smiled and said, "You just treat me who helped you so badly! Don't forget that I took you here."

"But I didn't beg you to do that. It is you who..." Joey winked his eyes and said. Before he could finish his words, Carson covered his mouth. Joey pulled Carson's hand away and glared at him. Seeing Joey gritting his teeth, Carson suddenly felt his wrist ached. He remembered that Carson bit him in the car just now. "Forget it. I won't disturb you two. I will go out to have a cigarette." As soon as Carson finished speaking, he rubbed Joey's hair, raised his eyebrows and walked out. Joey shook his head. He didn't like people touching his head. When Carson walked out of the ward, Joey lowered his head and kept tidying up his hair with his hands. He pouted his lips, and didn't look so indifferent, but looked more childish, this was what a child should be. After a long time, he finally stopped and noticed that Victor was looking at him. He fetched a chair, which was a little high. He climbed on the chair carefully, crossed his legs and held the pillow, looking into Victor's eyes. "..... Why do you want to come here?" Victor's eyes had been fixed on Joey all the time. Seeing that Joey had climbed on the chair, he leaned forward a little, he subconsciously wanted to help Joey hold the chair to prevent him from falling down. He didn't look away until he saw that Joey was sitting tight. "Does it hurt?" Joey didn't answer Victor's question. He pointed at Victor's shoulder blade and asked. That was where Victor was shot when he protected Joey.

Chapter 328 Gossip

Following Joey's gaze, Victor lowered his eyes and asked in a low voice, "Is that why you came to the hospital?"

Joey pulled the pillow and blinked his eyes. Although he didn't want to admit it, he came here because he was worried about Victor's injury. He didn't want to answer this question. He looked around and changed the topic.

"Where is that beautiful lady?"

Frowning, Victor asked, "Beautiful lady?" "Yes, it's the lady who got out of your car before."

It was not until Joey reminded him that Victor realized the beautiful lady Joey mentioned was Susan. Victor's expression became colder. He looked at the expression on Joey's face and asked, "Why did you mention her? Do you like her very much?"

* What?" Joey was stunned for a moment. He just wanted to change the topic, so he didn't listen to what Victor said seriously. He replied subconsciously.

"She won't come again." Said Victor coldly.

"Why?" Didn't you just sign a strategic contract with the Salazar Group?

Victor looked at Joey, and his eyes darkened. He hadn't been familiar with Joey for a long time, but they lived together these days, so Victor probably knew that Joey in front of him was a cold and unapproachable person. Moreover, Joey was obviously not interested in Susan before, how could he be interested in her in just a few days?

"Do you really want to see her?" Looking down at the cup in his hand, Victor took a sip of water to wet his whistle and said in a low voice, "I thought you don't like her very much."

'I show it so obviously?

Joey murmured in his heart, but he didn't answer

Victor's question. Instead, he asked, "Mr. Sullivan, don't you like her very much? You are going to get married and you will have babies in the future." When Joey thought that Victor was going to get married and have another child in the future, he felt inexplicably wronged. He didn't even realize it himself, and his tone was filled with jealousy.

"Who told you that?" Victor frowned.

"No one told me. But everyone knows that you are going to marry beautiful Lady, right? I remember that when I first met the beautiful lady at the airport, the people around her asked her that. After getting married, you will have a baby, won't you?" Joey curled his lips and said, "And I also know you will find a way to send me away when you have a baby. They all say that you hate my father very much. My appearance will affect the baby of you and the beautiful lady.”

The more Victor listened, the angrier he became. Joey didn't notice Victor's expression. He supported his chin with one hand and sighed, "No. in fact, it doesn't matter to send me away, but... Can I discuss one thing with you?"

“What?”

“If you want to send me away, can I choose the place where I go to?” Joey looked at Victor and asked seriously.

Victor looked into Joey's eyes. He heard the words Joey said clearly, and every word seemed to touch his heart. Looking at Joey's eyes which were similar to the eyes in his memory, Victor couldn't help thinking of what Rachel had said yesterday. Victor felt pain.

He calmed himself down and put the cup aside. He quickly captured a key point from Joey's words. Then he said, “They all said that? Who are they?”

“In the past two days, you heard someone say something behind your back in the Sue Garden.” Victor asked again, but his tone showed that he was not asking a question but stating a fact.

Joey pursed his lips, and his expression became serious. In the past two days, he had indeed heard a lot in Sue Garden, even though he had already known the general situation. All of a sudden, a child appeared, and he was the child of Odin. Although the servants in Sue Garden were usually serious and cautious, and they didn't say anything about Sullivan Group and Sue Garden to others, they would discuss it secretly.

Of course, the servants wouldn't specially come to Joey and tell him about the hatred between Odin and Victor, nor would they be so stupid to say that Victor hated Odin.

Of course, Joey wouldn't take the initiative to eavesdrop.

However, the servants seemed to be too absorbed in their discussion. When Joey went downstairs to find some water to drink, he heard what they said by accident.
