

The Divorced Billionaire Heiress Chapter 1946

Chapter 1946

Clayton's attitude without the heart of the Virgin is very light, and it is not that he has not heard about Eric. After all, it is still his tough opponent, of course he is always paying attention. It's just that he doesn't want to step in and help. Not only that, but he also promptly withdrew the overlapping projects related to Eric.

After all, of course, he was responsible for the Angie he provoked himself.

How could he help the person who almost killed Nicole? When Eric was killed, he should have applauded. But of course he couldn't tell Nicole about this.

He's too unconcerned, and Ms. Stanton will look down on him.

Watching Nicole hesitated, worried about him, Clayton smiled and said: "It can't be said that there is no impact here. There is indeed a force that wants to take the opportunity to use SF to launder money, but Jake discovered it in time. However, it was self-defeating that they bought a wave of holdings in the group. Jake and I planned to take advantage of this opportunity to get rid of the people who are sitting on the mountain..." []

It turned out that they had already been affected, but the response plan had already been made.

Nicole breathed a sigh of relief, "Okay, as long as you don't be careless, it has nothing to do with us after all. Eric took it upon himself, and I don't intend to be the god to help."

Clayton laughed at her words, and the smile in his eyes was hidden for a while that can't hide. "My wife, you don't have a Virgin Heart. I'm really happy for you. I'm a businessman, and I value interests the most. It's impossible for me to lose money without enough interests. Get busy first, I'm going to discuss it with my eldest brother. After all, it's a project he values. I won't intervene, but I'll never help."

If it's a friend, Nicole has a better chance of helping. But Eric and Nicole felt uncomfortable when they heard the name.

She couldn't hope that when she was dying in Southeast Asia, he didn't lose his own interests to save her.

So why does the selfish Nicole want to repay her grievances with virtue?

Clayton nodded, the matter on his side was so urgent that he had to hang up the video call.

After that Nicole went to Grant and relayed all Mitchell's words just now.

Grant was silent for a moment, and then he said with mixed emotions: "I'll think about it."

Nicole raised her eyebrows, "No matter what decision you make, eldest brother, I will support you."

It went on for a few days.

Lumi and Samuel didn't move much there.

Just one evening, before Nicole left the company, she received a call from Ian.

Ian had been out for a few days, and he didn't know when he would return.

“Come on, in order to catch the wind, I made a few friends to come and have a drink!”

Nicole thought about it, but didn't refuse.

The address was sent, and it didn't look too far. A newly opened private restaurant, “Big Rich”, was high-end and mysterious.

Although the name has nothing to do with the word high-end.

Hearing Julie said a few words, but she didn't pay much attention to it.

When it comes to the “big rich man”, the elegant style that does not match the name is very eye-catching.

The quaint little bridges and flowing water are full of valuable ornaments.

Even the space above is exquisitely embellished.

When Nicole came here for the first time, Ian couldn't help but take a few more glances.

All the way to the upper railing, Ian was lying on it, holding a bottle of wine in his hand to greet her:

“Well, it's just you, your habit of being late really hasn't changed at all!”

She heard Ian's familiar voice, She looked up, and Lumi was standing there smiling and looking at her.

The mood got better. It seems that what happened to Samuel did not have much impact on Lumi.

Ian said that he found a few friends, and Lumi came over, not surprised.

He's just curious when they got to know each other so well!

Nicole followed upstairs, wearing a beige plaid dress with a slightly familiar style.

She smiled, "Ian, your habit of disappearing for a few days and then appearing suddenly has not changed at all!"

Ian was delighted and went over to pull her in:

"I went to the Antarctic and saw the aurora, and asked It's not that our old master threatened me, I will never come back so soon."

Nicole smiled, Lumi behind him followed, the box was already full of people, many people had already started drinking, and there were still people in the room. Sing, lively.

From the group of people, Nicole saw the familiar Julie.

