

Bride of Mr. Billion Chapter 298

Chapter 298

Bella's POV:

"This is a place to work, not a place for you to fight. If you want to fight, then get the hell out of here!" Selina berated. No one dared to continue speaking.

At this time, Jeremy took a step forward, pointed at the two scratches on his face, and said, "She seduced me. I didn't agree, so she scratched me like this!" "Nonsense! It's obvious that you want to harass me..." I immediately argued. Although I knew that Selina would definitely not help me, I had to clarify. "Why don't you take a look at yourself in the mirror? Will I take advantage of you? My wife is very beautiful. Will I harass you?" Said Jeremy At this time, Selina said, "Shut up, all of you!" With an order, the scene was quiet and no one dared to say anything. "I don't care who you seduce. It's your private business. This is the company. You must abide by the rules in the company. Do your job well and don't make any trouble. If anyone dares to cause trouble again, get out of here immediately! Do you understand?" "Understood." Jeremy nodded.

Although I was very angry, I didn't say anything.

Then, Selina pointed at the rubbish on the ground and said, "Whoever made this place like this would have to clean it up!"

After that, she turned and left.

The crowd also dispersed. Jeremy glanced at me and turned to leave as well. Seeing this, I immediately stepped forward to block his way. Selina, who was in front of them, had yet to walk far away. Jeremy could not help but have an ugly expression on his face as he said, "Sister, could you please calm down a little? Otherwise, we will all lose this job." At this time, I could see that he was afraid of losing this job. I immediately had a lot of confidence in my heart. I said, "Jeremy, I'm in probation period. You're different. You're a permanent employee, and now you're the assistant of Jessica. Your salary and treatment are good, aren't they?"

"What do you mean?" Hearing these words, Jeremy's face turned a little pale. Seeing his expression, I put my arms in front of my chest. "I'm wondering if you and I lose our jobs because of something. Do you think it's your loss or mine?" At this moment, Jeremy was a little anxious. He clenched his hand into a fist, gnashed his teeth and asked, "B*tch, what do you want?" "I don't want anything. If you don't trouble me in the future, I won't trouble you. If you talk nonsense again, don't blame me for making you unable to stay here. I am divorced and I have two c children with me. Anyway, I can't find a good family. My reputation is not important to me, but it's different for you. If you dare to make trouble for me again, I will first report it to Linda and then find your beautiful wife. I will say that you harass me and let her take good care of you!" I said fiercely. "You..." Jeremy didn't know what to say. He just looked at me with his eyes wide open.

I glanced at the mess on the floor and said, "Clean up this place." After that, I turned around and left.

At this time, Jeremy was irritable. "This is what we did together. Why should I clean it by myself? At most, I can clean half of it by myself." Hearing this, I stopped, then turned around and sneered, "It's up to you. Anyway, I won't clean it. At most, I resign. I don't care!"

After that, I turned and left.

"Oh! D*mn it!" I didn't turn my head back when I heard Jeremy's curse. I went straight to the bathroom and sat on the toilet. Looking at the narrow compartment, my tears fell uncontrollably. Remembering how the female colleagues in the same group looked at me with disdain, I really felt very embarrassed. It seemed that those female colleagues have had some opinions about me as soon as I entered the company, but I had never offended them." Take what had happened just now for example. If such a thing happened in any previous company, one or two female colleagues would definitely come to comfort me. But now, not only did no one come to comfort me, but they seemed to be afraid of being close to me. I didn't know if there was no friendship between colleagues, or there was a lot of rumors about me in the company.

In fact, Jeremy was a little obscene when he talked and did things in the office. The female colleagues in the office all stayed far away from him. Logically speaking, no one would believe what he just said. By the way, Jeremy had told others that I had met some rich man and that I had followed a lot of people for money. Where did he hear these rumors from? It could be said that I had never been insulted like this by a man. He insulted my personality. Would I lift my skirt to seduce him? Oh my god, it made me sick. Just as I was feeling extremely uncomfortable, I suddenly heard the sound of high heels coming from outside. I knew who was coming, so I quickly wiped the tears on my face with a tissue. However, the words coming from outside made my hand freeze! "Are you telling me just now that Jeremy said

I lifted my skirt to seduce him?" I could tell that this was the voice of a female colleague of our group six. Another female colleague sneered and said, "Humph, it's not worth believing the words of Jeremy. All the female employees in our office have been harassed by him. Even the slightly younger cleaner lady was harassed by him. But that Bella, didn't Jessica say that she was not a good person. She only seduced rich people in the past."

"Yeah, Jessica said that she had seduced two bosses. I really can't see it. How can she seduce the boss every time?"

"Maybe she's the one who won the boss's favor in bed?"

