

Bride of Mr.Billion Chapter 361

Chapter 361

Bella's POV:

At this moment, the door of my house was suddenly opened. Joey, who was wearing pajamas and looking sleepy, poked her head out. I wanted to push him away, but he still pressed me against the wall. Joey crossed her arms in front of her chest and said with a smile, "Even if I don't sleep, my neighbors have to sleep. Why are you so loud at the door? Are you trying to disturb others?" I nudged Herbert and said, "Get out of my way. I'm going home!" "Your home isn't here. You're living here temporarily." Herbert grabbed my wrist and refused to let go.

"You..."

"It turns out that Bella is not having intimacy with you out of her own will. Bella, did he harass you? Don't be afraid. If he harasses you, I'll call the police immediately and let them deal with him!" After that, Joey picked up her cell phone and began to dial the number. Seeing that Joey was serious, of course, I didn't want the police to take Herbert away. Therefore, the next moment, I quickly waved my hand and said, "No, no!" "Not harassment? Did you do that out of your own will?" Joey stopped dialing and looked up at me. Herbert gave Joey a thumbs-up and said, "Joey, I must treat you to a meal."

Joey, however, was very picky. "I won't go if it's not a big meal."

Only then did I realize that I had been fooled by these two people.

The next moment, I stamped my foot and said, "Joey, who the hell is your friend?" "For a big meal, I can occasionally betray my friend." Joey grinned, then glanced at Herbert and said, "You lived in my house temporarily. Now that you have a home, can you move away? I won't talk to you anymore. I'm too tired. I have to go to work tomorrow. I'll go to bed first. You can continue!" After that, Joey retracted her head and closed the door! "Joey, have you really been bought over by a big meal? Open the door!" I knocked on the door. Herbert grinned, then reached out to pull me over and said, "Let's not disturb the people here. Let's go."

"I won't go with you," I said, Although I didn't want him to be taken away by the police.

But it didn't mean that I could accept his overbearing behavior.

But in the next second, he suddenly bent down and picked me up.

“If you don’t want to leave, I’ll carry you away.” Feeling dizzy, I instinctively grabbed Herbert’s collar out of self-protection. Herbert glanced at my hand and then teased, “So you want me to carry you away. Why didn’t you tell me earlier?”

Chapter 361

With that, he turned around and carried me downstairs.

Only then did I regain my senses. When I saw him carry me downstairs, I could not help but shout nervously, “Put me down quickly, did you hear me?” “Even if I let you down, Joey won’t take you in,” said the man on top of my head. I turned my little face away and said firmly, “Then I’ll go to the hotel!” However, Herbert’s eyes softened. “Don’t you miss Lucas or Lucky?” My mind changed as soon as I heard the names of Lucas and Lucky.

VITI

These two cute little angels are my weakness.

I missed them so much. I really wanted to see them now. But they were in Herbert’s house. I had to follow him if I wanted to see them. I was very hesitant.

“What a cruel-hearted mother.” Herbert sighed and said.

“You’re the one who’s cruel-hearted.” I immediately retorted.

“So you agreed to come with me?” Herbert’s tone was a little excited as if a certain plan had succeeded.

I didn’t say anything and lowered my head. In my heart, I blamed myself for not being firm enough. How could I compromise with such an overbearing man so quickly?

Out of the corridor, the black Bentley emitted a black and bright light in the night.

When he saw us come out, Connor hurriedly stepped forward and opened the rear door.

We got in the car, and the car was being driven fast on the road. His hand was still holding on to my wrist.

This time, I didn’t want to get rid of his hand. I let him hold my wrist like this. In the end, I felt a little pain in my wrist because he used a lot of strength as if he was afraid that I would run away.

I looked at his serious expression.

The wall in my heart was collapsing little by little.

I loved him.

And it could not be denied.

I didn't want to have anything to do with him because of what happened in the past.

But love could not be controlled by anyone. I had been trying hard to suppress my feelings. But I seemed to fail. My heart still followed the love. The road at midnight was extremely clear. Soon after, Connor parked the car in front of the villa's main entrance. Through the window, I looked at the villa in front of me. I knew that there was a special meaning in stepping into this villa tonight. This meant that I had returned to his side, and our family of four was together. Since I had come back with him, I didn't want to continue to be entangled.

I took his hand and walked inside with him.

Bride of Mr.Billion Chapter 362

Chapter 362

Bella's POV:

I had only taken a few steps when I heard a strange sound. "Growl, growl, growl..." It was... the sound of someone's stomach growling. I looked at Herbert and smiled.

Herbert said in an overbearing tone, "Don't laugh. I've been waiting for you tonight, so I didn't have dinner."

When a man said that he had been waiting for me, it was hard for me to not be happy.

I continued to drag his hand and walk inside.

I had only taken two steps when I was stopped by him. "Aren't you going to comfort me?"

Looking at his serious expression, I couldn't help laughing. "The overbearing president's words are really like that of a willful child." "I'll prepare dinner for you." I continued. "Okay!" We just walked inside hand in hand.

An hour later, Herbert, who was sitting at the dining table, ate the last bite of the noodles and then put the empty plate on the table. "Are you full?" "I'm satisfied!" Herbert laughed. "Okay, I'll take the plate and fork to the kitchen." I reached out to take the plate, but he suddenly grabbed my hand.

His other hand also held my other hand. He raised my hands and put them in front of his chest and said affectionately, "I have been looking forward to this day for a long time. You finally came home with me today!" I felt as if I was surrounded by cotton candy, soft and sweet. Perhaps this was happiness? I looked at the tall man in front of me, the man who made my heart beat faster, and the father of my two children. Then I couldn't help but put my face on his chest. While listening to his beating heart, I shouted emotionally, "Herbert." "Huh?" Herbert stroked my hair with his hand. "In the future, our family will never be separated again, okay?" I hugged his waist tightly. I was afraid that this hard-earned happiness would not last long because every time happiness stayed with me for too short. I was so scared now. I was afraid that something would happen again. Not only could I not leave him now, but I could not leave the children either. "No one can separate us from each other!" Herbert said seriously. "Okay." I nodded happily, then curled up in his arms and closed my eyes happily.

He hugged me tightly for a long time before I felt his warm fingers touching my forehead and cheeks, all the way to my lips. When his lips touched me, I immediately pushed his chest away with one hand and covered his mouth with the other.

