

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence

Chapter 1019

Waiting for Mrs. Cooper to go upstairs, at a glance, she saw that Layla was dragging a large storage box and was struggling to get out of the room.

"Layla, what are you doing?" Mrs. Cooper hurriedly walked over, crouched down, and asked.

Layla's eyes were red, and as soon as she opened her mouth, tears flowed down: "Brother is angry. He yells at me!"

"It's time to cool." Mrs. Cooper quickly wiped her tears and asked at the same time, "Why did you take this box out?"

"Brother doesn't like it..." Layla said, even more aggrieved, tears The flow is faster.

Hayden was distraught listening to Layla's cry.

With a 'bang', Hayden closed the door and locked it.

Mrs. Cooper looked at the locked door, and felt bad in her heart.

Although Hayden is taciturn and does not like to communicate with people. He is very sensible in his behavior on weekdays.

He had never been so abnormal.

Mrs. Cooper looked down at the storage box, and when she saw the copybooks inside, she immediately understood what was going on.

"Layla, don't cry! Let's go downstairs first! I'll call your mother right away. When she comes back, your brother won't be angry anymore." Mrs. Cooper hugged Layla and went downstairs with a heavy heart.

After going downstairs, Mrs. Cooper found her mobile phone and dialed Avery.

At this moment, Avery heard the phone ring. She picked up the phone and saw Mrs. Cooper's call. When she was about to answer the call, Nathan's wickedly smiling face appeared in front of her.

She hung up immediately.

"Avery, I heard that you called my youngest son today. Do you miss him so much?" Nathan laughed, his face even more evil.

"Nathan, what do you want to do when you move your family here?" Avery took a deep breath, but couldn't contain her fear, "What do you want to do?!"

The more she looked at Nathan's face, the more she felt in her heart. The fear deepened little by little.

"You're staring at me like this, it's so scary!" Nathan seemed to have seen through her thoughts, so he teased, "Have you already suspected it? When you were in Bridgedale, you asked me if I recognized it. When you met Elliot, you started to doubt it, right?"

Avery was shivering!

Nathan laughed wildly and said, "It's you people who study medicine with vicious eyes! You can see that the kid looks like me at a glance! Unlike Elliot's bastard, not only does he have to do a sht paternity test, but he doesn't want to recognize me. Hehe!"

Avery's face turned pale and her body couldn't help but tremble!

"You...you have done a paternity test?!" Her voice hoarse from her throat, "When did it happen?! When did it happen!"

Seeing her blushing in shock, Nathan said, "Avery be comfortable."

Nathan stretched and said lazily: "It's just the past two days. The results came out this morning. If you want me to say, what a sh*t paternity test, he looks so similar to my son, even you can be an outsider. It's obvious that he can't see it? How did he become the boss of Sterling Group? He just doesn't want to face this reality! Now that the truth is out, it's useless for him to deny it!"

Avery shouted like a drowning Get angry.

The night when Elliot was drunk, it turned out that he met Nathan.

It turned out that Nathan found him and revealed the truth of his life experience, so he was drunk alone.

He didn't even tell her anything!

It's like she didn't tell him after knowing about it.

Elliot spent so much money on gifts for her and the child last night, which should be one of his ways to relieve the pain!

Thinking of this, she felt like someone was tightly strangling her neck.

She picked up the water glass on the table, poured a large mouthful of water into her stomach, then put down the water glass, and said sternly, "You are looking for him, don't you just want money? How much do you want? How much money do you need to get out of here?!"
