

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1351

Chapter 1351

Avery has no appetite, but next, there is still a long battle to fight: "Sandwiches and milk."

"Why do you eat this every day?" The bodyguard complained.

"Then you can bring some." After talking on the phone, Avery went to the bathroom to wash up.

By the time the bodyguard brought her breakfast, she had already changed.

Xander came with the bodyguard.

"Close the door." Avery said.

After Xander closed the door, the three sat together and began to express their views on what happened last night.

"I feel that things may be a little serious, otherwise, you two should go first." Avery put forward her own thoughts while eating breakfast, "I don't want to involve you."

The bodyguard and Xander looked at each other, and the bodyguard answered, "If you leave a patient here at this time, are we still men?"

Xander: "Since you choose to let me operate on you, I will definitely leave here with you."

Avery listened to them, She replied, "I just sent a message to Elliot, but he hasn't replied to me yet. I'm so moved that I can't eat it. While the Jobin family is busy preparing for the funeral, you two should leave quickly!"

The bodyguard leaned on the sofa, and said, "I'm not leaving. What danger can you have? Now Kyrie's last son has also been killed, and he has only one daughter left. This daughter is also married to Elliot, which means that the entire Jobin family is Elliot's in the end."

Xander bumped the bodyguard's body with his elbow, telling him not to lift the pot without opening it.

"Do you think Elliot will stay here and live with Rebecca?" Avery lost her appetite.

The bodyguard immediately explained: "Of course I didn't mean that. I just told you not to worry... As long as Elliot is still in the Jobin family, he will definitely find a way to protect you."

Avery: "He doesn't remember me."

The bodyguard: "But he knows that you are the mother of his child!"

Xander glanced at the two of them and said, "Don't argue. There's nothing to quarrel about. We'll just wait and see."

Avery took a bite of the sandwich.

The bodyguard complained that she eats sandwiches for breakfast every day, but brought her sandwiches anyway.

Mainly because she was afraid to bring other breakfasts, she didn't like them.

Jobin family.

After Cristian's body was sorted out, it was placed in an ice coffin for preservation.

Kyrie asked the master to calculate the best time for burial, and the master said that the day after tomorrow is the best.

So the funeral will be held the day after tomorrow.

Kyrie came after the incident at 3:00 in the morning, and has not slept until now. After all, he was getting old, and his body couldn't take it any longer. He was supported by bodyguards and went back to rest.

Elliot and Rebecca entertained the guests of condolences at Cristian's house.

Originally scheduled to meet the second brother and the fourth brother at the hotel this morning, it was changed to meet here.

When the two heard the news of Cristian's death, they were very happy.

Cristian should have died a long time ago. If it wasn't for Kyrie who has been protecting this son, Cristian would have died many times.

"Listen to the third brother that your son did this." The second and fourth took Elliot into the room to chat alone.

Elliot: "That's right."

“What conditions did you agree to Kyrie?” The fourth brother smoked a cigarette, breathing heavily, “Let me guess, did he ask you to stay in Yonroeville in the future and be a role model for him?”

Elliot responded, and with his slender fingers, he took a cigarette from the fourth brother’s cigarette case.

Elliot didn’t sleep all night, but he wasn’t sleepy, but he just didn’t know how to send Avery away.

“Kyrie is so wary, he must have made more than just this request to you, right?” The second brother narrowed his fox eyes and said slowly.

Elliot’s smoke between his fingers trembled slightly: “He asked me to let Rebecca conceive a child within a year.”

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1352

Chapter 1352

It’s not just Elliot’s verbal promise to want Elliot to stay in Yonroeville.

Kyrie is not only selfish, but also very defensive.

The way to turn Elliot into one’s own, besides making him his son-in-law, it’s best to keep his roots here.

Roots are his descendants.

If Elliot had children in Yonroeville, he wouldn’t think about going back to Aryadelle.

“After Cristian’s funeral, let’s go outside and talk.” The fourth elder glanced around and whispered, “In short, your son has done something that none of us have been able to do, and your son will have great prospects in the future”

“Cristian asked for it by himself.” Elliot shook the cigarette ashes into the ashtray, “If Cristian hadn’t bullied Avery, this would never have happened.”