Julie got out, looked at Lumi with a smile, and then at Nicole: "How do you feel about this place?"

Pointing to the top, how did the whole "rich man" feel?

Nicole paused, put down the bag in her hand, and found a vacant seat to sit down: "That's right, to open this store in a place where every inch of land is expensive, let's not talk about the general passenger flow, even those big bosses who come out to socialize, I will also choose this place first."

Lumi's smile deepened, and she was inexplicably happy with Nicole's evaluation. It seems like there is some kind of approval.

Julie said, "This is what Ms. Lumi opened. I didn't tell you beforehand, but I asked you a few times and you said that if there was a high-level club here, it would definitely make a fortune in a low-key manner. remember?"

Nicole paused, and suddenly remembered that Julie had asked a question casually.

She just said it casually.

I didn't expect that she was asking for Lumi?

Lumi smiled, "I really want to thank you Nicole. If it wasn't for your words, I wouldn't have the courage to open a store here!"

She smiled and shook her head: "It turned out to be you, you can ask me directly, why did you ask Julie?"

"I was afraid to hear that you disagreed, so I asked Julie to help me find out, but fortunately I didn't have a choice. I Feel Wrong!"

Lumi blinked and said with a sigh: "In a blink of an eye, I have become the boss, this feeling is really amazing!"

Ian said with a smile, walked over and glanced at her: "Boss Makinen, I heard your divorce is not going well, do you want to help?"

Lumi looked at him: "Can you help?"

Ian shrugged and smiled, "If you marry me, give him a green hat, or else Can we get a smooth divorce?"

Nicole and Julie almost spit out the drink in their mouths.

This Ian was really just a joke and didn't even close the door!

Unexpectedly, Lumi smiled, but nodded seriously: "What you said makes sense, I can think about it!"

Ian smiled and patted her shoulder: "But hiring me to act is very expensive. Yes, you have to prepare a commission!"

Lumi glanced at him, not to be outdone: "What kind of money can't I pay?"

The two went back and forth, but they were suspicious of bickering.

Everyone was very excited, and it was rare to get together.

At the end of the drink, Grant asked Luca to take Nicole and Julie back.

The rest, don't know anything.

The next day.

Before dawn.

Nicole and Julie slept directly together, and the phone ringing woke them up...

Nicole picked up the phone vaguely without looking at it. She heard Ian's anxious voice inside: "You guys are so boring, why didn't you take me with you when you left last night!"

Nicole gradually opened her eyes, and Julie met big eyes to small eyes.

"What happened?"

Before he could answer, he heard the sound of slamming the door on the phone.

Julie suddenly sat up.

She heard a familiar woman's voice on the phone: "Oh, Samuel is really here!" The phone went off suddenly.

Nicole looked at her in shock: "What do you mean, that voice just now was Lumi?"

Julie nodded gloomily: "You heard right, it's her! And Samuel was on the plane this morning, yesterday. When we left in the evening, Lumi and Ian were still drinking together..."

No matter how dull they were, they suddenly realized that the two of them probably had something to do with their drinking!

"The Rich Man" restaurant.

Out of convenience, Lumi reserved a private room at the best angle of the restaurant, with a facade decorated like her boudoir.

At that time, this exquisite room was a mess.

Ian didn't even remember what happened last night. His drunken habit was always in short films.

There will be familiar friends to settle him, or let him sleep in the box. As a result, those friends came to a new and unfamiliar place, and for a while they forgot him out of the sky!

One night passed, and the next day, when he opened his eyes, he saw Lumi sleeping beside him.

Both of them were disheveled, both adults, and even if they were unconscious, he now knew what had happened.

Ian's face suddenly did not look good. To be precise, it is ugly to death!

Not to mention that he was not familiar with Lumi, it could only be regarded as an acquaintance.

Even if he knew her well, he didn't have any feelings for Lumi!