"I have something to ask you. You can't kiss me before you answer me," I said with a smile. Herbert pulled my hand down and then bent down to pick me up. "Ah, what are you doing?" I instinctively wrapped my arms around Herbert's neck. "Don't you have something to ask me? I'll take you upstairs so that you can ask me properly," Herbert said with a smirk.

"What can't I say in the living room?" At this moment, I had a feeling of being carried away by a wolf. Being carried into a wolf's nest, would I still have a way out?

"The kids, Gary and Miranda are all asleep. Let's not disturb them. Don't wake them up." Herbert's eyes were full of affection.

Herbert carried me straight into the master bedroom. I couldn't help but frown. I pointed to the second bedroom and said, "That's my room."

Herbert gently put me on the bed, then glanced at the big bed, pulled the corner of his mouth, and whispered in my ear, "This bed is big enough for us to go crazy." My heart beat faster, and the crazy scene between me and him appeared in my mind.

He reached out to hold my shoulders, and then his eyes fell on the silk scarf around my neck. He couldn't help but say, "Where did you get such a silk scarf? It's so ugly!"

After that, he reached out and took the scarf from my neck and threw it on the bedside table.

“Hey, what are you doing?” I quickly turned to get the silk scarf but was held in his arms. At this time, Herbert laughed. “So you’re trying to hide some traces.” “Don’t laugh.” I glared at him. “Aren’t these all his works?” The look in Herbert’s eyes immediately became gentle and deep. His fingers gently touched my neck. I could feel that his fingers were very soft, as soft as a feather sweeping over my skin, making me feel itchy all over. Herbert lowered his head to my ear and said in a hoarse voice, “I’m sorry. I hurt you last night.” Hearing such a gentle apology, my heart beat wildly again. “So I’ll be gentler tonight.” By the time he finished speaking, I hadn’t fully realized what was going on. His fingers came to my back and pulled gently. The zipper on my back was pulled open, revealing a large part of my skin. I felt a chill down my spine. Just as I was about to touch the dress on me, his hand was faster. The next moment, the khaki dress fell to the ground along with my body, The next moment, the leopard-print underwear on my body was fully revealed. “Baby, you are too sexy.” His voice was full of desire. His shirt slipped off his body, and his strong chest muscles were exposed in the air. I remembered his strong strength last night, and my body immediately reacted.

1 yearn for his body.

I longed for him to hug me, touch me, and kiss me. I longed for him to fill my body.

I really wanted to stand up and hug him.

But my reason had restrained me. There were some problems that I had to ask about now. I immediately wrapped myself tightly in the blanket and said, “You’re not allowed to come up first. I have something to ask you.” “Okay, go ahead” said Herbert. “Did... did you hold Linda’s hand?” I looked up and asked.

Hearing the question, Herbert frowned.

I immediately pointed at him and said, “Don’t think about it. Just say it.”

“Yes.” Herbert nodded.

“Have you ever kissed Linda?” I asked again.

“Yes.” This time, Herbert answered directly and did not think about it.

I was already a little unhappy. Any woman would mind the man she liked kissing other women.

I took a deep breath and continued to ask, “Have you slept with her?”

Herbert bent down and pinched my chin. “No! Kiss? In fact, I just kissed her forehead.”

I frowned. “Herbert, where else did you want to kiss her?”

Herbert explained, "Bella, I don't want to lie to you. I feel very guilty about Linda. When we were on Puji Island, I told her everything. In order to comfort her, I hugged her and kissed her on the forehead."

Hearing this, I looked up at the deep eyes of Herbert.

His eyes were sincere, and he did not deliberately hide it.

In fact, I was very clear about what happened between him and Linda,

Herbert loved me.

"Maybe I shouldn't care so much."

Herbert suddenly raised his left hand, looked up at the ceiling, and said, "I, Herbert, swear to God that I won't kiss any other woman in the future except for Bella. If I violate it, I will..." Immediately stood up and covered his mouth. "Don't say that." "Okay, I won't say it anymore." Then, he obediently shut his mouth. At this moment, my hand felt a touch of heat. His lips were so hot. I couldn't help touching his lips and outlined them with my fingertips. When I looked up, I saw his affectionate eyes. "Herbert, I love you..."

Bride of Mr.Billion Chapter 363

Chapter 363

Bella's POV:

"I love you, too, baby." Herbert kissed me.

His kiss was gentle and enthusiastic, and my desire was aroused again.

He held me tightly. Even when he took off the rest of his clothes, he was unwilling to let go of me.

I was the same. Soon, we became completely naked. I could clearly feel his hot skin and his hard lower body. This evening, he didn't force his way into my body as he did before. He kissed my body softly.

His hands seemed to have magic power, and as long as he touched my body, it became particularly sensitive.

When he rubbed my chest with his warm big hand, I couldn't help groaning. The next second, he covered my other chest with his mouth. He touched my nipple with his soft tongue.

This wonderful feeling could not be described with words.

Then he continued to suck my nipple, and his hand touched my sensitive hot spot. At that moment, I seemed to have been hit by an electric current.

My body became softer, and the desire forced me to moan louder.

His agile fingers were playing with my private part, and his lips kissed my earlobe. He whispered in my ear, "Oh, my baby, you are so beautiful." "Oh, my baby, I like to listen to your voice. You can groan a little louder." He knew my sensitive parts too well. Every time he massaged and went in and out, no matter in strength or position, it was just right. The pleasure quickly condensed. My body arched up, eager for more, as if everything was not enough. Then he suddenly put two more fingers inside and sped up. His touch hit my most sensitive point. All of a sudden, my mind went blank, and I screamed, "Uh... Ah... Herbert!" Herbert used his hands to bring me to a climax. Then he quickly pulled away from my body. I felt very empty, as if all this was not enough. My body was still longing for more. Before I could say anything, the next second, Herbert's hard lower body suddenly entered my body. "Ah..." The feeling of being suddenly filled made me scream again. I just experienced a climax. I still felt very sensitive. I could clearly feel that my lower body was shrinking. Right at this moment, I heard Herbert's deep, hoarse voice ringing in my ear. "Oh, baby, you're too tight."

"Ah... I can hardly move. Relax, dear." Herbert kissed me gently.

