

The Man's Decree Chapter 657 ( The Man like none Other chapter 657 )

"I..."

An awkward expression crept onto Stieg's face. He did not know how to reply to Zyaire. After all, he could not possibly confess that he had lied about its price.

Spotting the look on Stieg's face, Ludovic quickly intervened, "Mr. Rider, Dr. Jeppesen's friend must have fooled him. Although you didn't sell the revitalizing pills at a high price, perhaps his friend had told him otherwise."

Finally having an excuse, Stieg swiftly nodded and added, "Yes, my friend must have lied to me. I'll settle the score with him once I have the time."

At that, there was nothing Zyaire could say anymore.

"Mr. Rider, did Mr. Chance really make this pill?" Ludovic asked incredulously.

Since Zyaire was the one who sold the pill, he would certainly know best where the pill came from.

"Of course. I'm afraid that no one else in this world but Mr. Chance could craft these revitalizing pills," Zyaire confirmed with a nod.

His words made Kai feel a little embarrassed and awkward because revitalizing pills were the most basic pills. In other words, any energy cultivator could easily craft those pills.

"Mr. Rider, I know that pill-crafting techniques can't be mastered overnight.

This young man looks like he's in his twenties. I don't think he could craft a pill like the revitalizing pill even if he started practicing his skills in his mother's womb."

Although Zyaire was the one who sold the revitalizing pills, Stieg refused to believe that Kai could craft those pills.

Kai looked too young, and Stieg thought of him as just a boy.

"I, too, don't believe that a young man like him could really master medical skills at his age, let alone craft pills."

Like Stieg, Frazier did not believe that Kai was capable of making pills that well.

"I'll write the formula for the pill now, and you'll get the herbs according to the list. I'll make one on the spot."

Not wanting to waste any more of his limited time with them, Kai thought of crafting the pill right away so that they would be convinced.

"That'd be best."

Stieg's eyes lit up. He was excited to witness the crafting process of the revitalizing pills. Once he learned about the formula and the crafting process, he was sure that he could make the revitalizing pills as well.

Once Kai wrote down the formula, Ludovic quickly sent someone to get the herbs. There were over a dozen herbs in total, and everything was ready in the blink of an eye, as they were just normal herbs that could be found in any pharmacy.

"Young man, the herbs are here. How are you going to craft it? If you need to brew it, I can help you out..."

Stieg wanted to help Kai out because that way, he could learn how to make the pills hands-on.

"It's fine. My pills don't need brewing."

Kai abruptly crooked his finger as he spoke, and a green flame began dancing on the tip of his finger.

That startled everyone as they started wondering if Kai was doing magic tricks. They were all ordinary people.

The only time they had seen flames on someone's finger was when the magician on the stage snapped their fingers.

The flame on Kai's fingertip burned brighter and brighter, causing the temperature in the living room to rise. Everyone around him watched quietly, keen to find out how Kai crafted his pills.

Even Tommy and Phoenix were focusing on him. Although they knew about Kai's abilities, they had never seen Kai make a pill before.

Kai threw the flame on his fingertip at the herbs. Instantly, the green flame surrounded and lit the herbs on fire, avoiding everything else around it.

The flame was actually Kai's spiritual energy. Therefore, it could not possibly light anything else on fire, for Kai was in control of it.
