

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence

Chapter 1021

What kind of father is Nathan? Who are you? !

Really treat yourself as something!

After Avery left, Nathan frowned and took a sip of wine.

Did he want too much?

2.4 billion a year, obviously not much! That's just a fraction of Elliot's annual income!

After coming out of the restaurant, Avery felt even more blocked.

The matter has been completely unfolded in front of her. she can't satisfy Nathan's appetite. Then Nathan will definitely go to Elliot next.

This old b*stard, let him touch the hard rock Elliot!

It's just that Elliot will definitely be very distressed!

On the way back to the car, she put on a Bluetooth headset and planned to call Elliot to hear his voice.

Turning on the phone, she saw the message sent by Mrs. Cooper.

Hayden and Layla had a fight. It was quite serious. Come back when you're done.

After reading the message, Avery's head was dizzy! She put down her phone, took off her earphones and rushed back quickly.

Star River Villa. In living room.

Layla squatted on the floor holding the storage box, sullen, and silently wiped her tears.

Mrs. Cooper persuaded Hayden outside the children's room on the second floor, but she did not respond at all.

Fortunately, Robert is more obedient at the moment, neither crying nor making trouble and eating snacks and playing with toys alone in the crib.

Not long after, Avery came back. She didn't have time to change her shoes, and strode into the living room. Seeing her daughter's dejected appearance, she immediately picked her up.

"Baby, what's the matter? Why did you quarrel with my brother?" When she was talking, she saw the copybooks in the storage box, "Is it because of the copybooks?"

"My brother didn't like the gifts from Dad and even kicked the box with his feet and he yelled at me out." Layla lowered her eyes, tears hanging from her long eyelashes.

Listening to her daughter's aggrieved voice, Avery's son's anger already appeared in his mind.

"Mom understood. Mom is going to look for brother now. You stay here, don't cry. If you're hungry, go eat first. Mom will come to you soon." Avery put her daughter down and strode towards the stairs go.

"Mom, brother locked the door." Layla reminded.

"Well, it's fine. I'll let him open the door."

Mrs. Cooper heard the voice upstairs and immediately reminded Hayden in the door: "Hayden, your mother is back."

After Mrs. Cooper said this , the door 'squeaked' and was opened.

Avery walked upstairs, and Mrs. Cooper walked in front of her and whispered, "I'll go downstairs first, please persuade Hayden."

After Mrs. Cooper left, Avery strode into the children's room.

Hayden sat in front of the desk, his chin stretched, his two thin lips pursed.

"Hayden, you are no longer a three-year-old child. Mom can't keep you happy by coaxing a three-year-old child forever." Avery was in a bad mood, so her patience with the child declined, "You don't like your father's gift Your gift, but you don't need to make such a big fire because of this trivial matter."

Hayden was stunned. He didn't expect his mother to be so stern.

It was as if his mother chose to stand on Elliot's side between him and Elliot.

Hayden can't accept it!

Carrying his schoolbag, he strode out. When passing by Avery, there was a strong wind!