The heavy breathing of Herbert was really fascinating.

I hooked one of my hands around his neck and deliberately moved my butt up and down. At the same time, my other hand touched his butt.

Herbert groaned.

I was about to move, but he pressed me down.

"What a naughty girl."

After he finished speaking, he began to speed up.

In the beginning, I completely enjoyed it.

However, this fellow was still going strong, and both his speed and strength were becoming more and more powerful.

After several climaxes, my body couldn't bear it anymore.

For the last two times, I almost cried out, crying and saying no.

But it was useless. The more I said no, the more strength he would exert, It was not until the latter half of the night that he finished. I could finally go to bed.

as

He hugged me from behind, but he still refused to get out of my body.

“Herbert, I’m tired.” I begged.

Let me go

Although it was a happy thing to have sex. But my husband was too fierce. I really couldn’t bear it.

Herbert snickered. “I won’t do it again. Don’t worry, go to sleep.”

I was exhausted to the extreme, so I didn’t want to talk to him at all.

Just as I was about to fall asleep, he started again. My body was sensitive. I resisted it at first.

But I still failed to resist his teasing.

So after another climax, I was a little afraid that he would come near.

“Don’t come over.” I covered my body with the quilt. Herbert said with a smile, “Good girl, I really won’t continue again. I just want to sleep with you in my arms.”

“I don’t believe you.” I didn’t want to get out of the quilt. This man was like a beast. I thought that he would directly lift my quilt, but I didn’t expect that he didn’t do that. He hugged me through the quilt. “Dear, thank you for your hard work.” I asked, “Did you take the aphrodisiac?” “Are you kidding me? I’m originally powerful! And it’s also because you’re too sweet that I lost control of myself..”

“That’s great! Baby, you’ve really returned to my side.”

Just like that, we started to sleep.

Because I was too tired, I soon lost consciousness.

When I woke up again, it was already the next day.

I was late again!

This was the second time this week. I was a little annoyed.

Of course, I was still wearing the scarf on my neck, which was said to be very ugly by Herbert, because there were many hickeys on my neck. When I walked into the office in a long green dress, the female employees of Group Six all looked up at me for a few seconds.

Realizing that their eyes were not looking right, I panicked a little and then hurried into my office. I lowered my head and checked myself for a long time. There was nothing wrong with my clothes, my face was clean, and the scarf on my neck had completely covered the hickeys. There should be nothing wrong with my appearance.

At this time, I felt a little relieved and sat on the leather chair, letting out a sign of relief.

This morning, when I woke up, Herbert was no longer in bed.

I knew that he must have gone to work early. Although he only needed to show up at work at nine o'clock, he would sit in his office and deal with official business at about eight o'clock.

After washing up and opening the wardrobe, I was shocked by the scene in front of me!

The wardrobe was full of my clothes, underwear, shoes, and bags, which were several times more than the ones he had asked those sales girls to send to me a few days ago. The wardrobe was almost full of them.

Seeing this, I opened my eyes wide, but I was very happy because these clothes were all my favorite styles.

And the size was very suitable.

So he finally learned to see things from my point of view? Then I felt that something was wrong. There were so many things, and they were neatly placed in the wardrobe. They were definitely not sent in the morning. It turned out that he had planned it a long time ago.

I picked a green dress and a pair of milky white leather shoes from the wardrobe and came to work.

Every step I took, I felt that my body hurt a lot. It was all because of that fierce beast, Herbert.

I just got back to reality.

At this time...

Knock... Knock... Knock... Suddenly, someone knocked on the office door. I quickly tidied up the scarf around my neck and shouted, "Come in!"

The next moment, the door was pushed open.

Bride of Mr.Billion Chapter 364

Chapter 364

It was Linia who walked in.

Linia walked to my desk, put a document in front of me, and said with a smile, "Bella, the case has been dealt with. I need your signature on it." "Okay." I lowered my head and looked through the document. Then I picked up the pen and signed my name. After signing, I smiled and handed the document back to Linia with both hands. Linia took the document. Just as she was about to leave, she suddenly thought of something. She turned to me and said with a smile, "Bella, your clothes these days are so beautiful. They must be of luxury brands and must be very expensive. All the women outside are envious!" Hearing this, I looked down at my clothes, reached out to touch my face, and quickly denied, "It's just a high-end imitation. It's not expensive."

I didn't expect that they would talk about my clothes. These colleagues were so lame. Linia, however, raised her eyebrows and said, "Bella, don't be so modest. Right now, you're with Connor from Wharton Group. His wealth can't be underestimated. I heard that he's a shareholder of Wharton Group. I'm sure he bought all of your clothes for you, right?" "No... No." Hearing this, I was stunned. "Heavens! They are spreading rumors about me and Connor. What should I do?" I had a bit of a headache.

"Manager, you don't have to deny it, do you? Even though you are divorced, right now, you are still single, and Connor is also single. There isn't a problem with you two dating." Linia laughed. "Oh." In the end, I gave up on explaining. "Let them say whatever they want. I don't care about the mouths of these women."

At this time, there was a sudden noise outside.

I exchanged looks with Linia, and then I went out immediately, followed by Linia.

As soon as I walked out of the office, I saw an angry man shouting and throwing several documents on the desk to the ground. When I took a closer look, I saw that it was Jeremy. He was dressed in sloppy clothes and his hair was messy. He was completely different from his previous appearance. I frowned when I saw him. "Weren't Jeremy and Selina taken away by the police? Why is he out now?" I thought.

Jeremy cursed loudly, "I was fired by the company, but I have to get back my things, right? D*mn Stephen Firm, I've worked for you for so many years but you fired me at will, and you wanted to send me to prison. Now that I'm out, when will you give me the compensation?" He was a little crazy now, and all the people in the office dared not to pay attention to him, for fear that he would make trouble, because everyone knew that he was a despicable villain.

“How did he get released?” I asked in a low voice. Linia, who was next to me, replied in a low voice, “I heard that he was released two days ago, because Jessica is the main criminal. He is only an accomplice, and he did not directly get money from the rival of the company.

He has lost his job, and other people probably don't dare to hire him. He has house-loan to pay, and his wife wants to divorce him. I think he really can't stand it anymore, so he came here to make trouble.”