What's more, she is still a married woman and has not divorced yet! What is this, if the old master finds out, 80% of them will break his legs![]

Before Ian had time to react, there was already an increasingly urgent knock at the door.

As if eager to verify something.

Lumi was also awakened by the knock on the door. She rubbed her eyes and woke up, looking at the scene in front of her, her face paled instantly.

Lumi and Ian looked at each other with big eyes and small eyes, so they couldn't pretend that nothing happened.

That's how the joke from last night came true.

Lumi went to the bathroom to clean up, and Ian simply put on the clothes from last night.

Ian was really annoyed. After a phone call, he had to scold his friend.

It doesn't matter if others are too drunk, Nicole and Julie know that someone has come to pick them up.

Why not pick him up too?

"You are so mean, why didn't you take me with you when you left last night!"

Before Ian could say enough, he heard the knocking on the door even more intense. It's like breaking through the door.

Lumi came out of the bathroom with a bad look on her face: "Oops, Samuel is really here!"

Samuel changed his number and texted her, telling her that he would be back today. But Lumi didn't take it seriously at all.

Ian jumped off the bed in a panic, and was so excited: "What should we do? What should we do?"

He looked like he had done something wrong.

The two still dare not look at each other face to face. But now is not the time to be awkward.

Rather than embarrassment, now they have to face Lumi's husband's slamming on the door!

It's really bad luck!

Chapter 1949

Lumi was panic for a moment, then calm down. She stood there, staring blankly at the door. People outside want to come in and see what's going on inside.

She's afraid Samuel's eyeliner has long been around her.

Huh...

forget it.

so what?

What is there to be afraid of?

Ian was so frightened that he looked down from the window, terrified: "Will I die if I jump down?"

Lumi twitched the corners of her mouth. She looked a little arrogant.

Although Kirsi is an actress, known as the beauty of ice and snow, but her appearance is only a person with a halo.

Compared with Lumi, it was still a little inferior. Lumi is indeed beautiful, otherwise Samuel would not have agreed to marry after seeing each other once.

She is as beautiful as a precious porcelain vase, and it is very eye-catching when placed at home.

At this moment, she looked at Ian's direction with a slightly sneering expression on her face.

The next second, when the door was about to be pushed open.

She walked over and dragged Ian down, who was trying to escape by jumping out of the window.

She sneered viciously: "Is it worth taking a life? Don't worry, I won't let you be responsible. Hide inside, Ian!"

She almost gritted her teeth, and then closed the door with her backhand.

It was the first time Ian faced such a thing. Inexperienced, he stood inside uneasy, at a loss for a while. He also felt that his performance was too embarrassing. If Yvette and Nicole knew about this, it would be enough to laugh at him for a lifetime!

Lumi had already opened the door. Looking at Samuel outside, her face was as cold as ice, Lumi suddenly felt a little joy in her heart.

The feeling of revenge turned out to be so cool!

She should have found some little fresh meat earlier to put a green hat on him!

Who says the abused in marriage has to be a woman?

Men deserve it!

There was a bit of distraction and ridicule in her eyes, and her beautiful face was a little alienated: "What are you knocking on? My door is so expensive, and you will pay me if you knock it down?"

Samuel's face showed the exhaustion that he had not rested all night. But his black eyes were dark and deep, and he couldn't see what emotions were hidden in those eyes at the moment.

But after all, it's not a good mood. Of course, Samuel didn't have to knock on the door himself. The one who knocked on the door was the person he took with him.

At this time, the two bodyguards retreated behind Samuel.

He hoped Lumi understands that they are doing what they are told.

Samuel's eyes stared at her face, and the emotions in his chest went up and down. He wanted to say something, but couldn't.

What he heard and what he saw was all true. "Who is it?" Samuel asked through gritted teeth. The blue veins on his forehead were tensed, and the expression was extremely terrifying.

Lumi stood there and smiled casually: "What did you say?"