“That’s because your son has something to offer. My son is five years older than your son. Now he only play games every day, and I have a headache when I see it. How did your son educate so well?”

The topic suddenly became the exchange of parenting experience.

“I thought you all knew that Hayden was not brought up by me.” Elliot only witnessed Robert’s birth.

He doesn't know if Robert will be able to solve the problem here on his first birthday.

"Didn't he come back to you when he was four or five years old?"

Elliot said, "He has been living with Avery. I rarely care about him. Mike cares more about him."

"Tsk, you obviously remember everything. Ah!"

Elliot opened his thin lips lightly, "Except Avery, I remember everyone else. Because of this, I don't think Avery is the bad woman Kyrie said."

"Hahahaha! If Avery is a bad woman, you won't have a first child with her and a second child. You're not a fool." The second brother laughed, "But you did spoil Avery too much before, you seemed a little brainless. It's just a woman, there's no need to catch up with yourself. business!"

"Yeah." Elliot came to Yonroeville this time, and he felt a lot and learned a lot.

A momentary act of anger may be able to vent the unhappiness in his heart, but after the self-will is over, life must continue. Only with absolute power and wealth can he protect himself and his loved ones.

In the afternoon, Avery asked Xander to go out for a walk.

Hayden has left Yonroeville safely, which is one of her worries.

Avery smiled bitterly, "I dreamed that Hayden was captured by Cristian every night these few days. Fortunately, there was no danger."

Xander sincerely praised, "Your son has refreshed my understanding of children. You are still so young, and you have such great abilities. In the future, even if you don't find a husband, you can rely on your son for the rest of your life."

Avery frowned, "I'm a little worried that he will go astray in the future. He has a good personality. Elliot is too similar. When something happens, he is more aggressive. If Elliot hadn't been here, he probably wouldn't have been able to leave Yonroeville smoothly."

This time Hayden came here secretly without telling everyone. At such a young age, he already has his own opinions and the ability to implement plans independently.

But his age is here after all, and his mind is not mature enough.

"Elliot hasn't replied to your news yet?"

Avery said, "No. It is estimated that he will not reply to my news before the funeral. Kyrie has been staring at him, and now that Cristian is dead. Kyrie must be staring at him. Keep an eye on it."

Xander comforted, "Don't think so much, wait for him to contact you. It's really not good, I can do the surgery for you first."

Avery shook her head: "Kyrie doesn't let Hayden leave the country so easily, he must have made unreasonable demands on Elliot. This is what I am most afraid of. Often what I am most afraid of will come."

"No matter what Elliot agrees to Kyrie's request, at least your son is safe now. This is the best outcome. otherwise you wouldn't be in the mood to ask me out for a walk." Xander continued to comfort Avery.

Chapter 1353

Avery nodded.

"Avery, if you have the opportunity to leave here now, would you like to leave?" Xander raised his head slightly and glanced at the birds flying freely in the sky.

Avery followed his line of sight, glanced at the sky, and said cautiously: "I didn't take it seriously when everyone told me that this place is dangerous. But now I find that it's really dangerous here, and it can really kill people. My own life can gamble as you please, but I can't implicate others."

Avery called Xander and the bodyguard, so she wanted to take them both out of here.

If there is a chance to leave now, Avery will not hesitate any longer.

Xander said, "You can't just gamble with your own life. Let's find a way together and we will definitely be able to get out of here."

"Well."

There are fewer people on the street than usual today. Unspeakable depression.

"Do you think someone is secretly stalking me?" Avery suddenly looked around suspiciously.

The bodyguard who followed behind them said, "Boss, even if Kyrie wants to control you, just block you at the airport. If you want to leave Yonroeville, you can only go to the airport!"

In the evening, after Xander returned to his room, he turned on his mobile phone and found Rebecca's number.

After hesitating, he dialed the number. Rebecca said that if he had anything, he could call her.

At this time, Rebecca was resting in the bedroom. She lasted from 3:00 in the morning to noon. After that, her body couldn't hold it anymore, so she came back to rest.

Xander's phone call brought her back to reality from a nightmare.

