

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence

Chapter 1031

Elliot looked embarrassed and discussed with everyone: "She goes crazy when she gets drunk.

She initiates drunkenness, not only cursing people, but also overturning the wine table.

If you can bear such consequences...

Then I'll ask her to toast you?" Avery immediately picked up a goblet in order to cooperate with him.

"Hey! Hey! Forget it! We haven't seen each other for a long time! We finally got together to drink and drink...

Avery, put down the wine glass!" One of them stopped sternly.

Avery put down the wine glass angrily.

The waiter came in with a tray, and after a while, a table of delicious food was served.

Avery was very hungry, so after the dishes were ready, she immediately greeted, "Brothers, the dishes are ready, you can eat! Don't be polite to me!" After speaking, she picked up the chopsticks and ate the meat.

Usually, everyone's living standard is very high, and they are tired of eating big fish and meat, but seeing Avery specializing in meat and vegetables, They felt a little unhappy! Because their female companions usually don't eat much meat.

"Avery, you eat so much meat.

Aren't you afraid of gaining weight?" Her behavior angered a man present.

"Elliot thinks I'm so thin. So he'll be happy if I eat meat."

"Oh, I don't think you're thin! Your figure is average..."

Avery looked at the man and said, "You're not my husband. What do you think of me? I don't care. Besides, I hate greasy men who point fingers the most. But you see, our quality is still different. what I hate, but I have been holding back and didn't say anything. If you didn't tell me first, I definitely wouldn't say it."

Avery's words completely offended the men at this table except Elliot!

Elliot saw that the atmosphere was stiff, so he raised his glass.

After all, after ordering such a large table of dishes will be a waste if you don't eat it. So let everyone have dinner first, and then talk about other things.

"Avery is relatively young and doesn't know much about the world. Please bear with me. I toast everyone as an apology!" Elliot finished speaking and drank the wine in the cup.

Then everyone stretched their eyebrows and began to eat.

Everyone ate quite harmoniously, but Avery knew that under the surface of harmony, there were cold eyes and hatred.

There were several men among them, glaring at her from time to time.

She took care of herself to eat and was not affected in the slightest.

After all, seeing them so angry, the anger she felt at home at that time was offset. Especially the comfortable man who said he wanted to give his sister to Elliot and served him comfortably, glared at her several times just now.

After Avery was full, she put down the tableware, ate two pieces of fruit and then got up to go to the bathroom. After she left, everyone immediately persuaded Elliot to calm down and think about whether he really wanted to marry this savage woman as his wife.

Elliot replied swiftly: "I have made up my mind, don't persuade me any more."

In the bathroom.

Avery stepped forward, and a brown-haired woman followed behind.

"Avery, Brother Kelly asked me to give you a word." The brown-haired woman stood beside Avery, "Elliot is a very good businessman, your thinking pattern is too small and you will only influence him. If you really love Elliot, you should let him go!"

Avery looked at her coldly and said word by word, "Go back and tell your brother that I will not let Elliot be with you! No matter how much money you make, Elliot and I will never envy you! Don't come to Elliot again in the future. As long as I'm by Elliot's side for one day, I won't see you."

After the dinner, Elliot asked the driver to take Avery home first.

He got into Kelly's car.

Avery looked at the back of his leaving and frowned slightly. But she believed that Elliot had already made a decision in his heart.