When I heard these words, I couldn't feel even the slightest bit of sympathy for Jeremy when I saw his reckless act regardless of his image. Although he had lost his job, his marriage, and his career...

However, he asked for all these things. As long as he had a little principle in doing things in the past, he would not end up like this.

I was now the manager of Group Six. Naturally, I wouldn't let him continue to affect the employees' work here. But I had a feud with him. If I showed up, I would definitely be attacked.

So, the next moment, I told Linia, “Call the security guards and call Linda!” “Okay.” Linia nodded and quickly shrank back into my office to make a phone call.

At this time, in the blink of an eye, the crazy Jeremy suddenly looked at me.

He walked up to me and said in a loud voice, “Isn't this Bella? Should I call you manager now? You chased me and Jessica away and got the position of manager!”

I glanced at him with disgust. He had never changed even after being taught a lesson. People like him were so mean.

“You should know very well how you and Jessica left. If you hadn't made a mistake and framed others, how could you end up like this?” I was extremely angry with him and Selina. If it hadn't been for Herbert at the critical moment, I would have been the one to lose my reputation and go to jail after being fired.

My words angered him. He raised his hand and was about to hit me. “B*tch, I've been unlucky since you came to Stephen Firm. Let me teach you a lesson today!”

I saw his hand that was landing and took two steps back. Seeing that he didn't manage to hit me, Jeremy was so angry that he wanted to strangle me. I frowned and my mind was a little confused because Jeremy had already gone mad. I estimated that he could just do anything. Fortunately, the security guards arrived. The two security guards grabbed Jeremy's hands and controlled him. Jeremy still wanted to struggle, but he was no match for the two strong security guards. He could only be taken away by force.

When he was taken away, he kept cursing me, "B*tch, I won't let you go!" I looked at the crazy Jeremy in front of me, and I despised him in my heart. "Bella, are you okay?" Linia held me. "I'm okay. Fortunately, the security guards arrived in time." I shook my head. At this time, Linda walked in quickly from the outside, followed by her assistant and the staff of the HR department. Linda glanced at me, and then she pointed to Jeremy who was controlled by the security guards and warned, "Jeremy, I warn you not to make trouble in the company, or I'll send you to the police station immediately!"

Seeing Linda, Jeremy was no longer arrogant. Instead, he complained and begged Linda, "Linda, didn't make any trouble. I only came here to take my things. My things were all taken away by that woman. She must have wanted to take revenge on me."

Linda looked at me and I said, "His things are in the storage room. I've asked someone to bring them here."

I looked at the pile of things in the corner. Linda nodded and said to Jeremy, "Your things are over there. Take them and leave quickly. Don't let me see you again in the future!" Linda winked at the security guards, and the two security guards let go of Jeremy. He walked dejectedly to the corner and moved his things. After taking two steps, he immediately turned back and knelt down in front of Linda in front of everyone's eyes! Linda was shocked. She immediately took a step back and exclaimed, "What are you doing?" Jeremy bowed to Linda and begged, "Linda, I beg you, take pity on me. I am now fired by the company, and my wife wants to divorce me. I can no longer stay in this industry in the future!"

Hearing this, Linda frowned and shook her head. "Jeremy, the decision of expelling you was made by the company's board of directors, and there's nothing I can do about it! What happened today was all caused by you."

Jeremy nodded immediately and said, "I know, I know. I'm not asking you to let me come back to work. Look, I really can't even afford to feed myself now. Linda, I know you are a good person. Can you tell the executive of the company to send me some severance pay?"

As soon as he said that, everyone's eyes widened.

I shook my head speechlessly.

After he had made such a mistake.

It was a good thing that the company did not pursue his responsibility for money. He even dared to ask the company for money. The two most shameless men I had seen were Jeremy and my biological father, Ryan. I found that Ryan and Jeremy were really the same type of people. They were not worthy of pity. Linda, of course, would not take responsibility for this kind of thing. She sneered and said, "Jeremy, do you know who the general manager hates most? Someone who's taking the company's salary, but betrayed the company."

Bride of Mr. Billion Chapter 365

Chapter 365

Bella's POV:

Linda continued, "It's already the greatest mercy for the company not to blame you for the loss to the company, so you'd better not make any unreasonable demands. If you don't leave now, the security will drive you out directly."

After that, Linda crossed her arms over her chest. Seeing that he couldn't take advantage of her at all, Jeremy quickly picked up his things and left. But when he walked to the door, he still cursed angrily. "I wish that you'll close down in the future!"

After Jeremy left, everyone was very happy. Linda motioned for everyone to continue working and then walked into my office. As soon as the door was closed, Linda said with a smile, "I forgot to tell you that Selina has been sentenced to one-year imprisonment. Jeremy is acquitted, but his reputation is completely ruined. I didn't expect that he would still have the face to come and ask for the dismissal fee."

"A man like him would have been at a disadvantage if he hadn't taken advantage of us." I nodded.

However, Selina's one-year imprisonment surprised me. Originally, I thought that she would just have to compensate. At most, she would be sentenced to a few months. I didn't expect that she would be sentenced to a year's imprisonment.

At this time, Linda suddenly put her arms in front of her chest and said with regret, "In fact, Jessica is good-looking and smart. It's just that she's not honest. Otherwise, she would have a bright future."

"No matter how capable she is, if she has a bad character, she won't have a good ending." I sighed. "Well, let's not talk about her. It will affect my mood. I'm very busy, so I'll leave first." After Linda finished speaking, she turned and left my office.

It was noon in the blink of an eye.

My stomach began to growl. After all, I didn't eat in the morning, and I had such intense exercise last night. I was very hungry now.

What should I eat?

Ring... Ring...

Just as I was thinking about what to eat later, the phone on the table suddenly rang. I took the phone and saw that it was Herbert's number on the screen. I couldn't help but smile. Then I deliberately let my phone ring a few more times before I answered the phone. "Hello?" "Are you very busy?" Herbert's deep and unique voice came from the other end. I raised an eyebrow and said, "A little."

I was late for half an hour in the morning, and Jeremy came over to make trouble. I almost didn't do anything in the morning, okay? "Let's have lunch together at noon" said Herbert, ..." I didn't have time to speak. Then he added, "I'll wait for you downstairs in five minutes." ed to ask what to eat, but Herbert had already hung up.