Rebecca answered the phone and rubbed her aching temples.

"Rebecca, I'm Xander. I heard that your eldest brother passed away." Xander said politely.

"What are you looking for from me?" Rebecca had a heavy nasal voice and her voice became hoarse.

"I want to take Avery out of here, is there any way you can help us?" Xander made his request.

Rebecca sneered: "I begged you to leave a few days ago, but you won't leave. Now my elder brother is dead, and my dad is mad. You want to leave at this time but there is no door to escape."

Xander calmly reminded, "Avery continues to stay in. It's not good for her here. If Elliot recovers his memory, he will definitely find a way to escape with Avery. If he doesn't recover his memory, he will fall in love with her again."

"I don't care about his heart. Whoever loves him is fine as long as he is my husband. He has promised my father that he will never leave Yonroeville in his life." Rebecca had trouble sleeping, had a splitting headache, and naturally couldn't speak. "Also, he also promised. My father, will have a child with me this year. When I have Elliot's child, he will naturally stay by my side!"

Rebecca's words made Xander stunned.

"Is Elliot agreed?"

"Can he not agree? If he doesn't agree, how did Hayden leave the country? I don't care whether he is willing or not, he will have a child with me anyway." Rebecca is not afraid of anything now.

The eldest brother died, and she was the only child left in the Jobin family.

In the future, everything about her father will belong to her and Elliot.

“Oh... well.” Xander was in a complicated mood, not knowing what to say.

If Avery knew what Rebecca said, she would be saddened.

Moreover, Xander hadn't told Avery yet that she had a baby in her womb.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1354

Chapter 1354

The reason why Xander didn't tell her is that she was afraid that she would have the idea of giving birth to a child.

This idea cannot exist.

Because this child must not be born.

If Avery were to have the baby, she would have to delay brain surgery until nine months later. Nine months later, it's unknown what the tumor in her brain would look like.

Maybe Avery didn't survive nine months at all. Of course, if she's lucky, she might be able to survive nine months before giving birth to a child before undergoing brain surgery.

But the chances of this success are low.

He was afraid that Avery would bet on the odds.

In his opinion, if she insists on giving birth to this child, there are only two possibilities in the end.

The first possibility is that the child is born and she dies. The second possibility is one corpse and two lives.

So Xander couldn't tell her the news anyway for her life.

For the past two days, Xander has been thinking about how to kill the child in her stomach without knowing it. But he didn't think of a good way.

After all, Avery is not an ordinary woman. She is a medical genius, not easy to fool. Fortunately, Avery is just pregnant now, and he still has enough time to figure out a way.

At the same moment, Avery received a call from Hayden in the room.

After Hayden returned to Aryadelle, because of the time difference, he didn't call his mom to report her safety as soon as possible.

Avery didn't blame Hayden for being too reckless, because Hayden did everything for her.

If Cristian hadn't kidnapped her and insulted her that night, Hayden would never have killed Cristian.

"It's time for you to go to Bridgedale. Don't delay your studies because of your parents." Avery said earnestly, "I'll leave Yonroeville when there is a chance. You don't have to worry about me too much."

"I'll take Gwen with me. Let's go to Bridgedale together." Hayden told her his plan.

"Why?" Avery was puzzled. "Why did you take her to Bridgedale?"

Hayden explained, "She stays in Aryadelle, and no one cares about her. Ben Schaffer despised her. That's why her baby was killed by Ben Schaffer's friend. I have to miscarry. I don't like Ben Schaffer, and I want him to regret it."

Avery sweated on her forehead: "Your uncle Schaffer grew up in a different environment than your aunt, so your personality may not be suitable. It doesn't mean that Ben Schaffer really hates your aunt. Besides, your aunt has a miscarriage, and your uncle Schaffer is also very sad. It's just that he didn't tell you."

After Gwen's miscarriage, Ben Schaffer sent Avery several messages to express his apology. He said that he wanted to apologize to Gwen, but Gwen deleted him and refused to see him.

In order to avoid causing a psychological burden to Gwen, Ben Schaffer did not go to her again.

Avery felt that Ben Schaffer would not act, and Ben Schaffer must really want this child.

