

Chapter 95

When Scarlett and Hazel were talking happily, Vanessa, who was left embarrassed.

In fact, her hands were entangled together.

"This little b*tch has really found herself a big daddy and climbed to the top."

However, she was terrified and didn't dare to offend those powerful men.

When they were in the car, they were forced to remember all the information that was clearly marked as "to show your utmost respect to the master". In the end, she showed impatience and resentment, but she had to please Hazel as well!

She thought that this could be a chance to connect with a richer and more powerful man. She expected that she would need to flatter this b*tch with her precious daughter.

Despite all her dissatisfaction, she couldn't show her displeasure for fear of Mr. Wallace watching over them. After all, Mr. Wallace had warned her that if they offended Hazel, the Wilkinson and Collins families would suffer a more. Vanessa could only hold back her frustration.

Just then, Scarlett took Hazel by the hand and led her to Vanessa. Smiling, she said, "Don't worry, Hazel is fine, you don't have to be so worried about her. Don't be so nervous like this, they will think that you are not close to Hazel."

When she heard Scarlett's words, Vanessa immediately understood what she meant. With a smile on her face, she quickly grabbed Hazel's other hand. "Oh, no, I'm sorry about the huge fight and I'm afraid that you wouldn't forgive me... so I didn't dare tell you."

Hearing this, Hazel answered softly, "It's all in the past..." However, her mother's attitude was different from before; it seemed that her mother was trying to make up for her past.

Sighing silently in her heart, Hazel didn't point out Vanessa's fake act and apology. Because of her, not only the Wilkinson and Collins families had suffered, but her father was driven to death as well.

Looking at her mother and sister, her heart felt uncomfortable for hiding the truth.

At her apology, something sparkled in Scarlett's eyes but it soon disap

Then, she grabbed Hazel's hand tighter. "What are you talking about... again... but..."

"Dad... is gone..." All of a sudden, tears fell from Scarlett's eyes.

In an instant, Hazel felt her heart was stung and there was a painful lo

Seeing Penelope's cold gaze, Scarlett's heart clenched and her tears started to fall. Suppressing the anger in her heart, she was frustrated that a mere servant had already felt so wronged and yet she still had to flatter this b*tch!

Wiping off her tears, Scarlett then comforted Hazel. "... Don't be too sad. I know, dad will be very happy to see us reunited like this... So, let's smile. Mom and I are a little hungry... Let's have dinner together."

Forcing a smile, Hazel nodded and said, "Okay..."

At the dining table.

Staring at the large table that was filled with dozens of dishes, Scarlett felt that in fact, each of the dishes was scrupulously made, but the cost to hire a chef as a stew wasn't really cheap.

Since the price was very expensive, such luxurious dishes could only be enjoyed by the rich. However, the portion was relatively small and eating a small piece of such food was so extravagant. In contrast, a lavish banquet was laid out in front of them.

In fact, the three of them couldn't possibly finish the food at all; it was too much.

Glaring at Hazel, Vanessa couldn't help but curse in her heart. "This is a waste of money on such expensive things!"

"Could this lucky b*tch be eating such delicacies every day?"

"Even the Collins family has never been this sumptuous!"

Fuming in her heart, her hand continuously scooped up the soup the

On the other hand, although Scarlett was still smiling and chatting with her, she was itching to ask this b*tch about her rich big daddy!

However, the script had forbidden her to ask questions regarding Hazel or her sister about her current situation nor ask Hazel about hers.

During the meal, Hazel kept serving food to Scarlett and Vanessa. As the conversation went on, she tried to ask about their recent situation in order to make sure she kept her promise and had returned all of the properties to the Wilkinson and Co.

When she heard Scarlett saying that the two families had returned to their homes, she felt a sense of ease.

Halfway through the meal, Penelope brought the gift that she had spent a long time on. She wasn't sure what to give her sister and had thought for a long time about the perfect gift.

As she still had some savings, she insisted to buy it with her own money.

When Scarlett saw the gifts of a toy car and a doll, her face was full of joy.

"Since you're pregnant, I want to give something for your child and choose something that works if it's a boy or a girl, so I bought both."

"Oh, there's really no need for this... but they're really nice!" Scarlett said, but her heart had burst in anger.

From the moment she appeared, Hazel had been flaunting her gorgeous dress.

The whole purpose of inviting them here was to show off her marvelous