Putting down my phone, I pouted. He asked me out for lunch and only said a few words. His tone was so stiff, completely different from the passionate man last night.

I couldn't help murmuring in my heart, "Stupid man, you will do anything to get on my bed. After that, you're difficult to deal with again. It seems that I can't let him succeed so easily next time." When I got off work at noon, I walked out of the office with my bag on my back. Linia stepped forward and said with a smile, "Bella, I'm going out to buy lunch. Do you want me to buy you something?"

"Thank you. No need. I have a date with a friend." I refused with a smile.

At this time, a group of female colleagues in the office laughed and said, "Linia, Bella's boyfriend must have asked her out for lunch. Can't you see that?"

"So that's how it is. No wonder Bella has dressed up very beautifully in the past two days." Hearing their teasing, I walked out of the office of Group Six with a smile.

Ever since the incident between Selina and Jeremy was exposed, I felt that I was much more popular in the office. Of course, this had something to do with me being promoted to the Group Leader, but I would rather believe that they had heard the slanders of Linia and Jeremy before, so they deliberately distanced themselves from me.

As soon as I walked out of the office, Linia chased after me. "Bella, Bella."

"Linia, what's the matter?" I pressed the button of the elevator and asked.

Linia went into the elevator with me and said with a smile, "Bella, my colleagues entrusted me to talk to you."

Seeing that Linia was very serious and a little hard to speak, I frowned and asked, "Just say what you want to say. Don't be restrained."

Hearing this, Linia quickly said, “Bella, I knew you’re a broad-minded person. You wouldn’t mind what we had done in the past. In the past, we listened to... what others said, and we misunderstood you. Now we know that we shouldn’t have judged you. I’m sorry!” I didn’t expect that the people in Group Six would send Linia to apologize to me. To be honest, I naturally wanted to blend in with my colleagues as soon as possible, and this would also help me to work in the future. Of course, I didn’t take the past to heart. After all, these people only listened to others and alienated me. They didn’t do anything to hurt me. I patted her on the shoulder with a smile and said, “Don’t worry, I didn’t take it to heart. We’ll work hard together in the future and we can be good friends in private.” “Okay, okay.” Linia nodded repeatedly.

Then, the elevator arrived. Linia smiled and waved at me. “Bella, enjoy your date! I’ll go and buy lunch now.” I couldn’t help but smile when I saw that Linia’s chubby body running far away. Walking out of the office building, I looked up at the blue sky above my head. I was in a good mood, so I happily hummed a song.

As soon as I stepped down the stairs, a black luxury car steadily parked in front of me. Immediately after, Connor ran down from the driver’s seat and opened the back door for me. After getting in the car, Herbert glanced at my smiling face and couldn’t help asking, “You seem to be in a good mood today.” “I’m happy to see you,” I said with a smile. Herbert didn’t believe me. “I don’t think I have such a big influence.” I said with a smile, “Selina has been sentenced to prison for a year. Although Jeremy is acquitted, he has been fired by Stephen Firm and will no longer have a foothold in the same industry in the future.”

The conflict between me and my colleagues had also been resolved, and my work would be smoother and smoother in the future.

I had reconciled with Herbert and we had two lovely children. Everything went so smoothly. How could I not be happy?

Bella’s POV: “Since you’re in such a good mood, I’ll take you to have a big meal. You should eat more and gain a little fat. It will look better when you wear a wedding dress.” Herbert pinched my chin and suddenly said.

Hearing this, I was stunned for a moment, then blushed and said, “Who wants to wear a wedding dress?”

At this moment, my heart was full of unusual passion. What did he mean? Was this considered a proposal?

“Nothing. I was just saying.” Herbert raised his eyebrows. Then, he lowered his head to deal with official business. But I was a little disappointed. In fact, I was looking forward to the wedding with Herbert. Although we already had two children and had gone through so many things.

But I hadn’t had a wedding yet.

I hoped that he would take the initiative to mention the wedding to me.

I was a person with strong self-esteem. If I had to take the initiative to say to Herbert, “Please marry me. When will we get married?”

This sentence was very difficult for me.

Soon, the car stopped in front of a French western restaurant a few minutes later. Through the glass window, I saw that the door of this western restaurant was particularly tall, and there were top luxury cars parked around it.

I could not help saying, “It’s just lunch. Why does it have to be so grand? I only have one and a half hours to rest at noon. I can’t be late in the afternoon no matter what.”

I felt bad for being late several times in a week.

“I’ve already booked the seats and dishes. You won’t be late.” With Herbert’s guarantee, I was dragged into this high-end French western restaurant. Sitting by the window upstairs, one could overlook a block nearby. The restaurant was French classical palace style. The waiter was polite, and even the tableware was painted with gold and silver, which was very noble.

On a high platform hung with beaded curtains in the middle of the hall, a curly-haired beauty wearing a long white dress and a golden belt was playing the piano seriously. The soft piano song floated gently in every corner of the restaurant.

As soon as Herbert sat down with me, the waiter placed the dishes on the table one after another. He didn’t lie to me. I looked around. Although the restaurant was big, there were not many people eating. There were only five or six tables that were occupied

“Is it very expensive to dine here?” I asked in a low voice after the waiter left.

Hearing this, Herbert grinned. Then he shook off the white napkin and spread it on his legs.

“Although it’s a little expensive, I like it here.”

“There are only a few tables of people in such a big restaurant. Will it be closed soon?” Looking at the empty seats, I was a little worried about this restaurant. Seeing me like this, the corners of Herbert’s mouth twitched and he put a piece of cut steak on the plate in front of me. “This kind of high-end restaurant is not prepared for ordinary people, so it has great profits. If it is also crowded here, I don’t think anyone will come here in the future, because not only the dishes here are top-notch, but also the environment here.”

I really didn’t understand the world of the rich. That world was too far away from me.

I looked up at the man in front of me who was from that world. It was amazing to think about it. I was actually with him, and we had two lovely babies. “What are you thinking about?” Herbert frowned and asked.

I raised my head to meet his inquiring gaze and puffed up my cheeks. “Nothing at all. The rich man has invited me to such a high-class restaurant today. I have to focus on the food here!” “Then eat more,” said Herbert. The steak and goose liver here were really delicious. I ate a few mouthfuls in a row. “You didn’t have breakfast today, did you?” Herbert suddenly asked.