It's just that for a child of Hayden's age, the world is black and white, just like he always thought that Elliot was an unforgivable villain.

"Gwen has promised to go to Bridgedale with me." Hayden told her the result.

"Oh, she goes to Bridgedale with you, then what? Can you convince her to go to school like you?" If so, Avery is very supportive.

“She doesn’t like going to school, she wants to be a model.” Hayden told her his deeper plan, “I will directly open a company for her in Bridgedale and ask a professional agent to take her and make her a supermodel.”

Avery was taken aback for a moment.

Hayden added, “I will pay for all the expenses.”

Avery: “Since the two of you have discussed it, let’s do it. If you don’t have enough money, tell me.”

Although this plan feels a bit bold, it is better than Hayden sneaking to Yonroeville. As long as it can be solved within the scope of ability, it is not a big deal.

Chapter 1355

Hayden changed the topic, “Mom, Layla is angry. She thought I would bring you back, but she found out that you didn’t come back, so she ignored me.”

Avery was in pain: “We called Video!”

Hayden said, “She won’t.”

Avery urged, “Then I’ll call her again tomorrow. Don’t tell her everything here. I’m afraid she will be worried.”

Hayden said, “Mom, Elliot was beaten.”

Avery was stunned.

Hayden continued, “I saw footprints on his clothes, so he must have been beaten by Kyrie. I don’t hate Elliot anymore when he strangled my neck before.”

Avery had mixed feelings, “I don’t know whether to be happy that the father and son are finally separated, or to be uncomfortable with Elliot’s current situation.”

“Mom, when can you come back? Did he say anything?” Hayden saw that his mother had not spoken, so he continued to ask.

“I don’t know. Cristian’s funeral is the day after tomorrow. He probably won’t be free until the funeral is over.” Avery changed the topic lightly, “After you and Gwen arrive in Bridgedale, let me know. Also, Gwen’s eldest brother is also in Bridgedale. I don’t know much about her eldest brother, so you should pay attention.”

“Got it.” Hayden didn’t take Zion seriously at all.

....

Time turned, and it was the day of Cristian’s funeral.

The Jobin family was a well-known consortium in Yonroeville, so Cristian’s funeral was broadcast live on TV.

The weather was overcast today with a drizzle in the sky.

Avery could have watched the live broadcast at the hotel, but she still decided to go to the scene.

What if she can see Elliot?

She wanted to know too much what price Elliot paid to send Hayden out of here.

With Kyrie’s temper, it was certainly not enough to beat him to relieve his anger.

Because Cristian was the only son of the Jobin family.

She changed into a blue dress, and after taking the elevator to the first floor of the hotel, she went to the hotel store to buy a black umbrella.

She didn’t tell the bodyguard and Xander that she would go to the scene to watch Cristian’s funeral.

Everyone from the Jobin family went to see Cristian today, and no one would notice her.

Avery walked into the rain with an umbrella, and the cool breeze was blowing, alleviating her inner anxiety.

The memorial service was set up at the JJ Hotel.

The road in front of the hotel is subject to traffic control, and ordinary vehicles are not allowed to pass.

Avery took a taxi to the vicinity of the hotel, and looked at the door of the hotel. She was afraid that it would be difficult to see Elliot. She stretched her neck and looked far into the distance, falling into the eyes of Nick who came to mourn.

Nick asked the driver to stop the car, and then he dialed Avery’s number.

Nick teased, “Are you here to see Elliot? How can you see it when you are so far apart? Come over and I’ll take you in.”

Avery looked around and saw the luxury cars parked on the road ahead here, she saw Nick.

Nick's bodyguard pushed the crowd aside, strode to Avery, and invited her into Nick's car.

"Nick, thank you. I won't go into the hotel, just let me have a look outside the hotel door." She said gratefully after taking her seat.

"I definitely won't take you to the hotel. If Kyrie gets angry and kills you with a gun, how can I tell Elliot?" Nick laughed, "You want to watch the fun, why not? Come early? Look at the people standing in front with their cameras, they were here from last night."

Avery lowered her eyes: "I decided to come here on the spur of the moment. My son told me that Elliot was beaten the night before."