Chapter 299

Bella's POV:

Hearing the words of the two female employees, I understood. No wonder all the female employees in the office were unwilling to approach me. It turned out to be because of Selina. This Selina was really insidious. She actually spread rumors to the employees. Her intention was obviously to let everyone push me away so that I couldn't stay here any longer. Maybe it was not only because she wanted me to leave this company, but also because she wanted to make it so that I couldn't survive in this company. Thinking of this, I clenched the tissue in my hand. Jeremy was always harassing me. I guess it had something to do with Selina. At this time, I hated her very much and I also blamed myself a little. When I saw that she was the leader of Group Six, I should have turned around and left. That way, I wouldn't have been so embarrassed now."

But it was too late to say anything. At this point, I could only face it calmly. I knew that my current situation was very difficult. Selina would soon achieve her goal. I couldn't become a permanent staff, I would be harassed by Jeremy and I would be rejected by all my colleagues in the office.

At this moment, I really wanted to rush into Selina's office to question her.

But thinking about it, I still couldn't be impulsive. Now I didn't have any evidence to prove that Selina

I reached out and grabbed my hair a few times. How could I let myself fall into a desperate situation step by step? After struggling for a moment, I knew that life would continue and the days would continue. Therefore, after washing my face in front of the sink, I went back to the office in high spirits. As soon as I appeared in the office, the women in the office were still talking and laughing. When they saw me coming, they instantly stopped talking an d returned to their seats. After cleaning up the tea room, Jeremy sat in his seat and read a magazine. I returned to my seat and took out a professional book to read. In fact, it wasn't reading the book. How could I continue to read it? The atmosphere in this office was really suffocating. I really wanted to leave this place as soon as possible. I didn't want to stay for more than a minute, but I couldn't reconcile myself to it. After all, I had been stubborn since I was a child.

At this time, the door of Selina's office opened. "Bella, come in!" She yelled at me and then she entered her office. Hearing this, I stood up. Without any time to think, I turned and walked into Selina's office.

Walking to her desk, she threw a stack of materials in front of me.

I looked down and saw that it was the material that I gave to Selina two hours ago. It was regarding the project.

Just as I was wondering, Selina said to me, "The person in charge of this project has just come. He's not satisfied with your work!" Hearing this, I frowned, but it was within my expectations. So I reached out and picked up the materials. Then, she added, "It's the weekend today. Please make a good amendment before Monday. Then I'll give it to the person in charge of the company. This is your last chance. If the other party is still not satisfied, I can only change to someone else." I knew that no matter how many times I modified this case, the client won't be satisfied. If Selina wanted someone else to do it, I didn't think anyone would be willing to accept it. It was just an excuse. It seemed that I would have to leave this place once the project was rejected next Monday. "Is there any other problem?" Selina asked impatiently. I stared at her without saying anything. "You can go out now." After saying that, Selina lowered her head to look at the computer. "I'm fine with budget, but I have a personal problem," I said. Upon hearing this, Selina was probably prepared. Raising her head, she sneered and said, "Do you want to clarify the matter between you and Jeremy? That's your private affair. No matter who you are with, I have no right to ask. But you'd better not get me into trouble in the company. You have changed a lot of jobs. You should know this very well. You don't need me to repeat it again, do you?" Looking at her contemptuous smile, I was a little angry. She was really a bitch. She could do anything bad, but she looked very innocent on the surface. She was much smarter than Emma. Then, I sneered and said, "Jessica, Selina, you do have some tricks up your sleeve. I've learned a thing or two from you. But you're just a little smart. People like you won't achieve anything." After that, I took the materials in my hand and turned to walk to the door. Naturally, I didn't want to argue with her. I thought that it wouldn't do me any good. I would only let the people outside laugh at me. I heard her yelling behind me. "You don't have to warn me. At least I'm your boss now. At least I'm living better than you right now!" Hearing this, I frowned and immediately turned to said to Selina, "You should add a time limit. For the time being, you are temporarily my boss. For the time being, you are just living a little better than me."

“You...”

Before Selina could argue, I opened the door and walked out. Selina was the person in charge of Group Six, so of course she wouldn't chase after me and quarrel with me. After work, I held a stack of thick materials in my arms on the bus. Sitting in the bus, I was very conflicted. “Do I want to admit defeat and be eliminated, or do I want to make a last effort?”

I looked at the budget in my arms. So what if I amended it again? The other party would certainly not be satisfied. Their goal was not to get a normal business plan.

Thinking of Selina's high and mighty attitude just now, Jeremy's harassment, and the disdain of my colleagues, I decided to amend it again. Of course, this time, I couldn't only do the budget case. I had to find the crux of the problem. It seemed that I had to find a way. Thinking of this, I quickly called Joey. I wanted her to help me find out about the new boss of that company. Maybe she could find a way out.

I knew that I would be very busy this weekend, so I sent a text message to Herbert. “I'll have to work overtime this weekend. Please let Gary take care of Lucky for two days. Don't send Lucas here this weekend. Thank you.”