“How can I have time to eat? It was almost nine o’clock when I got up, and I was late today.” I puffed up my cheeks and answered.

As soon as I saw his dark eyes in front of me, my face turned red inexplicably, and the crazy scene of last night flashed through my mind. My cheeks suddenly became hot. In front of him, I would always be shy, just like now.

Bride of Mr.Billion Chapter 367

Chapter 367

Herbert’s POV:

I liked to see her blushing and shy look. I felt that she was the cutest, and I liked to flirt with her the most. I liked to see her being nervous and shy.

“It seems that I’m too strong. Well, from now on, we will limit the number of times from Monday to Friday, and it will be unlimited during the weekends. What do you think?”

Sure enough, Bella’s face became redder. A pair of beautiful eyes were looking around as if to make sure that no one around us had heard me.

I smiled even more happily.

“Please restrain yourself. We’re at the dining table now. Don’t talk about anything on the bed.” She reached out to cover her forehead. I couldn’t help laughing. To be honest, I didn’t smile often.

But as long as I was with Bella, I would always be very happy.

At this time, I saw that Bella's lips were raised. It could be seen that Bella was actually very happy.

Just as we were enjoying the meal happily, a man's voice came. "Mr. Wharton, are you eating here as well? What a coincidence!" A very handsome man dressed in a silver tuxedo walked over, greeting me warmly. "Ah, William, it's such a coincidence that you're also eating here." I was still sitting in my chair and did not get up. However, the person bowed to me with great enthusiasm. William was the son of Daniel Morgan, the chairman of K.G. Software Company.

Bella's POV:

I didn't expect to meet William here.

I immediately thought of Emma. I turned my head and saw a very beautiful young woman sitting near the window not far from us. She should be William's female companion today. I didn't see Emma, so I was confused. William dared to bring another woman here for a meal behind Emma's back? Did he really have the guts to do that? Emma would definitely cause trouble for him. It reminded me of the charity party not long ago. In front of Connie and Emma, William didn't dare to say no.

It was understandable. His old father, Daniel Morgan, was now obsessed with Connie. He even threatened that he would strip William of his inheritance if he didn't marry Emma.

I really pitied William, because I had a terrible father like him.

And our terrible fathers were hurt by the same woman.

At this moment, William's face was wreathed in smiles as he grabbed Herbert's hand. "Mr. Wharton,

I don't even know how to thank you. In the future, as long as you need me, feel free to ask. I will definitely do my best!" I looked at Herbert, puzzled.

Hearing these words, Herbert just smiled slightly. "It's just a small matter. I have my own selfish motives in helping you..." "No matter what your purpose is, you really helped me. I'll pay for this meal. I really can't find anything else that I can do for you." William smiled,

Being held by his hand, Herbert seemed a little uncomfortable. He got rid of William's hand and withdrew his own hand. Then he looked at me and said, "Today, I invited the mother of my children to have lunch here. I'm afraid that I will lose face if I let you pay the bill."

“Mother of your children? Mr. Wharton, so you’re already married. I thought you were a single noble.” After speaking, William turned to look at me.

“Mrs. Wharton...” When William saw me, he was stunned.

When I saw William, I felt a little embarrassed. When I met him in the past, I was still Klein’s girlfriend. But now, I became the mother of Herbert’s children.

While facing William, I could only nod and smile generously. “Ah, William, nice to see you.” “Miss Stepanek, I didn’t expect...I would run into you here. You and Mr. Wharton...” William didn’t even know what to say.

I didn’t know how to respond to such an awkward situation.

Fortunately, at this time, Herbert said in a domineering tone, “Bella is my woman!”

Hearing that, William was stunned, but I felt warm in my heart. His eyes were fixed on me as if he was declaring his sovereignty.

Only now did William come to his senses. He hurriedly said in a fawning manner, “Mr. Wharton, you have a good taste. There are simply too many beautiful, gentle, and generous women like Miss Stepanek. It’s because of your charm that you managed to successfully pursue her.”

Although there was a hint of flattery in William’s words, and Herbert would not normally buy such words, he seemed to be very happy today, and the corners of his mouth were raised.

“Ah, William, I’m afraid your female companion has been waiting for a long time. Don’t ignore her.” At this time, Herbert looked at the young, fashionable woman sitting not far away.

William bid him farewell as soon as he heard that.

Then he turned back to his seat.

After William left, I lowered my head and didn’t look at Herbert. “What’s wrong?” Herbert asked.

“No, I... Did I embarrass you?” I asked tentatively.

After all, Klein was Herbert’s younger cousin, and I almost married him. Klein was someone who couldn’t be underestimated in A City. In the future, if he brought me to all sorts of places, there would definitely be such a scene today. Herbert was one of the most important figures in A City. His wife almost married his cousin. The relationship between us was very chaotic. At this time, a big warm hand suddenly covered my hand.

I looked up and met his deep eyes.

“Back then, I was the one who had badly hurt you, which was why you were in touch with Klein. This isn’t your fault. This is all my fault.” Herbert said sincerely.

Hearing that, I pursed my lips into a smile,

A moment later, I suddenly thought of something and asked, “Right, you...are you still blaming Klein?” I had always wanted to ask this question, but I had never had a chance. This time, I finally asked.

To be honest, I didn’t want the two cousins, Herbert and Klein, to end up in a deadlock because of me. That way, I wouldn’t be at ease.

“Klein and I definitely won’t be able to return to the past.” Herbert frowned.

Bride of Mr.Billion Chapter 368

Chapter 368

Bella’s POV:

Hearing these words, I felt a bit sad, but I didn’t dare to put in a good word for Klein in front of Herbert boyfriend.

I was worried that he might be jealous.

Herbert continued, “Don’t worry. Although he has done something harmful to me and Lucas, he didn’t have any evil intentions. Besides, he has been taking care of you and Lucky for so long. I’m very grateful for that. Although my relationship with him is no longer as close as before, I won’t treat him as an enemy.”

Hearing this, I nodded with relief and then asked, “Do you also... know that Lucas had a car accident?”

Herbert nodded.

“When did you find out?” I asked. “When that happened, I suspected it was him. I didn’t expect it to really be him.” Herbert replied. Hearing this, I frowned. “Then why didn’t you mention it to me?”