One sentence made Samuel's expression even more ugly! Seeing that her bright smile was particularly annoying, Samuel suddenly stretched out his hand and pinched her neck:

"Lumi, did you do it on purpose? Did you intend to take revenge on me? You are so cruel, I have already wrong with you, I wanted to live a good life with you, but that's how you treated me?"

The rage made him lose his mind. Especially when he saw Lumi coming out disheveled, with a bit of blush on her charming face, and her casual attitude, he knew that this marriage was the only one who was struggling to maintain it.□

How could he be reconciled?

Lumi's strangled neck stepped back, her face turned pale...

Chapter 1950

The strength of Lumi's green hat is not worth mentioning at all compared to Samuel.

Samuel didn't notice her change, his brain had long been dazzled by rage, and his eyes were fiercely pitch-black.

"Tell me, what do you want me to do? How can you forgive me? You are indeed a spoiled eldest lady, not as obedient as your sister. Lumi, you succeeded!"

Lumi couldn't help but look up. Cough with head. This force seemed to drag her into hell.

Next second.

The bathroom door suddenly opened. Ian went over with a sullen face and pushed Samuel away.

Samuel didn't expect the people inside to dare to do this, and staggered back to the back.

Seeing the people inside, Samuel's face sank completely. The bloodthirsty light in his eyes became even more tragic. Without hesitation, he raised his fist towards Ian.

But Ian's guilt at the beginning was swept away, he suddenly twisted his arm and slammed into the wall!

He followed Nicole as a Sanda teacher since he was a child. Although he was a bit lazy, who made his starting point high?

Samuel suffered a loss from his subordinates, and his face was even worse. Just as he was about to fight back, he heard Lumi coughing uncomfortably while clutching her neck. The next second, she retched in the other direction!

The two were attracted to the attention.

Samuel suddenly remembered that he had done something to her, and the fingerprints on her delicate neck were his achievements. Immediately, his face was ugly and guilty. Just as he was about to step forward to look at her and Lumi took a step back in fright.

Samuel's eyes were cold and difficult, and he hesitated to speak. He withdrew his hand and said in a very light tone: "Come here, we need to talk about our affairs..."

Ian stood in front of her and chuckled lightly:

"Mr. Lindstrom doesn't seem like a good talker, and he fights as soon as they meet. Woman, you have really learned a lot!"

"Our business has nothing to do with you, Ian, I will definitely settle the account with you!"

Samuel gritted his teeth, wishing to tear him apart! For the first time in his life, he was so angry. Lungs are about to explode! He never thought that the person in Lumi's room was actually Ian! If it was an ordinary man, he could handle it easily. But Ian is the precious pimple of the Carter Corporation, and it is really tricky to move him!

But it doesn't mean that he will pretend not to know, it will definitely make Ian pay the price!

Ian also knew that it was inappropriate, so he was at a loss.

But he don't see anyone hitting a woman.

Next second.

Lumi put her hands on her sincere arms, ignoring the bruises on her neck, and said with a sneer, "How could it have nothing to do with him? Samuel, we are divorced, and Ian is my future husband. Let me tell you, I don't think for a moment. I 'll bear with you any longer. Either you go to the Civil Affairs Bureau with me now, or I'll tell the media that I cheated on your domestic violence, and everyone will be ruined!" []

Samuel was completely shocked by her words. Did she even risk her own reputation to ruin this marriage?

The air solidified inch by inch.

Samuel's eyes were permeated with a gloomy chill, and he stared at her stubbornly.

The three stood there, and no one spoke first. No one has broken this silence.

Finally, the two bodyguards at the door noticed that it was not good. One of them came forward:

“Mr. Lindstrom, it seems that a reporter is here...” The reporter came. They can’t hide their affairs.

fair enough.

Samuel looked at Lumi, and his whole person had never had such complicated emotions.

She is obviously just a good-looking marriage partner, why do you have so many emotions in her?