The corner of Herbert's lips twitched. "At that time, you were very biased against me. Even if I said it, would you believe me? You would probably think that I was intentionally slandering Klein."

Indeed. At that time, I wouldn't believe anything he said, much less when he spoke ill of Klein. Thinking of the past, I suddenly felt a little heavy in my heart. I took a deep breath and then looked back at William and the young and beautiful woman sitting not far away.

"A while ago, Klein helped William win the inheritance case." At this time, Herbert suddenly said.

Hearing this, I looked back and couldn't help frowning as I looked at Herbert and asked, "An inheritance case?"

Herbert explained, "Perhaps William was forced into a corner. Daniel listens to Connie a lot. If this continues, he'll probably transfer the entire family fortune to her and her daughter. Also, William was probably forced to marry Emma, so he made a desperate bet and asked Klein to help him carry out a lawsuit. He decided to inherit the inheritance left behind by his mother."

"What's the result?" I asked.

In fact, I could understand William. His father had gone too far, forcing his son to marry his wife's daughter. This was too much. Connie was obviously with him for money. If William didn't make a move, she would probably finish all Daniel's money in a few years. "In the end, William inherited twenty-five percent of the entire Ye family's assets, because Daniel also has the inheritance rights of his mother's fifty percent of the assets," Herbert replied. Even if it was twenty-five percent, it would be fine. Otherwise, William would not even be able to get a single cent.

08 34 "Daniel was very angry about his son's lawsuit with him, so now William has been expelled from his house by him. This matter became a joke in the upper class of A City for a while, but everyone sympathizes with William. At least William won the public opinion," said Herbert.

I looked into his eyes and asked with a smile, "Did you participate in it?"

Hearing these words, Herbert pursed his lips. "Back then, I owed William a big favor, so I should return it to him. There used to be a lot of business opportunities between the Capgemini Company and the Wharton Group. Whether it's out of justice or selfish motives, I should help William collect evidence."

Hearing that, I nodded and then asked, "Do you owe William a favor because of me?"

Herbert pursed his lips into a smile. He pinched my hand and said, "Don't worry. I'm done with this favor."

"Thank you," I said sincerely.

Two times in a row. If it weren't for him, I wouldn't have been able to become an official employee of Stephen Firm. I might have to go to jail in the future.

At this time, Herbert's eyes flashed. He leaned forward and said in a low voice, "I prefer you to thank me with practical actions."

Looking into his playful and ambiguous eyes, I immediately understood what he meant. So my face turned red and I wanted to withdraw my hand.

He pinched my fingers hard and protested, "Your gratitude is not sincere at all."

"You're not pure-minded," I retorted.

"I'm just not pure to you." Herbert looked at me, his eyes full of affection

Hearing this, I was in a great mood.

Herbert's words were getting sweeter and sweeter

As we were eating, we suddenly heard the loud voice of a woman.

"Ah, William, do you think I won't be able to find you just because you've come here?"

Hearing this voice, I frowned.

Then I turned my head and saw a young woman in a red dress rushing to William and the young woman's table. She was pointing at William's nose and scolding him

The originally quiet western restaurant became noisy because of her. Even the woman who was playing the piano stopped playing. Several guests looked at William's table.

"Emma, I've already made it clear to you. Don't continue pestering me." William looked at the people around him. His voice was very low.

"You've made it clear to me? You've slept with me so many times. Are they for nothing? I'm telling you, I'm not short of money now, and it's useless for you to pay for it. I want you to marry me. Now, come with me to get the marriage certificate!" Emma shouted with her hands on her waist.

"In order to get married, it takes two parties' willingness. How can there be someone like you who force me to marry you? I'm telling you clearly today that I won't marry you. I don't want to see you in the future, and I don't want to see your mother either. Go away immediately!" William was so angry that he threw the napkin in his hand on the table.

William's words caused tears to well up in Emma's eyes, who had been acting so aggressively just truly like you. I've sacrificed so much for you, yet you're actually so heartless to me?" William felt very hot and he took the menu to fan himself, but he had no reaction to Emma's confession at all. He despised this woman from the bottom of his heart.

This angered Emma. She glanced at the young woman sitting opposite William, grabbed the woman's hair, and shouted, "B*tch, did you seduce William? Do you know that he has a fiancée? I'll beat you to death!"

After that, Emma slapped the young woman in the face.

Bride of Mr.Billion Chapter 369

Chapter 369

Bella's POV:

The strange lady was so pitiful. She was beaten by Emma so hard that she cried loudly and kept calling for help. Maybe she had never experienced such a situation and had no ability to resist at all.

When William saw this, he immediately stepped forward and grabbed Emma's hand. "Emma, let go right now. Do you hear me?" he warned.

"You're still protecting this vixen. I'll scratch her face and see how she'll come out to seduce another man!" Seeing William protecting that woman, Emma became even angrier. She reached out and used her sharp fingernails to cut that woman's face.

The woman's shrill voice was simply floating in the whole restaurant.

I couldn't help but sympathize with that lady. I wanted to stop Emma, but Herbert stopped me.

He said, "That's their business. They can handle it by themselves."

I nodded and sat down again.

Emma was very agitated. It seemed that she was really sad. Maybe she really had feelings for William. This time, she also had a taste of sadness. It was not like when she used to play with other men's feelings among different men. At that moment, William was finally enraged.

He reached out and pushed Emma to the ground. Then he hugged his female companion and asked with concern, "Are you okay?"

The woman's face was covered with scars at the moment, and she was in so much pain that her tears were falling out of her eyes. Her voice was very soft. "William, who is she? Why did she hit me?"

"She's my ex-girlfriend. Don't worry. I'll get a lawyer to sue her and make her suffer the punishment she deserves!" William shot a cold glance at the woman sitting on the floor.

Hearing this, Emma who had been pushed down was very distressed. She asked in a sharp voice, "William, you're really cruel. I've been with you for so long, but you want to sue me? I've always been so nice to you."

"I never asked you to treat me well, and it was you who pestered me and used your mother to father. My father threatened to not allow me to inherit his property, and let me marry you. Emma, to tell you the truth, I don't want to marry you even if I die, because being with you is really more unbearable than going to jail. I really can't stand it any more, so I had a lawsuit with my father. I would rather not get 75% of my father's property, I would rather cut off the father-son relationship with my father rather than face you every day!" William said bitterly, pouring out all the grievances of the past two years. Emma burst into tears and then cursed loudly, "William, you b*stard!" William, on the other hand, said coldly, "Wait for my lawyer to look for you." After that, he thoughtfully held the woman in his arms and turned to leave. "William, I curse you and that woman to die!" Emma took off the high heels on her feet and threw them at their back.

However, they had already gone far, and their high heels fell a few meters away.

At this time, the waiter came over, bowed his head, and said to the girl who was still crying on the floor, "Miss, you have already affected our guest's meal. Please leave immediately, or you will bear the loss of the guest."

Hearing this, Emma got up from the ground in an imposing manner, wearing only a high heel. She shouted at the waiter angrily, "What are you doing? Are you afraid that I can't afford it? Isn't this a place for people to eat? Let me tell you, I have money, a lot of money. Don't look down on me!"

"Miss, I'm sorry. I didn't mean what you said. I was just afraid that you would disturb other guests meal."

"It's best if you don't!" Emma rolled her eyes at the attendant and turned to leave.

However, at this time, Emma suddenly looked at us.

I didn't want Emma to see me, but she did. I couldn't pretend that I didn't see her. That would be more hypocritical.

And I knew that Emma would definitely scream at me like a dog, because it was her character."

Sure enough, the next moment, after recovering her senses, Emma stepped on a high-heeled shoe and walked to the front of me and Herbert.

I didn't want to talk to her.

However, Emma mocked me, "Bella, you're really capable. I really admire you now. You didn't get married to Klein, and now you're back looking for Mr. Wharton. There really isn't a man you can't handle! You're just a whore." "Emma." Hearing this, Herbert was about to teach her a lesson. I interrupted Herbert. "The rule in my case is that you must never find a man with a wife. You and your mother, as long as you see a good man, no matter if he has a wife or a girlfriend, you must pursue that man. You are really amazing."

"You..." Emma couldn't say a word.

At this moment, Herbert looked at me with a faint smile, and then stretched out his hand to give me a thumbs-up.

I smiled at him and then raised my chin.

At this moment, I felt very happy, especially Emma's face that had been suppressed like an eggplant. I had wanted to teach her a lesson a long time ago, but I didn't expect that this day would come so soon.

Bride of Mr. Billion Chapter 370

Chapter 370

Bella's POV:

The next moment, Emma took a deep breath and said to me with a sneer, "Humph, let me tell you, my mother and I are having a good life now. My mother left your father. Now she is the wife of the chairman, and I am also the daughter of the chairman. Our lives now are many times better than before."

“The most pitiful thing is your incompetent father and your mother who had lived for half of her life. By the way, I heard that your sister was also abandoned by a man. Your sister threatened to jump into the river with her child and begged the man to take her in. Is that true?” Emma was making fun of me. I didn’t have any feelings at all.

But she laughed at my mom. Then I stood up, picked up a glass of lemonade on the table, and splashed it on Emma’s face! In an instant, her face and body were full of water. She raised her hand angrily to hit me. I reached out to hold her hand. Her eyes were wide open, and her momentum was very weak.

“Bella, don’t go too far!” Emma shouted at me.

“Who on earth is going too far? Emma, if you dare to mention my mother again, I will teach you a lesson.” After that, I let go of her hand and pushed her.

Emma was pushed back two steps. At this time, some guests began to be dissatisfied.

“Is your restaurant really a high-end restaurant? How can you allow such a crazy woman to come in?”

“That’s right. It affects our interest in eating.”

At this time, the waiter had come over with two security guards.

“Miss, you have seriously disturbed the management of our restaurant. If you still don’t leave, we will let the security guard ask you to leave.” Although the waiter spoke politely, his tone was very tough.

Looking at me, who was not easy to mess with, and then at the two burly security guards, Emma knew that she would suffer a loss today, but she still raised her chin and said, “Bella, just you wait and see!”

After that, Emma put on the high-heeled shoe with one foot bare and limped to her other shoe. Then she put it on awkwardly and left the restaurant. After Emma left, I sat back in my seat. Looking at me, Herbert twitched the corner of his mouth and showed a smile. “What are you laughing at?” I frowned. “You were so powerful just now.” Herbert said. I couldn’t help rolling my eyes. “Are you praising me or mocking me?” Herbert laughed and said, “Of course, I’m praising you.” Immediately, both of us laughed.

I felt that the whole world was beautiful now. Even if Ryan, Connie, Emma, and others appeared in my life, they had long been covered by the beauty in front of me.

If I could stay happy at this moment, then my life would be wonderful.

I held Herbert’s hand tightly. Because this happiness was too difficult to come by, I cherished it very much.

“By the way, at that time... why did you suddenly fall into my arms when you were drunk in the bar alone?” Herbert asked curiously.

“Because I was fascinated by your handsome appearance, I pretended to be drunk and fell into your arms. At that time, I really couldn’t think of any better way to hit on you.” I laughed and teased. His eyes were fixed on me. He shook his head and said, “I don’t accept your insincere words.”

I revealed the truth with a smile. “I was abandoned by my boyfriend. He went abroad with a rich girl. I couldn’t stand the blow for a while, so I came out to get drunk.”

“And then?” At this time, Herbert continued to ask with interest.

“Then I met you. You look good, so I bumped into your arms.” After that, I picked up the cup and took a big gulp of water.

Hearing this, Herbert smiled, revealing two rows of white teeth. “I guess you didn’t even see how I looked like, did you?”

I had to admit that he was right.

I really didn’t see what he looked like at that time, because I was completely drunk at that time.

I didn’t say anything, but Herbert smiled again. “Your luck is not bad. You bumped into a handsome guy’s arms.” “I’m really lucky,” I said with a smile.

“Actually, in my heart, I’m very grateful to that ex-boyfriend who cheated on me. If he hadn’t cheated on me, I wouldn’t have had the chance to find such a good treasure.”

Herbert’s words made me in a good mood, so I teased him, “Do you want me to ask someone to find his contact information and ask you to thank him in person, or send him an honorary letter?”

“That’s not necessary. I’m afraid he’ll regret it and continue to pursue you. I’ll be sad.”
